CEDAR FAIR BOARD OF DIRECTORS URGES UNITHOLDERS TO VOTE

AGAINST PROPOSALS AT SPECIAL MEETING

Criticizes proposals as disruptive to strategic progress and succession planning, and focusing solely on short-term returns

Reaffirms commitment to growing cash distributions to unitholders

SANDUSKY, OHIO, December 13, 2010 The Board of Directors of Cedar Fair Entertainment Company (NYSE: FUN), a leader in regional amusement parks, water parks and active entertainment, today sent a letter to all unitholders stating its reasons for opposing the proposals submitted by Q Funding III, L.P. and Q4 Funding, L.P. (Q Investments), one of the Company s largest unitholders, to be considered at a Special Meeting of Unitholders on January 11, 2011.

The Board believes the proposed amendments to the Company s Partnership Agreement would not be in the best interests of unitholders because they would severely limit the options available to the Board in pursuit of its strategy to maximize long-term value. In addition, they would greatly disrupt the Company s deliberate and ongoing succession planning process that is well under way and is expected to be completed by the end of the second quarter of 2011.

The text of the letter to unitholders follows in its entirety:

Dear Fellow Cedar Fair Unitholder:

Your Board Urges Unitholders to Vote Against the Q Investments Proposals

A Special Meeting of Limited Partner Unitholders to be held January 11, 2011 has been called at the demand of Q Funding III, L.P. and Q4 Funding, L.P. (Q Investments), entities of a Texas-based hedge fund. At the Special Meeting, unitholders will be asked to vote on two proposed amendments to the Partnership Agreement submitted by Q Investments.

The Board of Directors, which includes two directors designated by Q Investments, unanimously opposes each of these proposed amendments, and strongly urges all unitholders to vote AGAINST the proposals on the WHITE proxy card. If you have voted for the proposals on a Green proxy card sent to you by Q Investments, you can revoke that proxy by voting AGAINST the proposals on a later dated WHITE proxy card, or by voting by telephone or Internet.

Your Board believes the adoption of the amendments proposed by Q Investments would not be in the best interests of unitholders because they would severely limit the options available to your Board in pursuit of its strategy to maximize long-term value. In addition, they would greatly disrupt the Company's deliberate and ongoing succession planning process that is well under way and is expected to be completed prior to the end of the second quarter of 2011.

Q Investments Demands Would Disrupt Our Progress

We believe that Q Investments' demand for a Special Meeting is an unnecessary use of unitholder money and presents a distraction to your Board and management at a critical time in the Company's history. This is not the time to disrupt the progress at Cedar Fair.

The Company is well-positioned for sustained profitable growth, having successfully navigated through a period of unprecedented economic distress that caused others in the industry to suffer significant business deterioration and even forced one major competitor to seek bankruptcy protection.

The strength of Cedar Fair's business strategy is clearly evident in the considerable progress the Company made in 2010 to improve its operating performance, financial strength and value to unitholders.

Highlights of 2010 included:

A 4.6% increase in net revenues, a 1 million (or 6%) increase in visitors to our parks, and a 9.8% improvement in Adjusted EBITDA, all accomplished in 40 fewer operating days compared with the same period in 2009. These improvements are attributable to our aggressive marketing efforts, the success of our key investments and our ongoing controls over operating costs.

Refinancing of the Company's long-term debt to provide a capital structure with a stronger balance sheet and one that can provide the flexibility Cedar Fair needs to take advantage of further value-creating growth opportunities.

Reinstatement of the quarterly cash distribution to unitholders, payable on December 15, 2010, to holders of record on December 3, 2010. This is the 24th consecutive year that Cedar Fair has paid a distribution, and as we have previously stated, your Board is strongly committed to steadily increasing the distribution in coming years.

A 15.4% unit price increase to $15.00 on December 3, 2010, from $13.00 on July 14, 2010, the day we announced the completion of our debt refinancing.

Proposal No. 1 Would Handcuff Your Board in Its Succession Planning Process

The first proposal submitted by Q Investments would require the Chairman of the Board to be an independent director who has not previously served as an officer of the General Partner or its affiliates, and is someone other than the CEO. Implementation of this restriction would unnecessarily handcuff your Board at a pivotal time in its ongoing succession planning process.

Your Board believes it is in the best interests of unitholders that it should have flexibility as it proceeds with its succession planning process to ensure that the Company's management team consists of the most experienced and capable leaders available to help the Company achieve further growth and success. On an ongoing basis, your Board determines who is best suited to fill the roles of Chairman, CEO and other senior management positions. While the Board is considering separating the roles of Chairman and CEO following the expiration of Mr. Kinzel's employment contract in early 2012, adopting such a requirement as an amendment to the Partnership Agreement is unnecessarily restrictive. If approved, the proposal would require that the Company take action to remove Mr. Kinzel as the Chairman of the Board which would be in conflict with the Company's contract with Mr. Kinzel. Further, it would prevent the Company from even considering an executive who had previously served as an officer of the General Partner or its affiliates as a candidate for Chairman of the Board, even if such an executive would be the best person for the position. As such, the adoption of the proposal would be counterproductive to the Board's efforts to ensure that the most qualified individuals fill the roles of Chairman, CEO and other senior management positions.

Cedar Fair's leadership has always and will always take its fiduciary duties seriously, which includes employing sound corporate governance practices such as naming a Lead Independent Director and ensuring that your Board and committee composition remain independent. Currently, seven of your Board's nine directors meet the New York Stock Exchange's standards for determining director independence, and all members of the Audit, Governance and Compensation committees are independent.

Furthermore, your Board's Lead Independent Director, Michael Kwiatkowski, regularly communicates with the other independent directors to review critical corporate matters, including leadership succession planning. The independent directors include Eric Affeldt (member of the Audit and Compensation committees) and John Scott (member of the Audit Committee), who were previously designated by Q Investments, and have been actively involved, along with our other independent directors, in overseeing the Company's financial and long-term value-creation strategies, management compensation, succession planning, and corporate governance policies and structures.

Proposal No. 2 Favors Short-Term Over Long-Term

The second proposal submitted by Q Investments would make the dividend distribution a higher priority than debt repayment and would set a policy that favors short-term over long-term returns.

Careful examination and allocation of a company's available cash balance is a fundamental core element of successful business planning and strategic execution. To restrict Cedar Fair's ability to invest its capital to grow the business is counter to smart business practices.

Through the strategic allocation of cash, the Company, in the first half of 2010, was able to significantly strengthen its balance sheet and create the financial flexibility needed to grow the business and deliver sustainable unitholder value, in pursuit of the Company's previously identified targets:

Growing revenues by 10% to 14% by 2015 (~2.3% CAGR)

Growing Adjusted EBITDA by 10% to 14% by 2015 (~2.3% CAGR)

Achieving free cash flows of $120 million to $140 million on an annual basis during 2012 to 2015

Reducing the Consolidated Leverage Ratio to 4.0x in 2013

Providing for a sustainable and growing distribution to unitholders between $1.25 to $1.75 per limited partner unit by 2015; however, should cash flows exceed our expectations this distribution could be higher

Your Board Is Committed to the Distribution

Your Board is and always has been deeply committed to the payment of a distribution to our unitholders. Prior to 2009, Cedar Fair had increased its distribution to unitholders in 22 of 23 consecutive years. The reinstatement of the distribution to unitholders in 2010, marking the 24th consecutive year of paying a distribution, would not have been possible had your Board not wisely restructured its debt earlier in the year.

The Q Investments Proposal Would Restrict the Use of Cash

Your Board strongly believes that adopting restrictions to mandate the use of cash, as proposed by Q Investments, is simply not the right way to grow a business and is in conflict with the fiduciary responsibilities of your Board that require consideration of the long-term interests of all unitholders.

Such decisions should be based on a combination of relevant factors including, among other things, the Company's liquidity, its ability to generate future earnings and cash flow, the business climate, the current state of the financial markets, and the desires of our unitholders. Therefore, your Board believes it is not prudent to limit its flexibility with a set policy that favors short-term return of capital above all other value-creating options.

We regularly seek input from all unitholders, including Q Investments. We are deeply saddened and disappointed that they have chosen this less-than-constructive route to voice their perspective rather than utilize the open line of communications we maintain with our unitholders.

Please Support Your Board Vote the WHITE Proxy Now Against Q Investments Proposals

We are proud of the numerous financial and operational successes the Company has achieved over the years and particularly during the past 12 months, and we are equally excited about the growth potential that the Company can achieve over the long term. We firmly believe that we have the strategy and leadership necessary to deliver the value creation that all of our unitholders seek.

We respectfully ask for your continued support and look forward to reporting our progress to you.

YOUR BOARD RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST PROPOSALS 1 AND 2 AND STRONGLY URGES ALL UNITHOLDERS TO UTILIZE THE WHITE PROXY CARD TO VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSALS TODAY AND TO DISCARD ANY PROXY CARD
RECEIVED FROM Q INVESTMENTS.

Sincerely yours, on behalf of the Board of Directors,
