Edgar Filing: ALVARION LTD - Form 6-K

To Our Shareholders:

2003 was an important transitional period for us. After two very difficult years, we grew our revenues, both organically and through a strategic acquisition, improved our margins and continued to reduce our loss, and managed to report a net profit in Q4. For a detailed view of 2003 financial results, we encourage you to refer to the enclosed financial statements. Now, we are focused on leading the broadband wireless industry in its next phase of growth, transforming it from a niche to a mainstream market.

Return to Growth and Profitability

Our revenues grew 43% to $127 million in 2003, reflecting improving demand and the successful acquisition of InnoWave at the beginning of the second quarter. We achieved sequential growth in each quarter and improved gross margins from 39% in Q1 to 42% in Q4.

We also maintained tight control over our operating expenses and reduced our operating loss from $4.3 million in Q1 to only $792,000 in Q4. On a GAAP basis, we achieved breakeven EPS in Q4 and, excluding amortization, we reported a profit of $0.01 per fully diluted share. Our entire team worked very hard this past year to maintain our market leadership and position the company for the future, while also improving our bottom line and achieving profitability. This was an important interim milestone on the way to achieving our long term goals.

Growth in Demand for Broadband

Three years ago, only five million DSL lines had been installed. Now there are over 80 million DSL lines deployed around the world. Yet there are tens of millions of additional customers who want broadband connectivity but can't get it because in developed regions there are "white zones" DSL or other broadband solutions can't reach. In the U.S., for example, as overall demand for broadband increases, so does the demand in areas lacking coverage from DSL or cable, which is prompting the incumbent operators to consider broadband wireless technology.

Strong demand is coming from the developing regions of the world where the existing infrastructure is of poor quality or missing entirely. The authorities in areas such as Latin America, China, India, Africa and Eastern Europe are choosing to leapfrog the limitations of wireline technology and deploy wireless networks to support universal voice and broadband data services. Our largest project so far, which began in Q4, is a major infrastructure initiative in Latin America that calls for tens of thousands of lines to be rolled out over a few quarters. The acquisition completed in 2003 was very successful. and we are in a much stronger position with respect to serving the needs of the developing regions as a result of adding these products.

Regulatory Factors

During 2003, the Chinese Ministry of Information Industry, awarded licenses in 32 cities. We are pleased to report that each of the major Chinese operators, in turn, awarded business to Alvarion together with one of its local partners. In fact, we believe we have the highest market share of any vendor outside of China. We are pleased with our initial progress in China, which we believe positions us to take advantage of future opportunities in the region. Additional licenses will be awarded on a province level in 2004, and we expect China to become an important source of revenue over the next few years. We are also active in several additional developing areas such as Russia and Africa and we see future potential in several other deregulating low teledensity regions such as India.

In Western Europe, many governments and municipalities are now mandating 100% broadband availability, requiring the incumbent operators to fill their DSL coverage gaps. In most European countries, this represents a significant number of households. Broadband wireless solutions provide a fast and cost effective way to meet this requirement. Currently, we are working with telcos in the UK, France and Sweden on universal access projects which are mostly in a trial phase.

The Role of Standards

The ability of standards adoption to act as a catalyst for growth is evident in the growth patterns of the fax, cellular and wireless LAN markets. Our belief in the power of standards has caused us to be active in this area for several years. We have been one of the most active proponents of the 802.16 standard and we helped found the WiMAX Forum in 2003 to promote its adoption.

In one of the major developments of 2003, Intel Corporation made a very strong commitment to the standard, pledged to develop 802.16-compliant silicon, which is to be available to equipment vendors by the end of 2004. We are fortunate to have a close strategic relationship with Intel and we have been working in close cooperation with them. With the availability of mass produced chips, the cost of customer premise equipment is expected to decline dramatically.

Lower cost, coupled with better throughput and greater ease of installation resulting from next generation technology, plus interoperability to facilitate multi-vendor networks are some of the advantages that are expected to fuel growth in demand for WiMAX-compliant solutions.

Market Leadership

According to a well-respected market research firm, Pyramid Research, in a report published in November 2003, Alvarion is leading the wireless broadband market with 45% market share, while the second largest market participant has only a 10% share. In the same report, Pyramid estimates that our industry will grow 20-40% annually. The report indicates that, even in a conservative scenario, broadband wireless connections are expected to expand globally at a 27% compound average growth rate between now and 2008.

Although it is difficult to predict the exact rate, we expect our market to grow many multiples of the single-digit growth of the telecom industry as a whole, and we look forward to the future with great enthusiasm. I would like to recognize the contribution of our entire team in maintaining our leadership position and in relentlessly pursuing the drive toward profitability during this past year. Having achieved that goal, we are now setting our sight even higher and hope to increase both growth and profitability and establish the standard by which the entire industry will be judged in the future.

Finally, I would like to thank our shareholders for having faith in us during the difficult years and we look forward to enjoying success together in the years to come.

Sincerely yours

Zvi Slonimsky
Chief Executive Officer

The Company determined the fair value of the issued Ordinary shares using Emerging Issues Task Force No. 99-12 "Determination of the Measurement Date For the Market Price of Acquirer Securities Issued in a Purchase Business Combination" ("EITF No. 99-12"). According to EITF No. 99-12 the fair value is determined based on the average market price of the Company's Ordinary shares a few days before and after the announcement date.

The amount allocated to deferred stock-based compensation relates to the intrinsic value of the unvested Floware stock options assumed. The Floware stock options generally vested over a period of four years and accordingly, this deferred stock-based compensation is amortized over the remaining vesting period of the individual awards as of the merger date.

The amount allocated to in-process research and development ("IPRD") was determined based on an appraisal performed by an independent third party and was expensed upon consummation of the merger in accordance with FASB Interpretation No. 4, "Applicability of FASB Statement No. 2 to Business Combinations Accounted for by the Purchase Method" ("FIN 4"), because technological feasibility had not been established and no future alternative use existed for it.

The operations of Floware are included in the consolidated statements from the effective date.

d. Acquisition of InnoWave Wireless Systems:

On April 1, 2003, the Company acquired certain assets and assumed certain liabilities of InnoWave Wireless Systems Ltd. ("InnoWave") for an aggregate purchase price of $ 9,428. The purchase price consists of a cash payment of $ 9,100, fair value of $ 78 related to a warrant issued to the selling company ("ECI") to purchase 200,000 Ordinary shares of the Company and $ 250 acquisition related costs.

InnoWave was a provider of fixed wireless wideband voice and data point-to-multipoint solutions.

The acquisition of InnoWave strengthens and enlarges the Company's diversified customer base and distributions channels and enables the Company to offer its customers with a comprehensive range of integrated wireless broadband access products and platforms.

The acquisition has been accounted for using the purchase method of accounting as determined in SFAS No.141 and accordingly, the purchase price has been allocated to the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed based on the estimated fair value at the date of acquisition.

Based upon a valuation of tangible and intangible assets acquired, the Company has allocated the total cost of the acquisition, as follows:

	At April 1, 2003

Current assets	$ 13,411
Property and equipment	2,200

The value assigned to the customer relations amounted to $ 500. The Company's customer relations have been valued using the Income Approach. The valuation of the customer relations derives mostly from long standing relationships with customers with no contracts.

The excess of the cost of $ 991 over the net of the amounts assigned to assets acquired and liabilities assumed is recognized as goodwill. An acquired workforce that does not meet the separability criteria has been included in the amount recognized as goodwill.

The amounts allocated to intangible assets other than goodwill are amortized on a straight-line basis over a weighted average amortization period of 6.8 years, ranging between three and a

The operations of InnoWave are included in the consolidated statements since April 1, 2003.

e. Inventories write-off:

The Company periodically assesses the valuation of its inventories with respect to dead and slow moving items, revenue forecasts and technological obsolescence. When inventories on hand exceed the foreseeable demand or become obsolete, the value of excess inventory, which at the time of the review was not expected to be sold, is written off.

During 2001, 2002 and 2003, the Company recorded inventories write-offs in a total amount of $ 45,281 $ 250 and $ 5,255, respectively and an additional $ 8,600, $ 0 and $ 1,307, respectively related to the Company's commitments to purchase inventories no longer required.

Edgar Filing: ALVARION LTD - Form 6-K

NOTE 2:- SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("U.S. GAAP").

a. Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

b. Financial statements in U.S. dollars ("dollars"):

A majority of the Company's revenues are generated in dollars. In addition, a substantial portion of the Company's costs are denominated and determined in dollars. The Company's management believes that the dollar is the primary currency in the economic environment in which the Company operates. Thus, the functional and reporting currency of the Company is the dollar.

Accordingly, monetary accounts maintained in currencies other than the dollar are remeasured into dollars in accordance with Statement of the Financial Accounting Standard No. 52 "Foreign Currency Translation" ("SFAS No. 52"). All transaction gains and losses from the remeasurement of monetary balance sheet items are reflected in the statement of operations as appropriate.

c. Principles of consolidation:

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Alvarion Ltd. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Intercompany transactions and balances, including profits from intercompany sales not yet realized outside the Company, have been eliminated in consolidation.

d. Cash equivalents:

Cash equivalents are short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to cash, with maturities of three months or less at the date acquired.

e. Short-term and long-term bank deposits:

Bank deposits with maturities of more than three months and up to one year are included in short-term bank deposits. Bank deposits with maturities of one year or more are included in long-term bank deposits. As of December 31, 2002 and 2003, most of the bank deposits are in U.S. dollars and bear interest at a weighted average interest rate of 3.6% and 4.06% respectively. The deposits are presented at their cost, including accrued interest.

f. Marketable securities:

The Company accounts for its investments in marketable securities using Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities" ("SFAS No. 115").

Management determines the appropriate classification of its investments in debt securities at the time of purchase and reevaluates such determinations at each balance sheet date. Marketable debt securities are classified as held-to-maturity when the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold the securities to maturity and are stated at amortized cost.

In the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2003, all securities covered by SFAS No. 115 were designated by the Company's management as held-to-maturity.

The amortized cost of held-to-maturity securities is adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts to maturity. Such amortization and interest are included in the statements of operations as financial income or expenses, as appropriate. Realized gains and losses on sales of investments, as determined on a specific identification basis, are included in the statements of operations.

g. Inventories:

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market value. Cost is determined as follows:

Raw materials and components - using the "weighted moving average cost" method.

Work in process and finished products is based on the cost of raw material and components used and the cost of production as follows:

Labor and overhead calculated on a periodic average basis, which approximates actual cost including direct and indirect manufacturing costs and related overhead.

Inventory write offs have been provided to cover risks arising from dead and slow moving items, technological obsolescence and excess inventories according to revenue forecasts (see also Note 1e).

Long-term receivables from InnoWave's acquisition carrying extended payment terms, were recorded at estimated present values determined based on appropriate interest rates and reported at their net amount in the accompanying financial statements. Imputed interest is recognized, using the effective interest method as a component of interest income in the accompanying statements of operations.

i. Property and equipment, net:

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated by the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, at the following annual rates:

Office furniture and equipment	7 - 15
Computers and manufacturing equipment	15 - 33
Motor vehicles	15
Leasehold improvements	Over the term of the lease

j. Impairment of long-lived assets:

The Company's long-lived assets and certain identifiable intangible assets are reviewed for impairment in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-lived Assets" ("SFAS No. 144"), whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of the assets to the future undiscounted cash flows expected to be generated by the assets. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. As of December 31, 2002 and 2003, no impairment losses have been identified.

k. Other intangible assets, net:

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination should be amortized over their useful life using a method of amortization to reflect the pattern in which the economic benefits of the intangible assets are consumed or otherwise used up, in accordance with Statement of Accounting Standard No. 142, "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" ("SFAS No. 142"):

Current technology - (i) the acquired Floware current technology is being amortized over a period of seven years on the straight-line method and, (ii) the amount allocated to the InnoWave current technology is being amortized on a straight-line basis over 4.75 years and 7.75 years reflecting different product amortization schedules.

Customer relations - The amount allocated to the customer relations is being amortized on a straight-line basis over 3.75

1. Goodwill:

The Company assesses the carrying value of goodwill in accordance with SFAS No. 142, under which goodwill acquired in a business combination for which the date is on or after July 1, 2001, should not be amortized, but tested for impairment at least annually or between annual tests in certain circumstances, and written down when impaired. Goodwill attributable to the Company's single reporting unit as defined under SFAS No. 142, was tested for impairment by comparing its fair value with its carrying value. Fair value is determined using income approach and market approach. Estimates used in the methodologies include future cash flows, future short-term and long-term growth rates, weighted average cost of capital and estimates of market multiples.

During 2002 and 2003, the Company performed the required annual impairment tests of goodwill's fair value. Based on management projections, expected future discounted operating cash flows and market multiples, no indication of goodwill impairment was identified.

m. Income taxes:

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" ("SFAS No. 109"). This Statement prescribes the use of the liability method whereby deferred tax asset and liability account balances are determined based on differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse. The Company provides a valuation allowance, if necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to their estimated realizable value.

n. Accounting for stock-based compensation:

The Company has elected to follow Accounting Principles Board Statement No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Options Issued to Employees" ("APB No. 25") and FASB Interpretation No. 44 "Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation" ("FIN No. 44") in accounting for its employee stock option plans. Under APB No. 25, when the exercise price of an employee stock option is equivalent to or above the market price of the underlying stock on the date of grant, no compensation expense is recognized.

The Company adopted the disclosure provisions of Financial

Edgar Filing: ALVARION LTD - Form 6-K

Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 148, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure" ("SFAS No. 148"), which amended certain provisions of SFAS 123 to provide alternative methods of transition for an entity that voluntarily changes to the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. The Company continues to apply the provisions of APB No. 25, in accounting for stock-based compensation.

Pro forma information regarding the Company's net loss and net loss per share is required by SFAS No. 123 and has been determined as if the Company had accounted for its employee stock options under the fair value method prescribed by SFAS No. 123.

o. Revenue recognition:

The Company generates revenues from selling its products indirectly through distributors and OEMs and directly to end-users.

Revenues from products are recognized in accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 104 "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements" ("SAB No. 104"), when the following criteria are met: persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the seller's price to the buyer is fixed or determinable, no further obligation exists and collection is reasonably assured.

The Company generally does not grant a right of return. However, the Company has granted to certain distributors limited rights of return on unsold products. Product revenues on shipments to these distributors are deferred until the distributors resell the Company's products to their customers.

The Company generally does not grant a right of return to its OEMs and end users. In certain instances, when such a right has been granted, the Company defers revenue until the right of return expires, at which time revenue is recognized provided that all other revenue recognition criteria are met.

During 2003, the Emerging Issues Task Force issued EITF Issue No. 00-21, "Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables" ("EITF 00-21"). The provisions of EITF 00-21 applied to revenue arrangements entered into in fiscal periods beginning after June 15, 2003. This consensus addresses certain aspects of accounting by a vendor for arrangements under which it will perform multiple revenue-generating activities, including, how to determine whether an arrangements involving multiple deliverables contains more than one unit of accounting.

In cases under which the Company is obligated to perform post delivery installation services, the Company considers the sale of equipment and installation to be one unit of accounting in accordance with EITF 00-21 guidelines. As such, revenues generated from such arrangements are recognized upon completion of the installation.

In transactions, where a customer's contractual terms include a provision for customer acceptance, revenues are recognized either when such acceptance has been obtained or the acceptance provision has lapsed.

p. Warranty costs:

The Company offers a 12 to 36 months warranty period for all of its products. The specific terms and conditions of a warranty vary depending upon the product sold and customer it is sold to. The Company estimates the costs that may be incurred under its warranty and records a liability in the amount of such costs at the time product revenue is recognized. Factors that affect the Company's warranty liability include the number of units, historical rates of warranty claims and cost per claim. The Company periodically assesses the adequacy of its recorded warranty liabilities and adjusts the amounts as necessary.

Total royalties accrued or paid amounted to $ 2,425, $ 0 and $ 1,167 in 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

s. Severance pay:

The liability for severance pay for the Israeli companies is calculated pursuant to Israel's Severance Pay Law, based on the most recent salary of the employees multiplied by the number of years of employment as of the balance sheet date for all employees in Israel. Employees are entitled to one month's salary for each year of employment or a portion thereof. The Company's liability for all of its employees is fully provided by monthly deposits with severance pay funds, insurance policies and by an accrual. The value of these policies is recorded as an asset in the Company's balance sheet.

The deposited funds include profits accumulated up to the balance sheet date. The deposited funds may be withdrawn only upon the fulfillment of the obligation pursuant to Israel's Severance Pay Law or labor agreements. The value of these policies is recorded as an asset in the Israeli companies' balance sheets. Severance pay expenses for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003, were $ 4,787, $ 2,787 and $ 2,410, respectively.

t. Advertising expenses:

u. Basic and diluted net loss per share:

Basic net loss per share is computed based on the weighted average number of Ordinary shares outstanding during each year. ("SFAS No. 128").

All outstanding stock options and warrants have been excluded from the calculation of the diluted net loss per Ordinary share because all such securities are anti-dilutive for all periods presented. The total weighted average number of shares related to the outstanding options and warrants excluded from the calculations of diluted net loss per share was 12,473, 14,730 and 15,548 for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

v. Concentration of credit risk:

The majority of the Company's cash and cash equivalents, short-term bank deposits and long-term bank deposits are invested in U.S. dollar deposits with major U.S., European and Israeli banks. Management believes that the financial institutions that hold the Company's investments are financially sound and accordingly, minimal credit risk exists with respect to these investments.

Edgar Filing: ALVARION LTD - Form 6-K

The Company's marketable securities include investments in debentures of U.S. corporations. Management believes that those corporations are financially sound, the portfolio is well diversified and, accordingly, minimal credit risk exists with respect to these marketable securities.

The trade receivables and the long-term receivables of the Company and its subsidiaries are derived from sales to customers located primarily in North America and Latin America, the Far East and Europe. The Company and its subsidiaries generally do not require collateral; however, under certain circumstances, the Company and its subsidiaries may require letters of credit, other collateral, additional guarantees or advance payments. Regarding certain credit balances, the Company is covered by foreign trade risk insurance. The Company and its subsidiaries perform ongoing credit evaluations of their customers and, to date, have not experienced material losses. An allowance for doubtful accounts is determined with respect to specific receivables whose collection may be doubtful.

The allowance for doubtful accounts expenses (income) for the years ended December 31, 2001, 2002 and 2003, was $ 200, $ 88 and $ (582), respectively.

As for derivative financial instruments, see Note 12.

w. Fair value of financial instruments:

The estimated fair value of financial instruments has been determined by the Company using available market information and valuation methodologies. Considerable judgment is required in estimating fair values. Accordingly, the estimates may not be indicative of the amounts the Company could realize in a current market exchange.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, short-term bank deposits, trade receivables and trade payables approximate their fair values, due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

The fair value of marketable debt securities are based on quoted market prices and do not significantly differ from carrying amount (see Note 3).

Edgar Filing: ALVARION LTD - Form 6-K

The fair value of long-term bank deposits, long-term receivables, and long-term liabilities were estimated by discounting the future cash flows, using the rate currently available for deposits and for the long-term receivables and liabilities of similar terms and maturity. The carrying amount of the Company's long-term bank deposits, long-term receivables, and long-term liabilities approximate their fair value.

The fair value of derivative instruments is estimated by obtaining current quotes from banks.

x. Derivative instruments:

Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" ("SFAS No. 133"), requires companies to recognize all of its derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities in the statement of financial position at fair value. The accounting for changes in the fair value (i.e., gains or losses) of a derivative instrument depends on whether it has been designated and qualifies as part of a hedging relationship and further, on the type of hedging relationship. For those derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as hedging instruments, a company must designate the hedging instrument, based upon the exposure being hedged, as a fair value hedge, cash flow hedge or a hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation.

For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as a fair value hedge (i.e., hedging the exposure to changes in the fair value of an asset or a liability or an identified portion thereof that is attributable to a particular risk), the gain or loss on the derivative instrument as well as the offsetting loss or gain on the hedged item attributable to the hedged risk are recognized in current earnings during the period of the change in fair values. For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as a cash flow hedge (i.e., hedging the exposure to variability in expected future cash flows that is attributable to a particular risk), the effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative instrument is reported as a component of other comprehensive income and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. The remaining gain or loss on the derivative instrument in excess of the cumulative change in the present value of future cash flows of the hedged item, if any, is recognized in current earnings during the period of change. For derivative instruments not designated as hedging instruments, the gain or loss is recognized in current earnings during the period of change (see also Note 12).

y. Impact of recently issued accounting standards:

In April 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 149 ("SFAS 149"), "Amendment of Statement 133 on Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." SFAS 149 amends and clarifies (1) the accounting guidance on derivative instruments (including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts) and (2) hedging activities that fall within the scope of FASB Statement No. 133 ("SFAS 133"), "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." SFAS 149 amends SFAS 133 to reflect decisions made (1) as part of the Derivatives Implementation Group ("DIG") process that effectively required amendments to SFAS 133, (2) in connection with other projects dealing with financial instruments, and (3) regarding implementation issues related to the application of the definition of a derivative. SFAS 149 is effective (1) for contracts entered into or modified after June 30, 2003, with certain exceptions, and (2) for hedging relationships designated after June 30, 2003. The guidance is to be applied prospectively.

Generally, SFAS 149 improves financial reporting by (1) requiring that contracts with comparable characteristics be accounted for similarly and (2) clarifying when a derivative contains a financing component that warrants special reporting in the statement of cash flows. SFAS 149 is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In January 2003, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 46, "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities" ("FIN 46"). The objective of FIN 46 is to improve financial reporting by companies involved with variable interest entities. A variable interest entity is a corporation, partnership, trust, or any other legal structure used for business purposes that either (a) does not have equity investors with voting rights or (b) has equity investors that do not provide sufficient financial resources for the entity to support its activities. FIN 46 requires a variable interest entity to be consolidated by a company if that company is subject to a majority of the risk of loss from the variable interest entity's activities or entitled to receive a majority of the entity's residual returns or both. FIN 46 also requires disclosures about variable interest entities that the company is not required to consolidate but in which it has a significant variable interest. The consolidation requirements of FIN 46 apply immediately to variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003. The consolidation requirements apply to older entities in the first fiscal year or interim period end after December 31, 2003. Certain of the disclosure requirements apply in all financial statements issued after January 31, 2003, regardless of when the variable interest entity was established. As of December 31, 2003, the Company does not expect the adoption of FIN 46 to have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

- 1) During 2003, the Company entered into a long-term loan agreement with a bank designated for the settlement of a portion of its OCS royalties payment obligation (see also Note 11).

The loan is linked to the U.S. dollar and is payable in four equal annual installments carrying variable interest of LIBOR + 0.33% per annum. The accrued interest as of December 31, 2003, amounted to $ 96.

NOTE 11:- OTHER LONG-TERM LIABILITIES

Through December 2001, the Company participated in royalties bearing programs sponsored by the Israeli Government for the support of research and development activities. The Company had obtained grants from the Office of the Chief Scientist in Israel's Ministry of Industry and Trade ("the OCS") and was obligated to pay royalties to the OCS, amounting to 3%-5% of the sales of the products and other related revenues generated from the projects funded by the OCS. The obligation to pay royalties was contingent on actual sales of the products funded.

In December 2001, the Company entered into an arrangement (hereinafter: "the Arrangement") with the OCS for early payment of all royalties arising from future sales with respect to previous research and development grants to the Company. Under the Arrangement, the Company settled its outstanding contingent royalty commitment, regardless of the actual level of future sales. As a result of this Arrangement, the Company recorded a one-time operating charge of $ 6,535 with respect to the payments, which the Company is obligated to make to the OCS.

Under the Arrangement, the repayment to the OCS could be made over a period of five years from the date of settlement. The liability is linked to Israel's Consumer Price Index ("CPI") and bears annual interest of 4%. During 2003, the Company settled the amount due for $ 8,534 (see also Note 10).

This Arrangement enables the Company to participate in new OCS programs under which it will be eligible to receive grants for research and development projects without any royalty repayment obligations excluding OCS programs grants resulting from InnoWave's former operations which were not included in the Arrangement .

NOTE 12:- DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

a. Cash Flow Hedging Strategy

To hedge against the risk of overall changes in cash flows resulting from forecasted foreign currency salary payments during the year, the Company has instituted a foreign currency cash flow hedging program. The Company hedges portions of its forecasted expenses denominated in NIS with put and call options (zero - cost collar). These option contracts are designated as cash flow hedges, as defined by SFAS No. 133 and are all effective.

The Company recognized gains of $2,214 during the year ended December 31, 2003. All amounts have been included in salary expenses in the statement of operations.

b. Litigations

1. A third party has made a demand to enforce an alleged agreement with the Company under which, the Company should be the lessee, for the lease of approximately 150,700 square feet. Income derived by Alvarion Ltd. is generally subject to the regular Israeli corporate tax rate of 36%. However, as detailed below, income derived in Israel from certain "Approved Enterprises" will enjoy certain tax benefits for a specific definitive period. The allocation of income derived from approved enterprises is dependent upon compliance of certain requirements with the Investment Law.

a. Tax benefits under the Law for the Encouragement of Capital Investments, 1959:

Alvarion Ltd. has been granted status as an "Approved Enterprise" under the Law for the Encouragement of Capital Investments, 1959 ("the investment law"). According to the provision of the law, Alvarion Ltd. has elected the "alternative benefits" track provisions of the investment law, pursuant to which Alvarion has waived its right to grants and instead receives a tax benefit on undistributed income derived from the "Approved Enterprise" program. The entitlement to tax benefits depends upon compliance with the investment law regulations. In 1995, Alvarion Ltd. was first granted the status of "Approved Enterprise" regarding the production facilities in Tel-Aviv. By reason of the tax benefits, the income derived from this "Approved Enterprise" will be tax exempt for a period of four years, and will be taxed at a reduced rate of 10% to 25% for six additional years (depending on the percentage of foreign investment in the Company). The 10-year period of benefits will commence with the first year in which Alvarion Ltd. earns taxable income. In 1997, Alvarion Ltd.'s production facility in Nazareth was granted status as an "Approved Enterprise". Accordingly, Alvarion Ltd.'s income from that "Approved Enterprise" will be tax-exempt for a period of 10 years. The 10-year period of benefits will commence with the first year in which Alvarion Ltd. earns taxable income.

During February 2000, Alvarion Ltd. submitted an expansion request for its third "Approved Enterprise" regarding its production facilities in Nazareth and Carmiel. The income derived from this "Approved Enterprise" will be tax-exempt for a period of 10 years. The 10-year period of benefits will commence with the first year in which Alvarion Ltd. earns taxable income. Alvarion Ltd.'s expansion request has been approved.

The period of tax benefits is subject to limits of the earlier of 12 years from the commencement of production, or 14 years from receiving the approval. The period of benefits for the first, second and third plans have not yet commenced, and will expire in 2008, 2010 and 2014, respectively.

In connection with its merger with Floware, Alvarion Ltd. assumed the following Floware Ltd. "Approved Enterprise" agreement:

Floware Ltd. was granted an "Approved Enterprise" status for its 1997 plan regarding the production facility in Or-Yehuda. After the merger, the operations were relocated to Alvarion's facilities in Tel-Aviv. The income derived from this "Approved Enterprise" will be tax-exempt for a period of two years and will enjoy a reduced tax rate thereafter of 10% - 25% for an additional period of five to eight years (depending on the percentage of foreign investment in the Company). The period of benefits will commence with the first year in which Alvarion Ltd. earns taxable income.

In order to maintain its eligibility for benefits following the merger with Floware, the Company must continue to meet specified conditions, however, Alvarion has yet to finalize the status of the tax benefits with the tax authorities following the merger of Floware.

InnoWave was granted an "Approved Enterprise" status for its 1997 plan regarding the production facility in Omer. During 1999, InnoWave's request for an expansion was approved.

During 2003, the Company had applied for the assignment of former InnoWave's "Approved Enterprise" status to Alvarion. As of December 31, 2003, such approval has not yet been obtained.

Alvarion Ltd.'s entitlement to the above benefits is conditional upon its fulfilling the conditions stipulated by the Investment Law, regulations published thereunder and the letters of approval for the specific investments in "Approved Enterprises". In the event of failure to comply with these conditions, any benefits which were previously granted may be canceled and Alvarion Ltd. may be required to refund the amount of the benefits, in whole or in part, including interest.

If these retained tax-exempt profits are distributed in a manner other than in the complete liquidation of the Company they would be taxed at the corporate tax rate applicable to such profits as if the Company had not elected the alternative system of benefits, currently between 15%-20% for an "Approved Enterprise".

Edgar Filing: ALVARION LTD - Form 6-K

As of December 31, 2003, the accumulated deficit of the Company does not include tax-exempt profits earned by the Company's "Approved Enterprise".

Alvarion Ltd. has had no taxable income since inception.

- b. Tax benefits under the Law for the Encouragement of Industry (Taxation), 1969:

Alvarion Ltd. is an "industrial company" under the above law and, as such, is entitled to certain tax benefits, mainly accelerated depreciation of machinery and equipment. For tax purposes only, the Company may also be entitled to deduct over a three-year period expenses incurred in connection with a public share offering and to amortize know-how acquired from third parties.

- c. Measurement of results for tax purposes under the Income Tax Law (Inflationary Adjustments), 1985:

Results for tax purposes are measured in real terms of earnings in NIS after certain adjustments for increases in the Consumer Price Index. As explained in Note 2b, the financial statements of Alvarion Ltd. are presented in U.S. dollars. The difference between the annual change in Israel's Consumer Price Index and in the NIS/dollar exchange rate causes a difference between taxable income and the income before taxes shown in the financial statements. In accordance with paragraph 9(f) of SFAS No. 109, Alvarion Ltd. has not provided deferred income taxes on the difference between the reporting currency and the tax bases of assets and liabilities.

Commencing with taxable year 2003, the Company has elected to measure its results for Israeli tax purposes on the basis of amounts nominated in US dollar. This election obligates the Company for three years.

- d. Income (loss) before taxes on income:

	Year ended December 31,
	2001	2002	2003
Domestic	$ (98,276)	$ (20,696)	$ (11,798)
Foreign	(11,735)	15	(14)
	$ (110,011)	$ (20,681)	$ (11,812)

Edgar Filing: ALVARION LTD - Form 6-K

e. Carryforward losses:

As of December 31, 2003, Alvarion Ltd. had an available tax loss carryforward amounting to approximately $ 91,000, which may be carried forward, in order to offset taxable income in the future, for an indefinite period.

In addition, the accumulated net tax operating loss carryforward, in a total amount of approximately $ 65,000, resulted from the merger with Floware and, at the effective time of the merger, may be carried forward to subsequent years and may be set off against the merged company's taxable income, commencing with the tax year immediately following the merger. This set off is limited to the lesser of:

1. 20% of the aggregate net tax operating losses carryforward of the merged companies prior to the effective time of the merger; and
2. 50% of the combined company's taxable income in the relevant tax year before the set off of losses from preceding years.

These restrictions, with several modifications, also apply to the set off of capital losses of the merged companies against capital gains of the combined company.

As of December 31, 2003, the state and the federal tax losses carryforward of the U.S. subsidiary amounted to approximately $ 6,522 and $ 15,072, respectively. Such losses are available to be offset against any future U.S. taxable income of the U.S. subsidiary and will expire in 2008 and 2023, respectively.

Utilization of U.S. net operating losses may be subject to substantial annual limitations due to the "change in ownership" provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and similar state provisions. The annual limitation may result in the expiration of net operating losses before utilization.

f. Deferred taxes:

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Significant components of the Company's deferred tax liabilities and assets are as follows:

December

Edgar Filing: ALVARION LTD - Form 6-K

Tax assets in respect of:
Allowance for doubtful accounts	$ 257
Severance pay and accrued vacation pay	333
Other deductions for tax purposes	1,964
Net loss carryforward	19,285

Total deferred tax assets before valuation allowance	21,839
Valuation allowance	(21,839)

Net deferred tax assets	$ -

The Company has provided valuation allowances in respect of deferred tax assets resulting from tax loss carryforward and other temporary differences, since the Company has a history of losses over the past three years. Management currently believes that it is more likely than not that the deferred tax assets regarding the loss carryforward and other temporary differences will not be realized.

The main reconciling items between the statutory tax rate of the Company and the effective tax rate are the non-recognition of tax benefits resulted from the Company's accumulated net operating losses carryforward due to the uncertainty of the realization of such tax benefits and the effect of the "Approved Enterprise".

During 2001, due to continuing losses and negative cash flows of the Investee, the Company wrote-off the entire investment in the amount of $ 3,500. The impairment loss was recorded in other expenses.
