Report of Independent Auditors

(Translation of a report originally issued in Spanish--See Note 2 (b))

To the Shareholders and Directors of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A.:

We have reviewed the consolidated balance sheets of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A. and Subsidiaries as of June 30, 2008 and 2007, and the related consolidated statements of income and cash flows for the six-month periods then ended. These interim financial statements and the accompanying notes are the responsibility of the management of Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A.

We conducted our review in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Chile. A review of interim financial information consists primarily of applying analytical review procedures and of inquiries of employees responsible for financial and accounting matters. The scope of our review is substantially less than an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in Chile, the objective of which is expressing an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. Consequently, the interim consolidated financial statements as of June 30, 2008 and 2007 have not been audited and therefore we are in no position to express an opinion on these interim financial statements.

Based on our review of the interim consolidated financial statements as of June 30, 2008 and 2007, we are not aware of any significant adjustments that should be made to the financial information in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in Chile.

Andrés Marchant V.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Chile (Chilean GAAP) and standards set forth by the Chilean Superintendency of Securities and Insurance (SVS). In the event of any discrepancies in these regulations, SVS regulations supersede Chilean GAAP. Certain accounting practices applied by the Company that conform to Chilean GAAP may not conform to generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (US GAAP) or International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). For the convenience of the reader, these financial statements have been translated from Spanish to English.

The Company's consolidated financial statements as of June 30 and December 31 of each year are prepared in order to be reviewed and audited, respectively, in accordance with current legal regulations. The Company voluntarily submits the quarterly financial statements as of March 31 and September 30 to an interim financial information review performed in accordance with regulations established for this type of review, described in Generally Accepted Auditing Standard (GAAS) No. 45 Section No. 722, issued by the Chilean Association of Accountants.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued:

(e) Price-level restatement:

The consolidated financial statements have been adjusted by applying price-level restatement standards, in accordance with Chilean GAAP in order to reflect the changes in the purchasing power of the currency during both exercises. The accumulated variation in the Chilean Customer Price Index (CPI) as of June 30, 2008 and 2007, for initial balances, is 3.2% and 1.9%, respectively.

(f) Basis of conversion:

Assets and liabilities in US$ (United States dollars), Euros, Brazilian Reales, Yen (JPY), UF (Unidad de Fomento) have been converted to pesos at the exchange rates as of each period end, as follows:

YEAR	US$	EURO	BRAZILIAN REAL	JPY	UF
2008	526.05	828.16	328.93	4.95	20,252.71
2007	526.86	713.03	273.25	4.28	18,624.17

Foreign currency translation differences resulting from the application of this standard are credited or debited to income for the period.

(g) Time deposits:

Time deposits are carried at cost plus UF indexation adjustments, where applicable, and accrued interest as of period end.

(h) Marketable securities:

Fixed income securities and shares are recorded at their price-level restated cost plus interest accrued as of each year end using either the actual interest yield determined at the purchase date or market value, whichever is less.

(i) Inventory:

Depending on the nature of respective items, equipment held for sale is carried at the lesser of either its price-level restated acquisition or development cost or at its market value.

Inventory that is expected to be used within twelve months of their acquisition are classified as current assets. Their cost is price-level restated. The obsolescence provision has been determined on the basis of an analysis of materials with slow turnover.

(j) Allowance for doubtful accounts:

The allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated on the basis of the aging of such accounts, up to 100% of accounts outstanding for more than 120 days and 180 days in the case of large customers (corporations).

(Translation of a report originally issued in Spanish – see Note 2b to the Financial Statements)
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued:

(k) Property, plant and equipment:

Property, plant and equipment are carried at their price-level restated acquisition or construction cost.

Property, plant and equipment acquired up through December 31, 1979 are carried at their appraisal value, as stipulated in Article 140 of D.F.L. No. 4. Some assets subsequently acquired were subject to a technical revaluation of their appraisal value recorded as of September 30, 1986, as authorized in SVS Circular No. 550. All these values have been price-level restated.

(l) Depreciation of property, plant and equipment:

Depreciation has been calculated and accounted for on the basis of the previously indicated values, through the application of fixed factors determined in accordance with the estimated useful lives of the assets. The Company's average annual financial depreciation rate is approximately 7.98% for 2008 and 8.29% for 2007.

Estimated useful lives are summarized as follows:

Assets	Range of years
Building	40
Switchboard telephone equip.	7 to 12
Subscriber equipment	2 to 4
External plant	20 to 40
Office furniture and equip.	4 to 10
Software	3
Others	4 to 10

(m) Leased assets:

Leased assets with a purchase option, where the contracts satisfy the characteristics of a financial lease, are recorded in a manner similar to the acquisition of property, plant and equipment, recognizing the full obligation and interest on an accrual basis. These assets are not legally owned by the Company; therefore, until the Company exercises the purchase option, such assets cannot be freely disposed of.

(n) Intangibles:

i) Rights to underwater cable:

Rights to underwater cable correspond to the rights acquired by the Company for the use of an underwater cable to transmit voice and data. These rights are amortized over the term of the respective contracts, with a maximum of 25 years (Note 12).

ii) Software licenses:

Software licenses are valued at their price-level restated acquisition cost. Amortization is calculated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful life, which does not exceed 3 years (Note 12).

(Translation of a report originally issued in Spanish – see Note 2b to the Financial Statements)
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued:

(o) Investments in related companies:

These investments are accounted for under the equity method, which recognizes the investor's share of income on an accrual basis. For investments abroad, the valuation methodology as defined in Technical Bulletin No. 64 is applied. Investments in countries deemed to be unstable and whose activities are not an extension of the operations of the Parent Company are controlled in US dollars.

(p) Goodwill:

This account corresponds to the differences originating from adopting the equity method and adjusting the cost of investments, or from the realization of new acquisitions. Goodwill and negative goodwill amortization years have been determined taking into consideration aspects such as the nature and characteristics of the business and the estimated year of return on the investment (Note 11).

(q) Transactions with repurchase agreements:

Purchases of financial instruments that include repurchase agreements are recorded as fixed rate instruments and are classified as Other Current Assets (Note 8).

(r) Bonds and promissory notes payable:

Bonds payable are recorded under liabilities at the par value of the issued bonds (Note 16). The difference between par and placement value, determined on the basis of the actual interest rate for the transaction, is deferred and amortized over the term of the respective bond (Notes 8 and 13).

Costs directly related to the placement of these obligations are deferred and amortized over the term of the respective liability (Notes 8 and 13).

(s) Current and deferred income taxes:

Income tax is recorded on the basis of taxable net income. Deferred taxes on all temporary differences, tax loss carry forwards that can be realized as future tax benefits, and other events that create differences between the tax and accounting values are recognized in accordance with Technical Bulletins No. 60 and complementary technical bulletins thereto issued by the Chilean Association of Accountants, and with SVS Circular No. 1,466 dated January 27, 2000.

(t) Staff severance indemnities:

For employees who qualify for this benefit, the Company's staff severance indemnities obligation is provided for by applying the present value method to the projected benefit obligation using an annual discount rate of 6%, taking into consideration assumptions concerning the future service year of the employees, mortality rate of employees and salary increases used as the basis of actuarial calculations.

Costs for past services of employees resulting from changes in assumptions used as the actuarial bases, are deferred and amortized over average of the employees' future service years (Notes 8 and 13).

(Translation of a report originally issued in Spanish – see Note 2b to the Financial Statements)
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued:

(u) Revenue recognition:

The Company's revenues are recognized on an accrual basis in accordance with Chilean GAAP. Since billing dates are different from the accounting close date, as of the date of preparation of these consolidated financial statements, provisions have been established for services provided and not billed, which are determined on the basis of contracts, traffic, prices and current conditions for the year. These amounts are recorded under Trade Accounts Receivable.

(v) Foreign currency forwards:

The Company has signed foreign currency hedge future contracts which have been entered into to hedge against changes in the exchange rate of its current obligations in foreign currency.

These instruments are valued in accordance with Technical Bulletin No. 57 of the Chilean Association of Accountants.

The rights and obligations acquired are detailed in Note 26, being reflected in the balance sheet as only the net right or obligation at period end and classified according to the maturity of each contract under Other Current Assets or Other Payables, as applicable.

(w) Interest rate coverage:

Interest on loans for which associated interest rate swaps have been entered into is recorded recognizing the effect of those contracts on the interest rate established in such loans. The rights and obligations acquired therein are shown under Other Payables or under Other Current Assets, as applicable.

(x) Computer software:

The cost of software purchased is deferred and amortized using the straight-line method over a maximum period of three years and classified as other property, plant and equipment.

(y) Cumulative translation adjustment:

In this shareholders' equity reserve account, the Company recognizes the difference between the variation in the exchange rate and the consumer price index (C.P.I.) originated in the restatement of its investment abroad and its goodwill, which are controlled in United States dollars. The balance of this account is recognized as income in the same year in which the net income or loss is recognized on the total or partial disposal of these investments.

(z) Statement of cash flows:

For the purposes of preparing the Statement of Cash Flows in accordance with Technical Bulletin No. 50 of the Chilean Association of Accountants and SVS Circular No. 1,312, the Company defines securities under agreements to resell and time deposits with a remaining maturity of less than 90 days as cash equivalents. Cash flows related to the Company's operations and all those not defined as resulting from investing or financing activities are included under Cash Flows from Operating Activities .

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued:

(Translation of a report originally issued in Spanish see Note 2b to the Financial Statements)
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(aa) Correspondents:

The Company has agreements with foreign counterparties to set the conditions that regulate international traffic, determining the payments for each counterparty based on fixed rates for the net exchange of traffic.

The receivables/payables related to these agreements are recorded on an accrual basis, recognizing the costs and income for the year in which these are incurred, recording the net receivable and payable for each counterparty where the legal right to offset exists under Accounts Receivable or Accounts Payable, as applicable.

3. Accounting Changes:

a) Accounting Changes:

During the periods covered in these interim consolidated financial statements, the accounting principles have been consistently applied.

b) Changes in estimations:

Change in the rotation rate actuarial hypothesis:

During the first half of 2008 the Company evaluated the rotation rate used to calculate the staff severance indemnities provision. After concluding the evaluation the Company decided to increase the rotation rate from 2.34% to 5.46%. As a result of this modification in 2008 the Company recorded a deferred tax asset of ThCh$ 5,356,385 which will be amortized over the period of future permanence of employees entitled to this benefit.

(1) This amount corresponds to the cost (net of amortizations) of the disbursements incurred for foreign loans obtained by the Company to finance its investment plan. The short-term portion is presented under Other Current Assets (Note 8).

(2) In function of the new contractual conditions derived from the organizational evolution experienced by the Company, a series of studies have been carried out which in first instance, in 2004 modified the future permanence of employees variable of the basis for calculating staff severance indemnities. After completing these studies, in 2005 other estimations were incorporated such as the employee rotation rate, employee mortality and future salary increases and for 2006 the rate stated in Note 2 (s) is included. During the first half of 2008 the rate of employee rotation used to calculate staff severance indemnities was evaluated. After this evaluation the Company decided to increase the rotation rate from 2.34% to 5.46% . As a result of this modification, in 2008 the Company recorded a deferred tax asset for the amount of ThCh$ 5,356,385, which will be amortized over the period of future permanence of employees entitled to this benefit. All these estimations were determined on the basis of actuarial calculations, as established in Technical Bulletin No. 8 issued by the Chilean Association of Accountants. The short-term portion is presented under Other Current Assets (Note 8).

The difference generated as a result of changes in the actuarial estimates constitutes actuarial gains or losses, which are deferred and amortized over the estimated average remaining future service life of the employees that will receive the benefit (see Note 2s).

(3) In conformity with the union agreements between the Company and its employees, loans were granted to employees, the amounts and conditions of which were based on, among other considerations, the accrued balances of staff severance indemnities at the date of the grant. The short-term portion is recorded under Other Current Assets (Note 8).

The staff severance indemnities provision has been recorded in part at its current value, deferring and amortizing this effect over the years of average remaining future service life of employees that subscribe to the benefit. The loan is presented under Other Long-term Receivables.

27. Contingencies and restrictions:

a) Lawsuits against the State of Chile:

(i) Having exhausted all administrative remedies aimed at correcting the errors and illegal actions taken in the tariff-setting process of 1999, in March 2002 the Company filed a lawsuit for damages against the Government of Chile for the amount of ThCh$ 181,038,411, including readjustments and interest, covering past and future damages incurred up to May 2004.

The judicial process is currently at the sentencing stage.

(ii) Telefónica Chile and Telefónica Larga Distancia filed an indemnity suit against the State of Chile, claiming damages caused were due to modification of the telecommunications cable network due to works carried out by highway concessionaries from 1996 to 2000.

The amount of the claimed damages consists of both companies being obligated to pay to transfer their telecommunications networks due to the construction of public works concessioned under the Concessions Law for the amount of:

- a.- Compañía de Telecomunicaciones de Chile S.A.: ThCh$ 1,929,207 (historical)
- b.- Telefónica Larga Distancia S.A.: ThCh$ 2,865,209 (historical)

On March 24, 2008, final first instance sentence was notified, rejecting the complaint, without costs.

This sentence is being appealed.

b) Lawsuits:

(i) Voissnet:

On July 12, 2007 Voissnet filed a complaint before the Antitrust Commission (TDLC) against Telefónica Chile for alleged crossed subsidy in the joint commercialization of its broadband and fixed telephony services, taking advantage of its dominant position in those markets. The complaint was notified on August 20, 2007.

Telefónica Chile requested that the complaint be rejected, with costs, mainly in consideration that voice and broadband package offers are due to a competitive dynamic, and it has not incurred any practices that attempt to go against free competition.

As of June 30, 2008 the parties are providing evidence, in conformity with the schedule of events set by the Court.

27. Contingencies and restrictions, continued:

(ii) Complaint filed by VTR Telefónica S.A.:

On June 30, 2000, VTR Telefónica S.A. filed an ordinary lawsuit, claiming payment of Ch$2,204 million, plus amounts accrued during the lawsuit, for the concept of access charges for the use of its networks. It based its complaint on the differences originated due to the reduction of access charges after Tariff Decree No. 187 came into effect. Telefónica Chile sustained that the access charge tariffs that both parties must pay each other for the reciprocal use of their networks which are regulated by a signed contract that VTR is ignoring. The first instance sentence accepted VTR's complaint and the alleged subsidy compensation by Telefónica Chile. The Company filed an ordinary public motion and appeal that is pending before the Santiago Court of Appeals.

There are two other cases related to the previous judicial process. The first filed by VTR in 2002 before Subtel for alleged non-payment of invoices for access charges set by D.S. 26, to obligate Telefónica Chile to pay those invoices and impose the fines foreseen in the General Telecommunications Law. That case has been suspended by order of the Minister at that time, until there is a sentence in the judicial proceeding filed by VTR in 2000. The other case was filed by Telefónica Chile on June 6, for VTR's non payment of access charges according to the contract signed between the parties and it has been suspended until there is a sentence in the first of the mentioned lawsuits.

On December 21, 2005 Telefónica Chile sued VTR for non payment of automatic reversal of charges services (800-services) for the amount of Ch$1,500 million, plus sums accrued during the course of the lawsuit. VTR filed a counterclaim for the same concepts, in the amount of Ch$1,200 million. That judicial process is at the first instance proceeding stage.

On May 8, 2008, Telefónica Chile and VTR signed a transaction by means of which they ended all judicial and administrative conflicts related to reciprocal access charges to be paid between the companies and 800-type services. Both parties will make reciprocal discounts and there is legal compensation for the amounts owed, which resulted in Telefónica Chile paying VTR the sum of Ch$12,036,787,478. Likewise, on the basis that the transaction produces the indefectible termination of the judicial proceeding in which the proceeding filed before the Ministry of Transportation and Telecommunications is involved, the parties filed a writ requesting the filing and termination of the proceeding without sanction.

(iii) Manquehue Net:

On June 24, 2003, Telefónica Chile filed a forced contract compliance with damage indemnity complaint against Manquehue Net for the amount of ThCh$3,647,689 in addition to sums accrued during the substantiation of the proceeding. On the same date Manquehue Net filed a complaint regarding compliance with discounts (for the amount of UF 107,000), in addition to a complaint regarding the obligation to perform (signing of 700 number service contract).

On April 11, 2005 the Arbitrator notified first instance sentence accepting the complaint filed by Telefónica Chile condemning Manquehue Net to pay approximately Ch$ 452 million, and at the same time accepted the complaint filed by Manquehue Net condemning Telefónica Chile to pay UF 47,600.

Telefónica Chile filed ordinary public law motions appealing both sentences, which are currently pending before the Santiago Court of Appeals.

27. Contingencies and restrictions, continued:

(iv) Chilectra y CGE:

In June 2006, Telefónica Chile filed complaints against Chilectra S.A. and Río Maipo (today CGE Distribución), requesting an adjusted refund of the Reimbursable Financial Contributions (AFR) (Aportes Financieros Reembolsables) that the company paid between 1992 and 1998, in virtue of the Electric Law. The amounts to be restored amount to ThCh$899,658 and ThCh$117,350, respectively.

(v) Labor lawsuits:

During the normal course of operations, labor lawsuits have been filed against the Company, which to date do not represent significant contingencies.

(vi) Complaint filed by Telmex Servicios Empresariales S.A.:

During the first quarter of 2008, Telmex Servicios Empresariales S.A. filed a complaint before the Antitrust Commission against Telefónica Chile, for alleged affectation of free competition, related to the process of being awarded the concession for local wireless public service of the 3,400 – 3,600 MHz band, requesting condemnation to pay a fine in benefit of the Government in the amount of 18,000 UTA.

The Company answered the complaint within the deadline, requesting rejection of all its parts.

(vii) Empresa Ferrocarriles del Estado de Chile:

Ordinary lawsuit for forced compliance of obligations agreed upon or consented, derived from the Regulation on Railway Crossing, Parallelism and Support, which in addition demanded payment of a sum of no less than UTM 48,298.44, whether for construction or annual passage relating to crossings located on the railway, plus indemnity for material damages and pain and suffering alleged to have been experienced, with adjustments, interest and costs, and notwithstanding the sums accrued during the proceeding.

On March 25, 2008, the final first instance sentencing was passed, fully rejecting the complaint.

(viii) Theoduloz Slier and Ochoa Soriano versus Zalaquett Zalaquett and Telefónica Chile:

Executive lawsuit of commitment to file complaint by Ms. Rodemilia Theoduloz Slier and Matilde Ochoa Soriano against Armando Zalaquett Zalaquett and Telefónica Chile. The commitment to perform the lawsuit will consist of the delivery of 14,468,895 Series A shares of Telefónica Chile whose titleholder is the defendant, Armando Zalaquett Zalaquett.

Telefónica Chile opposed the execution, since Mr. Zalaquett is not a shareholder of the Company. This is currently in process.

27. Contingencies and restrictions, continued:

(ix) Comunicaciones Majojobo Limitada:

Ordinary contract resolution and damage indemnity lawsuit, notified on June 26, 2008, demanding an indemnity payment of Ch$2,863,047,159 as a consequence of deterioration of its commercial image due to a press report presented by Channel 13 of the Corporación de Televisión de la Universidad Católica de Chile.

This is currently at the defendant answering stage.

(x) Other lawsuits:

During the last quarter of 2007, they were notified of resolutions passed by the Ministry of Transport and Telecommunications, in which fines were applied due to non-compliance with the previous resolutions, which altogether amount to UTM 33,700. Telefónica Chile has filed appeals against those resolutions, which are currently in process and pending sentence. It should be noted that the resolutions consider daily fines, which as of December 31, 2007 are estimated to amount to close to UTM 1,200.

Management and its internal and external legal counsel periodically monitor the evolution of the lawsuits and contingencies affecting the Company during the normal course of its operations, analyzing in each case the possible effects on the financial statements. Based on this analysis and the information available to date, management and its legal counsel believe that it is unlikely that the Company's income and equity will be significantly affected by loss contingencies that could eventually represent significant liabilities in addition to those already recorded in the financial statements.

(c) Financial restrictions

In order to develop its investment plans, the Company has obtained financing both in the domestic market and abroad (Notes 13, 14 and 15) which establish, among other things: clauses on the maximum debt the Company may maintain.

The maximum debt ratio is 1.60.

Non-compliance with these clauses implies that all the obligations assumed in these financing contracts would be considered due and payable.

As of June 30, 2008, the Company complies with all financial restrictions.

Relevant Industry Aspects

The most relevant event of the first half of the year was the strong development of a new Internet connection service, Mobile Broadband, a product that is offered using 3G technologies by the three current mobile operators: Movistar, Entel and Claro. This product launch has had an impact on customers that value connectivity in movement and has also reached customer segments without access to fixed broadband.

The integrated services offer is increasingly intense, generating a new point of competition between the different sector operators, with their own services or in alliances with third parties. In this manner, in the residential area, almost all fixed services operators already have packet service offers (voice, broadband and TV). A similar situation is profiled in the medium and small industry sector with voice and broadband plan offers, while in the corporate area operators offer integrated solutions that allow companies to consolidate their IP networks to transmit voice and data and facilitate integration toward business processes based on information technologies. In a transversal manner, mobile communications have become massive in the country's social and corporate classes.

At a national level a competition model was maintained that is based on network infrastructure using mainly ADSL, coaxial, fiber optics and wireless technologies (3G, WiMax, PHS).

3. ANALYSIS OF INCOME FOR THE PERIOD

EVOLUTION OF THE STRUCTURE OF OPERATING INCOME AND COSTS

Operating income

The new income structure has been evolving coherently with the strategy of voice, broadband and television packages, through a flexible offer where the customer creates the combination of services that best accommodates his/her needs. In this manner, the Company has managed to go from a single-service business line to a multi-service business line.

This is evident if we analyze the evolution of income in the period from January to June 2008 in relation to the period from January to June 2007, where we can clearly appreciate that the flexibility and packages of multiple services offered by the Company have allowed it to offset the drop in income from traditional telephone business and achieve an 0.8% increase in comparison to the 2007 period.

As we will comment in Operating Income, the increase in income from flexible plans, broadband and television, has reverted the downward tendency of previous years and offset the drop in income from traditional telephone services (fixed and variable charge) and in the long distance business.

The above is reflected in the following graph, where one can see the growth in the contribution of product packages, which is highly coincidental with the Company's new business strategy.

Operating Costs

The new structure of services has had a direct effect on the structure of costs. The services included in the multiservice offer have two fundamental characteristics. On the one hand they have associated variable costs and commercialization expenses, which are added to the Company's fixed costs and on the other, they are services that due to their nature, in general, generate lower margins. Although this has caused an increase in the Company's operating costs, it is expected that in time these will stabilize.

3.1 OPERATING INCOME

As of June 30, 2008, operating income reached Ch$20,821 million, which represents a 27.4% decrease in respect to the same period in 2007.

A. Operating Revenue

Operating revenue for the 2008 period amounted to Ch$ 323,812 million, with a growth of 0.8% in respect to the same period in 2007, where it reached Ch$321,299 million.

The Company's strategy, focused on the change in the business structure, has strengthened the growth of Broadband and Television, which in conjunction with Flexible Plans, has neutralized the decrease in revenues from traditional fixed telephone and long distance businesses.

i. Revenue from Voice and Complementary Services: This revenue shows a 6.7% decrease in respect to the same period in 2007, mainly due to the following:

Telephony (Voice) Service represents 34.8% of consolidated income and shows a 6.7% decrease in respect to the previous period, originated by:

- Fixed income, corresponding to the monthly fixed network connection charge, shows a 29.8% drop which is explained mainly by the migration of customers to flexible plans.
- Variable income, decreased by 14.7% showing the effect of lower income derived from the downturn in traffic per line and the migration of customers to flexible plans.
- Flexible plan, the growth of customers in Flexible Plans, leveraged by migration from traditional telephony and the capture of new customers increased by 7.1% in respect to the previous year.

Access charges and interconnections, represent 8.4% of consolidated income and increased by 0.5%, due mainly to the 5.5% increase, equivalent to Ch$1,213 million in other interconnection services, highlighted by the increase in media rental services, information services, unbundling services and fixed-fixed access charges. This effect is partially offset by the 22.3% and 18.7% decrease in income from domestic and international long distance access charges.

Complementary services represent 11.3% of consolidated income and show a 10.7% decrease, equivalent to Ch$4,373 million mainly explained by the net effect between:

- The decrease in interior revenue, which is mainly due to the drop in average lines in service, decrease in income from public telephony, advertising in telephone books, security services and switchboard and dedicated ISP.

- The increase in revenue from equipment sales and connections and other installations.

ii. Broadband: Has shown a sustained growth in the last years reaching Ch$ 56,920 million in the 2008 period, with a 15.1% growth in respect to the same period in 2007 mainly due to the 17.56% increase in the customer base.

iii. Television: Two years after the launching of TV service, revenues represent 6% of operating income and amount to Ch$19,331. In the same period in 2007, revenue from this service amounted to Ch$ 10,975 million. The growth in the customer base is 40.5% in respect to the previous year.

iv. Long distance: Revenues from these services decreased by 8.6% in comparison to 2007, due to a 15.1% decrease in income from DLD due mainly to lower average income and a 6.9% decrease in media and circuit rental.

It should be noted that although revenues for the concept of long distance services have decreased, the amount of minutes appraised has increased, which is mainly due to the increase in Multicarrier Hired income, which does not necessarily imply a direct correlation between revenue and minutes appraised.

v. Corporate communications: This business revenue shows a 3.7% increase in respect to the 2007 period, mainly due to a 9.7% increase in income from data circuits and 4.9% in data services.

vi. Other businesses: This revenue shows an 8.2% increase mainly due to the increase in the income of T-Gestiona in respect to the previous period.

B. Operating Costs

Operating costs for the period reached Ch$302,991 million, increasing by 3.5% in relation to the 2007 period. This is mainly explained by: i) costs generated by the new business model for Internet access with Terra, for ADSL customers; ii) the purchase of content for the television business; and iii) a 13.7% increase in other operating costs, explained by the increase in uncollectability due to the increase in customer debt overdue in excess of 120 days and the increase in costs for the concept of media rental.

3.2 NON-OPERATING INCOME

Non-operating Income obtained in the period ended June 30, 2008 shows a deficit of Ch$5,973 million, which implied a 21.4% decrease, in respect to the previous period. The most significant effects are generated by:

a) Financial income shows a 10.4% increase mainly due to greater volume of funds destined transitorily to financial investments.

b) Other non-operating income amounted to Ch$ 2,691 million, figure which is lower than the Ch$ 3,116 million reached in 2007. This is mainly because in the 2007 period greater income was obtained from management services.

c) Financial expenses increased by 51.9% in 2008, associated mainly to nominalization of the Company debt, which changed from dollar/UF to dollar/peso, which implies a higher interest rate assumed for the respective insurance contracts at a nominal rate in Chilean pesos. This is framed within the hedge policy that limits exposure of the debt to the high volatility of the UF and inflation.

d) Other non-operating expenses amounted to Ch$ 6,846 million, figure that is higher than the Ch$ 4,886 million reached in the 2007 period. This is mainly due to higher restructuring expenses and withdrawal of out of service property, plant and equipment, effect that is partially compensated by lower expenses related to lawsuits and others.

e) Price-level restatement in the 2008 period shows net income of Ch$ 8,728 million, mainly due to the variations experienced in the CPI, Unidad de Fomento and exchange rate.

3.3 NET INCOME FOR THE PERIOD

Net results as of June 30, 2008 reached net income of Ch$ 3,001 million, whereas in the 2007 period net income was Ch$ 5,268 million. The lower income obtained in 2008 is derived from lower operating income, which decreased by 27.4%, basically due to a 3.5% increase in operating costs, effect that is partially offset by the 21.4% decrease in non-operating deficit and 25.2% less income tax.

3.4 RESULTS BY BUSINESS AREA

1. Local Telephone Business: Recorded net income of Ch$ 3,001 million as of June 30, 2008, in comparison to net income of Ch$ 5,268 million in the 2007 period. This is due to higher operating costs, which increased by 4.19% in relation to the 2007 period, generated by an increase in the cost of goods and services. The latter explained by the concept of allowance for doubtful accounts mainly due to the increased customer overdue debt in excess of 120 days, effect that is partially offset by the 2.11% increase in operating income in relation to the 2007 period. On the other hand, administration and selling expenses increased by 8.69% generated mainly by an increase in payroll and goods and services which increased by 21.26% and 9.34% respectively, effect that is partially offset by lower non-operating deficit, which increased by 28.55%, due to the effect of price-level restatement, a 5.81% improvement in financial income and a 2.33% increase in net income from investment in related companies, effect partially offset by 46.62% higher financial expenses and a 58.85% greater deficit in other non-operating income.

2. Corporate Communications Business: This business contributed net income of Ch$ 4,406 million in the period, a 29% increase in relation to 2007 which shows net income of Ch$ 3,412 million, mainly due to greater operating income due to the 2.46% increase in operating income and the 5.14% decrease in operating costs, effect that is partially offset by the 23.62% increase in administration and selling expenses in comparison to the 2007 period.

3. Long Distance Business: As of June 30, 2008 presented net income of Ch$ 11,228 million, higher than the net income reached in the 2007 period in the amount of Ch$ 10,462 million. This variation is produced mainly by greater operating income, which was influenced by the 0.98% increase in operating income in relation to 2007, and in turn the 1.17% and 4.65% decrease in operating costs and administration and selling expenses, respectively, effect that is partially offset by the 10.76% decrease in non-operating income, which is mainly due to greater losses related to price-level restatement and foreign currency translation.

4. Other businesses: These businesses mainly include the services of Instituto Telefónica, T-Gestiona and Fundación. As a whole these businesses generated net income of Ch$ 1,152 million, higher than the Ch$1,065 million net income obtained in the 2007 period.

The negative variation of Ch$23,675 million in cash and cash equivalents in the cash flows for the 2008 period, compared to the negative variation of Ch$ 15,177 million in the 2007 period, showed an increase mainly related to a deficit in cash flows from operating activities for the present period, which showed a deficit of 21.2% in relation to the same period in 2007 mainly due to the lower depreciation charge to income, higher credit to income due to the effect of price-level restatement and payments made to suppliers.

The current liquidity index shows a decrease due to an 11% increase in current liabilities, due to the increase in miscellaneous payables related to exchange insurance contracts signed during the present year, which increased accounts payable by 14.1%, whereas current assets only increased by 5.0% .

The debt ratio shows an increase explained by the 4.5% decrease in shareholders equity, mainly due to the stock capital decrease and distribution of dividends, activities performed in 2007 and 2008, for the purpose of distributing cash surpluses to the shareholders.

6. EXPLANATION OF THE MAIN DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MARKET OR ECONOMIC VALUE AND THE BOOK VALUE OF THE COMPANY S ASSETS

Due to market inaccuracies regarding the capital assets of the sector, there is no economic or market value that can be compared to the respective accounting values. However, there are certain buildings with a book value equal to zero or close to zero, which have a market value, which compared to the book value is not significant in respect to the Company s assets taken as a whole.

In relation to other assets, such as marketable securities (shares and promissory notes) with referential market values, the corresponding provisions have been established when the market value is less than the book value.

8. ANALYSIS OF MARKET RISK

Financial Risk Coverage

With the attractive foreign interest rates in certain periods, the Company has obtained financing abroad, denominated mainly in dollars and in certain cases at a floating interest rate. For this reason the Company faces two types of financial risks, the risk of exchange rate fluctuations and the risk of interest rate fluctuations.

Financial risk due to foreign currency fluctuations

The Company has exchange rate coverage instruments, the purpose of which is to reduce the negative impact of the dollar fluctuations on its results. The percentage of interest bearing debt exposure is defined and continuously reviewed, basically considering the volatility of the exchange rate, its trend, and the cost and availability of hedging instruments for different terms.

The main hedging instruments used are cross currency swaps, dollar/UF and dollar/pesos foreign exchange insurance.

As of June 30, 2008, the interest bearing debt in original currency expressed in United States dollars was US$ 777.3 million, including US$ 501.1 million in financial liabilities denominated in dollars and US$ 276.2 million of debt in unidades de fomento. In this manner US$ 501.1 million correspond to debt exposed directly to the variations of the dollar.

Simultaneously, the Company holds cross currency swaps, dollar/peso exchange insurance and assets denominated in dollars that resulted, as of the end of the first half of 2008, in close to 0% exposure to foreign exchange.

Financial risk due to floating interest rate fluctuations

The policy for hedging interest rates seeks the long-term efficiency of financial expenses. This considers fixing interest rates to the extent that these are low and allow floating rates when the levels are high.

As of June 30, 2008 the Company ended with an exposure of 86% local floating interest rate exposure.

Regulatory Framework

1. Tariff System

Request to review the current qualification of local telephone services offered to the public subject to tariff setting

According to Law 18,168 (General Telecommunications Law), the prices of public telecommunications services and of intermediate telecommunications services are freely established by operators, unless there is an express qualification from the Antitrust Commission (formerly the Antitrust Resolutive Commission), stating that the conditions existing in the market are not adequate to guarantee a freedom of prices regime. In this case, the maximum tariffs for certain telecommunications services must be subject to tariff regulation.

As of January 30, 2008, the Ministry of Transportation and Telecommunications requested that the Antitrust Commission review the qualification of telecommunications services for the 2009 - 2014 period, for which it is considered that the market conditions are not adequate to guarantee a free tariff regime. The Ministry of Transportation and Telecommunications considers that the domestic telecommunications market conditions merit reviewing current qualifications.

On February 7, 2008 the Antitrust Commission published in the Official Gazette the resolution through which the procedure contemplated in article 31 of Decree Law 211/73 began, considering the request for a report from the Ministry of Transportation and Telecommunications about the fixed telephone services regime to be presented. On the basis of that resolution, the Antitrust Commission notified the National Economic Attorney General's Office, hereinafter the FNE (Fiscalía Nacional Económica), and the country's telecommunications companies, in order for them to contribute information.

The National Economic Attorney General's Office issued its report to the Antitrust Commission, rejecting tariff freedom, in opposition to what was proposed by the Undersecretary of Telecommunications, sustaining that there is no Fixed Mobile substitution, and that the freedom increases risks against competition and proposes to reinforce anti-competition measures. Telecommunications companies presented their opinion to the Antitrust Commission, rejecting tariff freedom for Telefónica Chile.

The Antitrust Commission will set the date for public hearings in reference to the request to review the qualification of telecommunication services for the 2009 - 2014 period.

Setting of local telephone service tariffs to the public of Telefónica Chile

The Undersecretary of Telecommunications published the notice of registration of third party participation in the process of setting the tariffs of Telefónica Chile. The deadline for any third party to register is 10 consecutive days starting on the publication date (April 1, 2008).

On May 30, 2008, the Undersecretary of Telecommunications sent to Telefónica Chile the Preliminary Technical Economic Bases. Analyzing what is proposed in those preliminary bases, Telefónica Chile decided to formulate controversies without requiring the formation of an Experts Commission. On June 4, 2008, Telefónica Chile sent its controversies to the Undersecretary.

On June 9, 2008, Subtel dictated Exempt Resolution No. 562 which defines the Final Technical Economic Bases that will govern the tariff process of Telefónica Chile.

Telefónica Chile will begin activities to perform a Tariff Study that will be presented next November 7, 2008.

Tariff setting for mobile telephone companies

On February 15, 2008, the Undersecretary of Telecommunications notified Mobile Companies of the Final Technical Economic Bases to which they must adhere to carry out the Tariff Study that will set the tariffs and access charges and other interconnection services that will be in force for the 2009 – 2014 period

2. Modification of the Regulatory Framework

2.1. Bill that creates a Panel of Experts.

The object of this project is to create a panel of experts, of a technical nature, integrated by seven professionals who will be in charge of resolving litigations and disagreements between the company and the regulator, for the purpose of reducing judicialization of various regulatory processes in the telecommunications sector.

The project is at the first constitutional stage in the Senate.

2.2. Bill: Network Neutrality.

The project that consecrates neutrality of the network is at the second constitutional process in the Senate. On November 6, 2007 Telefónica Chile submitted the report requested by the Senate's Public Works, Transportation and Telecommunications Commission and subsequently the mentioned commission approved the bill with modifications.

2.3. Public consultations carried out by the Undersecretary of Communications for the purpose of modifying the current regulatory framework

Modification of the concession regime: The purpose of the project submitted for consultation is to modify the Law to adjust to the technological progress reached at a worldwide level which propitiates convergence of networks and services so that network operators and service providers can have a regime without bureaucratic procedures to begin their services, replacing the current regime with a registration system, except when private use of the radio-electric spectrum is required. In addition there is differentiation between network operators and service operators, the separation of local DLD and the DLD multicarrier is eliminated, it is only maintained for ILD; the freedom to freely define the service zone is modified by establishing that the service zones originally registered in the registry cannot be decreased; Broadband is qualified as a telecommunications service, which enables the application of a series of regulations; sanctions are increased by increasing fines, the deadline for attending to supply requests is reduced from 2 years to 6 months. The Undersecretary of Telecommunications has stated that it will hold a 2nd public consultation on the matter.

Creation of the Superintendency of Telecommunications: The purpose of the project submitted for consultation is to modify the Law by separating competencies related to dictating telecommunications policies from the activities of supervision and preventive punitive control of the operation of the market. The preliminary project is being analyzed by Subtel.

2.4. Regulation of public voice service over the Internet.

Decree No. 484, published in the Official Gazette on June 14, 2008, approved the mentioned regulation. The regulation will become effective in 6 months. The main provisions establish among other aspects that a concession is required to provide service, obligatory interconnections, a single service zone that encompasses all the national territory, a-geographic numeration and other obligations that future concessionaries must fulfill.

2.5. Terrestrial Digital Television Standard

To date the technical standard has not been dictated.
