Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 29, 2015, NuVasive, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that it has reached an agreement in principle with the U.S. Department of Justice related to the previously disclosed subpoena issued to the Company in 2013 by the Office of Inspector General of the Department of Health and Human Services. A copy of this press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

NuVasive cautions you that statements included in this Current Report on Form 8-K that are not a description of historical facts are forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors which, if they do not materialize or prove correct, could cause NuVasive's results to differ materially from historical results or those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. The potential risks and uncertainties which contribute to the uncertain nature of these statements include, among others, the risk that the Company is unable to finalize a written settlement agreement with the OIG and/or that the amount required to the United States in resolution of the above-referenced matter may increase, risks associated with litigation and/or regulatory enforcement actions which could cause the Company to incur significant legal expenses and/or prevent it from making, using or selling certain of the Company's products, risks associated with acceptance of the Company's minimally disruptive surgical products by spine surgeons, development and acceptance of new products or product enhancements, expansion of the Company's network of sales representatives, and the other risks and uncertainties described in NuVasive's news releases and periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. NuVasive's public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission are available at www.sec.gov. NuVasive assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances arising after the date on which it was made.
