Item 1.01 Entry into a Definitive Material Agreement

On April 28, 2012, Pall Corporation (the Company) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Haemonetics Corporation (Haemonetics). Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Company agreed to sell to Haemonetics substantially all of its assets relating to its blood collection, filtration and processing product lines (the Product Lines and such transaction, the Transaction). As part of the Transaction, the Company will transfer to Haemonetics the Product Line manufacturing facilities in Covina, California, Tijuana, Mexico and Ascoli, Italy, and a portion of the Company's manufacturing operations in Fajardo, Puerto Rico. In connection with the transfer of the Product Lines operations in Tijuana, Mexico, the Company will transfer to Haemonetics all of the outstanding equity interests in Pall Mexico Manufacturing, S. de R.L. de C.V.

Separate from these manufacturing facilities, the Company will also transfer related blood media manufacturing capacity to Haemonetics and will construct and install for Haemonetics a media manufacturing line in Puerto Rico. That process is expected to be completed by the Company's fiscal year 2016. Until that time, the Company will provide the media components to Haemonetics under a supply agreement.

At the closing of the Transaction, subject to adjustments (upward or downward) to reflect (i) the audited adjusted operating income of the Product Lines before depreciation, amortization and non-cash restructuring charges for the Company's fiscal year ended July 31, 2011, (ii) the amount of actual Product Line inventory being acquired and the payment by the Company of certain employee related expenses, Haemonetics will pay to the Company approximately $550 million in cash consideration, subject to a holdback of $15 million, which will be payable upon the construction and delivery by the Company and acceptance by Haemonetics of the new media manufacturing line.

The Purchase Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants of the Company and Haemonetics, as well as indemnification provisions for breaches or inaccuracies in either party's representations and warranties or covenants. The Transaction is expected to close in the Company's first quarter of its fiscal year 2013, subject to the conditions precedent set forth in the Purchase Agreement, receipt of necessary regulatory and third-party approvals and labor-related notifications, as well as a period of confirmatory due diligence by Haemonetics. The Purchase Agreement also includes other customary termination provisions for both Haemonetics and the Company.
