Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously reported, on June 9, 2010, Allscripts-Misys Healthcare Solutions, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Allscripts), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Eclipsys Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Eclipsys), and Arsenal Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Allscripts (Merger Sub). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Eclipsys, with Eclipsys surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Allscripts (the Merger).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which has been approved and adopted by boards of directors of both Allscripts and Eclipsys, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each share of Eclipsys common stock, par value $0.01 per share, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than those shares owned by Allscripts, Eclipsys or any of their respective subsidiaries, will be converted into the right to receive 1.2 shares of Allscripts common stock, par value $0.01 per share.

As previously reported, in connection with the Framework Agreement, dated as of June 9, 2010, among Allscripts, Misys plc and Eclipsys, Allscripts has signed a commitment letter with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Barclays Bank PLC, UBS Loan Finance LLC and certain of their affiliates for a $570 million senior secured term loan facility and a $150 million senior secured revolving facility, the (Financing).

Filed as exhibits hereto are certain historical financial statements of Eclipsys and unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements giving effect to the Merger, the Financing and the other transactions described in the accompanying notes. There can be no assurance that the Merger, the Financing and the other transactions described in the accompanying notes will be consummated on the terms described herein or at all.

The foregoing statements regarding Allscripts intentions with respect to the proposed Merger, the Financing and other transactions described above are forward-looking statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and actual events could vary materially from the statements made.

Effective June 1, 2009, we adopted accounting guidance which states that invested share-based payment awards that contain nonforfeitable rights to dividends or dividend equivalents (whether paid or unpaid) are considered participating securities and shall be included in the computation of earnings per share pursuant to the two-class method. We are filing updated Selected Financial Data to reflect the adoption of this accounting guidance on a retrospective basis.

Important Information for Investors and Stockholders

Investors and stockholders can obtain free copies of these documents from Allscripts and Eclipsys using the contact information above. Other information regarding the participants in the proxy solicitation and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be contained in the joint proxy statement/prospectus/information statement and other relevant materials to be filed with the SEC when they become available.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Statements regarding the benefits of the proposed transaction, including future financial and operating results, the combined company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions, platform and product integration, the connection and movement of data among hospitals, physicians, patients and others, merger synergies and cost savings, client attainment of meaningful use and accessibility of federal stimulus payments, enhanced competitiveness and accessing new client opportunities, market evolution, the benefits of the combined companies' products and services, the availability of financing, future events, developments, future performance, as well as management's expectations, beliefs, intentions, plans, estimates or projections relating to the future are forward-looking statements within the meaning of these laws. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, some of which are outlined below. As a result, no assurances can be given that any of the events anticipated by the forward-looking statements will transpire or occur, or if any of them do so, what impact they will have on the results of operations or financial condition of Allscripts, Eclipsys or the combined company or the proposed transaction.

Such risks, uncertainties and other factors include, among other things: the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the merger on the proposed terms and schedule contemplated by the parties; the failure of Eclipsys stockholders to approve the Merger Agreement; the failure of Allscripts stockholders to approve the issuance of shares in the merger; the possibility that the proposed transaction does not close, including due to the failure to satisfy the closing conditions; the possibility that the expected synergies, efficiencies and cost savings of the proposed transaction will not be realized, or will not be realized within the expected time period; potential difficulties or delays in achieving platform and product integration and the connection and movement of data among hospitals, physicians, patients and others; the risk that the contemplated financing is unavailable; the risk that the Allscripts and Eclipsys businesses will not be integrated successfully; disruption from the proposed transaction making it more difficult to maintain business and operational relationships; competition within the industries in which Allscripts and Eclipsys operate; failure to achieve certification under the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act could result in increased development costs, a breach of some customer obligations and could put Allscripts and Eclipsys at a competitive disadvantage in the marketplace; unexpected requirements to achieve interoperability certification pursuant to the Certification Commission for Healthcare Information Technology could result in increased development and other costs for Allscripts and Eclipsys; the volume and timing of systems sales and installations, the length of sales cycles and the installation process and the possibility that Allscripts and Eclipsys products will not achieve or sustain market acceptance; the timing, cost and success or failure of new product and service introductions, development and product upgrade releases; competitive pressures including product offerings, pricing and promotional activities; Allscripts and Eclipsys ability to establish and maintain strategic relationships; undetected errors or similar problems in Allscripts and Eclipsys software products; the outcome of any legal proceeding that has been or may be instituted against Allscripts, Mysis plc or Eclipsys and others; compliance with existing laws, regulations and industry initiatives and future changes in laws or regulations in the healthcare industry, including possible regulation of Allscripts and Eclipsys software by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration; the possibility of product-related liabilities; Allscripts and Eclipsys ability to attract and retain qualified personnel; the implementation and speed of acceptance of the electronic record provisions of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009; maintaining Allscripts and Eclipsys intellectual property rights and litigation involving intellectual property rights; risks related to third-party suppliers and Allscripts and Eclipsys ability to obtain, use or successfully integrate third-party licensed technology; and breach of Allscripts or Eclipsys security by third parties. See Allscripts and Eclipsys Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Annual Reports to Stockholders for the fiscal years ended May 31, 2009 and December 31, 2009, respectively, and other public filings with the SEC for a further discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties applicable to Allscripts and Eclipsys respective businesses. The statements herein speak only as of their date and neither Allscripts nor Eclipsys undertakes any duty to update any forward-looking statement whether as a result of new information, future events or changes in their respective expectations.
