In the first quarter of 2010 América Móvil added 5.5 million subscribers 41.3% more than last year bringing to 206.4 million our wireless subscriber base. Our Brazilian operations gained 1.2 million subscribers, followed by Mexico, with 1.1 million and Tracfone in the US with just over a million. Several operations recorded higher subscriber gains than last year.

First quarter revenues of 98.7 billion pesos were up 9.8% year-on-year. Data revenues continued to grow rapidly and have reached 21.3% of service revenues. ARPUs increased in several countries.

Operating income grew 11.1% to 29.4 billion pesos. They were equivalent to nearly 30% of revenues.

We generated a net income of 16.9 billion pesos that was equivalent to 52 peso cents per share and 82 dollar cents per ADR.

Our net debt came down by 17.2 billion pesos in the quarter to 66.4 billion pesos in March. Our capital outlays totaled 10.8 billion pesos, half of which was linked to capital expenditures and the rest to share buybacks.

Relevant Events

Beginning January 1st, 2010 América Móvil's financial statements will be presented in accordance to International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) both at the consolidated and subsidiary levels. The move towards IFRS is mandatory for all Mexican listed companies, which are obliged to adopt them by January 1st, 2012 at the latest. The main change regarding the income statement is that revenues are now presented net of commissions to postpaid distributors and the cost of loyalty programs. All the information in this report, including the figures for the first quarter of 2009, was prepared under IFRS.

In March both Moody's and Standard and Poor's upgraded by one notch América Móvil's credit ratings, to A2 and A- respectively. Fitch rates América Móvil at A-. All the agencies have our ratings today under a stable outlook.

Taking advantage of favorable market conditions, in March we placed 4 billion dollars of securities in an offering comprising five, ten and thirty-year notes in the U.S. market. This was the largest issue to date by a private sector company in the emerging markets space. Earlier in the quarter, we had issued debt securities in Mexico and Switzerland in the amount of 1.4 billion dollars equivalent.

América Móvil Consolidated Results

With the economic recovery throughout the Americas helping to reaccelerate consumer spending and subscriber growth, and with the secular trend towards the increased use of data services still very much in evidence, América Móvil's operations exhibited a strong performance in the first quarter.

First quarter revenues now presented under International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) for both 2010 and 2009 rose 9.8% from a year before to 98.7 billion pesos, with equipment revenues increasing 15.1% buoyed by the fast pace of net subscriber additions and service revenues climbing 9.2%. The latter figure would have been a point higher had the exchange rates remained constant throughout the quarter, which speaks to the strength of revenue growth in local currencies. Data services continued to increase their share of service revenues, which hit 21.3% in the quarter vs. 16.4% in the year-earlier quarter.

Depreciation and amortization charges totaled 13.0% of revenues, having risen 15.7% from a year before mostly as a result of faster depreciation of network equipment in Brazil. Operating income increased 11.1% to 29.4 billion pesos, a figure that was just shy of 30% of revenues.

Our comprehensive financing costs totaled 2.0 billion pesos, having come down by 38.2% from the previous year as a result of a lower level of net debt and foreign exchange gains stemming mostly from the appreciation of the Mexican peso vs. the dollar.

We obtained net income of 16.9 billion pesos in the quarter, slightly higher than the one seen a year before. It was equivalent to 52 peso cents per share and 82 dollar cents per ADR. These figures were up 4.7% and 15.5% year-on-year.

Our net debt came down by 17.2 billion pesos in the quarter to 66.4 billion pesos, even after capital expenditures and share repurchases of 5.4 billion pesos each.

By the end of March, we had finished approximately 95% of the international transport network for voice and data we have been building in various countries. This new network will allow us to improve the quality and the cost of various services, particularly as regards long distance and data traffic.

Mexico

Net subscriber additions came in at 1.1 million in the first quarter, with postpaid subs accounting for a quarter of them. At the end of March we had 60.3 million subs in Mexico, 4.7% more than in the year-earlier quarter.

First quarter revenues expanded 10.3% annually to 35.2 billion pesos, with equipment revenues jumping 24.1% and service revenues rising 7.9% on the back of data revenues that soared 28.7% as the demand for data services continues to take hold. ARPU was up 3.1% to 163 from 158 the previous year. The average price per minute declined 9.5% year-on-year to 4.8 dollar cents, helping bring about an 8.3% increase in MOUs; for the first time they broke through 200 minutes per month.

In March, Teligen, the company that acts as the database provider of the OECD on telecom pricing, released its Teligen Baskets report the one on which the OECD's analysis are based with information as of February 2010. According to this report, in the case of the OECD's prepaid basket Telcel's plans are the second cheapest in US dollar terms among the 30 countries that make up that Organization and the seventh cheapest in the OECD's PPP units (Purchasing Power Parity). Approximately 91% of Telcel's subscribers are prepaid customers.

On April 10th the period set by Cofetel for the registry of wireless subscribers expired. On account of existing regulations, Telcel had to proceed with the suspension of service to those subscribers that had not yet registered. However, this requirement has been temporarily waived so as to not affect the communications services of many of our clients. Telcel remains fully supportive of the regulation and is actively reminding its clients that they need to register. To date, the majority of Telcel's clients have already registered.

Few months after number portability was implemented in Peru, Claro is a net gainer of ported numbers by a wide margin.

Caribbean

Our subscriber base ended March with 6.3 million subscribers it was up 18.1% year-over-year after adding 203 thousand subs in the first quarter. Postpaid net adds were nearly 3 times as high as those of the same period of the precedent year although total net additions were down partly on account of the high penetration rate already attained in the region.

At 524 million dollars first quarter revenues were flat year-on-year, with service revenues declining only slightly in the face of a marked reduction (25.8%) in prices per minute. Wireless revenues kept on expanding their share of service revenues, as did data revenues, which shot up nearly 50% over the prior year.
