Re: Allergan Update Proxy Materials

In response to questions from some Allergan employees, I write to alert you that employees owning Allergan stock may be receiving proxy materials from hedge fund Pershing Square Capital Management, L.P. (Pershing Square) soliciting votes in support of, among other things, Pershing Square's campaign to remove a majority of the Allergan Board of Directors (the Board) at a Special Meeting of Allergan Stockholders that is scheduled to occur on December 18, 2014 (the Special Meeting). Allergan urges you to discard any white proxy card received from Pershing Square. Allergan will soon be providing you with its own statement and a BLUE proxy card containing important information about the Special Meeting and the inadequacy of Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc.'s (Valeant) exchange offer for Allergan stock.

As additional background, at the Special Meeting, Pershing Square will seek the removal of six out of nine Board members who were duly elected by Allergan stockholders with overwhelming support in May 2014. This is an attempt to facilitate Valeant's unsolicited offer to acquire Allergan. As you may know, the Board unanimously determined, together with its financial and legal advisors, that Valeant's offer is grossly inadequate, substantially undervalues Allergan, creates significant risks and uncertainties, and is not in the best interests of Allergan and its stockholders. As you may also know, Allergan initiated litigation against Pershing Square and Valeant alleging that their scheme to have Pershing Square acquire 9.7% of Allergan's outstanding stock between February 2014 and April 2014 violated federal securities laws. The Board strongly recommends that Allergan stockholders prevent Valeant from attempting to acquire control of Allergan based on this activity and at a price that does not appropriately reflect the underlying value of Allergan's assets, operations and prospects, including its industry-leading market positions, longstanding track record of superior performance and projected growth expectations.
