Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 22, 2019, Apollo Global Management, LLC (Apollo) posted on its website a presentation with certain historical financial information relating to prior periods for which financial information has already been disclosed that has been updated to reflect the following:

Change in Segment Key Performance Measures: Apollo has determined that Segment Distributable Earnings (Segment DE), together with its main components including Fee Related Earnings (FRE), is now the key performance measure used by management in evaluating the performance of Apollo's credit, private equity and real assets segments. Accordingly, Apollo will no longer report Economic Income (EI) or Economic Net Income (ENI) per share.

Changes in Components of Existing Segments: As previously reported, subsequent to December 31, 2018, Apollo determined to change the business segment in which it reports certain funds and accounts to align its segment reporting with the manner in which such funds and accounts were managed. The changes affected the composition, but not the determination, of Apollo's reporting segments. The changes to Apollo's performance measure for segment reporting and to the composition of Apollo's reportable segments have no impact on its financial results presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP, or on the previous calculation of FRE.

Change in Distributable Earnings Definition: Subsequent to December 31, 2018, Apollo changed its definition of Distributable Earnings to include depreciation and amortization expenses and renamed it Segment Distributable Earnings. Apollo also renamed Distributable Earnings after Taxes and Related Payables to Distributable Earnings.

Segment Strategies: In order to better reflect the grouping of strategies within its segments, Apollo has re-aligned its credit, private equity and real assets segments around certain main strategies.

Apollo intends to use the updated financial information presentation when presenting Apollo's financial results beginning with the quarter ending March 31, 2019.

Please refer to the presentation posted on the Shareholder section of Apollo's website at <https://www.apollo.com/shareholders> for further details relating to the updated financial information presentation described above. From time to time, Apollo uses its website as a distribution channel for financial and other important information.

The information in this Current Report on Form 8-K is deemed furnished and not filed under Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liability of that section, and shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document filed under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.
