Item 1.01 Entry into a Definitive Material Agreement.

On February 27, 2012, Pro-Dex, Inc. (the Company) entered into and closed an Asset Purchase Agreement whereby it sold substantially all the assets of Pro-Dex Astromec, Inc. (Astromec), consisting of inventory, equipment and intangibles, and excluding cash, accounts receivable, and the parent-owned facility in which Astromec conducted its business, to SL Montevideo Technology, Inc. (SLMTI) for a cash payment of $830,000 (the Closing Payment). Astromec retained substantially all of its liabilities except for those liabilities associated with certain contracts and unfilled purchase orders assumed by SLMTI. The Closing Payment represents the estimated net book value of the acquired assets and is subject to an adjustment based on physical counts of the assets sold. The Company may also receive earnout payments, such payments to be based on revenues generated from the sale of (i) Astromec products and (ii) SLMTI products to Astromec prospects, over the ensuing three-year period. A copy of the Asset Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by this reference.

The summary above does not include a description of all of the terms, conditions and other provisions of the Asset Purchase Agreement and is not intended to be a complete description, or a substitute for a full and complete reading, of the Asset Purchase Agreement. This summary is qualified in all respects by reference to the full text of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

In connection with the Company's sale of substantially all of the assets of Astromec, as described above, the Company expects to incur costs, aggregating an estimated $325,000. Such costs consist primarily of a broker's fee, amounting to $100,000, and incentive retention bonuses, aggregating an estimated $150,000, that will be paid to certain of the Company's employees. The broker's fee became payable upon the closing of the sale, and incentive retention bonuses are expected to be incurred at various dates over the next 90 days.
