Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously announced, on June 30, 2011, LoopNet, Inc. (the Company) and the CoStar Group, Inc. (CoStar) each received a Request for Additional Information (commonly referred to as a second request) from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (FTC) with respect to the proposed acquisition of the Company by CoStar (the merger) originally announced on April 27, 2011. In addition, as previously announced on October 26, 2011, at the request of the FTC, CoStar and the Company have agreed to extend the waiting period imposed by the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act (the HSR Act) from 30 to 60 days after the date of substantial compliance with the second request unless that period is extended voluntarily by the parties or terminated sooner by the FTC.

On November 4, 2011, each of the Company and CoStar certified as to its substantial compliance with the second request. Completion of the merger remains subject to the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act and other customary closing conditions. The Company remains committed to working with the FTC as it conducts its review of the merger.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.

This Current Report on Form 8-K and the information incorporated by reference herein contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the timing of the merger, the companies' plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements including words such as anticipate, may, believe, expect, intend, will, should, plan, estimate, predict, continue and potential or the negative of these terms or other comparable terms. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of management of the Company and CoStar and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from the results anticipated in the forward-looking statements. The following factors, among others, could cause or contribute to such differences: the possibility that the FTC will request additional extensions to the waiting period imposed by the HSR Act; the possibility that conditions, divestitures or changes relating to the operations or assets of the Company and CoStar will be required to obtain required governmental clearances or approvals; the possibility that the merger does not close, including, but not limited to, due to the failure to obtain governmental clearances or approvals; the risk that expected cost savings or other synergies from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; the risk that the businesses of the Company and CoStar may not be combined successfully or in a timely and cost-efficient manner; and the risk that business disruption relating to the merger may be greater than expected. Additional factors that could cause results to differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements can be found in the Company's Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2011, and CoStar's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2011, each filed with the SEC, including in the Risk Factors section of each of these filings, and each company's other filings with the SEC available at the SEC's website (www.sec.gov). Neither the Company nor CoStar undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
