Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 9, 2015, Bridge Capital Holdings (the Company or Bridge) and Western Alliance Bancorporation (WAL) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement), pursuant to which WAL will acquire the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Bridge Bank, National Association (Bridge Bank).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, which has been approved by the boards of directors of each party thereto, the Company will be merged with and into WAL (the Merger), with WAL surviving. Thereafter, pursuant to the terms of the plan of bank merger to be entered into by Bridge Bank and Western Alliance Bank, an Arizona-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of WAL (WAB), Bridge Bank will be merged with and into WAB, with WAB surviving.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, upon the effectiveness of the Merger, each outstanding share of Bridge common stock, other than shares for which appraisal rights are properly exercised or shares owned by WAL or Bridge, will be converted into the right to receive, without interest, (x) 0.8145 shares of WAL common stock (the Exchange Ratio) and (y) $2.39 in cash, subject to possible adjustment, if necessary to preserve the desired characterization of the transaction as a tax-free reorganization. Each outstanding, vested and unexercised option for which an exercise election has not been made will be canceled and the optionee will receive an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (1) the excess of (A) the sum of (i) the volume weighted average price of a share of Company common stock over the three trading days preceding the closing date multiplied by 0.8145 and (ii) $2.39 over (B) the exercise price per share of such option and (2) the number of shares of Bridge common stock subject to such option. In addition, certain unvested restricted stock awards and stock options previously issued by Bridge will be converted to WAL awards and options, under the terms of the Agreement.

The Agreement also provides, among other things, that, prior to the effective time of the Merger, all necessary action shall be taken by WAL in order that at the first regularly scheduled meeting of WAL s Board of Directors occurring after the effective time, WAL shall expand the size of its Board of Directors by two seats and designate two members of Bridge s Board of Directors, who shall be named after the date of the Agreement and prior to the effective time, to serve on the Board of Directors of WAL.

The Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of the parties. The Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and WAL, and further provides that, upon termination of the Agreement upon specified circumstances, the Company may be required to pay WAL a termination fee of $15.9375 million plus up to $600,000 in expenses.

In connection with the Agreement, WAL entered into an Employment Agreement with each of Daniel P. Myers, Thomas A. Sa and Timothy W. Boothe, which will be effective upon the closing of the Merger. Pursuant to each Employment Agreement, Messrs. Myers, Sa and Boothe will serve as executives of WAB for a period of three years. Mr. Myers will also be appointed as an executive officer of WAL.

In addition, WAL also entered into a Protection Agreement with each of the above-named executives. Each Protection Agreement will be effective upon the closing of the Merger and includes certain non-competition and non-solicitation covenants for a period of up to five years following the completion of the Merger.

Concurrently with entering into the Agreement, WAL entered into a Support Agreement with each of the directors and certain executive officers of Bridge and with Carpenter Fund Manager GP, LLC, solely in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Bridge, pursuant to which each agreed to vote their shares of Bridge common stock in favor of the Merger and against alternative transactions.

The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including approval by the shareholders of the Company and receipt of regulatory approvals, and is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2015.

The foregoing is not a complete description of the Agreement or the Support Agreements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement and the Form of Support Agreement, which are filed as Exhibit 2.1 and Exhibit 99.1, respectively, hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.

The Agreement and the above description of the Agreement have been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The Agreement and the above description are not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, WAL, or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Agreement were made only for purposes of the Agreement and as of specific dates; were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreement; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made by each contracting party to the other for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between them rather than establishing these matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, WAL, or any of their respective subsidiaries, affiliates or businesses. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the Company or WAL. Accordingly, investors should read the representations and warranties in the Agreement not in isolation but only in conjunction with the other information about the Company or WAL and their respective subsidiaries that the respective companies include in reports, statements and other filings they make with the SEC.
