EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

OF

ANDREW M. ARCHIBALD

THIS AGREEMENT made as of this 30th day of June, 2006, by and between INTERTAPE POLYMER MANAGEMENT CORP., a Florida corporation (hereinafter called Company,) and ANDREW M. ARCHIBALD (hereinafter Employee) effective as of such date.

WITNESSETH:

In consideration of the covenants and agreements herein contained and the moneys to be paid hereunder, Company agrees to continue to employ Employee and the Employee agrees to continue to work for Company upon the following terms and conditions:

1.

Duties of Employee. The Employee is employed by Company as its employee to render services as Chief Financial Officer of its parent company, Intertape Polymer Group Inc. (IPG). The Employee shall perform such duties as may from time to time be assigned by IPG's Board of Directors.

2.

Devotion of Full Time to Duties. The Employee shall devote his full time to his duties outlined herein and shall not engage in or carry on or be employed by, directly or indirectly, any other business or profession without the consent of Company, provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prohibit the Employee from investing or trading in stocks, bonds, commodities or other securities or forms of investments, including real property. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section, Employee shall be entitled to maintain a directorship in Bobst Canada and may serve as a director for two other non-IPG related companies. All fees paid to Employee for outside director services which are permitted hereunder shall be retained by Employee.

3.

Salary and Bonus. Employee shall be entitled to an annual salary of Two Hundred Ninety-Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($294,500.00) during the term of this Agreement, payable in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices, less lawful withholding and deductions. In addition, Employee shall be entitled to a special bonus of fifty percent (50%) of his annual base salary payable upon the completion of a successful transition of his duties as Chief Financial Officer of IPG to a successor.

4.

Term of Agreement.

Upon thirty (30) days prior written notice, the Company may terminate the Employee's employment effective any time after December 31, 2006, without cause, and without any further obligation to the Employee. Further, Employee may terminate his employment effective any time after March 31, 2007, upon thirty (30) days prior written notice. In the event Company terminates Employee for any reason other than cause or if Employee terminates his employment after March 31, 2007, Employee shall be entitled to receive from Company, as consideration for entering into the Severance Agreement and General Release attached hereto as Exhibit B (Severance Agreement), the following:

(i)

The amount of $1,000,000.00, less lawful withholding, deductions, and set off, if any, payable in accordance with the Company's regularly scheduled payroll practices, commencing thirty (30) days after Employee's last day of employment, except in the event of a Change of Control as defined in the Employee's Non-Interference and Confidentiality Agreement with IPG dated as of January 28, 2001 (the "COC Agreement"), in which case any amounts remaining due to Employee pursuant to the foregoing shall be payable in full at that time. Payments pursuant to this subsection shall continue and be payable to Employee's estate in the event of the Employee's death. In addition, commencing upon Employee's termination of employment, the Employee shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for his annual dues for a non-resident member at Beaconsfield Golf Club for a period of two (2) years and shall be transferred the title (on an "as is" basis) to the 1998 Audi currently owned by the Company and utilized by Employee.

(ii)

Continued coverage for Employee and his eligible dependents medical and dental coverage under the Company's plans with and subject to the then current cost sharing features of the Company's plan for a period of two (2) years from Employee's last day of employment with the Company. Thereafter, the Employee may elect to continue such COBRA coverage for the remainder of the COBRA period, at his own expense. Further, in the event Employee obtains term life insurance coverage on himself, the Company shall reimburse Employee, up to a maximum of $12,000.00, for the portion of the premium payable through to March 31, 2007 that relates to $1,150,000 of the term life insurance coverage on Employee.

(iii)

Any of Employee's stock options that have become vested and exercisable at the end of the 24 month period following Employee's termination of employment with the Company (which date shall be deemed Employee's retirement date pursuant to the Plan as hereafter defined), but have not been exercised, shall remain vested and exercisable in accordance with the provisions of the Executive Stock Option Plan (the "Plan"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this termination shall not render the said stock options void. Employee must exercise all of said stock options within the balance of the option period and in accordance with all other provisions as provided in the Plan, and any stock options not so exercised shall become void.

The Employer's foregoing obligations under subsections, (i), (ii) and (iii) above do not commence until Company has received the letter from Employee in the form attached to the Severance Agreement as Exhibit A.

The payments and benefits set forth above shall be in addition to any amounts due to Employee pursuant to the certain Stay-Pay Letter dated as of June 19, 2006.

(b)

Company may immediately terminate this Agreement at any time for "cause" as hereinafter defined, upon written notice to Employee. If Employee is terminated for cause, all compensation and benefits paid or available herein shall cease and shall not be paid, except those earned prior to termination. Vacation time earned shall be deemed forfeited. The term "cause" as used in this paragraph shall mean:

(i)

Willfully damaging Company's property, business reputation, or goodwill;

(ii)

Commission of a felony;

(iii)

Theft, dishonesty, fraud, or embezzlement;

(iv)

Incompetence, deliberate neglect of duty, or breach by Employee of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, willful disobedience, or insubordination;

(v)

The use of alcohol, narcotics, or other drugs to the extent that it prevents Employee from effectively performing services for Company;

(vi)

The use at any time while performing services required under this Agreement of any illegal non-prescription drug or medication;

(vii)

Disclosing to a competitor or other unauthorized persons proprietary information, confidences, or trade secrets of Company;

(viii)

Recruitment of Company's personnel on behalf of a competitor or potential competitor of Company;

Solicitation of business on behalf of a competitor or potential competitor of Company;

(x)

Any other act of misconduct within Employee's control.

(c)

This Agreement shall terminate effective upon the death of Employee.

5.

Breach. Should it be necessary for either party to commence litigation against the other for breach of this Agreement, then the prevailing party shall be entitled to its reasonable attorneys' fees (including paralegal or other support staff charges, bankruptcy and appellate fees and court costs) incurred in connection with such litigation.

6.

Invalid Provision. The invalidity or unenforceability of a particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions hereof, and this Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provisions were omitted.

7.

Modification. No change or modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless the same be in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

8.

Applicable Law and Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be construed and regulated under and by the laws of the State of Florida and shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their heirs, personal representatives, successors, and assigns, as the case may be. Personal jurisdiction for any proceeding brought pursuant to this Agreement shall be vested in an appropriate court in Florida. Venue and exclusive jurisdiction for any legal action authorized hereunder shall be in Manatee County, Florida.

9.

Paragraph Headings. Paragraph headings used throughout this Agreement are for purposes of identification only and shall not be used in connection with the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.

SEVERANCE AGREEMENT AND GENERAL RELEASE

Intertape Polymer Management Corp., its parent corporation, affiliates, subsidiaries, divisions, successors and assigns, and the employees, officers, directors and agents thereof (collectively referred to throughout this Agreement as "Employer"), and Andrew M. Archibald ("Employee") agree that:

1.

Employment Agreement. The Employee entered into an Employment Agreement with Employer dated as of June 30, 2006 (the "Employment Agreement").

2.

Repayment of Loan. Employee acknowledges and affirms that he has an outstanding loan in the amount of (CDN) One Hundred Sixty Thousand Two Hundred Fifty-five and No/100 Dollars (CDN $160,255.00) (the "Loan") from Employer. Employee agrees to repay the Loan in full by offset against amounts due to him as a bonus pursuant to Section 3 of the Employment Agreement and from any retention or stay pay amount to which he may be paid. To the extent this amount is insufficient to pay the Loan in full, then the balance of the Loan shall be converted to US Dollars and repaid upon termination of Employee's employment in a lump sum by set off against Employer's severance payment due Employee pursuant to Section 4 of the Employment Agreement. Any balance remaining after application of the proceeds as described hereunder shall be due in lump sum from Employee.

3.

No Consideration Absent Execution of this Agreement. The Employee understands and agrees that he would not receive the monies specified in Section 4 of the Employment Agreement, except for his execution of this Agreement and the fulfillment of the promises contained herein. Employee further acknowledges that the consideration received under the Employment Agreement and this Agreement is above and beyond and in lieu of any consideration he would be due if he chose not to sign this Agreement.

4.

Revocation. The Employee may revoke this Agreement for a period of seven (7) days following the day he executes this Agreement. Any revocation within this period must be submitted, in writing, to Burgess Hildreth, and state, "I hereby revoke my acceptance of our Severance Agreement and General Release." The revocation must be personally delivered to Mr. Hildreth or his designee, or mailed to Mr. Hildreth and postmarked within seven (7) days of execution of this Agreement. This Agreement shall not become effective or enforceable until the revocation period has expired. If the last day of the revocation period is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday in Florida, then the revocation period shall not expire until the following day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday.

5.

General Release of Claim by Employee. The Employee knowingly and voluntarily releases and forever discharges the Employer, of and from any and all claims, known and unknown, which the Employee, his heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns have or may have as of the date of termination of his employment, against the Employer, including, but not limited to, any alleged violation of:

The National Labor Relations Act, as amended;

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended;

8

Sections 1981 through 1988 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as amended;

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended;

The Immigration Reform Control Act, as amended;

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended;

The Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended

Workers Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, as amended;

The Occupational Safety and Health Act, as amended;

Florida Statutes Chapter 447, 448, 760 and 440.205;

Any other federal, state or local civil or human rights law or any other local, state or federal law, regulation or ordinance;

Any public policy, contract, tort, or common law claim; or Any allegation for costs, fees, or other expenses including attorneys' fees incurred in these matters.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, Employee shall retain his rights as existing as of the date of this Agreement to indemnification pursuant to applicable law and to insurance under the existing directors and officers liability policy for acts or omissions occurring prior to his last day of employment.

6.

Affirmations. Employee affirms that he has not filed or caused to be filed, and is not presently a party to any claim, complaint, or action against Employer in any forum or form. Employee further affirms that he has been paid and has received all leave (paid or unpaid), compensation, wages, bonuses, commissions, and/or benefits to which he may be entitled and that no other leave (paid or unpaid), compensation, wages, bonuses, commissions and/or benefits are due to him, except as provided in this Agreement and General Release. Employee furthermore affirms that he has no known workplace injuries or occupational diseases and has been provided and/or has not been denied any leave requested under the Family and Medical Leave Act.

7.

Confidentiality. The Employee agrees not to disclose any information regarding the existence or substance of this Agreement, except to an attorney, tax consultant, member of his immediate family and/or accountant with whom the Employee chooses to consult regarding this Agreement, and/or pursuant to court order (with prior notice to be given to Employer). Employee acknowledges that the provisions of this paragraph are an essential condition of this Agreement. Employee agrees that liquidated damages as set forth in paragraph 15 below are appropriate for any such breach, and are not a penalty, inasmuch as actual damages cannot be readily calculated, and agrees that the amount of the liquidated damages is reasonable under the circumstances herein and irreparable harm to Employer would occur if these clauses were breached. The Employee shall cause any persons to whom he makes disclosure under this paragraph to honor this covenant of confidentiality. The provisions of this paragraph are an essential condition of this paragraph, and Employer's promises herein are conditioned upon Employee's promise to abide by this paragraph. Nothing herein is intended to or shall preclude Employee from filing a complaint and/or charge with any appropriate federal, state or local government agency and/or cooperating with said agency in its investigation. Employee, however, shall not be entitled to receive any relief, recovery, or monies in connection with any complaint or charge brought against Employer, without regard as to who brought any said complaint or charge.

8.

Non-Solicitation of Customers.

(a)

The Employee agrees that the Employer is engaged in a highly competitive business. The Employee agrees that while employed by the Employer, he had contact with and become aware of the Employer's customers and the representatives of those customers, their names and addresses, specific customer needs and requirements, and leads and references to prospective customers. The Employee further agrees that loss of such customers will cause the Employer great and irreparable harm.

(b)

The Employee agrees that for twenty-four (24) months after the termination of his employment, he will not directly or indirectly solicit, contact, call upon, communicate with or attempt to communicate with any customer, former customer or prospective customer of the Employer in connection with the procurement, merchandising, marketing or trading of the principal products manufactured or distributed by Employer. The principal products of Employer include, but are not limited to, pressure sensitive tapes, shrink, stretch, or other polyolefin films, complementary packaging systems for industrial and retail use, and woven products and flexible intermediate bulk containers.

9.

Non-Solicitation of Employees. The Employee agrees that for twenty-four (24) months after the termination of his employment, he will not recruit, hire or attempt to recruit or hire, directly or by assisting others, any other employee of the Employer.

10.

Non-Competition. Employee agrees that for a period of twenty-four (24) months after the termination of his employment, Employee will not, within the continents of North America, Europe and/or Asia, directly or indirectly, either as an individual on his own, or as a consultant, partner, joint venturer, employee, agent, independent contractor, salesperson, officer, director, shareholder, or in any other capacity whatsoever, become interested in, employed by or associated with any person, firm, corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, or any other business organization or entity engaged in any business that is competitive with the business of Employer, as such business exists as of the date of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Employee may purchase stock as a stockholder in any publicly traded company; provided, however, that Employee may not own (individually or collectively with Employee's family members, trusts for the benefit of Employee's family members and affiliates of Employee) more than 5% of any company (other than the Company).

11.

Trade Secrets and Confidential Information. The Employee agrees that the Employer has developed and will continue to develop certain valuable trade secrets and confidential information that are peculiar to the Employer's business and the disclosure of which would cause the Employer great and irreparable harm.

(a)

The term "Trade Secrets" means any scientific or technical information, design, process, procedure, formula or improvement that is valuable and not generally known to the Employer's competitors, and/or any other information that is defined as a trade secret under applicable law. To the fullest extent consistent with the foregoing, and otherwise lawful, Trade Secrets shall include, without limitation, information and documentation pertaining to the design, specifications, capacity, testing, installation, implementation and customizing techniques and procedures concerning the Employer's present and future products and services.

(b)

The term "Confidential Information" means any data or information and documentation, other than Trade Secrets, which is valuable to the Employer and not generally known to the public, including but not limited to:

(i)

Financial information, including but not limited to earnings, assets, debts, prices, fee structures, volumes of purchases or sales, or other financial data, whether relating to the Employer generally, or to particular products, services, geographic areas, or time periods;

(ii)

Supply and service information, including but not limited to information concerning the goods and services utilized or purchased by the Employer, the names and addresses of suppliers, terms of supplier service contracts, or of particular transactions, or related information about potential suppliers, to the extent that such information is not generally known to the public, and to the extent that the combination of suppliers or use of particular suppliers, though generally known or available, yields advantages to the Employer the details of which are not generally known;

(iii)

Marketing information, including but not limited to details about ongoing or proposed marketing or agreements by or on behalf of the Employer, marketing forecasts, results of marketing efforts or information about impending transactions;

(iv)

Personnel information, including but not limited to employees' personal or medical histories, compensation or other terms of employment, actual or proposed promotions, hiring, resignations, disciplinary actions, terminations or reasons therefore, training methods, performance or other employee information; and

(v)

Customer information, including but not limited to any compilations of past, existing or prospective customers, customer proposals or agreements between customers and the Employer, status of customer accounts or credit, or related information about actual or prospective customers.

12.

Non-Disclosure of Trade Secrets and Confidential Information. The Employee agrees that for so long as the pertinent information or documentation remains a Trade Secret or Confidential Information, he will not directly or indirectly use, disclose or disseminate to any other person, organization or entity or otherwise employ any Trade Secrets or

11

Confidential Information. The obligations set forth herein shall not apply to any Trade Secrets or Confidential Information which shall have become generally known to competitors of the Employer through no act or omission of the Employee.

13.

Return of Property. The Employee agrees that he will deliver to the Employer within five (5) business days of the termination of his employment (i) all memoranda, notes, records, computer programs, computer files, drawings or other documentation, whether made or compiled by the Employee alone or with others or made available to him while employed by the Employer, pertaining to Trade Secrets, Confidential Information or other inventions and works of the Employer and (ii) all Trade Secrets, Confidential Information and other inventions and works of the Employer in the Employee's possession.

14.

Non-Disparagement. Employee acknowledges that, as a condition to this Agreement, he shall not make any negative or disparaging remarks about Employer to any person. Employee shall execute resignations with respect to all positions with Employer and its affiliates upon request of Employer.

15.

Breach of this Agreement and Liquidated Damages. Employee promises to abide by the terms and conditions of this Agreement and agrees that a breach by him of Sections 7 14 and 16 is a material breach of this Agreement, will cause irreparable harm to Employer, and that remedies at law may be inadequate to protect Employer in the event of such breach, and, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies otherwise available to Employer, Employee agrees to the granting of injunctive relief in Employer's favor without proof of irreparable harm, plus attorneys' fees and costs to enforce these provisions. Employee further agrees that in the event of a breach by Employee of such sections as referenced in this paragraph, Employee shall be obligated to repay the full amount of the payments made and to be made under Section 2 of the Employment Agreement as liquidated damages to Employer. Employee agrees that liquidated damages are appropriate for any such breach inasmuch as actual damages cannot be readily calculated, the amount of the liquidated damages is fair and reasonable under the circumstances, and Employer would suffer irreparable harm if these clauses were breached.

16.

Standstill Provision. Employee hereby agrees that, for a period ending the earlier of (i) twenty-four (24) months from the termination of his employment, (ii) in the event of the announcement of a transaction which could lead to a Change in Control as defined in the COC Agreement by a party not affiliated with Employee or, (iii) the engagement by the Employer of an investment banking or similar firm to sell Intertape Polymer Group Inc. (IPG) enter into a transaction which would lead to a Change in Control (the "Restricted Period"), neither Employee nor any person with whom Employee is affiliated, without the prior written consent of the Employer, will, in any manner, whether publicly or otherwise, directly or indirectly (nor will Employee in any way assist, finance, influence or encourage any other person or entity, whether publicly or otherwise, directly or indirectly to), initiate, make, effect, cause or seek, offer or propose to initiate or participate in or take a position with respect to (i) any acquisition of any securities or assets of the Employer or any of its affiliates or beneficial ownership (as defined in Rule 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act")) thereof; (ii) any tender or exchange offer, merger, or other business combination involving the Employer; (iii) any sale of assets, recapitalization, restructuring, liquidation, dissolution or other extraordinary transaction with respect to the Employer (iv) any "solicitation" of "proxies" (as such terms are used in the rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission) or consents which relates in any way to any shares of common stock or other securities of the Employer, whether before or after the formal commencement of any such solicitation; (v) advising or influencing any person or entity with respect to the voting of, or the giving or withholding of any consents with respect to, any shares of common stock or other securities of the Employer; (vi) calling, or seeking to call, a meeting of the Employer's shareholders or executing any written consent or initiating or continuing any shareholder proposal for action by shareholders of the Employer; (vii) otherwise acting, alone or in concert with others, to seek to acquire control of the Employer; (viii) bringing any action or otherwise acting to contest the validity of these provisions or seeking a release of the restrictions contained herein; (ix) any formation of a "group" within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) or Section 14(d)(2) of, or Rule 13d-5 under, the 1934 Act, with respect to securities of the Employer or its affiliates; (x) any action which would at any time require the Employer or any of its affiliates to make a public announcement regarding any of the foregoing; (xi) any disclosure of any intention, plan or arrangement inconsistent with any of the foregoing, except to the extent required by law; or (xii) any discussions, arrangements, understandings, agreements or proposals with any person or entity with respect to any of the foregoing. Employee also agrees that, during the Restricted Period, neither Employee nor any person with whom he is affiliated will request the Company or any of Employer's representatives, directly or indirectly, to amend or waive any provision of this paragraph (including this sentence). If at the time of this Agreement Employee is engaged in any of the foregoing, Employee agrees to promptly cease or withdraw any action.

Employee agrees that the Employer will be irreparably injured by a breach of this paragraph by Employee or his representatives, that monetary remedies are inadequate to protect against any actual or threatened breach of this Agreement by Employee or any person with whom he is affiliated, and that the Employer shall be entitled to specific performance or other equitable relief as a remedy for such breach or to prevent any such threatened breach. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for a breach of this Agreement but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity.

Attorney's Fees. If any party must enforce any of his/its rights in this Agreement through arbitration and/or legal proceedings, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover his/its reasonable costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred in connection with the enforcement of his/its rights.

18.

Waiver of Breach. The Employer's waiver of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Employee does not waive any subsequent breach by the Employee nor does the Employer's failure to take action against any other employee for similar breaches operate as a waiver by the Employer of a breach.

19.

Court's Right to Modify Restrictions. The parties have attempted to limit the Employee's right to compete only to the extent necessary to protect the Employer from unfair competition. In light of the substantial consideration hereunder, Employee hereby specifically acknowledges and agrees that the provisions of paragraphs 7 through 13 (including, without limitation, their time and geographic limits) are reasonable and appropriate, and that Employee will not claim to the contrary in any action brought by Employer to enforce any of such provisions. Nonetheless, the parties agree that, if the scope or enforceability of paragraphs 8 through 13 of this Agreement is in any way disputed at any time, a court or other trier of fact may modify and enforce the Agreement to the extent it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Employer and its successors and assigns, and the Employee, his heirs, executors and administrators.

21.

Injunctive Relief. The Employee understands, acknowledges and agrees that in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any of the covenants and promises contained in this Agreement the Employer shall suffer irreparable injury for which there is no adequate remedy at law, and the Employer will therefore be entitled to injunctive relief from the courts enjoining said breach or threatened breach, as more specifically set forth in paragraph 16 above. Employee agrees that the time periods set forth in paragraphs 8 through 13 above shall not include any period of violation or period of time required for litigation to enforce the covenants set forth above. Employee further acknowledges that his obligations as set forth in paragraphs 8 through 17 survive the termination of this Agreement. The Employee further acknowledges that the Employer also shall have the right to seek a remedy at law as well as or in lieu of equitable relief in the event of any such breach.

22.

Governing Law and Interpretation. This Agreement shall be governed and conformed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida without regard to its conflict of laws provision. Venue and exclusive jurisdiction for any legal action authorized hereunder shall be vested only in the appropriate state or federal court located in Manatee County, Florida.

23.

Severability. In the event that any provision contained in this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect for any reason, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision in every other respect and the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall not, at the election of the party for whose benefit the provision exists, be in any way impaired. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any such provision determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable may be valid, legal or enforceable by modification thereof, then the party for whose benefit the provision exists, may make such modification as may be necessary to make such provision valid, legal or enforceable.

24.

Nonadmission of Wrongdoing. The Employee agrees that neither this Agreement nor the furnishing of the consideration for this Release shall be deemed or construed at anytime for any purpose as an admission by the Employer of any liability or unlawful conduct of any kind.

25.

Amendment. This Agreement may not be modified, altered or changed except upon express written consent of both Parties wherein specific reference is made to this Agreement.

26.

Entire Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the parties hereto, and fully supersedes any prior agreements or understandings between the parties, except the Employee Stay Pay Letter and the Employment Agreement, referenced above, which remain independently enforceable in accordance with their terms.

THE EMPLOYEE IS HEREBY ADVISED IN WRITING THAT HE HAS TWENTY-ONE (21) DAYS TO CONSIDER THIS AGREEMENT AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY PRIOR TO EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

THE EMPLOYEE AGREES THAT ANY MODIFICATIONS, MATERIAL OR OTHERWISE, MADE TO THIS AGREEMENT DO NOT RESTART OR AFFECT IN ANY MANNER THE ORIGINAL TWENTY-ONE (21) DAY CONSIDERATION PERIOD.

HAVING ELECTED TO EXECUTE THIS AGREEMENT, TO FULFILL THE PROMISES SET FORTH HEREIN, AND TO RECEIVE THEREBY THE SUMS AND BENEFITS SET FORTH IN SECTION 4 OF THE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT, THE EMPLOYEE FREELY AND KNOWINGLY, AND AFTER DUE CONSIDERATION, ENTERS INTO THIS AGREEMENT, INTENDING TO WAIVE, SETTLE AND RELEASE ALL CLAIMS HE HAS OR MIGHT HAVE AGAINST THE EMPLOYER.
