NOTICE OF WRITTEN CONSENT AND APPRAISAL RIGHTS AND INFORMATION

STATEMENT

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND

YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY.

October [], 2013

To our Stockholders:

This notice of written consent and appraisal rights and information statement is being furnished to the stockholders of Edgen Group Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), in connection with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 1, 2013 (the Merger Agreement) (a copy of which is attached as Annex A to the accompanying information statement), by and among the Company, Sumitomo Corporation of America, a New York corporation (Buyer), and Lochinvar Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a subsidiary of Buyer (Merger Sub). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and a subsidiary of Buyer. Upon completion of the Merger, each share of Class A common stock of the Company, par value $0.0001 per share (Class A Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time) will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive $12.00 in cash, without interest, less any deduction for withholding taxes required by applicable law (the Merger Consideration). The Merger Consideration will not be paid, however, in respect of (i) those shares of Class A Stock to which appraisal rights under Delaware law are properly exercised and not withdrawn and (ii) each share of Class A Stock owned by Buyer, Merger Sub or the Company (as treasury stock or otherwise) or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries.

Immediately prior to the Effective Time and for no additional consideration in the Merger or other payments to them, Edgen Murray II, L.P. and Bourland & Leverich Holdings LLC (together, the Majority Stockholders) (two entities controlled by Jefferies Capital Partners that beneficially own 24,343,138 shares of Class B common stock of the Company, par value $0.0001 per share (Class B Stock) and together with Class A Stock, the Voting Stock), representing approximately 56.2% of the Voting Stock, and 24,343,138 membership units of EDG Holdco LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (EDG Holdco), have agreed (i) in accordance with existing exchange agreements with the Company and EDG Holdco, to exchange (the Exchange) all of their shares of Class B Stock and 100% of their membership units in EDG Holdco for shares of Class A Stock (on a one-for-one basis with the number of shares of Class B Stock they hold) and (ii) to terminate certain tax receivable agreements with the Company pursuant to which the Company had previously agreed to make certain payments to the Majority Stockholders equal to 85% of the reduction of the Company's liability for U.S. federal, state, local and franchise taxes allowed as a result of additional depreciation, amortization and imputed interest tax deductions arising from transactions described in the exchange agreements such as the Exchange described above. Accordingly, the Majority Stockholders will receive the same per share consideration in the Merger as all other holders.

The board of directors of the Company unanimously: (a) determined entering into the Merger Agreement was fair and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders; (b) approved and declared advisable the proposed terms of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement; (c) determined that the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, are fair and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders; (d) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to the stockholders of the Company for adoption; and (e) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger.

The adoption of the Merger Agreement by the stockholders of the Company required the affirmative vote or written consent of stockholders holding in the aggregate a majority of the outstanding Voting Stock. On October 1, 2013, the Majority Stockholders delivered a written consent adopting and approving in all respects the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger (the "Written Consent"), which Written Consent provides that it shall be of no further force or effect following termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (including, without limitation, a termination of the Merger Agreement in connection with the Company executing a definitive agreement with a third party with respect to a superior proposal). As a result, no further action by any stockholder of the Company is required under applicable law or the Merger Agreement (or otherwise) to adopt the Merger Agreement or approve the Merger, and the Company will not be soliciting your vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement and will not call a stockholders meeting for purposes of voting on the adoption of the Merger Agreement. This notice and the accompanying information statement shall constitute notice to you from the Company of the Written Consent contemplated by Section 228(e) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL").

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, if the Merger is completed, subject to compliance with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL, holders of shares of Class A Stock, other than the Majority Stockholders, will have the right to seek an appraisal for, and be paid the fair value of, their shares of Class A Stock (as determined by the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware) instead of receiving the Merger Consideration. To exercise your appraisal rights, you must submit a written demand for an appraisal no later than twenty days after the mailing of the accompanying information statement, or [] [], 2013, and comply precisely with other procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL, which are summarized in the accompanying information statement. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to the accompanying information statement as Annex E. This notice and the accompanying information statement shall constitute notice to you from the Company of the availability of appraisal rights under Section 262(d)(2) of the DGCL.

We urge you to read the entire information statement carefully. Please do not send in your shares of Class A Stock at this time. If the Merger is completed, you will receive instructions regarding the surrender of your shares of Class A Stock and payment for your shares of Class A Stock.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS,

Daniel J. O'Leary

Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer

thereby, including the Merger (the Written Consent), which Written Consent provides that it shall be of no further force or effect following termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (including, without limitation, a termination of the Merger Agreement in connection with the Company executing a definitive agreement with a third party with respect to a superior proposal). No further action by any other Company stockholder is required under applicable law or the Merger Agreement (or otherwise) in connection with the adoption of the Merger Agreement or approval of the Merger. As a result, the Company is not soliciting your vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement and will not call a stockholders meeting for purposes of voting on the adoption of the Merger Agreement. No action by the stockholders of Buyer is required to complete the Merger.

When actions are taken by written consent of less than all of the stockholders entitled to vote on a matter, Delaware law requires notice of the action to those stockholders who did not consent in writing and who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting. This information statement constitutes notice to you of action by written consent as required by Delaware law.

Opinion of Financial Advisor (see page 27)

In connection with the Merger, the Company's financial advisor, Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (Citi) delivered a written opinion, dated September 30, 2013, to the Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, to holders of Class A Stock (other than holders that entered into or are party to exchange or voting agreements or similar undertakings in connection with the Merger or related transactions and their respective affiliates) of the Merger Consideration. The full text of Citi's written opinion, dated September 30, 2013, which describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex E to this information statement and is incorporated herein by reference. Citi's financial advisory services and opinion were provided for the information of the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Merger Consideration from a financial point of view and did not address any other aspects or implications of the Merger. Citi was not requested to consider, and its opinion did not address, the underlying business decision of the Company to effect the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or opportunities that might exist for the Company or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company might engage. Citi's opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on Citi's part to any party and such opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any stockholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the Merger or otherwise.

Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (see page 34)

In considering the recommendation of the Board to adopt the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that the Company's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, those of Company stockholders generally. These interests include, among others:

each stock option held by executive officers or directors, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount, in cash, equal to the product of (i) the aggregate number of shares of Class A Stock subject to the option multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of $12.00 over the per share exercise price of the option, less any deduction for withholding taxes required; each restricted share of Class A Stock held by executive officers or directors will become vested, free of restriction and will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration;

Edgar Filing: Edgen Group Inc. - Form PREM14C

under the Merger Agreement, the Company's directors and executive officers are entitled to continued indemnification and insurance coverage on terms no less favorable than their current coverage;

under the Merger Agreement, the Company has the right to pay transaction bonuses of up to $250,000 in the aggregate to certain employees in connection with the consummation of the Merger the allocation of which had yet to be determined at the date of the mailing of this information statement;

under the Merger Agreement, the Company has the right to issue a maximum of 17,000 Company equity awards and to issue Company equity awards replacing forfeitures after the date of the Merger Agreement the allocation of which had yet to be determined at the date of the mailing of this information statement; and pursuant to their respective existing employment agreements, the Company's executive officers are entitled to severance benefits upon certain terminations of employment, which may occur in conjunction with or following consummation of the Merger.

For a full disclosure of the interests of the Company's directors and executive officers, including a description of their employment agreements and the amount of severance benefits that such executive officers may be entitled to receive, see "The Merger - Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 34.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (see page 57)

The exchange of shares of Class A Stock for cash in the Merger will generally be a taxable transaction to U.S. holders (as defined herein) for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, a U.S. holder whose shares of Class A Stock are converted to cash in the Merger will recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received with respect to such shares and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares, and a non-U.S. holder (as defined herein) whose shares of Class A Stock are so converted will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any such gain or loss (except in certain circumstances, as described more fully herein).

You should read "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page 57 for a more detailed discussion of the United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Regulatory Waiting Periods and Approvals Required for the Merger (see page 39)

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"), the Merger may not be completed until the Company and Buyer have filed notification and report forms with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the applicable waiting period has expired or been terminated. On October 15, 2013, the Company and Buyer each filed a Notification and Report Form with the Antitrust Division and the Federal Trade Commission and requested an early termination of the waiting period. If the early termination is not granted and a request for additional information by the relevant antitrust authorities is not made, the waiting period will expire at 11:59 p.m. on November 14, 2013.

Expected Timing of the Merger

We expect to complete the Merger by the end of 2013. However, the Merger is subject to customary conditions and it is possible that factors outside the control of the parties could result in the Merger being completed at a later time, or not at all.

Conditions to Consummation of the Merger (page 47)

Each party's obligations to effect the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the Company stockholder approval having been obtained (which occurred when the Majority Stockholders delivered the Written Consent on October 1, 2013) and this information statement having been mailed to the Company's stockholders at least 20 days prior to the closing date;

no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other judgment issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition issued or enacted by a governmental entity that has the effect of preventing the consummation of the Merger shall be in effect.

Table of Contents

Buyer and Merger Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations, and complied in all material respects with the agreements and covenants, required to be performed by or complied with by them under the Merger Agreement; and Guarantor shall have performed in all material respects all obligations, and complied in all material respects with the agreements and covenants, required to be performed by or complied with by it in the Guarantee; and the Company shall have received a certificate signed by an officer of Buyer certifying satisfaction of each of the above conditions.

Non-Solicitation; Superior Proposals (see page 49)

The Merger Agreement contains a no-shop provision that prohibits the Company from, among other things, (i) directly or indirectly, soliciting, initiating or knowingly taking any action to facilitate or encourage the submission of any takeover proposal or (ii) conducting or engaging in any discussions or negotiations with, disclosing any non-public information relating to the Company or any of its subsidiaries to, affording access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to, any third party that the Company is aware is seeking to make, or has made, any takeover proposal.

However, until 11:59 p.m. (New York City) on October 31, 2013 (or such later time as described in the Merger Agreement), the Company or the Board, as applicable, is permitted to:

participate in negotiations or discussions with any third party that has made a bona fide, unsolicited takeover proposal in writing that the Board believes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and financial advisors, constitutes or would reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal (see The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Other Offers beginning on page 49 for a description of the definition of superior proposal);

thereafter furnish to such third party non-public information relating to the Company or any of its subsidiaries and afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of the Company or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to an executed confidentiality agreement;

following receipt of and on account of a superior proposal, make a Company adverse recommendation change (see The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Other Offers beginning on page 49 for a description of the definition of Company adverse recommendation change) and/or enter into the Company acquisition agreement (see The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Other Offers beginning on page 49 for a description of the definition of Company acquisition agreement) constituting such superior proposal; make public disclosure in response to an intervening event (see The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Other Offers beginning on page 49 for a description of the definition of intervening event);

amend or grant a waiver or release under a standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;

approve any transaction under, or any third party becoming an interested stockholder under, Section 203 of the DGCL; and take any action that any court of competent jurisdiction orders the Company to take (which order remains unstayed);

but, in each case, only if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law.

if there is a breach by Buyer, Merger Sub or the Guarantor on one hand, or the Company, on the other hand, of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in the Merger Agreement or on the part of the Guarantor as set forth in Guarantee which breach would result in the failure to satisfy one or more of the mutual conditions to closing or, in the case of a breach by the Company, a condition to Buyer's and Merger Sub's obligation to close and, in the case of a breach by Buyer, Merger Sub or the Guarantor, a condition to the Company's obligation to close and such breach is incapable of being cured; provided, that at least 30 days' written notice shall be given prior to such termination stating such party's intention to terminate the Merger Agreement and the basis for such termination; provided further, that such terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, agreement or covenant contained in this Agreement;

by Buyer in the event that any of the following occurs:

by the Company:

if prior to October 31, 2013 (or such later time as provided in the Merger Agreement) the Board authorizes us, in full compliance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, to enter into an agreement in respect of a superior proposal; or if the conditions to the Company's, Buyer's and Merger Sub's obligations to close have been satisfied, and the Company has irrevocably confirmed by written notice to Buyer that all of the conditions to the Company's obligation to close have been satisfied or waived and the Merger has not been consummated within five business days following the delivery of such notice.

Termination Fees (see page 52)

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for the Company and Buyer. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement to enter into a superior proposal, or under certain other specified circumstances, the Company will be required to pay to Buyer a termination fee in the amount of $20.0 million. See "The Merger Agreement Termination Fees" beginning on page 52 for a discussion of the circumstances under which such a termination fee will be required to be paid.

Specific Enforcement (see page 53)

The Merger Agreement provides that in the event of any breach or threatened breach by any party of any covenant or obligation contained in the Merger Agreement, the non-breaching party will be entitled (in addition to any other remedy that may be available to it whether in law or equity, including monetary damages) to seek to obtain (i) a decree or order of specific performance to enforce the observance and performance of such covenant or obligation, and (ii) an injunction restraining such breach or threatened breach.

Guarantee by Sumitomo Corporation (see page 53)

The obligations of Buyer and Merger Sub pursuant to the Merger Agreement and the Exchange and Termination Agreement are guaranteed by Buyer's parent corporation, the Guarantor, pursuant to the Guarantee.

A copy of the Guarantee is attached as Annex D to this information statement and is incorporated herein by reference.

Appraisal Rights (see page 60)

Under the DGCL, Company stockholders who do not vote for the adoption of the Merger Agreement have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares in cash as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, but only if they comply fully with all of the applicable requirements of the DGCL. Any appraisal amount determined by the court could be more than, the same as, or less than the value of the Merger Consideration. Any Company stockholder intending to exercise appraisal rights must, among other things, submit a written demand for appraisal to the Company within 20 days after the date of mailing of this information statement. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is included as Annex F to this information statement. Failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under the DGCL will result in the loss of appraisal rights. Because of the complexity of the DGCL relating to appraisal rights, if you are considering exercising your appraisal rights we encourage you to seek the advice of your own legal counsel.

Litigation Relating to the Merger (see page 39)

Edgar Filing: Edgen Group Inc. - Form PREM14C

A purported class action lawsuit was filed in the 19th Judicial District Court of the State of Louisiana, East Baton Rouge Parish, on October 11, 2013 (Jason Genoud v. Edgen Group, Inc., et al., No. 625244), on behalf of all of the Company's stockholders (excluding defendants and any person or entity related to or affiliated with any defendant) challenging the Merger and naming as defendants the Company, the Board, Buyer, Merger Sub and the Guarantor. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the Board (aided and abetted by the remaining defendants) breached its fiduciary duties to the plaintiff and the other public stockholders of the Company by authorizing the Merger with Buyer and Merger Sub for inadequate consideration that undervalues the Company. The complaint also claims that the Merger Agreement contains unfair deal protection devices that will preclude a fair sale process and that defendants are acting to better their own interests at the expense of the Company's public shareholders. The complaint seeks, among other relief, an order enjoining the consummation of the Merger, compensatory damages and plaintiffs attorneys' and experts' fees. The Company believes the claims are without merit and intends to defend against them vigorously.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

The following questions and answers are intended to briefly address commonly asked questions as they pertain to the Merger Agreement and the Merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a stockholder. Please refer to the Summary beginning on page 1 and the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this information statement, the annexes to this information statement and the documents referred to or incorporated by reference in this information statement, each of which you should read carefully. You may obtain information incorporated by reference in this information statement without charge by following the instructions in Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 68.

Q: What is the proposed transaction?

A: The proposed transaction is the acquisition of the Company by Buyer pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Once the closing conditions under the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or waived and subject to the other terms and conditions in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company. The Company will be the surviving corporation in the Merger and will become a subsidiary of Buyer.

Q: What will I receive in the Merger?

A: Upon completion of the Merger, stockholders will receive $12.00 in cash, without interest, less any deduction for withholding taxes required by applicable law, for each share of Class A Stock that they own, unless they properly exercise, and do not withdraw or fail to perfect, appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL. For example, if a stockholder owns 100 shares of Class A Stock, it will receive $1,200.00 in cash in exchange for its shares of Class A Stock, less any deduction for withholding taxes required by applicable law, and will not own shares in the surviving corporation.

Upon completion of the Merger, each holder of options to purchase shares of Class A Stock granted under the Company's equity incentive compensation plan will receive an amount, in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the aggregate number of shares of Class A Stock subject to the option multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of $12.00 over the per share exercise price of the option, less any deduction for withholding taxes required by applicable law. For example, if an option holder owns an option to purchase 100 shares of Class A Stock with an exercise price of $10.00 per share, it will receive $200.00 in cash, less any deduction for withholding taxes required by applicable law.

Q: When do you expect the Merger to be completed?

A: We currently expect to complete the Merger promptly after all of the conditions to the Merger have been satisfied or waived and subject to the other terms and conditions in the Merger Agreement. Completion of the Merger is currently expected to occur before the end of 2013, although the Company cannot assure completion by any particular date, if at all.

Q: What happens if the Merger is not completed?

A: If the Merger is not completed for any reason, stockholders will not receive any payment for their shares in connection with the Merger. Instead, the Company will remain a publicly traded company, and shares of Class A Stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE.

Q: Why am I not being asked to vote on the Merger?

A: Applicable Delaware law and the Merger Agreement require the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders in the aggregate of at least a majority of the outstanding Voting Stock in order to effect the Merger.

Table of Contents

The requisite Company stockholder approval was obtained following the execution of the Merger Agreement on October 1, 2013, when the Written Consent was delivered by the Majority Stockholders, which owned approximately 56.2% of the issued and outstanding Voting Stock on that date. Therefore, your vote is not required and is not being sought. We are not asking you for a proxy, and you are requested not to send us a proxy.

Q: Why did I receive this information statement?

A: Applicable laws and securities regulations require us to provide you with notice of the Written Consent delivered by the Majority Stockholders, as well as other information regarding the Merger, even though your vote or consent is neither required nor requested to adopt or authorize the Merger Agreement or complete the Merger. This information statement also constitutes notice to you of the availability of appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL, a copy of which is attached to this information statement as Annex F.

Q: Did the Board approve and recommend the Merger Agreement?

A: Yes. The Board unanimously:

(a) determined entering into the Merger Agreement was fair and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders;

(b) approved and declared advisable the proposed terms of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement;

(c) determined that the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, are fair and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders;

(d) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to the stockholders of the Company for adoption; and

(e) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares before completion of the Merger?

A: If you transfer your shares of Class A Stock, you will have transferred the right to receive the Merger Consideration to be received by the stockholders of the Company in the Merger. To receive the Merger Consideration, you must hold your shares through completion of the Merger.

Q: Should I send in my Class A Stock certificates now?

A: No. You will be sent instructions after completion of the Merger, describing in detail how you may exchange your shares of Class A Stock for the Merger Consideration. Please do NOT return your Class A Stock certificate(s) to the Company at this time.

Q: Is the Merger subject to the fulfillment of certain conditions?

A: Yes. Before the Merger can be completed, the Company, Buyer and Merger Sub must fulfill or, if permissible, waive several closing conditions set forth in the DGCL. If these conditions are not satisfied or waived, the Merger will not be completed. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 47.

Q: Am I entitled to exercise appraisal rights instead of receiving the Merger Consideration for my shares?

A: Yes. As a holder of Class A Stock, you are entitled to appraisal rights under the DGCL in connection with the Merger if you meet certain conditions, which conditions are summarized in this information statement in Appraisal Rights beginning on page 60.

Q: What happens if a third party makes an offer to acquire the Company before the Merger is completed?

A: If a third party has made an unsolicited takeover proposal to the Company prior to 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on October 31, 2013, the Company may negotiate and discuss the proposal with the third party under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement. See The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 51.

Q: Will I owe taxes as a result of the Merger?

A: The Merger will be a taxable transaction for all U.S. holders (as defined herein). As a result, assuming you are a U.S. holder, you will recognize gain or loss with respect to the Merger equal to the difference between (a) the amount of cash you receive (determined before any deduction for withholding taxes required by applicable law) and (b) the adjusted tax basis of your surrendered shares of Class A Stock.

If you are a non-U.S. holder (as defined herein), the Merger will generally not be a taxable transaction to you under United States federal income tax laws, unless (a) you are an individual who is present in the United States for 183 or more days during the taxable year of such disposition and certain other conditions are met or (b) the gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States by you, subject to an applicable income tax treaty providing otherwise.

See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 57 for a more detailed explanation of the tax consequences of the Merger. Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the Merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation.

We urge you to consult your tax advisor on the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Q: Where can I find more information about the Company?

A: We file periodic reports and other information with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). Effects of the Merger

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company, with the Company surviving the Merger as a subsidiary of Buyer.

At the Effective Time, each outstanding share of Class A Stock, including those shares issued pursuant to the Exchange (other than those shares of Class A Stock with respect to which appraisal rights under Delaware law are properly exercised and not withdrawn and each share Class A Stock owned by Buyer, Merger Sub or the Company (as treasury stock or otherwise) or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries), will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

At the Effective Time, each restricted share of Class A Stock that is outstanding will become vested, free of restriction and will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Background of the Merger

As part of the Company's ongoing strategic planning process, the Board and management periodically review and assess the Company's competitive position and actively monitor and assess developments in the markets in which it conducts business. Members of the Board also regularly discuss with Company management in the ordinary course of business the strategic direction of the Company and potential actions to enhance stockholder value. Additionally, from time to time, the Company has received inquiries from various parties interested in initiating discussions regarding a potential business combination with or sale of the Company.

During late summer 2012, representatives of Buyer, who had pre-existing business relationships with the Company and the President of our E&I segment, Craig Kiefer, contacted Mr. Kiefer to advise him of Buyer's possible interest in an acquisition of the Company.

On November 7, 2012, at a regularly scheduled Board meeting, our Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Daniel J. O'Leary, informed the Board of Buyer's possible interest in an acquisition of the Company and that he planned to meet with representatives of Buyer on December 8, 2012.

On December 8, 2012, a meeting was held in Houston, Texas among Mr. O'Leary and certain representatives of Buyer. These conversations were general in nature, and no specific transaction terms were proposed.

In order to explore further discussions concerning a potential acquisition, Buyer and the Company entered into a non-disclosure agreement on February 8, 2013.

On February 11, 2013, Mr. O Leary and Nicholas Daraviras (a member of the Board and representative of the Majority Stockholders) met in Houston, Texas with representatives of Buyer and Buyer's financial advisor,

Tudor, Pickering, Holt & Co. Advisors, LLC (TPH) to discuss the strategic rationale of a potential transaction. During this meeting, Buyer delivered to the Company a preliminary due diligence request list.

Over the next several weeks, the Company provided Buyer with certain preliminary due diligence materials for Buyer's review. Among other things, the Company provided Buyer with a forecast of certain projected income statement and balance sheet information of the Company for the periods 2013 through 2016. This forecast projected EBITDA for the years 2013 to 2016 to be $147.4 million, $177.3 million, $205.0 million and $231.7 million, respectively, and Adjusted EBITDA for the years 2013 to 2016 to be $150.2 million, $182.5 million, $211.7 million and $237.7 million, respectively.

On February 28, 2013, representatives of Buyer, representatives of TPH, Mr. O'Leary, David L. Laxton III, our Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and Mr. Daraviras met telephonically to discuss matters to confirm the strategic rationale of a potential transaction.

On March 13 and 14, 2013, a regularly scheduled two day Board meeting was held. On March 13, 2013, Mr. O'Leary updated the Board on the discussions with representatives of Buyer. Later that evening, Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Laxton met with representatives of Buyer in order to introduce Mr. Laxton to Buyer in person as well as to generally discuss the Company's business. On the following day, when the Board meeting resumed, Mr. O'Leary updated the Board on the prior evening's discussions with representatives of Buyer.

On March 14, 2013, the Company released guidance for 2013 stating that Adjusted EBITDA for 2013 was expected to be in the range of $142 million to $152 million.

On April 19, 2013, Buyer delivered a letter addressed to the Company and the Majority Stockholders in which Buyer indicated its interest in acquiring for cash all outstanding equity interests in the Company, including the interests in EDG Holdco, based on an enterprise valuation of $1.110 billion. The proposal was non-binding and subject to further due diligence, including verification of the assumptions behind Buyer's valuation, termination of the Tax Receivable Agreements, negotiation of definitive agreements and receipt of requisite approvals, including approval of Buyer's board of directors. The indication of interest was not subject to a financing contingency but was subject to the Majority Stockholders, which controlled 56.2% of the voting power, delivering an irrevocable proxy to Buyer in support of the transaction.

On April 23, 2013, the Board met by telephone to consider the preliminary indication of interest from Buyer. The Board reviewed the proposal and discussed potential responses to Buyer's proposal. On behalf of the Majority Stockholders, Mr. Daraviras advised the Board that the Majority Stockholders would not support a transaction at the valuation indicated in the preliminary indication of interest, but that the Majority Stockholders would support a transaction at an enterprise valuation of $1.35 billion. At this same meeting, the members of the Board not affiliated with the Majority Stockholders discussed that Buyer's proposal represented a significant premium to the then current trading price of the Class A Stock and that they supported continuing discussions with Buyer. On April 23, 2013, Messrs. O'Leary and Daraviras contacted TPH and Mr. Daraviras, on behalf of the Majority Stockholders, advised TPH that the Majority Stockholders would not support a sale of the Company at the valuation set forth in the preliminary indication of interest. The Majority Stockholders advised TPH that they would support a transaction at an enterprise valuation of $1.35 billion, that they were speaking on their own behalf and not the Board's, and that any transaction would be subject to Board approval. Buyer subsequently informed the Company that it would not be interested in an acquisition of the Company at an enterprise valuation of $1.35 billion.

Following this telephone call, Mr. O'Leary updated the Board members on an individual basis regarding the discussions with Buyer. Mr. O'Leary continued to regularly update the Board members on an individual basis regarding the discussions with Buyer throughout the entire process as well as solicit their views regarding the proposed transaction.

On April 30, 2013, at a telephonic meeting of the Board, management advised the Board that based on changed market conditions and the impact of such conditions on recent operating results, the Company's 2013 earnings were expected to be significantly lower than previously anticipated. The Board agreed that Mr. O'Leary should accept Buyer's invitation to meet with representatives of Buyer in Tokyo, Japan on May 3, 2013 so that he could share these lowered earnings expectations with Buyer in person.

On May 3, 2013, Mr. O'Leary travelled to Tokyo, Japan, and met with representatives of Buyer for a due diligence question and answer session and discussions about the potential benefits to Buyer of the proposed business combination with the Company. At this meeting, Mr. O'Leary advised Buyer that the Company's projected 2013 earnings would be below the earnings projections previously delivered to Buyer.

On May 8 and 9, 2013, at regularly scheduled Board meetings, management informed the Board that based on the Company's first quarter and currently anticipated results for 2013, the Company's EBITDA for 2013 was now expected to be in the range of $110 million to $120 million. As a result, after discussion among management and the Board, the Company determined to issue a press release withdrawing its previously released 2013 earnings guidance.

On May 13, 2013, the Company publicly withdrew its previously released 2013 earnings guidance that had stated that Adjusted EBITDA for 2013 was expected to be in the range of $142 million to $152 million.

On May 21, 2013, Buyer delivered a revised acquisition proposal addressed to the Company and the Majority Stockholders. Although the Company had withdrawn its earnings guidance for 2013 and had informed Buyer that its 2013 earnings would be below the earnings projections previously delivered to Buyer, Buyer increased its indication of interest to $1.125 billion on an enterprise valuation basis. The revised acquisition proposal was subject to the same material conditions as Buyer's initial indication of interest.

Under the terms of the Tax Receivable Agreements entered into at the time of the Company's initial public offering, the Company is obligated to pay the Majority Stockholders 85% of the reduction of the Company's liability for U.S. federal, state, local and franchise taxes allowed as a result of additional depreciation, amortization and imputed interest tax deductions arising from transactions described in the Exchange Agreements. In May 2013, the Company's outside legal advisor, Dechert LLP (Dechert), advised the Board that a sale of the Company to Buyer would trigger the Majority Stockholders' right to receive these payments and that as a result, in connection with a sale of the Company, the Majority Stockholders would be entitled to receive consideration in addition to the consideration to be paid to the minority stockholders of the Company.

On June 6, 2013, the Board met by telephone to discuss Buyer's revised proposal of May 21, 2013. At that meeting Dechert made a presentation to the Board regarding the Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law. On behalf of the Majority Stockholders, Mr. Daraviras advised the Board that, in the event of a sale of the Company at a price agreeable to the Majority Stockholders, the Majority Stockholders would waive any right to receive payments under the Tax Receivable Agreements to more fully align the Majority Stockholders' interests with the interests of the other stockholders. However, Mr. Daraviras advised the Board that the Majority Stockholders would not support a transaction at the price per share implied at the $1.125 billion enterprise valuation proposed in the revised acquisition proposal, if the implied price per share was based on the Company's March 31, 2013 balance sheet. The Board supported further discussions with Buyer and expressed a desire to have Buyer convert its enterprise valuation into a per share price proposal. The Board then discussed the desire to engage a financial advisor and, after input from management, agreed that three investment banking firms would be interviewed.

On June 11, 2013, each of the three investment banking firms was interviewed by Company management and members of the Board who attended the meetings either in person or by phone.

Buyers and TPH's representatives, Mr. O'Leary, Mr. Laxton and Mr. Daraviras met on June 11, 2013, in Houston, Texas. During this meeting, Mr. Daraviras indicated that, based on the projected debt of the Company at September 30, 2013, Buyer's revised acquisition proposal corresponded to a price of $13.00 per share and at this price the Majority Stockholders would support a transaction, subject to Board approval.

On June 12, 2013, the Board met by telephone to discuss each of the three investment banking firms interviewed, extensively discussed the qualifications of each of the three firms, and determined that the Company should retain Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (Citi) as the Company's financial advisor in respect of a potential sale transaction. Citi was informed of the decision on the same day.

Over June 17 to 19, 2013, Mr. O'Leary and representatives of TPH discussed whether Buyer would confirm that its $1.125 billion valuation equated to $13.00 per share. TPH advised Mr. O'Leary that Buyer's most recent indication of interest equated to an $11.50 per share price based on the Company's March 31, 2013 balance sheet. Additionally, TPH advised Mr. O'Leary that Buyer needed to do more diligence regarding the Company's expected debt, sales, backlog and working capital levels in order to support the $11.50 per share price. Buyer also indicated that it was not prepared to base its price on a projected (as opposed to historical) balance sheet. The Company's net debt at March 31, 2013 was $622.5 million.

On June 21, 2013, the Board met telephonically. Mr. O'Leary described his recent conversations with representatives of TPH. As the Majority Stockholder would not support a transaction at a price of $11.50 per share, the Board suggested that Mr. O'Leary directly contact Buyer's highest ranking officer in its Tubular Products Group to discuss Buyer's interest in a transaction at a share price in excess of $11.50. During these conversations, Mr. O'Leary indicated to Buyer that the Majority Stockholders would not support a transaction at $11.50 per share and that the Majority Stockholders had concerns regarding Buyer's debt level assumptions in arriving at a price of $11.50 per share. Buyer indicated it was very interested in a transaction, but was still conducting due diligence and would be in contact with the Company.

On June 24, 2013, the Board met again telephonically, with Mr. O'Leary reporting on his conversation with Buyer's top executive in the Tubular Products Group.

Between July 1, 2013 and July 3, 2013, representatives of Buyer and TPH conducted due diligence meetings with representatives of the Company. On July 2, 2013, in a meeting between Mr. O'Leary, other representatives of the Company and representatives of Buyer and TPH, the Company informed Buyer that revised 2013 EBITDA was expected to be in the range of $110 million to $120 million and that 2014 EBITDA was expected to be approximately $140 million. Following this meeting, Mr. O'Leary updated the Board members on an individual basis regarding the discussions with Buyer.

On July 17, 2013, representatives of Buyer and TPH met in New York, New York with Mr. O'Leary and James L. Luikart, a member of the Board and a representative of the Majority Stockholders. At the meeting, Buyer delivered a revised acquisition proposal of $11.75 per share. The revised acquisition proposal was subject to the same material conditions as Buyer's previous proposals.

In response, Mr. Luikart expressed disappointment with Buyer's revised proposal and requested that Buyer further increase its proposed price. In a subsequent telephone call, representatives of TPH indicated to Mr. O'Leary that Buyer might be prepared to increase its acquisition proposal to $12.00 per share. In response to this, Mr. O'Leary indicated that if Buyer increased its proposal to $12.00 per share, he would request Board authorization for Buyer to conduct further due diligence.

On July 22, 2013, Company management met with Citi telephonically to discuss having Citi contact other potential acquirers to determine the level of interest in acquiring the Company. During such call, Mr. O'Leary and Citi discussed possible parties that might be interested in an acquisition of the Company.

On July 23, 2013, Buyer delivered a revised acquisition proposal addressed to the Company of $12.00 per share. The revised acquisition proposal was subject to the same material conditions as Buyer's previous proposals. The Company's net debt at June 30, 2013 was $659.5 million.

On July 31, 2013, the Board, along with representatives of Dechert and Citi, met by telephone to discuss Buyer's revised indication of interest, the proposed further diligence requested from Buyer and the possibility of soliciting other third-party interest in the Company. Citi discussed with the Board certain financial matters relating to the Company and Buyer's $12.00 per share price indication. The Board, including representatives of the Majority Stockholders, determined that the revised indication represented a sufficient basis for providing Buyer with its requested additional due diligence. Following discussion, the Board instructed Mr. O'Leary to communicate to Buyer that the Company would allow Buyer to conduct the requested additional due diligence. Citi and management then discussed with the Board other parties that could be contacted as potential acquirers. After discussion and input from the Board regarding potential candidates, the Board authorized Citi to contact selected parties on the Company's behalf to determine such parties' potential interest in acquiring the Company.

Also on July 31, 2013, representatives of Dechert, representatives of Buyer's counsel, Norton Rose Fulbright (Fulbright), and in-house counsel for Buyer and the Company, held a conference call to discuss potential structures for a transaction, high level terms proposed by Buyer for a definitive agreement and Buyer's legal diligence requests.

Additionally, on July 31, 2013, representatives of the Company, with Citi's assistance, began preparations for a virtual data room to accommodate Buyer's additional due diligence requests. Throughout the month of August 2013, representatives of the Company and Buyer coordinated with respect to Buyer's due diligence review of the Company.

Beginning on July 31, 2013, in accordance with the Board's directives, Citi began contacting 12 potential acquirers (including two parties that previously had contacted the Company in the fall of 2012 regarding a potential acquisition), consisting of nine potential strategic acquirers and three potential financial acquirers, to gauge their interest in a potential acquisition of the Company. Of the 12 parties contacted, four parties signed confidentiality agreements on August 2, 2013, August 8, 2013, August 9, 2013, and August 20, 2013, respectively. After signing a confidentiality agreement, each of the four parties was provided with a data packet containing, among other things, the August Projections referred to below and information regarding share count and options. By August 16, 2013, each of the other eight parties had declined an interest in acquiring the Company and therefore did not sign confidentiality agreements.

In August 2013, the Company made available to Buyer a revised forecast of certain projected income statement and balance sheet information of the Company for the period 2013 through 2018 (the August Projections). The August Projections forecast projected EBITDA for years 2013 through 2018 to be $110.2 million, $140.9 million, $154.2 million, $165.2 million, $172.0 million and $186.4 million, respectively. See The Merger Prospective Financial Information.

On August 8, 2013, the Board held a meeting in New York, New York. Representatives of Dechert and Citi attended telephonically. At this meeting, Citi discussed with the Board, among other things, the status of the efforts in contacting other potential acquirers and a market update. A representative of Dechert provided the Board with an overview of the transaction structure and high level terms that Buyer's counsel was proposing for a potential acquisition. The Board then engaged in an extensive discussion of the foregoing matters.

On August 15, 2013, Fulbright furnished to Dechert initial drafts of (i) the Merger Agreement providing for an acquisition transaction between Buyer and the Company; (ii) the Exchange and Termination Agreement, pursuant to which the Majority Stockholders would agree to exchange all of their membership interests in EDG Holdco and all of their shares of Class B Stock for shares of Class A Stock and terminate the Tax Receivable Agreements without payment by the Company; and (iii) a voting agreement (the Voting Agreement) to be entered into by the Majority Stockholders, pursuant to which the Majority Stockholders would agree to deliver a written consent voting the Majority Stockholders' shares of Voting Stock in favor of the Merger.

Table of Contents

On August 16, 2013, representatives of Dechert prepared a summary of the high-level issues contained in Fulbright's initial draft of the Merger Agreement and related documents, which summary was distributed to the Board for consideration. These high level issues included, among other items, the proposed structure, which included delivery by the Majority Stockholders of a written consent approving the Merger shortly after signing the Merger Agreement, a 10-day window shop period (which was reduced to three days in a subsequent Buyer draft of the Merger Agreement) in which the Board could terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior unsolicited offer, a $50.0 million termination fee and a provision that stated that Buyer would not be required to dispose of any assets to resolve any antitrust objections to a transaction.

Throughout the rest of August 2013, representatives of Buyer continued their due diligence review of the Company.

Beginning on August 21, 2013, in accordance with the Company's directives, Citi requested that the four parties that had signed confidentiality agreements provide preliminary indications of interest by August 30, 2013, or in some cases (depending on when a party signed a confidentiality agreement and received confidential information to review) by September 5, 2013.

On August 23, 2013, Dechert delivered to Fulbright comments to the initial drafts of the Merger Agreement and related ancillary transaction documents. Additionally, on this same date, the party that executed a confidentiality agreement on August 9, 2013 indicated that it was not interested in pursuing a transaction with the Company.

At the end of August 2013, the party that had executed a confidentiality agreement on August 8, 2013 indicated that it was no longer interested in pursuing an acquisition of the Company.

On August 30, 2013, Fulbright delivered to Dechert a revised draft of the Merger Agreement. Among other significant issues, the revised draft contained a net debt covenant, which had not appeared in prior drafts, pursuant to which Buyer requested the Company to agree that net debt at the time of the Merger would be no greater than an amount to be agreed upon and specified in the Merger Agreement.

Dechert and Fulbright, together with respective in-house counsel of Buyer and the Company, met telephonically on September 2, 2013 to discuss outstanding issues on the draft Merger Agreement. While certain issues were resolved, certain significant issues, including the request for the net debt covenant, remained unresolved.

On September 3, 2013, Mr. O'Leary met in Houston, Texas with representatives of Buyer to discuss certain gating material issues in the draft Merger Agreement, including Buyer's request for the net debt covenant. At the meeting, Buyer agreed to drop its request for the net debt covenant and indicated a willingness to compromise on the other material issues, but at the end of the meeting told Mr. O'Leary that it did not wish to close the transaction, even if all conditions had been satisfied, until after April 1, 2014. Mr. O'Leary advised Buyer that his initial view was that such an extended closing would be unacceptable to the Company. Following the meeting, Mr. O'Leary informed the Board of the extended closing date issue, and the Board unanimously agreed that it was unwilling to proceed with a transaction on that basis. Mr. O'Leary then advised representatives of Buyer that the Company was unwilling to extend the closing to April 1, 2014 and that the Company was stopping work on the transaction until Buyer withdrew its request for an extended closing. On September 11, 2013, Buyer withdrew its request for an extended closing and the parties resumed discussions.

By September 6, 2013, the two remaining parties that had executed confidentiality agreements indicated that they were no longer interested in pursuing an acquisition of the Company.

Agreement, and the status of discussions with other potential acquirers. Mr. O'Leary updated the Board on the current status of discussions with Buyer. Representatives of Dechert reviewed with the Board the status of the negotiations of the draft Merger Agreement and described several significant issues in the draft Merger Agreement including the three-day window shop period sought by Buyer, Buyer's proposal for a $42 million termination fee and Buyer's proposal that it would not be required to dispose of any assets to resolve any antitrust objections to the transaction. Citi then updated the Board as to, among other things, the results of the Company's third-party solicitation efforts and financial matters relating to Buyer's $12.00 per share acquisition proposal. The Board, after extensive discussions with management and representatives of Dechert, authorized management to continue to attempt to resolve the remaining issues in the Merger Agreement and provided guidance on the significant issues remaining.

On September 17, 2013, Dechert and Fulbright, together with respective in-house counsel of Buyer and the Company, met telephonically to discuss the issues outstanding in the draft Merger Agreement.

On September 18, 2013, representatives of the Company and Buyer, together with the Majority Stockholder, Dechert, Fulbright, Citi and TPH, met in Houston, Texas for a discussion of the draft Merger Agreement. Over the course of the day, the Company and Buyer resolved most of the remaining significant outstanding issues existing in the Merger Agreement.

On September 20, 2013, Fulbright delivered a revised draft of the Merger Agreement to Dechert.

Over the next several days, representatives of the Company, Buyer and the Majority Stockholders continued negotiations of the Merger Agreement and related ancillary transaction documents, including the Voting Agreement and the Written Consent. Additionally, during this period, counsel for the Majority Stockholders provided comments to the terms of the drafts of the Voting Agreement, the Exchange and Termination Agreement and the Written Consent.

By September 26, 2013, all material outstanding issues on the Merger Agreement and each of the related agreements had been resolved. On September 26, 2013, Mr. O'Leary travelled to Tokyo, Japan to be introduced to senior executives at Sumitomo Corporation.

On September 29, 2013, a draft Merger Agreement and other transaction documents were distributed to the Board for its consideration, together with materials from Dechert and Citi for review in advance of the Board's September 30, 2013 meeting.

On September 30, 2013, the Board met telephonically to consider the Merger Agreement, with members of the Company's management and representatives of Dechert and Citi in attendance. At this meeting, the Board reviewed the history of negotiations with Buyer, including Buyer's increases to its proposed purchase price, the status of the Company's business and the results of the third-party solicitation efforts. The Board discussed the terms of and reasons supporting the proposed transaction with Buyer. Representatives of Dechert reviewed with the Board its fiduciary duties and the terms of the proposed Merger Agreement and the other transaction documents.

Also at this meeting, Citi reviewed with the Board its financial analysis of the Merger Consideration, and delivered to the Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated September 30, 2013, to the effect that, as of such date and based on and subject to various assumptions, matters considered and limitations and qualifications described in such opinion, the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Class A Stock (other than holders that entered into or are party to exchange or voting agreements or similar undertakings in connection with the Merger or related transactions and their respective affiliates) was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Following further discussion, including concerning the factors described under Reasons for the Merger, the Board unanimously: (i) determined that entering into the Merger Agreement was fair and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders; (ii) approved and declared advisable the proposed terms of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement; (iii) determined that the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, were fair and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders; (iv) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to the stockholders of the Company for adoption; and (v) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger.

After the Board meeting, representatives of the Company and Buyer finalized the Merger Agreement and the other transaction documents, and the parties executed and delivered these agreements in the morning on October 1, 2013. That same morning, prior to the commencement of trading on the NYSE, the Company and Buyer issued a joint press release announcing the transaction and the Company filed a current report on Form 8-K with the SEC which included as exhibits the Merger Agreement, the Voting Agreement, the Exchange and Termination Agreement and the Guarantee.

On October 1, 2013, following the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement by the parties thereto, the Majority Stockholders delivered to the Company the Written Consent adopting and approving in all respects the Merger Agreement and the transactions and agreements contemplated thereby, including the Merger. The Written Consent was delivered by the Company to representatives of Buyer on October 1, 2013.

The Company's Reasons for the Merger

In the course of reaching the decision and making the recommendation described above, the Board consulted with its outside legal and financial advisors and with the Company's management and considered a number of factors that it believed supported its decision, including the following:

Attractive Value. The Board considered the value of the Merger Consideration of $12.00 per share in cash relative to the historical trading prices of the Class A Stock and relative to historical market trading multiples and transaction multiples, including that the Merger Consideration of $12.00 per share represented a significant premium to the closing price of the Class A Stock on the last trading day prior to the date the Board approved the Merger Agreement (55%), to the volume-weighted average closing prices of the Class A Stock for the 30-day (55%), 180-day (69%), one-year periods prior to such date (38%) and since the Company's initial public offering (9%).

Best Alternative for Maximizing Stockholder Value. The Board considered that receipt of the Merger Consideration of $12.00 per share in cash was more favorable to the Company's stockholders than the potential value that might result from the Company's other strategic alternatives (including the alternative of remaining independent), particularly on a risk-adjusted basis. This consideration was based on, among other things, the Board's assessment of:

the Company's historical operating and financial performance, its competitive position and its future prospects;

the risks associated with the Company's strategy and execution plans, including risks to the Company's plans associated with economic conditions generally and conditions in the industries in which the Company participates, as well as the other risks and uncertainties discussed in the Company's public filings with the SEC;

the strategic and other alternatives reasonably available to the Company, including the alternative of remaining a stand-alone public company and the strategic or recapitalization strategies that might be undertaken as a stand-alone public company, in light of a number of factors, including the risks and uncertainties associated with those alternatives;

the Board's view that Buyer was a logical acquirer of the Company after considering that (i) Buyer had the financial capacity to complete an acquisition of this size, while certain other potential transaction partners in the Company's market space likely would not, (ii) the Company presented a strong strategic fit with Buyer; and (iii) Buyer had a track record of successfully completing acquisitions; and that, through arms-length negotiation, the Merger Consideration was increased from Buyer's initial proposal to the final proposal of $12.00 per share of Class A Stock, as described in Background of the Merger.

Opportunity to Receive Superior Offers. The inclusion of provisions that allow the Board, under certain circumstances and even though the Company stockholder approval has already been obtained, to consider and respond to unsolicited bona fide third party takeover proposals received on or prior to October 31, 2013, or engage in discussions with or negotiations with any person making such acquisition proposal and to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal prior to October 31, 2013 (or such later time as provided in the Merger Agreement), subject to certain notice requirements and other conditions and the requirement that the Company pay the termination fee as more fully described in The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Other Offers and Termination of the Merger Agreement and Termination Fees and Expenses, and the fact that the Voting Agreement entered into by the Majority Stockholders terminates upon any termination of the Merger Agreement.

Greater Certainty of Value. The Board considered that the proposed Merger Consideration is to be paid entirely in cash, which provides the Company's stockholders with certainty of value for their shares. The Board also considered the likelihood that the closing can occur promptly, most likely before the end of 2013.

Likelihood of Completion. The Board considered the degree of certainty that the closing will be achieved, particularly in view of the terms of the Merger Agreement and related documents and the closing conditions, which are limited in scope and number. In that regard, the Board noted:

Buyer's financial capacity to complete acquisitions and its track record of completing prior acquisitions;

Buyer's management's understanding of the Company business and their collective experience with businesses of a similar nature to the Company; that Buyer's obligation to complete the Merger is not subject to receipt of financing or to any other financing-related condition; that Buyer represented in the Merger Agreement that it has (and at the closing of the Merger will have) sufficient cash, available lines of credit or other sources of immediately available, unrestricted funds to enable it to pay the Merger Consideration and to perform its other obligations under the Merger Agreement with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including any amounts necessary to refinance any of the Company's existing indebtedness, and the Guarantor guaranteed the obligations of Buyer and Merger Sub under the Merger Agreement; and that Buyer committed in the Merger Agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to be completed, including obtaining governmental and third party consents, and to resolve any objections to the Merger (however, neither the Company nor Buyer is required to resolve any objections to the Merger asserted under antitrust laws by committing to any obligation or action that is reasonably likely to be materially adverse to the OCTG businesses of the Company, Buyer and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole).

Opinion of the Company's Financial Advisor. The Board considered the opinion, dated September 30, 2013, of Citi as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Class A Stock (other than holders that entered into or are party to exchange or voting agreements or similar undertakings in connection with the Merger or related transactions and their respective affiliates), which opinion was based on and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken as more fully described in "The Merger Opinion of the Company's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 27.

Support of the Majority Stockholders. The Board considered that the Majority Stockholders, which in the aggregate hold approximately 56.2% of the outstanding Voting Stock, are supportive of the transaction. In this regard, the Board noted that the Majority Stockholders would receive the same per share consideration for their shares of Class A Stock (after giving effect to the Exchange) as will be received by all the other Company stockholders and that all of the Company's stockholders would share equally in the control premium being paid by Buyer even though the Majority Stockholders may have been in a position to demand a disproportionate share of the control premium and/or payment for agreeing to terminate the Tax Receivable Agreements.

Other Terms of the Transaction. The Board considered the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and related transaction documents, including the fact that the Voting Agreement entered into by the Majority Stockholders terminates upon any termination of the Merger Agreement.

The Board also considered a variety of potential risks and other potentially negative factors relating to the transaction, including the following, but concluded that the anticipated benefits of the transaction substantially outweigh these considerations:

That the Company's stockholders will have no ongoing equity participation in the Company or in Buyer following the Merger, and that such stockholders will cease to participate in the surviving company's future earnings or growth, if any, or to benefit from increases, if any, in the value of shares of Class A Stock.

The risk of incurring substantial expenses related to the Merger, including in connection with any litigation that may result from the announcement or pendency of the Merger.

The limitations on the Company's ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding a takeover proposal.

The risk that one or more conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the Merger will not be satisfied, and the related risk that the Merger may not be completed.

The risk that the Merger Agreement's restrictions on the conduct of the Company's business prior to the completion of the Merger, generally requiring the Company to conduct its business only in the ordinary course, subject to specific limitations, may delay or prevent the Company from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Merger.

The risks and costs to the Company if the Merger does not close, including the diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential effect on business and customer relationships.

That the receipt of cash in exchange for shares of the Class A Stock pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The possibility that, in certain circumstances under the Merger Agreement primarily related to acceptance of a superior proposal, the Company may be required to pay a termination fee of up to $20.0 million.

That, pursuant to the Voting Agreement, the Majority Stockholders, which in the aggregate hold approximately 56.2% of the Voting Stock, would be obligated to deliver the Written Consent within 24 hours of the execution of the Merger Agreement and that the Written Consent could only be revoked if the Merger Agreement was terminated on or before October 31, 2013.

In addition, the Board was aware of and considered the interests that the Company directors and executive officers may have with respect to the transaction that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as stockholders of the Company generally, as described in The Merger Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Board in reaching its determination and recommendation. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger, the Board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination and recommendation. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Board recommended the Merger Agreement and the Merger based upon the totality of the information it considered.

After considering these factors, the Board concluded that the positive factors relating to the Merger Agreement and the Merger outweighed the potential negative factors and declared the advisability of the Merger Agreement and the Merger based upon the totality of the information presented to and considered by it.

THE BOARD APPROVED AND DECLARED ADVISABLE THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER AND RECOMMENDED THAT OUR STOCKHOLDERS ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

AS THE MAJORITY STOCKHOLDERS DELIVERED THE WRITTEN CONSENT ON OCTOBER 1, 2013, NO FURTHER ACTION BY ANY STOCKHOLDER OF THE COMPANY IS REQUIRED UNDER APPLICABLE LAW OR THE MERGER AGREEMENT (OR OTHERWISE) TO ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT OR APPROVE THE MERGER, AND THE COMPANY WILL NOT BE SOLICITING YOUR VOTE FOR ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT OR THE MERGER AND WILL NOT CALL A STOCKHOLDERS MEETING FOR PURPOSES OF VOTING ON THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT OR THE MERGER.

Opinion of the Company's Financial Advisor

The Company has retained Citi as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger. In connection with this engagement, the Company requested that Citi evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Class A Stock (other than holders that entered into or are party to exchange or voting agreements or similar undertakings in connection with the Merger or related transactions and their respective affiliates). On September 30, 2013, at a meeting of the Board held to evaluate the Merger, Citi delivered to the Board an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated September 30, 2013, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions, matters considered and limitations and qualifications described in its opinion, the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Class A Stock (other than holders that entered into or are party to exchange or voting agreements or similar undertakings in connection with the Merger or related transactions and their respective affiliates) was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of Citi's written opinion, dated September 30, 2013, which describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex E and is incorporated herein by reference. The description of Citi's opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Citi's opinion. Citi's financial advisory services and opinion were provided for the information of the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Merger Consideration from a financial point of view and did not address any other aspects or implications of the Merger. alternative business strategies or opportunities that might exist for the Company or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company might engage. Citi's opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on Citi's part to any party and such opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any stockholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the Merger or otherwise.

In arriving at its opinion, Citi:

reviewed an execution version, provided to Citi on September 29, 2013, of the Merger Agreement;

held discussions with certain of the Company's senior officers, directors and other representatives and advisors and certain officers and other representatives and advisors of Buyer concerning the business, operations and prospects of the Company;

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to the Company;

reviewed certain financial forecasts and other information and data relating to the Company provided to or discussed with Citi by the Company's management;

reviewed the financial terms of the Merger as set forth in the Merger Agreement in relation to, among other things, current and historical market prices and trading volumes of Class A Stock, historical and projected earnings and other operating data of the Company, and the Company's capitalization (including, in connection with the Merger, as contemplated by the exchange of all outstanding shares of Class B Stock together with the corresponding membership units of EDG Holdco into shares of Class A Stock prior to the Effective Time) and financial condition;

analyzed certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the businesses of other companies whose operations Citi considered relevant in evaluating those of the Company;

analyzed, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other transactions which Citi considered relevant in evaluating the Merger; and conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information and financial, economic and market criteria as Citi deemed appropriate in arriving at its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Citi assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Citi and upon the assurances of the management of the Company that it was not aware of any relevant information that was omitted or that remained undisclosed to Citi. With respect to the financial forecasts and other information and data provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Citi relating to the Company, Citi was advised by the Company's management and assumed, with the Company's consent, that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the Company's management as to the future financial performance of the Company.

Citi did not make, and it was not provided with, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company and Citi did not make any physical inspection of the properties or assets of the Company. Citi assumed, with the Company's consent, that the Merger and related transactions (including, without limitation, the Exchange) would be consummated, in all respects meaningful to Citi's analyses or opinion, in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement and related documents and all applicable laws and other relevant documents or requirements without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the Merger and related transactions, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company, the Merger or any related transaction. Representatives of the Company advised Citi, and Citi also assumed, that the final terms of the Merger Agreement would not vary materially from those set forth in the execution version Citi reviewed.

Citi's opinion did not address any terms (other than the Merger Consideration to the extent expressly specified in its opinion) or other aspects or implications of the Merger or any related transactions, including, without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger, the Exchange, any guarantee, voting agreement or stockholder consent or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding to be entered into in connection with or contemplated by the Merger, any related transactions or otherwise. Citi expressed no view as to, and its opinion did not address, the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount or nature or any other aspect of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the Merger or related transactions, or any class of such persons, relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise. Citi's opinion was necessarily based on information available, and financial, stock market and other conditions and circumstances existing and disclosed, to Citi as of the date of its opinion. The issuance of Citi's opinion was authorized by Citi's fairness opinion committee.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented to the Board in connection with Citi's opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Citi's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of such analyses. Implied per share equity value reference ranges derived from the analyses described below generally were rounded to the nearest $0.25.

Citi then applied a range of selected multiples of calendar year 2013 and calendar year 2014 estimated EBITDA of 9.5x to 10.6x and 7.3x to 8.5x, respectively, derived from the selected companies to corresponding data of the Company. Financial data of the selected companies were based on publicly available research analysts estimates, public filings and other publicly available information. Financial data of the selected transactions were based on publicly available information. Financial data of the Company was based on the Company's public filings. Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Citi performed a discounted cash flow analysis of the Company by calculating the estimated present value of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that the Company was forecasted to generate during the second half of fiscal year ending December 31, 2013, through the full fiscal year ending December 31, 2018 based on internal forecasts and estimates of the Company's management. Other Information. Citi also noted for the Board certain additional factors that were not considered part of Citi's financial analyses with respect to its opinion but were referenced for informational purposes, including, among other things, the following:

premiums paid in 145 selected North American transactions, including 102 all-cash transactions, announced between January 1, 2008 and September 27, 2013 with transaction values ranging from $750 million to $2 billion, based on closing stock prices of such companies one day, one week and one month prior to public announcement of the relevant transaction, which transactions reflected overall one day, one week and one month median premiums of approximately 31.1%, 32.2% and 36.5%, respectively (and overall median premiums in selected all-cash transactions of approximately 31.8%, 36.1% and 39.1%, respectively) and overall one day, one week and one month mean premiums of approximately 35.7%, 37.4% and 43.2%, respectively (and overall mean premiums in selected all-cash transactions of approximately 38.2%, 40.8% and 46.9%, respectively); applying a selected range of such premiums of 30.0% to 40.0% to the per share closing price of Class A Stock of $7.72 on September 27, 2013 (the last trading day prior to the Board's approval of the Merger Agreement) indicated an implied per share equity value reference range for the Company of approximately $10.00 to $10.75;

one-year forward stock price targets for the Company in publicly available Wall Street research analysts' reports, which indicated one-year forward low to high stock price targets for the Company, on an undiscounted basis, of $8.00 to $15.00 per share and, on a present value basis (utilizing a discount rate at an estimated cost of equity of 14.0%), of $7.00 to $13.25 per share; and intraday trading prices during the 52-week period ended September 27, 2013, which indicated such trading prices for Class A Stock during such period of $5.67 to $8.67 per share.

Miscellaneous

In preparing its opinion, Citi performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described above. The summary of the analyses above is not a complete description of Citi's opinion or the analyses underlying, and factors considered in connection with, Citi's opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a financial opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. Citi arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole, and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one factor or method of analysis. Accordingly, Citi believes that the analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying such analyses and its opinion.

In its analyses, Citi considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters existing as of the date of its opinion, many of which are beyond the control of the Company. No company, business or transaction reviewed is identical or directly comparable to the Company or the Merger and an evaluation of these analyses is not entirely mathematical; rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading, acquisition or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions reviewed.

The estimates contained in Citi's analyses and the valuation ranges resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold or acquired. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Citi's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Citi was not requested to, and it did not, recommend the specific consideration payable in the Merger. The type and amount of consideration payable in the Merger were determined through negotiations between the Company and Buyer and the decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the Board. Citi's opinion was only one of many factors considered by the Board in its evaluation of the Merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Board or Company management with respect to the Merger or the Merger Consideration.

In connection with Citi's services as the Company's financial advisor, the Company has agreed to pay Citi a fee, a portion of which was payable upon Citi's engagement, a portion of which was payable upon delivery of Citi's opinion and a portion of which is payable contingent upon completion of the Merger and calculated based on the Company's transaction value as of the closing date of the Merger. The aggregate fee would have been approximately $7.4 million, with the portion contingent upon closing of the Merger being approximately $5.8 million, if the Merger had closed on June 30, 2013. An additional $3.0 million is payable, upon completion of the Merger, in the Company's sole discretion. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse Citi for certain expenses, including fees and expenses of counsel, and to indemnify Citi and related parties against liabilities, including liabilities under federal securities laws, arising from Citi's engagement.

Citi and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide investment banking and other financial services to the Company, Buyer and its parent company, Sumitomo Corporation, and/or their respective affiliates unrelated to the Merger, for which services Citi and its affiliates received and expect to receive compensation, including during the two-year period prior to the date of its opinion (i) having acted as joint bookrunner in connection with the initial public offering of Class A Stock in April 2012, (ii) acting as administrative agent on a $150,000,000 term loan for Buyer and (iii) having acted as co-lead arranger of a JPY 30,000,000,000 senior unsecured bond offering of Sumitomo Corporation in April 2012 and acting as bookrunner on certain revolving credit facilities of Sumitomo Corporation. In the ordinary course of business, Citi and its affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of the Company, Buyer and Sumitomo Corporation for their own account or for the account of their customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In addition, Citi and its affiliates (including Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates) may maintain relationships with the Company, Buyer, Sumitomo Corporation and their respective affiliates.

The Company selected Citi to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger based on Citi's reputation, experience and familiarity with the Company and its business. Citi is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that regularly engages in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

Certain Unaudited Prospective Financial Information Concerning the Company

The Company does not, as a matter of general practice, publicly disclose financial projections, due to the unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates inherent in preparing financial projections. However, the Company has elected to provide the unaudited prospective financial information set forth below in order to provide its stockholders access to selected non-public unaudited prospective financial information that was prepared in connection with the evaluation of a possible transaction and was provided to the Board and its financial advisors prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement. These financial projections were also provided to Buyer and TPH during the due diligence process. You should note that the prospective financial information constitutes forward-looking statements, and that the prospective financial information was not prepared with a view toward public disclosure. Inclusion of this information should not be regarded as an indication that any of the Company, Buyer or any of their respective affiliates, officers, employees, directors, advisors or other representatives or any other recipient of this information considered, or now considers, it to be necessarily predictive of actual future results or is indicative of guidance that the Company would provide as a stand-alone company should the transaction not be consummated. None of the Company, Buyer or any of their respective affiliates, officers, employees, directors, advisors or other representatives has made or makes any representation to any stockholder or other person regarding the Company's ultimate performance compared to the prospective financial information or that forecasted results will be achieved. The Company has made no representation to Buyer, in the Merger Agreement or otherwise, concerning these or any financial forecast. Readers of this information statement are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the prospective financial information. See Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements on page 14.

The prospective financial information was prepared for internal use and is subjective in many respects. While presented with numeric specificity, the prospective financial information reflects numerous estimates and assumptions of the Company's management with respect to sales volume, steel pricing, operating expense, capital expenditures, industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, litigation, market and financial conditions and matters specific to the Company's business, many of which are beyond the Company's control. As a result, there can be no assurance that the prospective financial information will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than estimated. Since the prospective financial information covers multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less predictive with each successive year. A number of important factors with respect to the Company's business and the industry in which it participates may affect actual results and result in the prospective financial information not being achieved. For a description of some of these factors, the Company's stockholders are urged to review the Company's most recent SEC filings as well as Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements. Economic and business environments can and do change quickly which adds a significant level of unpredictability and execution risk. These factors create significant uncertainty as to whether the results portrayed in the prospective financial information will be achieved. The prospective financial information was not prepared with a view toward complying with United States generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections or the use of non-GAAP financial measures or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of the prospective financial information. Neither the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined, or performed any procedures with respect to the prospective financial information, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability. Furthermore, the prospective financial information does not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date of its preparation and the Company does not intend to make publicly available any update or other revision to the prospective financial information.

EBITDA is defined as net income (loss), plus interest expense, provision for income taxes, depreciation and amortization expense. Unlevered Free Cash Flow is defined as net income (loss), plus depreciation and amortization, plus change in net working capital, less capital expenditures.

For the following reasons, we believe EBITDA and Unlevered Free Cash Flow represent an effective supplemental means by which to measure our operating performance: (a) management uses EBITDA and

Unlevered Free Cash Flow to, among other things, evaluate the performance of our operating segments, develop budgets and measure our performance against those budgets, determine employee bonuses and evaluate our cash flows in terms of cash needs and (b) EBITDA and Unlevered Free Cash Flow enable us and our investors to evaluate and compare our results from operations in a more meaningful and consistent manner by excluding specific items which are not reflective of ongoing operating results, such as items related to capital structure, taxes and certain non-cash charges.

These Non-GAAP measures, as calculated by us, are not necessarily comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. Additionally, because these Non-GAAP measures do not account for certain items which may be material to a complete evaluation of our operating results, these measures have material limitations as analytical tools and are not considered by our management in isolation of, as an alternative to or superior to GAAP measures such as net income, operating income, net cash flow provided by operating activities or any other measure of financial performance or liquidity calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP.

We believe that net income (loss) is the most directly comparable GAAP measure to EBITDA. The following table presents reconciliations of EBITDA to net income (GAAP) and Unlevered Free Cash Flow to net income (GAAP) for each of the periods indicated (dollars in thousands):

Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Board to adopt the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that the Company's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, those of the Company's stockholders generally. The Board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, (i) in evaluating the Merger Agreement, (ii) in reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement, and (iii) in recommending to Company stockholders that the Merger Agreement and the Merger be adopted. These interests include those described below.

Acceleration of Vesting and Cash Out of Equity Awards

Pursuant to the terms of the applicable award agreements and the Merger Agreement, all unvested stock options and shares of restricted stock held by the executive officers and directors will become fully vested. Accordingly, at the Effective Time:

each option to purchase shares of Class A Stock granted under the Company's equity incentive compensation plan that is outstanding, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount, in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the aggregate number of shares of Class A Stock subject to the option multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of $12.00 over the per share exercise price of the option; and each restricted share of Class A Stock that is outstanding will become vested, free of restriction and will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Termination Benefits of Executive Officers

Each of Messrs. O Leary, Laxton, Kiefer and Keaton has an employment agreement that provides for severance benefits in the event that his employment is terminated in conjunction with or following a change in control of the Company, including the Merger. Mr. Dvorak is subject to an employment agreement that does not provide for any special consideration or severance benefits in conjunction with a change in control of the Company. However, as described below, Mr. Dvorak is entitled to receive severance benefits if at any time the Company terminates Mr. Dvorak without cause or if Mr. Dvorak terminates his employment for good reason. The agreements of Messrs. O Leary, Laxton, Dvorak, Kiefer and Keaton will continue in effect in accordance with their terms following the consummation of the Merger.

Employment Agreements between Messrs. O Leary and Laxton and Edgen Group Inc. and EDG Holdco LLC

The employment agreements of Messrs. O Leary and Laxton provide that if the executive's employment is terminated in conjunction with a change in control, and if the executive executes and delivers to the Company a release of claims as provided by the Company (the Release), then each executive is entitled to receive:

- (i) a lump-sum amount, to be paid within 15 days after the Release becomes irrevocable, that is equal to the sum of (A) two times the executive's annual base salary (as in effect immediately prior to the effective date of the executive's termination) and (B) 1.5 times the executive's target annual bonus for the year in which the executive's termination is effective; and
- (ii) during the 18 months following the effective date of the executive's termination, reimbursement of any amount that the Executive pays for medical coverage, pursuant to a valid and timely election to continue such coverage pursuant to COBRA or a similar state law.

Additionally, the agreements for Messrs. O Leary and Laxton provide for payment of severance benefits upon a termination of employment by the executive for good reason. Good reason is deemed to exist if one of the following events occurs without the executive's written consent, the executive has provided notice to the Company of such event within 90 days of the occurrence of such condition, and the Company has failed to cure such occurrence within 30 days of receiving such notice:

- (i) a material reduction in the executive's base salary;
- (ii) a material diminution in the executive's authority, responsibility or duties;
- (iii) the occurrence of any action or inaction which causes a material breach by the Company of its obligations to the executive pursuant to his employment agreement; or
- (iv) if the Company's corporate headquarters are moved outside a 50-mile radius of Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Pursuant to their employment agreements, the payment of severance benefits to either Mr. O Leary or Mr. Laxton shall be reduced so that total payments do not trigger the imposition of an excise tax under Section 4999 of Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). Additionally, following a termination in conjunction with a change in control, and conditional on the Company's satisfaction of its obligations following such termination, the employment agreements of Messrs. O Leary and Laxton provide that each executive shall (i) not compete with the business of the Company during the one-year period following the effective date of the executive's termination, (ii) not solicit or interfere with the employment relationship of any of the Company's other employees during the two-year period following the effective date of the executive's termination, (iii) protect indefinitely the confidential nature of the Company's proprietary information, and (iv) assign to the Company all inventions made, developed or created by the executive during his employment with the Company.

differing level of severance benefits in conjunction with or following a change in control. The definition of "good reason" in Mr. Dvorak's employment agreements is substantially similar to the definition of such term in the employment agreements of Messrs. O'Leary and Laxton, except that, with regard to a change in Mr. Dvorak's primary place of employment, good reason shall exist only if the executive's primary place of business is moved to a location more than 100 miles from the city limits of Pampa, Texas (without regard to the location of the Company's headquarters).

If at any time the Company terminates Mr. Dvorak's employment without cause, or if Mr. Dvorak terminates his employment for good reason, Mr. Dvorak is entitled to receive:

(i) continued base salary for a period of 12 months (to be paid in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices as in effect from time to time);

(ii) a pro-rated bonus payable within 45 days after the end of the quarter in which such termination occurs; and

(iii) if Mr. Dvorak elects coverage under COBRA, payment of premiums necessary for Mr. Dvorak to have continued participation in the Company's medical plan at the same level of benefits as is made available to the Company's employees generally for a period that ends on the earlier of the date (A) that is 12 months after the effective date of Mr. Dvorak's termination or (B) on which Mr. Dvorak received substantially comparable coverage and benefits under the medical plan of a subsequent employer.

Mr. Dvorak's employment agreement provides that Mr. Dvorak shall (i) indefinitely protect the confidentiality of the Company's proprietary information and (ii) for a period of twenty-four (24) months following Mr. Dvorak's termination, neither (A) compete with the Company in a specified restricted geographical area nor (B) solicit or interfere with the contractual relationships that the Company has with its employees, contractors, agents, clients, customers or suppliers or those of any of the Company's affiliates.

Employment Agreements between Messrs. Kiefer and Keaton and Edgen Murray Corporation

The employment agreements of Messrs. Kiefer and Keaton provide that if (a) the executive's employment is terminated by the Company without cause (other than due to death or disability) or by the executive for "good reason," in either case, within one year following a change in control, or (b) the executive voluntarily terminates his employment on his own initiative on or after 275 days, but no later than 305 days, following a change of control, then the executive shall be entitled to receive:

(i) continuation of base salary for one year following the effective date of the executive's termination, to be paid in 26 bi-weekly installments;

(ii) any bonus accrued during the calendar year in which the executive's termination became effective;

(iii) other or additional benefits then due or earned in accordance with the applicable plans or programs of the Company; and

(iv) pursuant to the executive's valid and timely election under COBRA, payment of premiums for continued participation in the Company's medical plans, at the same level at which the executive participated prior to the termination, for a period ending on the earlier of the date (A) that is one year following the executive's termination or (B) on which the executive receives substantially comparable coverage and benefits under the medical plan of a subsequent employer.

The definition of "good reason" in the employment agreements of Messrs. Kiefer and Keaton is substantially similar to the definition of such term in the employment agreement of Messrs. O'Leary and Laxton, except that, with regard to a change in the executive's primary place of employment, good reason shall exist if the executive's primary place of employment is relocated outside a 50-mile radius of either Houston, Texas (for Mr. Kiefer) or Baton Rouge, Louisiana (for Mr. Keaton) (and, in either case, without regard to the location of the Company's headquarters).

Indemnification and Insurance

The Merger Agreement provides that, following the Merger, the surviving corporation will assume all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Merger existing in favor of the current or former directors or officers of the Company and its subsidiaries as provided in their respective certificates of incorporation or bylaws (or comparable organizational documents) and any indemnification or other agreements of the Company as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement. Following the Merger, the surviving corporation must maintain a six-year tail directors and officers liability insurance policy, subject to a cap on aggregate premiums, with respect to claims arising out of or relating to events which occurred before or at the Effective Time.

Transaction Bonuses

The Company intends to pay transaction bonuses of up to $250,000 (the Bonus Pool) in the aggregate to certain employees in connection with the consummation of the Merger. At the time of mailing of this information statement, the allocation of the Bonus Pool had yet to be determined, however, subject to authorization from the Compensation Committee of the Board, a portion of the Bonus Pool may be allocated to Craig Kiefer, one of our executive officers, but it is not expected to be allocated to any of our other executive officers.

Equity Awards

Under the Merger Agreement, the Company has the right to issue a maximum of 17,000 Company equity awards and to issue Company equity awards replacing forfeitures after the date of the Merger Agreement. At the time of mailing of this information statement, the allocation of any such Company equity awards had yet to be determined but such Company equity award grants are not expected to be allocated to any of our executive officers.

Employment Agreements with Surviving Corporation

As of the date of this information statement, Buyer has informed the Company that none of the Company's executive officers have entered into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with Buyer regarding employment with the surviving corporation. As part of its retention efforts, Buyer may wish to enter into agreements, arrangements or understandings with the Company's officers and certain other key employees.

Litigation Relating to the Merger

A purported class action lawsuit was filed in the 19th Judicial District Court of the State of Louisiana, East Baton Rouge Parish, on October 11, 2013 (Jason Genoud v. Edgen Group, Inc., et al., No. 625244), on behalf of all of the Company's stockholders (excluding defendants and any person or entity related to or affiliated with any defendant) challenging the Merger and naming as defendants the Company, the Board, Buyer, Merger Sub and the Guarantor. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the Board (aided and abetted by the remaining defendants) breached its fiduciary duties to the plaintiff and the other public stockholders of the Company by authorizing the Merger with Buyer and Merger Sub for inadequate consideration that undervalues the Company. The complaint also claims that the Merger Agreement contains unfair deal protection devices that will preclude a fair sale process and that defendants are acting to better their own interests at the expense of the Company's public shareholders. The complaint seeks, among other relief, an order enjoining the consummation of the Merger, compensatory damages and plaintiffs attorneys' and experts' fees. The Company believes the claims are without merit and intends to defend against them vigorously.

Regulatory Waiting Periods

Under the HSR Act, the Merger may not be completed until the Company and Buyer have filed notification and report forms with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the applicable waiting period has expired or been terminated. On October 15, 2013, the Company and Buyer each filed a Notification and Report Form with the Antitrust Division and the Federal Trade Commission and requested an early termination of the waiting period. If the early termination is not granted and a request for additional information by the relevant antitrust authorities is not made, the waiting period will expire at 11:59 p.m. on November 14, 2013.

Table of Contents

Under the Merger Agreement, both the Company and Buyer have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to obtain all required governmental approvals and avoid any action or proceeding by a governmental entity to the extent necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the Merger; however, neither the Company nor Buyer is required to resolve any objections to the Merger asserted under antitrust laws by committing to any obligation or action that is reasonably likely to be materially adverse to the OCTG businesses of the Company, Buyer and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole. Except as noted above with respect to the required filings under the HSR Act, the expiration of 20 days from the mailing of this information statement to the Company's stockholders and the filing of a certificate of merger in Delaware at or before the effective date of the Merger, we are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals required for the execution of the Merger Agreement or completion of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

In addition, such representations and warranties (a) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement, (b) may be subject to limits or exceptions agreed upon by the contracting parties, (c) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors, (d) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or other specific dates and (e) have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the contracting parties rather than establishing matters as facts. The Company will provide additional disclosure in its public reports to the extent that it is aware of the existence of any material facts that are required to be disclosed under federal securities law and that might otherwise contradict the terms and information contained in the Merger Agreement and will update such disclosure as required by federal securities laws. The Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub, a subsidiary of Buyer, will merge with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation. As a result of the Merger, Merger Sub will cease to exist and the Company will continue its corporate existence under the DGCL. The Merger will be effective at the time a certificate of merger is duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware (or at a later time, if agreed upon by the parties and specified in the certificate of merger filed with the Secretary of State).

Merger Consideration

At the Effective Time, each issued and outstanding share of Class A Stock will automatically be cancelled and will cease to exist and each outstanding share (other than shares (i) owned by Buyer, Merger Sub or the Company (as treasury or otherwise) or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries (ii) where the holder has properly exercised appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL (and has not withdrawn such exercise or lost such rights)) will automatically be cancelled and will cease to exist and will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Table of Contents

At the Effective Time, each share of Class B Stock outstanding or held in treasury after giving effect to the Exchange will be cancelled and cease to exist, for which no consideration will be paid.

Directors and Officers; Certificates of Incorporation; Bylaws

At the Effective Time, the directors and officers of Merger Sub will become the directors and officers of the Company until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified or the earlier of their death, resignation, or removal.

At the Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation will be amended as set forth in Exhibit D to the Merger Agreement. The bylaws of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time will be the bylaws of the surviving corporation.

Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Stock

At the Effective Time, each option to purchase shares of Class A Stock granted under the Company's equity incentive compensation plan that is outstanding, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount, in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the aggregate number of shares of Class A Stock subject to the option multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of $12.00 over the per share exercise price of the option, less any deduction for withholding taxes required by applicable law.

At the Effective Time, each restricted share of Class A Stock that is outstanding will become vested, free of restriction and will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

Stockholders Seeking Appraisal

The Merger Agreement provides that the shares of those stockholders who are entitled to demand and properly demand appraisal will not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, but will instead be entitled to such rights as are granted by Section 262 of the DGCL. If a holder fails to perfect, withdraws or loses his, her or its right to appraisal of shares of Class A Stock, or if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such holder is not entitled to appraisal rights, his, her or its shares will be treated as if they had been converted into and are exchangeable for the Merger Consideration in accordance with the Merger Agreement. The Company must give Buyer prompt notice of demands for appraisal or withdrawal of any such demand and the Company may not make a payment with respect to a demand for appraisal or settle any such demands without Buyer's prior written consent.

The fair value of shares of Class A Stock as determined in accordance with Delaware law may be more or less than (or the same as) the Merger Consideration to be paid to stockholders who choose not to exercise their appraisal rights. Stockholders who wish to exercise appraisal rights must precisely follow specific procedures. Additional details on appraisal rights are described above in Appraisal Rights.

Payment for the Shares

Prior to the Effective Time, Buyer will designate a paying agent reasonably acceptable to us to make payment of the Merger Consideration as contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Prior to or at the Effective Time, Buyer will deposit with the paying agent the funds appropriate to pay the Merger Consideration.

No later than the third business day following the closing of the Merger, Buyer or the paying agent will send you a letter of transmittal and instructions advising you how to surrender your shares of Class A Stock in exchange for the Merger Consideration. If you appear at the closing of the Merger in person, the paying agent will provide you the letter of transmittal and instructions at the closing. The paying agent will promptly pay you your Merger Consideration after you have (1) surrendered the certificate(s) representing your shares of Class A

Stock and provided to the paying agent a properly completed letter of transmittal and any other documents reasonable required by the paying agent, or (2) if your shares of Class A Stock are held as book-entry shares, the paying agent has received an agent's message or such other evidence of transfer as the paying agent may reasonably request. Interest will not be paid or accrue in respect of cash payments. YOU SHOULD NOT SURRENDER YOUR SHARES OF CLASS A STOCK WITHOUT A LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL, AND YOU SHOULD NOT RETURN YOUR CERTIFICATES TO THE COMPANY AT THIS TIME.

At the Effective Time, we will close our stock transfer books and there will be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the surviving corporation of the shares of Class A Stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

If any cash deposited with the paying agent remains undistributed to holders of certificates for six months following the Effective Time, such cash will be delivered to Buyer, upon demand, and any holders of certificates who have not complied with the share certificate exchange procedures in the Merger Agreement may thereafter only look to Buyer for payment of the Merger Consideration.

If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the surrendered share certificate or the transferred book-entry share, as applicable, is registered, the paying agent will promptly pay the Merger Consideration after such person has (i) delivered a properly endorsed such certificate or properly transferred such book-entry share, and (ii) paid to the paying agent any transfer or other tax required as a result of such payment to a person other than the registered holder of such certificate or book-entry share, as applicable, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the paying agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

The letter of transmittal will include instructions if the stockholder has lost the share certificate or if it has been stolen or destroyed. The stockholder will have to provide an affidavit of that fact and, if required by Buyer, post a bond in such reasonable amount as Buyer may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such share certificate in order for the paying agent to deliver applicable Merger Consideration.

Material Adverse Effect Definition

Some of our representations and warranties are qualified by a material adverse effect standard. For the purpose of the Merger Agreement, Company material adverse effect means any event, occurrence, fact, condition or change that is, or would reasonably be expected to become, individually or in the aggregate, materially adverse, to the business, results of operations or financial condition of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will any events, occurrences, facts, conditions or changes arising out of, relating to or resulting from any of the following, alone or in combination, be deemed to constitute or be taken into account in determining whether there has been or may be a company material adverse effect:

- (a) changes generally affecting the U.S. economy, or any other national or regional economy of the world;
- (b) political conditions (or changes in such conditions) in the United States or any other country or region in the world or acts of war, sabotage or terrorism (including any escalation or general worsening of any such acts of war, sabotage or terrorism) in the United States or any other country or region of the world;

- (j) any acts or omissions of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries taken at the request of Buyer or Merger Sub or with prior written consent of Buyer or Merger Sub after the date of the Merger Agreement,

Stockholder Action by Written Consent

On October 1, 2013, the Majority Stockholders, holders of 24,343,138 shares of Class B Stock collectively, constituting approximately 56.2% of the Voting Stock at such time, following the execution of the Merger Agreement, executed the Written Consent adopting the Merger Agreement and approving the Merger. Accordingly, no further approval of the stockholders of the Company is required to adopt the Merger Agreement or approve the Merger. The Company delivered the Written Consent to Buyer on October 1, 2013 following the execution of the Written Consent. If the Written Consent had not been delivered to Buyer within 24 hours of the execution of the Merger Agreement, Buyer would have had the right to terminate the Merger Agreement.

Efforts to Complete the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the parties have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions that are necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective the Merger, including using reasonable best efforts to accomplish the following: (i) the obtaining of all necessary material permits, waivers, consents, approvals and actions or nonactions from governmental entities and the making of all necessary material registrations and filings and the taking of all steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any governmental entities, (ii) the obtaining of all necessary material consents or waivers from third parties; and (iii) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the Merger. Additionally the parties have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to resolve any objections to the Merger Agreement, including Buyer selling, holding separate or otherwise disposing of any asset that would resolve such objection; however, in no event will Buyer be required to commit to any obligation or action that is reasonably likely to be materially adverse to the OTCG businesses of the Company, Buyer and their respective subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

Conditions to the Merger

The consummation of the Merger is subject to certain customary closing conditions, as described further below.

Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. Each party's obligations to effect the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the Company stockholder approval having been obtained (which occurred when the Majority Stockholders delivered the Written Consent on October 1, 2013) and this information statement having been mailed to the Company's stockholders at least 20 days prior to the closing date;

any waiting period (or extension thereof) applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the applicable antitrust laws (including the HSR Act), shall have expired or been terminated; and no temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other judgment issued by any court of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition issued or enacted by a governmental entity that has the effect of preventing the consummation of the Merger shall be in effect.

Conditions to Obligations of Buyer and Merger Sub. The obligation of Buyer and Merger Sub to effect the Merger are also subject to the satisfaction or waiver by Buyer and Merger Sub of the following conditions:

the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in the Merger Agreement:

relating to the number of outstanding shares of Class A Stock (including shares of restricted stock) and Class B Stock, the aggregate amount of Company stock options outstanding and finders or brokers fees being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the Effective Time or, if given as of some other time, as of such other time (other than de minimis exceptions);

relating to corporate authority being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the Effective Time or, if given as of some other time, as of such other time;

relating to organization being true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the Effective Time or, if given as of some other time, as of such other time; and all representations and warranties other than those set forth in the above three bullets being true and correct without giving effect to any limitation as to materiality or Company material adverse effect, as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the Effective Time or, if given as of some other time, as of such other time, except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Company material adverse effect;

we shall have performed in all material respects all obligations, and complied in all material respects with the agreements and covenants, required to be performed by or complied with by us under the Merger Agreement;

the Tax Receivable Agreements have been terminated without any cost to us, Buyer or any of our respective subsidiaries;

since October 1, 2013, there shall not have occurred a Company material adverse effect; and Buyer shall have received a certificate signed by our chief executive officer or chief financial officer, certifying satisfaction of certain of the above conditions.

Conditions to Obligation of the Company. The Company's obligation to effect the Merger is further subject to the satisfaction or waiver by the Company of the following conditions:

the representations and warranties of Buyer and Merger Sub set forth in the Merger Agreement and the representations and warranties of the Guarantor set forth in the Guarantee being true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the Effective Time or, if given as of some other time, as of such other time, except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Buyer's and Merger Sub's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and Guarantor's ability to consummate its obligations set forth in the Guarantee;

Buyer and Merger Sub shall have performed in all material respects all obligations, and complied in all material respects with the agreements and covenants, required to be performed by or complied with by them under the Merger Agreement. Guarantor shall have performed in all material respects all obligations, and complied in all material respects with the agreements and covenants, required to be performed by or complied with by it in the Guarantee; and the Company shall have received a certificate signed by an officer of Buyer certifying satisfaction of each of the above conditions.

No Solicitation of Other Offers

Except as expressly permitted in the Merger Agreement, from the date of the Merger Agreement the Company and its subsidiaries will, and the Company will cause its and its subsidiaries' representatives to, cease immediately and cause to be terminated, and shall not authorize or knowingly permit any of its or their representatives to continue, any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations, if any, with any third party conducted prior to the date hereof with respect to any takeover proposal (defined below).

Except as expressly permitted in the Merger Agreement, from the date of the Merger Agreement the Company and its subsidiaries will not, and the Company will cause its and its subsidiaries' representatives not to:

directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage the submission of any takeover proposal;

conduct or engage in any discussions or negotiations with, disclose any non-public information relating to the Company or any of its subsidiaries to, afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to, any third party that the Company is aware is seeking to make, or has made, any takeover proposal;

(i) amend or grant any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or (ii) approve any transaction under, or any third party becoming an interested stockholder under, Section 203 of the DGCL; or enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other contract relating to any takeover proposal (each a Company acquisition agreement).

In addition, the Company has agreed that neither the Board nor any committee of the Board may:

fail to make, withdraw, amend, modify or materially qualify, in a manner adverse to Buyer or Merger Sub, the Board's recommendation; recommend a takeover proposal, fail to recommend against acceptance of any tender offer or exchange offer for the shares of Class A Stock within ten business days after the commencement of such offer;

make any public statement inconsistent with the Board's recommendation; or resolve or agree to take any of the foregoing actions.

(any of the foregoing, a Company adverse recommendation change).

The Company or the Board, as applicable, is permitted, however, prior to 11:59 p.m. (New York City) on October 31, 2013 (or such later time as described in the Merger Agreement) to:

participate in negotiations or discussions with any third party that has made a bona fide, unsolicited takeover proposal in writing that the Board believes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and financial advisors, constitutes or would reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal (as defined below);

thereafter furnish to such third party non-public information relating to the Company or any of its subsidiaries and afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of the Company or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to an executed confidentiality agreement in the form set forth as an exhibit to the Merger Agreement;

following receipt of and on account of a superior proposal, make a Company adverse recommendation change and/or enter into the Company acquisition agreement constituting such superior proposal;

make public disclosure in response to an intervening event (as defined below);

amend or grant a waiver or release under a standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;

approve any transaction under, or any third party becoming an interested stockholder under, Section 203 of the DGCL; and take any action that any court of competent jurisdiction orders the Company to take (which order remains unstayed);

but, in each case, only if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law.

As of the date of this information statement, the Company has not received any such takeover proposals.

The Company shall notify Buyer promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after it becomes aware of the receipt by the Company (or any of its representatives) after the date hereof of any takeover proposal or any inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal. In such notice, the Company shall identify the third party making, and details of the material terms and conditions of, any such takeover proposal or inquiry.

In order to effect a Company adverse recommendation change or enter into (or permit any subsidiary to enter into) a Company acquisition agreement as detailed above, the Company must follow the below procedure:

notify Buyer, in writing, at least five business days before making a Company adverse recommendation change or entering into (or causing a subsidiary to enter into) a Company acquisition agreement, of its intention to take such action with respect to a superior proposal, which notice shall state expressly that the Company has received a takeover proposal that the Board intends to declare a superior proposal and that the Board intends to make a Company adverse recommendation change and/or the Company intends to enter into a Company acquisition agreement;

the Company attaches to such notice the most current version of the proposed agreement and the identity of the third party making such superior proposal;

the Company shall, shall cause its subsidiaries to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries' representatives to, during the five day period, negotiate with Buyer in good faith to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the Guarantee so that such takeover proposal ceases to constitute a superior proposal, if Buyer, in its discretion, proposes to make such adjustments; and the Board determines in good faith, after consulting with outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that such takeover proposal continues to constitute a superior proposal after taking into account any adjustments made by Buyer during the five day period in the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the Guarantee.

The merger agreement defines takeover proposal, superior proposal and intervening event as follows:

takeover proposal means an inquiry, a proposal or offer from, or indication of interest in making a proposal or offer by, any person (other than Buyer) relating to any:

(a) direct or indirect acquisition of assets of the Company or its subsidiaries (including any voting equity interests of subsidiaries, but excluding sales of assets in the ordinary course of business) equal to fifteen percent (15%) or more of the fair market value of the Company's consolidated assets or to which fifteen percent (15%) or more of the Company's net revenues or net income on a consolidated basis are attributable,

Table of Contents

- (b) direct or indirect acquisition of fifteen percent (15%) or more of the voting equity interests of the Company,
- (c) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) fifteen percent (15%) or more of the voting equity interests of the Company,
- (d) merger, consolidation, other business combination or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries, pursuant to which such person would own fifteen percent (15%) or more of the consolidated assets, net revenues or net income of the Company, taken as a whole, or
- (e) liquidation or dissolution of the Company.

superior proposal means a written takeover proposal, substituting fifty percent (50%) for fifteen percent (15%) in the definition of takeover proposal, that the Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel and financial advisors) is more favorable to the Company and its stockholders than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, taking into account:

- (a) all financial considerations,
- (b) the identity of the third party making such takeover proposal,
- (c) the anticipated timing, conditions (including any financing condition or the reliability of any debt or equity funding commitments) and prospects for completion of such takeover proposal,
- (d) the other terms and conditions of such takeover proposal and the implications thereof on the Company, including relevant legal, regulatory and other aspects of such takeover proposal deemed relevant by the Board, and
- (e) any revisions to the terms of the Merger Agreement and the Merger proposed by Buyer during the required notice period.

intervening event means, with respect to the Company, a material event or circumstance that was not known to the Board on the date of the Merger Agreement (or if known, the consequences of which are not known to or reasonably foreseeable by the Board as of the date thereof), which event or circumstance, or any material consequences thereof, becomes known to the Board prior to October 31, 2013.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the Merger:

by mutual written consent of the Company, Buyer and Merger Sub;

by either the Company or Buyer:

if the Merger is not consummated on or before December 31, 2013 (the outside date), except that if the closing conditions relating to the HSR Act or other applicable antitrust laws or government injunctions prohibiting the Merger are not satisfied by such date, the outside date will be extended to June 30, 2014, subject to the exception that the right to terminate pursuant to this provision will not be available to any party whose breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in the Merger Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, the failure of the Merger to be consummated on or before the outside date; or if any governmental entity issues or enters a permanent injunction or other judgment or law, that prevents consummation of the Merger and the injunction or judgment has become final and non-appealable, provided that this right shall not be available to any party whose breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in the Merger Agreement has been the cause of, or resulted in, such permanent injunction or other judgment or law; or if there is a breach by Buyer, Merger Sub or the Guarantor on one hand, or the Company, on the other hand, of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in the Merger Agreement or on the part of the Guarantor as set forth in Guarantee which breach would result in the failure to satisfy one or more of the mutual conditions to closing or, in the case of a breach by the Company, a condition to Buyer's and Merger Sub's obligation to close and, in the case of a breach by Buyer, Merger Sub or the Guarantor, a condition to the Company's obligation to close and such breach is incapable of being cured; provided, that at least 30 days' written notice shall be given prior to such termination stating such party's intention to terminate the Merger Agreement and the basis for such termination; provided further, that such terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, agreement or covenant contained in this Agreement;

by Buyer in the event that any of the following occurs:

a Company adverse recommendation change by the Board;

the Company enters into, or publicly announced its intention to enter into, any agreement relating to a takeover proposal;

the Company willfully and intentionally breaches or fails to perform the covenants and agreements with respect to takeover proposals (see The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Other Offers beginning on page 49);

the Board fails to reaffirm the Board's recommendation that the Merger be adopted and approved within ten business days after the date any takeover proposal is first publicly disclosed by the Company or the person making such takeover proposal;

a tender offer or exchange offer relating to the Class A Stock shall have been commenced by a person unaffiliated with Buyer and the Company shall not have sent to its stockholders pursuant to Rule 14e-2 under the Securities Act, within ten business days after such tender offer or exchange offer is first published, sent or given, a statement reaffirming the Board's recommendation that the Merger Agreement be adopted and approved and recommending that stockholders reject such tender or exchange offer, or the Company or the Board (or any committee thereof) shall publicly announce its intentions to do any of the actions above;

by the Company:

if prior to October 31, 2013 (or such later time as provided in the Merger Agreement) the Board authorizes us, in full compliance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, to enter into an agreement in respect of a superior proposal; or if the conditions to the Company's, Buyer's and Merger Sub's obligations to close have been satisfied, and the Company has irrevocably confirmed by written notice to Buyer that all of the conditions to the Company's obligation to close have been satisfied or waived and the Merger has not been consummated within five business days following the delivery of such notice.

Buyer had an additional termination right which was only available if the Written Consent was not delivered by the Company to Buyer within 24 hours of the execution of the Merger Agreement. The Written Consent adopting and approving in all respects the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, was delivered to Buyer on October 1, 2013 following the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement.

Termination Fees and Expenses

The Company must pay to Buyer a termination fee of $20.0 million, if:

Buyer terminates the Merger Agreement because (i) the Board effects a Company adverse recommendation change; or (ii) the Company enters into, or publicly announces an intention to enter into, an agreement relating to any takeover proposal; or if the Merger Agreement is terminated by the Company because the Board, in full compliance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, authorizes the entry into an agreement relating to any takeover proposal. If the Merger Agreement had been terminated by Buyer for the Company's failure to deliver the Written Consent within 24 hours after the execution of the Merger Agreement, we would have been required to reimburse Buyer for all expenses incurred by Buyer, Merger Sub, and their respective affiliates in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (subject to a cap of $8.0 million). However, the Written Consent adopting and approving in all respects the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, was delivered to Buyer on October 1, 2013 following the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement.

Indemnification and Insurance

The Merger Agreement provides that following the Merger, the surviving corporation will assume all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Merger existing in favor of the current or former directors or officers of the Company and its subsidiaries as provided in their respective certificates of incorporation or bylaws (or comparable organizational documents) and any indemnification or other agreements of the Company as in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement. Following the Merger, the surviving corporation must maintain a six-year tail directors and officers liability insurance policy, subject to a cap on aggregate premiums, with respect to claims arising out of or relating to events which occurred before or at the Effective Time.

Employee Matters

The Merger Agreement provides that, for the period commencing at the consummation of the Merger and ending on December 31, 2014, the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries who remain employed with the surviving corporation will receive base compensation and bonus opportunities that are at least as favorable as those provided by the Company and our subsidiaries immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger. Through December 31, 2014, Buyer will, or will cause us as the surviving corporation to, continue to maintain the employee benefit plans maintained within or outside the United States without material amendment, except as required by applicable law or previously disclosed to us by Buyer in the confidential disclosures the Company delivered in connection with the Merger Agreement.

Guarantee

Concurrently with the execution of the Merger Agreement and as a condition to the Company's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, Sumitomo Corporation entered into the Guarantee in favor of the Company and the Majority Stockholders, guaranteeing, subject to the terms and conditions of the Guarantee, the due and punctual observance, payment, performance and discharge of the obligations of Buyer and Merger Sub pursuant to the Merger Agreement and the Exchange and Termination Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Guarantee does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Guarantee, a copy of which is attached to this information statement as Annex D and which is incorporated by reference into this information statement. This summary may not contain all of the information about the Guarantee that is important to you. We encourage you to read the Guarantee carefully and in its entirety.

Specific Enforcement

In the event of a breach or threatened breach of any covenant or obligation in the Merger Agreement, the non-breaching party will be entitled to seek to obtain an order of specific performance to enforce the observance and performance of such covenant or obligation and an injunction restraining such breach or threatened breach.

VOTING AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain material provisions of the Voting Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Voting Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this information statement as Annex B and which is incorporated by reference into this information statement. This summary may not contain all of the information about the Voting Agreement that is important to you. We encourage you to read the Voting Agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Voting Covenants

Under the Voting Agreement, the Majority Stockholders agreed to execute and deliver the Written Consent as soon as practicable following the Company's request after execution and delivery of the Voting Agreement and the Merger Agreement.

Each of the Majority Stockholders also agreed, while the Voting Agreement remains in effect and subject to certain exceptions, to vote or execute consents, as applicable, with respect to certain of their Voting Stock:

in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and any related proposal in furtherance thereof, as reasonably requested by Buyer;

against any action or agreement that the Majority Stockholders know is in opposition to the Merger or that the Majority Stockholders know would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement, or of the Majority Stockholders under the Voting Agreement; and against any takeover proposal and against any other action, agreement or transaction that the Majority Stockholders know would impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage, frustrate the purposes of, adversely affect or prevent the consummation of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or the Voting Agreement or the performance by the Company of its obligations under the Merger Agreement or by the Principal Stockholders of their obligations under the Voting Agreement.

While the Voting Agreement remains in effect, each of the Majority Stockholders is prohibited from transferring any Voting Stock that is subject to the Voting Agreement, subject to certain exceptions.

No Shop Obligations

Each of the Majority Stockholders agreed, subject to certain exceptions, that it will not, and will not authorize any of its affiliates or representatives to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate, or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage the submission of any takeover proposal to the Company;

conduct or engage in any discussions or negotiations with, disclose any non-public information relating to the Company or any of its subsidiaries to, afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, to any third party that the Majority Stockholder is aware is seeking to make, or has made, any takeover proposal;

enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other contract relating to any takeover proposal;

make or participate in, directly or indirectly, a solicitation of proxies or powers of attorney or similar rights to vote, or seek to advise or influence any person with respect to the voting of, any shares of our Class A Stock, other than to recommend that stockholders of the Company vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement; or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Table of Contents

The foregoing restrictions do not prohibit the Majority Stockholders, or their respective representatives, from participating in discussions or negotiations regarding a takeover proposal to the extent the Company is permitted to take such actions in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. In addition, the Majority Stockholders are required to notify Buyer within 24 hours after the receipt of any third party takeover proposal, disclosing the terms thereof.

Termination

The Voting Agreement will terminate, and the written consent of each of the Majority Stockholders shall be deemed null and void and have no further effect, upon the earliest to occur of:

the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms;

the closing date of the Merger; or the delivery of written notice by Buyer to the Majority Stockholders of the termination of the Voting Agreement.

Additionally, each Majority Stockholder has the right to terminate the Voting Agreement following any amendment of the Merger Agreement.

EXCHANGE AND TAX RECEIVABLE TERMINATION AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain material provisions of the Exchange and Termination Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Exchange and Termination Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this information statement as Annex C and which is incorporated by reference into this information statement. This summary may not contain all of the information about the Exchange and Termination Agreement that is important to you. We encourage you to read the Exchange and Termination Agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Exchange of Class B Stock and interests in EDG Holdco LLC owned by Majority Stockholders

Pursuant to the Exchange and Termination Agreement, immediately prior to the Effective Time, the shares of Class B Stock held by the Majority Stockholders, together with the corresponding membership units in EDG Holdco, will be exchanged (the Exchange) for Class A Stock (on a one-for-one basis with the number of shares of Class B Stock they hold) in accordance with the Exchange Agreement (the EM Exchange Agreement) dated as of May 2, 2012, by and among the Company, EDG Holdco and EM, and the Exchange Agreement (the B&L Exchange Agreement and together with the EM Exchange Agreement, the Exchange Agreements) dated as of May 2, 2012, by and among the Company, EDG Holdco and B&L.

Termination of the Tax Receivable Agreements

Additionally, immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Tax Receivable Agreement, dated as of May 2, 2012 (the EM Tax Receivable Agreement), by and between the Company and EM, and the Tax Receivable Agreement dated as of May 2, 2012 (the B&L Tax Receivable Agreement and together with the EM Tax Receivable Agreement, the Tax Receivable Agreements), by and between the Company and B&L, will be terminated without any payment by the Company or Buyer. Under the Tax Receivable Agreements, the Company had previously agreed to make certain payments to the Majority Stockholders equal to 85% of the reduction of the Company's liability for U.S. federal, state, local and franchise taxes allowed as a result of additional depreciation, amortization and imputed interest tax deductions arising from transactions described in the Exchange Agreements such as the Exchange. If the Tax Receivable Agreements are not terminated, the Majority Stockholders would be, in addition to payments triggered by the Exchange, entitled to receive certain payments under the EM Tax Receivable Agreement as a result of Bourland and Leverich Supply Co. LLC's cash redemption of Edgen Murray Corporation's interest in Bourland and Leverich Supply Co. LLC (which occurred during the three months ended March 31, 2013) if the Company were able to use the additional depreciation, amortization and imputed interest tax deductions resulting from the cash redemption of Edgen Murray Corporation's interest in Bourland and Leverich Supply Co. LLC. As a result of the termination of the Tax Receivable Agreements, the Majority Stockholders will forego the right to receive any payments under the Tax Receivable Agreements.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following discussion is a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences to holders of Class A Stock whose shares are converted to cash in the Merger. This summary does not address any tax consequences of the Merger arising under the laws of any state, local or foreign jurisdiction or United States federal laws other than United States federal income tax laws and does not address tax considerations applicable to holders who receive cash pursuant to the exercise of appraisal rights. This discussion is based on the Code, applicable United States Treasury Regulations, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS), court decisions and other applicable authorities, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). This discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be applicable to holders of Class A Stock in light of their particular circumstances or holders of Class A Stock subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax law, such as:

entities treated as partnerships for United States federal income tax purposes, S corporations or other pass-through entities;

holders who hold Class A Stock as part of a straddle, hedging transaction, synthetic security, conversion transaction or other integrated investment or risk reduction transaction;

holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;

United States expatriates;

holders who acquired Class A Stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation;

holders subject to the United States alternative minimum tax;

banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions;

regulated investment companies;

real estate investment trusts;

tax-exempt organizations;

brokers or dealers in securities or foreign currencies; and traders in securities that elect mark-to-market treatment.

Holders of Class A Stock should consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the receipt of cash in exchange for shares of the Class A Stock pursuant to the Merger (including the application and effect of any state, local or non-United States income and other tax laws).

If a partnership (including any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) holds Class A Stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners in a partnership holding shares of Class A Stock should consult their tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the Merger.

This discussion applies only to holders that hold their shares of Class A Stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders

The term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of Class A Stock that is:

a citizen or individual resident of the United States;

a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia or any entity otherwise treated as a domestic corporation under the Code;

a trust if it (i) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons (as defined under the Code) have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable United States Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or an estate that is subject to United States federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

The exchange of shares of Class A Stock for cash in the Merger will generally be a taxable transaction to U.S. holders for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, a U.S. holder whose shares of Class A Stock are converted to cash in the Merger will recognize capital gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received with respect to such shares and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such shares. A U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis will generally equal the price the U.S. holder paid for such shares. Gain or loss will be determined separately for each block of shares of Class A Stock (i.e., shares of Class A Stock acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) owned by a U.S. holder. Such gain or loss will generally be treated as long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period for the shares of Class A Stock exceeds one year at the time of the completion of the Merger. Long-term capital gains of non-corporate U.S. holders are generally subject to reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Capital gains recognized by individuals, trusts and estates also may be subject to a 3.8% federal Medicare contribution tax.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to Non-U.S. Holders

The term non-U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of Shares that is not a U.S. holder.

Subject to the discussion below under Backup Withholding, any gain realized by a non-U.S. holder upon the exchange of shares of Class A Stock for cash in the Merger will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

such non-U.S. holder is a nonresident alien individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the completion of the Merger and certain other conditions are met, in which case such non-U.S. holder may be subject to a 30% U.S. federal income tax (or a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty) on such non-U.S. holder's net gain realized; or the gain is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of such non-U.S. holder (and, if an applicable income tax treaty so provides, is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such non-U.S. holder in the United States), in which case such non-U.S. holder generally will be taxed in the same manner as a U.S. holder (as described above), except that if such non-U.S. holder is a foreign corporation, an additional branch profits tax may apply at a rate of 30% (or a reduced rate under an applicable income tax treaty).

Backup Withholding

Under the backup withholding provisions of the Code, a holder (or beneficial owner) may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on any cash payments such holder receives in exchange for shares of Class A Stock in the Merger. However, a holder (or beneficial owner) generally will not be subject to backup withholding if:

in the case of a U.S. holder who is not exempt (as described below), such U.S. holder furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies that it is not subject to backup withholding on a duly completed IRS Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) included in the letter of transmittal and otherwise complies with all the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules; or such holder provides proof that it is otherwise exempt from backup withholding (including, in the case of a corporation, by providing a duly completed IRS Form W-9 (or applicable successor form) claiming exempt status or, in the case of a non-U.S. holder, by providing a duly completed IRS Form W-8 (or applicable successor form) claiming foreign status).

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will generally be allowed as a refund or credit against a holder's (or beneficial owner's) United States federal income tax liability, provided that such holder timely furnishes the required information to the IRS. Each holder (or beneficial owner) of common shares should consult its own tax advisors as to the qualification for an exemption from backup withholding and the procedures for obtaining such exemption.

This summary of material United States federal income tax consequences is for general information only and is not tax advice. You are urged to consult your tax advisor with respect to the application of United States federal income tax laws to your particular situation as well as any tax consequences arising under the United States federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Under the DGCL, you have the right to dissent from the Merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of your shares of Class A Stock as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, together with interest, if any, as determined by the court, but exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger, in lieu of the Merger Consideration you would otherwise be entitled to pursuant to the Merger Agreement. These rights are known as appraisal rights. Company stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must comply with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL in order to perfect their rights. The Company will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures required to be followed properly and in a timely manner by a Company stockholder in order to dissent from the Merger and perfect appraisal rights.

This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Section 262 of the DGCL, the full text of which appears in Annex F to this information statement. Failure to precisely follow any of the statutory procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL may result in a termination or waiver of your appraisal rights. All references in Section 262 of the DGCL and in this summary to a stockholder are to the record holder of shares of Class A Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time as to which appraisal rights are asserted, unless otherwise indicated.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, where a merger agreement relating to a proposed merger is adopted by stockholders acting by written consent in lieu of a meeting of the stockholders, either the constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or the surviving or resulting corporation, within ten days after the effective date of the merger, must notify each of its stockholders that appraisal rights are available, and must include in each such notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL. This information statement constitutes such notice of appraisal rights under Section 262 to the holders of shares of Class A Stock and Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to this information statement as Annex F. Any stockholder who wishes to exercise such appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve his, her or its right to do so should review the following discussion and Annex F carefully, because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified will result in the loss of appraisal rights under the DGCL.

Holders of shares of Class A Stock who desire to exercise their appraisal rights must deliver a written demand for appraisal of their shares of the Company within 20 days after the date of mailing of this information statement and the notice attached hereto, which date is [] [], 2013. A demand for appraisal will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the Company of the identity of the stockholder and that such stockholder intends thereby to demand appraisal of such stockholder's shares of Class A Stock. If you wish to exercise your appraisal rights you must be the record holder of such shares of Class A Stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made and you must continue to hold such shares of Class A Stock through the Effective Time. Accordingly, a stockholder who is the record holder of shares of Class A Stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made, but who thereafter transfers such shares prior to the Effective Time, will lose any right to appraisal in respect of such shares.

All written demands for appraisal should be addressed to Edgen Group Inc., 18444 Highland Road, Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70809, Attn: General Counsel.

To be effective, a demand for appraisal by a Company stockholder must be made by, or in the name of, such registered Company stockholder, fully and correctly. Beneficial owners who do not also hold the shares of Class A Stock of record may not directly make appraisal demands to the Company. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the registered owner, such as a brokerage firm, bank, trust or other nominee, submit the required demand in respect of those shares. If shares of Class A Stock are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of a demand for appraisal should be made by or for the fiduciary, and if the shares of Class A Stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an authorized agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners, and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent for the record owner. A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares of Class A Stock as a nominee for others, may exercise his or her right of appraisal with respect to the shares of Class A Stock held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares of Class A Stock as to which appraisal is sought. Where no number of shares is expressly stated, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares held in the name of the record owner.

If you hold your shares of Class A Stock in an account with a brokerage firm, bank, trust or other nominee, and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you are urged to consult with your brokerage firm, bank, trust or other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal.

Within 10 days after the Effective Time, the surviving corporation must give written notice that the Merger has become effective to each former Company stockholder who has properly asserted appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL. At any time within 60 days after the Effective Time, any Company stockholder who has demanded an appraisal and who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party, will have the right to withdraw his, her or its demand and to accept the cash payment specified by the Merger Agreement for his, her or its shares of Class A Stock; after this period, the Company stockholder may withdraw such demand for appraisal only with the written consent of the surviving corporation. Within 120 days after the Effective Time of the Merger, any Company stockholder who has complied with Section 262 of the DGCL will, upon written request to the surviving corporation, be entitled to receive a written statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received, and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. A person who is the beneficial owner of shares of Class A Stock held in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, request from the Company the statement described in the previous sentence. Such written statement will be mailed to the requesting Company stockholder within 10 days after such written request is received by the surviving corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal, whichever is later. Within 120 days after the Effective Time, but not thereafter, either the surviving corporation or any Company stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL, and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of Class A Stock held by such stockholder. A person who is the beneficial owner of shares of Class A Stock held in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file the petition described in the previous sentence. Upon the filing of the petition by a Company stockholder, service of a copy of such petition must be made upon the Company, as the surviving corporation. The surviving corporation has no obligation to file such a petition if there are dissenting Company stockholders. Accordingly, the failure of a Company stockholder to file such a petition within the period specified could nullify the Company stockholder's previously written demand for appraisal. There is no present intent on the part of the Company to file an appraisal petition, and Company stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that the Company will file such a petition or that the Company will initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of such shares. Accordingly, Company stockholders who desire to have their shares appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

If a petition for appraisal is timely filed by a Company stockholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to file with the Delaware Register in Chancery a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all Company stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares, and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving corporation. After notice is made to dissenting Company stockholders who demanded appraisal of their shares as required by the Delaware Court of Chancery, the Delaware Court of Chancery is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition to determine those Company stockholders who have complied with Section 262 of the DGCL and who have become entitled to the appraisal rights thereunder. Under Delaware law, the Delaware Court of Chancery may require stockholders who have demanded appraisal of their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their stock certificates to the Delaware Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings, and if any such stockholder who holds stock represented by certificates fails to comply with that direction, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

After the Delaware Court of Chancery determines which Company stockholders are entitled to appraisal of their shares of Class A Stock, the appraisal proceeding will be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Delaware Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding, the Delaware Court of Chancery will appraise the shares of Class A Stock, determining the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. Unless the Delaware Court of Chancery in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the Merger through the date of payment of the judgment will be compounded quarterly, and will accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge), as established from time to time during the period between the closing date of the Merger and the date of payment of the judgment. When the value is determined, the Delaware Court of Chancery will direct the payment of such value, with interest thereon accrued during the pendency of the proceeding, if the Delaware Court of Chancery so determines, to Company stockholders entitled to receive the same (in the case of shares represented by certificates, payment will not be made until following surrender of such certificates).

In determining fair value, and, if applicable, interest, the Delaware Court of Chancery is required to take into account all relevant factors. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court discussed the factors that could be considered in determining fair value in an appraisal proceeding, stating that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered, and that fair price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company.

Section 262 of the DGCL provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the Merger. In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court construed Section 262 of the DGCL to mean that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the Merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered.

You should be aware that the fair value of your shares of Class A Stock as determined under Section 262 of the DGCL could be more than, the same as, or less than the value that you are entitled to receive under the terms of the Merger Agreement if you did not seek appraisal of your shares. Investment banking opinions as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a sale transaction, such as the Merger, are not opinions as to fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL. No representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value by the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding may be imposed upon the surviving corporation and Company stockholders participating in the appraisal proceeding by the Delaware Court of Chancery as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon the application of a Company stockholder, the Delaware Court of Chancery may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any Company stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. Any Company stockholder who had demanding appraisal rights will not, after the Effective Time, be entitled to vote shares subject to that demand for any purpose, or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to those shares, other than with respect to payment as of a record date prior to the Effective Time; however, if no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the Effective Time, or if the Company stockholder delivers a written withdrawal of his, her or its demand for appraisal, and an acceptance of the terms of the Merger within 60 days after the Effective Time, then the right of that Company stockholder to appraisal will cease and that Company stockholder will be entitled to receive the cash payment for shares of his, her or its shares of Class A Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement. No appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed as to any Company stockholder without the prior approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Delaware Court of Chancery deems just; provided, however, that any Company stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party will maintain the right to withdraw its demand for appraisal, and to accept the cash that such holder would have received pursuant to the Merger Agreement within 60 days after the effective date of the Merger.

In view of the complexity of Section 262 of the DGCL, Company stockholders who may wish to dissent from the Merger and pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal advisors.

We have not previously declared or paid, and we do not plan to declare or pay in the foreseeable future, any cash dividends on our Class A Stock. We presently intend to retain all of the cash our business generates to meet our working capital requirements, retire debt and fund future growth. Any future payment of cash dividends will depend on the financial condition, capital requirements, business prospects and other factors the Board may deem relevant. In addition, our outstanding indebtedness limits, and we anticipate any additional future indebtedness may limit, our ability to pay dividends. In connection with our initial public offering, we entered into two separate Exchange Agreements with the Majority Stockholders, which, subject to certain limitations and the terms specified in the applicable Exchange Agreement, allow each Majority Stockholder to exchange from time to time their shares of Class B Stock and membership units of EDG Holdco for shares of Class A Stock on a one-for-one basis (subject to customary adjustments for stock splits, distributions and similar events) or, at our election, cash, as provided by the applicable Exchange Agreement.

Pursuant to the Exchange and Termination Agreement, immediately prior to the Effective Time and for no additional consideration in the Merger or other payments to them, the Majority Stockholders have agreed to the Exchange. Additionally, pursuant to the Exchange and Termination Agreement, the Company has irrevocably waived its right to elect to pay cash to the Majority Stockholders in lieu of shares of Class A Stock in connection with the Exchange.

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in connection with the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

Section 1.01 The Merger. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL), at the Effective Time, (a) Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the Merger), and (b) the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease and the Company will continue its corporate existence under the DGCL as the surviving corporation in the Merger (sometimes referred to herein as the Surviving Corporation).

Section 1.02 Closing. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) will take place at 9:00 a.m., Houston, Texas time, as soon as practicable (and, in any event, within two (2) Business Days) after satisfaction or, to the extent permitted hereunder, waiver of all conditions to the Merger set forth in Article VI (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or, to the extent permitted hereunder, waiver of all such conditions), unless this Agreement has been terminated pursuant to its terms or unless another time or date is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto. The Closing shall be held at the offices of Norton Rose Fulbright, 1301 McKinney Suite 5100, Houston, Texas 77010, unless another place is agreed to in writing by the parties hereto, and the actual date of the Closing is hereinafter referred to as the Closing Date; provided, however, that any party may participate remotely by electronic delivery of documents and/or funds.

Section 1.03 Effective Time. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, at the Closing, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub will cause a certificate of merger (the Certificate of Merger), in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, to be executed, acknowledged and filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the relevant provisions of the DGCL and shall make all other filings or recordings required under the DGCL. The Merger will become effective at such time as the Certificate of Merger has been duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later date or time as may be agreed by the Company and Parent in writing and specified in the Certificate of Merger in accordance with the DGCL (the effective time of the Merger being hereinafter referred to as the Effective Time).

Section 1.04 Effects of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth herein and in the applicable provisions of the DGCL. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, from and after the Effective Time, all property, rights, privileges, immunities, powers, franchises, licenses and authority of the Company and Merger Sub shall vest in the Surviving Corporation, and all debts, liabilities, obligations, restrictions and duties of each of the Company and Merger Sub shall become the debts, liabilities, obligations, restrictions and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 1.05 Certificate of Incorporation; By-laws. At the Effective Time, (a) the certificate of incorporation of the Company shall be amended so as to read in its entirety as set forth in Exhibit D hereto, and, as so amended, shall be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with the terms thereof or as provided by applicable Law, and (b) the by-laws of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the by-laws of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with the terms thereof, the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation or as provided by applicable Law.

Section 1.06 Directors and Officers. The directors and officers of Merger Sub, in each case, immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, from and after the Effective Time, be the directors and officers, respectively, of the Surviving Corporation until their successors have been duly elected or appointed and qualified or until their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and by-laws of the Surviving Corporation.

ARTICLE II

EFFECT OF THE MERGER ON CAPITAL STOCK

Section 2.01 Effect of the Merger on Capital Stock. At the Effective Time, as a result of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company or the holder of any capital stock of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company:

- (a) Cancellation of Certain Company Common Stock. Each share of Company Common Stock that is owned by Parent, Merger Sub or the Company (as treasury stock or otherwise) or any of their respective direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiaries will automatically be cancelled and retired and will cease to exist, and no consideration will be delivered in exchange therefor.
- (b) Conversion of Company Common Stock. Each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (i) shares to be cancelled and retired in accordance with Section 2.01(a), and (ii) Dissenting Shares) will be converted into the right to receive $12.00 in cash, without interest (the Merger Consideration). For the avoidance of doubt, any shares of Company Common Stock issuable pursuant to the Exchange Agreements shall be deemed to be issued and outstanding for the purposes of this Article II (whether or not certificates therefor have been issued by the Company).
- (c) Class B Stock. Each share of Class B Stock outstanding or held in treasury after giving effect to the Exchange and immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be cancelled and retired and will cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.
- (d) Cancellation of Shares. At the Effective Time, all shares of Company Common Stock will no longer be outstanding and all shares of Company Common Stock will be cancelled and retired and will cease to exist, and, subject to Section 2.03, each holder of a certificate formerly representing any such shares (each, a Certificate) will cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 2.02 hereof.
- (e) Conversion of Merger Sub Capital Stock. Each share of common stock of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become one newly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 2.02 Surrender and Payment.

- (a) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint a paying agent reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Paying Agent) to act as the agent for the purpose of payment of the Merger Consideration for: (i) the Certificates, or (ii) book-entry shares which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented the shares of Company Common Stock (the Book-Entry Shares). Parent will enter into a paying agent agreement with the Paying Agent prior to the Closing Date. At or prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit, or cause the Surviving Corporation to deposit in trust, with the Paying Agent, sufficient cash in U.S. dollars to pay the aggregate Merger Consideration that is payable in respect of all of the shares of Company Common Stock represented by the Certificates and the Book-Entry Shares

(the Payment Fund). If for any reason (including losses) the Payment Fund is inadequate to pay the amounts to which holders of shares shall be entitled under Section 2.01(b), Parent shall take all steps necessary to enable or cause the Surviving Corporation promptly to deposit in trust additional cash in U.S. dollars with the Paying Agent sufficient to make all payments required under this Agreement, and Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall in any event be liable for the payment thereof. The Payment Fund shall not be used for any other purpose. Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall pay all charges and expenses, including those of the Paying Agent, in connection with the exchange of Shares for the Merger Consideration. As promptly as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time and in any event no later than the third (3rd) Business Day following the Closing, Parent shall send, or shall cause the Paying Agent to send, to each record holder of shares of Company Common Stock at the Effective Time, a letter of transmittal and instructions (which shall specify that the delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates or transfer of the Book-Entry Shares to the Paying Agent) for use in such exchange; provided that, with respect to any holder of Company Common Stock whose shares were converted into Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.01(b) and who appears at the Closing in person or by authorized representative, the Paying Agent shall provide the letter of transmittal and instructions for use to such holder at the Closing.

(b) Each holder of shares of Company Common Stock that have been converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration shall be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of the Company Common Stock represented by a Certificate or Book-Entry Share as promptly as reasonably practicable upon (i) surrender to the Paying Agent of a Certificate (or effective affidavits of loss in lieu thereof), together with a duly completed and validly executed letter of transmittal and such other documents as may reasonably be requested by the Paying Agent, or (ii) receipt of an agent's message by the Paying Agent (or such other evidence, if any, of transfer as the Paying Agent may reasonably request) in the case of Book-Entry Shares. Until so surrendered or transferred, as the case may be, and subject to the terms set forth in Section 2.03, each such Certificate or Book-Entry Share, as applicable, shall represent after the Effective Time for all purposes only the right to receive the Merger Consideration payable in respect thereof. No interest shall be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon the surrender or transfer of any Certificate or Book-Entry Share. Upon payment of the Merger Consideration pursuant to the provisions of this Article II, each Certificate or Certificates so surrendered shall immediately be cancelled.

(c) If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name the surrendered Certificate or the transferred Book-Entry Share, as applicable, is registered, it shall be a condition to such payment that (i) such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or shall otherwise be in proper form for transfer or such Book-Entry Share shall be properly transferred, and (ii) the Person requesting such payment shall pay to the Paying Agent any transfer or other Tax required as a result of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or Book-Entry Share, as applicable, or establish to the reasonable satisfaction of the Paying Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

(d) All Merger Consideration paid upon the surrender of Certificates (or effective affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or transfer of Book-Entry Shares in accordance with the terms hereof shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Company Common Stock formerly represented by such Certificate or Book-Entry Shares, and from and after the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers of shares of Company Common Stock on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Corporation. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates or Book-Entry Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation, they shall be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration provided for, and in accordance with the procedures set forth, in this Article II.

(e) Any portion of the Payment Fund that remains unclaimed by the holders of shares of Company Common Stock six (6) months after the Effective Time shall be returned to Parent, upon demand, and any such holder who has not exchanged shares of Company Common Stock for the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Section 2.02 prior to that time shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of the Merger Consideration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the Company, Parent, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation, the Paying Agent or any other Person shall be liable to any holder of shares of Company Common Stock for any amounts paid to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of shares of Company Common Stock two (2) years after the Effective Time (or such earlier date, immediately prior to such time when the amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Entity) shall become, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, the property of Parent free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

(f) The Paying Agent shall invest all cash included in the Payment Fund as reasonably directed by Parent; provided, however, that any investment of such cash shall be limited to direct short-term obligations of, or short-term obligations fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the U.S. government. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Parent pursuant to Section 2.02(e). Nothing contained herein and no investment losses resulting from investment of the Payment Fund shall diminish the rights of any holder of Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to receive the Merger Consideration as provided herein.

Section 2.03 Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, including Section 2.01, shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares cancelled in accordance with Section 2.01(a)) and held by a holder who has not voted in favor of adoption of this Agreement or consented thereto in writing and who has properly exercised appraisal rights of such shares in accordance with Section 262 of the DGCL (such shares of Company Common Stock being referred to collectively as the Dissenting Shares until such time as such holder fails to perfect or otherwise loses such holder's appraisal rights under the DGCL with respect to such shares) shall not be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration, but instead shall be entitled to only such rights as are granted by Section 262 of the DGCL; provided, however, that if, after the Effective Time, such holder fails to perfect, withdraws or loses such holder's right to appraisal pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL or if a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that such holder is not entitled to the relief provided by Section 262 of the DGCL, such shares of Company Common Stock shall be treated as if they had been converted as of the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 2.01(b), without interest thereon, upon surrender of such Certificate (or effective affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) formerly representing such share or transfer of such Book-Entry Share, as the case may be. The Company shall provide Parent reasonably prompt notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisal of shares of Company Common Stock, any withdrawal of any such demand and any other demand, notice or instrument delivered to the Company prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the DGCL that relates to such demand, and Parent shall have the opportunity and right to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. Except with the prior written consent of Parent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), the Company shall not make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any such demands.

Section 2.04 Adjustments. Without limiting the other provisions of this Agreement, if at any time during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company shall occur (other than the issuance of additional shares of capital stock of the Company as permitted by this Agreement and the issuance of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Exchange Agreement), including by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split (including reverse stock split) or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend or distribution paid in stock, the Merger Consideration and any other amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement shall be appropriately adjusted to reflect such change.

Section 2.05 Withholding Rights. Each of the Paying Agent, Parent, Merger Sub and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any Person pursuant to this Article II such amounts as may be required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of such payment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and applicable Treasury Regulations issued pursuant thereto (the Code), or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld by the Paying Agent, Parent, Merger Sub or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which the Paying Agent, Parent, Merger Sub or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, made such deduction and withholding.

Section 2.06 Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by Parent, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as Parent may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent will issue, in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate, the Merger Consideration to be paid in respect of the Shares formerly represented by such Certificate as contemplated under this Article II.

Section 2.07 Treatment of Stock Options and Restricted Stock.

(a) The Company shall take all requisite action so that, at the Effective Time, each option to acquire shares of Company Common Stock (each, a Company Stock Option) that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether or not then vested or exercisable, shall be, by virtue of the consummation of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the holder of that Company Stock Option or any other Person, cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (x) the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option, multiplied by (y) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the per share exercise price under such Company Stock Option, less any Taxes required to be withheld in accordance with Section 2.05. Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to pay the holders of Company Stock Options the amounts due under this Section 2.07(a) no later than five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time, provided that if, at the Effective Time, Parent has not received the information reasonably necessary for the payments required pursuant to this Section 2.07(a) to be made, such time period shall not commence until Parent has received such reasonably necessary information.

(b) The Company shall take all requisite action so that each restricted share of Company Common Stock (the Company Restricted Stock) that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be, by virtue of the consummation of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, the holder of such Company Restricted Stock or any other Person, vested, free of restriction and cancelled and converted into the right of the holder to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest, as provided in Section 2.01(b).

(c) When any payment pursuant to Section 2.07(a) (in respect of Company Stock Options) or pursuant to Section 2.07(b) (in respect of Company Restricted Stock held by employees of the Company or its Subsidiaries) becomes payable at the Closing or in accordance with Section 2.02, as applicable, any such payment shall first be made to the regular payroll account of the Company, and the Company or the Surviving Corporation, as applicable, shall pay to the applicable recipient of such payment such amount less any Taxes required to be withheld in accordance with Section 2.05 in full payment thereon.

(d) At or prior to the Effective Time, the Company, the Company Board and the compensation committee of such board, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions (including obtaining any employee consents) that may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section 2.07.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as set forth in (a) the Company SEC Documents filed on or after March 15, 2013, other than any disclosures contained or referenced therein under the captions Risk Factors or Forward-Looking Statements and any other disclosures contained or referenced therein relating to information, factors or risks that are predictive, cautionary or forward looking in nature (it being agreed that any matter disclosed in such Company SEC Documents shall be deemed to qualify this Article III only to the extent that it is readily apparent from such disclosure the Section or Sections of this Agreement to which such disclosure is relevant), or (b) the correspondingly numbered Section of the disclosure letter, dated the date of this Agreement and delivered by the Company to Parent prior to the execution of this Agreement (the Company Disclosure Letter), the Company hereby represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub as follows:

Section 3.01 Organization; Standing and Power; Charter Documents; Subsidiaries.

(a) Organization; Standing and Power. The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation, and has the requisite corporate power and authority to own, lease and operate its assets and to carry on its business as now conducted. The Company is duly qualified or licensed to do business as a foreign corporation and is in good standing (with respect to jurisdictions that recognize the concept of good standing) in each jurisdiction where the character of the assets and properties owned, leased or operated by it or the nature of its business makes such qualification or license necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified or licensed, to be in good standing or to have such power and authority would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Charter Documents. The Company has delivered or made available to Parent a true and correct copy of the certificate of incorporation (including any certificate of designations), by-laws or like organizational documents, each as amended to date (collectively, the Charter Documents), of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is in violation of any of the provisions of its Charter Documents.

(c) Subsidiaries. Each of the Company's Subsidiaries is a corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity duly organized, validly existing and in good standing (with respect to jurisdictions that recognize the concept of good standing) under the Laws of its jurisdiction of organization, and has the requisite corporate, limited liability company or other organizational, as applicable, power and authority to own, lease and operate its assets and to carry on its business as now conducted. Each of the Company's Subsidiaries is duly qualified or licensed to do business as a foreign corporation, limited liability company or other legal entity and is in good standing (with respect to jurisdictions that recognize the concept of good standing) in each jurisdiction where the character of the assets and properties owned, leased or operated by it or the nature of its business makes such qualification or license necessary, except where the failure to be so qualified or licensed, to be in good standing or to have such power and authority would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect. Section 3.01(c)(i) of the Company Disclosure Letter lists each of the Subsidiaries of the Company as of the date hereof and its place of organization. Section 3.01(c)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Letter sets forth, for each Subsidiary that is not, as of the date of this Agreement (but after giving effect to the Exchange), directly or indirectly, a wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Company, (x) the number and type of any capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, such Subsidiary that is outstanding as of the date hereof and (y) the number and type of shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, such Subsidiary that, as of the date hereof, are owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company. All of the outstanding shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, each Subsidiary of the Company that is owned directly or indirectly by the Company have been validly issued, were issued free of pre-emptive rights and are fully paid and non-assessable, and are free and clear of all Liens, including any restriction on the right to vote, sell or otherwise dispose of such capital stock or other equity or voting interests, except for any Liens (x) imposed by applicable securities Laws, (y) arising pursuant to the Charter Documents of any non-wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Company or (z) arising pursuant to the Credit Agreement or the Indenture. Except for the capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, its Subsidiaries, the Company does not own, directly or indirectly, any capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, any Person.

Section 3.02 Capital Structure.

(a) Capital Stock. The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of: (i) 435,656,862 shares of Company Common Stock, (ii) 24,343,138 shares of Class B Stock, all of which will be exchanged in the Exchange immediately prior to the Effective Time pursuant to the Exchange Agreements, and (ii) 40,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Company (the Company Preferred Stock). As of the close of business on September 11, 2013, (x) 18,971,805 shares of Company Common Stock were issued and outstanding, (y) 24,343,138 shares of Class B Stock were issued and outstanding and (z) no shares of Company Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding or held by the Company in its treasury. Since the close of business on September 11, 2013, the Company has not issued any shares of capital stock (other than shares issued upon exercise of Company Stock Options or shares issued after the date hereof as permitted by Section 5.01) or split or combined or reclassified any of its shares of capital stock. All of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company are, and all shares of capital stock of the Company which may be issued as contemplated or permitted by this Agreement will be, when issued, duly authorized and validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and not subject to any pre-emptive rights. No Subsidiary of the Company owns any shares of capital stock of the Company.

(b) Stock Awards.

(i) As of the close of business on September 11, 2013, an aggregate of 1,530,288 shares of Company Common Stock were subject to issuance pursuant to Company Stock Options granted under the Edgen Group Inc. 2012 Omnibus Incentive Plan (the plans referred to immediately above and the award or other applicable agreements entered into thereunder, in each case as amended, are collectively referred to herein as the Company Stock Plans). Since the close of business on September 11, 2013, the Company has not issued or granted any Company Equity Awards (other than grants made or shares issued after the date hereof as permitted by Section 5.01). Section 3.02(b)(i) of the Company Disclosure Letter sets forth as of the close of business on September 11, 2013 a list of each outstanding Company Equity Award granted under the Company Stock Plans and (A) the name of the holder of such Company Equity Award, (B) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such outstanding Company Equity Award, (C) the exercise price, purchase price or similar pricing of such Company Equity Award, and (D) the date on which such Company Equity Award was granted or issued. All shares of Company Common Stock subject to issuance under the Company Stock Plans, upon issuance in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the instruments pursuant to which they are issuable, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

(ii) Except for the Company Stock Plans and as set forth in Section 3.02(b)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Letter, there are no Contracts to which the Company is a party obligating the Company to accelerate the vesting of any Company Equity Award as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (whether alone or upon the occurrence of any additional or subsequent events). Other than the Company Stock Options, the Company Restricted Stock and pursuant to the Exchange Agreements, as of the date hereof, there are no outstanding (A) securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries convertible into or exchangeable for shares of capital stock of the Company, (B) options, warrants or other agreements or commitments to acquire from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, or obligations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to issue, any shares of capital stock of (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for shares of capital stock of) the Company or (C) restricted shares, restricted stock units, stock appreciation rights, performance shares, profit participation rights, contingent value rights, phantom stock or similar securities or rights that are derivative of, or provide economic benefits based, directly or indirectly, on the value or price of, any shares of capital stock of the Company, in each case that have been issued by the Company or its Subsidiaries (the items in clauses (A), (B) and (C), together with the capital stock of the Company, being referred to collectively as Company Securities). All outstanding shares of Company Common Stock, all outstanding Company Equity Awards and all outstanding shares of capital stock, voting securities or other ownership interests in any Subsidiary of the Company, have been issued or granted, as applicable, in compliance in all material respects with all applicable securities Laws.

(iii) Except for the Exchange Agreements, in connection with the vesting or exercise of a Company Equity Award and as set forth in Section 3.02(b)(iii) of the Company Disclosure Letter, there are no outstanding Contracts requiring the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any Company Securities or Company Subsidiary Securities. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is a party to any voting agreement with respect to any Company Securities or Company Subsidiary Securities.

(c) No Voting Debt. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has issued or outstanding any bonds, debentures, notes or other indebtedness having the right to vote on any matters on which stockholders or equityholders of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries may vote (or which is convertible into, or exchangeable for, securities having such right).

Section 5.02 [Intentionally Omitted]

Section 5.03 Access to Information: Confidentiality.

(a) From the date of this Agreement until the earliest to occur of (i) the Effective Time, (ii) (A) the conditions set forth in Section 6.01 and Section 6.02 having been satisfied (other than conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing), (B) the Company irrevocably confirming by written notice to Parent that the conditions in Section 6.03 (other than conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing) have been satisfied or that it is willing to waive any unsatisfied condition in Section 6.03 and (C) the Merger not having been consummated within two (2) Business Days after the delivery of such notice, or (iii) the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms set forth in Article VII, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, afford to Parent and Parent's directors, officers, employees, advisors and investment bankers (with respect to any Person, the foregoing Persons are referred to herein as such Person's Representatives), reasonable access, during the normal business hours, on reasonable prior notice and in a manner as shall not unreasonably interfere with the business or operations of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof, to the officers, employees, accountants, agents, properties, offices and other facilities and to all books, records, contracts and other assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, and the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, furnish as promptly as reasonably practicable to Parent such other information concerning the business and properties of the Company and its Subsidiaries as Parent may reasonably request from time to time, other than any such matters that relate to the negotiation and execution of this Agreement or (except as required by Section 5.04) to transactions potentially competing with or alternative to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or proposals from other parties relating to any competing or alternative transactions, provided that neither Parent nor Parent's Representative shall be permitted to conduct any environmental or otherwise intrusive sampling. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or disclose information where such access or disclosure would (i) jeopardize the protection of attorney-client privilege, competitively sensitive information or trade secrets or contravene any Law or (ii) violate any of the Company's or its Subsidiaries' obligations with respect to confidentiality (it being agreed that the parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to cause such information to be provided in a manner that would not result in such jeopardy or contravention). (b) Parent and the Company shall comply with, and shall cause their respective Representatives to comply with, all of their respective obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement, dated February 8, 2013, between Parent and the Company (the Confidentiality Agreement), which shall survive the termination of this Agreement in accordance with the terms set forth therein.

Subject to Section 5.04(b), the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to cease immediately and cause to be terminated, and shall not authorize or knowingly permit any of its or their Representatives to continue, any and all existing activities, discussions or negotiations, if any, with any third party conducted prior to the date hereof with respect to any Takeover Proposal.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 5.04(a), at any time following the date of this Agreement and prior to (x) the later of (A) 11:59 p.m., New York City time on the 30th day after the date of this Agreement and (B) if, prior to 11:59 p.m., New York City time on the 30th day after the date of this Agreement, the Company has delivered the Superior Proposal Notice, 11:59 p.m., New York City time on the expiration date of the Superior Proposal Notice Period (the Stockholder Consent End Date) in the event that the Stockholder Consent is delivered to the Company in accordance with Section 5.05 or (y) the date on which the Requisite Company Vote is obtained at a meeting called to consider the Merger (the Stockholder Approval Date) in the event the Stockholder Consent is not delivered to the Company in accordance with Section 5.05 and this Agreement is not terminated in accordance with Section 7.03(c), the Company and the Company Board, as applicable, directly or indirectly through any Representative, may, subject to Section 5.04(c), (i) participate in negotiations or discussions with any third party that has made a bona fide, unsolicited Takeover Proposal in writing that the Company Board believes in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel and financial advisors, constitutes or would reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal, (ii) thereafter furnish to such third party non-public information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to an executed confidentiality agreement that constitutes an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement (a copy of which confidentiality agreement shall be promptly (in all events within twenty-four (24) hours) provided for informational purposes only to Parent), (iii) following receipt of and on account of a Superior Proposal, make a Company Adverse Recommendation Change and/or enter into the Company Acquisition Agreement constituting such Superior Proposal, (iv) make public disclosure in response to an Intervening Event, (v) amend or grant a waiver or release under a standstill or similar agreement with respect to any class of equity securities of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (vi) approve any transaction under, or any third party becoming an interested stockholder under, Section 203 of the DGCL and (vii) take any action that any court of competent jurisdiction orders the Company to take (which order remains unstayed), but in each case referred to in the foregoing clauses (i) through (vii), only if the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with the Company Board's fiduciary duties under applicable Law. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Company Board from disclosing to the Company's stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 and Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act with regard to a Takeover Proposal or from issuing a stop, look and listen disclosure or similar communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act pending disclosure of its position thereunder, if the Company determines, after consultation with outside legal counsel, that failure to disclose such position would be inconsistent with its obligations under applicable Law.

(c) The Company Board shall not take any of the actions referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) of Section 5.04(b) unless the Company shall have delivered to Parent a prior written notice advising Parent that it intends to take such action. The Company shall notify Parent promptly (but in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours) after it becomes aware of the receipt by the Company (or any of its Representatives) after the date hereof of any Takeover Proposal or any inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Takeover Proposal. In such notice, the Company shall identify the third party making, and details of the material terms and conditions of, any such Takeover Proposal or inquiry. The Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed, on a prompt basis, of the status and material terms of any such Takeover Proposal, or inquiry, including any material amendments or proposed amendments as to price and other material terms thereof. The Company shall provide Parent with prompt notice of any meeting of the Company Board at which the Company Board is reasonably expected to consider any Takeover Proposal. The Company shall promptly provide Parent with any non-public information concerning the Company's business, present or future performance, financial condition or results of operations, provided to any third party after the date hereof, and, to the extent such information has not been previously provided to Parent, copies of such information.

(d) Except as set forth in this Section 5.04(d), the Company Board shall not make any Company Adverse Recommendation Change or enter into (or permit any Subsidiary to enter into) a Company Acquisition Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time prior to (x) 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on the Stockholder Consent End Date (in the event that the Stockholder Consent is delivered to the Company in accordance with Section 5.05), or (y) the Stockholder Approval Date (in the event that the Stockholder Consent is not delivered to the Company in accordance with Section 5.05 of this Agreement and is not terminated in accordance with Section 7.03(c)), the Company Board may make a Company Adverse Recommendation Change in accordance with Section 5.04(b)(iii) or enter into (or permit any Subsidiary to enter into) a Company Acquisition Agreement, if: (i) the Company promptly notifies Parent (the Superior Proposal Notice), in writing, at least five (5) Business Days (the Superior Proposal Notice Period) before making a Company Adverse Recommendation Change or entering into (or causing a Subsidiary to enter into) a Company Acquisition Agreement, of its intention to take such action with respect to a Superior Proposal, which notice shall state expressly that the Company has received a Takeover Proposal that the Company Board intends to declare a Superior Proposal and that the Company Board intends to make a Company Adverse Recommendation Change and/or the Company intends to enter into a Company Acquisition Agreement; (ii) the Company attaches to such notice the most current version of the proposed agreement (which version shall be updated on a prompt basis) and the identity of the third party making such Superior Proposal; (iii) the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its Subsidiaries' Representatives to, during the Superior Proposal Notice Period, negotiate with Parent in good faith to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Guarantee so that such Takeover Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal, if Parent, in its discretion, proposes to make such adjustments; and (iv) the Company Board determines in good faith, after consulting with outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that such Takeover Proposal continues to constitute a Superior Proposal after taking into account any adjustments made by Parent during the Superior Proposal Notice Period in the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Guarantee.

Section 5.05 Stockholder Consent: Preparation of Information Statement.

(a) Immediately after the execution of this Agreement and in lieu of calling a meeting of the Company's stockholders, the Company shall seek and shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain an irrevocable written consent, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit E, from each of the stockholders of the Company that is a party to the Voting Agreement, which stockholders shall hold a majority of the Voting Stock (such written consent, as duly executed and delivered by all such holders, the Stockholder Consent). As soon as practicable upon receipt of the Stockholder Consent, the Company shall provide Parent with a copy of such Stockholder Consent, certified as true and complete by an executive officer of the Company. If such Stockholder Consent is not delivered to the Company and Parent within 24 hours after the execution of this Agreement (the Stockholder Consent Delivery Period), Parent shall have the right to terminate this Agreement as set forth in Section 7.03(c). In connection with the Stockholder Consent, the Company shall take all actions necessary to comply, and shall comply in all respects, with the DGCL, including Section 228 and Section 262 thereof, and the Company Charter Documents.

(b) As promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days after the date hereof), the Company shall, with the assistance (not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) of Parent, prepare and file with the SEC an information statement of the type contemplated by Rule 14c 2 under the Exchange Act related to the Merger and this Agreement (such information statement, including any amendment or supplement thereto, the Information Statement). The Information Statement shall also contain (i) the notice of action by written consent required by Section 228(e) of the DGCL and (ii) the notice of availability of appraisal rights and related disclosure required by Section 262 of the DGCL. Parent, Merger Sub and the Company will cooperate with each other in the preparation of the Information Statement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each of Parent and Merger Sub will furnish to the Company the information relating to it required by the Exchange Act to be set forth in the Information Statement. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to resolve all SEC comments with respect to the Information Statement as promptly as reasonably practicable after receipt thereof and to have the Information Statement cleared by the staff of the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable after such filing. Each of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company agrees to correct any information provided by it for use in the Information Statement which shall have become materially false or misleading. The Company shall as soon as reasonably practicable notify Parent and Merger Sub of the receipt of any comments from the SEC with respect to the Information Statement and any request by the SEC for any amendment to the Information Statement or for additional information and shall provide Parent with copies of all such comments and correspondence. Prior to filing or mailing the Information Statement (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC (or the staff of the SEC) with respect thereto, the Company shall provide Parent a reasonable opportunity to review and to propose comments on such document or response and shall, in good faith, consider the reasonable comments of Parent. As promptly as reasonably practicable after the Information Statement has been cleared by the SEC or after ten (10) calendar days have passed since the date of filing of the preliminary Information Statement with the SEC without notice from the SEC of its intent to review the Information Statement, the Company shall promptly file with the SEC the Information Statement in definitive form as contemplated by Rule 14c 2 promulgated under the Exchange Act substantially in the form previously cleared or filed with the SEC, as the case may be, and mail a copy of the Information Statement to the Company's stockholders of record in accordance with Sections 228 and 262 of the DGCL. In the event the Stockholder Consent is not obtained and Parent does not terminate this Agreement, in each case, as provided in Section 5.05(a), then as soon as practicable after the conclusion of the Stockholder Consent Delivery Period, the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC a proxy statement related to the Merger and this Agreement (such proxy statement, including any amendment or supplement thereto, the Proxy Statement) and shall take all action necessary to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of adopting this Agreement and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the Requisite Company Vote.

Section 5.06 Notices of Certain Events. The Company shall notify Parent and Merger Sub, and Parent and Merger Sub shall notify the Company, promptly of (i) any notice or other communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) any notice or other communication from any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iii) any Legal Actions commenced, or to such party's knowledge, threatened, against the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Parent or its Subsidiaries, as applicable, that are related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (iv) any event, change or effect between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time which causes or is reasonably likely to cause the failure of the conditions set forth in Section 6.02(a), Section 6.02(b) or Section 6.02(e) of this Agreement (in the case of the Company and its Subsidiaries) or Section 6.03(a) or Section 6.03(b) of this Agreement (in the case of Parent and Merger Sub), to be satisfied. In no event shall (x) the delivery of any notice by a party pursuant to this Section 5.06 limit or otherwise affect the respective rights, obligations, representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement, or (y) disclosure by the Company or Parent be deemed to amend or supplement the Company Disclosure Letter or constitute an exception to any representation or warranty. This Section 5.06 shall not constitute a covenant or agreement for purposes of Section 6.02(b) or Section 6.03(b).

Section 5.07 Employees; Benefit Plans.

(a) During the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on December 31, 2014 (or if earlier, the date of the employee's termination of employment with Parent and its Subsidiaries), Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation and each of its Subsidiaries, as applicable, to provide the employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries who remain employed immediately after the Effective Time (collectively, the Company Continuing Employees) with base compensation and bonus opportunities that are at least as favorable to those provided by the Company and its subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time and all other benefits that are, in the aggregate, at least as favorable as such benefits provided by the Company and its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time. In addition, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, continue to maintain and operate the Company Employee Plans and Foreign Company Employee Plans without material amendment (except as required by applicable Laws or as set forth on Section 5.07 of the Company Disclosure Schedule) through December 31, 2014.

(b) With respect to any employee benefit plan as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA maintained by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, excluding both any retiree healthcare plans or programs maintained by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries and any equity compensation arrangements maintained by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (collectively, Parent Benefit Plans) in which any Company Continuing Employees will participate effective as of the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, recognize all service of the Company Continuing Employees with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, as the case may be as if such service were with Parent, for vesting and eligibility purposes (but not for (i) purposes of early retirement subsidies under any Parent Benefit Plan that is a defined benefit pension plan or (ii) benefit accrual purposes, except for vacation, if applicable) in any Parent Benefit Plan in which such Company Continuing Employees may be eligible to participate after the Effective Time; provided, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that (x) such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits or (y) such service was not recognized under the corresponding Company Employee Plan or Foreign Company Employee Plan.

(c) This Section 5.07 shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each of the parties to this Agreement, and nothing in this Section 5.07, express or implied, shall confer upon any other Person any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Section 5.07. Nothing contained herein, express or implied (i) shall be construed to establish, amend or modify any benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement or (ii) shall alter or limit the ability of the Surviving Corporation, Parent or any of their respective Affiliates to amend, modify or terminate any benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement at any time assumed, established, sponsored or maintained by any of them. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the terms set forth in this Section 5.07 shall not create any right in any Company Employee or any other Person to any continued employment with the Surviving Corporation, Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries or compensation or benefits of any nature or kind whatsoever.

(d) With respect to matters described in this Section 5.07, the Company will not send any written notices or other written communication materials to Company Employees without the prior written consent of Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

Section 5.08 Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) Parent and Merger Sub agree that all rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation by the Company now existing in favor of each Person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof or who becomes prior to the Effective Time an officer or director of the Company or its Subsidiaries or any of their respective predecessors and each Person who served at the request of the Company or its Subsidiaries as a director, officer, member, trustee or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, pension or other employee benefit plan or enterprise (each, together with such Person's heirs, executors or administrators, an Indemnified Party) as provided in the Company Charter Documents, in each case as in effect on the date of this Agreement, or pursuant to any other Contracts in effect on the date hereof and disclosed in Section 5.08, shall be assumed by the Surviving Corporation in the Merger, without further action, at the Effective Time and shall survive the Merger and shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms, and, in the event that any proceeding is pending or asserted or any claim made during such period, until the final disposition of such proceeding or claim.

(b) From and after the Effective Time, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, Parent and the Surviving Corporation (the Indemnifying Parties) shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Indemnified Party against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, fees, expenses, judgments and fines arising in whole or in part out of actions or omissions in their capacity as such occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), and shall reimburse each Indemnified Party for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, fees, expenses, judgments and fines as such expenses are incurred, subject to the Surviving Corporation's receipt of an undertaking by such Indemnified Party to repay such legal and other fees and expenses paid in advance if it is ultimately determined in a final and non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified under applicable Law; provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation will not be liable for any settlement effected without the Surviving Corporation's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

(c) The Surviving Corporation shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, (i) maintain in effect for a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time, if available, the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time (provided that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies, of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous to the directors and officers of the Company and its Subsidiaries and other Indemnified Parties when compared to the insurance maintained by the Company as of the date hereof), or (ii) obtain as of the Effective Time tail insurance policies from an insurance carrier with the same or better credit rating as the Company's current insurance carrier with respect to the directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance with a claims period of six (6) years from the Effective Time with at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous to the directors and officers of the Company and its Subsidiaries and other Indemnified Parties, in each case with respect to claims arising out of or relating to events which occurred before or at the Effective Time (including in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement); provided, however, that in no event will the Surviving Corporation be required to expend an annual premium for such coverage in excess of 300% of the last annual premium paid by the Company for such insurance prior to the date of this Agreement (the Maximum Premium). If such insurance coverage cannot be obtained at an annual premium equal to or less than the Maximum Premium, the Surviving Corporation will obtain, and Parent will cause the Surviving Corporation to obtain, that amount of directors' and officers' insurance (or tail coverage) obtainable for an annual premium equal to the Maximum Premium.

(d) The obligations of Parent and the Surviving Corporation under this Section 5.08 shall survive the consummation of the Merger and shall not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to adversely affect any Indemnified Party to whom this Section 5.08 applies without the consent of such affected Indemnified Party (it being expressly agreed that the Indemnified Parties to whom this Section 5.08 applies shall be third party beneficiaries of this Section 5.08, each of whom may enforce the provisions of this Section 5.08).

(e) In the event Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity in such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in either such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall assume all of the obligations set forth in this Section 5.08.

Section 5.11 Takeover Statutes. If any control share acquisition, fair price, moratorium or other anti-takeover Law becomes or is deemed to be applicable to the Company, Parent, Merger Sub, the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement, then each of the Company, Parent, Merger Sub, and their respective board of directors shall grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary so that the transactions contemplated hereby may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise act to render such anti-takeover Law inapplicable to the foregoing.

Section 5.12 Control of Operations. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Parent or Merger Sub, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the Company's operations prior to the Effective Time. (d) The parties agree and understand that (i) in no event shall the Company be required to pay the Parent Expenses or Termination Fee, as applicable, on more than one occasion and (ii) in no event shall Parent be entitled, pursuant to this Section 7.06, to receive an amount greater than the Parent Expenses or Termination Fee, as applicable. Anything to the contrary in this Agreement notwithstanding (A) if Parent receives the Parent Expenses or Termination Fee from the Company pursuant to this Section 7.06, such payment shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the receiving party against the paying party and its Subsidiaries and their respective former, current or future officers, directors, partners, stockholders, managers, members, Affiliates and Representatives and none of the paying party, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective former, current or future officers, directors, partners, stockholders, managers, members, Affiliates or Representatives shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, provided that the Parent Expenses shall not be the exclusive remedy in the case of a willful and intentional breach of this Agreement but the Parent Expenses shall be credited against any damages determined to be due, and (B) if Parent or Merger Sub receives any payments from the Company in respect of any breach of this Agreement and thereafter Parent receives the Parent Expenses or Termination Fee, as applicable, pursuant to this Section 7.06, the amount of such Parent Expenses or Termination Fee, as applicable, shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of such payments made by the party paying the Parent Expenses or Termination Fee, as applicable, in respect of any such breaches. The parties acknowledge and hereby agree that the provisions of this Section 7.06 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), and that, without such provisions, the parties would not have entered into this Agreement. If the Company shall fail to pay in a timely manner the amounts due pursuant to this Section 7.06, and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent makes a claim against the Company that results in a judgment against the Company, the Company shall pay to Parent the reasonable costs and expenses of Parent (including its reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred or accrued in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amounts set forth in this Section 7.06 at the prime lending rate prevailing during such period as published in The Wall Street Journal. Any interest payable hereunder shall be calculated on a daily basis from the date such amounts were required to be paid until (but excluding) the date of actual payment, and on the basis of a 360-day year.

(e) Except as expressly set forth in this Section 7.06, all Expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby will be paid by the party incurring such Expenses.

(c) Any vote required to be cast or consent required to be executed pursuant to this Section 2.01 shall be cast (or consent shall be given) by the Stockholders in accordance with such procedures relating thereto so as to ensure that it is duly counted, including for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present.

The execution and delivery by the Stockholder of this Agreement, the performance by it of its obligations hereunder and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly and validly authorized by the Stockholder and no other actions or proceedings on the part of the Stockholder or any manager or partner thereof are necessary to authorize the execution and delivery by it of this Agreement, the performance by it of its obligations hereunder or the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Stockholder and, assuming this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the other parties hereto, constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Stockholder, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms (except to the extent that enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, moratorium, reorganization or similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally or by general principles of equity).

(b) Ownership. Except as contemplated by this Agreement, the Stockholder has the voting power to control the vote and consent as contemplated herein, the power of disposition, the power to issue instructions with respect to the matters set forth in ARTICLE II, and the power to agree to all of the matters set forth in this Agreement, in each case, with respect to all of the Stockholder's Covered Shares.

(c) No Violation. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not and will not (whether with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) (i) violate any provision of the certificate of formation or other comparable governing documents, as applicable, of the Stockholder, (ii) violate, conflict with or result in the breach of any of the terms or conditions of, result in any (or the right to make any) modification of or the cancellation or loss of a benefit under, require any notice, consent or action under, or otherwise give any Person the right to terminate, accelerate obligations under or receive payment or additional rights under, or constitute a default under, any Contract to which the Stockholder is a party or by which it is bound or (iii) violate any Law applicable to the Stockholder or by which any of the Stockholder's assets or properties is bound, except for any of the foregoing as would not, either individually or in the aggregate, impair in any material respect the ability of the Stockholder to perform its obligations hereunder or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on a timely basis.

(d) Consents and Approvals. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Stockholder does not, and the performance by the Stockholder of its obligations under this Agreement and the consummation by it of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, require the Stockholder to obtain any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or to make any filing with or notification to, any Governmental Entity, other than the filings of any reports with the SEC and except where the failure to obtain such consents, approvals, authorizations or permits, or to make such filings and notifications, would not, either individually or in the aggregate, prevent or materially delay the performance by the Stockholder of any of its obligations hereunder.

(e) Absence of Litigation. As of the date hereof, there is no action pending or, to the knowledge of the Stockholder, threatened against or affecting the Stockholder before or by any Governmental Entity that would reasonably be expected to impair in any material respect the ability of the Stockholder to perform its obligations hereunder or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on a timely basis.

(f) Reliance by Parent and Merger Sub. The Stockholder understands and acknowledges that Parent and Merger Sub are entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon the Stockholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement and the representations and warranties of the Stockholder contained herein. delivered by Parent and, assuming this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the other parties hereto, constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Parent, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms (except to the extent that enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance or similar Laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally or by general principles of equity).

ARTICLE IV

OTHER COVENANTS

Section 4.01 Prohibition on Transfers, Other Actions. During the term of this Agreement, each Stockholder hereby agrees not to (i) Transfer any of the Covered Shares, Beneficial Ownership thereof or any other interest therein (including by tendering into a tender or exchange offer), unless such Transfer is a Permitted Transfer, (ii) subject to Section 4.03(b) below, enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any Person (other than Parent or Merger Sub), or knowingly take any other action, that violates or conflicts with the Stockholder's representations, warranties, covenants and obligations under this Agreement, or (iii) knowingly take any action that would restrict or otherwise affect the Stockholder's legal power, authority and right to comply with and perform its covenants and obligations under this Agreement. Any Transfer in violation of this provision shall be void ab initio.

Section 4.02 Stock Dividends, etc. In the event of a stock split, stock dividend or distribution, or any change in the Voting Stock by reason of any split-up, reverse stock split, recapitalization, combination, reclassification, reincorporation, exchange of shares or the like, the term "Covered Shares" shall be deemed to refer to and include such shares as well as all such stock dividends and distributions and any securities into which or for which any or all of such shares may be changed or exchanged or which are received in such transaction.

Section 4.03 No Solicitation.

(a) Except as set forth in this Section 4.03, each Stockholder hereby agrees that it shall, and shall direct its Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions and negotiations with any Person conducted heretofore with respect to any Takeover Proposal. During the term of this Agreement and except as permitted by Section 4.03(b), each Stockholder agrees that it shall not, and it shall not authorize any of its Representatives to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly take any action to facilitate or encourage (it being understood and agreed that ministerial acts that are not otherwise prohibited by this Section 4.03(a) (such as answering unsolicited phone calls or advising parties of the existence of this Section 4.03) shall not be deemed to facilitate or encourage for purposes of this Section 4.03(a)) the submission of any Takeover Proposal, (ii) conduct or engage in any discussions or negotiations with, disclose any non-public information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to, afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, to any third party that the Stockholder is aware is seeking to make, or has made, any Takeover Proposal, (iii) enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other Contract relating to any Takeover Proposal (iv) make or participate in, directly or indirectly, a solicitation of proxies (as such terms are used in the rules of the SEC) or powers of attorney or similar rights to vote, or seek to advise or influence any Person with respect to the voting of, any Shares in connection with any vote or other action on any of the Section 2.01(b) Matters, other than to recommend that stockholders of the Company vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or to otherwise vote or consent with respect to Covered Shares in a manner that would not violate Section 2.01, or (v) agree to do any of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, solely to the extent the Company is permitted to take the actions set forth in Section 5.04 of the Merger Agreement with respect to a Takeover Proposal and such Stockholder has not breached this Section 4.03, each Stockholder and its Representatives will be free to participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding such Takeover Proposal (including, without limitation, any related stockholders' consent or voting agreement) with the Person making such Takeover Proposal and to otherwise take action to the extent the Company may take such action, provided that such action by such Stockholder and its Representatives would be permitted to be taken by the Company pursuant to Section 5.04 of the Merger Agreement.

(c) For purposes of this Section 4.03, the Company will be deemed not to be a Representative of any Stockholder, and any officer, director, employee, agent or advisor of the Company (in each case, solely in their capacities as such) will be deemed not to be a Representative of any such Stockholder. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section 4.03 shall affect in any way the obligations of any Person (including the Company) under Section 5.04 of the Merger Agreement.

Section 4.04 Notice of Acquisitions; Proposals Regarding Prohibited Transactions. Each Stockholder hereby agrees to notify Parent in writing (a) as reasonably promptly as practicable (and in any event within 48 hours following such acquisition by the Stockholder) of the number of any additional Shares or other securities of the Company of which the Stockholder acquires Beneficial Ownership on or after the date hereof (other than any Shares acquired in the Exchange) and (b) promptly (but in no event later than 24 hours) after obtaining knowledge of the receipt by the Stockholder (or any of its Representatives) after the date hereof of any Takeover Proposal or any inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Takeover Proposal, and shall disclose the terms of such Takeover Proposal if the Company has not already notified Parent of such Takeover Proposal. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that a third party contacts a Stockholder or a Representative of the Stockholder regarding a potential Takeover Proposal, the Stockholder shall not be in breach of this Agreement in any respect to the extent such Stockholder or its Representative responds to such third party that it is bound by the terms of this Agreement and is unable to discuss or respond to such matters without first complying with the procedures set forth herein with respect to any such discussions.

Section 4.05 Waiver of Appraisal Rights. Each Stockholder agrees not to exercise any rights of appraisal or any dissenters' rights (including under Section 262 of the DGCL) that the Stockholder may have (whether under applicable Law or otherwise) or could potentially have or acquire in connection with the Merger.

Section 4.06 Waiver of Claims. Each Stockholder agrees (on their own behalf and on behalf of their successors-in-interest, transferees or assignees) to forego participation as a plaintiff or member of a plaintiff class in any action (including any class action) with respect to any claim, direct, derivative or otherwise, based on their status as stockholders of the Company relating to the negotiation, execution or delivery of the Stockholder Consent or the Merger Agreement or the consummation of (but not the failure to consummate) the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and to take all necessary steps to affirmatively waive and release any right or claim of recovery or recovery in any settlement or judgment related to any such action reasonably requested by Parent in writing; provided, however, that none of the Stockholders waive, release or discharge any claims relating to this Agreement, the Exchange and Termination Agreement or the breach of the Merger Agreement by Parent or Merger Sub or breach of the Guarantee by Guarantor (as such terms are defined in the Merger Agreement). For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Stockholders waive, release or discharge any claims relating to the right to receive the Merger Consideration under the Merger Agreement.

Section 4.07 Disclosure. Subject to reasonable prior notice and approval (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the Stockholders, each Stockholder hereby authorizes the Company and Parent to publish and disclose in any announcement or disclosure required by the SEC and in the Information Statement the Stockholder's identity and ownership of such Stockholder's Covered Shares and the nature of the Stockholder's obligations under this Agreement.

its successors or assigns shall be brought and determined exclusively in the courts of the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within State of Delaware, or in the event (but only in the event) that such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction over such action or proceeding, in the Federal courts of the United States of America located in the State of Delaware. Each of the parties hereto agrees that mailing of process or other papers in connection with any such action or proceeding in the manner provided in Section 5.04 or in such other manner as may be permitted by applicable Laws, will be valid and sufficient service thereof. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits with regard to any such action or proceeding for itself and in respect of its property, generally and unconditionally, to the personal jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts and agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in any court or tribunal other than the aforesaid courts. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense, counterclaim or otherwise, in any action or proceeding with respect to this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of this Agreement and the rights and obligations arising hereunder (i) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of the above named courts for any reason other than the failure to serve process in accordance with this Section 5.08, (ii) any claim that it or its property is exempt or immune from jurisdiction of any such court or from any legal process commenced in such courts (whether through service of notice, attachment prior to judgment, attachment in aid of execution of judgment, execution of judgment or otherwise), and (iii) to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable Law, any claim that (x) the suit, action or proceeding in such court is brought in an inconvenient forum, (y) the venue of such suit, action or proceeding is improper, or (z) this Agreement, or the subject matter hereof, may not be enforced in or by such courts.

(c) EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND, THEREFORE, EACH SUCH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LEGAL ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. Section 5.12 Assignment; Successors; No Third Party Beneficiaries. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement may be assigned or delegated, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise, by any party without the prior written consent of the other parties, and any such assignment without such prior written consent shall be null and void. This Guarantee, dated as of October 1, 2013 (this Guarantee), is made by Sumitomo Corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of Japan (the Guarantor) in favor of Edgen Group Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company) Edgen Murray II, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (EM II LP), and Bourland & Leverich Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (B&L Holdings and together with EM II LP, the JCP Entities). Reference is hereby made to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of the date hereof (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the Merger Agreement), by and among Sumitomo Corporation of America, a New York corporation (Parent), Lochinvar Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Merger Sub), and the Company. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement. Reference is hereby further made to the Exchange and Tax Receivable Termination Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (the Exchange and Termination Agreement), by and among the Company, the JCP Entities, Parent and EDG Holdco, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company.

1. Guarantee. To induce the Company to enter into the Merger Agreement and the JCP Entities and the Company to enter into Exchange and Termination Agreement, the Guarantor hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to the Company and the JCP Entities, on the terms and conditions set forth herein, the due and punctual observance, payment and performance and discharge of (a) the obligations, covenants and agreements of Parent and Merger Sub pursuant to the Merger Agreement and the Exchange and Termination Agreement strictly in accordance with the terms thereof and (b) all costs and expenses (including attorney's fees and expenses) reasonably incurred by the Company in connection with the enforcement of its rights under Section 8.13 of the Merger Agreement that results in a final, non-appealable judgment against Parent, Merger Sub or the Guarantor (collectively, the Guaranteed Obligations). The Company hereby agrees that in no event shall the Guarantor be required to pay any amount to the Company under, in respect of, or in connection with this Guarantee, the Merger Agreement or the Exchange and Termination Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby other than as expressly set forth herein or therein. All payments hereunder shall be made in lawful money of the United States, in immediately available funds.

2. Nature of Guarantee. The Company and the JCP Entities shall not be obligated to file any claim relating to the Guaranteed Obligations in the event that Parent or Merger Sub become subject to a bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding, and the failure of the Company to so file shall not affect the Guarantor's obligations hereunder. In the event that any payment to the Company or the JCP Entities in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be returned for any reason whatsoever, the Guarantor shall remain liable hereunder with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations as if such payment had not been made. This Guarantee is an unconditional guarantee of payment and performance and not of collection. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Guarantor acknowledges that its liability hereunder shall extend to the full amount of the Guaranteed Obligations, and that the Company or the JCP Entities may, in their sole discretion, bring and prosecute a separate action or actions against the Guarantor to enforce this Guarantee for such amount, regardless of whether any action is brought against Parent or Merger Sub or whether Parent or Merger Sub is joined in any such action.

3. Changes in Obligations.

(a) The Guarantor agrees that the Company and the JCP Entities may at any time and from time to time, without notice to or further consent of the Guarantor, extend the time of payment of the Guaranteed Obligations, and may also make any agreement with Parent or Merger Sub for the extension, renewal, payment, compromise, discharge or release thereof, in whole or in part, or for any modification of the terms thereof or of any agreement between the Company, the JCP Entities and Parent or Merger Sub or any such other Person without in any way impairing or affecting the Guarantor's obligations under this Guarantee.

Table of Contents

(b) The Guarantor agrees that the Guaranteed Obligations hereunder shall not be released or discharged, in whole or in part, or otherwise affected by: (i) the failure or delay of the Company, subject to Section 8, to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against Parent or Merger Sub or any Person interested in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (ii) the failure or delay of the Company or the JCP Entities, subject to Section 8, to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against Parent or any Person interested in the transactions contemplated by the Exchange and Termination Agreement (iii) any change in the time, place or manner of payment of the Guaranteed Obligations; (iv) the addition, substitution or release of any Person now or hereafter liable with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations, to or from this Guarantee, the Merger Agreement, the Exchange and Termination Agreement, or any related agreement or document; (v) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of Parent or Merger Sub or any Person interested in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or Exchange and Termination Agreement; (vi) any insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting Parent or Merger Sub or any other Person now or hereafter liable with respect to the Guaranteed Obligations; (vii) the existence of any claim, set-off or other right which the Guarantor may have at any time against Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or the JCP Entities, whether in connection with the Obligations or otherwise; or (viii) the adequacy of any other means the Company or the JCP Entities may have of obtaining payment of the Guaranteed Obligations.

4. Certain Waivers.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted by Laws, the Guarantor hereby expressly waives any and all rights or defenses arising by reason of any law that would otherwise require any election of remedies by the Company or the JCP Entities. The Guarantor waives promptness, diligence, notice of the acceptance of this Guarantee and of the Guaranteed Obligations, presentment, demand for payment, notice of non-performance, default, dishonor and protest, notice of the incurrence of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and all other notices of any kind (other than notices expressly required to be provided to (x) Parent or Merger Sub pursuant to Section 8.07 of the Merger Agreement or (y) Parent pursuant to Section 4(f) of the Exchange and Termination Agreement), all defenses which may be available by virtue of any valuation, stay, moratorium law or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, any right to require the marshalling of assets of Parent or Merger Sub or any other Person interested in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or the Exchange and Termination Agreement, and all suretyship defenses generally (other than defenses to the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations that are available to Parent or Merger Sub under the Merger Agreement, the Exchange and Termination Agreement or a breach by the Company or the JCP Entities of the Guarantee). The Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably agrees not to exercise any rights which it may acquire by way of subrogation under the Merger Agreement or the Exchange and Termination Agreement, by any payment made hereunder or otherwise, until all of the Guaranteed Obligations outstanding on the date such subrogation is sought shall have been paid and/or performed in full.

(b) The Guarantor acknowledges that it will receive substantial direct and indirect benefits from the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Exchange and Termination Agreement and that the waivers set forth in this Guarantee are knowingly made in contemplation of such benefits.

5. No Waiver; Cumulative Rights. No failure on the part of the Company or the JCP Entities to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, remedy or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise by the Company or the JCP Entities of any right, remedy or power hereunder preclude any other or future exercise of any right, remedy or power. Each and every right, remedy and power hereby granted to the Company or the JCP Entities or allowed it by Applicable Law or other agreement shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any other, and may be exercised by the Company or the JCP Entities at any time or from time to time. The Company and the JCP Entities shall not have any obligation to proceed at any time or in any manner against, or exhaust any or all of the Company's or the JCP Entities' rights against, Parent and/or Merger Sub prior to proceeding against the Guarantor hereunder. The failure by the Company or the JCP Entities to pursue rights or remedies against Parent, Merger Sub or any other Person shall not relieve the Guarantor of any liability hereunder, and shall not impair or affect the rights and remedies, whether express, implied or available as a matter of applicable Law, of the Company or the JCP Entities.

6. Representations and Warranties. The Guarantor hereby represents and warrants that:

(a) the Guarantor is a duly organized and validly existing company in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization and has all power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Guarantee;

(b) the execution, delivery and performance of this Guarantee have been duly authorized by all necessary action and do not contravene any provision of the Guarantor's charter or similar organizational documents or any Laws binding on the Guarantor or any of its property or assets and no other proceedings or actions on the part of the Guarantor are necessary therefor;

(c) all consents, approvals, authorizations, permits of, filings with and notifications to, any Governmental Authority necessary for the due execution, delivery and performance of this Guarantee by the Guarantor have been obtained or made and all conditions thereof have been duly complied with, and no other action by, and no notice to or filing with, any Governmental Authority is required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance of this Guarantee;

(d) this Guarantee has been duly and validly executed and delivered by the Guarantor and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Guarantor, enforceable against the Guarantor in accordance with its terms, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, and other similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights or general equity principles (regardless of whether considered at law or in equity); and

(e) the Guarantor has the financial capacity to pay and perform its obligations under this Guarantee, and all funds necessary for the Guarantor to fulfill its obligations under this Guarantee shall be available to the Guarantor for so long as this Guarantee shall remain in effect in accordance with Section 8 hereof.

7. Successors and Assigns. The Guarantor may not assign, delegate or otherwise transfer any of its rights, interests or obligations hereunder to any other Person (operation of law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other counterparties hereto. Any purported assignment, delegation or transfer in contravention of the preceding sentence shall be void ab initio.

8. Continuing Guaranty: Termination.

(a) Unless terminated pursuant to this Section 8, this Guarantee may not be revoked or terminated and shall remain in full force and effect and binding on the Guarantor, its successors and permitted assigns until the complete, irrevocable and indefeasible payment and satisfaction in full of the Guaranteed Obligations.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Guarantee shall terminate and the Guarantor shall have no further obligations under this Guarantee as of the earliest to occur of: (i) termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms; or (ii) the Effective Time, except in each case with respect to Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations under the Merger Agreement or Exchange and Termination Agreement that are in accordance with their respective terms to survive such termination of the Merger Agreement or the Effective Time, as applicable, for which this Guarantee shall remain in full force and effect until such obligations expire pursuant to their terms.

10. Governing Law. This Guarantee shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of Delaware.

11. Submission to Jurisdiction: Venue.

(a) Any legal action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Guarantee or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be heard and determined exclusively in the courts of the State of Delaware, or, in the event (but only in the event) that such court does not have subject-matter jurisdiction over such action or proceeding, in the federal courts of the United States of America located in the Delaware, and each party hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the personal jurisdiction of such courts in any such suit, action or proceeding. Service of process, summons, notice or other document by mail in accordance with Section 9 shall be effective service of process for any suit, action or other proceeding brought in any such court.

(b) Each party hereto waives, and agrees not to assert, as a defense in any such action, suit or proceeding, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of such courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the action, suit or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the action, suit or proceeding is improper or that this Guarantee or the transactions contemplated hereby may not be enforced in or by such courts.

12. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each of the parties hereto acknowledges and agrees that any controversy that may arise under this Guarantee is likely to involve complicated and difficult issues and, therefore, each such party irrevocably and unconditionally waives any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any legal action arising out of or relating to this Guarantee or the transactions contemplated hereby.

13. Entire Agreement. This Guarantee constitutes the sole and entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous negotiations, proposals, undertakings, understandings, agreements, representations and warranties, both written and oral, among the Guarantor or any of its Affiliates (other than the Company), on the one hand, and the Company or any of its Affiliates (other than the Guarantor), on the other hand, with respect to such subject matter.

14. Amendments and Waivers. No amendment or waiver of any provision of this Guarantee will be valid and binding unless it is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by the Guarantor and the Company and the JCP Entities, or in the case of a waiver, by the party against which the waiver is to be effective. No waiver by any party hereto shall operate or be construed as a waiver in respect of any failure, breach or default not expressly identified by such written waiver, whether of a similar or different character, and whether occurring before or after that waiver.

15. No Third-party Beneficiaries. The parties hereto hereby agree that their respective representations, warranties and covenants as set forth herein are solely for the benefit of the other parties hereto, in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Guarantee, and this Guarantee is not intended to, and does not, confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, including the right to rely upon the representations and warranties set forth herein.

The Board of Directors

Edgen Group Inc.

18444 Highland Road

Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70809

The Board of Directors:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to holders of Class A common stock of Edgen Group Inc. (Edgen), other than as specified herein, of the Merger Consideration (defined below) to be received by such holders pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement) proposed to be entered into among Edgen, Sumitomo Corporation of America (Sumitomo America) and Lochinvar Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sumitomo America (Merger Sub). As more fully described in the Agreement, (i) Merger Sub will be merged with and into Edgen (the Merger) and (ii) each outstanding share of Class A common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Edgen (Edgen Class A Common Stock) will be converted into the right to receive $12.00 in cash (the Merger Consideration).

In arriving at our opinion, we reviewed an execution version, made available on September 29, 2013, of the Agreement and held discussions with certain senior officers, directors and other representatives and advisors of Edgen and certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of Sumitomo America concerning the business, operations and prospects of Edgen. We reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Edgen as well as certain financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Edgen provided to or discussed with us by the management of Edgen. We reviewed the financial terms of the Merger as set forth in the Agreement in relation to, among other things: current and historical market prices and trading volumes of Edgen Class A Common Stock; the historical and projected earnings and other operating data of Edgen; and the capitalization (including, in connection with the Merger, the exchange of all outstanding shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of Edgen together with corresponding limited liability company interests of EDG Holdco LLC into shares of Edgen Class A Common Stock prior to the effective time of the Merger (the Exchange)) and financial condition of Edgen. We analyzed certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the businesses of other companies whose operations we considered relevant in evaluating those of Edgen and analyzed, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other transactions which we considered relevant in evaluating the Merger. In addition to the foregoing, we conducted such other analyses and examinations and considered such other information and financial, economic and market criteria as we deemed appropriate in arriving at our opinion. The issuance of our opinion has been authorized by our fairness opinion committee.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us and upon the assurances of the management of Edgen that it is not aware of any relevant information that has been omitted or that remains undisclosed to us. With respect to the financial forecasts and other information and data relating to Edgen provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with us, we have been advised by the management of Edgen and we have assumed, with your consent, that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Edgen as to the future financial performance of Edgen.

We have not made or been provided with an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Edgen nor have we made any physical inspection of the properties or assets of Edgen. We have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger and related transactions (including, without limitation, the Exchange) will be consummated, in all respects meaningful to our analyses or opinion, in accordance with the terms of the Agreement and related documents and all applicable laws and other relevant documents or requirements without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the Merger and related transactions, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Edgen or the Merger or any related transactions. Representatives of Edgen have advised us, and we further have assumed, that the final terms of the Agreement will not vary materially from those set forth in the execution version reviewed by us.

Our opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date hereof, of the Merger Consideration (to the extent expressly specified herein) and does not address any other terms, aspects or implications of the Merger or any related transactions, including, without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger, the Exchange, any guarantee, voting agreement or stockholder consent or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding to be entered into in connection with or contemplated by the Merger, any related transactions or otherwise. We were not requested to consider, and our opinion does not address, the underlying business decision of Edgen to effect the Merger or related transactions, the relative merits of the Merger or related transactions as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Edgen or the effect of any other transaction in which Edgen might engage. We also express no view as to, and our opinion does not address, the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount or nature or any other aspect of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the Merger or related transactions, or any class of such persons, relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise. Our opinion is necessarily based upon information available to us, and financial, stock market and other conditions and circumstances existing and disclosed to us, as of the date hereof.

Citigroup Global Markets Inc. has acted as financial advisor to Edgen in connection with the proposed Merger and will receive a fee for such services, the principal portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We also will receive a fee in connection with the delivery of this opinion. We and our affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing and in the future may provide investment banking and other financial services to Edgen, Sumitomo America and its parent company, Sumitomo Corporation (collectively, Sumitomo), and/or their respective affiliates unrelated to the Merger, for which services we and our affiliates have received and expect to receive compensation, including during the two-year period prior to the date hereof (i) having acted as joint bookrunner in connection with the initial public offering of Edgen Class A Common Stock in April 2012, (ii) acting as administrative agent on a $150,000,000 term loan for Sumitomo America and (iii) having acted as co-lead arranger of a JPY 30,000,000,000 senior unsecured bond offering of Sumitomo Corporation in April 2012 and acting as bookrunner on certain revolving credit facilities of Sumitomo Corporation. In the ordinary course of business, we and our affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of Edgen, Sumitomo and their respective affiliates for our own account or for the account of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In addition, we and our affiliates (including Citigroup Inc. and its affiliates) may maintain relationships with Edgen, Sumitomo and their respective affiliates.

Edgar Filing: Edgen Group Inc. - Form PREM14C

Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information of the Board of Directors of Edgen (in its capacity as such) in its evaluation of the proposed Merger. Our opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act on any matters relating to the proposed Merger or otherwise.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, our experience as investment bankers, our work as described above and other factors we deemed relevant, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Edgen Class A Common Stock (other than holders that enter into or are party to exchange or voting agreements or similar undertakings in connection with the Merger or related transactions and their respective affiliates).

Very truly yours,

Annex F

GENERAL CORPORATION LAW OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

§ 262. Appraisal rights

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to § 228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in 1 or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title and, subject to paragraph (b)(3) of this section, § 251(h) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 255, § 256, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that, except as expressly provided in § 363(b) of this title, no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either: (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in § 251(f) of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b)(1) of this section, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a. and b. of this section; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a., b. and c. of this section.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 251(h), § 253 or § 267 of this title is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(4) In the event of an amendment to a corporation's certificate of incorporation contemplated by § 363(a) of this title, appraisal rights shall be available as contemplated by § 363(b) of this title, and the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as practicable, with the word "amendment" substituted for the words "merger or consolidation", and the word "corporation" substituted for the words "constituent corporation" and/or "surviving or resulting corporation".

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting (or such members who received notice in accordance with § 255(c) of this title) with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228, § 251(h), § 253, or § 267 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, within the later of the consummation of the tender or exchange offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, later than the later of the consummation of the tender or exchange offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
