Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 24, 2014, Marriott International, Inc. (the Company) appointed Val Bauduin to become its Controller and Chief Accounting Officer. He will report to Carl T. Berquist, the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, who also currently serves as the Company's principal accounting officer. The Company expects that Mr. Bauduin will begin his employment with the Company by early June 2014, at which time he will succeed Mr. Berquist as the Company's principal accounting officer.

Mr. Bauduin is 38 years old and is currently a Partner and U.S. Hospitality leader of Deloitte & Touche LLP, where he has served as a Travel, Hospitality & Leisure industry expert for Deloitte teams globally. He has a strong international background, and has built and led cross-functional (tax, valuation and IT) international professional service teams engaged at diverse client organizations, including several large and well known public hospitality clients. He has supported complex capital market transactions (including initial public offerings, debt issuances, repurchases, debt-for-equity swaps and related derivative instruments), spinoffs and real estate development projects related to gaming and hospitality. Mr. Bauduin earned a Bachelor of Arts in Accounting & Economics from the University of Notre Dame and a Master of Business Administration in Finance from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania. He is also a Certified Public Accountant.
