Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Management of the Coca-Cola Enterprises, Inc. (CCE, White or the Company) posted a presentation for investors on May 25, 2016. A copy of the presentation materials is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The presentation includes information related to the combination of the businesses of the Company, Coca-Cola Iberian Partners, S.A.U. (CCIP), and Coca-Cola Erfrischungsgetränke GmbH (Black), a wholly owned subsidiary of The Coca-Cola Company (TCCC), including certain pro forma financial information prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as adopted by the European Union (IFRS EU).

Certain pro forma financial information that is included in the presentation is contained in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, which information is included in the European prospectus related to the listing of the ordinary shares of Coca-Cola European Partners plc (CCEP or Orange) on exchanges within the European Union.

The information in this Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K and Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2 attached hereto shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section or Sections 11 and 12(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The information contained in this Item 7.01, the presentation attached as Exhibit 99.1 and the financial statements attached as Exhibit 99.2 to this Current Report shall not be incorporated by reference into any filing with the SEC made by the Company, whether made before or after the date hereof, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This communication may contain statements, estimates or projections that constitute forward-looking statements as defined under U.S. federal securities laws. Generally, the words believe, expect, intend, estimate, anticipate, plan, seek, may, could, would, should, might, will, forecast, outlook, guidance, possible, expressions identify forward-looking statements, which generally are not historical in nature. Forward-looking statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from TCCC s, CCE s or CCEP s historical experience and their respective present expectations or projections, including expectations or projections with respect to the transaction. These risks include, but are not limited to, obesity concerns; water scarcity and poor quality; evolving consumer preferences; increased competition and capabilities in the marketplace; product safety and quality concerns; perceived negative health consequences of certain ingredients, such as non-nutritive sweeteners and biotechnology-derived substances, and of other substances present in their beverage products or packaging materials; increased demand for food products and decreased agricultural productivity; changes in the retail landscape or the loss of key retail or foodservice customers; an inability to expand operations in emerging or developing markets; fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; interest rate increases; an inability to maintain good relationships with their partners; a deterioration in their partners financial condition; increases in income tax rates, changes in income tax laws or unfavorable resolution of tax matters; increased or new indirect taxes in the United States or in other tax jurisdictions; increased cost, disruption of supply or shortage of energy or fuels; increased cost, disruption of supply or shortage of ingredients, other raw materials or packaging materials; changes in laws and regulations relating to beverage containers and packaging; significant additional labeling or warning requirements or limitations on the availability of their respective products; an inability to protect their respective information systems against service interruption, misappropriation of data or breaches of security; unfavorable general economic or political conditions in the United States, Europe or elsewhere; litigation or legal proceedings; adverse weather conditions; climate change; damage to their respective brand images and corporate reputation from negative publicity, even if unwarranted, related to product safety or quality, human and workplace rights, obesity or other issues; changes in, or failure to comply with, the laws and regulations applicable to their respective products or business operations; changes in accounting standards; an inability to achieve their respective overall long-term growth objectives; deterioration of global credit market conditions; default by or failure of one or more of their respective counterparty financial institutions; an inability to timely implement their previously announced actions to reinvigorate growth, or to realize the economic benefits they anticipate from these actions; failure to realize a significant portion of the anticipated benefits of their respective strategic relationships, including (without limitation) TCCC's relationship with Keurig Green Mountain, Inc. and Monster Beverage Corporation; an inability to renew collective bargaining agreements on satisfactory terms, or they or their respective partners experience strikes, work stoppages or labor unrest; future impairment charges; multi-employer plan withdrawal liabilities in the future; an inability to successfully manage the possible negative consequences of their respective productivity initiatives; global or regional catastrophic events; risks and uncertainties relating to the transaction, including the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected, which could result in additional demands on TCCC's or CCEP's resources, systems, procedures and controls, disruption of its ongoing business and diversion of management's attention from other business concerns, the possibility that certain assumptions with respect to CCEP or the transaction could prove to be inaccurate, the failure to receive, delays in the receipt of, or unacceptable or burdensome conditions imposed in connection with, all required regulatory approvals and the satisfaction of the closing conditions to the transaction, the potential failure to retain key employees of CCE, CCIP or Black as a result of the proposed transaction or during integration of the businesses and disruptions resulting from the proposed transaction, making it more difficult to maintain business relationships; and other risks discussed in TCCC's and CCEP's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), including their respective Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015, subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, which filings are available from the SEC, and the registration statement on Form F-4, file number 333-208556, that includes a proxy statement of CCE and a prospectus of CCEP, which was filed with the SEC by CCEP. You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they are made. None of TCCC, CCE, CCIP or CCEP undertakes any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise. None of TCCC, CCE, CCIP or CCEP assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of any forward-looking statements. Any or all of the forward-looking statements contained in this filing and in any other of their respective public statements may prove to be incorrect.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The presentation included in Exhibit 99.1 hereto contains non-GAAP financial measures. These non-GAAP measures are provided to allow investors to more clearly evaluate the operating performance and business trends of CCE, CCIP and Black. Management uses these non-GAAP measures to review results excluding items that are not necessarily indicative of ongoing results. The adjusted items are based on established defined terms and thresholds and represent all material items management considered for year-over-year comparability.
