Replacement of public auditor

At a meeting held on 03/21/2011, in light of Bradesco's corporate governance practices and management's procedure for engaging auditors, the issuer's board of directors accepted an Audit Committee recommendation to replace PricewaterhouseCoopers by KPMG, as of that date. KPMG is registered with the public accountants body CRC 2SP014428/O-6 and its principal offices are located at Rua Dr. Renato Paes de Barros 33, 17th floor, Itaim Bibi, São Paulo, SP, corporate tax number CNPJ 57.755.217/0001-29, and it is registered with the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM) as per Declaratory Act 5.180 of 12/7/1998. KPMG was engaged to provide independent auditing services to the company as of the 2011 reporting period.

The replaced auditing firm agreed with the above reason provided by the issuer.

3.3 – Events subsequent to the most recent financial statements

Subsequent to the most recent consolidated financial statements, on January 24, 2011, Bradesco acquired shares issued by Companhia Brasileira de Soluções e Serviços – CBSS (“CBSS”), held by Visa International Service Association (“Visa International”), corresponding to 5.01% of CBSS' share capital at the value of R$ 85.8 million. Therefore, Bradesco's holdings in CBSS increased from 45% to 50.01%, thus reinforcing its holdings in the capital of companies operating in the card market. Note that this transaction does not substantially alter the most recent consolidated financial statements.

3.4 – Policy for allocating earnings

Pursuant to Article 192 of Law No. 6,404/76, together with the accounting statements for the period, and subject to the provisions of articles 193 to 203 and its bylaws the company's management bodies shall draw up a proposal for use of the period's net income and submit it to the Annual General Meeting.

The following table shows use of income for the last 3 (three) years:

Description	Use of income			R$ thousand
	2010	2009	2008
Net income for the period	10,021,673	8,012,282	7,620,238

Dividends	904,205	584,813	1,956,591

(*) (7,620,238 – 99,219)*5%, of which R$ 7,620,238,000 corresponds to net income and R$ $ 99,219,000 to prior period adjustment related to Law 11.638/07. For more details, see Note 35d to the Financial Statements for the year 2008 available at Bradesco Investor Relations.

a) Rules on retained earningsLegal Reserve

Allocation of a portion of net profit to the legal reserve is determined by Article 193 of Law No. 6,404/76 in order to ensure the integrity of share capital, and may be used only to offset losses or increase capital.

Five percent (5%) of the period's net profit, before any other use, will be allocated to the legal reserve, which must not exceed twenty percent (20%) of share capital.

There is no requirement to allocate to the legal reserve in a year in which the balance of this reserve, plus capital reserves as per §1 of Article 182, exceeds thirty percent (30%) of share capital.

3.4 – Policy for allocating earnings

Statutory Reserves

Article 194 of Law No. 6,404/76 which governs the creation of statutory reserves states that the bylaws of the company may establish reserves on condition that in each case:- its purpose is accurately and fully stated;- criteria are set to determine the annual portion of net profits that will be allocated to the statutory reserve; and- the maximum amount of the reserve is stated.

Pursuant to the legislation, Article 31 of the bylaws states that after all statutory allocations have been made, a proposal for the allocation or use of any net income remaining shall be made by the executive board, to be approved by the board of directors and decided by General Meeting, and such income may be allocated one hundred percent (100%) to "Income Reserves – Statutory" in order to maintain an operational margin consistent with the development of the Company's active operations up to the limit of ninety-five percent (95%) of paid-up share capital.

If the board's proposal for use of net income from the period contains provision for distributing dividends and/or payment of interest on own capital in an amount greater than the mandatory dividend pursuant to Article 30, item III of the bylaws, and/or retained earnings under Article 196 of Law No. 6,404/76, the balance of net income for making this reserve will be determined after deducting these allocations in full.

b) Rules for distribution of dividends

With the introduction of Law No. 9,249/95, which came into force on January 1, 1996, companies may pay interest on own capital to their shareholders, to be imputed, net of income tax at source, to the amount of the minimum mandatory dividend.

Minimum mandatory dividend

Pursuant to item III of Article 28 of Bradesco's bylaws, shareholders are assured thirty percent (30%) of net income, each year, as a minimum mandatory dividend, adjusted for any decrease or increase of the amounts specified in items I, II and III of Article 202 of Law No. 6,404/76 (Law of Joint Stock Corporations).

3.4 – Policy for allocating earnings

Thus the minimum of thirty percent (30%) stipulated in the bylaws is greater than the minimum of twenty-five percent (25%) set forth in §2 of Article 202 of Law No. 6,404/76.

Shareholders holding preferred shares

Preferred shares confer on their holders dividends ten percent (10%) higher than those paid on common shares (item "b", §2, Article 6 of the bylaws).

Reinvestment of dividends or interest on own capital

Reinvestment of dividends or interest on own capital is a product that enables a shareholder and account holder registered with Bradesco Corretora (brokerage), personal or corporate, to invest the amount received and credited to current account in new shares (currently only for preferred shares), thereby increasing their shareholding.

Shareholders have the option of reinvesting monthly and/or special (supplementary or intermediate) dividends. There is no upper limit for reinvesting and the minimum must be enough to purchase at least one (1) share.

C) Periodicity of dividend distributions

Banco Bradesco S.A. ("Bradesco") has distributed dividends monthly since 1970, and became the first Brazilian financial institution to adopt this practice.

Interim dividends

The executive board, on approval of the board of directors, is authorized to declare and pay out interim dividends, semiannual or monthly, from existing earnings, or profit reserve accounts (§1, Article 28 of the bylaws).

It may also authorize payment of interest on own capital in total or partial substitution of interim dividends (§2, Article 28 of the bylaws).

Monthly Payment of Interest on Own Capital

For the purposes set forth in Article 205 of Law No. 6,404/76, beneficiaries are shareholders registered with the Company on declaration dates, which are on the first day of each month.

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

3.4 – Policy for allocating earnings

Payments are made on the first business day of the following month, as monthly advances on the mandatory dividend by crediting the account informed by the shareholder or made available to the Company.

Any restrictions on dividend payments imposed by special laws or regulations applicable to the issuer, as well as contracts, court decisions, administrative or arbitration court rulings

There are no restrictions on the distribution of dividends.

Distribution of dividends and retention of net income

Note that the accounting statements used policy for use of income and distribution of dividends and interest on own capital as per items 3.4 and 3.5, respectively, were prepared in accordance with accounting practices adopted in Brazil and applicable to institutions authorized to operate by the Central Bank of Brazil.

Reasons for issuer not filling out data for FY 2008

Note that issuer accounting data disclosed in item 3 and its sub-items refer to consolidated data compiled in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). These consolidated financial statements are covered by First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS 1 R). The statements for the year ended December 31, 2008 were not prepared under the international accounting standard, so we are not including comments or statements on 2008 because they do not enable proper comparison with the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009.

4.1 – Description of risk factorsMacroeconomic risksBradesco's business and results from operations are substantially affected by conditions on global financial markets.

There was excessive volatility and disruption in global credit and capital markets in 2008, 2009 and the first half of 2010. Global capital and credit markets recent turbulence led to a liquidity crunch and higher credit risk premiums for various market participants, which led to less availability of funding and/or increased costs for both financial institutions and their customers. Rising or high interest rates and/or higher levels of spreads on credit created a less favourable environment for most of Bradesco's business dealings and may impair customers' ability to repay their debts, reducing Bradesco's flexibility in terms of planning or reacting to changes in its operations and the financial industry in general. Therefore, even though conditions in the world and Brazilian economies improved, results from operations may still be affected by adverse conditions in global financial markets for as long as they remain volatile and subject to turbulence and uncertainty.

The Brazilian government has influence on the Brazilian economy and local political and economic conditions have a direct impact on Bradesco's business.

Bradesco's financial conditions and results from operations depend substantially on the Brazilian economy, which in the past has been characterized by frequent and occasionally drastic intervention by the Brazilian government and by volatile economic cycles.

In the past, the Brazilian government has often changed monetary, fiscal and taxation policy in order to influence the course of the Brazilian economy. Bradesco has no means of controlling or predicting which measures or policies the Brazilian government may take in response to current or future economic situations or how the Brazilian government's policies or intervention will affect the economy and directly or indirectly affect Bradesco's operations and revenues.

Our business, our financial situation, and the market value of our preferred shares may be adversely affected by alterations in these policies involving currency controls, taxes and other factors such as the following:

- fluctuating exchange rates;
- fluctuating benchmark interest rates;
- domestic economic growth;
- political, social or economic instability;
- monetary policy;
- fiscal policy factors and alterations to the taxation system;
- currency exchange controls policy;
- liquidity of domestic credit, capital and financial markets;
- customers' ability to meet their other obligations to Bradesco;
- reductions in wages or income levels;
- rising rates of unemployment;
- inflation; and
- other political, diplomatic, social or economic developments in Brazil or internationally, that may affect Brazil.

4.1 – Description of risk factors

Presidential elections were held in Brazil in October 2010. Uncertainty over the implementation of alterations to monetary, fiscal and pension-fund policies, and in relation to relevant legislation, may contribute to economic instability. These facts may heighten volatility on Brazilian stock and bond markets. We are unable to foresee whether the government elected in October 2010 or any subsequent government will have an adverse effect on the Brazilian economy and consequently on Bradesco's business and the market value of our preferred shares.

Exchange rate variations may negatively affect the Brazilian economy, and Bradesco's earnings and financial situation.

Bradesco's business is impacted by variations in Brazilian real's exchange rate. Since October 2002 and more intensively since June 2004, the Brazilian real has appreciated against the US dollar, with a few periods of depreciation (reaching R$ 1.5593 per US$ 1.00 on August 1st, 2008). At the end of 2008, in the context of the global financial crisis, the Brazilian real fell sharply against the US dollar (reaching R$ 2.3370 per US$ 1.00 on December 31st, 2008, after reaching R$ 2.5000 on December 5th, 2008). In 2009, the real was again appreciating against the dollar (reaching R$ 1.7412 per US$ 1.00 at the end of the year). In 2010, the real continued its appreciation against the dollar (reaching R$ 1.6662 per US$ 1.00 at the end of the year). Macroeconomic fundamentals and the current global situation (abundant liquidity, high appetite for risk and rising commodity prices) suggest that the vector of currency appreciation is still present.

When the Brazilian currency is devalued or depreciates, Bradesco incur losses on its liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, or indexed to them. For example, its long-term debt denominated in dollars, loans in foreign currencies and gains on monetary assets denominated in foreign currencies or indexed to them, since such liabilities and assets are converted into Brazilian reais. Therefore, if Bradesco's liabilities denominated in foreign currency, or indexed to it, significantly exceed its assets denominated in foreign currency or indexed to it, including any financial instruments used for hedging purposes, major depreciation or devaluation of the Brazilian currency could substantially and adversely affect its financial results and the market price of preferred shares, even though the value of its liabilities had not altered in their original currency. Furthermore, Bradesco's loans depend significantly on its ability to match the cost of dollar-indexed funds with rates charged to customers. Significant depreciation or depreciation may affect its ability to attract customers on these terms or to charge fees indexed in dollars.

On the other hand, when the Brazilian currency appreciates Bradesco sustains losses on monetary assets denominated in, or indexed, to foreign currencies such as the US dollar, and is affected by reductions in liabilities denominated in, or indexed to, foreign currencies since liabilities and assets are converted into Brazilian reais. Therefore, if Bradesco's monetary assets denominated in or indexed to foreign currency significantly exceed its liabilities denominated in or indexed to foreign currency, including any financial instruments used for hedging purposes, major appreciation of Brazil's currency could substantially and adversely affect its financial performance, even if the monetary value of such an asset remains unchanged in its original currency.

If Brazil experiences substantial inflation in the future, Bradesco's revenues and its ability to access foreign financial markets will be diminished.

In the past, Brazil has experienced extremely high rates of inflation. According to the Consumer Price Index -Domestic Availability (or IGP-DI), inflation rates in Brazil reached 9.11%, (1.44%) and 11.31% on December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010 respectively. Inflation and government measures to curb inflation had significant negative impacts on the Brazilian economy. Government measures to curb inflation and public speculation in relation to possible government measures had a negative effect on the economy and added to economic uncertainty in Brazil and heightened volatility in the Brazilian securities market, which may have a negative effect for Bradesco.

4.1 – Description of risk factors

These measures have often included restrictive monetary policy with high interest rates, restricting availability of credit and reducing economic growth. As a result, interest rates have fluctuated significantly. Increases in the rate of the Special Settlement and Custody System, known as the "SELIC" rate, and the benchmark interest rate set by the Brazilian Monetary Policy Committee, or "COPOM", may negatively affect Bradesco by reducing demand for credit and raising funding costs, the cost of domestic debt, and the risk of customer default. SELIC rate reductions may also have a negative effect on Bradesco by reducing financial income, on interest-earning assets and reduced revenues and margins.

Future actions of the Brazilian government – including interest rate cuts, foreign exchange market interventions, or steps to adjust or fix the value of the Brazilian real – may lead to rising inflation. If Brazil undergoes fluctuating inflation rates, Bradesco's costs and net margins may be affected and if there is lack of investor confidence, prices of its securities may fall. Inflationary pressures may also affect its ability to access financial markets abroad and may lead to counter-inflationary policies that may have adverse effects on its business, financial situation, results from operations and market value of its preferred shares.

Alterations of the benchmark interest rate made by the Central Bank's monetary policy committee (COPOM) may substantially and adversely affect margins and results from Bradesco's operations.

COPOM sets basic interest rates for the Brazilian banking system. Basic interest rates were 13.75%, 8.75% and 10.75% per annum on December 31, 2008, 2009 and 2010, respectively. Variations in the basic interest rate may substantially and adversely affect Bradesco's results from operations for these reasons:

- high basic interest rates raise Bradesco's domestic debt costs and may increase the probability of customer default; and
- low basic interest rates may reduce Bradesco's net financial income.

The monetary policy committee (COPOM) sets the benchmark interest rate to manage certain aspects of the Brazilian economy, including hedge capital reserves and flows. The basic interest rates set by COPOM or the frequency at which these rates are adjusted are not controlled.

Events and perception of risk in Brazil and in other countries, specially other emerging markets, may negatively affect the market value of Brazilian securities, including Bradesco's preferred shares.

The market value of securities issued by Brazilian companies is affected to varying degrees by economic and market conditions in other countries including other Latin American countries, and other emerging countries. Although economic conditions in these countries may differ significantly from economic conditions in Brazil, investors' reaction to events in these countries can have an adverse effect on the market value of securities of Brazilian issuers. Crises in other emerging countries may reduce investor appetite for securities from Brazilian issuers, including the ones issued by Bradesco, which might negatively affect the market value of its preferred shares.

The recent global financial crisis has had significant consequences worldwide, including in Brazil, such as volatility on capital markets, tight credit or non-availability of credit, higher interest rates, a slowdown in the global economy, volatile exchange rates, and inflationary pressures, among others that have directly or indirectly had, and will continue to have, negative impacts on Bradesco's business dealings, financial position, results from operations, the market value of securities of Brazilian issuers, including Bradesco, and its ability to finance its operations.

Risks related to Bradesco and the Brazilian banking sector

Bradesco may meet with higher levels of arrears in repayment of loans, as its loan portfolio matures.

Bradesco's loan portfolio has grown substantially since 2004, mainly due to Brazil's economic growth. Any corresponding increase in its level of borrowing taking an abnormal course may lead to a slower pace than the ratio of growth of loans, since the latter are not normally repayable within a short period of their origination. Levels of non-performing loans are higher for Bradesco's personal than for its corporate customers.

4.1 – Description of risk factors

The weakening of economic conditions in Brazil, which began in mid-2008, resulted in higher unemployment, which in turn led to increases in Bradesco's levels of non-performing loans, especially for personal customers' portfolio. This trend towards higher levels of non-performing loans deteriorated in 2009. In 2010 there was an improvement in delinquency levels arising from the economic recovery in Brazil. However, if economic conditions in Brazil deteriorate, the issuer may be forced to increase its provision for loan losses in the future.

Rapid growth of loans may also reduce the ratio of non-performing loans compared to total loans, until the rate of growth slackens or the portfolio becomes more mature. Adverse economic conditions and a lower growth rate of Bradesco's loan portfolio may result in an increase in its provisions for loan losses, write-downs and non-performing loans as a proportion of total loans, which may have an adverse effect on its business dealings, financial condition and results from operations.

The increasingly competitive environment in banking and insurance in Brazil may adversely affect Bradesco's business prospects.

The Brazilian markets for financial, banking and insurance services are highly competitive. Bradesco faces significant competition from other large Brazilian and foreign banks and insurance companies, both public and private, in all the key segments of its operations. There has also been more consolidation of the Brazilian banking market. In November 2008, Banco Itaú S.A. (Banco Itaú), and Unibanco - União de Bancos Brasileiros S.A. (Unibanco), merged to form Banco Itaú Unibanco (Itaú Unibanco), thus creating an important presence in the market. At the end of 2010, Banco Itaú Unibanco was renamed Banco Itaú. In addition, Banco do Brasil S.A. (Banco do Brasil), also joined with Banco Nossa Caixa S.A. in November 2008 and entered into a strategic partnership agreement with Banco Votorantim S.A. (Banco Votorantim).

Banco Itaú entered into a partnership agreement with Porto Seguro Cia. de Seguros Gerais (Porto Seguro) in the automobile and residential insurance sector, to create a market leader in the auto insurance segment.

Moreover, Brazilian regulations create barriers to entry and make no distinction between foreign and Brazilian commercial and investment banks or between Brazilian and foreign insurance companies and insurers. Therefore the presence of foreign banks and insurance companies in Brazil, some of whom have more resources than Bradesco, has increased competitiveness in banking and insurance in general and also brought more competition in markets for specific products. Privatization of public (government controlled) banks has also made the Brazilian banking and other financial services markets more competitive.

A higher level of competition may adversely affect Bradesco's results and its potential business, and may among other factors:

- restrict the ability to build its customer base and expand our operations;
- reduce the profit margins on services and Bradesco's products, insurance, leasing and other services and products; and
- lead to more competition for foreign investment opportunities.

Losses on investments in securities may have a significant impact on Bradesco's results from operations and are unpredictable.

The value of some of the investments in securities may be significantly reduced due to volatile financial markets and may vary over short periods. The amounts of these gains and losses, which are journalized as investments in securities are sold, or in certain circumstances in which they are marked to market or recognized at fair value, may fluctuate substantially from one period to another. The extent of this fluctuation partly depends on market values of securities, which in turn may vary considerably, and on Bradesco's policies for investment. It is not possible to predict the amount of gains or losses realized in a certain future period and Bradesco's management believes that variations from one period to another are of no practical value for the purposes of analysis. Additionally, any income from its investment portfolio may no longer contribute to its net income at the same levels as in recent periods, and Bradesco may no longer enjoy rising valuations such as those currently seen in its consolidated investment portfolio, or any portion of the corresponding increase in value.

May suffer losses associated with exposure to counterparties.

Bradesco is subject to the possibility of a counterparty not honouring its contractual obligations. Counterparties default may be due to bankruptcy, lack of liquidity, operational failure, or other reasons. This risk may arise, for example, with swaps or other derivatives in which counterparties have an obligation to repay or execute currencies or other trades that do not occur when required due to inability to make delivery or system failures affecting clearing agents, currency exchange, clearing houses or other financial intermediaries. This counterparty risk is higher in difficult markets where there is greater risk of counterparty failure.

Bradesco's trading in derivatives and related transactions may cause substantial losses.

Bradesco is actively engaged in trading securities, and in buying fixed-income securities and equity shares, in particular, to sell them in the short-term with the aim of profiting from short-term price differentials. These investments may expose Bradesco to substantial financial losses in the future, since securities are subject to fluctuations in value and may lead to losses. In addition, Bradesco is present in derivatives transactions to manage its exposure to currency and interest-rate risk. The purpose of these derivative transactions is to protect Bradesco against increases or decreases in exchange rates or interest rates, but not in both cases. For example, Bradesco may buy derivatives to hedge against reductions in the rate of the Brazilian real or a lower interest rate; if the Brazilian real appreciates, or interest rates rise, the Bank may incur financial losses. Such losses could significantly and adversely affect Bradesco's cash flow and future results of operations.

The Brazilian government regulates operations of local financial institutions and insurance companies, and changes in existing regulations and laws or new laws or regulations may adversely affect Bradesco's operations and revenues.

Brazilian banks and insurance companies, including Bradesco's banking and insurance operations, are subject to extensive and ongoing regulatory supervision by the Brazilian government. Bradesco has no control over government regulation, which governs all aspects of the Bank's operations, including the imposition of:

- minimum capital requirements;
- compulsory deposits/reserves;
- requirements for investment in fixed assets;
- lending limits and other credit restrictions;
- accounting and statistical requirements;
- solvency margins;
- minimum coverage levels; and
- mandatory policies for provisioning.

4.1 – Description of risk factors

The regulatory framework for banks and insurance companies in Brazil is constantly evolving. Existing laws and regulations may be altered, or the ways in which the laws and regulations are implemented or interpreted may change, and new laws and new regulations may be introduced. These changes may adversely affect Bradesco's operations and revenues.

The Brazilian government, in particular, has historically promulgated regulations affecting financial institutions in an attempt to implement its economic policies. These regulations aim to control the availability of credit and boost or lower consumption in Brazil. These changes may adversely affect Bradesco, since the returns it earns on compulsory deposits are less than those it would obtain from other investments.

Part of Bradesco's business currently not subject to government regulations may be regulated in the future. For example, various legislative proposals to regulate the credit card sector are now being discussed in Brazil's Congress. Some of these proposals aim to increase competitiveness in the sector and restrict tariffs charged by credit card companies. On November 25th, 2010, for example, the Central Bank issued new rules on tariff charges for financial institutions, and even set criteria for calculating minimum amounts to be paid on credit card invoices. New regulations affecting the credit card industry may have a material negative effect on Bradesco's revenues from credit card business. Such regulations and regulatory changes affecting other business dealings in which Bradesco is involved, including leasing and brokerage, may have a negative effect on its operations and revenues.

Most of Bradesco's common shares are owned by a shareholder whose interests may conflict with those of other investors.

On December 31, 2010, the Bradesco Foundation (Fundação Bradesco) directly or indirectly owned 51.06% of Bradesco's shares. Under the terms of the Bradesco Foundation's bylaws, all directors, members of the executive board, and department directors working in the Bradesco Group for over ten years are members of the Bradesco Foundation's governing body. The governing body does not have other members. Decisions on our policy in relation to acquisitions, disposals of equity investments, loans or other transactions taken by Fundação Bradesco may be contrary to the interests of holders of common shares and have a negative impact on the interests of holders of common shares.

Changes in regulations relating to reserve requirements and compulsory deposits and taxes may reduce operating margins.

The Central Bank has periodically altered the levels of compulsory deposits that financial institutions in Brazil are required to keep at the Central Bank. For example, in September 2008, the Central Bank revoked and changed various compulsory deposit requirements in an attempt to reduce the impact of the global financial crisis. In February 2010, after the recovery of the Brazilian and global economies in the second half of 2009, the Central Bank raised reserve requirements on time deposits and in June 2010 raised reserve requirements on demand deposits, and in December 2010 raised reserve requirements on time deposits and additional deposits. The Central Bank may raise reserve requirements and compulsory deposits in the future or may introduce new reserve requirements and compulsory deposits.

Compulsory deposits generally yield small return than other investments and deposits for the following reasons:

- part of compulsory deposits are non-interest bearing;
- part of compulsory deposits must be held in Brazilian government bonds;
- part of compulsory deposits must be used to finance the federal housing program, Brazil's agricultural sector, low-income customers and small businesses through what is known as a "microcredit program."

4.1 – Description of risk factors

Reserve requirements have been used by the Central Bank to control liquidity as part of its monetary policy in the past, and Bradesco has no control over these requirements. Any increase in compulsory deposit requirements may reduce its ability to make loans and other investments and may thus negatively affect Bradesco.

Changes in taxes and other fiscal initiatives may adversely affect Bradesco.

The Brazilian government regularly changes tax regimes and takes other fiscal initiatives that affect Bradesco and its customers. The latter include changes in tax rates and occasionally temporary taxes, the proceeds from which are used for the government's purposes. The effects of these changes and other changes resulting from additional tax initiatives have not been, and cannot be quantified and there is no guarantee that these laws, once implemented, will not have a negative effect on Bradesco's business dealings. Furthermore, such changes may lead to uncertainties for the financial system, raise the cost of loans and contribute to an increase in the loan portfolio taking an abnormal course.

Brazil's Constitution set a ceiling for interest rates on loans, including interest rates on bank loans, and the impact of subsequent legislation containing regulations on this matter is uncertain.

The Brazilian constitution's Article 192, promulgated in 1988, set a 12% per annum cap for interest rates charged on bank loans. However, after promulgation of the constitution, this rate was not put into practice since the regulatory aspects for the cap were still pending. The interpretation that this ceiling has not yet come into force was recently confirmed by Binding Precedent No. 7, a final decision and binding precedent promulgated by Brazil's Supreme Court in 2008, confirming the court's previous view on this issue. Since 1988, several attempts have been made to adjust lending rates, particularly interest rates on bank loans, but none have been implemented or upheld by higher courts in Brazil.

On May 29, 2003, Constitutional Amendment No. 40 (locally known as EC 40/03) was enacted to repeal all paragraphs and subparagraphs of Article 192 of Brazil's constitution. This amendment allows the Brazilian financial system to be regulated by specific laws for each system sector rather than a single law for the system as a whole.

When the new Civil Code (or Law 10406, of January 10th, 2002) came into effect, unless parties to a loan had agreed to a different rate, the maximum interest rate was geared to the basic interest rate charged by Brazil's Treasury (Office of the National Treasury). This basic rate is now the SELIC rate, which stood at 10.75% per annum on December 31, 2010. However, there is some uncertainty as to whether this applicable base rate would be the SELIC rate or the 12.0% per annum interest rate stipulated in the Tax Code (Código Tributário Nacional Brasileiro).

The impacts of EC 40/03 and the determinations of the new Civil Code are uncertain at the moment, but any substantial increase or decrease in the interest rate may have a material effect on the financial conditions, results from operations or prospects of Brazilian financial institutions, including Bradesco.

Furthermore, some Brazilian courts have, in the past, issued rulings restricting interest rates on consumer financing transactions that are regarded as unfair or excessive in comparison with market practices. Future decisions by Brazilian courts, or changes in legislation and regulations restricting interest rates charged by financial institutions may have a negative effect on Bradesco's business.

Losses relating to insurance claims may vary from time to time and differences between losses on actual claims and underwriting assumptions and actuarial reserves may have an adverse effect on Bradesco.

Bradesco's results from operations depend significantly on the extent to which claims and loss event numbers are consistent with its actuarial assumptions used to evaluate obligations related to claims under current and future policies and to price its insurance products. Bradesco attempts to limit its liability and price its insurance products, based on expected payments of benefits calculated using several factors such as: assumptions for returns on investments, mortality and disability expenses, continuity and certain macroeconomic factors such as inflation and interest rates. These assumptions may differ from past experience due to factors beyond Bradesco's control, such as natural disasters (floods, explosions and fires) or human disasters (riots, terrorist or gang attacks) or changes in rates of mortality and disability as a result of advances in medicine and increased longevity, among others. Therefore, Bradesco is unable to accurately determine the values that will ultimately be paid to settle these obligations, or when these payments will have to be made, or if the assets guaranteeing its insurance obligations, together with future premiums, will be sufficient to cover payments against these obligations. These values may vary in relation to estimates, especially when payments do not occur until the distant future, as is the case with some of Bradesco's life insurance products. To the extent that the actual experience of loss events and claims is less favourable than the underlying assumptions used to calculate obligations, Bradesco may be required to increase its reserves, which may adversely affect its cash flow.

If actual losses exceed reserves for the risks that have been underwritten, Bradesco could be adversely affected.

Bradesco's results from operations and financial condition depend on its ability to accurately assess actual losses associated with the risks that have been underwritten. Bradesco's current reserves are based on estimates that rely on available information and involve many factors, including experiences of recent losses, current economic conditions, internal risk ratings, actuarial and statistical projections of expected costs of settling future claims, such as estimates of future trends for the severity and frequency of claims, legal theories concerning liability, levels and/or time of receipt or payment of premiums and retirement, mortality and incapacity rates, continuity, among others. Consequently, calculating reserves is inherently uncertain and actual losses are often different from such estimates, sometimes by a substantial margin. Discrepancies occur for several reasons, for example: since Bradesco records its provisions for loan losses based on estimates, but provisions may not be sufficient to cover losses; there may be more numerous claims for loss events; or costs could be higher than estimated. If actual losses significantly exceed its reserves, Bradesco may be adversely affected.

Bradesco is jointly liable for customers' losses if its reinsurers fail to meet their obligations under reinsurance contracts.

Purchasing reinsurance does not exempt Bradesco from liability to its customers if a reinsurer fails to comply with its obligations under reinsurance contracts. Consequently, the reinsurer's insolvency or failure to make timely payments as described in the contracts could have an adverse effect on Bradesco, since the latter continues to be liable to its insured persons.

The strategy of marketing and expanding Internet Banking in Brazil may not be well received or may be more costly than profitable.

Bradesco has been aggressively insisting on using the Internet for banking and other customer services and expects to continue to do so. However, the market for our Internet products is evolving rapidly and becoming increasingly competitive. Whether this market will grow, and at what pace, is unforeseeable. Additionally, should Bradesco fail to effectively adapt to growth and new developments in the Internet and technology market, its business, competitiveness or results from operations could be adversely affected.

The Internet may not prove to be a viable retail market in Brazil for a number of reasons, including lack of acceptable security technology, potentially inadequate development of the required infrastructure, lack of marketing and development required for improved performance, or visible lack of customer trust in Bradesco's systems.

4.2 – Comments on expected alterations of exposure to risk factors

No reduction or increase in the issuer's exposure is expected in relation to risks mentioned in Section 4.1.

4.3 – Non-confidential significant judicial, administrative or arbitration proceedings

In terms of assessing materiality, Bradesco has found that there are no cases that could materially damage its image or pose legal risks. Cases relating to this item were obtained from a materiality of R$ 280 million, which represents 0.5% of the issuer's capital base (R$ 56,146 million). Therefore, we selected cases whose financial impacts exceed this material amount. Any differences between the cases shown below and the values shown in Notes refer to processes that individually involve amounts below the level we consider material.

Bradesco is a party in judicial proceedings involving labor, civil-liability and tax claims arising in the normal course of its business.

Provisions were made taking into account: the opinion of legal advisors, the nature of the actions, similarity with previous cases, complexity and positioning of the courts, whenever loss is rated "probable".

Management believes that provision is sufficient to cover any losses arising from these cases.

Liabilities related to legal obligation currently in litigation is maintained until as case is conclusively won, which means favorable legal decisions that may no longer be appealed, or falls due to prescription.

Labor contingency

Currently we are defendants in labor proceedings or actions brought by former employees, claiming in particular "overtime payments". In cases in which judicial deposit is required, the amount of the labor contingency is made presuming loss of these deposits. For the other cases, provision is based on the average value of payments made in cases judged in the last 12 months, considering the year the action was brought.

Time-clocks were introduced to control actual hours worked in 1992, and overtime is paid in the ordinary course of the employment contract. Therefore, labor claims brought after 1997 individually involve much smaller amounts.

On December 31, 2010, our provision for labor-claim related liabilities rated "probable" reached R$ 1,578,688 thousand.

There are no individually material cases based on the above-mentioned criterion.

Civil-liability contingency

We are a party in civil actions for claims involving compensation for moral damages and property damages, mostly relating to credit reports, returned (bounced) checks, reports in debtor database and compensating for inflation adjustments cancelled under government economic programs.

These actions are controlled individually through our computerized system and provisioned whenever loss is rated "probable", based on the opinions of legal advisors, the nature of actions, similarity with previous cases, complexity and positioning of the courts.

The cases involving credit reports, returned checks and debtor database entries do not normally amount to events capable of causing substantial impact on our financial results. Most of these actions involve the Special Civil Court (Juizado Especial Cível, or JEC), in which claims are limited to 40 times the minimum monthly wage.

Note the increase in the actions claiming inflation adjustments that were cancelled when balances in savings accounts were restated under economic programs introduced as part of Federal Government's economic policy to lower inflation rates in the past. Although the Bank complied with the legislation in force at the time, these cases are being provisioned in light of the actions notified so far and the corresponding perspective of loss analyzed from the point of view the current jurisprudence of the Higher Court of Justice (STJ).

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

Two points are worth noting in relation to cases involving economic plans: a) there is not substantial potential liability, since the right to bring new claims has been prescribed; b) awaiting a verdict from the Supreme Court (STF)

4.3 – Non-confidential significant judicial, administrative or arbitration proceedings is action "APDF" 165 (pleading failure to fulfill fundamental precept) proposed by the National Financial System Confederation (CONSIF), which seeks to suspend all cases involving these plans now underway.

On December 31, 2010, our provision for liabilities relating to civil-law actions rated "probable" reached R$ 2,657,620 thousand.

There are no individually material cases based on the above-mentioned criterion.

Note that repetitive or related civil liability cases based on similar facts or causes, which are considered material as a whole, are listed in item 4.6.

Tax and social-insurance/pension contingencies

Bradesco has brought legal actions challenging the constitutionality of certain taxes and social contributions, which are fully provisioned despite good chances of success in the medium and long term, in the opinion of our legal advisors.

On December 31, 2010, our provision for tax and social security contingencies totaled R$ 9,091,558 thousand.

Based on our assessment of materiality, the cases shown below involve tax and social security issues and the chances of losing were rated "remote or possible":

These "plans" modified indices used for inflation adjustment of amounts in savings accounts. Now, some 20 years later, account holders alleging losses due to these alterations are asking the courts to order financial institutions to use the previous indices.

5.1 – Description of principal market risks

Bradesco is exposed to market risks inherent to its business, such as currency risk and interest rate risk, since its role as financial intermediary involves borrowing and lending/financing using various types of indexers.

As good governance practice for its risk management, Bradesco has an ongoing process for managing its positions, which includes control of all positions exposed to market risk using measures consistent with best practices internationally and the New Capital Accord – Basel II. A unit working separately from the business units is tasked with monitoring and controlling market risk tolerance limits.

The proposed exposure limits are validated by specific business committees and submitted for approval by the Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee, observing the limits set by the board of directors, depending on the objectives of positions, which are divided into the following portfolios: Trading Portfolio: consists of all transactions with financial instruments, including derivatives, held with the intention of trading or to hedge other trading portfolio assets, and not subject to restrictions on their tradability. Transaction held for trading are those intended for resale, to obtain arbitrage benefits from actual or expected prices.

Banking: transactions not classified in the Trading Portfolio. Consists of structural transactions derived from the Organization's different lines of business and its respective hedging transactions.

Market Risk Measurement Models

Market risk is measured and controlled using Value at Risk (VaR), Economic Value Equity (EVE), stress testing and sensitivity analysis, in addition to limits of management of results and financial exposure.

Trading Portfolio and Banking Portfolio Equity Risk

Although controlled separately, risks relating to the Trading and Banking portfolio equity positions are measured using the Delta-Normal VaR methodology for one-day horizons, with a confidence level of 99%, and volatility and correlation levels are calculated using statistical methods that give higher weightings to recent returns.

Trading portfolio risk is also controlled by stress testing to quantify the negative impact of economic shocks and events that are financially unfavorable for our positions. Analysis uses stress scenarios prepared by our Market Risk and Economic units, based on historical and prospective data for risk factors affecting Trading portfolio positions.

Banking Portfolio - Interest Rate Risk

Measurement and control of interest rate risk for the Banking portfolio uses EVE methodology, which measures economic impact on positions arising from scenarios prepared by our Economics units, which chart any positive or negative changes in yield curves affecting our investments and funding efforts.

EVE methodology consists of re-pricing the portfolio subject to interest-rate variation taking into account increases or decreases in the rates used for calculating present value and total tenor/expiration of assets and liabilities. On this basis, the portfolio's economic value is calculated for interest rates on the date of the analysis and for scenarios projected over a one-year horizon. Any difference between the values obtained for the portfolio will be the EVE, or interest-rate risk attributed to the portfolio.

Evolution of Exposure to Risk

VaR Internal Model - Trading Portfolio

Total value at risk at the end of 2010 showed a slight increase compared to 2009, as shown in the table below:

Stress Analysis - Trading Portfolio

In order to estimate possible loss not covered by VaR, we make daily assessments of possible impacts on positions in stress scenarios. Taking into account the effect of diversification across risk factors, the estimated medium possibility of loss in stress situations would be R$ 276 million in December 2010, while estimated maximum loss would be R$ 521 million.

Sensitivity analysis

The Trading portfolio is also monitored by daily sensitivity analysis, which measures the effect of varying market curves and prices on our positions. In addition, we run a quarterly sensitivity analysis of our financial exposure (Trading and Banking portfolios) in compliance with CVM Instruction 475/08. However, note that the impacts of the Banking portfolio's financial exposure (particularly the interest rate and price indices factors) do not necessarily represent potential accounting losses for the Organization. This is because some Banking portfolio loans are financed by sight deposits and/or savings, which are natural hedges against any interest-rate fluctuations; interest-rate fluctuations do not have a material impact on our earnings, since securities are intended to be held to maturity.

The sensitivity analysis shown below applies exclusively to the Trading portfolio and shows exposures that may have significant impacts on the Organization's results. Note that the results show impacts for each scenario in a static portfolio position. Given the dynamic nature of the market, these positions are continuously changing and do not necessarily reflect the position here stated. In addition, as mentioned previously, the Bank is continuously managing market risk, and constantly analyzing the market's dynamism to find ways of mitigating/minimizing associated risks in accordance with strategy determined by senior management. Therefore, in cases of signs of deterioration of a certain position, we take proactive initiatives to minimize possible negative impacts and maximize risk-return ratios for the Organization.

Sensitivity analyses were performed using scenarios prepared for the respective dates, in all cases using market information data for the periods and scenarios that would adversely affect our positions.

Scenario 1: Based on market information as of 12.31.2010 (BM&FBovespa, Anbima, etc.), shocks were applied for a 1 basis point interest rate hike and 1% price variation. For example: in the scenario applied to positions on 12.31.2010 with the dollar at R$ 1.68. For the interest-rate scenario, the one-year fixed rate applied to the positions was 12.05% p.a.

Scenario 2: 25% shocks were determined based on the market data of 12.31.2010. For example: for the scenario applied to positions on 12.31.2010, the dollar was at R$ 2.08. For the interest-rate scenario, the 1-year fixed rate applied to positions was 15.05% p.a. Scenarios for other risk factors also accounts for 25% shocks in their yield curves or prices.

Scenario 3: 50% shocks were determined based on the market data of 12.31.2010. For example: in the scenario applied to positions as of 12.31.2010, the dollar was quoted at R$ 2.49. For the interest-rate scenario, the 1-year fixed rate applied to positions was 18.06% p.a. The scenarios for the other risk factors also accounts for 50% shocks in their yield curves or prices.

5.2 – Description of market risk management policy

a. risks for which hedging is sought

The Treasury Department is the only unit in the organization with a mandate to assume risks in the trading portfolio. In addition, Treasury is responsible for decisions to mitigate risk in the financial conglomerate's commercial portfolio, which involves volatility, currency, liquidity, share price and interest rate risk.

All Organization's exposures to market risk are admitted up to the limits established by the board of directors, which are reviewed at least annually.

b. asset protection strategy (hedging)

The Organization's Treasury has a hedging policy determining that its hedging transactions must necessarily cancel out or mitigate risks of mismatch in quantities, terms, currencies and indexes, and be within the limits of risk exposure approved by the board of directors.

c. instruments used for asset protection (hedging)

Given the characteristics of its business and its international operations, the Organization uses a number of financial instruments for hedging, including trading in securities issued by governments or private companies, as well as exchange-traded or OTC derivatives.

d. Parameters used for managing these risks

Proposed exposure limits are validated by specific business committees and submitted for approval by the Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee, observing the limits set by the board of directors, depending on the objectives of positions, which are divided into the Trading and Banking books.

The Integrated Risk Control Department acts separately from business management to monitor compliance with limits set and produces management reports to control positions that are sent to business areas and Senior Management, in addition to weekly reports and periodic presentations to the Board of Directors.

The following Trading Portfolio limits are monitored:

- ü Risk;
- ü Stress;
- ü Results;
- ü Financial exposure.

The following Banking book limits are monitored:

- ü Interest Rate Risk;
- ü Stock portfolio.

In addition to the above-mentioned limits, there are specific limits for each Treasury Department trader. e. whether issuer trades in financial instruments for purposes other than asset protection (hedging) and what these purposes are

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

As part of its proposal as a financial institution, the Organization meets customer demand for swaps, term and other transactions, as well as proprietary treasury trades within the limits of market risk exposure set by the board of directors. f. organizational structure for controlling risk management

The Organization aims to be aligned with international best practices in the market, local regulations and recommendations of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision. Therefore it applied to the Central Bank of Brazil,

5.2 – Description of market risk management policy

June 30, 2010, for authorization to use its own internal risk models for market risk measurement and capital allocation in compliance with the Bank's requirements and thus with those of the New Basel Capital Accord too.

The Integrated Risk Control Department's mission is to foster and facilitate control of the Organization's risk and capital allocation activities independently, consistently, and transparently on an integrated basis, and it has the responsibility to:

- Propose methods for measuring risks;
- Detect, calculate, and report risks;
- Control calculated risks in relation to limits set;
- Calculate capital allocation;
- Propose and decide policies and revisions, rules and procedures relating to market and liquidity risk management.

Macro-process for market risk management

Market risk is monitored by meetings of the Treasury's executive committees, and Market and Liquidity Risk management departments. In addition, monitoring is also carried out by the Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee, which is also responsible for holding special meetings to review positions and situations in which maximum tolerance to risk exposure may be exceeded, thus prompting the Board to take measures and adopt strategies for validation as required.

The Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee have the following responsibilities:

5.2 – Description of market risk management policy

- ensure compliance with the Organization's risk management policies;
- ensure the efficacy of the risk management process in the ambit of the Organization;
- approve exposure limits for different types of risks in accordance with the overall limit set by the board of directors;
- validate and submit to the board of directors:

I - risk management related policies and guidelines;

II - proposed risk exposure tolerance limits on a global basis, segregated by category; and

III - results of reviews of risk management policies and structures as frequently as regulations require, or more so;

- report to the Board of Directors on risk positions in the ambit of the Organization, as well as any material alterations in relation to strategies adopted, the amount of capital to be allocated and the status of business continuity plans;
- be informed of internal and external audit reports pertaining to risk management and results relating to Independent Model Validation;
- regularly inform the board of directors of the Committee's activities; and
- review and propose to the Board of Directors updates to the Risk Management Executive Committee's rules and regulations when necessary.

Market and Liquidity Risk executive committee has the following responsibilities:

- ensure compliance with the Organization's Risk Management and Market Liquidity policies;
- ensure the efficacy of market and liquidity risk management processes in the ambit of the Organization;
- review and approve market and liquidity risk management related definitions, criteria and tools, as well as measure(s) to be taken in relation to methodologies, mathematical modeling, statistics and econometrics;
- evaluate and submit policy structure, roles, responsibilities and procedures of the dependencies involved in market and liquidity risk management for validation by Bradesco's Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee, as well as reviews conducted annually or more often;
- validate results from backtesting models and other matters deemed pertinent;
- create conditions for reviews by the Independent Models Validation unit and by internal and independent auditors; and
- delegate responsibilities to technical committees involved in market and liquidity risk management.

Finally, the Treasury Executive Committee's responsibilities are:

- reporting and monitoring performance, behavior and risks of different portfolios and benchmarks maintained by the Organization, including liquidity reserves;
- defining Treasury's strategies to optimize results, based on analyzing political-economic scenarios locally and internationally;
- validating proposed risk exposure tolerance limits for Treasury to be submitted for approval by the Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee ;

5.2 – Description of market risk management policy

- validating proposed liquidity policy, which is subject to approval by the Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee;
- holding special meetings to review positions and situations in which risk exposure and tolerance limits are exceeded; and
- discuss and decide in relation to new products traded on financial markets.

g. adequacy of operational structure and internal controls for verifying the effectiveness of policy adopted

The Organization has its specific Internal Controls and Compliance Department (locally DCIC) which is segregated from those running trading business and corporate risk management, and runs a unit focusing on internal controls and compliance. This department also has a unit tasked with independently validating models and gauging the adherence and adequacy of models used for risk management. Additionally, all the Organization's departments and companies have persons responsible for introducing, appraising and deploying controls, and applicable adherence tests.

There is also the General Inspection Department, which is responsible for the Organization's internal auditing.

5.3 – Significant alterations in principal market risks

In relation to risk management policy, an annual review is conducted by the Board of Directors, and it has not been materially altered in the period.

As shown in item 5.1, there were no alterations in means used for mitigating risks, thus upholding the institution's conservative profile. The bank's risk levels have historically been related to the yield curve of both nominal and real interest rates.

5.4 – Other material information

Bradesco forwards daily reports to the Central Bank showing the market risk of its trading portfolio, with its exposures to foreign currency and commodities. In this case, the reported risk is calculated based on the standard model established by the Central Bank and is used to measure the regulatory capital the Organization must hold to support risks involved in its activities. Therefore, like other financial institutions, the Bradesco Organization operates in accordance with Central Bank rules, and its risks are subject to the Basel index, which determines an institution's maximum leverage depending on its reference equity.

6.3 – Brief history

Banco Bradesco S.A. was founded in 1943 as a commercial bank under the name of Banco Brasileiro de Descontos S.A. In 1948, we embarked on a period of intensive growth to become the largest private-sector commercial bank in Brazil by the late 1960s. We expanded our activities all over Brazil in the 1970s, and gained new urban and rural markets.

On 12.29.1988, as authorized by the Central Bank of Brazil, the Company was reorganized as a multiple bank with the incorporation of Bradesco S.A. Crédito Imobiliário, in order to operate commercial and real estate portfolios, and the business name was altered to Bradesco S.A. – Banco Comercial e de Crédito Imobiliário and on 01.13.1989, it was again changed to Banco Bradesco S.A., as the current name of Banco Brasileiro de Descontos S.A.

On 09.25.1989, the company known as Financiadora Bradesco S.A. Crédito, Financiamento e Investimentos altered its business name and its business purpose, which led to the Central Bank of Brazil canceling its authorization to operate as a financial institution, and its Credit, Financing and Investment Portfolio was then constituted.

On 11.04.1992, Banco Bradesco de Investimento S.A. (BBI) was taken over by Bradesco, and the investment portfolio constituted.

We are one of Brazil's largest private-sector banks in terms of total assets. We offer a wide range of banking and financial products and services in Brazil and abroad for individuals, and small and medium businesses in Brazil, major corporate customers, and local and international institutions. Our network of branches and services is more extensive than any other private sector bank in Brazil and serves the entire country, which enables us to cover a diversified customer base. Our products and services include banking transactions such as: making loans and accepting deposits, issuing credit cards, managing groups of consumers buying durables by installment (known locally as "consortiums"), insurance, certificated savings plans with prize draws, leasing, collection and payment processing, private pension plans, asset management, and broker and dealer services for financial securities.

7.1 – Description of the business of the issuer and its subsidiaries

We are currently one of the largest private sector banks (non government controlled) in Brazil in terms of total assets. We offer a wide range of banking and financial products and services in Brazil and abroad to individuals, large, mid sized and small companies and major local and international corporations and institutions. We have the most extensive private sector branch and service network in Brazil, allowing us to reach a diverse client base. Our products and services encompass banking operations such as loans and deposit taking, credit card issuance, purchasing consortiums, insurance, leasing, payment collection and processing, pension plans, asset management and brokerage services.

Bradesco is a multiple service bank in compliance with the terms of Brazilian banking regulations, operating in two main segments: banking and insurance. The banking segment includes a number of areas in the banking sector, serving individual and corporate customers, investment banking activities by national and international banking operations, asset management operations and consortium administration. The insurance segment covers auto, health, life, accident and property insurance and pension plans as well as certificated savings plans.

The retail banking products include demand deposits, savings deposits, time deposits, mutual funds, foreign exchange services and a range of loan operations, including overdrafts, credit cards and loans with repayments in installments. The services provided to corporate customers include fund management and treasury services, foreign exchange operations, corporate finance and investment banking services, hedge and finance operations including working capital financing, leasing and loans with repayments in installments. These services are provided, mainly, in domestic markets, but also include international services on a smaller scale.

The Organization was originally registered with the “BM&FBovespa” (Sao Paulo Stock Exchange) and subsequently with the “NYSE” (New York Stock Exchange).

a. products and services marketed

We operate through two principal operating segments: (i) the banking segment and (ii) the insurance, pension plans and certificated savings plan segment. The following diagram shows the main elements of the business segments:

Banking

Bradesco has a diverse client base that includes individuals and small, mid-sized and large companies in Brazil. Historically, we have cultivated a stronger presence among the broadest segment of the Brazilian market, middle- and low-income individuals.

Bradesco has a segmented customer base and offers the following range of banking products and services in order to meet the needs of each segment:

- deposit-taking, including checking accounts, savings accounts and time deposits;
- loans (individuals and companies, real estate financing, microcredit, onlending BNDES funds, rural credit, leasing, among others);

- credit cards, debit cards and pre-paid cards;
- management of receipts and payments;
- asset management;
- services related to capital markets and investment banking activities;
- intermediation and trading services;
- custody, depositary and controllership services;
- international banking services; and
- purchasing consortiums.

Insurance, private pension plans and certificated savings plans

We offer insurance products through a number of different entities, which we refer to collectively as Grupo Bradesco de Seguros e Previdência. Grupo Bradesco de Seguros e Previdência is the largest insurer group in Brazil by total revenues and technical provisions, according to data published by SUSEP and ANS. The group provides a wide range of insurance products for both individuals and corporate clients. Products include health, life, personal accident, automobile and other assets.

According to the annual publication of Fundacion Mapfre in Spain, Grupo Bradesco de Seguros e Previdência was the largest insurance and pension plan group in Latin America in 2009.

Reasons for issuer not filling out data for FY 2008

Note that issuer accounting data disclosed in item 7.2 refer to the consolidated financial data in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). These consolidated financial statements are covered by First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS 1 R). The statements for the year ended December 31, 2008 were not prepared under the international accounting standard, so we are not including comments or statements on 2008 because they do not enable proper comparison with the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

a) Characteristics of the product process

We present below some characteristics of the main products and services of Banco Bradesco.

Deposit-taking

We offer a variety of deposit products and services to our customers through our branches, including:

- Non-interest bearing checking accounts;
- investment deposit accounts;
- traditional savings accounts, which currently earn the Brazilian reference rate, or taxa referencial, known as the "TR," plus 6.2% annual interest;
- time deposits, which are represented by Bank Deposit Certificates (certificados de depósito bancário - or "CDBs"), and earn interest at a fixed or floating rate; and
- deposits exclusively from financial institutions, which are represented by Interbank Deposit Certificates (certificados de depósito interbancário - or "CDIs"), and earn the interbank deposit rate.

As of December 31, 2010, we had 23.1 million checking account holders, 21.8 million of which were individual account holders and 1.3 million corporate account holders. On the same date, we also had 41.1 million savings accounts and a 14.3% share of the Brazilian savings deposit market, totaling R$192.9 billion (excluding deposits from financial institutions), according to the Central Bank

We offer our clients certain additional special services, such as:

- "identified deposits," which allow our clients to identify deposits made in favor of a third party by using a personal identification number; and
- real-time "banking transfers" from a checking, savings or investment account to another checking, savings or investment account, including accounts at other banks.

Loans and discounted loans

Our loans and discounted loans consist mostly of consumer loans, corporate loans and rural loans.

Consumer loans

Our significant volume of individual loans enables us to reduce the impact of single individual loans on the performance of our portfolio and helps build customer loyalty. They consist primarily of:

- short-term loans, extended through our branches to checking account holders and, within certain limits, through our ATM network. These short-term loans are on average repaid in four months with an average interest rate of 6.8% per month as of December 31, 2010;
- vehicle financings are on average repaid in seventeen months with an average interest rate of 2.5% per month as of December 31, 2010; and
- overdraft loans on checking accounts (which we call "Cheque Especial"), which are on average repaid in one month, at interest rates varying from 7.8% to 8.4% per month as of December 31, 2010.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

We also provide revolving credit facilities and traditional term loans. On the basis of loans outstanding on that date, we had a 12.5% share of the Brazilian consumer loan market, according to information published by the Central Bank.

In April 2008, Banco Finasa S.A. was dissolved by its merger into Banco Finasa BMC S.A. and all of its assets and liabilities were transferred to Banco Finasa BMC S.A. In April, 2008, the merger of Banco Finasa S.A. into Banco Finasa BMC S.A. was approved by the Central Bank.

In 2009 we repositioned the "Finasa" and "BMC" brands as "Bradesco Financiamentos" and "Bradesco Promotora," respectively.

Bradesco Financiamentos, our financing subsidiary, has two business lines:

- providing loans against repayment deducted from paychecks for public employees, INSS retirees and pensioners and private-sector employees. This nationwide retail operation is run through non-bank correspondents. In addition to paycheck loans, these points provide aggregated products such as credit cards, insurance, certificated savings plans, and purchasing consortiums, among others, that are sold in partnership with Bradesco's branch network or directly prospecting new customers; and
- financing and leasing for vehicles with solutions in CDC, leasing and others using own funds or onlending to Bradesco clients and non-clients, working in partnership with 24.195 retailers and dealers across the country in the segments of light vehicles, motorcycles and heavy vehicles.

Real estate financing

As of December 31, 2010, we had 49,402 outstanding real estate loans. We financed 28.7% of the financial sector lending for civil construction in 2010, according to data published by the Central Bank.

Real estate financing is made through the Housing Finance System - SFH (Sistema Financeiro Habitacional), by the Housing Mortgage Portfolio - CHF (Carteira Hipotecária Habitacional) or by the Commercial Mortgage Portfolio - CHC - (Carteira Hipotecária Comercial). Loans from SFH or CHH feature variable-installment repayments and annual interest rates ranging from 7.8% to 11.5% plus TR, or 13.0% from CHC. Loans from SFH with pre-fixed installment repayment are made at annual interest rates of 12.73% for properties valued at no more than R$150,000.

Residential SFH and CHH loans are for repayment within thirty years and commercial loans within ten years.

The individual loans made for construction purposes are repaid within 30 years, with 24 months to finish construction, a 2-month grace period and the remainder for repaying the loan. The annual interest rate on these loans is TR plus 10.5% for the SFH loans, or a fixed 12.7% for homes valued at R$150,000 or less.

We also extend corporate financing for builders under the SFH. These loans are for construction purposes and typically specify 36 months for completion of construction work and repayments starting within 36 months after official registration of the building. These loans are charged the TR plus an annual interest rate of 12% during the construction stage for SFH loans, and TR plus an annual interest rate of 15% for CHH loans.

Central Bank regulations require us to provide real estate financing in the amount of at least 65% of the balance of our savings accounts. In addition to real estate financing, mortgage notes, charged-off real estate financing, and other financings can be used to satisfy this requirement. We generally do not finance more than 80% of the purchase price or the market value of a property, whichever is lower.

Microcredit

We extend microcredit to low-income individuals and small companies, in accordance with Central Bank regulations requiring banks to use 2% of their cash deposits to provide these loans. We started providing microcredit loans in August 2003. As of December 31, 2010, we had 57,737 microcredit loans outstanding.

In accordance with Central Bank regulations, most microcredit loans are charged at a maximum effective interest rate of 2% per month. However, microcredit loans for certain types of business or specific production have a maximum effective interest rate of 4%. The CMN requires that the maximum amount loaned to a borrower be limited to (i) R$2,000 for individuals in general, (ii) R$5,000 for individuals developing certain professional, commercial or industrial activities or for micro companies, and (iii) R$15,000 for microcredit loans in certain segments. In addition, microcredit loans must be not for less than 120 days, and origination fee must be 1% to 5% of the loan value.

BNDES onlending

The Brazilian government has a program to provide government-funded long-term loans with below-market interest rates to sectors of the economy that it has targeted for development. We borrow funds under this program from either (i) BNDES, the federal government's development bank, or (ii) Agência Especial de Financiamento Industrial (Finame), which we call "Finame," the equipment financing subsidiary of BNDES. We then on-lend these funds to borrowers in targeted sectors of the economy. We determine the spread on the loans based on the borrowers' credit. Although we bear the risk for these BNDES and Finame onlending transactions, they are always secured.

According to BNDES, in 2010, we disbursed R$17.4 billion, 57.4% of which was loaned to micro-, small- and medium-sized companies.

Other local commercial loans

We offer a range of loans to our Brazilian corporate clients, including:

- short-term loans of twenty nine days or less;
- working capital loans to cover our customers' cash needs;
- guaranteed checking accounts and corporate overdraft loans;
- discounting trade receivables, promissory notes, checks, credit card and supplier receivables, and a number of other receivables;
- financing for purchase and sale of goods and services;
- corporate real estate financing;
- investment lines for acquisition of assets and machinery; and
- guarantees.

These lending products generally bear an interest rate of 2.0% to 7.5% per month.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

Rural loans

We extend loans to the agricultural sector by financing demand deposits, BNDES onlendings and our own funds, in accordance with Central Bank regulations.

In accordance with Central Bank regulations, loans arising from compulsory deposits are paid a fixed rate. The annual fixed rate was 6.75% as of December 31, 2010. Repayment of these loans generally coincides with agricultural harvest and principal is due when a crop is sold, except BNDES onlending for rural investment which is repaid within a five years with repayments on a semi-annual or annual basis. As security for such loans, we generally obtain a mortgage on the land where the agricultural activities being financed are conducted.

Since July 2010, Central Bank regulations require us to use at least 29% of our checking account deposits to provide loans to the agricultural sector. If we do not reach 29%, we must deposit the unused amount in a non-interest-bearing account with the Central Bank.

Leasing

According to ABEL, as of December 31, 2010, our leasing companies were among the sector leaders, with a 18.9% market share. According to this source, the aggregate discounted present value of the leasing portfolios in the country as of December 31, 2010 was R$86.3 billion.

The Brazilian leasing market is dominated by large banks and both domestic- and foreign-owned companies affiliated with vehicle manufacturers. Brazilian lease contracts generally relate to motor vehicles, computers, industrial machinery and other equipment.

Most of our leases are financial (as opposed to operational). Our leasing operations primarily involve the leasing of cars, trucks, cranes, aircraft and heavy machinery.

We conduct our leasing operations through our primary leasing subsidiary, Bradesco Leasing and also through Bradesco Financiamentos.

We obtain funding for our leasing operations primarily by issuing debentures and other securities in the domestic market.

Credit cards

In 1968, Bradesco was the first bank to issue credit cards in Brazil, and as of December 31, 2010, we were one of Brazil's largest card issuers with a base of 86.5 million credit and private-label cards. We offer Visa, American Express, MasterCard credit and private label cards, which are accepted in over 200 countries.

In April 2010 Bradesco and Banco do Brasil signed a non-binding memorandum of understanding for the preparation of a business model, involving: (i) the integration of part of their card operations and (ii) the launch of a Brazilian brand of credit, debit and pre-paid cards for account holders and non-accountholders. Completion of this deal is subject to technical, legal and financial studies, satisfactory negotiation of final documents and compliance with the applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

Our partnership with American Express Company has enabled us to successfully operate their credit cards and other related activities in Brazil, in particular our exclusive issue of the Centurion line of cards, which includes the Membership Rewards Program, and management of the network of establishments taking Amex Cards.

In addition, through our participation in Fidelity Processadora e Serviços S.A., Bradesco is one of the largest service providers of processing, customer services management and support activities in Brazil.

In June 04, 2010, we completed our acquisition of Ibi México and RFS Human Management in a deal that includes a 20-year partnership with C&A Mexico for exclusive sales of financial products and services in its stores.

Since October 2010, our Visa and MasterCard credit cards have been processed by our subsidiary Fidelity Processadora e Serviços S.A. This was the largest change in credit card processing company in Latin America and was completed very successfully.

This change will be advantageous for our development and maintenance of standard IT systems that can be tailored to specific client needs upon request, more responsive customer service, positive impact on our service network, and more flexibility on launching new products and services, thus boosting our competitiveness in the marketplace.

We earn revenues from our credit card operations through:

- fees on purchases carried out in commercial establishments;
- issuance fees and annual fees;
- interest on credit card balances;
- interest and fees on cash withdrawals through ATMs;
- interest on cash advances to cover future payments owed to establishments that accept credit cards; and
- several fees charged cardholders and affiliated commercial establishments.

We offer our customers the most complete line of credit cards and related services, including:

- cards issued for use restricted to Brazil;
- credit cards accepted nationwide and internationally;
- credit cards for high net worth customers, such as "Gold," "Platinum" and "Infinite/Black" Visa, American Express and MasterCard. Highlights are loyalty programs including the "Membership Rewards Program;"
- cards that combine credit and debit features in a single card, which may be used for traditional banking transactions and shopping;
- to enhance security, we are issuing chip-embedded credit cards for our entire client base, enabling cardholders to use passwords instead of signatures;
- corporate credit cards accepted nationwide and internationally;
- co-branded credit cards, which we offer through partnerships with traditional companies, such as airlines, retail stores, and others;
- "affinity" credit cards, which we offer through civil associations, such as sport clubs and non-governmental organizations;
- "CredMais" credit cards for employees of our payroll processing clients, which have more attractive revolving credit fees, and "CredMais INSS" credit cards for INSS pensioners and other beneficiaries with lower financing interest rates;
- private label credit cards, which exclusively target retail clients to leverage our business and build loyalty which may or may not have a brand for use with our retailers;
- SMS - Bradesco Message Service enables cardholders to have text messages sent to their mobile phone when a transaction with their card is made;

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

- CPB - Bradesco Ticket Card, a virtual card for corporates to manage and control airlines travel expenses;
- "Cartões Transporte Bradesco" - Bradesco's card for transportation companies, shippers, risk management companies and truck drivers, with both prepaid and debit card functionalities;
- "Blue Credit Cards" a modernly designed credit card that offers special benefits for American Express clients with upscale lifestyles;
- "FixCard," with a reduced fee enabling cardholders to plan their monthly repayment;
- Flex Car Visa Vale Card is a prepaid card that offers the client more practical payment options for vehicle related expenses, such as fuel or parking and enables companies to set maximum credit available to each employee;
- payment of invoice in up to 12 fixed installments, with specific charges per type of card;
- Bradesco Unemployment Protection Insurance ("Seguro Proteção Desemprego Bradesco") settles or amortizes the amount due on the participant's credit card in the event of involuntary unemployment (for employed professionals) or permanent or temporary physical disability (for self-employed workers or professionals). Coverage varies by type of plan;
- Bradesco Unauthorized Purchase Protection Insurance ("Seguro Cartão Super Protegido Premiável Bradesco") settles or amortizes the amount due on the participant's credit card, excluding cash withdrawals, resulting from the card's loss, robbery or theft. Protection covers a 7-consecutive-day period (168 hours) prior to the notification of the event, up to the credit card limit, with a ceiling of R$50,000;
- "Purchase with Change" is a service provided by Bradesco, Banco do Brasil and Banco Real, which enables clients to ask for cash back purchasing with the card;
- "Contactless" branded cards (pilot) enable clients to simply place the card next a scanner to make a payment;
- "Bradesco Corporate Checking Account Card" does checking account transactions and is ideal for small everyday expenses, with advanced technology making company business more convenient, faster and more secure; and
- "Gold Cards" with differentiated services in line with Bradesco's customer segmentation strategy, offering competitive products that provide profitability for the Bank and benefits for clients.

In 1993, we launched the SOS Mata Atlântica card, which allocates a portion of its revenues to environmental causes. In 2008, we launched the Amazonas Sustentável credit card, the first credit card made of recycled plastic, and part of its revenues will be transferred to Fundação Amazonas Sustentável.

As of December 31, 2010, we had more than 78 partners with whom we offered co-branded, affinity and private label/hybrid credit cards. These relationships have allowed us to integrate our relationships with our clients and offer our credit card customers banking products, such as financing and insurance.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

The following table shows the number of credit and debit cards issued for the years indicated:

	(In millions)
Card base:
Credit	86.5	79.6	35.3
Debit	58.7	53.3	48.0
Total	145.2	132.9	83.3

Credit	75,561	55,294	46,704
Number of transactions:
Credit	959,1	722,6	607,4

Debit cards

We first issued debit cards in 1981 under the name "Bradesco Instantâneo." In 1999, we started converting all of our Bradesco Instantâneo debit cards into new cards called "Bradesco Visa Electron." Bradesco debit cardholders may use them to purchase goods and services at establishments or make withdrawals through our self-service network in Brazil or the "Plus" network worldwide. Purchase amounts are debited to the cardholder's Bradesco account, thus eliminating the inconvenience and bureaucracy of writing checks.

Prepaid cards

In January 2011, Bradesco concluded acquisition of part of CBSS's shares owned by Santander in July 2010, thus increasing Bradesco's ownership interest in CBSS to 50.1%.

Management of receipts and payments

In order to meet the cash management needs of our clients in both public and private sectors, we offer many electronic solutions for receipt and payment management, supported by a vast network of branches, banking correspondents and electronic channels, all of which aim to improve speed and security for client data and transactions.

These solutions include: (i) collection and payment services and (ii) online resource management enabling our clients to pay suppliers, salaries, and taxes and other levies to governmental or public entities.

These solutions, which can also be customized, facilitate our clients' day-to-day tasks and help to generate more business for the Bank.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

We also earn revenues from fees and investments related to collection and payment processing services.

Global cash management

The global cash management concept provides solutions for multinationals in Brazil and/or domestic companies operating abroad.

Bradesco's Global Cash Management provides payments, receipts and treasury management services for companies to centralize cash regionally or globally through partnerships with banks worldwide.

Solutions for collection and other receipts

In 2010, we processed 1,047.6 million receipts through our collection system, checks custody service, identified deposits and credit orders via our teleprocessing system (credit order by teleprocessing or OCT), which was 19.9% more than in the same period of 2009.

Tax collection solutions

In 2010, we processed payments of 459.7 million documents related to taxes and other amounts due to governmental, public and private entities, which was 11.1% more than in the same period of 2009.

Check-custody services

Under the post-dated check system, our clients pay for goods and services by writing checks payable at a future date. Sellers deposit the post-dated check on the future date, effectively postponing payment date. We hold such checks in custody for our clients to facilitate control of the document in the period from writing the check to the day it is deposited in the recipient's account.

Solutions for payment of suppliers, salaries and taxes

Our volume of electronically processed transactions in 2010 was 337.8 million, an increase of 31.6% on the same period of 2009.

Production chain solutions

In the current market, we believe companies operating in the same segment must act together to ensure better results. In this context, we have acted as a "Production Chain Bank" for all stages of the production process, posing solutions, products, services and partnerships to cater for all members of the production chain, whether they are suppliers, distributors, clients, or collaborators.

Public authority solutions

Public administration also requires agility and technology in its everyday activities. We have a business area specifically to serve this market, which offers specialized services to entities and bodies of the Executive, Legislative and Judiciary branches at federal, state and municipal levels, in addition to independent governmental agencies, public foundations, state-owned and mixed companies, the armed forces (army, navy and air force) and the auxiliary forces (federal and state police forces) and notary officers and registrars, identifying business opportunities and structuring customized solutions.

Our exclusive website developed for these clients poses corporate solutions for federal, state and municipal governments for payments, receipts, human resources and treasury services, meeting the needs and expectations of the Executive, Legislative and Judiciary branches. The portal also features exclusive facilities for public employees and the military showing all of our products and services for these clients.

The relationship works through exclusive service platforms located nationwide, with specialized relationship managers to provide services to these clients, creating a closer relationship to conquer new business and establishing a consolidated presence with Public Authorities.

In 2010, we participated in 61 public auctions across Brazil to provide payroll bank account services for government employees and were successful in 52, representing 293,596 new payroll bank accounts. As of December 2010, we processed over 1.5 million payroll payments totaling R$2.9 billion for public-sector bodies or entities.

Asset management

We manage third-party assets through:

- mutual funds;
- individual and corporate investment portfolios;
- pension funds, including assets guaranteeing the technical reserves of Bradesco Vida e Previdência;
- insurance companies, including assets guaranteeing the technical reserves of Bradesco Seguros; and
- Receivable funds (FIDCs), real estate and private equity funds (FIPs).

As of December 31, 2010, we had R$295.7 billion in assets under management, of which R$202.2 billion were managed by Bradesco Asset Management and R$93.5 billion related to the fiduciary administration, custody and controllership services provided separately by the brokerage BEM Distribuidora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários Ltda., which we call "BEM DTVM."

In the same period we offered 1,146 funds and 221 managed portfolios to 3.1 million investors. We also offer a range of fixed income, equity, money market and other funds. Currently we do not offer investments in highly leveraged funds.

Total assets in our investment funds grew 19.5% in 2010, mainly as a result of larger third-party investments in our fixed income investment funds, which have lower management fees than equity funds.

Our products are distributed through our branch network, our telephone banking services and our internet site ShopInvest.

Services related to capital markets and investment banking activities

As our investment bank, Bradesco BBI's business includes trading in equities and fixed-income assets, structured finance, mergers and acquisitions, project finance and private equity. BBI also manages trading for our brokerage and asset management firms Bradesco Corretora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários, Ágora Corretora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários, BRAM - Bradesco Asset Management, and Bradesco Securities Inc.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

In 2010, we coordinated placements worth R$144.8 billion for primary and secondary offerings of shares and debt instruments, accounting for 80.5% of the year's CVM-registered issues.

Equities

Bradesco BBI coordinates and places public offerings of shares in the local and international capital markets, and intermediates public tender offers. In 2010, Bradesco BBI acted as lead coordinator for Petrobras in the world's largest ever IPO of common and preferred shares raising R$120 billion, which resources were used in the acquisition of reserves located in the pre-salt and also in the investment plan for the coming years.

Bradesco BBI was one of the main players in IPOs and follow-ons that went to the market in 2010. Of 22 CVM-registered IPOs in the period, Bradesco BBI acted as coordinator and joint book runner for 8 offerings worth a total of R$128.2 billion and ended the year 2010 placed third in ANBIMA's consolidated distribution ranking for equities. In addition, Bradesco BBI acted as one of the underwriters for the General Motors US$ 23 billion primary public offering, the largest ever in the United States of America.

Fixed income

Several major deals were successfully closed in 2010 and BBI ended the year taking first place in ANBIMA's ranking for fixed-income origination with a combined total of over R$18 billion volume and a 24.3% market share.

In addition to the local market, BBI also operates in the international capital markets, originating and structuring debt transactions (notes or bonds) for placement with foreign investors. In the fourth quarter of 2010, BBI was placed eighth by total issues in ANBIMA's ranking of issues on international capital markets published in December 2010.

Structured operations

Bradesco BBI offers various funding solutions to clients through diverse financial instruments, including securitization.

ANBIMA rankings published in December 2010 placed BBI first by number of deals involving securitization and real-estate receivables certificates (ANBIMA's Origination Ranking).

Mergers and acquisitions

Bradesco BBI acts as advisor to important clients for mergers, acquisitions, asset sale, joint ventures, corporate restructuring and privatization. It is one of the leading investment banks in Brazil and the second largest in mergers and acquisitions ranked by number of transactions (as announced in September 2010).

Project finance

Bradesco BBI has a sound record of acting as an advisor and arranging structured finance for several project finance and corporate finance deals, and in all cases pursues the best solutions for all different sectors of the economy. We believe it has excellent relationships with various development agencies such as BNDES, Banco Interamericano de Desenvolvimento (BID), the International Finance Corporation (IFC) and Banco do Nordeste do Brasil (BNB).

Among the operations completed in 2010, a highlight was BBI's role as financial adviser to LLX Logística S.A. ("LLX"), which successfully obtained R$1.2 billion in long-term BNDES finance for a new port project in the southeast of Brazil (Superporto Sudeste).

Intermediation and trading services

Through our wholly owned subsidiary Bradesco S.A. Corretora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários, to be referred to as "Bradesco Corretora," we trade futures, options and corporate and Brazilian government securities on behalf of our customers. The clients of Bradesco Corretora include high net worth individuals, large companies and institutional investors.

In 2010, Bradesco Corretora traded more than R$87.184 billion in the BM&FBovespa equities market and the exchange ranked us thirteenth in Brazil in terms of total trading volume.

In addition, in the same period, Bradesco Corretora traded 9,862,475 futures, swaps and options totaling R$853.6 billion, on the BM&FBovespa. According to the BM&FBovespa, in 2010, Bradesco Corretora was ranked 20th in the Brazilian market, in terms of the number of options, futures and swaps contracts executed.

With more than 45 years of tradition and efficiency in capital markets, Bradesco Corretora was the first brokerage firm to provide its clients with DMA-Direct Market Access, an innovative computer order routing service enabling investors to buy or sell assets directly in BM&FBovespa's market.

BM&FBovespa, through its Operational Qualification Program, awarded the 5 Qualification Seals (Agro Broker, Carrying Broker, Execution Broker, Retail Broker and Web Broker) to Bradesco Corretora in September 2009, indicating excellence in futures transactions.

Bradesco Corretora has 117 traders for retail investors and assisting our branch managers, 14 for Brazilian and foreign institutional investors, and 13 for BM&FBovespa.

Bradesco Corretora offers its clients the ability to trade securities on the Internet through its "Home Broker" service. In 2010, "Home Broker" trading totaled R$17.9 billion, or 3.9% of all Internet transactions on BM&FBovespa, and Bradesco Corretora was the 8th largest Internet trader in the Brazilian market.

Bradesco Corretora offers its clients full service investment analysis with coverage of the main sectors and companies in the Brazilian market, currently more than 100 companies. There are twenty industry specialists (senior analysts and assistants) on our analyst team reporting to clients with follow-up reports and share guides with an extensive database of projections and comparative multiples. In addition to analysis from our team of economists, Bradesco Corretora has a separate economic team catering to specific demand from its clients, focusing on the stock market.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

Through our "Share Rooms Project", clients have access to professionals able to advise on investing on the BM&FBovespa. Our constantly-expanding network of share rooms currently consists of 21 share rooms located throughout Brazil. This means that Bradesco Corretora provides direct customer service and closer relations with clients, training and certifying employees for a range of operations, including structured operations, and attracting new clients. This channel is very profitable and enjoys a high-level of take-up from investors, making for closer relations with our network of branches as loyal clients concentrate their funds with us. We expect to have 28 share rooms in strategic locations around Brazil by the end of 2011 and 34 by the end of 2012.

We also offer a "Direct Treasury Program" enabling individual clients to invest in federal government bonds on the Internet by registering with Bradesco Corretora on our website.

Bradesco Corretora also offers its services as a representative of non-resident investors for transactions in the financial and capital markets, in accordance with CMN Resolution No. 2,689, which we refer to as "Resolution 2,689."

Custody, depositary and controllership services

In 2010, we were one of the main providers of capital market services and retained leadership in the domestic asset custody market, according to the ANBIMA ranking. Our modern infrastructure and specialized team offer a broad range of services such as: asset registration (shares, BDR - Brazilian Depositary Receipts, investment fund shares, Certificates of Real Estate Receivables or CRIs, and debentures); qualified custody for securities; custody of shares underlying Depositary Receipts (DRs); controllership services for investment funds ("CVM Instruction No. 409" Funds and Structured Funds) and managed portfolios; trustee and management services for investment funds; offshore funds; custody and representation for foreign investors; agent bank; depositary (escrow account - trustee) and clearing agent.

We submit our processes to the Quality Management System ISO 9001:2008 and GoodPriv@cy certifications. Bradesco Custódia alone has 10 quality related and 3 protection and data privacy certifications.

As of December 31, 2010, Bradesco Custódia offered:

● Controller and custody services for investment funds and managed portfolios and fiduciary asset management

- Ø R$ 728.7 billion in assets under custody for clients using custody services, as measured by methodology used for the ANBIMA ranking;
- Ø R$ 818.6 billion in equity investment funds and portfolios using our controller services, as measured by methodology used for the ANBIMA ranking;
- Ø 21 registered DR programs with a market value of R$120.7 billion;
- Ø R$153.9 billion total assets under management in investment funds through BEM DTVM Ltda.

● Asset registration:

- Ø Bradesco's share registration system comprised 233 companies, with a total of 8.5 million shareholders;
- Ø our debenture registration system contained 150 companies with a total market value of R$ 161.9 billion;
- Ø our fund share registration system contained 153 investment funds with a market value of R$ 20.7 billion; and we managed three registered BDR programs, with a market value of R$448.9 million.

International banking services

As a private commercial bank, we offer a range of international services, such as foreign exchange transactions, foreign trade finance, lines of credit and banking. Our overseas network:

- New York City, a branch and Bradesco Securities Inc., our subsidiary brokerage firm, which we call "Bradesco Securities U.S.;"
- London, Bradesco Securities U.K., our subsidiary, which we call "Bradesco U.K.;"
- Cayman Islands, 2 Bradesco branches and our subsidiary, Cidade Capital Markets Ltd., which we call "Cidade Capital Markets;"
- Argentina, Banco Bradesco Argentina S.A., our subsidiary, which we call "Bradesco Argentina;"
- Luxembourg, Banco Bradesco Luxembourg S.A., our subsidiary, which we call "Bradesco Luxembourg;"
- Japan, Bradesco Services Co. Ltd., our subsidiary, which we call "Bradesco Services Japan;"
- in Hong Kong, our subsidiary Bradesco Trade Services Ltd; and
- in Mexico, our subsidiary Ibi Services, Sociedad de Responsabilidad Limitada.

Our Bradesco Nassau branch in the Bahamas closed on January 11, 2011.

Our international transactions are coordinated by our foreign exchange department in Brazil with support from 12 operational units, and 14 foreign exchange platforms located in major exporting and importing areas nationwide.

Foreign branches and subsidiaries

Our foreign branches and subsidiaries are principally engaged in trade finance for Brazilian companies. Bradesco Europe also provides additional services to the private banking segment. With the exception of Bradesco Services Japan and Bradesco Trade Services, our branches abroad are allowed to receive deposits in foreign currency from corporate and individual clients and extend financing to Brazilian and non-Brazilian clients.

Funding for import and export finance is obtained from the international financial community by means of credit lines granted by correspondent banks abroad. In addition to this traditional source of correspondent banks, our funding from public and private issues of debt securities on international capital markets amounted to US$3.4 billion during 2010.

Bradesco Argentina. To expand our operations in Latin America, in December 1999, we established our subsidiary in Argentina, Bradesco Argentina, the general purpose of which is to extend financing, largely to Brazilian companies established locally and, to a lesser extent, to Argentinean companies doing business with Brazil. In order to start its operations, we capitalized Bradesco Argentina with R$54.0 million from March 1998 to February 1999, and a further R$27.2 million in May 2007.

Bradesco Europe (current business name). In April 2002, we acquired full control of Banque Banespa International S.A. in Luxembourg and changed its name to Banco Bradesco Luxembourg S.A. In September 2003, Mercantil

Luxembourg was merged into Banco Bradesco Luxembourg and the surviving entity was named Banco Bradesco Luxembourg.

Bradesco Services Japan. In October 2001, we incorporated Bradesco Services Japan to provide support and specialized services to the Brazilian community in Japan, including remittances to Brazil and advice regarding investments within Brazil.

Bradesco Trade Services. A non-financial institution and a subsidiary of our branch in the Cayman Islands, which we incorporated in Hong Kong in January 2007, in partnership with the Standard Chartered Bank.

Bradesco Securities (U.S. and U.K.) - Bradesco Securities, our wholly owned subsidiary, is a broker/dealer in the United States and England.

- The focus of Bradesco Securities U.S. is on facilitating the purchase and sale of shares, primarily in the form of ADRs. It is also authorized to deal bonds, commercial paper and deposit certificates, among other securities, and may provide investment advisory services. Currently, we have more than thirty ADR programs for Brazilian companies traded on the New York Stock Exchange; and
- Bradesco Securities U.K.'s focus is intermediating equity and fixed income trades of Brazilian companies for global institutional investors.

Cidade Capital Markets. In February 2002, through BCN, Bradesco acquired Cidade Capital Markets in Grand Cayman, as part of the acquisition of its parent company in Brazil, Banco Cidade.

Banking operations in the United States

In January 2004, the United States Federal Reserve Bank authorized us to operate as a financial holding company in the United States. As a result, we may do business in the United States directly or through a subsidiary, and, among other lines, may sell insurance and certificates of deposit, provide underwriting services, act as advisors for private placements, provide portfolio management and merchant banking services and manage mutual fund portfolios.

Import and export finance

Our Brazilian foreign-trade related business basically consists of export and import finance.

We provide foreign currency payments directly to foreign exporters on behalf of Brazilian importers, attached to receipt of local currency payment by the importers. Exporters are paid advances in local currency on closing an export forex contract for future receipt of the foreign currency on the contract due date. Export finance arrangements prior to shipment of goods are known locally as Advances on Exchange Contracts or "ACCs," and the sums advanced are used to manufacture goods or provide services for export. If advances are paid after goods or services have been delivered, they are referred to as Advances on Export Contracts, or "ACEs."

Other types of export finance include: export prepayment, onlending of funds from BNDES-EXIM, forfeiting through export credit notes and bills (referred to locally as "NCEs" and "CCEs").

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

Our foreign trade portfolio is funded primarily by credit lines from correspondent banks. We maintain relations with various American, European, Asian and Latin American financial institutions for this purpose, using our network of approximately 1,000 correspondent banks abroad, 82 of which extended lines of credit at the end of 2010.

Foreign exchange products

In addition to import and export finance, our clients have access to a range of services and foreign exchange products such as:

- purchasing and selling travelers checks and foreign currency paper money;
- cross border money transfers;
- advance payment for exports;
- accounts abroad in foreign currency;
- domestic currency accounts for foreign domiciled clients;
- cash holding in other countries;
- collecting import and export receivables;
- cashing checks denominated in foreign currency; and
- structured foreign currency transactions through our foreign units.

Purchasing consortiums

In Brazil, persons or entities that wish to acquire certain goods may set up a group known as a "Consortium," in which members pool their resources to assist each other with the purchase of certain consumer goods. The purpose of a consortium is to acquire goods, and Brazilian law forbids the formation of consortiums for investment purposes.

In January 2003, our subsidiary Bradesco Consórcios initiated the sale of consortium memberships, known as "quotas," to our clients. Since May 2004, Bradesco Consórcios has been the leader in the real estate segment and, since December 2004, it has also been the leader in the vehicle segment. In October 2008, Bradesco Consórcios became leader in the truck/tractor segment. As of December 31, 2010, Bradesco Consórcios registered total sales of over 471,620 active quotas in the three segments, with total revenues of approximately R$22.3 billion and net income of R$253.4 million. Our purchasing consortium company (Bradesco Consórcios) manages plans for groups of purchasers buying real estate, automobiles, and trucks/tractors.

Life and personal accident insurance

We offer life, personal accident and random events insurance through our subsidiary Bradesco Vida e Previdência. As of December 31, 2010 Bradesco Seguros had 20 million life insurance policyholders.

Health insurance

The health insurance policies cover medical/hospital expenses. We offer health insurance policies through Bradesco Saúde and its subsidiaries for small, medium or large companies wishing to provide benefits for their staff.

On December 31, 2010, Bradesco Saúde and its subsidiary Mediservice Administradora de Planos de Saúde S.A had more than 3.1 million beneficiaries covered by company plans and individual/family plans. Approximately 32,000 companies in Brazil pay into plans provided by Bradesco Saúde and its subsidiaries, including 42 of the top 100.

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

Bradesco Saúde currently has one of the largest networks of providers of health services in Brazil. As of December 31, 2010, it included 10,530 laboratories, 12,398 specialized clinics, 16,787 physicians, 3,277 hospitals located throughout the country.

Automobiles, property/casualty and liability insurance

We provide automobile, property/casualty and liability products through our subsidiary Bradesco Auto/RE. Our automobile insurance covers losses arising from vehicle theft and damage passenger and third-party injury. Retail property/casualty insurance is for individuals, particularly those with residential and/or equipment related risks and small- and medium-sized companies whose assets are covered by multi-risk business insurance.

Of the mass property/casualty lines for individuals, our residential note ("Bilhete Residencial") is a relatively affordable and highly profitable product. For corporate clients, Bradesco Auto/RE offers Bradesco Seguro Empresarial (business insurance), which is adapted to meet our clients' and business needs. For corporate property/casualty and liability insurance, Bradesco Auto/RE has an exclusive highly specialized team that provides large business groups with services and products tailor-made to the specific needs of each policyholder. Top sellers in this segment are insurance policies for transportation, engineering and operational and oil risks.

As of December 31, 2010, Bradesco Auto/RE had 1.5 million insured automobiles and 1.8 million property/casualty policies and notes, making it one of Brazil's main insurers.

Pension plans

We have managed individual and corporate pension plans since 1981 through our wholly owned subsidiary Bradesco Vida e Previdência, which is now the leading pension plan manager in Brazil, as measured by pension plan contributions, investment portfolio and technical provisions, based on information published by Fenaprevi and SUSEP.

Bradesco Vida e Previdência offers and manages a range of individual and group pension plans. Our largest individual plans in terms of contributions known as VGBL and PGBL are exempted from withholding taxes on income generated by the fund portfolio.

Under VGBL and PGBL plans, participants are allowed to make contributions either in installments or in lump-sum payments. Participants in pension plans may deduct the amounts contributed to PGBL up to 12% of the participant's taxable income when making their annual tax declaration. Under current legislation, redemptions and benefits are subject to withholding tax. VGBL plan participants may not deduct their contributions when declaring income tax. At the time of redemption, or when benefits are paid out, tax will be levied on these benefits, pursuant to current legislation.

VGBL and PGBL plans, and individual retirement fund plans (referred to as "FAPI") may be acquired by companies in Brazil for the benefit of their employees.

Bradesco Vida e Previdência also offers pension plans for corporate customers that are in most cases negotiated and adapted to specific needs of the corporate customer.

Certificated savings plans

Bradesco Capitalização offers its clients certificated savings plans with the option of a lump-sum or monthly contributions. Plans vary in value (from R$8 to R$20,000), form of payment, contribution period, and periodicity of draws for cash prizes of up to R$2 million (gross premiums). Clients' contributions earn interest at a rate of TR plus 0.5% per month over the value of the mathematical provision. Certificated savings plans may be redeemed after a 12-month grace period. As of December 31, 2010, we had around 5.7 million "traditional" certificated savings plans and around 11.7 million incentive certificated savings plans. Given that the purpose of the incentive certificated savings plans is to add value to the products of a partner company or even to provide an incentive for its customer to avoid delinquency, the plans are for short terms and grace periods with low unit sales value. As of December 31, 2010, Bradesco Capitalização had approximately 17.4 million certificated savings plans and 2.7 million clients.

Treasury activities

Our treasury departments trading includes derivative transactions, mainly for economic hedging purposes (known as "macro-hedge"). These transactions comply with limits set by our Senior Management and guidelines from our risk management unit using value-at-risk ("VaR") methodology.

Processing systems

The Organization's data processing and communication systems are located in Cidade de Deus in a building called the Information Technology Center (CTI). This 11,900 square meter facility was built especially to house our IT infrastructure, and has all the requirements for class-4 certification from Uptime Institute, which ensures 99.995% availability.

Data is continuously replicated in a Processing Center located at Alphaville, in the city of Barueri, featuring equipment with enough capacity to take over the main system's activities in case of a problem at our Technology Center (CTI). All the branches and ATMs have telecommunications services that work with either of the two processing centers. We hold annual exercises simulating situations in which our IT center is impeded in order to ensure that we have effective contingency structures, processes and procedures in place. These exercises involve our business managers and are monitored by independent auditors. In addition, all backup copies of electronic files stored and maintained at our IT center in the Alphaville Processing Center are saved and second copies maintained.

Alphaville's IT infrastructure also houses all activities for developing application systems.

If the public energy supply is interrupted, both centers have sufficient capacity to operate independently for 72 hours non-stop.

The IT structure is backed by processes implemented in light of the ITIL (IT Infrastructure Library) reference and applies recognized practices for IT service management.

b) Characteristics of the distribution process

Distribution channels

We have the largest private-sector banking network in Brazil. In 2010, we opened 174 new branches. Our branch network is complemented by other distribution channels such as ATMs, telephone banking services, and Internet and mobile banking. In introducing new distribution systems, we have focused on enhancing our security as well as increasing efficiency.

Other distribution channels

Our clients have easy access to their account details, to make financial transactions or acquire products and services through self-service channels, Fone Fácil (Easy Phone), Internet and Bradesco Celular.

People with disabilities may rely on internet banking services for the visually impaired; personalized service for the hearing impaired using digital language on Fone Fácil, and access to the ATM self-service network for visually impaired persons and wheelchair users.

Self-service network

As of December 31, 2010, our self-service network had 32,015 ATMs for the exclusive use of Bradesco clients, strategically distributed across Brazil to provide quick and convenient access to a wide range of products and services. Additionally, our clients may use 11,057 shared machines and Banco24Horas pools facilities with Bradesco, Banco do Brasil and Banco Santander, which provides transactions such as cash withdrawals, statements, balance status queries, loans, payments and transfers, among others.

Bradesco's self-service network and Banco24horas ATMs executed 2.0 billion transactions in 2010.

Bradesco led banks in Brazil in the use of biometric reading systems. Our system is known as "Bradesco security in the palm of your hand" and it can identify clients by scanning their hand's vascular pattern as a supplementary password for ATM users. This technology is available on 18,176 machines and has been used 105.9 million times as of December 2010.

Telephone services - Fone Fácil

"Fone Fácil Bradesco" provides 24-7 telephone numbers for clients to access their accounts conveniently, quickly and securely using personalized electronic to obtain information, complete transactions and acquire products and services related to checking and savings accounts, credit cards and other products available on this channel.

Clients may access several call centers using different numbers. Our main call centers are known as (translated): Internet Banking, Company Network, Purchasing Consortium, Private Pension Plan, Bradesco Financing, Collection and Hello Bradesco.

Hearing impaired clients have separate telephone services using digital language technology so they can inquire about products and services provided by Bradesco.

In 2010, 332.9 million calls were registered, and 331.8 million transactions completed.

Internet

"Portal Bradesco" consists of a set of 80 sites, of which 57 are institutional and 23 transactional, enabling users, wherever they are located, to access various products and services with security assured by our system of passwords and other keys. The sites hosted 2.4 billion transactions in 2010.

"Bradesco Internet Banking" operates in the retail and prime segments, providing individual clients with products and services that can be accessed at any time from anywhere in the world. Internet banking allows our clients to check their account balances and statements, pay bills, transfer funds and request copies of document, among other services.

In addition, we offer our corporate customers in the retail, middle market and corporate segments the "Bradesco Net Empresa" service. For their banking transactions, customers use a digital certificate with an electronic signature and the Bradesco Safety Key. Registered companies can thus optimize their businesses' financial management, and access products and services such as transfers between checking and savings accounts, payments, collection and transferring files.

Bradesco also has exclusive sites for certain niches such as: Bradesco Universitários (students), Bradesco Nikkei (Brazilians working in Japan), Bradesco Poder Público (government) and Cidadetran, an exclusive site for offices facilitating vehicle documentation and for driving schools.

Bradesco Celular

Clients may use mobile phones to obtain the balance of their account, get statements, make payments, buy prepaid mobile phone credits, transfer money, apply for loans, obtain share quotations and track buy and sell orders, among other transactions, conveniently and securely. Our website www.bradescocelular.com.br carries detailed information about the channel's products and services.

In addition, "Bradesco Celular" enables customers to reload credits for prepaid cell phones from the phone itself, even if it has no credit.

Using Infocelular, registered clients with mobile phones may be sent SMS messages relating to various types of banking transactions on their account quickly and securely, sorting by period and amount.

This channel was used to complete 32.5 million transactions in 2010.

Mail services

In August 2001 we won a public bidding process held by the government owned postal service company Empresa Brasileira de Correios e Telégrafos (or ECT) to offer banking services in post offices as part of a project in which the nationwide network of post offices will be used to supplement the national financial system.

Services offered include forwarding applications for opening new accounts, credit cards and loans, making deposits and withdrawals, receiving utility bills, taxes and bank invoice/pay-in slips etc. All decisions on credit and opening accounts are the responsibility of Bradesco.

In March 2002, we opened our first branch in the state of Minas Gerais. As of December 31, 2010 we had opened 6,203 correspondent branches. Of the 6,203 correspondent branches, around 1,800 were opened in areas previously lacked access to banking services.

These clients are subject to our credit policy and limits.

Banking units in retail chains

We have also entered into partnership agreements with retail chains, supermarkets, drug stores, grocery stores, etc., to provide correspondent banking services (mostly to pay bills, withdraw cash from checking and savings accounts, and receive pension payments). These offices are staffed by employees of our business partners, but all credit decisions are made by our employees.

As of December 31, 2010, according to the sources cited in parentheses below, we were:

- one of the leaders among private-sector banks in savings deposits, with 14.3% of savings deposits in Brazil ("Central Bank");
- the largest provider of insurance, private pension plans and certificated savings plans in Brazil ("SUSEP" and "ANS");
- the leader of the large banks in BNDES onlending special purpose funding to micro-, small- and medium-sized companies for the 9th consecutive year, with 57.4% of all loans being disbursed by us and having a presence in 93.6% of operations targeted at micro, small and medium-sized companies ("BNDES");
- one of the leaders in leasing operations in Brazil ("ABEL");
- one of the largest private-sector fund and portfolio managers in Brazil, with R$295.7 billion in total third-party assets under management, representing over 18% of the total Brazilian market ("ANBIMA");
- one of the largest credit card issuers in Brazil, with 86.5 million credit cards issued (Visa, American Express, MasterCard and private label cards) with sales on credit cards and private label of R$75.6 billion (Bradesco, Fidelity, Leader, American Express, Esplanada, Crediare and GBarbosa);
- one of the largest debit card issuers in Brazil, with 58.7 million debit cards issued;
- the leader in bank payment processing and collection in Brazil, with a market share of 26.7% ("Central Bank");
- the leader among private banks in number of client registrations in the Pre-Authorized Direct Debit (DDA) program, with over 2.0 million registered clients;
- the leader in active purchasing consortium quotas in the following three segments: real estate, automobile and trucks and tractors ("Central Bank");
- one of the leaders in automobile financing loans, with a market share of 17.4% ("Central Bank"); and
- the leading private-sector bank in benefit payments from the Social Security Institute (Instituto Nacional do Seguro Social, or INSS), with over 6 million "INSS" retirees, beneficiaries and other pensioners, accounting for 22.0% of the total number of INSS beneficiaries.

ii) Competitive conditions in markets

We face significant competition in all of our principal areas of operation, since the Brazilian financial and banking services market are highly competitive and have been through an intensive consolidation process in the past few years.

In 2009, Banco do Brasil concluded its acquisition of shareholder control of Banco Nossa Caixa, which belonged to the São Paulo State government, and entered into a strategic partnership through which it became the holder of 49.9% of voting capital and 50.0% of total Capital Stock of Banco Votorantim, thus again becoming the largest Brazilian bank in terms of total assets.

In 2008, there were two large mergers and acquisitions in the Brazilian market:

- Banco Santander's acquisition of the ABN AMRO Real conglomerate's Brazilian operations, making Santander the third largest private bank in Brazil; and
- The merger of Banco Itaú and Unibanco, resulting in the second largest Brazilian bank in terms of assets.

As of December 31, 2010, publicly owned financial institutions held 41.5% of the national financial system's assets, followed by private sector locally owned financial institutions (taking into consideration financial conglomerates) with a 40.7% share and foreign-controlled financial institutions, with a 17.8% share.

Public-sector financial institutions play an important role in the banking sector in Brazil. Essentially, they operate within the same legal and regulatory framework as private-sector financial institutions, except that certain banking transactions involving public entities must be made exclusively through public-sector financial institutions (including, but not limited to, depositing federal government funds or judicial deposits).

As of December 31, 2010, there were 165 financial conglomerates comprised of multiple-service and commercial banks (including Caixa Econômica Federal), providing a full range of commercial banking activities, such as consumer finance, investment banking, brokerage services, leasing, savings and loans and other financial services in Brazil. For further information on risks related to competition, see "Item 3.D. Risk Factors-Risks Relating to Bradesco and the Brazilian banking industry - The increasingly competitive environment in the banking and insurance segments in Brazil may negatively affect the prospects of our business."

The Brazilian credit card market is highly competitive, with approximately 153 million credit cards issued as of December 31, 2010, according to ABECS. Our primary competitors are Banco do Brasil, Banco Itaú Unibanco, Citibank and Santander. Management believes that the primary competitive factors in this area are interest rates, annual fees, card distribution network and benefits offered.

Credit cards have a competitor in the form of post-dated checks, a popular means of postponing payment in Brazil in which customers pay for merchandise and services with future dated bank checks, in effect allowing payment by installments over a longer term. Because of their convenience and growing acceptance, we believe credit cards will gradually replace post-dated checks.

In general, the Brazilian leasing market is dominated by companies affiliated with vehicle and equipment producers and large banks. We currently enjoy certain competitive advantages, as we have a larger service network than any of our private sector competitors.

Brazil's asset management industry ended 2010 with R$1.7 trillion under management, thus showing nominal growth of 16.8% on 2009. The variation was mainly due to:

- a significant net inflow of R$25.6 billion into multimarket funds and R$38.0 billion in fixed-income funds;
- year-round growth in funding for open pension plans, which closed 2010 with a positive balance of R$19.2 billion; and

- consolidation of the structured investment funds market, such as receivables funds (FIDCS), private equity and real estate funds.

Version: 1

7.3 – Information on products and services relating to the operational segments

By end-2010, the funds industry was at its highest level in volume terms since the 2008 financial crisis. However, in terms of funding, corporate and institutional client segments were showing the highest growth, whereas the retail segment has been redeeming more in recent years and funds have been lost to other types of investments such as bank deposit certificates (CDBs) and savings accounts. Our main competitors are Banco do Brasil, Banco Itaú Unibanco, Caixa Econômica Federal and Santander. Grupo Bradesco de Seguros e Previdência, the leading insurance company in the Brazilian market with a 24.5% market share, faces increased competition from a number of Brazilian and multinational corporations in all types of insurance business.

As of December 31, 2010, our principal competitors were Banco do Brasil, Itaú Unibanco Seguros S.A., Sul América Cia. Nacional Seguros, Porto Seguros Cia. de Seguros Gerais, Santander Seguros, Caixa Seguros and HSBC Seguros, which accounted for a combined total of approximately 56.8% of all premiums generated in the market, as reported by SUSEP. Although nationwide companies underwrite the majority most insurance business, we also face competition from local and regional companies, particularly in the health insurance segment, where they are able to operate at lower cost, or specialize in providing coverage for specific risk groups.

Competition in the Brazilian insurance industry changed drastically in the past few years as foreign companies started to form joint ventures with Brazilian insurance companies with more experience for the local market. For example, the Dutch Group ING acquired an interest in one of the Sul América Group companies. Hartford operates in Brazil through a joint venture with the Icatu Group. AXA, Allianz, ACE, Generali, Tokio Marine and other international insurers offer products in Brazil through their own local facilities.

We believe that the principal competitive factors in this area are price, financial stability, name recognition and services. At the branch level, we believe competition is primarily based on the level of services, including the handling of claims, level of automation and development of long-term relationships with individual clients. We believe that our ability to distribute insurance products through our branch network gives us a competitive advantage over most other insurance companies. Because most of our insurance products are offered through our retail banking branches, we benefit from certain cost savings and marketing synergies compared with our competitors. This cost advantage could become less significant over time, however, as other large private banks begin using their own branch networks to offer insurance products through exclusive agents.

The monetary stabilization brought by the Real Plan stimulated the pension plan sector and the Brazilian market attracted new international players, such as Principal, which created Brasilprev in association with Banco do Brasil; Hartford, through a joint venture with the Icatu Group; ING, through a partnership with Sul América; MetLife; Nationwide and others.

In addition to monetary stability, factors contributing to heightened competition were favorable tax treatment and the prospects of more far-reaching reform of Brazil's social security system.

Bradesco Vida e Previdência is currently the pension plan market leader with 34.8% of total assets under management in the sector, according to Fenaprevi.

We believe that the Bradesco brand name, together with our extensive branch network, strategy, our record of being in the forefront and our product innovation, are our competitive advantages.

The certificated savings plans market has been competitive since 1994, when exchange rates became more stable and inflation came under control. As of December 31, 2010, Bradesco Capitalização was second in the industry ranking with 21.1% of revenues from certificated savings plans and 21.6% in terms of technical provisions, according to SUSEP.

Our principal competitors in the certificated savings plans sector are Brasilcap Capitalização S.A., Itaú Unibanco Capitalização S.A., Caixa Capitalização S.A, Sul America Capitalização, Santander Capitalização S.A. and Icatu Hartford Capitalização S.A. The principal competitive factors in this industry are offering low-cost products with more frequent prize draws, security, financial stability and brand recognition.

c) Seasonality

Due to the specific characteristics of some products and services of the issuer, such as consumer finance segment, particularly credit card, in general, they are impacted by the effect of seasonality at certain periods or circumstances, such as final year. Other factors such as number of weekdays in the month, holidays, vacation periods, tax payments or receive of 13^{en} bonus, can influence products and services such as loans, use of credit cards and / or demand for investments. It is noteworthy that despite this influence, these factors have no significant impact on the income of the issuer.

e) Main raw materials, stating:

i) description of relationships with suppliers, including whether they are subject to governmental control or regulation, with agencies and applicable legislation:

Bradesco hires suppliers and establish business relationships with partners that operate with ethical standards compatible with the organization, through a strict selection process and not negotiate with those who, verifiably, disrespect the provision of its Code of Ethical Conduct, and also guided its business relationship by the Sectorial Code of Ethical Conduct for the Purchasing Professional.

The Bank also has a program relationship with strategic suppliers to discuss about revaluation of the supply chain of the total acquisition cost, optimization of products, innovation and sustainability. There are regular meetings with executives of the Bank and suppliers, which established objectives and monitoring the results of actions taken.

ii) Any dependence on a small number of suppliers:

Not applicable. Bradesco has no dependence on suppliers to perform its activities.

iii) Possible volatility affecting its prices:

The prices volatility, as resources for loans, interest rates charged on products, among others, rely on macroeconomic conditions and market rates.

If there is expected growth rate of inflation, the Central Bank may increase the base interest rate, increasing, consequently, interest rates for loans. Another factor that can enhance loans is the increase in delinquency rate for customers. Moreover, variations in tax rates on loans also make these operations more expensive.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

a. need of governmental for the exercise of activities and historical relation with the public administration in order to obtain such autorizations.

The basic institutional framework of the Brazilian Financial System was established in 1964 by Law No. 4,595, known as the "Banking Reform Law." The Banking Reform Law dealt with monetary, banking and credit policies and institutions, and created the Brazilian Monetary Council (CMN).

Principal regulatory agencies

CMN

CMN, currently the highest authority responsible for Brazilian monetary and financial policy, is responsible for overall supervision of monetary, credit, budgetary, fiscal and public debt policies. CMN has the following functions:

- regulating lending by Brazilian financial institutions;
- regulating Brazilian currency issue;
- supervising Brazil's reserves of gold and foreign exchange;
- determining saving, foreign exchange and investment policies in Brazil; and
- regulating capital markets in Brazil.

In December 2006, CMN asked the CVM to devise a new "Risk-Bases Supervision System" in order to: (i) identify risks to which the market is exposed; (ii) rank these risks by their potential for harm; (iii) establish mechanisms for mitigating these risks and the losses they might cause; and (iv) control and monitor the occurrence of risk events. Additional measures necessary to implement this "Risk-Bases Supervision System" (SBR) have yet to be published by CMN.

Central Bank

The Central Bank is responsible for:

- implementing currency and credit policies established by the CMN;
- regulating and supervising public and private sector Brazilian financial institutions;
- controlling and monitoring the flow of foreign currency to and from Brazil; and
- overseeing the Brazilian financial markets.

The Central Bank's chairperson is appointed by the president of Brazil for an indefinite term of office, subject to approval by the Brazilian Senate.

The Central Bank supervises financial institutions by:

- setting minimum capital requirements, compulsory reserve requirements and operational limits;
- authorizing corporate documents, capital increases and the establishment or transfer of principal places of business or branches (in Brazil or abroad);
- authorizing changes in shareholder control of financial institutions;
- requiring the submission of annual and semiannual audited financial statements, quarterly revised financial statements and monthly unaudited financial statements; and

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

- requiring full disclosure of credit and foreign exchange transactions, import and export transactions and other directly related economic activities.

CVM

The CVM is responsible for regulating the Brazilian securities markets in accordance with securities and capital-market policies established by CMN.

The CVM is responsible for the supervision and regulation of equity funds. In addition, since November 2004, the CVM has had authority to regulate and supervise fixed-income asset funds. For more information, see "Regulation and Supervision -Asset management regulation."

Banking regulations

Principal limitations and restrictions on activities of financial institutions

Under applicable laws and regulations, a financial institution operating in Brazil:

- may not operate without the prior approval of the Central Bank and in the case of foreign banks, authorization by presidential decree;
- may not invest in the equity of any other company beyond regulatory limits;
- may not lend more than 25.0% of its reference shareholders' equity to any single person or group;
- may not own real estate, except for its own use; and
- may not lend to or provide guarantees for:
 - any individual that controls the institution or holds, directly or indirectly, more than 10.0% of its share capital;
 - any entity that controls the institution or with which it is under common control, or any officer, director or member of the fiscal council and Audit Committee of such entity, or any immediate family member of such individuals;
 - any entity that, directly or indirectly, holds more than 10.0% of its shares (with certain exceptions);
 - any entity that it controls or of which it directly or indirectly holds more than 10.0% of the share capital;
 - any entity whose management consists of the same or substantially the same members as its own executive committee; or
 - its executive officers and directors (including their immediate families) or any company controlled by its executive officers and directors or their immediate families or in which any of them, directly or indirectly, holds more than 10.0% of share capital.

The restrictions with respect to related party transactions do not apply to transactions entered into by financial institutions in the interbank market.

Capital adequacy and leverage

Brazilian financial institutions are subject to a capital measurement and standards based on a weighted risk-asset ratio. The parameters of this methodology resemble the international framework for minimum capital measurements adopted for the Basel Accord. The Basel Accord requires banks to have a capital to risk-weighted assets ratio of at least 8.0%. At least half of total capital must consist of Tier I capital. Tier I, or core, capital corresponds to shareholders' equity less certain intangibles. Tier II capital includes asset revaluation reserves, and contingency reserves and subordinated debt, subject to certain restrictions. Tier II capital must not exceed Tier I capital.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

CMN requirements differ from the Basel Accord in some respects. Among other differences, the CMN:

- requires minimum capital of 11.0% of risk-weighted assets;
- does not permit contingency reserves to be considered as capital;
- requires fixed assets in excess of limits imposed by the Central Bank to be deducted from capital;
- requires additional capital in relation to off-balance-sheet interest rate and foreign currency swap transactions and for certain loans utilizing third party funds;
- when determining shareholders' equity, financial institutions may deduct costs, including taxes, incurred in connection with swap transactions used to hedge short positions associated with investments outside Brazil; and
- assigns different risk weightings to certain assets and credit conversion values, including a risk weighting of 300.0% on deferred tax asset for income and social contribution taxes but not for those arising from temporary differences which have a weighting of 100.0%.

In October 2009, the Central Bank reduced minimum capital requirements from 11% to 5.5% on loans to micro and small companies that are backed by one of the two guarantee funds created by the government in 2009 with a R$4 billion budget.

Financial institutions are also required to maintain their reference shareholders' equity at a certain level. A financial institution's reference shareholders' equity is the sum of its Tier I and Tier II capital and is used to determine its operational limits. For purposes of CMN adjustments, financial institutions may deduct costs, including taxes, incurred in connection with swap transactions to hedge short positions associated with investments abroad. In July 2008, the Central Bank issued certain rules to include the operational risk of financial institutions amongst the factors to be considered in the calculation of reference shareholders' equity. In December 2009 the Central Bank established a single indicator for calculating the portion of capital to be maintained by financial institutions to cover, when needed, the operational risk for a non-financial company belonging to the conglomerate. In June 2010, the Central Bank issued rules amending the formula used to calculate required reference shareholders' equity, which in practice led to higher levels of net equity being required of financial institutions and this will be in force as of 2012. The Central Bank says the purposes of this change include bolstering the robustness of financial institutions in terms of their ability to weather a global crisis. As of February 17, 2011, the Central Bank issued guidelines and a timetable for implementing the recommendations of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision concerning capital structure and liquidity requirements (Basel III), which initial phase, concerning the reformulation of normative about liquidity data, shall be regulated until December 2011.

Financial institutions, excepting credit cooperatives, must keep consolidated accounting records (for calculating their capital requirements) of their investments in companies whenever they hold, directly or indirectly, individually or together with partners, a controlling interest in the investee companies. If their interest does not result in control of a company, financial institutions may choose to recognize the interest as equity in the earnings of unconsolidated companies instead of consolidating.

Under certain conditions and within certain limits, financial institutions may include subordinated debt when determining their capital requirements in order to calculate their operational limits, provided that this subordinated debt complies fulfills the following requirements:

- it must be previously approved by the Central Bank;

Version: 1

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

- it must not be secured by any type of guarantee;
- its payment must be subordinated to the payment of other liabilities of the issuer in the event of dissolution;
- it cannot be redeemed by act of the holder;
- it must have a clause allowing postponement of the payment of interest or redemption if this would cause the issuer to fail to comply with minimum levels of reference shareholders' equity or other operational requirements;
- it must be nominative if issued in Brazil, and if issued abroad may be in any other form permitted by local legislation;
- if issued abroad, it must contain a clause for elected jurisdiction;
- it must have a minimum term of five years before redemption or amortization;
- it must be paid in cash; and
- its payment cannot be secured by any type of insurance any instrument that requires or permits payments between the issuer and the borrowing institution or that affects the subordinated status of the debt.

Brazilian financial institutions may elect to calculate their capital requirements on either a consolidated or an unconsolidated basis.

Risk Weighting

In October 2010, the Central Bank issued instructions consolidating risk factor weightings applied to different exposure levels, for the purposes of calculating reference shareholders' equity required. Under these rules, the following factors must be applied:

- (i) 0% to amounts held in cash or securities issued by Brazil's Treasury or the Central Bank, except for those related to repurchase agreements;
- (ii) 20% to demand deposits held in banking institutions, rights related to certain transactions with cooperatives, and repurchase agreements for securities issued by the Treasury or the Central Bank;
- (iii) 50% to time deposits in financial institutions not subject to special arrangements, exposures for which underlying assets are securities issued by them, interbank deposits and credit commitments undertaken;
- (iv) 100% to investments in shares of investment funds, other securities in repurchase agreements, sureties, guarantees, co-obligations and collaterals provided, and transactions for which there is no specific weighting factor;
- (v) 300% to exposures related to tax credits not excluded for purposes of calculating reference shareholders' equity (except for deferred tax assets arising from temporary differences), for which a 100% weighting factor applies.

In December 2010, the Central Bank issued instructions applying a 150% risk weighting factor to exposures relating to loans and financial leasing agreements for individuals as of December 6, 2010, with certain exceptions to this rule (including rural credit, payroll-deductible loans for not more than 36 months, certain financing or leasing agreements for vehicles or homes).

Reserve requirements

The Central Bank periodically sets compulsory reserve and related requirements for Brazilian financial institutions. The Central Bank uses reserve requirements as a mechanism to control liquidity in the Brazilian Financial System. Historically, the reserves against demand deposits, savings deposits and time deposits have accounted for almost all amounts required to be deposited with the Central Bank. In December 2010, the Central Bank raised compulsory deposit and reserve requirements, and reduced any deductions applicable. In addition, the Central Bank introduced higher compulsory deposits and reserve requirements for savings, demand, and time deposits. For a summary of current compulsory reserve requirements applicable to demand deposits, savings deposits and time deposits, see "Deposit taking activities."

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

The total consolidated exposure of a financial institution in foreign currencies and gold cannot exceed 30.0% of its reference shareholders' equity. In addition, if its exposure is greater than 5.0% of its adjusted net worth, the financial institution must hold additional capital at least equivalent to 100.0% of its exposure. Since July 2, 2007, the amount internationally offset in opposite exposures (purchases and sales) in Brazil and abroad by institutions of the same conglomerate is required to be added to the respective conglomerate's net consolidated exposure.

In the past, the Central Bank has imposed restrictions on other types of financial transactions. These compulsory deposit requirements are no longer in effect, but they may be re-imposed in the future, or similar restrictions may be instituted. At the beginning of 2008, the Central Bank determined a new compulsory deposit requirement relating to deposits of leasing companies. Our leasing company invests most of its cash available for immediate investment in interbank deposit accounts with us. For more information on Central Bank restrictions.

Asset composition requirements

Brazilian financial institutions may not allocate more than 25.0% of their reference shareholders' equity to loans (including guarantees) to the same client (including client's parent, affiliates and subsidiaries) or in securities of any one issuer, and may not act as underwriter (excluding best efforts underwriting) of securities issued by any one issuer representing more than 25.0% of their reference shareholders' equity.

Permanent assets (defined as property and equipment other than commercial leasing operations, unconsolidated investments and deferred assets) of Brazilian financial institutions may not exceed 50.0% of their reference shareholders' equity.

CMN issued rules in October 2008 requiring financial institutions to record: (i) rights on assets used for maintaining the institution's activities, including rights resulting from transactions that have transferred the benefit, risks and control of these assets to the institution, except for those covered by leasing agreements, in fixed assets; and (ii) restructuring expenses that effectively result in an increase in income of more than one fiscal year and do not constitute merely a reduction in costs or greater operational efficiency, in deferred assets. A subsequent rule further defined intangible assets, such as vested rights on non-material assets used for maintaining the institution's activities, including those corresponding to payroll services, income, salary, wages and retirement and pension payments, among others.

Repurchase transactions

Repurchase transactions are subject to operational capital limits based on the financial institution's shareholders' equity, as adjusted in accordance with Central Bank regulations. A financial institution may only hold repurchase transactions in an amount up to 30 times its reference shareholders' equity. Within that limit, repurchase operations involving private securities may not exceed five times the amount of the financial institution's reference shareholders' equity. Limits on repurchase operations involving securities backed by Brazilian governmental authorities vary in accordance with the type of security involved in the transaction and the perceived risk of the issuer as established by the Central Bank.

Onlending of funds borrowed abroad

Financial institutions and leasing companies are permitted to borrow foreign currency-denominated funds in the international markets (through direct loans or the issuance of debt securities) in order to on-lend such funds in Brazil. These onlendings take the form of loans denominated in reais but indexed to the U.S. dollar. The terms of the onlending transaction must mirror the terms of the original transaction. The interest rate charged on the underlying foreign loan must also conform to international market practices. In addition to the original cost of the transaction, the financial institution may charge onlending commission only.

Furthermore, the amount of the loan in foreign currency should be limited to the sum of foreign transactions undertaken by the financial institution to which loan funds are to be directed. Lastly, pursuant to the Central Bank's Circular 3,434/09, the total of loans made against these funds must be delivered to the Central Bank as collateral, as a condition for the release of the amount to the financial institution.

Foreign currency position

Transactions in Brazil involving the sale and purchase of foreign currency may be conducted only by institutions authorized by the Central Bank to operate in the foreign exchange market.

As of March 2005, the previously existing "Commercial" and "Floating" were unified under a single foreign currency exchange regime ("Exchange Market"), in which all foreign exchange currency transactions are concentrated. The unified Exchange Market provides for settlement in foreign currency of any commitments in reais contracted between individuals and/or legal entities resident in Brazil and individuals or legal entities resident abroad, by submitting the relevant documentation.

Access to the Exchange Market may be granted by the Central Bank to commercial banks, multiple banks, investment banks, development banks, savings and loans entities, financing and investment associations, brokerage firms, securities dealers, travel agencies and tourist hospitality organizations accepting foreign currency. However, the agents that on March 4, 2005, were allowed to operate in the Commercial and Floating Markets, were automatically allowed to operate in the Exchange Market.

The Central Bank currently does not impose limits on long positions in forex (i.e., in which the aggregate amount of foreign currency purchases exceeds sales) of banks authorized to operate in the Exchange Market. As of December 2005, the Central Bank no longer limited short positions in forex (i.e., in which the aggregate amount of foreign currency purchases is less than sales) for banks authorized to operate in the Exchange Market.

Pursuant to CMN regulations, the investment abroad of available funds in foreign currency must be limited to (i) securities issued by the Brazilian government; (ii) securities issued by foreign governments; (iii) securities issued by financial institutions, or entities under their responsibility; and (iv) time deposits in financial institutions.

In March 2010, the Central Bank continued with the process of simplifying foreign exchange rules by consolidating existing rules and revoking others. These changes were designed to provide further transparency and standards for cross-border foreign exchange transactions, and may be divided into three main categories:

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

- i) Consolidation of rules for foreign capital: registration of foreign direct investment, foreign credits, royalties, transfer of technology and leasing. Financial transfers from and to foreign countries will follow the general rules applicable to the Brazilian foreign exchange market, including the principles of legality, economic rationale and supporting documentation. Additionally, the need for specific authorizations or prior statements from the Central Bank has been eliminated and there is no need to provide information that the Central Bank may obtain elsewhere.
- ii) Rules for sale of depositary receipts abroad: companies that issue depositary receipts have the option of keeping the proceeds abroad. This option, however, does not apply to financial institutions. Therefore, our procedures in this respect remain unchanged.
- iii) Simplification of foreign exchange rules: several changes have been implemented to boost competition in the international transfer of funds and offer of banking services.

Registration of cross-border derivatives and hedging transactions and information on derivatives

In December 2009, the Central Bank issued specific rules that became effective on February 1, 2010, requiring Brazilian financial institutions to register their cross-border derivative transactions with a clearing house regulated by the Central Bank and by the CVM. Specifically, cross-border derivative transactions must: (i) be registered within 2 business days and (ii) cover details of underlying assets, values, currencies involved, terms, counterparties, means of settlement and parameters used.

In February 2010, registration rules were extended to cover hedging transactions in foreign OTC markets or exchanges.

In December 2010, to facilitate management of derivatives-related risk incurred by financial institutions, the Central Bank stipulated that market participants should create mechanisms in order to share information on derivatives contracts traded or registered in their systems, subject to banking confidentiality rules.

Treatment of credit operations

According to the Central Bank, financial institutions are required to classify their loans into nine categories, ranging from AA to H, based on their risk. These credit classifications are determined in accordance with Central Bank criteria relating to:

- the conditions of the debtor and the guarantor, such as their economic and financial situation, level of indebtedness, capacity for generating profits, cash flow, delay in payments, contingencies and credit limits; and
- the conditions of the transaction, such as its nature and purpose, the type, the level of liquidity, the sufficiency of the collateral and the total amount of the credit.

In the case of corporate borrowers, the nine categories that we use are as follows:

Rating	Our Classification	Bradesco Concept
AA	Excellent	First-tier large company or group, with a long track record, market leadership and excellent economic and financial concept and positioning.
A	Very Good	Large company or group with sound economic and financial position that is active in markets with good prospects and/or potential for expansion.
B	Good	Company or group, regardless of size, with good economic and financial positioning.
C	Acceptable	Company or group with a satisfactory economic and financial situation but with performance subject to economic variations.
D	Fair	Company or group with economic and financial positioning in decline or unsatisfactory accounting information, under risk management.

Version: 1

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

A loan may be upgraded if it has credit support or downgraded if in default.

Collection of doubtful loans is classified according to the loss perspective, as shown below:

Rating	Bradesco Classification
E	Deficient
F	Bad
H	Uncollectible

In the case of transactions with individuals, we have a similar nine-category ranking system. We grade credit based on data including the individual's income, net worth and credit history, as well as other personal data.

For regulatory purposes, financial institutions are required to evaluate the loans portfolios, on a monthly basis, to conform their provision for loan losses. In general, banks review the loans classifications annually. However, a review is made every six months for loans extended to a single client or economic group whose aggregate loan amount exceeds 5.0% of the financial institution's reference shareholders' equity. Past due loans are reviewed monthly.

Financial institutions should maintain a credit risk management structure compatible with the nature of their transactions and with the complexity of products and services offered, which should also be proportional to the institution's credit risk exposure.

The regulations establish maximum risk classifications for Past due loans, as follows:

Number of Days Past Due (1)	Maximum Classification
15 to 30 days	B
31 to 60 days	C
61 to 90 days	D
91 to 120 days	E
121 to 150 days	F
151 to 180 days	G
More than 180 days	H

(1) These time periods are doubled in the case of loans with maturities in excess of 36 months.

Financial institutions are required to determine monthly, whether any loans must be reclassified as a result of these maximum classifications. If so, they must adjust their regulated accounting provisions accordingly.

The regulations specify a minimum provision for each category of loan, which is measured as a percentage of the total amount of the credit operation, as follows:

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

Classification of Loan	Minimum Provision (%)
AA	-
A	0.5
B	1.0
C	3.0
D	10.0
E	30.0
F	50.0
G	70.0
H(1)	100.0

Loans of up to R$50,000 may be classified by the financial institution's own evaluation method or according to the payment delay criteria described above.

Financial institutions must make their lending and loan classification policies available to the Central Bank and to their independent accountants. They are also required to submit information relating to their loan portfolio to the Central Bank, together with their financial statements. This information must include:

- a breakdown of the business activities and nature of borrowers;
- maturities of their loans;
- amounts of rescheduled, written-off and recovered loans;
- loan portfolio diversification by the loan classification; and
- non-performing loans.

The Central Bank requires authorized financial institutions to compile and submit their loan portfolio data in accordance with several requirements. The Central Bank may admit discrepancies in these statements of up to 5.0% per risk level and 2.5% in the reconciled total.

Brazilian clearing system

The Brazilian clearing system was regulated and restructured under legislation enacted in 2001. These regulations are intended to streamline the system by adopting multilateral clearing and boost security and solidity by reducing systemic default risk and financial institutions' credit and liquidity risks.

The subsystems in the Brazilian clearing system are responsible for maintaining security mechanisms and rules for controlling risks and contingencies, loss sharing among market participants and direct execution of custody positions of contracts and collateral by participants. In addition, clearing houses and settlement service providers, as important components to the system, set aside a portion of their assets as an additional guarantee for settlement of transactions.

Currently, responsibility for settlement of a transaction has been assigned to the clearinghouses or service providers responsible for it. Once a financial transaction has been submitted for clearing and settlement, it generally becomes obligation of the relevant clearinghouse and/or settlement service provider to clear and settle, and it is no longer subject to the risk of bankruptcy or insolvency on the part of the market participant that submitted it for clearing and settlement.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

Financial institutions and other institutions authorized by the Central Bank are also required under the new rules to create mechanisms to identify and avoid liquidity risks, in accordance with certain procedures established by the Central Bank. Under these procedures, institutions are required to:

- maintain and document criteria for measuring liquidity risks and risk management procedures;
- analyze economic and financial data to evaluate the impact of different market scenarios on the institution's liquidity and cash flow;
- prepare reports to enable the institution to monitor liquidity risks;
- identify and evaluate mechanisms for unwinding positions that could threaten the institution economically or financially and for obtaining the resources necessary to carry out such unwinds;
- adopt system controls and test them periodically;
- promptly provide the institution's management information and analysis for any liquidity risk identified, including any conclusions or measures taken; and
- develop contingency plans for handling liquidity crisis situations.

Financial institutions were positively affected by the restructuring of the Brazilian clearing system. Under the old system, in which transactions were processed at the end of the day, an institution could carry a balance, positive or negative, a situation which is no longer allowed. Payments must now be processed in real time, and amounts over R$5,000 may be covered by electronic transfers between institutions with funds available immediately. If a transaction is made using checks, an additional bank fee will be charged.

After a period of tests and gradual implementation, the new Brazilian clearing system started operating in April 2002. The Central Bank and CVM have the power to regulate and supervise the Brazilian payments and clearing system.

Liquidation of financial institutions

In February 2005, the "New Bankruptcy Law" was approved, replacing the previous legislation that had been in effect since 1945. The main goal of the New Bankruptcy Law is to avoid viable companies being unable to honor their debt obligations. The New Bankruptcy Law seeks to do this by providing greater flexibility in plan reorganization strategies while giving creditors more guarantees. It also seeks to improve creditors' ability to recover through the judiciary system by promoting an agreement between the company and a commission comprised of creditors. The New Bankruptcy Law is not currently applicable to financial institutions, and, accordingly, Law No. 6,024/74 governing intervention in and administrative liquidation of financial institutions is still applicable to us.

Intervention

The Central Bank will intervene in the operations and management of any financial institution not controlled by the federal government if the institution:

- suffers losses due to mismanagement, putting creditors at risk;
- repeatedly violates banking regulations; or
- is insolvent.

Intervention may also be ordered upon the request of a financial institution's management.

PAGE 109

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

Intervention may not exceed twelve months. During the intervention period, the institution's liabilities are suspended in relation to overdue obligations, maturity dates for pending obligations contracted prior to intervention, and liabilities for deposits in the institution existing on the date intervention was ordered.

Administrative liquidation

The Central Bank will liquidate a financial institution if:

- the institution's economic or financial situation is at risk, particularly when the institution ceases to meet its obligations as they fall due, or upon the occurrence of an event that could indicate a state of bankruptcy;
- management commits a material violation of banking laws, regulations or rulings;
- the institution suffers a loss which subjects its unsecured creditors to severe risk; or
- if, upon revocation of the authorization to operate, the institution does not initiate ordinary liquidation proceedings within 90 days, or, if initiated, the Central Bank determines that the pace of the liquidation may impair the institution's creditors.

As a consequence of administrative liquidation:

- lawsuits pleading claims on the assets of the institution are suspended;
- the institution's obligations are accelerated;
- the institution may not comply with any liquidated damage clause contained in unilateral contracts;
- interest does not accrue against the institution until its liabilities are paid in full; and
- the statute of limitations with respect to the institution's obligations is tolled.

Temporary special administration regime

The temporary special administration regime, known as "RAET," is a less severe form of Central Bank intervention in financial institutions, which allows institutions to continue to operate normally. RAET may be ordered in the case of an institution that:

- repeatedly makes transactions contravening economic or financial policies under federal law;
- faces a shortage of assets;
- fails to comply with compulsory reserves rules;
- has reckless or fraudulent management; or
- has operations or circumstances requiring an intervention.

Repayment of creditors in liquidation

In the case of liquidation of a financial institution, employees' wages, indemnities and tax claims have the highest priority among claims against the bankrupt institution. In November 1995, the Central Bank created the FGC (Deposit Guarantee Fund) to guarantee the payment of funds deposited with financial institutions in case of intervention, administrative liquidation, bankruptcy, or other state of insolvency. Members of the FGC are financial institutions that accept demand, time and savings deposits as well as savings and loans associations. The FGC is funded principally by mandatory contributions from all Brazilian financial institutions accepting deposits from clients.

The FGC is a deposit insurance system that guarantees a certain maximum amount of deposits and certain credit instruments held by a customer against a financial institution (or against member financial institutions of the same financial group). The liability of the participating institutions is limited to the amount of their contributions to the FGC, with the exception that in limited circumstances, if FGC payments are insufficient to cover insured losses, the participating institutions may be asked for extraordinary contributions and advances. The payment of unsecured credit and customer deposits not payable under the FGC is subject to the prior payment of all secured credits and other credits to which specific laws may grant special privileges.

In December 2010, the CMN increased the maximum amount of the guarantee provided by the FGC from R$60,000 to R$70,000. Since 2006, it reduced the ordinary monthly FGC contribution from 0.025% to 0.0125% of the balance held in bank accounts covered by FGC insurance.

In December 2010, the Central Bank issued Resolution 3,931/10 with new rules for taking time deposits with a special guarantee from the FGC. Under these rules, the maximum value of the balance of such deposits is limited to the greater of the following (with a maximum of R$5 billion): (i) the equivalent of twice the reference shareholders' equity, calculated on the base date June 30 earning interest monthly at the Selic rate; (ii) the equivalent of twice the reference shareholders' equity, calculated on December 31, 2008, earning interest monthly at the Selic rate as of May 1, 2009; and (iii) the equivalent of the sum of balances in time deposits plus balances of bills of exchange held in the bank on June 30, 2008, earning interest monthly at the Selic rate as of May 1, 2009.

The same rule reduced the limit on taking time deposits with special FGC guarantees on the following schedule: (i) twenty percent (20%) from January 1, 2012; (ii) forty percent (40%) from January 1, 2013; (iii) sixty percent (60%) from January 1, 2014; (iv) eighty percent (80%) from January 1, 2015; and (v) one hundred percent (100%) from January 1, 2016.

Internal compliance procedures

All financial institutions must have in place internal policies and procedures to control:

- their activities;
- their financial, operational and management information systems; and
- their compliance with all applicable regulations.

The board of executive officers of a financial institution is responsible for implementing an effective structure for internal controls by defining responsibilities and control procedures and establishing corresponding goals and procedures at all levels of the institution. Management is also responsible for verifying compliance with all internal procedures.

Our bylaws include a provision for an internal controls and compliance committee composed of up to 12 members appointed by our Board of Directors.

Restrictions on foreign banks and foreign investment

The Brazilian constitution prohibits foreign financial institutions from establishing new branches in Brazil, except when duly authorized by the Brazilian government. A foreign bank duly authorized to operate in Brazil through a branch or a subsidiary is subject to the same rules, regulations and requirements that are applicable to any other Brazilian financial institution.

The Brazilian constitution permits foreign individuals or companies to invest in the voting shares of Brazilian financial institutions only if they have specific authorization from the Brazilian government. However, foreign investors without specific authorization may acquire publicly traded non-voting shares of Brazilian financial institutions or depositary receipts representing non-voting shares offered abroad.

Anti-money laundering regulations, banking secrecy and financial transactions linked to terrorism

Under Brazilian anti-money laundering rules, which the Central Bank consolidated in July 2009 through Circular No.

3,461, and subsequently in December 2010, through Circular No. 3,517, financial institutions must:

- keep up-to-date records regarding their customers;
- maintain internal controls and records;
- record transactions involving Brazilian and foreign currency, securities, metals or any other asset which may be converted into money;
- keep records of transactions that exceed R$10,000 in a calendar month or reveal a pattern of activity that suggests a scheme to avoid identification;
- keep records of all check transactions; and
- keep records and inform the Central Bank of any cash deposits or cash withdrawals in amounts above R$100,000.

The financial institution must review transactions or proposals whose characteristics may indicate the existence of a crime and inform the Central Bank of the proposed or executed transaction. Records of transactions involving currency or any asset convertible to money, records of transactions that exceed R$10,000 in a calendar month, and records of check transactions must be kept for at least five years, unless the bank is notified that a CVM investigation is underway, in which case the five-year obligation may be extended. Pursuant to Circular No. 3,641, financial institutions must implement control policies and internal procedures. The policies must: (i) specify in an internal document the responsibilities of each of the organization's hierarchical levels; (ii) include the collection and registration of timely information about clients that makes it possible to identify the risks of occurrence of these crimes; (iii) define the criteria and procedures for selecting, training and monitoring the economic-financial status of the institution's employees; (iv) include a prior analysis of new products and services from the perspective of preventing these crimes; (v) be approved by the Board of Directors; and (vi) be broadly circulated internally. Current legislation allows us to develop internal procedures designed to identify any financial transactions or services that present a low level of risk of being used for money laundering or terrorist financing, which are exempted from the requirement to obtain clients' registration details.

Along with these policies, Circular No. 3,641/08 also establishes additional norms related to keeping registration information up-to-date, keeping records of politically exposed individuals, records of the beginning or continuation of business relations, records of financial services and transactions, records of deposits and clearance of checks deposited in other financial institutions, the use of fund transfer instruments, pre-paid card registrations, transfers of over R$100,000 in cash, and other transactions that require special attention.

Likewise, Circular No. 3,642/08 set forth rules to combat money laundering in international transfers, including more detailed operational information requirements for payment orders, such as the name and identification document of the parties involved, address and bank account when applicable. Financial institutions shall also adopt measures to learn about methods and practices used by their correspondents abroad so as to inhibit money laundering and terrorist financing practices, and report to government authorities whenever transactions with these characteristics are detected.

Brazilian regulations list a number of potential money-laundering transaction characteristics, such as: transactions involving amounts that are incompatible with the professional, shareholders' equity and/or earnings condition of the involved parties; operations evidencing default on behalf of third parties; transactions intended to create loss or gain with no economic grounds; transactions from or to countries or territories that do not apply the recommendations sufficiently or do not cooperate with the Brazilian financial activity control agencies; transactions paid in cash; transactions the complexity and risk level of which are inconsistent with the client's technical qualification; transactions involving non-resident parties, trustees and companies, private banking clients and politically exposed individuals.

The CVM directed special attention to politically exposed individuals through Instruction No. 463/08 and consolidated in Circular No. 3,641/08, which refer to individuals politically exposed who hold or held prominent public positions in Brazil or abroad during the past five years and their relatives and representatives. Such individuals include heads of state and government, senior politicians and civil servants, judges or high-ranking military officers, and leaders of state controlled enterprises companies or political parties, among others. Financial institutions are required to adopt certain mechanisms in order to: (i) identify the final beneficiaries of each transaction; (ii) identify whether these politically exposed individuals are involved; (iii) monitor financial transactions involving politically exposed individuals; and (iv) pay special attention to people from countries with which Brazil maintains a high number of business and financial transactions, shared borders or ethnic, linguistic or political relations.

In addition, this CVM regulation contains special provisions to control and prevent the flow of funds derived from, or for financing, terrorist activities.

Also regarding the control of politically exposed individuals' activities and in light of the 2010 Brazilian elections for President, Governors, Senators, Federal and State Representatives, in March 2010 the Central Bank enacted rules that specifically address the opening, transacting with and closing of demand accounts for funds related to financing the 2010 election campaign. Those rules seek to avoid irregular use of said funds and illegal donations.

Financial institutions must maintain the secrecy of their banking operations and services provided to their customers. Certain exceptions apply to this obligation, however, such as: the sharing of information on credit history, criminal activity and violation of bank regulations, or disclosure of information authorized by interested parties. Banking secrecy may also be breached by court order when necessary for the investigation of any illegal act.

Government officials and auditors from the Brazilian Federal Revenue Service may also inspect an institution's documents, books and financial records in certain circumstances.

In October 2008, the Central Bank broadened the reach of its rules for controlling financial transactions related to terrorism, so that operations carried out on behalf of, services provided to, or access to funds, other financial assets or economic resources belonging to or directly or indirectly controlled by, the following individuals or entities were required to be immediately reported to the Central Bank: (i) Osama Bin Laden, members of the Al-Qaeda organization, members of the Taliban and other individuals, groups, companies or entities connected with them; (ii) the former government of Iraq or its agencies or companies located outside of Iraq, as well as funds or other financial assets that might have been withdrawn from Iraq or acquired by Saddam Hussein or by other former Iraqi government senior officials or by the closest members of their families, including companies owned by, or directly or indirectly controlled by them or by individuals working for them or under their management; and (iii) individuals perpetrating or attempting to perpetrate terrorist actions or who take part in or facilitate such acts, entities owned or directly or indirectly controlled by such individuals, as well as by individuals and entities acting on their behalf or under their command.

Change of independent accounting firm

Under Brazilian regulations, all financial institutions must:

- be audited by an independent accounting firm; and
- the specialist in charge, officer, manager or audit team supervisor must be periodically replaced without the need to change the independent auditor firm itself. Rotation must take place after five fiscal years at most and replaced professionals may be reintegrated three years later. Terms of responsible specialists, officers, managers or audit team supervisors begin on the day the team begins work on the audit.

Each independent accounting firm must immediately inform the Central Bank any event that may materially adversely affect the relevant financial institution's status.

In March 2002, an amendment to the Brazilian Corporate Law gave the members of our Board of Directors veto rights over the appointment or removal of our independent accounting firm.

Auditing requirements

Because we are a financial institution registered with the local stock exchange, we are obliged to have our financial statements audited every six months in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles adopted in Brazil. Quarterly financial information filed with the CVM is subject to review by our independent accountants.

In January 2003, the CVM enacted regulations requiring audited entities to disclose information relating to their independent accounting firm's non-auditing services provided to the entity whenever such services accounted for more than 5.0% of the amount paid to the external auditors.

The independent auditors must also declare to the audited company's management that their providing these services does not affect the independence and objectivity required for external auditing services.

In May 2003, the CMN enacted new auditing regulations matters applicable to all Brazilian financial institutions; and they were revised in November 2003, January and May 2004 and December 2005. Under these regulations, we are required to appoint a member of our management to be responsible for monitoring and supervising compliance with the accounting and auditing requirements set forth in the legislation.

Pursuant to this regulation, financial institutions having reference shareholders' equity of more than R$1.0 billion, managing third party assets of at least R$1.0 billion or having an aggregate amount of third party deposits of over R$5.0 billion are also required to create an audit committee consisting of independent members. The number of members, their appointment and removal criteria, their term of office and their responsibilities must be specified in the institutions' bylaws. Our Audit Committee has been fully operational since July 1, 2004. The Audit Committee is responsible for recommending to management which independent accounting firm to engage, reviewing the company's financial statements, including the notes thereto, and the auditors' opinion prior to public release, evaluating the effectiveness of the auditing services provided and internal compliance procedures, assessing management's compliance with the recommendations made by the independent accounting firm, among other matters. Our bylaws were revised in December 2003 to stipulate the existence of an audit committee. In May 2004, our Board of Directors approved the internal regulations for the Audit Committee and appointed its first members. In October 2006, the CMN enacted stricter requirements to be followed by the members of the Board of Directors.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

As of July 1, 2004, we are required to publish a semi-annual audit committee report together with our financial statements. Our Audit Committee's first report was issued together with our financial statements for the second half of 2004.

In July 2007, the CVM enacted a rule requiring publicly held companies to adopt as of the fiscal year ended in 2010 international accounting standards, pursuant to rules issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). This will represent a change in our accounting practices, since our fiscal statements are currently prepared and disclosed in accordance with Brazilian and US GAAP. A similar rule was issued by the CMN in September 2009 specifically for financial institutions, according to which consolidated financial statements must include the opinion of an independent auditing company on the compliance of such statements with the pronouncements issued by the IASB. Pursuant to Circular No. 3,472/09, financial statements must be published within ninety days of December 31 of the corresponding fiscal year and be prepared by the parent company of the group of consolidated entities.

With regard to interim consolidated financial statements, the Central Bank issued, in May 2010, a resolution determining that financial institutions organized as corporations (sociedades anônimas), or required to set up auditing committees and publish their consolidated interim financial statements, must follow rules (pronouncements) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), and must be translated into Portuguese by a Brazilian entity certified by the International Accounting Standards Committee Foundation (IASC Foundation).

In September 2009, the Central Bank issued rules setting criteria for auditors on the latter's preparation of reports on the quality and compliance of the internal controls systems, and on non-compliance with legal and regulatory provisions. These norms, amended in January 2010, state that in addition to their regular auditing functions, auditors must assess the following items: (i) control environment; (ii) risk identification and assessment; (iii) controls adopted; (iv) information and communication policies; (v) forms of monitoring and improvement and (vi) deficiencies identified.

Regulation of operations in other jurisdictions

We have branches and subsidiaries in several other jurisdictions, such as New York, Buenos Aires, Tokyo, the Cayman Islands, Hong Kong and Luxembourg. The Central Bank supervises Brazilian financial institutions' foreign branches, subsidiaries and corporate properties, and prior approval from the Central Bank is necessary to establish any new branch, subsidiary or representative office. In most cases, we have had to obtain governmental approvals from local central banks and monetary authorities in foreign jurisdictions before commencing business. In all cases, we are subject to supervision by local authorities.

Asset management regulation

Asset management is regulated by the CMN and the CVM.

In August 2004, the CVM issued Rule No. 409/04 consolidating all previous regulations applicable to fixed-income asset funds and equity mutual funds. Prior to this ruling, fixed-income asset funds were regulated by the Central Bank, and equity mutual funds were regulated by the CVM.

CVM Rule No. 409/04 became effective on November 22, 2004. Since then, all new funds created are subject to its rules, while previously existing funds had until January 31, 2005 to adapt to the new regulations.

Pursuant to CVM limits and our bylaws, our investment funds must keep their assets invested in securities and types of trades available in the financial and capital markets.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

Securities and all other financial assets in the investment fund's portfolio, except for holdings in investment funds or in Mercosur, must be registered directly with specific custody deposit accounts opened in the name of the fund. Such accounts must be held in registration and clearance systems authorized by the Central Bank, or certain custody institutions authorized by the CVM.

In addition to the limitations specified in each financial investment fund's bylaws, they may not:

- invest more than ten per cent (10.0%) of their net assets in securities of a single issuer, if that issuer is (i) a publicly-held non-financial institution, or (ii) a federal, state, or municipal entity or (iii) another investment fund, except for equity funds;
- more than twenty percent (20.0%) of their net assets in securities issued by the same financial institution (including the fund administrator);
- invest more than five percent (5.0%) of their net assets if the issuer is an individual or corporate entity that is not a publicly-held company or financial institution authorized to operate by the Central Bank; and
- in the case of investment funds or fixed-income and multimarket participation funds, more than ten percent (10.0%) of their net assets in real estate investment funds, receivables investment funds or credit rights participation funds.

There are no limits when the issuer is the federal government. For the purposes of these limits, the same issuer means the parent company, companies directly or indirectly controlled by the parent and its affiliates, or companies under common control with the issuer.

Depending on the composition of their assets, investment funds and funds of funds are classified as follows:

- Short-term funds - These funds invest exclusively in public, federal or private bonds pegged to the Selic rate or another interest rate, or to a price indices, and have a maximum maturity of 375 days and an average portfolio period of less than 60 days. Short-term funds may use derivatives only to hedge their portfolios and may enter into repo agreements backed by federal government bonds;
- Referenced funds - their name must state their benchmark indicator on which the financial asset structure of their portfolio is based (1) at least 80.0% of their net assets, separately or together, must be invested in (a) bonds issued by the Brazilian National Treasury and/or the Central Bank or (b) fixed-income securities from low credit-risk issuers; (2) they stipulate that at least 95.0% of their portfolio must be composed of financial assets that directly or indirectly track the variation of a specified performance indicator (benchmark); and (3) they may use derivatives only for hedging cash positions, limited to the amount of the latter.
- Fixed-income funds - These funds have at least 80.0% of their asset portfolios directly related to fixed-income assets or synthesized through derivatives;
- Equity funds - These funds have at least 67.0% of their portfolio invested in shares listed and traded on exchange or in organized over the counter markets ;
- Forex funds - These funds have at least 80.0% of their portfolio invested in derivatives or other funds comprised of derivatives which hedge foreign currency prices;
- Foreign-debt funds - These funds have at least 80.0% of their net assets invested in Brazilian foreign- debt bonds issued by the federal government, and the remaining 20.0% in other debt securities transacted in the international market; and

- Money market funds - These funds must have an investment policy that involves several risk factors, without a commitment to concentration in any particular factor or in factors differing from the other classes stipulated in the classifications of the funds listed above.

Qualified investor funds require a minimum investment of R$1 million per investor and are subject to concentration limitations per issuer or per type of asset (while obeying the investment parameters for type of fund as described above), as long as this is stated in their bylaws.

In addition, CVM Instruction No. 409/04 states that funds may hold financial assets traded abroad in their portfolios as follows: (i) for foreign-debt funds and qualified investor funds that stipulate this possibility, there is no limit; (ii) for multimarket funds, up to 20% of net assets; and (iii) for other funds, up to 10% of net assets.

Regulation of brokers and dealers

Broker and dealer firms are part of the national financial system and are subject to CMN, Central Bank and CVM regulation and supervision. Brokerage and distribution firms must be authorized by the Central Bank and are the only institutions in Brazil authorized to trade on Brazil's stock exchanges and commodities and futures exchanges. Both brokers and dealers may act as underwriters for public placement of securities and engage in the brokerage of foreign currency in any exchange market.

Brokers must observe BM&FBovespa rules of conduct previously approved by the CVM, and must designate an executive officer responsible for observance of these rules.

Broker and dealer firms may not:

- with few exceptions, execute transactions that may be characterized as the granting loans to their clients, including the assignment of rights;
- collect commissions from their clients related to transactions of securities during the primary distribution;
- acquire assets, including real estate properties, which are not for their own utilization; or
- obtain loans from financial institutions, except for: (i) loans for the acquisition of goods for use in connection with the firm's corporate purpose; or (ii) loans for amounts not more than twice the firm's net assets.

Broker and dealer firms' employees, managers, partners, controlling and controlled entities may trade securities on their own account only through the broker they are related to.

Leasing regulation

The basic legal framework governing leasing transactions is established by Law No. 6,099/74, as amended (the "Leasing Law") and related regulations issued periodically by the CMN. The Leasing Law states general guidelines for the incorporation of leasing companies and the business activities they may undertake. The CMN, as regulator of the financial system, is responsible for issuing Leasing Law related regulations and overseeing transactions made by leasing companies. Laws and regulations issued by the Central Bank for financial institutions in general, such as reporting requirements, capital adequacy and leverage regulations asset composition limits and treatment of doubtful loans, are also applicable to leasing companies.

Insurance regulation

Brazilian insurance business is regulated by Decree Law No. 73/66, as amended, which created two regulatory agencies, the National Private Insurance Council, which we call "CNSP," and SUSEP. SUSEP is responsible for implementing and overseeing CNSP's policies and ensuring compliance with such policies by insurance companies, insurance brokers and insured individuals. Insurance companies require government approval to operate, as well as specific approval from SUSEP to offer each of their products. Insurance companies may subscribe policies only through qualified brokers.

Insurance companies must set aside reserves in accordance with CNSP criteria. Investments covering these reserves must be diversified and meet certain liquidity, rules for which were consolidated by SUSEP Resolution No. 226/10 solvency and security criteria. Insurance companies may invest a substantial portion of their assets in securities. As a result, insurance companies are major investors in the Brazilian financial markets and are subject to CMN rules and conditions for their investments and coverage of technical reserves.

Insurance companies may not, among other activities:

- act as financial institutions by lending or providing guarantees;
- trade in securities (subject to exceptions); or
- invest outside of Brazil without specific permission from the authorities.

Insurance companies must operate within certain retention limits approved by SUSEP pursuant to CNSP rules. These rules reflect the economic and financial situation of insurance companies, the conditions of their portfolios and the results of their operations with IRB, a quasi-public corporation controlled by the Brazilian government. Insurers must also meet certain capital requirements consolidated by SUSEP Resolution No. 227/10.

On January 16, 2007, Complementary Law No. 126 created a new policy for reinsurance (whereby underwriters obtain secondary insurance for the risks that they are insuring), retrocession and intermediation in Brazil. In practical terms, this law ended IRB's monopoly in reinsurance and retrocession with regulatory duties and activities originally attributed to IRB transferred to CNSP and SUSEP.

Under Complementary Law No. 126/07, the ceding party, (local insurer or reinsurer) must offer local reinsurers preference when contracting reinsurance or retrocession to the extent of the following percentages of risks ceded: (i) 60% in the first three years as of January 16, 2007 and (ii) 40% in subsequent years. Under SUSEP Resolution No. 225/10, insurance companies must have contracts with local reinsurers for at least 40% of ceded reinsurance in facultative or automatic contracts.

The new law also places more severe restrictions on ceding risk to foreign reinsurance companies and contracting of insurance abroad. Insurance companies must reinsure amounts exceeding their retention limits. Insurance companies must also file unaudited monthly and audited quarterly, semiannual and annual reports with SUSEP.

SUSEP Resolution No. 224/10 prohibited the responsibility transfer in insurance, reinsurance or retrocession in Brazil for foreign affiliates.

Insurance companies are exempt from ordinary financial liquidation procedures in case of bankruptcy, and instead follow a special procedure administered by SUSEP, under CNSP Resolution No. 227/10. Financial liquidation may be either voluntary or compulsory. The Minister of Finance undertakes compulsory dissolutions of insurance companies.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

As was already the case in the ambit of entities subject to CMN, SUSEP promulgated rules in December 2008 with specific internal controls for preventing and fighting money laundering crimes. These rules include a series of provisions on notifying proposed transactions with politically exposed individuals and suppression of terrorist financing activities.

There is currently no restriction on foreign investment in insurance companies.

Health insurance

Private health insurance and health plans are currently regulated by Law No. 9,656/98, as amended, which we refer to as the "Health Insurance Law," containing general provisions applicable to health insurance companies and the general terms and conditions of agreements entered into between health insurance companies and their customers. The Health Insurance Law establishes, among other things:

- mandatory coverage of certain expenses, such as those arising from preexisting conditions;
- prior conditions for admission to a plan;
- the geographical area covered by each insurance policy; and
- the pricing criteria plans may use.

The ANS is responsible for regulating and supervising supplemental health services provided by health insurance companies pursuant to directives set forth by the Supplemental Health Council (Conselho de Saúde Suplementar).

Until 2002, SUSEP had authority over insurance companies, which were authorized to offer private health plans. Since 2002, pursuant to ANS regulations and supervision, only operators of private health plans may offer such plans. We created Bradesco Saúde in 1999 to fulfill this requirement.

Private pension plans

Open pension plans are subject, for purposes of inspection and control, to the authority of the CNSP and the SUSEP, which are under the regulatory authority of the Ministry of Finance. The CMN, CVM and Central Bank may also issue regulations pertaining to private pension plans, particularly related to assets guaranteeing technical reserves.

Private pension entities must set aside reserves and technical provisions as collateral for their liabilities.

Open pension plans and insurance companies have been allowed to create, trade and operate investment funds with segregated assets since January 1, 2006. Notwithstanding the above, certain provisions of Law No. 11,196/05 will only become effective when SUSEP and CVM issue regulatory texts. For more information, see "-Regulation and Supervision-Asset Management Regulation."

Regulation of Internet and electronic commerce

The Brazilian Congress has not enacted any specific legislation regulating electronic commerce. Accordingly, electronic commerce remains subject to existing laws and regulation on ordinary commerce and business transactions.

There are currently several bills dealing with Internet and electronic commerce regulation in the Brazilian congress. The proposed legislation, if enacted, would recognize the legal effect, validity and enforceability of information in the form of electronic messages, allowing parties to enter into an agreement and make or accept an offer through electronic messages.

The CVM approved new regulations on Internet brokerage activities, which may be carried out only by registered companies. Brokers' web pages must contain details of their systems, fees, security and procedures for executing orders. They must also contain information about how the market functions generally and the risks involved with each type of investment offered.

Brokers that carry out transactions over the Internet must guarantee the security and operability of their systems, which must be audited at least twice a year.

Taxation

IOF Tax on Financial Transactions

Tax on Financial Transactions (Imposto Sobre Operações Financeiras, or IOF) is a tax on lending, foreign exchange, insurance and trading in securities. The Minister of Finance sets the rate of the IOF subject to a 25.0% ceiling. Although the taxpayer is the one conducting the financial transaction subject to taxation, the tax is collected by the financial institution involved.

In January 2008, the Brazilian government raised the IOF rate on certain transactions to offset lost revenue due to the abolition of CPMF tax.

IOF may be levied on a variety of forex transactions, including the conversion of Brazilian currency into any foreign currency for the payment of dividends and repatriation of capital invested in our ADSs. The general IOF rate on forex transactions is 0.38%, but 0% on forex transactions of an interbank nature or for the payment of dividends and interest on shareholders' capital to foreign investors. The IOF rate was also reduced to 0% for converting incoming funds or funds leaving the country as of October 2008 in the form of foreign borrowing or financing.

In October 2009, in order to curb the appreciation of the real, the Brazilian government raised the IOF rate on forex transactions from 0% to 2% for foreign investors in the Brazilian financial and capital markets. Forex transactions for funds leaving the country continue to pay a rate of 0%, and there is currently no restriction as to the date of funding.

Besides the case of investments in financial markets and capital, the main exchange transactions that are subject to IOF and their rates are described below:

- a rate of 5.38% applies to foreign loan to the Brazilian currency with a maturity less than 90 days;
- a rate of 2.38% applies to foreign exchange transactions for the purchase of products with credit cards; and
- a rate of 0% for foreign exchange rate transactions related to revenues entering Brazil from exports of goods and services.

IOF tax may also be charged on issues of securities, including transactions on Brazilian stock, futures or commodities exchanges. The IOF rate levied on preferred share transactions in general is currently 0%. The Minister of Finance, however, has the legal authority to raise the rate to a maximum of 1.5% per day of the amount of taxable transactions during the period in which the investor holds securities, but only to the extent of gains made on the transaction, and not retrospectively.

In November 2009, the Brazilian government made use of this prerogative to raise the IOF rate from 0% to 1.5% on transactions assigning shares of any type (including preferred shares) traded on a stock exchange in Brazil, with the specific purpose of backing an ADS issue.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

On December 30, 2010, Brazil's tax authorities published instructions lowering the rate of IOF tax on foreign exchange transactions. This new provision consolidated the general rate of IOF on foreign exchange transactions at 0.38%, while maintaining the rate of 6.0% on investments in financial and capital markets, but increasing the cases subject to IOF at a rate of 2.0%, as of January 1, 2011.

The following foreign exchange transactions start paying IOF tax at the 2.0% rate under the new legislation:

- foreign exchange transactions settled as of January 1, 2011 by foreign investors' funds entering Brazil, including those doing so through simultaneous transactions, for acquisition of shares in private equity funds, emerging company funds, and funds of funds duly incorporated and authorized by the Brazilian Securities Commission;
- settlement of simultaneous foreign exchange transactions, contracted as of January 1, 2011, for the purpose of funds entering due to cancellation of depositary notes, for investment in shares traded on exchange; and
- settlement of simultaneous foreign exchange transactions, contracted as of January 1, 2011, for funds entering Brazil arising from altered arrangements for foreign investors, direct investment, investment in shares traded on exchange.

IOF is levied on all types of loan transactions, including overdrafts, at a rate of 0.0041% per day on the principal. Until November 2008, the rate applicable to amounts borrowed by individuals was 0.0082%. In those loan transactions in which the principal amount is not determined prior to the transaction, in addition to the principal, IOF tax is also levied on interest and other charges at the same rate. In any case, IOF tax is subject to a maximum rate of 1.5% in any one year.

Additionally, since January 2008, credit transactions are subject to IOF at an additional rate of 0.38%, regardless of the transaction term and regardless of whether the borrower is an individual or corporate entity.

IOF tax is levied on insurance transactions at a rate of:

- 0%, in the case of reinsurance or mandatory insurance pertaining to housing finance provided out by an agent of the housing finance system, export transactions, international transportation of goods, aviation insurance or premiums designated to fund life insurance plans containing life coverage; or
- 0.38% of premiums paid, in the case of life insurance and similar policies, for personal or workplace accidents, including mandatory insurance for personal injuries caused by vehicles or ships or cargo to persons transported or others;
- 2.38% private health insurance business; and
- 7.38% of premiums paid, in the case of other segments of insurance.

IOF is also charged on gains from transactions with terms of up to 30 days for sale, assignment, repurchase or renewal of fixed-income investments or the redemption of shares in financial investment funds, equity funds or investment clubs. For more information on financial investment funds and equity funds, see "-Regulation and Supervision-Asset management regulation." The maximum rate of IOF payable in such cases is 1.0% per day and decreases with the duration of the transactions, reaching zero for transactions with maturities of at least 30 days, except that the rate is currently 0% for the following types of transactions:

- transactions carried out by financial institutions and other institutions authorized by the Central Bank as principals;

- portfolio transactions carried out by mutual funds or investment clubs;
- transactions in equity markets, including stock, futures and commodities exchanges and similar entities; and
- redemptions of shares in equity funds.

Income tax and social contribution on profits

Federal taxes on company income include two components, income tax known as "IRPJ" and tax on net profits, known as "Social Contribution" or "CSLL." Current year and deferred income tax charges are calculated based on the rates of 15.0% plus a surcharge of 10.0% on taxable income exceeding R$240,000. Considering the above, the IRPJ is assessed at a combined rate of 25.0% of adjusted net income. Current year and deferred social contribution tax is calculated based on a general rate of 9.0% of adjusted net income. However, since May 2008, financial institutions and affiliated companies have been taxed at a rate of 15.0%.

Companies are taxed based on their worldwide income rather than income produced solely in Brazil. As a result, profits, capital gains and other income obtained abroad by Brazilian entities are computed in the determination of their taxable profits. A Brazilian entity is allowed to offset income tax paid abroad against tax on the same income due in Brazil (i) under double taxation agreements (ii) up to the amount of Brazilian income taxes charged the same income, if there is reciprocal treatment between Brazil and the country where the profit or gain was obtained, as in the case of the United States. Profits computed at the end of each year by an offshore entity which is a branch, subsidiary or affiliate of a Brazilian entity are regarded as available to the Brazilian entity and therefore subject to income tax in Brazil.

Profits or dividends generated and paid by Brazilian entities since 1996 are not subject to withholding income tax, nor are they included in the calculation of income tax for the corporate or individual a beneficiary domiciled in Brazil or abroad.

Since payment of dividends is not tax deductible for the corporation distributing them, Brazilian legislation allows an alternative means of remunerating shareholders in the form of "interest on shareholders' capital" which may be deducted from taxable income. This deduction is limited to the product of (i) the pro rata die variation of the long-term interest rate announced by the Brazilian government, known as the "TJLP", times (ii) the corporation's shareholder equity calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Brazil, not exceeding:

- 50.0% of net income (before the above distribution and any deductions for income taxes) for the year in respect of which the payment is made, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Brazil; or
- 50.0% of retained earnings for the year prior to the year in which payment is made, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Brazil.

Distributions of interest on shareholders' capital paid to holders of preferred shares, including payments to the depositary bank in respect of preferred shares underlying ADSs, are subject to Brazilian withholding tax at a rate of 15.0%, except for payments to (i) persons exempt from tax in Brazil or (ii) persons situated in tax havens in which case, payments are subject to income tax at a rate of 25.0%.

Tax losses of Brazilian companies accrued in prior years may offset income from future years up to 30.0% of annual taxable income.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

Gains realized by persons resident in Brazil on any disposition of preferred shares in Brazilian stock exchanges or similar markets are generally taxed at the following rates:

- 20.0% if the transaction is "day-trade" on a stock exchange; or
- 15.0% for all other transactions.

In addition, persons resident in Brazil who trade on exchange, or in commodities, futures or similar markets, except for day-trades, are subject to a withholding income tax of 0.005% as follows:

- in the futures market, the sum of the daily adjustments, if positive, determined when closing out the position, in advance or on settlement date;
- in the options market, the result, if positive, of the sum of the premiums paid and received on the same day;
- for forward contracts, which provide for delivery of assets on a set date, the difference, if positive, between the forward price and cash price on delivery date;
- with respect to forward contracts for financial settlement, the settlement amount as specified by the contract; and
- for the spot market, the sale value of shares, gold, financial assets or other securities traded therein.

This taxation system was created in order to facilitate the Brazilian tax authority's supervision of transactions in the financial and capital markets. Withholding income taxes as mentioned above may be (i) deducted from income tax levied on net monthly gains; (ii) offset with tax due in subsequent months; (iii) offset in annual income tax declaration of adjustment (if there is withheld tax to be returned); or (iv) offset with the outstanding withholding income tax due on capital gains from the sale of shares.

Brazilian residents day-trading on stock, commodities or futures exchanges, or similar markets, are also subject to an additional withholding tax similar to the above, but the rate is 1%. This tax may also be (i) deducted from the income tax levied on net monthly profit or (ii) offset with income tax due in following months (if there is any withheld tax accounted for in the balance).

Gains on disposition of preferred shares in Brazil by investors who reside in a jurisdiction deemed to be a "tax haven" under Brazilian law (any country that (i) does not charge income tax, (ii) charges income tax at a rate of less than 20.0% or (iii) a country whose corporate law opposes confidentiality on ownership of corporate entities) are subject to the same rates applicable to holders resident in Brazil, as previously described.

Gains obtained on disposition of preferred shares in Brazil by holders who are resident overseas, in a country that, according to Brazilian laws, is not deemed a tax haven, are exempted from Brazilian tax if:

- proceeds obtained from the disposition of shares were remitted from Brazil within five business days of the cancellation of the ADSs, which were represented by the shares sold; or
- the foreign investment in preferred shares is registered with the Central Bank pursuant to Resolution No. 2,689/00.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

Otherwise, the same treatment afforded residents in Brazil will be applicable.

There is zero income tax rate on income from transactions involving Brazilian government bonds purchased as of February 2006, except those for which buyers enter into resell agreements under CMN rules and conditions. This zero income tax rate is also applicable to income of non-residents that invest in shares of investment funds exclusively for non-resident investors, if their portfolio is at least, 98% government bonds. This zero tax rate is not applicable if the beneficiary is resident or domiciled in a country deemed a tax haven.

The income tax rate is also zero, under certain conditions, on income from investments in private equity investment funds, funds of funds and emerging markets investment funds in if income is paid, credited, delivered or remitted to individual or collective beneficiaries resident or domiciled abroad (except tax havens), whose investments in Brazil are in compliance with CMN regulations and conditions. These funds must comply with CVM regulations on limits for portfolio composition, diversification and investment rules in order to benefit from the zero income tax rate.

Income of Brazilian residents from redemption, sale or amortization of shares in investment funds, private equity funds, funds of funds and emerging markets investment funds, including income resulting from liquidation of the fund, is subject to an income tax rate of 15% on the positive difference between redemption or sale value and acquisition cost.

In December 2008, the Brazilian government created the Transition Tax Regime ("RTT") to neutralize the impact of the new accounting methods and criteria introduced in December 2008, as part of Brazil's adoption of international accounting rules. The adoption of RTT which, will be in force until law governing the tax effects of the new accounting methods and criteria becomes effective, was optional for 2008 and 2009 but became mandatory in 2010 fiscal year, including for purposes of determining the social contribution, PIS and COFINS. We have elected to adopt the RTT for fiscal year 2008.

In June 2010, legislation introduced thin capitalization rules, and limited deduction for interest paid or credited by a Brazilian company to (i) an addressee domiciled abroad, whether or not holding equity interest in the company paying, and (ii) an addressee resident, domiciled or incorporated in a tax haven or locality with a low or privileged tax regime.

In cases where the creditor is a related party domiciled abroad and holds an equity interest in the Brazilian company making a payment, debt may not exceed the equivalent to twice such shareholders' interest in the total shareholders' equity of the Brazilian company. In case of a related party with no shareholding interest, the limit will be equivalent to twice the total shareholders' equity of the Brazilian company resident in Brazil. If there is more than one creditor, total debt owed foreign companies may not exceed the equivalent of twice the total value of the interests of all the related parties in the shareholders' equity of the company resident in Brazil. If the debt is exclusively related to foreign companies that have no ownership interest in the Brazilian company, the overall limit is twice the shareholders' equity of the Brazilian company. If the creditor is domiciled in a low tax jurisdiction the debt amount may not exceed 30.0% of the shareholders' equity of the Brazilian company. Any amounts exceeding the limits above such limit may not be deducted for purposes of withholding income tax and social contributions.

Also beginning in June 2010, tax deductions for any payment to a beneficiary resident or domiciled in a country considered a tax haven became subject to the following requirements in addition to others already stipulated in the legislation: (i) identification of the actual beneficiary of the person domiciled abroad; (ii) proof of the ability of the person located abroad to complete the transaction; and (iii) documented proof of payment of the respective price and of receipt of the assets, rights, or utilization of service.

7.5 – Material effects of state regulation on business

In November 2010, the Brazilian tax authorities issued a normative instruction altering the tax treatment applicable to variation in the monetary value of taxpayers' credit rights and obligations due to varying exchange rates. Under this new instrument, as of calendar year 2011, election of tax regime for taxation of exchange-rate variations (i) may only be exercised in January of each calendar year and (ii) may only be altered during the fiscal year if there is "material variation in the exchange rate", as published by a Finance Ministry directive.

Social Integration Program (PIS) and Social Security Finance Contribution (Cofins) taxes

Two federal taxes are imposed on the gross revenues of corporate entities: PIS and COFINS. Nonetheless, many revenues, such as dividends, equity earnings from unconsolidated companies, revenues from the sale of fixed assets and export revenues paid in foreign currency are not included in the calculation base for PIS and COFINS. Revenues earned by corporations domiciled in Brazil are subject to PIS and COFINS taxes corresponding to interest on shareholders' capital.

Brazilian legislation authorize certain adjustments to the calculation base of those taxes depending on the business segment and on other aspects.

Between 2002 and 2003, the Brazilian government implemented a non-cumulative collection system of PIS and COFINS taxes, allowing taxpayers to deduct from their calculation basis credits originating from certain transactions. In order to offset these credits, the rates of both PIS and COFINS were substantially increased. Subsequent to the changes made to PIS and COFINS, as of May 2004, both taxes are applicable on imports of goods and services when the taxpayer is the importing company domiciled in Brazil.

As of August 2004, PIS and COFINS rates were eliminated for financial income earned by companies subject to the non-cumulative applicability of these taxes. However, taxes changed on payments of interest on shareholders' capital were maintained.

Certain economic activities are expressly excluded from the non-cumulative collection system of PIS and COFINS. Financial institutions remain subject to PIS and COFINS according to the "cumulative" method, which does not allow any credits to be discounted.

PIS is charged based on the total revenue generated by entities and is charged at a rate of 0.65% in the case of financial institutions.

Before February 1, 1999, we were not a COFINS taxpayer. On February 1, 1999, COFINS was imposed on our gross revenues at a rate of 3.0%. After September 1, 2003, this tax rate was increased to 4.0% for financial and similar institutions. The calculation base for COFINS is the same as that for PIS.

In July 2010, the Brazilian tax authorities introduced digital tax records for PIS and COFINS taxes. Under the new rule, financial and similar institutions must keep digital records for PIS and COFINS taxes relating to taxable events occurring as of January 1, 2012.

b. Issuer environmental policy and costs incurred for compliance with environmental regulation, and other environmental practices if applicable, including adherence to international standards of environmental protection

In all applications for credit, whatever the type or purpose of the transaction, in addition to checking the economic and financial situation of the applicant company/economic conglomerate, which is of crucial importance, credit analysts will take preventive measures in order to identify the possible existence of other risks such as those relating to foreign currency, image, performance, and environmental risk, which may affect the company's continuity and ability to pay. At this point, the report that is issued includes the appropriate WARNINGS in relation to social and environmental impacts, as guidelines to be followed by both the operational unit and other managers responsible for the final lending decision and for monitoring operations. In order to ensure that projects we finance are developed in a socially responsible manner and reflect sound environmental management practices, we have adopted the policy of measuring social and environmental risks in line with the ranking of requirements and responsibilities used in the Equator Principles. In September 2004, Bradesco adhered to the Equator Principles, a set of rules and criteria determined by the International Finance Corporation (IFC), the World Bank's financial arm, which require a series of socio-environmental analyses for project finance. Subsequently, in July 2006, Bradesco adopted the revised version of the Equator Principles, reaffirming its commitment to apply related policies and procedures to all project finance applications, whether new projects or extensions, involving total capital cost of US$ 10 million or more. An important point to note is that the adoption of these principles is voluntary and there is no dependence on or support from the IFC or the World Bank. Therefore any institutions that adopt the principles should use them as the basis for developing internal policies and practices and individual cases.

Socio-environmental assessment of each project includes items from the international socio-environmental agenda itself, in particular: socioeconomic impacts; involuntary resettlement of populations; impact on indigenous communities and peoples; sustainable development and use of natural renewable energy sources; protection of cultural diversity and biodiversity; health and safety systems, fire prevention and hazards involved in the production, distribution and consumption of energy; pollution - prevention and control.

By adhering to the Equator Principles, Bradesco is broadening its commitment to sustainable development and reinforcing its role as one of the leading sources of finance for economic activity in Brazil, while providing significant opportunities for responsible environmental stewardship.

c) dependence on relevant patents, trademarks, licenses, concessions, franchises, or royalty agreements to develop business

8.1 – Description of the economic conglomerate

Here follows a brief description of each of our principal beneficiary shareholders. None of the principal beneficiary shareholders have voting rights that differ from those of the other holders of our common shares.

Cidade de Deus Participações

Cidade de Deus Participações is a holding company for investments in other companies. It also manages, buys and sells securities and other assets on its own account. Its shareholders are: Nova Cidade de Deus, with 44.91% of its common shares and total capital, Fundação Bradesco, with 33.20% of its common shares and total capital, and the Aguiar Family, with 21.89 % of its common shares and total capital as of December 31, 2010. Its capital stock consists of common, nominative book-entry shares with no par value.

Nova Cidade de Deus

Nova Cidade de Deus is a holding company for investments in other companies, in particular those directly or indirectly owning our voting capital. On December 31, 2010, through its interest in Cidade de Deus Participações, the company indirectly owned 22.12% of our common shares and 11.19% of our total shares.

The capital stock of Nova Cidade de Deus is divided in class A and class B common shares and preferred shares.

Ownership of Class B common shares is restricted to:

- members of our executive board;
- former members of our executive board who have become members of our Board of Directors;
- former members of our executive board who have become members of the Board of Directors of one or more of our subsidiaries; and
- business corporations or civil-law corporations in which a majority of voting shares is owned by the above mentioned persons.

Ownership of Nova Cidade de Deus class A common stock is restricted of persons entitled to own class common B shares, as well as of civil-law associations or foundations under private law, whose management is in the hands of the above persons or persons designated by them. Only Nova Cidade de Deus class A and class B common shareholders have voting rights.

Aguiar Family

Three members of the Aguiar family and the estate of Mr. Amador Aguiar indirectly owned as of December 31, 2010, through their interest in Cidade de Deus Participações, 10.78% of our common shares and 5.46% of our total shares. In addition, the same parties directly owned shares totaling 1.11% of our common shares and 1.08% of our preferred shares and 1.09% of total shares. No member of the Aguiar family individually has a direct holding of more than 1.00% of our voting shares.

Fundação Bradesco

Fundação Bradesco, directly and indirectly, through its interest in Cidade de Deus Participações, Nova Cidade de Deus and NCF, held on December 31, 2010, 51.06% of our common shares, 2.28% of our preferred shares and 26.67% of our total shares. In accordance with the bylaws of the foundation, Fundação Bradesco, its board of governors, as the highest decision-making body, consists of all our Board of Directors, executive officers and departmental directors, as well as all board members and directors of Cidade de Deus Participações S.A., with no right to compensation.

8.1 – Description of the economic conglomerate

BBD Participações

BBD indirectly owned 5.76% of our common shares and 2.92% of our total shares on December 31, 2010, through its interest in Nova Cidade de Deus. BBD is a holding company that was set up to hold shares in our capital and the capital of our direct and indirect shareholders. In 1999, BBD acquired an indirect holding of 5.51% of our voting shares from a number of shareholders. BBD shares may only be held by members of the Board of Directors and statutory officers, or qualified employees of Bradesco, Bradespar, or our Brazilian subsidiaries and nonprofit legal entities, or local companies controlled by them, whose managers must be exclusively employees or managers of the Bradesco Organization. However, only members of the Board of Directors and Statutory Officers may hold shares with voting rights. The majority of the members of our Board of Directors and Statutory Officers hold BBD shares.

NCF Participações S.A.

NCF Participações S.A. is a holding company controlled by Cidade de Deus Participações and Fundação Bradesco. On December 31, 2010, NCF directly held 2.18% of our common shares and 1.82% of our total shares.

BES

BES is a commercial bank and its head office is in Portugal. In December 31, 2010, BES directly owned 7.10% of our common shares and 3.55% of our total shares. At present, Mr. Ricardo Espírito Santo Silva Salgado represents BES on our Board of Directors.

Other

Direct holdings of the public accounted for 25.29% of our voting capital as of December 31, 2010 (including a 2.49% interest held by Bank of Tokyo Mitsubishi - UFJ (MUFG)) and 97.52% of our outstanding preferred shares. Direct and indirect holdings of the public in our common and preferred shares totaled an effective interest of 61.41% of our share capital on December 31, 2010.

10.1 – General financial and equity conditions

Note that accounting data disclosed by the issuer in item 10.1 refer to consolidated accounting data compiled in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) published by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). These consolidated financial statements are covered by IFRS 1 (R) - First-time Adoption under International Financial Reporting Standards. Our data for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008 were compiled under a different accounting standard (not the international accounting standard), therefore we are not including comments or statements for this reporting period since the data do not allow proper comparison with those of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009.

a) general financial and equity conditions

Ø 2010

In 2010, the Brazilian real appreciated by 4.3% in relation to the U.S. dollar, reaching R$ 1.6662 per US$ 1.00 on December 31, 2010 as compared to R$ 1.7412 per US$ 1.00 on December 31, 2009. The Central Bank increased the base interest rate from 8.75% in December 2009 to 10.75% in December 2010.

The year of 2010 was characterized by the world economic growth recovery, although at a slower and uneven pace across the countries. If, on one hand, some developed countries will still have to overcome some difficulties generated by economic destabilization occurred in 2008/2009, on the other hand, there remains the clear perception that this scenario opens new opportunities for emerging countries remains, in particular for countries like Brazil, where the democratic environment is consolidated and the business sector has achieved a capacity consistent with such new challenges.

In spite of many challenges linked to long-term growth, Bradesco is prudently optimistic on perspectives for the next years. The Brazilian economy was already starting to present solid bases for growth recovery at the end of 2009, and confirmed this at the end of 2010, which was marked by a robust GDP expansion to the highest level since 1985.

In the political environment, 2010 was a year in which the full exercise of citizenship evidenced a deeply-rooted democratic system establishing freedom of speech and choice as a target.

Advances occurred according not only to economic indicators, but also to social indicators. In fact, improvements in people's life quality, especially spending power, achievements that brought a large part of the population into the middle class, which is a significant statistical fact in the country's history.

Among the most significant events of 2010, the following stand out: a) the expressive volume of credit operations that increased by 19.3% over 2009, and the recovery of overdue credits, which increased by 57.9% over the previous year; b) the expansion of Customer Service Network operating in all Brazilian municipalities through the opening of 178 new Branches; c) the reorganization of facilities abroad to meet properly the demands of the international market; d) Bradesco's presence as the leading coordinator of Petrobras capitalization process, the greatest operation of the kind in Brazilian and world stock markets; e) the acquisition of the whole capital stock of Ibi Services in Mexico, in which partnership with local C&A was part of the deal; f) partnership with Banco do Brasil and Caixa Econômica Federal for creation and management of a Brazilian card brand - ELO; g) Bradesco's permanence in the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index and in the Corporate Sustainability Index - ISE; h) and from a socioenvironmental liability standpoint, the launch of the Corporate Code of Ethics of Bradesco Organization in Braille.

Net income attributed to controlling block of shareholders was R$ 9.940 billion for the fiscal year, which corresponds to an annualized return of 20.9% on average shareholder equity. Annualized return on total assets at 1.8% was unchanged compared to previous year.

10.1 – General financial and equity conditions

Consolidated shareholder equity attributed to controlling shareholders totaled R$ 51.051 billion and total assets were R$ 602.954 billions.

Lending

Bradesco is working to democratize access to credit by continuously expanding and diversifying its offer, thus raising its volume of operations, including through direct financing and partnerships with market agents, as well as individual lines, such as payroll-deductible loans through its extensive branches network, service points and Banco Postal, and the Customer Service Center 0800 Loans.

Funding and asset management

Data for our loans and funding sources are shown below:

- R$ 225.636 billion was the end-year balance outstanding for loans and advances to clients, thus showing an evolution of 19.3% in the period, and the following products were highlighted: Working capital; BNDES / Finame onlending, Vehicles - Consumer Credit (CDC), Credit Cards and Housing Finance;
- R$ 171.921 billion Funds from credit institutions, including: Demand deposits, Interbank, Open market borrowings and obligations from borrowings and onlending, showing an increase of 43.2% on 2009;
- R$ 192.476 billion in Client funds, including Demand Deposits, Savings, Term Deposits and Other Deposits, showing growth of 13.3% on the previous year;
- R$ 83.493 billion technical reserves for Insurance and Pension, showing an increase of 15.0% over the previous year;
- R$ 26.315 billion in Subordinated debt, of which R$ 21.236 billion issued in Brazil and R$ 5.079 billion abroad, showing growth of 13.9% on 2009; and
- R$ 17.810 billion in funds from securities issued, of which R$ 12.298 billion issued in Brazil and R$ 5.512 billion issued abroad, showing growth of 131.8% on the previous year.

On December 31, 2010 market capitalization of Bradesco was R$ 109.759 billion, with emphasis on preferred share valuation of 12.1% in the year, as compared to 1.0% valuation of Ibovespa.

In 2009, the real appreciated by 25.5% in relation to the U.S. dollar, reaching R$ 1.7412 per US$ 1.00 on December 31, 2009 as compared to R$ 2.3370 per US$ 1.00 on December 31, 2008. The Central Bank gradually decreased the base interest rate from 13.75% in December 2008 to 8.75% in December 2009.

The fiscal year of 2009 began with the worst possible forecasts for the global economy, but ended with consistent signs of recovery. The actual pace of recovery varied from country to country, accompanied by a lingering degree of uncertainty regarding the developed world, where the adjustments in progress may impose reduced consumption growth over the previous years' levels. At the same time, we see challenges ahead related to the strong fiscal deterioration in these nations as part of the anti-cyclical response to the risk of an economic depression.

Brazil has successfully overcome the challenges posed by the crisis. The adoption of anti-cyclical policies resulted in a decline in household consumption, the main component of GDP, but not nearly to the same extent as in previous periods of major turbulence. The decline in investments – temporarily interrupting the expansion cycle of the previous five years – is already showing unmistakable signs of a reversal thanks to reduced idle capacity, the favorable outlook for domestic demand and the opportunities arising from the World Cup and the Olympic Games, as well as from pre-salt oil exploration. At the time, Brazil was already emerging as one of the leading destinations for foreign direct investment from global companies.

10.1 – General financial and equity conditions

Net income attributed to controlling block of shareholders was R$ 8.283 billion for the fiscal year, which corresponds to an annualized return of 20.8% on average shareholder equity. Annualized return on average assets was 1.8%. Consolidated shareholder equity attributable to controlling shareholders amounted to R$ 44.191 billion and total assets stood at R$ 489.684 billion.

Lending

Supported by the credit democratization strategy and the continuing expansion and diversification of its funding, Bradesco increased its volume of operations, including through direct financing and partnerships with market agents, as well as individual lines, such as payroll-deductible loans through its extensive Branches Network, Service Stations and Banco Postal, and the Customer Service Center 0800 Loans.

Funding and asset management

Our loans and funding sources are listed below:

- R$ 189.165 billion was the end-year balance of loans and advances to clients, highlighting the following products: Working capital; BNDES / Finame onlending; Credit Cards and Housing Finance;
- R$ 120.068 billion funds from credit institutions, including: Demand Deposits, Interbank, Open-market funding and obligations from borrowings and onlending;
- R$ 169.946 billion Client funds, including Demand deposits, Savings, Term deposits, and Other deposits;
- R$ 72.597 billion Insurance and pension technical reserves;
- R$ 23.104 billion Subordinated debt, of which R$ 19.325 billion issued in Brazil and R$ 3.779 billion abroad; and
- R$ 7.683 billion in funds from securities issued, of which R$ 3.225 billion issued in Brazil and R$ 4.458 billion abroad.

I) Basel Index

Capital adequacy and leverage

Brazilian financial institutions are subject to methodology for capital metrics and levels based on a risk-weighted asset index. The parameters of this methodology resemble those of the international minimum capital levels adopted under the Basel Accord. The Basel Accord requires banks to have a minimum capital ratio of 8.0%, of total weighted assets while the Central Bank of Brazil requires 11.0% minimum capital. At least half of total capital must consist of Tier I capital. Tier I, or core, capital corresponds to shareholders' equity less certain intangibles. Tier II capital includes asset revaluation reserves, contingency reserves and subordinated debt, subject to certain restrictions. Tier II capital must not exceed Tier I capital.

In December 2009, Bradesco's Reference Equity reached R$ 55.9 billion, while the Required Reference Equity was R$ 34.5 billion, thus making for a capital margin of R$ 21.4 billion. Most of the requirement was due to the credit risk portion (local acronym PEPR), which accounted for 96% of risk-weighted assets, reflecting mainly growth of lending. Compared with December 2008, we note that Reference Equity showed a significant increase of R$ 8.7 billion or 18.3%, and the main points were: (i) the capital increase through absorption of R$ 1.4 billion in shares in April 2009; and (ii) a R$ 1.4 billion increase in additional provisions pursuant to Central Bank Resolution No. 3.674/08 which allowed banks to add in the full amount of additional provision for doubtful debt.

10.1 – General financial and equity conditions

In December 2010, Bradesco's Reference Equity reached R$ 56.1 billion, against a Required Reference Equity of R$ 41.9 billion, thus making for a capital margin of R$ 14.3 billion. Most of the requirement was due to the credit risk portion (local acronym PEPR), which accounted for 93% of risk-weighted assets, reflecting mainly expansion of lending.

The Basel Index ended the period at 14.7%, thus showing a fall of 3.1 percentage points on December 2009, primarily due to: (i) the exclusion of R$ 3.0 billion of additional provisions in response to Central Bank Resolution No. 3.825/09, which revoked Central Bank Resolution No. 3.674/08, which allowed full additional provisions for doubtful accounts in the calculation of Tier I reference equity; and (ii) the R$ 4.9 billion reduction due to maturing subordinated debt and escalation of these debts in the last 5 years, which was offset by R$ 2.0 billion of new foreign debt eligible as Tier II capital. Note the margin (capital margin) of R$ 14.3 billion, which enabled growth of the Organization's lending and consequently of its assets.

(2) Operating efficiency = (Personnel expenses + profit sharing + Administrative expenses) / (Net interest income + Net income fees and commissions + Income from insurance and pensions + Equity earnings from subsidiaries + Other operating revenues – Other operating expenses)

(3) Operating coverage = (Net income fees and commissions) / (Personnel + Administrative expenses)

Operating Efficiency Ratio (OER)

Cumulative 12-month OER showed an increase of 2.2 p. a., from 43.0% in 2009 to 45.2% in 2010. This increase was due mainly to exceptional treasury gains and lower advertising and publicity expenses in 2009, which favored this indicator for that period, in addition to higher costs in 2010 due to growing numbers of Points of Service.

Another factor driving the higher ratio was increased personnel expenses reflecting higher salaries and headcounts resulting from investments in new Points of Service and enhanced segmentation of business.

Operating Coverage

Cumulative 12-month Coverage fell 0.1 p. a. basically due to: (i) additional personnel and administrative expenses, caused mainly by: (a) the impact of collective bargaining; (b) higher advertising and publicity costs; and (c) added business from new Points of Service; partly offset by (ii) the evolution of net income from fees and commissions.

III) Loans and advances to clients

Loans and advances to clients classified as:

- Not due and not subject to impairment losses;
- Due but not subject to impairment losses, and
- Subject to impairment losses, which includes loans and advances classified as defaults and loans and advances analyzed individually for loss.

The Organization defines defaults as cases of debtors whose loans or advances are over 90 days in arrears, have renegotiated contracts, or have shown another indication of loss, such as a bankruptcy order or creditor composition (concordat).

Of the total of these transactions, 98.8% were classified as low risk, showing the adequacy and consistency of the organization's credit rating policy, processes and instruments.

Loans and advances to clients overdue but not subject to impairment losses

There follows an analysis by arrears of loans and advances not marked as default in the collective analysis and not subject to impairment loss in the individual analysis.

For the purposes of this analysis, an asset is considered in arrears and included in the table below whenever a payment is late or not received strictly in line with contractual conditions. The amount included in this category refers to total financial assets, i.e. not only the overdue payment, but also the contractual value plus interest.

Loans and advances to clients that are not individually significant, such as retailers that have not been classified as default are shown in this category.

Individually significant loans and advances may be shown in this category when after conducting a separate analysis there was identified need for recognizing a loss on individual impairment and therefore the latter is directed to the analysis of collective loss.

Liquidity and Financing

Central Bank requirements for compulsory deposits determine our minimum liquidity levels. We review our asset and liability management policies from time to time to ensure that we have sufficient liquidity available to honor withdrawals, deposits, repay other liabilities at maturity, extend loans or other forms of credit to our customers and meet our own working capital needs.

The treasury department acts as a support center for our business segments by managing our funding and liquidity positions and executing our investment objectives in accordance with our asset and liability management policies. It is also responsible for setting the rates for our different products, including exchange and interbank transactions. The treasury department covers any funding shortfall through borrowing in the interbank market. It seeks to maximize efficient use of our deposit base by investing any surpluses in liquid instruments in the interbank market.

We have been using our excess liquidity to invest in Government bonds and expect to continue doing so, subject to regulatory requirements and investment considerations. Our principal sources of financing are:

- demand deposits, savings deposits and term deposits; and
- debentures, borrowing and onlending, funds from issuance of securities and subordinated debts.

Deposits

Deposits are our most important source of funding. Our deposits balance over these years progressed in the following manner:

- in 2010, the balance of our deposits increased approximately 13.3% as compared to 2009, mainly due to the increase in time and saving deposits

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

10.1 – General financial and equity conditions

Deposits accounted for approximately 70.0% of all major funding sources on December 31, 2010. Our deposits consist primarily of real-denominated, interest-bearing time and savings deposits and real-denominated, non-interest-bearing demand deposits. The increase in the balances of our savings and demand deposits from December 31, 2009 through December 31, 2010 was due basically to the increase in our client base. At December 31, 2010, we had 23.1 million checking accounts and 41.1 million savings accounts, compared to 20.9 million checking accounts and 37.7 million savings accounts at December 31, 2009.

Borrowing and Onlending

Variation in the year of 2010 as compared to the 2009 balance is mainly due to the increased volume of loans and onlending in the country, basically from Finame and BNDES operations.

Funds from Issuance of Securities

The variation in the fiscal year of 2010 compared to 2009 mainly derives from: a) new issuances of Financial Bonds in the market, occurred in the 2nd quarter of 2010, the balance of which in December 2010 amounted to R$ 7,801 million; b) the increased volumes of securities issued abroad in the amount of R$ 1,054 million; c) the increased operations of Real Estate Exchange Bills in the amount of R$ 777 million; and d) the greater volume of Mortgage-Backed Securities in the amount of R$ 379 million.

Subordinated debt

In December 2010, Bradesco's Subordinated Debt totaled R$ 26,315 million (R$ 5,079 million abroad and R$ 21,236 million in Brazil).

In 2010, there was an issuance of R$ 2,026 million in Subordinated Debts (R$ 193 million locally and R$ 1,833 million abroad), being this total eligible to compose Level II of the Basel Index, due between 2016 and 2021. Issuance of subordinated notes in August 2010, in the amount of US$ 1.1 billion, stands out.

It is worth mentioning that only R$ 8,051 million of the total subordinated debt are used in the calculation of the Basel Index, given the respective maturity.

Additionally, note that on 01.13.2011, Bradesco issued US$ 500 million in subordinated notes accepted by the Central Bank of Brazil as part of Basel Tier II capital.

Sources of Additional Liquidity

In some limited circumstances we may obtain emergency funds from the Central Bank through a transaction referred to as "discount." A discount is a loan from the Central Bank to a financial institution, that loan being guaranteed by federal government securities owned by the financial institution. The amount of federal government securities held by the financial institution as trading securities limits the amount of discount transactions. Banco Bradesco did not enter into discount transactions for liquidity purposes.

iv) eventual restrictions to the issuer, in particular, with respect to limits of indebtedness and taking on new debts, distribution of dividends, sale of assets, issuance of new securities, and sale of shareholding control

g) limits for use of contracted financing

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

10.1 – General financial and equity conditions

Minimum short-term liquidity limits are established by Internal Committees, Executive Board and Board of Directors. Such limits are intended to ensure a sufficient liquidity and meet the minimum expected needs. Bradesco reviews periodically such limits, on which projected cash needs are based.

h) significant changes to each item of financial statements

Comments on significant alterations in each item of the consolidated statements of income are found in item 10.2 a).

Particularly the following items:

- Net interest income;
- Revenue from services and commissions;
- Net gain / (loss) from financial assets / liabilities for trading;
- Income from insurance and pension;
- Losses due to impairment of loans and advances;
- Personnel and Administrative Expenses;
- Other operational revenues (expenses);and
- Income tax and social contribution.

Cash and near cash with central banks

The balance of cash and near cash with central banks amounted to R$ 80,960 million in 2010, thus showing an increase of R$ 56,110 million or 225.8%, on 2009. This increase basically reflected higher reserve requirements varying with deposits under Central Bank Circular 3.513/10 and the additional compulsory deposit to cover demand deposits, time deposits and savings, as per Central Bank Circular 3.514/10.

10.1 – General financial and equity conditions

Loans and advances to credit institutions

Comparing 2010 to 2009, the reduction in loans and advances to credit institutions was primarily due to fewer repurchase agreements, which fell from R$ 57,591 million to R$ 37,183 million, thus showing a reduction of R$ 20,408 million.

Loans and advances to clients

Loans and advances to clients amounted to 34.9% of our total assets in 2010 (2009 - 35.6%).

Comparing 2010 to 2009, the evolution of 20.7% refers basically to the higher volume of transactions, highlighting the following products:(i) working capital; (ii) BNDES / Fname onlending;(iii) vehicle loans (CDC);(iv) credit card; and (v) housing finance.

Financial assets held for trading

In 2010, financial assets for trading reached R$ 75,234 million, an increase of 38.1% on the previous year. This growth was mainly due to an R$ 12,242 million increase in the portfolio of stocks and bonds issued by non-financials and an R$ 10,168 million increase in the Brazilian government bond portfolio.

Assets assigned as guarantee

The 32.7% increase during the year reflects a larger Brazilian government bond portfolio assigned as guarantee.

Technical reserves for insurance and pensions

Provisions for insurance and pension plans reached R$ 83,493 million, an increase of R$ 10,896 million. This was basically due to growth in the VGBL and PGBL products and in traditional plans too.

We also note that the main funding sources are discussed in item 10.1 d); e); and f).

10.2 – Operational and financial results

a) results of issuer's operations, in particular: i) description of important income components; ii) factors that materially affected the operating results

To provide a clearer view of the main influences that have affected our results (revenues and expenses), we have included our consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009, which were prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). Note that these consolidated financial statements are covered by rules for First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards - IFRS 1 (R). The data for the year ended December 2008, 31 were not prepared under the international accounting standard, so we are not including comments or statements for 2008, since there would not be a proper comparison with the years ended December 2010, and 2009.

previous period. Consequently, the Return on Average Shareholders' Equity (ROAE) reached 20.9%. The Return on Average Assets (ROAA) was 1.8% in the fiscal year of 2010.

Next we comment on the main line items that affected results and compare the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009:

10.2 – Operational and financial results

Net interest income

Net interest income reached R$ 32,771 million, increasing by R$ 5,581 million in relation to 2009, or 20.5%, as a result of the following factors: a) an increase of R$ 3,764 million in revenues for interest and similar from loans and leasing, reflecting a 19.3% increase in loans to customers, highlighting the following products: (i) working capital; (ii) BNDES / Finame onlending; (iii) vehicle loans (CDC); (iv) credit cards and (v) housing finance; and b) an increase of R$ 4,200 million in income from interest and similar financial assets for trading and available for sale, basically due to an increase of 17.1% in these assets in the period; c) evolution of R$ 1,426 million in revenues earned on Central Bank compulsory deposits, reflecting an increase of 263.8% in the balance of these assets required to cover term deposits under Central Bank Circular 3.513/10 and additional compulsory deposits relating to demand accounts, time deposit accounts, and savings accounts, as per Central Bank Circular 3.514/10; and partly offset by: d) an increase of R$3,489 million in interest expenses arising from open market funding transactions.

Fee and commission revenue

In 2010, revenues from services and commission showed growth of R$ 1,555 million, as a result, especially from: (a) the good performance of credit card segment derived from the increase of card/client base and revenues from Banco Ibi; (b) the increase of current account revenues, derived from the expansion of operations and account holder base, which recorded a net increase of some 2.2 million new accounts in the period; (c) increased revenue from guarantees provided; (d) the increase of revenues from fund management; (e) the increase of revenues from collections and taxes; and (f) improvement in revenues from managing purchaser consortiums.

Net gain / (loss) on financial assets / liabilities for trading

In 2010, gain / (loss) on financial assets / liabilities for trading amounted to R$ 2,213 million, which was down 63.0% on the previous year due to lower income from derivative financial instruments used to hedge foreign investments. The result of a variation of value in 2010 was depreciation of 4.3% against depreciation of 25.5% in 2009.

Income from insurance and pensions

The evolution of 45.0% in the "income from insurance and pensions" line item was due to an increase of 16.1%, or R$ 3,876 million in premiums retained in 2010 which reached R$ 27,994 million, partly offset by: (i) increased variation of technical provisions in the amount of R$ 1.491 million; (ii) an increase of retained claims in the amount of R$ 1,248 million; and (iii) an increase in marketing and sales expenses in the amount of R$ 336 million.

Losses due to impairment of loans and advances

In 2010, losses due to impairment of loans and advances totaled R$ 5,756 million, thus showing a decrease of 46.8% during the year, due to improvement in defaults and better recovery of credit, which evolved 57.9% in the period to reach R$ 2,677 million. Lending increased 19.3% in the same period, showing that Bradesco's loan portfolio grew but retained its high-quality profile.

Personnel Expenses

In the comparison of the fiscal years of 2010 and 2009, there was an increase of R$ 1,460 million principally explained by: i) increase of wage levels; ii) net staff increase of 7,574 employees; iii) incorporation of Banco Ibi occurred in November 2009; iv) higher expenses related to the employee profit sharing program; and v) higher expenses related to provision for labor proceedings.

Version: 1

10.2 – Operational and financial results

Administrative Expenses

The comparison between the years of 2010 and 2009 shows that the 19.9% increase is basically due to: (i) the impact of incorporation of Banco Ibi occurred in November 2009; (ii) higher costs of advertising and publicity in 2010, as in 2009 that expense recorded a significant reduction in relation to its history; (iii) increase of volume of business and services; (iv) increase of variable expenses associated with revenues (e.g., Bradesco Expresso and Banco Postal); (v) higher costs of legal advice, mainly related to credit recoveries that increased by 60% in 2010; and (vi) expansion of Customer Service Network by 10,307 outlets, including 174 branches, 368 PAB/PAE/PAA, 5,904 Bradesco Expresso, and other 3,861 facilities totaling 54,884 customer service outlets on December 31, 2010.

Other operational revenues (expenses)

In 2010, the increase in other operational revenues/expense, totaling R$ 2,978 million, was due in particular to: (i) income obtained in 2009 from partial sale of shares in Visanet (now Cielo), amounting to R$ 2,410 million; and (ii) an increase in tax expenses of R$ 480 million, reflecting growth of taxable income liable for PIS, Cofins and ISS.

Income tax and social contribution

Income tax and social contribution expense rose 23.6% in 2010 on 2009. This increase was basically due to higher taxable income. The effective rate reached 34.40% in 2010 from 33.94% in 2009. b) variations in income from price changes, foreign exchange rates, inflation, changes in volumes and introduction of new products and services c) impact of inflation, variation of prices of main inputs and products, and foreign exchange and interest rates on the issuer's operating income and financial income

During periods of high interest rates, our financial income increases because the interest rates on our interest-earning assets are higher too. At the same time, we incur higher financial expenses since interest rates on interest-bearing liabilities are also higher. Changes in volumes of our assets and liabilities that incur interest also affect our revenues and expenses. For example, an increase in our interest income attributable to higher interest rates may be offset by a reduction in the volume of our outstanding loans.

Additionally, in the event of the Brazilian real depreciating, we (i) incur losses on our liabilities denominated in/or indexed to, foreign currencies, such as our long-term debt denominated in dollars and foreign currency borrowings to the extent that the cost in Brazilian reais if the related financial expense is higher, and (ii) incur gains on our assets denominated in/or indexed to, foreign currencies, such as our securities and dollar – geared loans, when revenue from these assets measured in Brazilian reais increases. Conversely, when the Brazilian real appreciates, as it did from 2003 to 2007, (i) incur losses on assets denominated in/or indexed to, foreign currencies, and (ii) incur gains on our liabilities denominated in/or indexed to, foreign currencies.

In 2010, net interest income evolved 20.5% on 2009, R$ 27,190 million to R$ 32,771 million in 2010. The increase of R$ 5,581 million in interest income from operations, primarily reflects the increase in the volume of transactions, since the interest rate (CDI) in the period remained broadly stable, decreasing 0.1 p.a., from 9.9% in 2009 to 9.8% in 2010.

Note that these consolidated financial statements are covered by rules for First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS 1 (R). Data for the year ended December 31, 2008 were not prepared using this international accounting standard, therefore we are not including comments or statements for 2008, since there would not be a proper comparison those for the years ended December 31, 2010 and December 31, 2009.

10.3 – Past or expected events having significant effects on financial statements

a) introduction or disposal of operational segment

During this period there was no introduction or disposal in the operating segment, however, we highlight the acquisition of the entire share capital of Ibi Services S. de R.L. Mexico (Ibi México) and RFS Human Management S. de R.L. as commented in item 10.3 b.

b) constitution, acquisition or sale of equity

In Bradesco Organization, the following significant events that marked the period stand out:

- On February 11, 2010, Bradesco, Banco do Brasil and Banco Santander (Brasil) signed a Memorandum of Understanding to allow the consolidation of operations carried out in their respective Automated Teller Machine Networks like those installed in airports, gas stations, supermarkets, shopping centers, drugstores and bus terminals. The operation, the successful pilot activity of which occurred on November 25, 2010, is expected to provide a significant increase of Network availability and capillarity, including efficiency gains over its current form of individualized use;
- On April 23, 2010, Bradesco submitted to Santander Group Spain a proposal to purchase part of its shares issued by Cielo S.A., corresponding to 2.09% of the capital stock, for the amount of R$ 431.7 million, and shares issued by Companhia Brasileira de Soluções e Serviços – CBSS, corresponding to 0.67% of the capital stock for the amount of R$ 141.4 million, being that operation completed on July 13, 2010 was approved by the relevant authorities. On January 24th, 2011, Bradesco acquired CBSS shares held by Visa International Service Association corresponding to 5.01% of CBSS capital for R$ 85.8 million, pending approval by the competent authorities. Upon such acquisitions, Bradesco participation in Cielo and CBSS increased to 28.65% and 50%, respectively, thus increasing its participation in the card market;
- On April 27, 2010, a Memorandum of Understanding was signed by Bradesco and Banco do Brasil to forge a partnership to administer a Brazilian credit card, debit card, and prepaid card brand for account holders and non-account holders, known as Elo, which will include, among other activities, the development of new business for private label cards. Further, on August 9, a Memorandum of Understanding was signed with Caixa Econômica Federal, which joined the partnership;
- On June 2, 2010, the acquisition of the whole capital stock of Ibi Services S. de R.L. Mexico (Ibi México) and RFS Human Management S. de R.L., a company controlled by Ibi México, was completed for the approximate amount of R$ 301,2 milhões. The deal includes a partnership with C&A México S. de R.L. (C&A México) to jointly sell, on an exclusive basis and for a period of 20 years, financial products and services through the stores of the C&A México chain;
- On August 19, 2010, Bradesco Seguros, ZNT Empreendimentos and OdontoPrev signed a Memorandum of Understanding with BB Seguros to make a strategic partnership for the development and commercialization of dentistry products; and
- On September 2, 2010, Bradesco, jointly with its controlled company CPM Braxis S.A. and its other shareholders entered into an agreement with Capgemini S.A., under which Capgemini acquired 55% of shares issued by CPM Braxis and became its controlling company.

In 2010, these transactions did not significantly impact our accounting statements. We believe that all of the above-mentioned transactions relating to assets and liabilities will increase our revenues, expenses and future results. The value of these increases is uncertain, and therefore its impact on our future financial performance cannot be estimated.

10.4 – Significant changes in accounting practices – Qualifications and points emphasized in the auditor's report

a) significant changes in accounting practices

b) significant effects of changes in accounting practices

In line with our process of compliance with international accounting standards, certain accounting pronouncements and their interpretations have been issued by the Accounting Decision Committee (CPC), which shall apply to the financial institutions only when approved by National Monetary Council (CMN).

Accounting decisions already approved include:

- Resolution No. 3566/08 – Impairment (CPC 01);
- Resolution No. 3604/08 – Cash Flow Statement (CPC 03);
- Resolution No. 3750/09 – Disclosure on Related Parties (CPC 05); and
- Resolution No. 3823/09 – Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets (CPC 25).

Currently it is not possible to estimate when the National Monetary Council will approve other CPC accounting decisions or whether their application will be prospective or retrospective. Therefore, it is not yet possible to quantify the accounting impacts of the application of such decisions to Bradesco financial statements.

CMN Resolution No. 3786/09 and Bacen Circular Letters Numbers 3472/09 and 3516/10 established that financial and other institutions authorized to operate by Bacen, which have been incorporated as a public corporation or are required to establish an Audit Committee, shall prepare every year, starting on December 31, 2010, and publish not more than 90 days after the baseline date of December 31 their consolidated financial statements in conformity with international accounting standards (IFRS), after the international decisions issued by IASB – International Accounting Standards Board. Bacen Circular Letter No. 3.516/10 extended the period for publication of IFRS Financial Statements related to 2010 to 120 days.

The following notes concern material adjustments between accounting BR GAAP practices used by Bradesco under compared with IFRS:

1. Consolidation

Under BR GAAP, holdings in companies under shared control (usually represented an interest of 20% to 50%) are proportionally consolidated in the Organization's accounting statements and exclusive investment funds are not consolidated as per determinations of the Central Bank of Brazil.

For IFRS purposes, holdings in affiliates in which the Organization has significant influence, were shown using the equity equivalence method. Therefore these investments were not included in consolidated financial statements, but the exclusive investment funds were consolidated.

2. Reversal of dividends to be paid but not yet declared

Under BR GAAP, in accordance with Brazil's Law of Corporations, shareholders are entitled to minimum mandatory dividends in each period, in proportion to profits as determined by its bylaws or articles, or in the absence of the latter, a minimum mandatory dividend of not be less than 25% of adjusted net income. Companies may thus remunerate shareholders at levels above the mandatory minimum, and may provision these amounts in their accounting statements for payment in the next period, even if they have not yet been declared. For IFRS purposes, the proposed additional dividend recorded in liabilities, which exceed the mandatory minimum dividend determined by the Organization's bylaws or articles, which had not been approved by the Shareholders General Meeting prior to the accounting statements base date, were reverted to shareholder equity since the amount does not represent a legal obligation of the Organization until voted by the Shareholders General Meeting.

10.4 – Significant changes in accounting practices – Qualifications and points emphasized in the auditor's report

3. Effects of hyperinflation on non-monetary assets and liabilities

Until June 30, 1997, Brazil was considered a hyperinflationary economy, but for BR GAAP purposes, accounting statements denominated in currency of constant purchasing power were required only until December 31, 1995. Therefore indexing for accounting statements was discontinued as of January 1, 1996.

For IFRS purposes, the effects of adjusting the values of nonmonetary assets through June 30, 1997 were recognized in accounting statements as required by IAS 29 - "Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies."

4. Pension plans

Under BR GAAP, provisions arising from obligations under benefit plans are not recognized except current monthly obligations.

For IFRS purposes, the "Projected Unit Credit" method was applied and gains and losses outside the corridor (which refers to the portion of actuarial gains and losses to be recorded as revenue or expense if net cumulative actuarial gains and losses not recognized at the end of the previous year exceeds the greater of (i) 10% of present value of the obligation before deducting plan assets or (ii) 10% of the fair value of any plan assets) are recognized in the course of the remaining period of services provided.

5. Business combinations

Under BR GAAP, there is no specific pronouncement on the subject of business combinations for financial institutions. Only assets and liabilities recorded in the opening balance of the acquired entity are recognized by the acquiring entity and any premium or discount on acquisitions corresponds to the difference between the amount paid by the acquiring entity and the book value of assets and liabilities recorded for the entity acquired. Shares or debt issued as payment for the acquisition of entities are recorded at their issue prices on the date of the business combination. Goodwill premiums arising from business combinations are amortized for up to 20 years.

In relation to acquisitions that occurred after September 1, 2008, for IFRS purposes, the Organization recognized assets and liabilities arising from business combinations at fair value. Shares issued by the Organization in business combinations are recognized at fair value on the date of transfer of control. Other assets delivered as payment were also measured at fair value. Goodwill recognized in business combinations was tested annually for purposes of determining the recoverable amount as required by IAS 38 - "Intangible Assets".

6. Fair value adjustment of derivatives

BR GAAP does not require derivative financial instruments contracted in trading associated with a particular funding transaction or application of funds to be valued at their fair value, provided that certain conditions are present, such as (i) they may not be traded or settled separately from the associated transactions, (ii) in the event of early settlement of the associated transaction, the latter takes place at the contracted amount, and (iii) they are contracted for the same term with the same counterpart as the associated transaction.

For IFRS purposes, these derivative financial instruments were classified as for trading are recognized at fair value in financial statements with the respective changes in fair value recognized in income, as determined by IAS 39 –"Financial Instruments - Recognition and Measurement".

Version: 1

10.4 – Significant changes in accounting practices – Qualifications and points emphasized in the auditor's report

7. Fair value adjustment of financial assets included in the consolidated exclusive investment fund portfolio

Under BR GAAP, certain financial asset instruments in the portfolio of the exclusive funds, which are consolidated for IFRS purposes only, were classified as "held to maturity." For IFRS purposes, the Organization decided to designate these financial instruments in the category "available for sale" as allowed under exemptions for transition to IFRS 1 (R), since for Brazilian GAAP purposes, as per CMN Resolution 3.181/04 and SUSEP Circular 379/08, financial instruments in the "held to maturity" category may be disposed off provided there is simultaneous purchase of new securities of the same type and similar maturity and in an amount equal to or greater than the value of the securities sold. Thus fair value adjustment of these financial instruments was recognized in the shareholders equity reserve account - "accumulated other comprehensive Income", net of tax effects.

8. Fair value adjustment of financial assets - equity securities

Under BR GAAP, certain investments in shares of companies in which the Organization has no management influence were classified as "permanent assets" at historical acquisition cost.

For IFRS purposes, due to the absence of influence over management, these shareholdings were designated in the category "available for sale" at fair value on the date of transition to IFRSs, with the corresponding gain or loss recognized in the shareholder equity reserve account - "accumulated other comprehensive income", net of tax.

9. Reversal of hedge accounting

Under BR GAAP, the Organization designated certain financial derivatives as hedging instruments, which were classified as cash flow hedges with the corresponding effective portion of their increased or decreased value recorded net of tax in a separate account in shareholder equity while the ineffective portion was recognized in income.

For IFRS purposes, these financial instruments were not designated as hedges since they do not qualify for hedge accounting under IAS 39. Therefore the effective portion recorded in shareholder equity under BR GAAP was reversed on transition date and set against the retained earnings account.

10. Deferral of fees of financial services and direct costs

Under BR GAAP, for certain financial assets, particularly loans and advances to clients, the Organization recognizes fees charged for financial services, as well as the portion of related direct costs, in income at the time of originating these financial assets. Direct costs related to commissions paid stores and retailers are recorded under "Other Assets - Prepaid expenses" and recognized in income by the term of their corresponding contracts.

For IFRS purposes, financial service fees, as well as direct costs related to the origination of these financial assets, are deferred and recognized as adjustment at the effective interest rate. Direct costs related to commissions paid stores and retailers are part of the effective interest rate and are recorded in the loans and advances to client's accounts.

11. Reversal of equity equivalence earnings recognized for investments in companies under shared control

Under BR GAAP, companies are typically considered to be under shared control if the organization's interest is from 20% to 50% of total capital.

Version: 1

10.4 – Significant changes in accounting practices – Qualifications and points emphasized in the auditor's report

For IFRS purposes, affiliates are represented by holdings in which the Organization has significant influence, which is the power to participate in deciding the financial and operating policies of an investee company.

12. Provision for guarantees provided to third parties

Under BR GAAP, financial guarantees provided to third parties are controlled in offsetting accounts. Fees charged for issuing these guarantees are recognized in income in the course of the guarantee's period of validity.

For IFRS purposes, as per as IAS 39, after initially recognizing these guarantees at fair value, the Organization measured these transactions at greater of: (i) the value initially recognized as "unearned income" and, when appropriate, accumulated depreciation is deducted in accordance with IAS 18 or (ii) the estimated expenditure required to settle the security in cases in which the Organization believes an outflow of funds probable as per IAS 37.

13. Loss due to impairment of loans and advances to clients and financial institutions

Under BR GAAP provisions for doubtful debt is based on risk analysis of loans in an amount believed sufficient to cover possible losses, as per the requirements set by CMN Resolution 2.682/99, which deals with certain regulatory parameters.

For IFRS purposes, provision for loan losses was based on historical losses and other information known at the time of valuation, as described in Note 2 (e) (viii).

14. Deferred tax assets - social contribution

Under BR GAAP, provision for income tax is made at the base rate of 15% of taxable income plus an additional 10%. As of May 1, 2008, social contribution on profits was calculated at the rate of 15% for financial and similar companies and 9% for non-financials (until April 30, 2008 the rate was 9% for all companies, and the calculation for 2008 was made in accordance with specific standards issued by the tax authorities).

Tax credits from prior periods, resulting from the social contribution being raised rate to 15%, were recorded to the limit of the corresponding consolidated tax liabilities under BR GAAP.

For IFRS purposes, deferred tax assets for the social contribution were remeasured and recognized based on the rate at which the Organization expects to realize the assets, which is the current rate of 15%.

15. Deferred income tax and social contribution on IFRS adjustments

Deferred income tax and social contribution were recorded on the differences between Brazilian GAAP and IFRSs when applicable.

10.5 – Critical accounting policies

Use of estimates and judgments

The Organization uses estimates and makes assumptions that affect reported subsequent year values of assets and liabilities. All estimates and assumptions required under IFRS are best estimates determined in accordance with applicable rules. These estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and based on historical experience and other factors including expectations as to future events believed to be reasonable under current circumstances.

Estimates and assumptions that involve significant risk and may have a material impact on the values assets and liabilities in the coming year are disclosed below.

Fair value of financial instruments

Financial instruments recorded at fair value in our accounting statements consist mainly of financial assets held for trading, including derivatives and financial assets classified as 'available for sale'. The fair value of a financial instrument is the amount for which it may be traded in a current transaction between willing parties, without forced sale or liquidation.

These financial instruments are ranked based on the lowest level of information significant for measuring their fair value. We make less use of our own judgment to measure fair market value for instruments classified on levels 1 and 2 if information is based on observable market data. For instruments ranked level 3, we have to use a significant amount of our own judgment when making measurements of fair market value. We base our judgment decisions on our knowledge and observations of relevant markets for individual assets and liabilities and these judgments may vary based on market conditions. In using our judgment, we analyze a series of prices and transaction volumes from third parties to understand and assess the extent of market references available and the judgment or modeling needed in processes with third parties. Based on these factors, we determine whether fair values may be observed in active markets, or whether markets are inactive.

Inaccuracy in estimates from unobservable market information may impact the amount of revenue or loss recorded for a given position. Moreover, although we believe that our valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with those of other market participants, the use of different assumptions or methodologies to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in different estimates of fair value on disclosure date.

Gains (losses) on financial instruments classified as held for trading, which represent net gain from our trading positions may be volatile and are largely related to market conditions and demand. Gains (losses) from trading depend on the type and volume of transactions, the risk level assumed, and volatility of prices and rates at any given time in a market environment that is constantly evolving. To assess risk in our trading activities, we focus on actual and potential volatility of individual positions and portfolios. At the portfolio and corporate level, we use trading limits, stress testing and modeling tools such as "VAR" to estimate the potential daily loss that must not be exceeded within a specific confidence level to measure and manage market risk. On December 31, 2010, our "VaR" was R$ 23 million based on a confidence level of 99%.

Impairment of financial assets available for sale

Financial assets available for sale are periodically assessed for impairment if there is a lasting or significant fall in their fair value. Determining the existence of a lasting or significant fall in value requires judgment. Among other factors, judgment is required to assess the normal volatility of asset prices.

Additionally, valuations are obtained using market prices or valuation models that require the use of certain assumptions or judgment to estimate fair value.

10.5 – Critical accounting policies

Provisions for impairment of loans and advances

At the end of each period, provision for losses from loans and receivables is adjusted on the basis on an analysis of our portfolio, including the estimate of losses from loans and receivables.

Determining impairment loss on loans or receivables requires the use of judgment or assumptions in relation to the loans and receivables portfolio, both individually and for specific product portfolios. Upon reviewing the portfolio as a whole, several factors are likely to affect the estimate of possible scope of losses, including the methodology adopted to evaluate historical default rates and the historical period to be considered for that evaluation.

Additional factors that may affect our provisioning for losses on loans and receivables include:

- general Brazilian economic conditions, and conditions of the relevant sector;
- previous experience with the debtor or the relevant economy sector, including the recent experience of losses;
- credit quality trends;
- value of guaranties of an credit operation;
- volume, composition and growth of our portfolio loans and receivables;
- monetary policy of the Brazilian government; and
- any delays in the receipt of information necessary to evaluate the loans and receivables or confirm the deterioration of existing credit.

The Organization uses models to analyze loans and receivables portfolios and determine provisions required for losses. We use statistical factors to show losses and other risk indicators for groups of loans with similar risk characteristics to achieve an estimate of losses incurred by the portfolio and calculate the models. Although our models are frequently reviewed and improved, they are, by their nature, dependant on our judgment of information/forecasts that we receive. In addition, volatility of Brazilian economy may bring a greater uncertainty to our models than would be otherwise expected in more stable macroeconomic environment. Consequently, our provision for losses on loans and receivables may not be indicative of actual future losses. For the purposes of sensitivity analysis, we conducted a simulation to assess the impact of an increase in probability of default on the amount of provisioning. In this simulation, a 10% increase in probability of default as of December 31, 2010 could raise required provisioning by approximately R$ 311 million. This sensitivity analysis is hypothetical and is intended only to illustrate the impact of default when determining provision for loss due to impairment.

The process for determining the level of provisions for losses due to impairment requires a high level of judgment. Other persons may reasonably reach different conclusions based on the same information.

Impairment of nonfinancial assets and goodwill

The Organization must decide whether the current carrying value of goodwill premium has been impaired on an annual basis or more frequently. The first step in this process is to identify independent cash flow generating units and allocate goodwill premium to them. The carrying value of a unit, including goodwill premium allocated to it, is then compared to fair value to assess for impairment. If a unit's fair value is less than its carrying value, goodwill premium may be reduced to its recoverable value. Detailed calculations may be required to reflect changes in markets involved (e.g. competition or regulatory alterations). The calculation is based on discounted cash flow before taxes at an interest rate adjusted for risk appropriate to the operational unit, and in both cases requires the exercise of judgment. Although predictions are compared with current performance and external economic data, expected cash flows obviously reflect the Organization's outlook for future performance.

10.5 – Critical accounting policies

Income taxes

Determining the amount of our income tax liability is a complex operation and our assessment is related to the analysis of our deferred tax assets and liabilities and income taxes payable. In general, our assessment requires estimates of the future value of deferred tax benefits and income tax payable. Our assessment of the possibility of realizing a deferred tax benefit is subjective and involves assessments and assumptions that are inherently uncertain. Realization of deferred tax benefits is subject to future alterations in interest rates and depends on how our strategies develop. The basis for our assessments and assumptions may change over time because of unforeseen events or circumstances that affect valuation of our tax liabilities.

Significant use of judgment is required to determine whether an income tax position is likely to be sustained on the basis of examination, even after administrative or judicial proceedings rule on technical merits. Judgment is also required to determine the value of a benefit eligible for recognition in our consolidated financial statements.

Additionally, we follow interpretations of tax legislation and rulings issued by tax authorities and courts so that we may adjust any previous judgment of accrued income tax liability. Monitoring adjustments may also arise from our tax planning or through settlement of income tax cases and the amounts involved may be significant for our operating results in any given period.

Technical provisions for insurance

Technical provisions for insurance (reserves) are liabilities that represent the estimated amounts that will be due at a certain time in the future to our policyholders. Future benefits of policies and casualties include reserves for group and individual life insurances, health insurance and accident insurance, among others. Such benefits are based on hypotheses of mortality, disability, loss of validity, investment performance, inflation and expenses. Such hypotheses are based on our experience and are periodically reviewed to the industry standards, with the objective to ensuring the actuarial credibility. For long-term insurance agreements, when the hypotheses in a specific policy or group of policies are fulfilled, they will not be changed during the validity time of the policy. However, significant changes to experience or hypotheses may require us to make a provision for future losses expected for a certain product, and make provisions for premium shortage. Provisions for premium shortage may also be established in short-term agreements to anticipate expected future losses. Benefits and claims include provisions for claims incurred but not reported for health insurance, incapacity and life insurance, auto and casualty insurance business. We recognize casualties in the period when the service was provided to our policyholders. However, costs of casualties occurred in a specific period will not be clearly recognized until we receive, process and pay such casualties. We determine the liability amount through actuarial methods based on history of casualty payments to determine our estimate of casualty liabilities. Methods to determine such estimates and establish the technical provisions are reviewed and updated on a regular basis. The resulting adjustments are recognized in income for the corresponding period.

10.6 – Internal controls relating to preparation of financial statements – Effectiveness and deficiencies and recommendations in auditor's report

a) the level of efficiency of such controls, indicating eventual deficiencies and actions taken to correct them

Internal Controls and Compliance

Based on a policy defined and approved by the Board of Directors, the Organization also keeps all components of the internal controls system up-to-date in order to mitigate the potential losses caused by its risk exposure and to strengthen its corporate governance processes and procedures. The structure of the staff, with their absolute dedication, combined with the investments in technology and training and retraining of personnel, confirms that Bradesco's Management of internal controls and compliance is effective, complies with the regulatory requirements and is aligned with international standards.

Flows of processes, systems and controls in the Organization are continuously re-evaluated and tested. The effort enjoys the full involvement of the Bank's various areas, the Internal Controls and Compliance Committee and the Audit Committee, and generates reports that are submitted to the Board of Directors. This process is in line with the principal control frameworks, such as the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) and the Control Objectives for Information and Related Technology (COBIT), which encompass the business and technology aspects, respectively, and also complies with the requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) and of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act in the United States.

In compliance with that law, the report certifying the adequacy of internal controls, together with the Financial Statements under US GAAP was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission – SEC in June 2010.

In relation to certification for the year of 2010, on the basis of evaluating the design of controls and compliance tests conducted by management, no failures capable of jeopardizing certification of internal controls have been identified.

It is important to highlight the benefits at the corporate level from complying with the above-cited Law, which include disseminating the importance of a culture of control, improvements in the quality of operating and administrative processes, the robustness of the associated controls and improvements in requirements aimed at maintaining corporate governance best practices.

b) deficiencies and recommendations on internal controls included in the independent auditor's report

Considering our knowledge, as well as, the work carried out by the independent auditors to evaluate our internal control structure, for the purpose of ensuring that the Bradesco Organization's accounting statements are fairly presented, we are not aware of any issues that could have a material effect on our accounting statements.

10.10 – Business plan

a) investments, including: i) quantitative and qualitative description of investments in progress or expected; ii) sources of financing of investments; iii) existing disinvestments in progress or expected;

In 2010, Bradesco continued expanding its customer service network and increasing investments, as 536 branches and PAAs and PABs were opened, in an aggregate of 6,551 outlets; 5,904 units of Bradesco Expresso were implemented, reaching a network of 26,104 correspondent bank outlets.

Investments in Infrastructure, Information Technology and Telecommunication

The IT Improvement Project started in 2003, with the objective of preparing the Bank IT for the next decades, and it had 27 of its 28 works completed. Results already achieved by the project have provided a state-of-the-art, robust and fully restricted infrastructure, high-availability and high-performance data network, as well IT process modernization.

The biggest job, the construction of a new system architecture focused on services, is scheduled to be delivered in 2011, which will allow the Bank to significantly enjoy, as from 2012, most of expected benefits, including a faster support to Business Units and flexibility to withstand securely the Organization growth, by providing its customers with quality services and support.

Our estimated IT infrastructure investment for 2011 is about R$ 5 billion, which is approximately 30% more than 2010's (R$ 3.9 billion). We would also highlight our plans to open 183 branches.

The following table shows the total amount invested over the last three years, including infrastructure (facilities, furniture and fixtures):

	2010	2009	2008	R$ million
Infrastructure		716	630	667
Information Technology/Telecommunication		3,204	2,827	2,003
Total		3,920	3,457	2,670

b) if already disclosed, the acquisition of plants, equipment, patents or other assets likely to materially influence the issuer's production capacity should be indicated

No acquisitions of plant, equipment, patents or other assets that are likely to materially affect our production capacity have been disclosed.

c) new products and services, indicating: i) description of ongoing researches already disclosed; ii) total expenses incurred by the issuer with researches for the development of new products or services; iii) projects at development stage and already disclosed; iv) total costs incurred by the issuer with the development of new products and services

There are no new significant products and services.

11.1 – Projections disclosed and underlying assumptions

The words "believe," "can," "may," "should," "seeks," "estimates," "continues," "anticipates," "intends," "expects," "potential" and similar words used in this section are used to identify forward looking estimates and perspectives. Forward looking projections and perspectives include information pertaining to results and projections, strategy, financing plans, competitive position, the industry context, potential growth opportunities, the effects of future regulation, and the effects of competition. These projections and perspectives refer only to the date on which they were made.

Given the risks and uncertainties described herein, such projections may not materialize and, therefore, do not provide any guarantee of future performance. In addition, Banco Bradesco's future results and performance may differ materially from those forecast in its estimates due to, but not limited to the risk factors listed in this Reference Form, many of which are beyond the Bank's ability to control or predict. Additionally, these estimates are based on assumptions that may not materialize. In light of these limitations and uncertainties, investors should not make their investment decisions based solely on forward looking estimates and perspectives posed in this Reference Form.

Note that projections and estimates used in this item have been compiled in accordance with accounting practices adopted in Brazil and applicable to institutions whose functioning is authorized by the Central Bank of Brazil.

11.2 – Monitoring and alteration of projections disclosed

Projections and estimates used in this item have been compiled in accordance with accounting practices adopted in Brazil and applicable to institutions whose functioning has been authorized by the Central Bank of Brazil.

a. Alterations or substitutions of projections

Projections for 2011 cover the same indicators that were provided and monitored in 2010. For 2008, we included indicators for Small and Medium Companies, and Large Companies, with breakdowns for vehicles, cards and pay check – deduction loans.

b. Projections for past periods – Estimated x Actual Complying with CVM Instruction 480/09 data in this item, relating to projections for past periods require the disclosure of comparisons between projected and actual data. The following table shows projected and actual data for the financial years 2008, 2009, and 2010.

Projection for 2010

Indicators	Pursuant	Estimated
Loan Portfolio (1)	23%	21.0% - 25.0%
Individuals (1)	20%	16.0% - 20.0%
Legal Entities (1)	25%	25.0% - 29.0%

Version: 1

11.2 – Monitoring and alteration of projections disclosedReasons for deviations from projections:

- Cards – variation in this group was largely due to higher-than-expected levels of consumption as unemployment fell.
- Real estate financing – variation in this group reflected higher levels of income leading to more demand for properties.
- Pay check loans - positive variation in this item was due to synergy-boosting projects between Bradesco's branch network and Bradesco Promotora, especially in the pensioner loans (pay check deduction) portfolio, and also due to strong growth in consumption arising from lower levels of unemployment.
- Services - variation of this item reflected favourable performance from the credit card segment due to growth of the card base/customer base, the effects of changes in Cielo and Visavale equity holdings, and current account revenues.
- Operating expenses - variation in this indicator was due to: provision for profit sharing and legal actions involving labour claims; increased advertising and publicity expenses; organic growth with a consequent higher-than-projected increase in the number of points of service.

Projections for 2009

Indicators	Pursuant	Estimated
Loan Portfolio (1)	6.1%	8.0% - 12.0%
Individuals (1)	11.5%	9.0% - 12.0%
Legal Entities (1)	2.5%	7.0% - 11.0%
Small and Medium Companies	11.0%	9.0% - 13.0%
Large Companies	(6.2%)	6.0% - 10.0%
Products
Vehicles	(2.8%)	2.0% - 5.0%
Cards	37.2%	10.0% - 14.0%
Housing/real estate loans (origination)	R$ 4.7 bi	R$ 4.5 bi
Paycheck Loans	38.2%	20.0% - 30.0%
Financial margin (2)	18.7%	18.0% - 22.0%
Services	8.1%	6.0% - 10.0%
Operational expenses (3)	11.2%	6.0% - 11.0%
Insurance Premiums	13.8%	5.0% - 7.0%

(1) Not including Cards, Guarantees, Sureties, and Receivables Fund ("FIDC" and "CRI");

(2) On the current criterion, Guidance for Financial Margin - Interest ; and

(3) Personnel and Administrative Expenses.

Reasons for deviations from projections:

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

- Loan Portfolio – lower volume of major transactions with companies was due to exchange rate variation and migration to the capital market causing the variation of this indicator in relation to its projected level.
- Vehicles - more transactions involved new/pre-owned vehicles (major dealerships), reducing exposure to older vehicles (small dealerships).

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

11.2 – Monitoring and alteration of projections disclosed

- Cards – variation of this indicator was due to the acquisition of Banco IBI.
- Pay check Deduction Loans – positive variation of this item was due to strong growth in the consumer market especially in the second half year.
- Insurance Premiums – resumption of economic growth.

Projections for 2008

Indicators	Pursuant	Estimated
Loan Portfolio (1)	32.1%	24.0% - 29.0%
Individuals (1)	24.7%	24.0% - 29.0%
Legal Entities (1)	37.1%	23.0% - 30.0%
Products
Housing/real estate loans (origination) (2)	R$ 6.0 bi	R$ 5.7 bi
Financial margin	15.0%	17.0% - 20.0%
Services	3.8%	5.0% - 8.0%
Operational expenses (3)	13.9%	11.0% - 17.0%
Insurance Premiums	9.2%	11.0% - 13.0%
(1)	Not including Cards, Guarantees, Sureties, and Receivables Fund ("FIDC" and "CRI");
(2)	(2) Origination by borrower (R$ million); and
(3)	Personnel and Administrative Expenses.

Reasons for deviations from projections:

- Loan Portfolio – variation in this group occurred due to the strong growth of loans, primarily for corporate working capital, due to tighter liquidity in the capital market in late 2008.
- Financial Margin – falling stock exchanges and tighter market liquidity were behind the variation in this indicator.
- Services – Central Bank (BACEN) regulation affecting our registration charge for borrowers (TAC) and current account (C/C) fees was the main item leading to the indicator being lower than projected.
- Insurance Premiums – lower level of life and pensions business growth.

c. Projections for current periods

At the end of March 2011, "revenues from services" for the first quarter of 2011 is showing 12% growth on the same period of 2010. In light of the market scenario for the remaining nine months of 2011, our projection for this item has been revised to 9% to 13%.

The other projections for fiscal year 2011 remain valid on the date of submitting this form and will be assessed when results for the second quarter of 2011 are reported.

12.1 – Description of management structure

- g) take part in educational or technical programs, or refresher courses whenever necessary, in order to develop their competence in the professional exercise of their duties and evaluate the functionality of the Board of Directors as a whole;
- h) be able to read and understand financial and management reports and be informed of local and international markets;
- i) devote considerable time to the Board's activities assuming commitments that lead to significant absorption of its functions, using every means in their power to provide good grounds for their contributions to Board meetings;
- j) if unable to attend meetings, be informed of all subjects raised and decisions taken;
- k) remain constantly motivated, questioning and seeking innovations that contribute to the growth of the Company's business;
- l) be aware of the responsibility and challenges of the company, be familiar with its principal aspects and risks involved;
- m) be capable of teamwork, instilling in other members a philosophy of long-term vision and at the same time work for the preservation of the management continuity that is highly recommendable for the Company's stability, prosperity and security;
- n) constantly pursue best practices for corporate governance;
- o) have experience of managing crises and identifying and managing risks;
- p) avoid conflicts of interest with the Company; and
- q) maintain a relationship of total transparency and professionalism with Senior Management and the Board's advisory and supervisory bodies, with mutual explanations and information always available, to act independently and impartially, in all cases striving for the management and development of work to be focused on compliance with legislation and respect for ethical principles.

Procedures for Evaluating Board Members

Procedures for evaluating the performance of the CEO, conducted by the Board of Directors, in consonance with the Company's constant concern for proper conduct of corporate strategies, in particular: 1) Performance / Results – the Chief Executive Officer must:

- a) make every effort to leverage growth of the Company's profits;
 - b) be aware of its responsibility and the challenges facing the Company, with in depth knowledge of its business;
 - c) maintain unity and harmony in conducting business;
 - d) have experience of managing crises and identifying and managing risks;
 - e) avoid conflicts of interest with the Company since targets set must be aligned with the strategic parameters set forth by the Board of Directors and comply with the Organization's corporate policy and culture, showing firm commitment to creating value for shareholders and advocating their interests; and
 - f) maintain constant concern for transparency in order to allow the use of more secure and efficient means for access to Company records easily, quickly and effectively for customers, shareholders, the market, and staff;
- 2) Performance of Shares / ADRs on Stock Exchanges in Brazil and Abroad – the CEO must make every effort to pursue the best results for shareholders, which essentially translates to higher prices for its Stock, payment of interest on its own capital and dividends, and equitable treatment for all. The relationship must be based on the Organization's ethical principles following applicable rules and legislation, ensuring protection of market information and absolute confidentiality of information that is not yet public knowledge, obtained through the position, that may interfere with share prices and influence market movement and/or investment decisions; 3) Market Penetration – the CEO must act actively formulating and implementing plans in relation to:

- a) ways of growing the customer base and volume of transactions; and
- b) market opportunities that may add value to the Company, including possible acquisitions, partnerships and operational agreements;
- 4) Policies Adopted: Corporate Governance, Socioenvironmental Responsibility and Human Resources – the CEO is committed to:
 - a) ensuring the Organization's perpetuity, incorporating social and environmental factors when defining its business and operations, creating products for the ambit of corporate sustainability;
 - b) keeping abreast of the main socio-environmental related demands in the market;
 - c) constantly enhancing Corporate Governance practices;
 - d) monitoring any issues that may have a significant impact on the Organization's image;
 - e) taking an ethical approach in all relationships, such as those with shareholders, customers, investors, the Central Bank of Brazil and other Government Agencies; and
 - f) acting fairly, in accordance with good principles in relation to employment, ensuring equal opportunities for hiring, professional development, evaluation, compensation and discipline of Directors and officers and other members of staff. Finally, note that the evaluation of other members of the Executive Board, conducted by the CEO, in as far as possible, should be based on the guidelines herein set forth and our organizational culture, in which the process of designating staff for other levels in the hierarchy depends on their showing outstanding merit in their field of work, considering factors such as competence, technical quality, interest and performance, and no event may be automatic or compulsory.

Procedures for Evaluating Committee Members

Members of the Bank's statutory committees are regularly evaluated by the Board of Directors, which takes the following aspects into account:

- a) fulfilling the attributions stated in the rules of the committee to which the member belongs;
- b) availability in terms of the time a committee member spends on the committee's work;
- c) commitment to developing reports;
- d) frequency of attending meetings and effectively taking part in them.

There is strong interaction between Committees and the Board of Directors at Bradesco. Numerous committee sessions, as well as their meetings with the Board and the different Departments show good relations between these bodies and the Board, as well as Senior Management's support for development activities. In addition, the presence of the members of the Board of Directors and the members of Senior Management on statutory committees further facilitates relations between the bodies and their functioning, also facilitating the process of the Board's evaluation of committee members by observing the development of their activities and other aspects mentioned above.

The Audit Committee's self-assessment is conducted by its own members, and considers subjects related to the involvement of committee members and different subjects and areas of the Bank, namely:

12.2 – Rules, policies, and practices relating to general meetings

a. notification in good time

Law No. 6,404/76 requires a minimum of 15 days notice for holding meetings. Bradesco provides all documentation related to meetings and does so preferably 30 days in advance. In 2011, documents relating to the ordinary and extraordinary shareholders meeting held on 03.10.2011 were made available to the market on 02.08.2011.

b. competences

General Meetings called and officially started in accordance with legislation and Bylaws have powers to decide on all business related to the Company's purpose and take decisions they deem appropriate for its defence and development. This subject is addressed in Chapter XI (Articles 121-137) of Law No. 6,404 of December 15, 1976.

Article 132 of Law No. 6,404/76 states that Business Corporations of the Sociedades Por Ações format shall hold annual General Meetings within the first four (4) months following the end of the fiscal year, to address the following issues:

I -take management accounts, examine, discuss, and vote on the financial statements;

II -decide on the use of net income for the year and distribution dividends; and

III -elect officers and members of the Supervisory Council.

Extraordinary General Meetings must be called for other cases, such as amending bylaws, decisions involving transformation, consolidation, merger or split of the company, or its winding up and liquidation, appoint or dismiss liquidators, to examine their accounts, bundle or unbundle shares.

c. addresses (physical or electronic) where documents relating to the shareholders general meeting will be available for analysis

Documents relating to General Meetings, such as Call Notices and Motions from the Board of Directors, are available to shareholders at Bradesco's Shares and Custody Department, the Depository Financial Institution for the company's shares, in Cidade de Deus, Prédio Amarelo, Vila Yara, Osasco, state of São Paulo, and may also be seen at www.bradesco.com.br – Corporate Governance/ Shareholders, or the BM&FBovespa and CVM websites.

d. identifying and managing conflicts of interest

As Law No. 6,404/76 states, shareholders should exercise voting rights in the interests of the company. Abusive voting refers to voting for the purpose of causing damage to the company or other shareholders, or to obtain undue advantage for voters themselves or for others, and which may lead to losses for the company or other shareholders.

During the meeting, shareholders whose interests are in conflict with the company's on specific points must report this immediately and refrain from taking part in discussion and voting on this item.

e. management's request for proxies to exercise voting rights

Bradesco's Management does not request voting proxies and shareholders may decide on their representation at General Meetings at their own discretion.

f. formalities required for the acceptance of proxies appointed by shareholders, indicating whether the issuer accepts shareholders appointing proxies by electronic means

When a shareholder is represented by a proxy, the document must be examined before the General Meeting starts. In order to hasten the process and facilitate the work of Meetings, at the shareholder's discretion, proof of ownership of shares with preferably two (2) or more business days before the date set for the General

Copies of documentation may also be e-mailed to governancacorp@bradesco.com.br or faxed to 55 11 3684-4630 or 55 11 3683-2564.

Any proxies drafted in a foreign language must be translated into Portuguese and filed with the Registry of Deeds and Documents before forwarding to the Company.

- g. maintaining Internet forums and pages to receive and share investors' comments on agendas for meetings

The following electronic channels are available for shareholders to send comments:

- governancacorp@bradesco.com.br
- investidores@bradesco.com.br

- h. live video and/or audio broadcasts of meetings

Live video and/or audio broadcasts of Meetings are not available.

- i. procedures for allowing shareholders to formulate proposals for inclusion on the agenda

Notices calling the Company's General Meetings explicitly include numbered lists of all the matters to be discussed on the agenda, but other subjects that depend on a decision by the meeting may not be included.

If the Company receives proposals from formulated shareholders, they are evaluated by Management.

12.4 – Rules, policies, and practices relating to the Board of Directors

a. frequency of meetings

The Board meets quarterly and may hold extraordinary meetings when necessary and called by the Chairman or half of its current members, and minutes are written for each meeting.

b. if there are any provisions of the shareholders agreement that pose restrictions or conditions on the exercise of voting rights by members of the board

There are no shareholder agreements.

c. rules for identifying and managing conflicts of interest

Law No. 6,404/76 bars officers from intervening in any corporate transaction in which they have conflicting interests with the company, or in related decisions taken by the other officers, and they must notify their impediment and have the nature and extent of their interest recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the board of directors or executive board.

Article 8 of the Internal Rules of Bradesco's Board of Directors identifies officer impediments that are characterized as conflicts of interest, namely:

- a) performing acts of liberality at the expense of the Company or other Bradesco companies;
- b) borrowing funds from the Company or its subsidiaries, or using the latter's assets for their own benefit;
- c) enjoying any type of advantage due to the position held;
- d) using business opportunities that they may learn of due to their position, for their own benefit or that of others, with or without prejudice to the Company;
- e) omission in the exercise or protection of the Company's rights;
- f) acquiring assets or rights known to be necessary to the Company, or that it intends to acquire, to be resold at a profit;
- g) making use of insider information to gain advantage for themselves or others by buying or selling securities;
- h) intervening in transactions that involve interests conflicting with the Company or any Bradesco company; should this occur, the reasons for impediment must be recorded in the minutes;
- i) be directly or indirectly involved in trading Securities issued by the Company or referenced to them:
 - I. prior to disclosure to the market of a material event or fact in the business of Banco Bradesco S.A.;
 - II. within fifteen (15) days of Banco Bradesco S.A.'s quarterly or annual reports being disclosed;
 - III. if there is the intention of promoting a corporate merger, total or partial split, conversion, or reorganization;
 - IV. during the process of acquisition or disposal of shares issued by Banco Bradesco S.A, exclusively on dates on which the Bank is trading.
- j) decide on purchase or sale by the Company or by other Bradesco publicly held companies, of their own stock, if there are any:
 - I. any agreement or contract seeking to transfer shareholder control;
 - II. intention of promoting corporate absorption, total or partial split, merger, conversion or reorganization involving significant investment in affiliates.

Bradesco's Ethical Conduct Code item 2.2. Principles, explains that a conflict of interest occurs when there is a possibility of a direct or indirect clash between the personal interests of employees and those of the organization that may undermine or improperly influence its fulfilment of its attributions and responsibilities. Interest is characterized by all and any material advantages in favour of the person themselves or others (relatives, friends, etc.) with whom they have or had personal, business or political relations. In the event of such conflicts, staff must report to their immediate superior for the latter to take a decision accordingly, in all cases safeguarding the assets of the Organization, its customers, shareholders, investors and other related parties.

In order to prevent conflicts of interest, Bradesco's Policy on Related Party Transactions consolidates the Company's procedures for the above mentioned transactions pursuant the rules issued by Regulatory Organizations, thus lending transparency to the process for our shareholders, investors and the market in general, and ensuring strict alignment with the Organization's interests in line with best practices for Corporate Governance. This Policy bars loans or advances to Directors or officers and members of Advisory Councils or the Board, or Tax committees or similar bodies, or to their spouses; relatives to the second degree of kinship, for persons mentioned above; persons or entities holding more than ten percent (10%) of Bradesco capital unless specifically authorized by the Central Bank of Brazil, in each case, for transactions collateralized by effects resulting from the purchase and sale or attachment of goods within general limits set by the National Monetary Council; legal entities of which Bradesco holds more than ten percent (10%) of capital; and legal entities in whose capital more than ten percent (10%) is held by any Bradesco director or officer, or their spouses and relatives to the second degree.

Once identified, any person involved in a conflict of interest must be removed from the arrangements made to solve the issue, which is the responsibility of the Ethics Committee, which shall:

- a) review any infractions and violations of corporate or industry Codes of Ethical Conduct, and/or Bradesco's Policies and Procedures, whether reported directly by the complainant or through the Organization's Dependencies;
- b) determine the measures necessary by issuing a report or opinion addressed to the competent Dependencies;
- c) ensuring that infractions and violations are followed by applicable disciplinary actions, regardless of the level of hierarchy concerned, without prejudice of applicable legal penalties;
- d) ensure that the Board of Directors is informed of issues that may significantly impact the Organization's image; and
- e) submit issues relating to Bradesco's Directors to the Board for appreciation.

12.11 – Agreements including insurance policies for payment or reimbursement of expenses incurred by directors and officers

Banco Bradesco S.A. annually arranges the Directors and Officers insurance – D&O coverage (Seguro de Responsabilidade Civil Geral de Administradores) for itself and its subsidiaries, for the duration of 12 months, in order to provide worldwide coverage of its directors' or officers' risk of claims for damages and compensation or legal actions made by individuals, corporations or government bodies, or by agencies alleging they have been harmed by acts committed by the insured. Policies cover claims against those insured exclusively for harmful events (culpable, but not intentional actions) committed by the insured.

"Insured" herein means any person who has been, is, or may be, as applicable, a member of the board of directors, executive board, supervisory council or any other statutory body or body created by Bradesco's bylaws or those of its subsidiaries, or any employee who has powers of representation in relation to third parties, or whose job involves representing a fact or right of the Company to third parties.

Coverage is worldwide except for claims for environmental damage in the United States. Coverage arranged for 2011 was US$ 75 million.

Total insurance premiums	US$ 1.6 mn (+ 7% IOF)
Chubb	US$ 560,000 (+ 7% IOF)
Ace	US$ 525,000 (+ 7% IOF)
Chubb	US$ 180,000 (+ 7% IOF)

13.1 – Description of compensation policy or practice, including non-statutory board members

Pursuant to the instructions issued in the CVMs circular (reference CVM/SEP/No. 005/2011), and a review of the description and objectives of the elements of remuneration of its officers, as stated in the response to item 13.1.bi, supplemented by item 13.1.b.iv in relation to the reasons for the composition of their remuneration, Bradesco proceeded to reclassify the components shown in item 13.2 and to make appropriate adjustments arising from the CVM circular in the other items, compared with the Reference Form filed in 2010.

13.1. Description of remuneration policy or practice for the board of directors, statutory officers, fiscal council, statutory committees and audit, risk, financial and remuneration committees 13.1.a. Objectives of compensation policy or practice

Compensation for the Organization's Senior Management of the Bank, which comprises the board of directors and officers/senior management, has the purpose of recognizing the services provided by these professionals, and encouraging them to find solutions to ensure customer satisfaction, business growth and shareholder returns.

13.1.b. Composition of compensation, including:

13.1.b.i. description of components of compensation and objectives of each of them

a) Board of directors and officers / senior management

Compensation consists of, basically a fixed monthly honorarium for the purpose of rewarding each member's contribution to the continuity and development of the organization's business under their responsibility.

Occasionally, at the sole discretion of the board of directors, additional remuneration may be awarded in proportion to monthly remuneration received, paid to all officers without distinction, after assessing the Organization's consolidated results, economic trends in Brazil, and the sustainability of our business affairs, in all cases within the amounts approved at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Note that the additional remuneration does not depend on performance of individuals or business units, but takes the form of fixed remuneration, which may or may not be attributed officers as mentioned above.

In addition, every year, a motion is submitted for approval by the Shareholders' Meeting to fund the Private Pension Plan for Management and Staff of Bradesco Organization, the amounts of which are shown in item 13.2 as post-employment benefits.

Pursuant to CVM circular (CVM/SEP/No. 005/2011), in item 13.2, for the years 2010 and 2009, we are showing the amounts corresponding to social security contributions (INSS) paid by Bradesco and recognized in its results.

b) Fiscal Council

Remuneration of Fiscal Council members is set by the General Meeting that elects them and may not be less than 10% (ten percent) of the average amount attributed to each director, not computing, under current legislation, the Company's payments of benefits, representation allowances and bonuses.

c) Audit Committee

The composition of remuneration for Audit Committee members, except one member who only receives remuneration for being on the board of directors, is 100% honorariums, in order to reward each member's contribution in advising the Board of Directors on fulfillment of its attributions, relating to monitoring accounting practices on preparing financial statements for the Company and its subsidiaries, as well as designating independent auditors and evaluating their effectiveness.

13.1 – Description of compensation policy or practice, including non-statutory board members

Another important factor for defining compensation is that Committee members must be highly qualified for the technical requirements of this position, and at least one of them must have proven knowledge in the areas of accounting and auditing financial institutions to qualify for the position, and show the high degree of specialization required of them by regulatory bodies too.

Each member's compensation is proportional to the days per week spent on work for Bradesco.

d) Other Committees

The remaining committees are composed of members who sit on other Bradesco bodies (board of directors, officers/senior management), and they are remunerated only for their role as members of these bodies.

13.1.b.ii. proportion of each component in total compensation

Board of directors and officers/senior management:

Officers' monthly remuneration consists entirely of fixed honorariums. Additional honorariums may be paid in the same proportions, without distinction, to all officers at the sole discretion of the board of directors after assessing the Organization's consolidated results, economic trends in Brazil, and our business sustainability.

In addition to the portion for honorariums, there is an allocation to fund the Private Pension Plan for Bradesco Organization Management and Staff in the amounts shown in item 13.2 as post-employment benefits.

Fiscal Council

Monthly remuneration of Fiscal Council members consists wholly of fixed honorariums.

Audit Committee

Monthly remuneration of members of the Audit Committee, except for one member who receives compensation only for being on the board of directors, consists entirely of fixed honorariums.

13.1.b.iii. methodology used to calculate and adjust each component of compensation

The process of calculating and adjusting remuneration for the board of directors and officers/senior management begins in the ambit of the Compensation Committee, a statutory body with the following responsibilities:

- a) proposing policy and guideline for officers' and senior managers' remuneration based on the Company's targets, objectives and performance, and shareholder returns, using comparative analysis of compensation policies for prior periods and / or market parameters;
- b) proposing global and individual remuneration policy, premium payments, bonuses, gratuities, profit sharing, stock options and pension funds;
- c) recommending alternative forms of compensation for executives to encourage performance, motivation and continuous corporate improvement;

d) annually reviewing and adjusting general guidelines and policy for remuneration.

Version: 1

13.1 – Description of compensation policy or practice, including non-statutory board members

The board of directors then evaluates proposals and recommendations from this committee and sets the amount of monthly honorarium for each item, and approves any additional payment in proportion to monthly remuneration received, for all officers/senior managers without distinction, after assessing the Organisation's consolidated results, economic trends in Brazil, and business sustainability.

Having decided all these amounts for maximum remuneration of Banco Bradesco S.A. officers and senior managers in the year, the board of directors submits them to the approval of the Shareholders' Meeting.

13.1.b.iv. reasons for composition of compensation

In general, not excepting its officers and senior managers, Bradesco adopts the practice of fixed remuneration. The adoption of fixed remuneration mainly reflects the fact that a "Career Bank" policy prevailed in Bradesco.

In the course of time, the Bank has recruited for most of its executive positions professionals trained in the institution itself with a long record, since most of them started their career at the Bank many years ago. They acquired experience in the process of rising through the ranks, which gave them a thorough grounding in the Organization's activities and particularities, and enabled them to faithfully represent its corporate culture. These characteristics show the executives have a strong long-term commitment to the Bank. As an example, at least 10 years service in the Organization is required for CEO and vice-president positions.

Given this strong commitment, Bradesco's policy does not have a policy of remunerating to distinguish performance by individuals, business units, at global level or in relation to risks assumed. The remuneration model is simplified and takes the form of fixed monthly remuneration.

Occasionally, at the sole discretion of the board of directors, additional remuneration may be awarded in proportion to monthly remuneration received, paid to all officers without distinction, after assessing the Organization's consolidated results, economic trends in Brazil, and the sustainability of our business affairs, in all cases within the amounts approved at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Therefore, remuneration for our officers and senior management is not geared to specific or individual results, which ensures that decision making is free from other influences.

The prevailing mood at Banco Bradesco is one of acting collectively. All officers and senior managers act cohesively and in the common interests of solidity and growth. There is no room for individual highlights, and we take into account the importance of acting in all segments, regardless of cyclical results.

13.1.c. key performance indicators used when determining each component of compensation

Given the strong commitment of its officers and senior managers, Bradesco does not have a policy of remunerating to distinguish performance of individuals, business units, at global level or in relation to risks assumed. The compensation model is simplified and takes the form of fixed monthly remuneration.

Therefore, the use of performance indicators to determine components of officers' remuneration does not apply to Bradesco.

13.1.d. how compensation is structured to reflect the evolution of performance indicators

Not applicable, in light of the response to item 13.1.c.

13.1.e. how compensation policy or practice aligns with short, medium and long term interests of the issuer

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

As mentioned in item 13.1.b.iv, over time, the Bank has recruited for most of its executive positions professionals trained in the institution itself with a long record, since most of them started their career at the Bank many years ago.

13.1.f. the existence of compensation paid by subsidiaries, or directly or indirectly controlled or controlling companies

Bradesco does not provide this type of compensation for members of the above-mentioned bodies.

13.1.g. existence of any compensation or benefit related to the occurrence of certain corporate events such as sale of the issuer's controlling shareholder interest

Bradesco does not pay this type of compensation.

14.3 – Description of employee compensation policy

a. policy for salaries and variable compensation

Bradesco as an organization adopts a closed career system, in which new entrants always start at the bottom in career entry positions, and we prioritize recognizing employees with potential for achievement. Our recruitment and selection has a characteristic strategy involving great responsibility in relation to hiring, since hiring professionals that are right for the Organization is vital to career and succession dynamics. Bradesco prioritizes recognizing potential from the start with a focus on choice and selection, through skills shown and through selective processes designed to meet its needs.

Compensation practices for employees are designed to recognize services rendered by these professionals, and to encourage them to find solutions for customer satisfaction and business growth.

Compensation consists of monthly salary, rewarding the contribution made by the performance of each employee, as well as any payments intended to recognize the contribution made by each one to the results and performance achieved by Bradesco.

The composition of monthly compensation for employees is 100% salary. There may be payments of bonus/profit-sharing depending on appraisal of organizational results achieved.

Evaluation by Results programs, when applied, are designed to recognize extra efforts made to procure results and based on quantitative and qualitative criteria, and on whether or not financial or non-financial targets are met at different levels: global, area of business, and individual. These programs are characterized by aligned and competitive appraisals in the market and by the fact of reaching and surpassing targets for sustainable results.

Our organizational structure includes a specific Committee to deal with compensation issues, which has a permanent character and makes proposals to the Board for the Organization's compensation policies and guidelines, based on targets set by the Board for the Organization's performance.

Compensation practices adopted by the Organization are aligned with the Company's interests through constantly upholding policies and guidelines devised by the Compensation Committee, whose analysis prioritizes shareholder returns.

b. benefits policy

Payment of benefits is based on the Organization's Human Resources Management policy.

This management strategy conveys security and trust for employees, making the assumption that a good working environment based on respect, empathy, trust and security for employees and their families will have an effect on the quality of services provided. Therefore we have structured a benefit package that goes well beyond those legally stipulated, in order to provide employees and their dependents with security and comfort in responding to their basic needs, professional development, with loans under special conditions for the purchase of consumer goods and homes. The benefits shown below cover all employees irrespective of their working day (full- or part-time):

- Free Health Plan for all employees and their dependents, including non-traditional treatments such as correction of myopia, acupuncture, homeopathy, RPG, heart valve, dialysis, organ transplants, and treatment of AIDS (with reimbursement of prescription drugs for the treatment of illness);
- Dental insurance for all employees and their dependents including preventative, surgical, restorative, endodontic, periodontal and prosthetic treatments;

14.3 – Description of employee compensation policy

- Supplementary retirement plan with the Bank contributing 50%;
- Group life and personal accident insurance at a subsidized cost. Retirees leaving the staff are given the option of remaining in the group of insured policyholders;
- Distribution of free snacks twice a day averaging 108,243 every day;
- Loans at subsidized rates for buying homes, vehicles, and personal computers, and for personal expenses;
- Social loans for emergencies, schooling, orthopaedic devices, funerals, psychologists, psychiatrists, speech therapists, and others;
- Social and psychological care for employees and dependents in emergencies, with 24/7 coverage;
- In order to supplement social and psychological care for employees and their dependents, Bradesco provided a new channel. Through an independent company founded by specialized professionals, a toll free number - 0800 Viva Bem (meaning "Live Well") - provides 100% confidential assistance with personal, professional, family and affective issues.
- For the states of São Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, Santa Catarina and Rio Grande do Sul we have special arrangements with the major drugstore chains enabling employees to buy medications at reduced prices;
- Influenza vaccine provided for all employees free of charge and at special prices for dependents;
- Health and dental insurance, as well as assistance with day care or other child care, with no age limit for employees' children with disabilities; and
- Facilities for employees shopping arrangements: a special online shopping channel operating through Bradesco's website, in which the Bank negotiates special discounts directly with suppliers of various products. Employees also receive special offers by e-mail.

c. characteristics of stock-based compensation plans for non-officer or director employees, identifying:

The Organization does not have stock-based compensation for employees.

14.4 – Description of relations between issuer and trade unions

In terms of relations with trade unions, the functional structure of the HR unit has a Union Relations section tasked with holding constant dialogue and interacting with representatives of the trade union movement nationally, listening to their concerns, clarifying any doubts voiced and enabling a relationship characterized by ease of access, responsiveness and proactivity among the parties. All employees enjoy freedom of association, have union representation and are covered by collective bargaining agreements.

16.3 – Identification of measures taken to address conflicts of interest and demonstration of a strictly commutative character of conditions agreed or appropriate compensation payment

Transactions shown in item 16.2, and related parties involving controlling shareholders, subsidiaries and shared-control subsidiaries, are conducted on the basis of usual market values and fees under arm's length conditions, or with compensatory payment, and therefore do not generate any benefit or loss for either party.

Management has internal control structure to ensure that transactions are conducted under similar conditions to those that may be conducted with unrelated parties.

If there are violations of the provisions in item 16.1, cases will be forwarded to the Ethical Conduct Committee, which reports to the board of directors, and it will apply the appropriate penalties, and advise that such violations are offenses and that persons responsible will be subject to penalties under current legislation.

Other than Recovery Premium, no other redemption premium is payable in case of optional redemption of the notes.

"Tax Event" means the occurrence of any event requiring Visanet, the Collections, or any Designated Bank to make additional payments to holders of notes.

Mandatory Redemption:

If any of the "Early Maturity Events" described below takes place, the Series 2003-1 notes will be redeemed in full through by the designated banks making payment at the corresponding Series 2003-1 note redemption price. Any amounts relating to said payment will be used by the Trustee exclusively for Series 2003-1 note redemptions. There will be no payment of redemption premium on mandatory redemption of Series 2003-1 notes.

G. II) FORMULA FOR CALCULATING REDEMPTION VALUE:

"Redemption Price" will be an amount in dollars equal to:

- (a) the outstanding balance of the notes (or in the case of partial redemption, their proportional value);
- (b) accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on the amount redeemed but excluding the redemption date;
- (c) additional unpaid amounts relating to the corresponding series;

(d) in cases of optional redemption, the Recovery Premium (or, in the case of partial redemption, proportionate value), is calculated as of the redemption date; and

(e) all other amounts then due and payable under the terms of the transaction documents that would otherwise be payable by Collections.

"Recovery Premium" shall be an amount (not less than zero) equal to present value (compounded on a quarterly basis) of future cash flows of capital and interest on redeemed notes (at the same rate of 5.911% per annum for both series), discounted at an annual rate equal to return on sale (most recently published in The Wall Street Journal's New York edition) of US Treasuries for the maturity date nearest the remaining weighted average life of the notes, calculated at the time of redemption plus 0.50% per annum (or, solely in the case of optional redemption due to a Tax Event, plus 1.25% per annum) less the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed (or part thereof), less in the case of the Series 2003-2 notes, the difference between the principal of these notes (or part thereof) to be redeemed on this date and their cumulative value. To avoid uncertainties, the cumulative value of Series 2003-2 notes shall equal present value (compounded on a quarterly basis) of future cash flows (calculated at the rate of 4.777% per annum), discounted at the rate of 5.911%.

CHARACTERISTICS OF SECURITIES

H.I) MATURITY, INCLUDING CONDITIONS FOR EARLY MATURITY:

Maturity: 06/15/2011.

Early maturity:

Early Maturity Events (Defaults):

The Trustee (defined below), if so instructed by the Group Controller of the Series, by notice in writing to the SPC, each rating agency for the series, Visanet and each of the banks, may declare early maturity of the Series 2003-1 notes making them due immediately, and require the banks to pay within two days of receiving the related notification, at the repurchase price corresponding to this series in accordance with its respective percentages for said series, on the occurrence of any of the Early Maturity Events described below:

(a) occurrence of a bankruptcy event in relation to the SPC or Visanet;

(b) if a court of competent jurisdiction proffers a final sentence, decree or order with no appeal against the SPC or Visanet for the payment of over (i) US$ 50,000 to the SPC or (ii) US$ 5,000,000 to Visanet (in each case if not covered by insurance) or, in each case, its equivalent in other currencies, and 60 days have passed since the date of the sentence, ruling or measure without its being fulfilled;

(c) a default of the Servicer (provided that Visanet or one of its affiliates is the Servicer) occurring that could cause a material adverse effect;

(d) the SPC or Visanet become, or are, subject to "investment company" regulations under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended;

(e) (i) if Visanet were to default (as debtor or guarantor) on payment of principal and interest on outstanding loans for a principal amount of at least US$ 5,000,000 (or its equivalent in another currency) and said default continue beyond any applicable grace period, (a default will not occur should (A) said loan were payable in currencies other than dollars, (B) Visanet were prevented by Brazilian law from making said payment in Brazilian reais from Brazil and (C) Visanet offered to make the scheduled payments due on said loan to the creditor or to an appropriate body in a manner permitted by applicable Brazilian law, until and unless (after this), the holder of said debt had brought legal action (or not halted, or not indicated that it would promptly halt legal proceedings commenced prior to the offer) only as a result of Visanet's failure to pay said debt in the manner then permitted by applicable Brazilian law), or (ii) any other event occurs or condition exists in relation to said loans resulting in acceleration of maturity of this debt;

(f) any authorization, license, permit, registration or approval required by the laws of Brazil, the Cayman Islands or the United States: (i) allow Visanet to legally fulfil and perform its obligations under the transaction documents (individually and/or as Servicer), (ii) allow the SPC to carry out its obligations under the transaction documents or to exercise the express rights assured the SPC under the Sale Agreement and/or Bill of Sale or (iii) to ensure the legality, validity, enforceability or admissibility of evidence in Brazil of the Sale Agreement and/or Bill of Sale, if no longer in full force and effect in any aspect for at least 60 days, the effect of which is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect;

(g) a government authority of Brazil, the Cayman Islands or the United States takes any legislative, judicial or other measure or action (including requiring collections to be forwarded other than as required under the transaction documents, or declaring a banking moratorium) that intervenes in the transaction documents (including sale of receivables), prevents Visanet from honouring its obligations under the transaction documents, and/or impedes Visanet operating its business or operations or a substantial part of them and said intervention may reasonably have a material adverse effect; it is hereby determined that there shall be no default under this clause due to Visanet being prohibited by applicable Brazilian law from paying any additional amounts from Brazil in any currency other than the Brazilian real;

(h) if there is a final sentence or ruling from a legal action or administrative proceedings against Visanet or the SPC that could have a material adverse effect;

(i) if any representation or warranty made by Visanet (except in its role as Servicer) or by the SPC in any transaction document (i) is false or incorrect in any respect, when it was made, (ii) this false or incorrect statement (or the current circumstances that made that statement false or incorrect) may not be remedied (or may be remedied but is not remedied within 60 days of written notification from the Trustee or any investor) and (iii) this false or incorrect statement may reasonably cause a material adverse effect;

(j) except for payment, transfer or deposit obligations, Visanet (except in its role as Servicer) or the SPC fail to comply or observe any agreement or obligation under the transaction documents, and said failure (i) could reasonably have a material adverse effect and (ii) continue for at least 15 business days after the earlier of the following (A) an authorized representative of Visanet or the SPC, as the case may be, learns of the existence of the above or (B) written notification of said failure is delivered to Visanet or the SPC, depending on the case by the SPC, the Trustee or any investor;

(k) if the SPC no longer has a valid ownership interest in the receivables under all applicable laws, subject only to obligations to the Trustee and obligations for taxes, assessments and other governmental charges payable by the SPC but not yet due:

(l) if the Trustee must cease to have first priority interest in the notes under all applicable laws, in full or in part of the collateral free and clear of any liens other than liens for taxes, assessments and other governmental charges payable by SPC and not yet due:

(m) Visanet intends to sell, assign, convey or otherwise dispose of or grant a security interest on the receivables to any party other than the SPC;

(n) if any of the transaction documents ceases to be in full force and effect (unless said failure results from a bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceedings being commenced by or against Visa International or said failure relates solely to said transaction document being in full force and effect in relation to a designated bank), provided that said failure relating to a transaction document, which relates only to one or more series shall be a default only in relation to the corresponding series;

(o) Visanet (except in its role as Servicer) fails to make any payment, transfer or deposit under the transaction documents (including payment of additional amounts unless paid when payable from Collections) and said failure continues unremedied for at least five business days (or two business days in relation to deposit of collections in the applicable accounts) as of the date on which said payment, transfer or deposit should be made;

(p) illegality in any Visanet or SPC transaction or operation in any jurisdiction has a material adverse effect;

(q) subject to clause (n), a default shall have occurred in relation to any series for which payment of redemption price had been required;

(r) Visanet should cease to be (i) an authorized purchaser of Merchant Vouchers in Brazil, or (ii) the exclusive purchaser of Merchant Vouchers in Brazil, except (A) any Visanet pre-purchaser, (B) foreign purchasers or (C) any future purchaser authorized under an amendment to the Operating Regulations of Visa and its Bylaws (as amended in the course of time) after the closing date that does not cause a material adverse effect;

(s) Visa International makes payments to Trustee in a currency other than US dollars, unless the rating agency condition has been satisfied within 60 days of said event; or

(t) the occurrence of a default applicable to said Series.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, situations described in items "j" or "o" existing for a period of up to five business days after the applicable grace period shall not amount to default, if said delay or failure could not have been avoided by Visanet exercising reasonable diligence and said delay or failure is caused by force majeure, riot, act of war, terrorism, epidemics, flooding, weather, landslides, fires, earthquakes or similar causes. The first sentence, however, does not absolve Visanet from making its best efforts to fulfil its obligations in good time in accordance with the transaction documents.

H.VI) THE TRUSTEE, STATING THE PRINCIPAL TERMS OF THE CONTRACT:

The Bank of New York

The Indenture, document signed between the Bank and Trustee, governs various rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the issuance of notes, said as: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the notes, conditions and criteria for redemption and repurchase of notes, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, rights of noteholders, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of terms, and segregation of notes and subordination, among others. Services provided by the Trustee consist of reviewing issue documents, establishing administrative and operational procedures for the noteholders' accounts; opening a depository account for the issue; assistance for closing accounts; monitoring Indenture compliance; receiving and distributing noteholders' remittances and payments; and compiling annual tax reports for the federal tax authority and for noteholders, if applicable.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES:

Additional Indenture and Alterations in Notes

Subject to certain exceptions relating to non-economic matters, the SPC and the Trustee may (with the written consent of the designated banks, Visanet and the controlling parties of each series) in the course of time and at any time, agree to an amendment to add any provision or in any way alter or eliminate any of the provisions of the notes or the Indenture, as long as said amendment without the consent of each noteholder does not adversely affect them in the following ways:

(a) reduce the amount of, or delay the date, of distributions to be made, or alter any payment date, or alter the place of payment, or the currency in which any note is payable, or prejudice the right of the Trustee to bring an action for execution of any payment or distribution;

(b) authorize disposition of security interests or any part of the latter;

(c) reduce the percentage of the balance outstanding of any series that is necessary for said alteration, or reduce the percentage required for any waiver or instruction stipulated in the Indenture; or

Optional Redemption:

The designated banks, together, at any time (including upon the occurrence of a Tax Event), by giving Visanet, the SPC and the Trustee irrevocable written notification not less than 30 days in advance, may require the SPC to redeem the notes in full at the corresponding Redemption Price. In addition, subject to the rights of other designated banks to take up their percentage interest in the notes, as long as the ratings test is passed, any of these banks may at any time (including on the occurrence of a Tax Event) through irrevocable notification in writing not less than 60 days in advance to Visanet, other designated banks, the SPC and the Trustee, require the SPC to redeem its percentage interest in the notes in full, at the Percentage Interest and Repurchase Price on a pro rata basis proportional to the notes outstanding. Any other series may be redeemed before stipulated final payment date to the extent and in the manner stated in the Indenture. Other than the Recovery Premium, no other redemption premium shall be payable in the event of optional redemption of notes.

"Tax Event" means the occurrence of any event requiring Visanet, the Collections, or a Designated Bank to make additional payments to noteholders.

Mandatory Redemption:

If any of the "Early Redemption Events" described below takes place, the Series 2003-02 notes will be redeemed in full through payment by the designated banks at the corresponding redemption price of Series 2003-02 notes. Any amounts relating to said payment will be used by the Trustee exclusively to redeem Series 2003-01 notes. There will be no payment of redemption premium arising from mandatory redemption of Series 2003-2 notes.

G.II) FORMULA FOR CALCULATING REDEMPTION VALUE:

"Redemption Price" will be an amount in dollars equal to:

- a) the balance of the notes (or in the case of partial redemption, their proportionate value);
- b) unpaid interest charges, if any, accrued on the amount redeemed but excluding redemption date;
- c) additional amounts not paid for the respective series;
- d) in the case of optional redemption, the Recovery Premium (or, in the case of partial redemption, its proportionate value) is calculated as of redemption date; and
- e) all other amounts then due and payable under the transaction documents that would otherwise be payable by Collections.

"Recovery Premium" shall be an amount (not less than zero) equal to the present value (compounded on a quarterly basis) of future cash flows of capital and interest on redeemed notes (both series at the same rate of 5.911% per annum), discounted at an annual rate equal to return on sale (most recently published in The Wall Street Journal's New York edition) of US Treasuries for maturity date nearest the remaining weighted average life of the notes, calculated at the time of redemption plus 0.50% per annum (or, solely in the case of optional redemption due to a Tax Event, plus 1.25% per annum) less the total principal amount of the notes (or part thereof) to be redeemed, or in the case of Series 2003-2 notes, less the difference between the total amount of the principal of these notes (or part thereof) to be redeemed on said date and their cumulative value. The cumulative value of Series 2003-2 notes will be equal to present value (compounded on a quarterly basis) of future cash flows (calculated at the rate of 4.777% per annum), discounted at a rate of 5.911%.

Series 2003-2 notes, making them immediately due, and ask the banks to pay within two days of receiving said notification, the repurchase price corresponding to the series in accordance with their respective percentages for said series, on the occurrence of any of the early redemption events described below:

(a) occurrence of a bankruptcy event in relation to the SPC or Visanet;

(b) if a court of competent jurisdiction proffers a final sentence, order or ruling without recourse, against SPC or Visanet for the above payment of (i) US$ 50,000 to the SPC or (ii) US$ 5,000,000 to Visanet (in each case if not covered by insurance) or, in each case, its equivalent in other currencies, and 60 days have passed since the date of the sentence, order or measure without its being fulfilled;

(c) a default of the Servicer (provided that Visanet or one of its affiliates is the Servicer) occurring that could cause a material adverse effect;

(d) the SPC or Visanet become or are subject to "investment company" regulations under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended;

(e) (i) should Visanet default (as debtor or guarantor) on payment of principal and interest on outstanding loans in the principal amount of at least US$ 5,000,000 (or its equivalent in another currency) and said default continue beyond any applicable grace period, (note that default will not occur if (A) said loan were owed in currencies other than dollars, (B) Visanet were prevented by Brazilian law from making said payment in Brazilian reais from Brazil and (C) Visanet offered to make the scheduled payments due on said loan the creditor or to an appropriate body in a manner permitted by applicable Brazilian law, until and unless (afterwards), the holder of said debt has brought legal action (or not halted, or not indicated that it will promptly halt legal proceedings initiated prior to the offer) only as a result of Visanet's failure to pay said debt in the manner then permitted by applicable Brazilian law), or (ii) any other event occurs or condition exists in relation to said loans resulting in accelerated maturity of said debt;

(f) any authorization, license, permit, registration or approval required by the laws of Brazil, the Cayman Islands or the United States: (i) allow Visanet to legally fulfil and perform its obligations under the transaction documents (individually and/or as Servicer), (ii) allow the SPC to carry out its obligations under the transaction documents or to exercise the express rights assured the SPC under the Sale Agreement and/or Bill of Sale or (iii) to ensure the legality, validity, enforceability or admissibility of evidence in Brazil of the Sale Agreement and/or Bill of Sale, if no longer in full force and effect in any aspect for at least 60 days, the effect of which is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect;

(g) a government authority of Brazilian, the Cayman Islands or the United States takes any legislative, judicial or other measure or action (including requiring collections to be forwarded other than those required under the transaction documents or declaration of banking moratorium) that intervenes in the transaction documents (including the sale of receivables), prevents Visanet from honouring its obligations under the transaction documents and/or prevents Visanet from running its business or operations or a substantial part of them and said interference may reasonably have a material adverse effect; it is hereby determined that there shall be no default under this clause due to Visanet being prohibited under applicable Brazilian law from paying any additional amounts from Brazil in any currency other than the Brazilian real;

(h) if there is a final sentence or ruling from a legal action or administrative proceedings against Visanet or the SPC that could have a material adverse effect;

(i) if any representation or warranty made by Visanet (except in its role as Servicer) or by the SPC in any transaction document (i) is false or incorrect in any respect at the time it was made, (ii) said false or incorrect statement (or the current circumstances that made that statement false or incorrect) may not be remedied (or, if it may be remedied, is not remedied within 60 days of written notification from the Trustee or any investor) and (iii) said false or incorrect statement may reasonably cause a material adverse effect;

18.10 – Other material information

(j) except for the payment, transfer or obligations of deposit, Visanet (except in its role as Servicer) or SPC fail to comply or observe any agreement or obligation under the transaction documents, and said failure (i) could reasonably cause a material adverse effect and (ii) continue for at least 15 business days after the earlier of the following (A) an authorized representative of Visanet or the SPC, as the case may be, learns of the existence of the above or (B) delivers to Visanet or the SPC, as appropriate written notification of said failure by the SPC, Trustee or any investor;

(k) if the SPC no longer has a valid ownership interest in the receivables under any applicable laws, subject only to obligations to the Trustee and obligations for taxes, assessments and other governmental charges payable by the SPC but not yet due;

(l) the Trustee shall cease to have first priority interest in notes under all applicable laws, in full or in part of the collateral free and clear of any liens other than liens for taxes, assessments and other governmental charges payable by SPC and not yet due;

(m) Visanet intends to sell, assign, convey or otherwise dispose of or grant a security interest in the receivables to any person other than the SPC;

(n) if any of the transaction documents ceases to be in full force and effect (unless said failure results from a bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceedings being commenced by or against Visa International or said failure relates solely to said transaction document being in full force and effect in relation to a designated bank), provided that said failure relating to a transaction document, which relates only to one or more series shall be a default only in relation to the respective series;

(o) Visanet (unless in its role as Servicer) fails to make any payment, transfer or deposit under the transaction documents (including payment of additional amounts unless paid when due from the Collections) and such failure continues unremedied for at least five business days (or two business days in relation to deposit of collections in the applicable accounts) as of date on which such payment, transfer or deposit should be made;

(p) illegality in any Visanet or SPC transaction or operation in any jurisdiction has a material adverse effect;

(q) subject to the provisions in clause "n", default should have occurred in relation to any series for which the corresponding redemption price has been required to be paid;

(r) Visanet should cease to be (i) an authorized purchaser of Merchant Vouchers in Brazil, or (ii) the exclusive purchaser of Merchant Vouchers in Brazil, except (A) any Visanet pre-purchaser, (B) foreign purchasers or (C) any future purchaser authorized under an amendment to Visa's Operating Regulations and Bylaws (as amended in the course of time) after the closing date that does not cause a material adverse effect;

(s) Visa International makes payments to Trustee in a currency other than US dollars, unless the rating agency condition has been satisfied within 60 days of such event; and

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the situations described in items "j" or "o" existing for a period of up to five business days after the grace period will not constitute default if said delay or failure could not have been avoided by Visanet exercising due diligence and said delay or failure is caused by force majeure, riot, act of war, terrorism, epidemics, floods, weather, landslides, fires, earthquakes or similar causes. The first sentence, however, does not absolve Visanet from making its best efforts to fulfil its obligations in good time in accordance with the transaction documents.

The issuer is not entitled to redeem all or part of the notes before their maturity date except in cases of "Early Redemption for Taxation Reasons" (below);

Early Redemption for Tax Reasons

The issuer may redeem Notes in full but not partially at the redemption price of 100% of their principal plus interest accrued on the date set for redemption and any other amounts payable to noteholders under the Multiparty Agreement or the Notes Agreement and shall notify noteholders at least 30 and at most 60 days in advance if:

- it is or may be required to pay Additional Amounts beyond the Additional Amounts that we would be obliged to pay if the interest payments under the Notes would be subject to withholding or deduction at the rate of 15% as a result of any applicable legal or regulatory change of a tax jurisdiction or any change in generally in force in application or in accordance with the official interpretation of said tax laws or regulations, in each case, that occur after the date of original issuance of any of the Notes;
- it cannot avoid our obligations to pay said excess Additional Amounts taking reasonable measures available to the issuer; and
- the Central Bank approves said redemption.

However, the issuer shall not redeem the Notes for tax reasons before the fifth anniversary of the date of issuance of the notes unless the Central Bank so allows at an earlier date. Said notice of redemption shall be given less than 60 days before the earliest date on which the issuer would be obliged to pay excess Additional Amounts if the payment relating to the Notes is then due.

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

Before any notice of redemption as described above, the issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (1) a certificate certifying that we have the right to redeem the Notes in accordance with the terms of the Multi-party Agreement and stating the facts related to the redemption and (2) a written opinion from legal counsel stating that we are obliged to pay said excess additional amount as a result of the change or amendment described above, that the issuer cannot avoid payment of said excess Additional Amounts by taking reasonable measures available to the issuers and that all governmental authorizations required for the redemption were obtained and are current or specify any required authorization that has not been obtained.

G.II) FORMULA FOR CALCULATING REDEMPTION VALUE:

Payment of principal of the Notes plus corresponding accrued interest yet to be paid will be made on their payment date to the person in whose name the Notes are registered, as close as possible to New York closing time on the tenth business day preceding the payment date. Notes need not be redeemed to receive

H.I) MATURITY, INCLUDING CONDITIONS FOR EARLY MATURITY:

Maturity: 12/15/2011, unless maturity date is prorogued as detailed below.

Prorogation of Maturity Date

Although the Notes maturity date is 12/15/2011, the issuer may prorogue it to the later date of June 15, 2013 and 30 days after a currency inconvertibility/non-transfer event if it issues a certificate declaring that it meets the following conditions:

- it is unable to repay the principal of the Notes;
- Any of the following cases:
 - there are no funds available in the Applicable Currency outside of Brazil (or we are prevented by the Central Bank from using or controlling such funds) in an amount sufficient to repay the principal of the Notes or other of our indebtedness on or before the date, or 180 days after the stipulated maturity date, we have the funds in Brazilian reais but cannot convert them into the Applicable Currency and transfer them out of Brazil because of a inconvertibility/non-transfer event and has made its best reasonable efforts to convert and transfer said funds; or
 - it has the funds in the Applicable Currency in Brazil, but cannot transfer them out of Brazil to the Trustee because of a non-inconvertibility/non-transfer event and it has made all reasonable efforts to transfer such funds; or
 - it deposited the funds, or obtained funds to be deposited to the Trustee account in order to make a scheduled payment under the Notes, or part of the payment for which it has not sufficient funds in the Applicable Currency outside Brazil, but is prevented from using or controlling said funds; and
- the Insurance Policy is in force.

If the maturity date is prorogued, the stipulated maturity date will be an interest payment date, and interest on the Note at the Note Rate will be due on that date and on each interest payment date until the prorogued maturity date. If the maturity date is prorogued, the issuer shall deliver notification to noteholders within two business days.

Early Redemption Event (Default Events):

Each of the following events shall be an event of default under the terms of the Notes and Multi-party Agreement:

- failure by the issuer to make any payment of principal of any Note by maturity date, on redemption or other than due to deferral of interest or prorogation of maturity date;
- failure by the issuer to make any interest payment or any payment of Additional Amounts under the terms of the Notes and the Multi-party Agreement, other than due to a deferral of interest and if this failure to pay last for 15 days and the Trustee has not otherwise received these amounts from the insurance agent under the Insurance Policy, reserve account or otherwise; as long as the Insurance Agent recognizes that an interest payment is due and payable by the Insurance Agent under the Insurance Policy, the issuer's failing to make such payment shall not be a default event;

H.VI) TRUSTEE, STATING PRINCIPAL CONTRACTUAL TERMS:

The Bank of New York is the Trustee under the Multi-party Agreement.

The Multi-party Agreement, a document signed between the Bank and Trustee, governs various rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the issuance of notes, said as: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the notes, conditions and criteria for redemption and repurchase of notes, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, noteholders' rights, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of terms and segregation of notes and subordination, among others. The most relevant terms of the Multi-party Agreement are described in other items herein.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES:

Modification of the Multi-party Agreement

The Trustee along with the issuer, without the consent of noteholders, may amend the Multi-party Agreement for certain specific purposes, including among others, issuing additional notes, resolving ambiguities, defects or inconsistencies, or inclusion of other provisions related to issues and questions arising from the Multi-party Agreement, provided that the correction or provision added does not adversely affect noteholders' interests in any material respect.

Similarly, the Multi-party Agreement may be modified by issuer and Trustee with the consent of holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding at the time. However, without the consent of each outstanding noteholder affected by it, no alteration may:

- alter maturity of any payment of principal or any portion of interest on any Note;
- reduce the principal amount or interest rate or alter the method of recording the principal amount or interest charges payable on any date;
- alter the place of payment at which principal and interest on Notes are to be paid;

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

- alter the currency in which the principal or interest of the Notes are to be paid;
- diminish the noteholders' entitlement to bring an action to enforce any payment on or after due date;
- modify the subordination provisions of the Multi-party Agreement to adversely affect noteholders;
- reduce the percentage of the principal amount of outstanding Notes for which the consent of holders is required for any modification or waiver of execution of any provision in the Multi-party Agreement or faults under the Multi-party Agreement and their consequences; or
- modify the provisions summarized in this paragraph or the Multi-party Agreement provisions in accordance with the resignations of past failures, except to increase any percentage or to stipulate that any other Multi-party Agreement provision may not be modified or annulled without the consent of each noteholder affected by this modification.

Revocation

The issuer may, at its discretion and at any time, with prior approval from the Central Bank revoke its obligations in relation to the Notes through "legal revocation" or "revocation agreement." Generally, by legal revocation, the issuer will be deemed discharged and free of all indebtedness under the Notes and as having fulfilled all its obligations under the Notes and the Multi-party Agreement unless the following points remain applicable: (1) noteholders' rights to receive payments of principal and interest on the Notes (including any Additional Amounts) when payments are due, (2) their duty to report transfer and exchange of Notes, payment of additional amounts, maintenance of a paying agent and registrar for notes and a certain number of matters specified in the Multi-party Agreement and (3) the rights, powers, responsibilities, duties and immunities of the Trustee.

J) OTHER RELEVANT CHARACTERISTICS:

Insurance Policy

The Notes shall be beneficiaries under an Insurance Policy with an insurer. The Insurance Policy shall provide coverage against the Trustee's inability to convert Brazilian reais to dollars in order to make a scheduled payment of interest charges under the terms of the Notes, or to transfer converted funds out of Brazil, or to use or control funds deposited in the Trustee's account, due to the Brazilian government's taking or voting certain actions or measures or failing to do so. The insurer's obligation to pay claims under the Insurance Policy is limited to the value 12 months interest on Notes and subject to certain conditions, limitations and exclusions that could affect noteholders' right to receive payments corresponding to Notes, including a waiting period of 180 days.

Reserve Account

On the Note offering closing date, the Trustee shall open an account ("Reserve Account") at The Bank of New York in its name and will it initially be funded with an amount equivalent to six months interest charges on the Note at the Note Rate. If funds deposited in the payment account are sufficient to pay any additional amount and unpaid interest due on any payment date and the Trustee has been notified of an issuer currency inconvertibility/non-transfer event, the Trustee will withdraw from the Reserve Account the amount needed to meet the issuer's obligations to pay interest on the Notes, unless the amounts are payable on that payment date under the Insurance Policy. The Trustee shall transfer these funds on the applicable payment date. After cessation of a currency inconvertibility/non-transfer event for which sums were withdrawn from the Reserve Account, the issuer shall top up the Reserve Account.

G.I) POSSIBILITY OF REDEMPTION:

Early Redemption for Tax Reasons

The issuer may redeem the Notes in whole but not in part at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of Notes plus accrued interest on the agreed redemption date and any other amounts due noteholders under the terms of the Issue Indenture or Notes on notifying noteholders at least 30 days and at most to 60 days in advance, if:

- it be required, or may be required to pay Additional Amounts in excess of the Additional Amounts which it would have to pay if interest payments under the Notes were subject to withholding or deduction at a rate of 15% as a result of any alteration to generally applicable laws or regulations in a tax jurisdiction or any pertinent alteration in general to the application or official interpretation of said laws and tax regulations, in each case, occurring after the original issue date of any of the Notes;
- it cannot avoid through reasonable measures available to us, our obligation to pay such excess Additional Amounts; and
- the Central Bank has approved redemption.

However, the issuer shall not redeem the Notes for tax reasons before the fifth anniversary of the notes' issue date unless the Central Bank grants permission to do so at an earlier date. No notice of redemption may be given more than 60 days in advance of the first date that it would be required to pay excess Additional Amounts if a payment relating to the Notes were due at that time. Before sending any notice of redemption as described above, the issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (1) a certificate stating that it is entitled to redeem the Notes under the Issue Indenture terms and stating the facts relating to the redemption and (2) a written legal counsel opinion stating that it is obligated to pay said excess Additional Amounts due to a change or amendment as described above, that it cannot avoid paying said excess Additional Amounts by taking measures available to it, and that all governmental approvals required for said redemption have been obtained and are in full force and effect, and specifying any approvals required but not obtained.

18.10 – Other material information

Payment of principal of the Notes together with unpaid interest accrued will be made on the payment date to the person in whose name the Notes are registered at close of business, New York City time, on the tenth day before that payment date. Notes need not be redeemed for payment of principal, interest or other amounts to be received, except for redemption or final payment of principal on maturity date.

CHARACTERISTICS OF SECURITIES

H.I) MATURITY, INCLUDING CONDITIONS FOR EARLY MATURITY:

Maturity: 10/24/2013, unless maturity date is prorogued as detailed below.

Prorogation of Maturity Date

Although the stated expiration date of the Notes is 10/24/2013, the issuer may prorogue maturity date to April 24, 2015 and, within 30 days after the end of a currency inconvertibility/non-transfer event deliver a certificate stating that it has sufficient funds in Brazilian reais at the reference exchange rate, or in dollars, to pay the principal amount of the Notes and other debt payable on the maturity date stated, and cannot make such payment on the Notes due to a currency inconvertibility/non-transfer event occurring and persisting as of said date, and that it has made reasonable efforts to convert and transfer such funds.

If the maturity date is prorogued, the stated maturity date will be an interest payment date, and interest on the Notes at the Note Rate shall be payable on this date and on each subsequent interest payment date until the prorogued maturity date. If the maturity date is prorogued, the issuer shall notify noteholders within two business days of prorogation.

Early Maturity Events (Event of Default):

The following events shall each be an event of default under the terms of the Notes and Issue Indenture:

- our failing to make any payment of principal of any of the Notes, whether on maturity date, for redemption or otherwise, except due to a deferral of principal or a prorogation of maturity date described under "– Deferral of Interest and Principal" and "– Prorogation of Maturity Date";
- our failing to make any interest payment or any payment of Additional Amounts under the Notes and the Issue Indenture, except due to deferred interest described under "– Deferral of Interest and Principal", and that non-payment persisting for 15 days, and the Trustee has not otherwise received those amounts from the insurer under the Insurance Policy, or otherwise; excepting that if the insurer recognizes that any interest payment is due and overdue from the insurer under the Insurance Policy, our lack of payment shall not constitute an event of default;
- a court or agency or supervisory authority in the Cayman Islands or Brazil (1) brings an action or judicial decision or sentence in order to obtain adjudication on the basis of any law of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, readjustment of debt, rating of priority of assets and liabilities or similar law, or order our liquidation or dissolution of our business or the rule of our bankruptcy or insolvency, (2) issue a court ruling or decision that approves as properly filed against us for creditor composition (concordata) or adjustment or settlement under any applicable law except a creditor composition (concordata) permitted under the Issue Indenture, (3) proffers a sentence or court order appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, agent, sequestration agent or other similar official for us or for all or substantially all of our assets, and said proceedings, or judicial rulings or orders are not annulled, suspended and remain in effect for a period of 60 days, or (4) any event which, under the laws of Brazil or the Cayman Islands, has a similar effect to any of the above mentioned events; or

Without the consent of noteholders owning at least $66\frac{2}{3}$ % of the total principal of Notes outstanding, we shall not to merge or consolidate with any other person or convey or transfer substantially all our assets and property to any other person, unless, subsequently:

- the person formed by such consolidation or resulting from such merger or the person acquiring all or substantially all of our property and assets expressly assumes duly punctual payment of principal and interest on all Notes, and fulfilment or observance of each agreement of the Issue Indenture to be fulfilled or observed by us;
- immediately after the consummation of such transaction, no event of default or event which through notice, lapse of time or other conditions, become an event of default, has occurred and persisted and no agreement or obligation included in the Issue Indenture has been significantly violated; and

H.VI) TRUSTEE, STATING PRINCIPAL CONTRACTUAL TERMS:

The Bank of New York Trust Company (Cayman) Limited is the Trustee under the Issue Indenture

The Indenture, document signed by the Bank and the Trustee, governs various rights and obligations of the parties in relation to note issues, such as: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the notes, conditions and criteria for redemption and repurchase of notes, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, noteholders' rights, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of terms and segregation of notes and subordination, among others. The most relevant terms in the Indenture are described in other items herein.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES:

We and the Trustee may not amend or waive any Note or Issue Indenture term or condition without obtaining prior written consent from the insurer.

We and the Trustee, without consent from noteholders, may modify the Issue Indenture for certain specified purposes, including, among others, to provide for the issuing of additional notes as described in "Additional Notes," to remedy ambiguities, defects or inconsistencies, or include any other provisions in relation to matters or issues arising from the Issue Indenture, as long as said correction or additional provision does not adversely affect the interests of noteholders in any material aspect.

In addition, the Issue Indenture may be modified by us and the Trustee with the consent of noteholders owning a majority of the principal amount of Notes outstanding at the time. Nevertheless, without the consent of all holders of outstanding notes affected by an alteration, no alteration may:

- alter the due date of any payment of principal or any portion of interest charges of any Note;
- reduce the principal amount or interest charges, or alter the method used to calculate the principal amount or interest payable on any date;
- alter any place of payment where principal or interest on Notes are to be paid;
- alter the currency in which principal or interest on Notes are to be paid;
- prejudice the noteholders' right to bring legal actions to enforce payment on maturity date or thereafter;
- modify the Issue Indenture's subordination provisions such a way as to adversely affect holders;

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

- reduce the percentage of the principal of outstanding Notes whose holders are required to consent to any alteration or waiver of any provision in the Issue Indenture or defaults under the Issue Indenture and their consequences; or
- modify provisions summarized in this paragraph, or Issue Indenture provisions relating to waiver of the right to execute the other party due to previous defaults, except to increase any percentage or determine that other Issue Indenture provisions may not be modified or waived without the consent of each noteholder affected by the modifications.

After an alteration described in the previous paragraph, we are obliged to mail notification to noteholders through the Trustee briefly describing the alteration. However, failure to send such notice to all noteholders, or error in the notification, shall not affect the validity of the alteration.

Cancellation

We may, at our discretion and at any time, with prior approval from the Central Bank, cancel our obligations relating to the Notes through "legally enforced cancellation" or "contractual cancellation." In general, through cancellation by operation of law, we shall be deemed to have paid and settled all our debt under the Notes and honoured all our obligations under the Notes and the Issue Indenture except the following items, which shall survive: (1) rights of noteholders to receive payments of principal and interest on the Notes (including any Additional Amounts) when payments are due, (2) our obligations in relation to transfer and exchange of Notes, payment of Additional Amounts, maintaining a paying agent and registrar of the notes and other matters specified in the Issue Indenture and (3) the Trustee's rights, powers, obligations, duties and immunities.

In addition, through contractual cancellation, we may cancel our obligations under the terms of the obligations described in "– Certain Obligations" except the obligations described in "– Fulfilment of obligations under Notes and Issue Indenture" and "– Use of Proceeds from Sale of Notes" and certain agreements relating to depositing sums to pay principal and interest on Notes, measures relating to payment agents, return of unclaimed amounts and other matters. After contractual cancellation, we may fail to fulfil any cancelled obligation and the subordination provisions in the Issue Indenture shall no longer to be valid.

To exercise cancellation or contractual cancellation we must fulfil the following conditions:

- irrevocably deposit with the Trustee, in dollars or in US government obligations or any combination thereof, amounts that in the opinion of internationally recognized independent auditor firms are sufficient to pay and settle the principal and each portion of interest on the Notes under the terms of the Issue Indenture and Notes, Insurance Policy and Issuer's statement of consent;
- in the event of cancellation by operation of law, we must deliver to the Trustee a legal counsel's opinion stating that (1) we received a regulation from the Federal Revenue Department, or the Federal Revenue Department issued a regulation, or (2) since the date of the Issue Indenture, there has been an alteration in U.S. income tax legislation or its interpretation, in any case for which noteholders do not recognize income, gain or loss for United States income tax purposes as a result of said deposit, withholding and settlement and will be subject to income tax in the United States in the same amount, in the same way and at the same time they would be if said a deposit, withdrawal and settlement had not occurred, unless the Trustee has received written evidence that each noteholder is not subject to, or is exempt from, United States income tax;
- in the event of contractual cancellation, we must deliver to the Trustee a legal counsel's opinion stating that the noteholders will not recognize income, gain or loss for income tax in the United States as a result of said deposit and cancellation of commitment, and will be subject to United States income tax in the same amount, in the same way and at the same time as they would be if said deposit and contractual cancellation had not occurred;

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

- no event of default or event which would become an event of default through notification, lapse of time or other conditions, has occurred and persist on the date of the deposit and in relation to bankruptcy, insolvency and other events described in the third and fourth items above under "-Events of Default" at any time during the period that ends on the 123rd day after the date of that deposit or, if longer, ending on the day after that period expires, preferably the longest applicable, relating to that filing;
- we must deliver to the Trustee a legal counsel's opinion stating that payment of the amounts deposited with the Trustee will not be subject to future taxes or other governmental charges applied by any Tax Jurisdiction, except where said related Additional Amounts have been deposited in trust with the Trustee;
- said cancellation does not result in any violation or breach of contract or other instrument to which we are a party or by which we are bound;
- said cancellation will mean that the trust resulting from that deposit constitutes an investment company as per the definition attributed by the 1940 U.S. Investment Company Act and amendments;
- we delivered a certificate and legal counsel's opinion stating that all conditions for revocation were met; and
- no default on payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest on any of the Other Obligations h
- as occurred and continues, said Other Obligations have not become due in advance and no other event of default under those Other Obligations has occurred and continues in said a way as to allow early maturity of these obligations.

J) OTHER RELEVANT CHARACTERISTICS:

Insurance Policy

An Insurance Policy has been issued to the Trustee for the benefit of noteholders. The Insurance Policy shall provide coverage in case of the issuer's inability to convert Brazilian reais to dollars in order to make a scheduled payment of interest charges under the terms of the Notes, or to transfer converted funds out of Brazil, or to use or control said funds, due to certain actions or omissions by the Brazilian government, or due to the fact of the Brazilian government not approving said actions or measures. The insurer's obligation in relation to payment of compensation under the Insurance Policy is limited to 18 months interest on the Notes and certain premium payments under the Insurance Policy and is subject to certain conditions, limitations and exclusions that could affect noteholders' ability to receive payments of Notes.

Reserve Account

On the Notes issue date, the Trustee shall open a separate trust account ("Reserve Account") at The Bank of New York Trust Company (Cayman) Limited, in its name and under its sole control for the benefit of the noteholders. The Reserve Account will initially be supplied with an amount equal to the initial premium refundable, of to six months interest charges on the Notes at the Note Rate.

If the funds held in the account for payment are insufficient to pay all accrued and unpaid interest due on any payment date, and the Trustee has received a Proof of Loss from the issuer, the Trustee shall withdraw the required amount from the Reserve Account in order to honour the issuer's obligations to pay interest under the Notes, unless the amounts may be required on this payment date under the Insurance Policy. The Trustee shall transfer these funds on the applicable payment date.

G.I) POSSIBILITY OF REDEMPTION:

The Notes shall not be subject to optional redemption by us except as stated above in "Early Redemption for Tax Reasons."

Early Redemption for Tax Reasons

We may redeem the Notes in whole but not in part at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes together with accrued interest through the date set for redemption, and any other amounts payable to noteholders under the terms of the Issue Indenture or the Notes, by notifying noteholders at least 30 days and at most 60 days in advance, if:

- we are compelled, or may be compelled to pay Additional Amounts in excess of the Additional Amounts that we would be required to pay if interest payments due the Notes were subject to withholding or deduction at a rate of 15% as a result of any generally applicable alteration to laws or regulations in a tax jurisdiction or any pertinent alteration in general to the official application or interpretation of said laws and Tax Regulations, in each case, occurring after the date of original issue of any of the Notes;
- we may not avoid, through reasonable measures available to us, our obligations to pay said excess Additional Amounts; and
- the Central Bank has approved this redemption.

However, we may not redeem the Notes for tax reasons before the fifth anniversary of the notes' issue date unless the Central Bank grants us permission to do so at an earlier date. No notice of redemption may be given more than 60 days in advance of the first date on which we would be obliged to pay excess Additional Amounts if a payment for the Notes were to be due at this time. Before sending any notice of redemption as described above, we shall deliver to the Trustee (1) a certificate stating that we have the right to redeem the Notes under the terms of the Issue Indenture and stating the facts relating to redemption and (2) a written opinion from attorneys stating that we are obliged to pay said excess Additional Amounts due to a change or alteration described above, that we cannot avoid paying said excess Additional Amounts by taking the measures available to us, and that all necessary governmental approvals required for said redemption have been obtained and are in full force and effect, specifying any approvals required that were not obtained.

G.II) FORMULA FOR CALCULATING REDEMPTION VALUE:

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

Payment of principal of the Notes together with unpaid and accrued interest shall be made on the payment date to the person in whose name the Notes are registered at close of business, New York City time, on the tenth day before that payment date. Notes need not be delivered for payment of principal, interest or other amounts to be received, except for redemption or final payment of principal on maturity date.

CHARACTERISTICS OF SECURITIES

H.I) MATURITY, INCLUDING CONDITIONS FOR EARLY MATURITY:

Maturity: 04/15/2014, unless maturity date is prorogued.

Prorogation of Maturity Date

Although the stated maturity date of the Notes is April 15, 2014, we may prorogate the maturity date to the earlier of October 15, 2015 or 30 days after the date on which the currency inconvertibility/non-transferability event which prevented our honouring payment of our obligations under the Notes ended, if we submit a certificate stating that we have sufficient funds in Brazilian reais at the reference exchange rate or in Euros, to pay the principal amount of Notes and any other debt payable on the stated maturity date and we may not make said payment in relation to the Notes because of a currency inconvertibility/non-transferability event, which occurred, and continues on said date, and that we have made reasonable efforts to convert and transfer said funds.

If the maturity date is prorogued, the maturity date stated shall be an interest payment date, and interest on the Notes at the Note Rate shall be payable on that date and on each interest payment date subsequent to the prorogued maturity date. If the maturity date is prorogued, we shall notify noteholders within two business days of prorogation.

Early Maturity Events (Event of Default):

Any of the following events shall be an event of default under the terms of the Notes and Issue Indenture:

- our failing to make any payment of principal of any of the Notes, whether on maturity date, for redemption or otherwise, except due to a deferral of principal or a prorogation of maturity date described under "– Deferral of Interest and Principal" and "– Prorogation of Maturity Date";
- our failing to make any interest payment or any payment of Additional Amounts under the Notes and the Indenture, except when due to a deferral of interest described under "– Deferral of Interest and Principal", and this non-payment continues for 15 days, and the Trustee has not otherwise received those amounts from the insurer under the Insurance Policy, from the Reserve Account or otherwise; except that if the insurance company recognizes that an interest payment is due and payable by the insurer under the Insurance Policy, our lack of payment shall not constitute an event of default;
- a court or agency or supervisory authority in the Cayman Islands or Brazil (1) brings an action or proffers judicial decision or sentence in order to obtain adjudication on the basis of any law of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, readjustment of debt, prioritizing assets and liabilities or similar law, or orders our liquidation or dissolution of our business or our declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency, (2) issues a ruling or court decision approving as properly filed against us an application for creditor composition (concordata) settlement, adjustment or composition under any applicable law except a creditor composition (concordata) permitted under the Issue Indenture, (3) issue a sentence or court order appointing a custodian, depositary, liquidator, assignee, sequestration agent or other similar official for us or for all or substantially all our assets, and said judicial proceedings, sentences or rulings are not annulled or suspended and remain in effect for a period of 60 days, or (4) any event that occurs which under the laws of Brazil or the Cayman Islands, has a similar effect to any of the above mentioned events; or

18.10 – Other material information

- we bring an action or start proceedings voluntarily based on any applicable law of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar law, or any other action or proceeding filed for ruling our bankruptcy or insolvency, or we consent in our defence or otherwise, to issuance of a court verdict or decision in an action or proceedings based on any applicable law of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar law, in which we are the defendants, or with the filing of an action or proceedings for a ruling on our bankruptcy or dissolution or insolvency or any event which, under the laws of Brazil or the Cayman Islands, has a similar effect to any of the above mentioned events; or
- we submit Proof of Loss that would cause payment of compensation by the insurer under the Insurance Policy, in circumstances in which we were not entitled to submit Proof of Loss.

H.VI) TRUSTEE, STATING PRINCIPAL CONTRACTUAL TERMS:

The Bank of New York Trust Company (Cayman) Limited is the Trustee under the Issue Indenture

The Issue Indenture, a document signed by the Bank and Trustee, governs various rights and obligations of the parties in relation to issuing the notes, said as: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the notes, conditions and criteria for redemption and repurchase of notes, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, noteholders' rights, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of terms and segregation of notes and subordination, among other items. The most relevant terms in the Issue Indenture are described in the other items herein.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES:

Modification of Issue Indenture

We and the Trustee may not amend or waive any Note or Issue Indenture term or condition without obtaining prior written consent from the insurer.

We and the Trustee shall be able, without the consent of the noteholders, modify the Issue Indenture for certain specified purposes, including, among other things, stipulate issuance of Additional Notes as described under "– Additional Notes," to remedy ambiguities, defects or inconsistencies, or include any other provisions relating to matters or issues arising from the Issue Indenture, as long as this correction or additional provision shall not adversely affect noteholders' interests in any material respect.

In addition, the Issue Indenture may be modified by us and the Trustee with the consent of holders owning a majority of the principal amount of Notes outstanding at the time. Nevertheless, without the consent of all holders of outstanding Notes affected by an alteration, no alteration may:

- alter the due date of any payment of principal or any portion of interest charges of any Note;
- reduce the principal amount or interest charges, or alter the method used to calculate the principal amount or interest payable on any date;
- alter any place of payment at which principal or interest on the Notes is to be paid;
- alter the currency in which the principal or interest on the Notes shall be paid;
- prejudice the right of noteholders to bring legal actions to enforce the obligation to pay on maturity date or thereafter;
- modify the Issue Indenture's subordination provisions said a way as to adversely affect holders;

PAGE 643

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

- reduce the percentage of the principal of outstanding Notes whose holders are required to consent to any alteration or waiver of any provision in the Issue Indenture or defaults under the Issue Indenture and their consequences; or
- modify provisions summarized in this paragraph, or Issue Indenture provisions relating to waiver previous defaults, except to increase any percentage or determine that other Issue Indenture provisions may not be modified or waived without the consent of each noteholder prejudiced by the modifications.

After an alteration described in the previous paragraph, we are obliged to mail notification to noteholders through the Trustee briefly describing the alteration. However, failure to send said notice to all noteholders, or error in the notification, shall not affect the validity of the alteration.

Cancellation

We may, at our discretion and at any time, with prior approval from the Central Bank cancel our obligations relating to the Notes through "cancellation by operation of law" or "contractual cancellation." In general, on cancellation by operation of law, we shall be deemed to have paid and settled all our debt under the Notes and honoured all our obligations under the Notes and the Issue Indenture except the following items, which will survive: (1) noteholders' rights to receive payments of principal and interest on Notes (including any Additional Amounts) when payments are due, (2) our obligations in relation to transfer and exchange of Notes, payment of Additional Amounts, maintaining a payments agent and registrar of the notes and other matters specified in the Issue Indenture and (3) the Trustee's rights, powers, obligations, duties and immunities.

In addition, through contractual cancellation, we may cancel our obligations under the obligations described in "Certain Obligations" except the obligations described in "– Fulfilment of obligations under the Notes and Issue Indenture" and "– Use of Proceeds from Sale of Notes" and certain agreements relating to depositing amounts to pay principal and interest on the Notes, measures related to payment agents, the return of unclaimed amounts and other matters. After contractual cancellation, we may fail to fulfil any cancelled obligation and the subordination provisions in the Indenture shall no longer to be valid.

To exercise cancellation or contractual cancellation we must meet the following conditions:

- we must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee amounts in (i) Euro; or (ii) permitted investments (certain Euro-denominated obligations or repurchase agreements, as defined in the Issue Indenture); or (iii) a combination of the above in amounts that, in the opinion of internationally recognized independent auditor firms, are sufficient to pay and settle the principal and each portion of interest of the Notes (including any amounts payable to the Insurer under the Issue Indenture, the Insurance Policy and Supplementary Insurance Contract) under the terms of the Issue Indenture and the Notes, Insurance Policy and Supplementary Insurance Contract;
- no event of default or event which, by notice, lapse of time or other conditions, would become an event of default has occurred and continues on the deposit date and in relation to bankruptcy, insolvency and other events described in the third and fourth items above under "– Events of Default" at any time during the period ending on the 123rd day after the date of that deposit or, if longer, ending the day after that period expires, preferably the longest applicable, related to that deposit;
- we must deliver to the Trustee a legal counsel's opinion stating that payment of the amounts deposited in trust with the Trustee will not be subject to future taxes or other governmental charges levied by any Tax Jurisdiction, unless said related Additional Amounts have been deposited in trust with the Trustee;

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

- said cancellation does not result in any violation or breach of contract or other instrument to which we are a party or by which we are bound;
- said cancellation does not mean the trust resulting from that deposit constituting an investment company as defined by the 1940 U.S. Investment Company Act) as amended;
- we have delivered a certificate and legal counsel's opinion stating that all conditions for revocation or cancellation were met; and
- no default in payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest on any of the Other Obligations has occurred and continues, said Other Obligations have not become due in advance and no other event of default under those Other Obligations has occurred and continues in such a way as to allow early maturity of these obligations.

J) OTHER RELEVANT CHARACTERISTICS:Insurance Policy

The insurer will issue the Insurance Policy to the Trustee for the benefit of noteholders. The Insurance Policy shall provide coverage in case of the issuer's inability to convert Brazilian reais to dollars in order to make a scheduled payment of interest charges under the terms of the Notes, or to transfer converted funds out of Brazil, or to use or control funds deposited in the Trustee's account due to certain actions or omissions by the Brazilian government. The insurer's obligation in relation to payment of compensation under the Insurance Policy is limited to 12 months interest on Notes and is subject to certain conditions, limitations and exclusions that could affect the ability of noteholders to receive payments from Notes. The Insurance Policy is issued to the Trustee for the benefit of noteholders.

Reserve Account

On the Closing Date, the Trustee shall open a separate trust account for the benefit of the noteholders ("Reserve Account") at The Bank of New York Trust Company (Cayman) Limited, in its name and under its sole control. The Reserve Account will initially be supplied with funds on the Notes' Closing Date in an amount equal to the payment of six months interest on the Notes at the Note Rate.

If the funds held in the payment account should be insufficient to pay all accrued and unpaid interest due on any payment date, and the Trustee has received a Proof of Loss from the issuer, as long as no Subordination Event has occurred and continues, the Trustee shall withdraw the necessary sum from the Reserve Account to honour the issuer's obligations to pay interest under the terms of the Notes, unless the amounts may be required on this payment date under the terms of the Insurance Policy. The Trustee will transfer these funds on the applicable payment date.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

The issuer shall not have the right to redeem all or part of the notes before their maturity date.

G. II) FORMULA FOR CALCULATING REDEMPTION VALUE:

Payment of principal of the Notes together with unpaid and accrued interest shall be made on the payment date to the person in whose name the Notes are registered at close of trading New York City time on the tenth business day before payment date. Notes need not be delivered for payment of principal, interest or other amounts to be made, except for redemptions or final payments of principal on due date.

CHARACTERISTICS OF SECURITIES

H.I) MATURITY, INCLUDING CONDITIONS FOR EARLY MATURITY

Maturity: 09/29/2019.

Early redemption:

Early Maturity Events (Default)

- the issuer does not make payment of the principal on any notes on maturity date, through redemption or otherwise, except due to a deferral of principal;
- the issuer fails to pay interest or pay additional amounts under the terms of the notes and Indenture except when due to a deferral of interest and said default continues for 15 days;
- a court or agency or supervisory authority in the Cayman Islands or Brazil (1) brings an action or proffers a judicial decision or sentence declaring bankruptcy under any law of bankruptcy, insolvency, recovery, debt readjustment, compulsory reorganization of assets and liabilities or similar law, or orders the issuer's liquidation or dissolution of its business or rules that the issuer is bankrupt or insolvent, or (2) issues a ruling or court decision approving as properly filed an application for reorganization of the issuer and creditor composition under any applicable law except a reorganization permitted under the Indenture, (3) issue a sentence or court order appointing a custodian, administrator, liquidator, assignee, intervener or other similar authority for the issuer for all or substantially all its assets, and said judicial proceedings, sentences or rulings have not been annulled or have remained in full effect for 60 days, or (4) any event that occurs which under the laws of Brazil or the Cayman Islands, has a similar effect to the above mentioned events; or
- the issuer files for voluntary bankruptcy, or proceedings under any applicable law of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar law, or any other action or proceeding to be declared bankrupt or insolvent, or the issuer consent through response or otherwise, with the proffering of a ruling or sentence declaring bankruptcy in an involuntary action or proceeding under any applicable law of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, intervention, liquidation or other similar law, or the commencement of any action or proceedings for bankruptcy or insolvency against the issuer or its dissolution or any event which, under the laws of Brazil or the Cayman Islands, has a similar effect to any of the above events.

If an event of default described in the third and fourth points above occurs and persists, the principal of all notes and interest due and unpaid on all notes will become immediately due and payable without any declaration or action by the Trustee or any noteholders. However, the issuer will be required to make the payments described in this paragraph only after having been declared bankrupt or in liquidation or otherwise dissolved, and said payments will be subject to subordination provisions specified in the Indenture.

Merger, absorption, assignment or transference

Without the consent of holders of not less than 65 2/3% of the aggregate principal amount of notes outstanding, the issuer shall not agree to any consolidation or merger with any other person or convey or transfer all or substantially all of its property or assets or all or substantially all its property, assets and liabilities (including the notes issued under the Indenture) to any other person, unless thereafter:

- the person formed by said consolidation or with which the issuer has merged, or the person acquiring all or substantially all property and assets of the issuer or all or substantially all property, assets and liabilities of the issuer (including notes under the Indenture) expressly assume the due and punctual payment of principal and interest charges on all notes, and fulfilment and observance of all obligations in the Indenture and notes to be fulfilled and observed by the issuer;
- immediately after the transaction comes into effect, no event of default or event which, through notice, lapse of time or other conditions would become an event of default, has occurred and persisted, and no obligations or agreements specified in the Indenture or in the notes have been significantly breached; and
- the person formed by said consolidation or with which the issuer has made a merger, or the person acquiring all or substantially all the issuer's property and assets, or all or substantially all the issuer's property and assets and liabilities (including notes issued under the Indenture) delivers to the Trustee a certificate from an officer and legal counsel's an opinion stating that the consolidation, merger, disposition or transfer, and if necessary a supplementary Indenture relating to the transaction, stating that said supplementary Indenture complies with the Indenture and that all suspensive conditions stipulated in the Indenture relating to the transaction have been fulfilled.

Additionally, the above conditions apply only if the issuer wishes to merge or consolidate with another entity or sell its assets substantially as a whole to another entity. The issuer need not meet those conditions if it signs other types of transactions, including any transaction in which it acquires shares or assets of another entity, or any transaction involving a change in control of the issuer, but in which there is no merger or consolidation, and any transaction in which the issuer sells less than substantially all its assets.

H.VI) TRUSTEE, STATING PRINCIPAL CONTRACTUAL TERMS

The Bank of New York Mellon is the Trustee in accordance with the Issue Indenture.

The Issue Indenture, a document signed by the Bank and Trustee, governs various rights and obligations of the parties in relation to issuing the notes, said as: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the notes, conditions and criteria for redemption and repurchase of notes, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, noteholders' rights, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of terms and segregation of notes and subordination, among other items, and the most relevant terms contained in the Issue Indenture are described in the other items herein.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING THE RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES

Modifications that do not require approval

The issuer and the Trustee may once, without prior consent from noteholders, modify terms and conditions of notes solely to meet the requirements of the Central Bank for the notes to be eligible as Tier 2 capital notes under CVM Resolution No. 3,444 and subsequent amendments. The issuer is not authorized to make any modifications without the consent of noteholders if said a modification in any way affects the interest rate on notes, the cumulative nature of any interest payment due on amounts in arrears, the outstanding principal amount of the notes, ratings or original maturity date of the notes.

The Trustee shall request the opinion of the issuer's Brazilian attorney describing modifications to terms and conditions of the notes required by the Central Bank for the notes to qualify as Tier 2 capital. On receiving said legal opinion from the attorney, the issuer will sign an endorsed and ratified Indenture, a new note form, and any other documents required to implement the necessary modifications required by the Central Bank.

Without the consent of noteholders, the issuer and trustee may also, modify the Indenture for certain specific purposes, including, among other things, to issue additional notes, correct ambiguities, inconsistencies or defects and include any other provisions referring to matters or issues arising from the Indenture, as long as said correction or provision added does not adversely affect the interests of noteholders in any material respect.

Modifications that require approval

In addition, the Indenture may be modified by the issuer and the Trustee with consent of noteholders holding a majority of the aggregate principal amount of notes then outstanding. However, without the consent of the holder of each outstanding note affected by a modification, no said modification may:

- alter the maturity of any payment of principal or interest on any portion of any note;
- reduce the principal amount or interest rate, or modify the method of calculating the principal amount or interest to be paid on any date;

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

- alter any place of payment at which principal or interest on the notes is to be paid;
- change the currency in which principal or interest on the notes is to be paid;
- prejudice the noteholders' right to bring an action to enforce any payment on due date or thereafter;
- modify the Indenture subordination provisions in said a way as to adversely affect noteholders;
- reduce the percentage of the principal amount of outstanding notes for which noteholders' consent is required for any modification or waiver for observance of any Indenture provision or defaults and their consequences; or
- modify provisions summarized in this paragraph, or Indenture provisions relating to waiver of the right to execute the other party due to previous defaults, except to increase any percentage or determine that other Indenture provisions may not be modified or waived without the consent of each noteholder affected by the modifications.

After a modification described in the preceding paragraph, the issuer is required to submit, through the Trustee, a notice to holders briefly describing said alteration. However, the fact of not sending such notice to noteholders, or any error in the notice, will not affect the validity of the modification.

The Trustee may at any time, convene a noteholders meeting. The issuer or the holders of at least 10% of the aggregate principal of outstanding notes may call a meeting if the issuer or said holders have made a written request to the Trustee to call said a meeting and the Trustee fails to send notice calling the meeting within 20 days of receiving the request. Notices convening meetings shall include the time and place of meeting and a general description of the measure proposed to be taken at the meeting and shall be delivered not less than 30 days and not more than 60 days before the date of the meeting, except that all notices of meetings reconvened after adjournment shall be given not less than 10 days and not more than 60 days before the meeting date. At any meeting, the presence of noteholders owing an aggregate amount of the principal sufficient to take the measure for which the meeting was convened shall constitute a quorum. Any modifications or waivers to the Indenture or notes shall be final and binding on all noteholders whether or not they have given their consent (unless required under the Indenture) or were present at any duly convened meeting.

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

The issuer is not entitled to redeem all or part of the notes before their maturity date, except as provided below in "Tax Event Redemption through."

Early Redemption through Tax Event

On any interest payment date, with prior approval from the Central Bank and any other governmental authority (if applicable), the notes may be redeemed after the occurrence of a Tax Event (term defined below). In the event of redemption after a Tax Event, the notes will be redeemed at redemption price equal to 100% of aggregate principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, until the date of such redemption, including any additional amounts.

In the case of a Tax Event, the issuer is obliged, before exercising the right of redemption, to deliver to the Trustee a written notice together with a certificate from the management of Banco Bradesco S.A. and a legal opinion from Brazilian attorney, in both cases confirming in a satisfactory manner for the Trustee, that it is entitled to exercise said right of redemption.

"Tax Event" means the determination by the issuer that, immediately before sending the appropriate notice on the date of payment of interest applicable, the issuer would be obliged, for reasons beyond its control, to pay Additional Amounts beyond the Additional Amounts that the issuer would be required to pay if interest payments on the notes were subject to withholding or deduction at a rate of (a) 15% in case of taxes levied in Brazil, (b) 25% in the case of taxes levied in Brazil on money paid to residents of countries in which they are exempt from income tax or subject to an income tax rate of 20% or less, or when the laws of that country restrict disclosure of (i) share ownership structure; or (ii) ownership of the investment; or (iii) beneficial ownership of income paid to non-resident persons pursuant to Law No. 9,779 of January 19, 1999, (c) 0% in case of any taxes levied in the Cayman Islands or (d) the tax rate in force in any other jurisdiction in which a payment agent is located on the date the issuer designates said paying agent, and if in each of these cases, the issuer is unable to avoid said circumstances through reasonable measures.

G. II) FORMULA FOR CALCULATING REDEMPTION VALUE:

Payment of principal of the Notes together with unpaid and accrued interest shall be made on the payment date to the person in whose name the Notes are registered at close of trading New York City time on the tenth business day before payment date. Notes need not be delivered for payment of principal, interest or other amounts to be made, except for redemptions or final payments of principal on due date.

- the issuer fails to pay interest or pay additional amounts under the terms of the notes and Indenture except when due to a deferral of interest and such default continues for 15 days;
- a court or agency or supervisory authority in the Cayman Islands or Brazil (1) initiate a process or approve a decision or declaration of bankruptcy under any bankruptcy, insolvency, rehabilitation, readjustment of debt, compulsory reorganization of assets and liabilities or similar law, or the dissolution or liquidation of the business of the issuer or the issuer judging bankrupt or insolvent or (2) approve a decision or order approving, as properly registered, a petition pleading for the reorganization of the issuer and its agreement with creditors under any applicable law, except a reorganization permitted under the Indenture, (3) approve a decision or order appointing a custodian, administrator, liquidator, assignee, intervener or other similar authority for the issuer or all or substantially all its assets, and said processes, decision or order have not been cancelled or remain in full effect for 60 days, or (4) any event occurs which, in accordance with the laws of Brazil or the Cayman Islands have a similar effect to the above events; or
- the issuer files for voluntary bankruptcy, or proceedings under any applicable law of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar law, or any other action or proceeding to be declared bankrupt or insolvent, or the issuer consent through response or otherwise, with the proffering of a ruling or sentence declaring bankruptcy in an involuntary action or proceeding under any applicable law of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, intervention, liquidation or other similar law, or the commencement of any action or proceedings for bankruptcy or insolvency against the issuer or its dissolution or any event which, under the laws of Brazil or the Cayman Islands, has a similar effect to any of the above events.

If an event of default described in the third and fourth points above occurs and continues, the principal of all notes and interest due and unpaid on all notes will become immediately due and payable without any declaration or action by the trustee or any noteholders. However, the issuer will be required to make the payments described in this paragraph only after having been declared bankrupt or in liquidation or otherwise winding up, and such payments will be subject to subordination provisions specified in the Issue Indenture.

Merger, absorption, assignment or transference

Without the consent of holders of not less than $65\frac{2}{3}$ % of the principal amount of notes outstanding, the issuer shall not agree to any consolidation or merger with any other person or convey or transfer all or substantially all of its property or assets or all or substantially all its property, assets and liabilities (including the notes issued under the Indenture) to any other person, unless thereafter:

- the person formed by such consolidation or with which the issuer has merged, or the person acquiring all or substantially all property and assets of the issuer or all or substantially all property, assets and liabilities of the issuer (including notes under the Indenture) expressly assume the due and punctual payment of principal and interest charges on all notes, and fulfillment and observance of all obligations in the Indenture and notes to be fulfilled and observed by the issuer;
- immediately after the transaction comes into effect, no event of default or event which, through notice, lapse of time or other conditions would become an event of default, has occurred and persisted, and no obligations or agreements specified in the Indenture or in the notes have been significantly breached; and
- the person formed by said consolidation or with which the issuer has made a merger, or the person acquiring all or substantially all the issuer's property and assets, or all or substantially all the issuer's property and assets and liabilities (including notes issued under the Indenture) delivers to the Trustee a certificate from an officer and legal counsel's an opinion stating that the consolidation, merger, disposition or transfer, and if necessary a supplementary Indenture relating to the transaction, stating that said supplementary Indenture complies with the Indenture and that all suspensive conditions stipulated in the Indenture relating to the transaction have been fulfilled.

Additionally, the above conditions apply only if the issuer wishes to merge or consolidate with another entity or sell its assets substantially as a whole to another entity. The issuer need not meet those conditions if it signs other types of transactions, including any transaction in which it acquires shares or assets of another entity, or any transaction involving a change in control of the issuer, but in which there is no merger or consolidation, and any transaction in which the issuer sells less than substantially all its assets.

H.VI) TRUSTEE, STATING PRINCIPAL CONTRACTUAL TERMS

The Bank of New York Mellon is the Trustee under the Issue Indenture.

The Issue Indenture, a document signed by the Bank and Trustee, governs various rights and obligations of the parties in relation to issuing the notes, such as: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the notes, conditions and criteria for redemption and repurchase of notes, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, noteholders' rights, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of terms and segregation of notes and subordination, among other items, and the most relevant terms contained in the Issue Indenture are described in the other items herein.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES

Reference Form – 2011 – BANCO BRADESCO S.A.

Version: 1

18.10 – Other material information

Modifications that do not require approval

The issuer and the trustee may once, without prior consent from noteholders, modify terms and conditions of notes solely to meet the requirements of the Central Bank for the notes to be eligible as Tier 2 capital notes under CVM Resolution No. 3,444 and subsequent amendments. The issuer is not authorized to make any changes without the consent of noteholders if this change in any way affects the interest rate on notes, the cumulative nature of any interest payment due on amounts in arrears, the outstanding principal amount of the notes, their ratings, or their original maturity date.

The trustee will request the opinion of the issuer's Brazilian attorney describing modifications to terms and conditions of the notes required by the Central Bank for the notes to qualify as Tier 2 capital. On receiving the legal counsel's opinion, the issuer shall sign a ratified endorsement to the Indenture, a new note form and any other documents necessary to implement modifications required by the Central Bank.

The issuer and Trustee may also, without the consent of noteholders, modify the Indenture for certain specific purposes, including, among other things, to issue additional notes, correct ambiguities, inconsistencies or defects and include any other provisions referring to matters or issues arising from the Indenture, as long as said correction or provision added does not adversely affect the interests of noteholders in any material respect.

Modifications that require approval

In addition, the Indenture may be modified by the issuer and the Trustee with the consent of noteholders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of notes then outstanding. However, without the consent of the holder of each outstanding note affected by a modification, no such modification may:

- alter the maturity of any payment of principal or interest on any portion of any note;
- reduce the principal amount or interest rate, or change the method of calculating the principal amount or interest payable on any date;
- change any place of payment at which principal or interest on the notes is to be paid;
- change the currency in which principal or interest on the notes is paid;
- prejudice the noteholders' right to bring an action to enforce any payment on maturity date or thereafter;
- modify the Indenture's subordination provisions in such a way as to adversely affect noteholders;
- reduce the percentage of the principal amount of outstanding notes for which noteholders' consent is required for any modification or waiver for observance of any Indenture provision or defaults and their consequences; or
- modify provisions summarized in this paragraph, or Issue Indenture provisions relating to waiver of the right to execute the other party due to previous defaults, except to increase any percentage or determine that other Issue Indenture provisions may not be modified or waived without the consent of each noteholder affected by the modifications.

After a modification described in the preceding paragraph, the issuer is required to submit, through the Trustee, a notice to holders briefly describing said alteration. However, the fact of not sending said notice to noteholders, or any error in the notice, will not affect the validity of the modification.

The Trustee may at any time, convene a noteholders meeting. The issuer or the holders of at least 10% of the aggregate principal of outstanding notes may call a meeting if the issuer or said holders have made a written request to the Trustee to call said a meeting and the Trustee fails to send notice calling the meeting within 20 days of receiving the request. Notices calling meetings shall include the time and place of meeting and a general description of the measure proposed to be taken at the meeting and shall be delivered not less than 30 days and not more than 60 days before the date of the meeting, except that all notices of meetings reconvened after adjournment shall be given not less than 10 days and not more than 60 days before the meeting date. At any meeting, the presence of noteholders owing an aggregate amount of the principal sufficient to take the measure for which the meeting was convened shall constitute a quorum. Any modifications or waivers to the Indenture or notes shall be final and binding on all noteholders whether or not they have given their consent (unless required under the Indenture) or were present at any duly convened meeting.

Issuer would be obliged to pay the additional sums if a payment in relation to the Notes were overdue on the occasion. The Issuer will not have the right to redeem the Notes if they are obliged to pay additional sums that are inferior to the additional sums payable up to the Minimum Level of Retention. Notwithstanding the provisions above, the Issuer does not have the right to redeem the Notes, unless they have taken reasonable measures to avoid the obligation of paying the additional sums. If they choose to redeem the Notes, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee a certificate signed by an authorized director, declaring that the Issuer is authorized to redeem the Notes according to their terms, and the opinion of an independent solicitor of known reputation, attesting that the Issuer was or became obliged to pay an additional sum in addition to the additional sums that must be paid, up to the Minimum Level of Retention.

G.II) FORMULA FOR CALCULATING REDEMPTION VALUE:

The payment of the principal amount of the Notes, together with the provisioned unpaid interest, will be made on the payment date to the respective holders of the notes.

CHARACTERISTICS OF SECURITIES

H.I) MATURITY, INCLUDING CONDITIONS FOR EARLY MATURITY:

Maturity: 03/23/2015

Early Maturity Events (Defaults):

(i) the Issuer fails to pay any amount of the principal amount regarding the Notes in the term of Two Working Days from the maturity date for the payment of the amount, or fails to pay any amount of interest regarding the Notes in the term of five Working Days from the maturity date for the payment of the interest; or

(ii) (a) any Debt of the Issuer or any Subsidiary is not paid when default or (according to the case) within the grace period originally applicable; (b) if any Debt becomes (or may be declared) default and payable before the maturity date specified, in any other way except at the discretion of the Issuer or (according to the case) of the relevant Subsidiary or (as long as no other default event described has occurred) of any person with the right to such Debt; or (c) the Issuer or any other Subsidiary does not pay, when due, any sum payable by them in the terms of any Guarantee of any Debt; as long as the sum of the Debt mentioned in subparagraph (a) and/or subparagraph (b) above and/or the sum payable in the terms of any Guarantee mentioned in subparagraph (c) above, individually or in the aggregate, exceeds US$ 25,000,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency or currencies); or

(iii) the Issuer fails to fulfill or observe appropriately any other relevant obligation or agreement regarding the pertinent Series of Notes, or any other additional payments or agreements contained in the Trust Deed, in the Payment Contract of the Agent or Notes, and such noncompliance persists during a period of 30 days after the occurrence; or

(iv) any declaration or guarantee relevant to the Issuer in the Dealer Contract or in the Issuer Contract or any other document formalized in relation to the Dealer Contract or to the Issuer Contract or to the issuing of Notes of the relevant Series, or any other series, are incorrect, incomplete or misleading in any relevant aspect when they are made; or

(i) the society formed by such a consolidation, or with which the Issuer has merged, or the person who acquires by alienation, or transfer, all or substantially all of the goods or assets of the Issuer (the “Successor Society”) is obliged to assume the payment due and promptly of the principal amount and the interest on the Notes and all the other obligations of the Issuer in the terms of the Trust Deed, and of the Payment Contract of the Agent and Notes;

(ii) immediately after the related transaction is in force, no Default Event referring to any Note has occurred and persists;

(iii) after any public announcement of a consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer, and in any form before the conclusion of the consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer, the Issuer should deliver to the Trustee (a) a certificate signed by two executive directors of the Issuer, declaring that the consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer is according to this Condition and that all the suspended conditions foreseen here in relation to this transaction (except the suspended condition in (ii) (above)) have been fulfilled, and (b) with the opinion of an independent solicitor of known reputation about the pertinent legal issues; and

(iv) the Successor Society should expressly agree to (a) indemnify each Holder of a Note or Coupon for any tax, subsidy or governmental charge applied at a later stage to the Holder uniquely as a result of such a consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer in relation to the payment of the principal amount of the Notes or (if the Notes are remunerated) of the interest on the Notes, and (b) pay any additional sums as necessary so that the net sums received by the Holders of Notes (and Coupons, if applicable), after the retention or deduction of any such tax, subsidy or any other governmental charge, are equal to the respective sums of the principal amount and (if the Notes are remunerated) of the interest that would have been received regarding the Notes (and Coupons, if applicable) had there not been a consolidation, merge, alienation or transfer.

No Successor Society has the right to redeem the Notes unless the Issuer has the right to redeem the Notes in similar circumstances.

In dealing with a consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer according to this Condition, the Successor Society should succeed the Issuer and replace them and may exercise every right and power of the Issuer in the terms of the Notes, with the same effect they would have had if in the Successor Society it had been designated as the issuer of the Notes in this instrument.

The Issuer agrees that if any Note or Coupon remains pending (as defined in the Trust Deed), they do not create or allow the subsistence of any Guarantee and will not allow any Relevant Subsidiary to create or allow subsistence of any Guarantee over all or any part of their assets, current or future, to guarantee (i) any of their Public Foreign Debts; (ii) any Guarantees related to Public Foreign Debts; or (iii) Public Foreign Debts or any Guarantees related to Public Foreign Debts of any person without, in any case, at the same time or prior to this, guaranteeing the Notes equally and proportionately to the satisfaction of the Trustee, or granting another guarantee for the Notes as approved through Extraordinary Resolution of the Holders of the majority of the principal amount of the pending Notes. No provision expressed here will inhibit or prohibit the Issuer from granting collaterals without guarantees or guarantees of any kind, including contractual at the request, or on behalf, of their customers in favor of third parties as part of the normal course of business of the Issuer

H.VI) THE TRUSTEE, STATING THE PRINCIPAL TERMS OF THE CONTRACT:

The Bank of New York is the Trustee according to the Trust Deed.

The Trust Deed, document signed between the Bank and the Trustee, rules various rights and obligations of the parties regarding the issue of securities, like: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the securities, conditions and criteria for the redemption and repurchase of the bonds, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, rights of the security holders, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of the terms and segregation of the securities and subordination, among others. The services provided by the Trustee consist of the review of the documents issued, establishment of administrative and operational procedures of the accounts of the security holders; establishment of a deposit account regarding the issue; assistance to close the accounts; monitoring of the fulfillment of the Trust Deed; receipt and distribution of remittances and payments of the security holders.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES:

Meetings of the holders of the Securities, Alteration, Renunciation and Substitution

The Trust Deed contains provisions (that will be efficient as if they were incorporated here) which establish the summons of the assemblies of Holders of Notes of any Series to discuss any issue that affects their interests, including (but not limited to) the alteration of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or of the Trust Deed. An Extraordinary Resolution approved in any assembly of Holders of Notes of any Series will obligate all Holders of Notes of the Series, if they are present or not in the assembly, and all the Holders of Coupons related to the Notes of the Series.

The Trustee may agree, without the consent of the Holders of Notes or Coupons (if applicable) of any Series, to any alteration (subject to certain exceptions) to, or the renunciation of or the authorization of any noncompliance, or noncompliance proposed, of any Terms or Conditions of the Notes or any provisions of the Trust Deed which, according to the opinion of the Trustee, are not substantially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of the Notes or Coupons, or any alteration of formal nature, secondary or technical, or performed to correct a manifested error. The Trustee may also determine any event that would constitute, or which in another way could constitute a Default Event, as long as, in the opinion of the Trustee, the event is not significantly prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of Notes or Coupons, if applicable, of the pertinent Series. Any such alteration, renunciation, authorization or determination will oblige the Holders of Notes and Coupons (if applicable) of the pertinent Series and (except if agreed by the Trustee) any such alteration will be informed to the Holders as soon as possible.

H.VI) THE TRUSTEE, STATING THE PRINCIPAL TERMS OF THE CONTRACT:

The Bank of New York is the Trustee according to the Trust Deed.

The Trust Deed, document signed between the Bank and the Trustee, rules various rights and obligations of the parties regarding the issue of securities, like: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the securities, conditions and criteria for the redemption and repurchase of the bonds, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, rights of the security holders, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of the terms and segregation of the securities and subordination, among others. The services provided by the Trustee consist of the review of the documents issued, establishment of administrative and operational procedures of the accounts of the security holders; establishment of a deposit account regarding the issue; assistance to close the accounts; monitoring of the fulfillment of the Trust Deed; receipt and distribution of remittances and payments of the security holders.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES:

Meetings of the holders of the Securities, Alteration, Renunciation and Substitution

The Trust Deed contains provisions (that will be efficient as if they were incorporated here) which establish the summons of the assemblies of Holders of Notes of any Series to discuss any issue that affects their interests, including (but not limited to) the alteration of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or of the Trust Deed. An Extraordinary Resolution approved in any assembly of Holders of Notes of any Series will obligate all Holders of Notes of the Series, if they are present or not in the assembly, and all the Holders of Coupons related to the Notes of the Series.

The Trustee may agree, without the consent of the Holders of Notes or Coupons (if applicable) of any Series, to any alteration (subject to certain exceptions) to, or the renunciation of or the authorization of any noncompliance, or noncompliance proposed, of any Terms or Conditions of the Notes or any provisions of the Trust Deed which, according to the opinion of the Trustee, are not substantially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of the Notes or Coupons, or any alteration of formal nature, secondary or technical, or performed to correct a manifested error. The Trustee may also determine any event that would constitute, or which in another way could constitute a Default Event, as long as, in the opinion of the Trustee, the event is not significantly prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of Notes or Coupons, if applicable, of the pertinent Series. Any such alteration, renunciation, authorization or determination will oblige the Holders of Notes and Coupons (if applicable) of the pertinent Series and (except if o agreed by the Trustee) any such alteration will be informed to the Holders as soon as possible.

G.I) POSSIBILITY OF REDEMPTIONAnticipated Redemption for Tax-related Reasons

If, in relation to any Series of Notes, as a result of any alteration or amendment to the laws (or to any regulation or decree enacted in the terms of the laws therein) of Brazil, or when the Issuer is Bradesco Grand Cayman Branch, under the laws of the Cayman Islands, or when the Issuer is Bradesco New York Branch, under the laws of United States of America or of the State of New York, or any political subdivision or tax authority in or from Brazil or, according to the case, in or from the Cayman Islands, of the United States of America or from the State of New York which affect the taxation, or any other change in the official position related to the application or interpretation of such laws, regulations or decrees (including a decision by competent judgment), the alteration or amendment which is in force on the Date of Issue of such Notes, or after this date, or on any other date specified in the Definite Terms of the Notes, the Issuer is or becomes obliged to pay additional sums in addition to the additional sums that the Issuer is obliged to pay if the payment of interest of the Notes is subject to retention or deduction to a rate of 15 per cent as a result of taxes, fees and subsidies and other governmental charges (the "Maximum Level of Retention"), the Issuer may (subject to prior approval of the Central Bank), at their discretion, and having sent notice of not less than forty five days and not more than seventy five days in advance (which terminates, in the case of Notes remunerated at the floating rate, on a day on which the interest should be paid) to the Holders of the Notes (advice that is irrevocable), redeem all (and not just some) of the pending Notes that comprise the relevant Series, to the Sum of the Anticipated Redemption (Subsidy), together with the accrued interest (if any) on them,

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

however, as long as, the redemption advice is given before 90 days (or, in the case of Notes remunerated at the floating rate, a number of days that is equal to the total number of days occurring within the period of interest, in force, applicable to the Notes over 75 days) preceding the first date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay the additional sums if a payment in relation to the Notes were overdue on the occasion. The Issuer will not have the right to redeem the Notes if they are obliged to pay additional sums that are inferior to the additional sums payable up to the Minimum Level of Retention. Notwithstanding the provisions above, the Issuer does not have the right to redeem the Notes, unless they have taken reasonable measures to avoid the obligation of paying the additional sums. If they choose to redeem the Notes, the Issuer will deliver to the Trustee a certificate signed by an authorized director, declaring that the Issuer is authorized to redeem the Notes according to their terms, and the opinion of an independent solicitor of known reputation, attesting that the Issuer was or became obliged to pay an additional sum in addition to the additional sums that must be paid, up to the Minimum Level of Retention.

G.II) FORMULA FOR CALCULATING REDEMPTION VALUE:

The payment of the principal amount of the Notes, together with the provisioned unpaid interest, will be made on the payment date to the respective holders of the notes.

CHARACTERISTICS OF SECURITIES

H.I) MATURITY, INCLUDING CONDITIONS FOR EARLY MATURITY:

Maturity: 05/16/2016

Early Maturity Events (Defaults):

(i) the Issuer fails to pay any amount of the principal amount regarding the Notes in the term of Two Working Days from the maturity date for the payment of the amount, or fails to pay any amount of interest regarding the Notes in the term of five Working Days from the maturity date for the payment of the interest; or

(ii) (a) any Debt of the Issuer or any Subsidiary is not paid when default or (according to the case) within the grace period originally applicable; (b) if any Debt becomes (or may be declared) default and payable before the maturity date specified, in any other way except at the discretion of the Issuer or (according to the case) of the relevant Subsidiary or (as long as no other default event described has occurred) of any person with the right to such Debt; or (c) the Issuer or any other Subsidiary does not pay, when due, any sum payable by them in the terms of any Guarantee of any Debt; as long as the sum of the Debt mentioned in subparagraph (a) and/or subparagraph (b) above and/or the sum payable in the terms of any Guarantee mentioned in subparagraph (c) above, individually or in the aggregate, exceeds US$ 25,000,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency or currencies); or

(iii) the Issuer fails to fulfill or observe appropriately any other relevant obligation or agreement regarding the pertinent Series of Notes, or any other additional payments or agreements contained in the Trust Deed, in the Payment Contract of the Agent or Notes, and such noncompliance persists during a period of 30 days after the occurrence; or

(iv) any declaration or guarantee relevant to the Issuer in the Dealer Contract or in the Issuer Contract or any other document formalized in relation to the Dealer Contract or to the Issuer Contract or to the issuing of Notes of the relevant Series, or any other series, are incorrect, incomplete or misleading in any relevant aspect when they are made; or

(v) the Issuer (a) is dissolved, (b) suspends the payment of their debts or does not or is incapable of honoring their debts on the maturity date, (c) files, in the measure allowed by the applicable law, for voluntary bankruptcy, lawsuits or any other proceedings to obtain any relief from the debt in the terms of any law that affects the rights of the creditors and which are similar to a law of bankruptcy or (d) consents, by means of response or in any other form, a request which is initiated against them for spontaneous bankruptcy or any other proceedings or process; or

(vi) any governmental authorization necessary to fulfill any obligation of the Issuer in the terms of the Trust Deed, of the Payment Contract of Agent or Notes of the relevant Series, or if any of these is not signed or does not come into effect or does not remain valid and subsists; or

H.V) ANY RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED ON THE ISSUER IN CONNECTION WITH: . distribution of dividends

None.

The Issuer should not, without the written consent of the Holders of two thirds of the pending Notes, consolidate or merge with any other society or alienate or transfer, in a single transaction or series of transactions, all or substantially all of their assets to any other person, unless:

(i) the society formed by such a consolidation, or with which the Issuer has merged, or the person who acquires by alienation, or transfer, all or substantially all of the goods or assets of the Issuer (the “Successor Society”) is obliged to assume the payment due and promptly of the principal amount and the interest on the Notes and all the other obligations of the Issuer in the terms of the Trust Deed, and of the Payment Contract of the Agent and Notes;

(ii) immediately after the related transaction is in force, no Default Event referring to any Note has occurred and persists;

(iii) after any public announcement of a consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer, and in any form before the conclusion of the consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer, the Issuer should deliver to the Trustee (a) a certificate signed by two executive directors of the Issuer, declaring that the consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer is according to this Condition and that all the suspended conditions foreseen here in relation to this transaction (except the suspended condition in (ii) (above)) have been fulfilled, and (b) with the opinion of an independent solicitor of known reputation about the pertinent legal issues; and

(iv) the Successor Society should expressly agree to (a) indemnify each Holder of a Note or Coupon for any tax, subsidy or governmental charge applied at a later stage to the Holder uniquely as a result of such a consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer in relation to the payment of the principal amount of the Notes or (if the Notes are remunerated) of the interest on the Notes, and (b) pay any additional sums as necessary so that the net sums received by the Holders of Notes (and Coupons, if applicable), after the retention or deduction of any such tax, subsidy or any other governmental charge, are equal to the respective sums of the principal amount and (if the Notes are remunerated) of the interest that would have been received regarding the Notes (and Coupons, if applicable) had there not been a consolidation, merge, alienation or transfer.

No Successor Society has the right to redeem the Notes unless the Issuer has the right to redeem the Notes in similar circumstances.

In dealing with a consolidation, merger, alienation or transfer according to this Condition, the Successor Society should succeed the Issuer and replace them and may exercise every right and power of the Issuer in the terms of the Notes, with the same effect they would have had if in the Successor Society it had been designated as the issuer of the Notes in this instrument.

. new debts being assumed

The Issuer agrees that if any Note or Coupon remains pending (as defined in the Trust Deed), they do not create or allow the subsistence of any Guarantee and will not allow any Relevant Subsidiary to create or allow subsistence of any Guarantee over all or any part of their assets, current or future, to guarantee (i) any of their Public Foreign Debts; (ii) any Guarantees related to Public Foreign Debts; or (iii) Public Foreign Debts or any Guarantees related to Public Foreign Debts of any person without, in any case, at the same time or prior to this, guaranteeing the Notes equally and proportionately to the satisfaction of the Trustee, or granting another guarantee for the Notes as approved through Extraordinary Resolution of the Holders of the majority of the principal amount of the pending Notes. No provision expressed here will inhibit or prohibit the Issuer from granting collaterals without guarantees or guarantees of any kind, including contractual at the request, or on behalf, of their customers in favor of third parties as part of the normal course of business of the Issuer.

The Bank of New York is the Trustee according to the Trust Deed.

The Trust Deed, document signed between the Bank and the Trustee, rules various rights and obligations of the parties regarding the issue of securities, like: definitions of terms used, general and specific characteristics of the securities, conditions and criteria for the redemption and repurchase of the bonds, commitments assumed by the issuer, definition of default events and instruments for their solution, rights of the security holders, amendments to the contract, satisfaction of the terms and segregation of the securities and subordination, among others. The services provided by the Trustee consist of the review of the documents issued, establishment of administrative and operational procedures of the accounts of the security holders; establishment of a deposit account regarding the issue; assistance to close the accounts; monitoring of the fulfillment of the Trust Deed; receipt and distribution of remittances and payments of the security holders.

I) CONDITIONS FOR ALTERING RIGHTS ASSURED BY THESE SECURITIES:

Meetings of the holders of the Securities, Alteration, Renunciation and Substitution

The Trust Deed contains provisions (that will be efficient as if they were incorporated here) which establish the summons of the assemblies of Holders of Notes of any Series to discuss any issue that affects their interests, including (but not limited to) the alteration of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or of the Trust Deed. An Extraordinary Resolution approved in any assembly of Holders of Notes of any Series will obligate all Holders of Notes of the Series, if they are present or not in the assembly, and all the Holders of Coupons related to the Notes of the Series.

The Trustee may agree, without the consent of the Holders of Notes or Coupons (if applicable) of any Series, to any alteration (subject to certain exceptions) to, or the renunciation of or the authorization of any noncompliance, or noncompliance proposed, of any Terms or Conditions of the Notes or any provisions of the Trust Deed which, according to the opinion of the Trustee, are not substantially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of the Notes or Coupons, or any alteration of formal nature, secondary or technical, or performed to correct a manifested error. The Trustee may also determine any event that would constitute, or which in another way could constitute a Default Event, as long as, in the opinion of the Trustee, the event is not significantly prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of Notes or Coupons, if applicable, of the pertinent Series. Any such alteration, renunciation, authorization or determination will oblige the Holders of Notes and Coupons (if applicable) of the pertinent Series and (except if agreed by the Trustee) any such alteration will be informed to the Holders as soon as possible.

Approval date 07/29/2002

Position/job The policy covers direct or indirect controlling shareholders, members of the board of directors, officers, members of the supervisory council and of any technical or advisory bodies set up under its bylaws, and by whoever, owing to their position or function in Bradesco, its controlling company, subsidiaries or affiliates, has access to information relating to the event or fact.

Principal characteristics

The purpose is to set high standards of conduct to be followed by Bradesco, its directly or indirectly controlling shareholders, members of the board of directors, officers, members of the supervisory council and of any technical or advisory bodies set up under its bylaws and by whoever, owing to their position or function in Bradesco, its controlling company, subsidiaries or affiliates, has access to information relating to the event or fact.

The full contents of our Instrument of Policy for Disclosure of Material Facts and Trading in Securities is available on our website www.bradesco.com.br - Governança Corporativa – Políticas [Corporate Governance – Policies].

Barred periods and description of verification procedures

The direct or indirect controlling shareholders, members of the board of directors, officers, members of the supervisory council and any technical or advisory bodies set up under bylaws, or anyone who has signed the term of adhesion due to their position, job or duties at Bradesco, its controlling companies, subsidiaries or affiliates, on becoming cognizant of information concerning a material event or fact, shall refrain from trading in securities issued by the Company or referenced to them:

- a) prior to disclosure to the market of the material event or fact occurred in the course of Bradesco's business;
- b) within fifteen (15) days of Banco Bradesco's disclosing its quarterly or annual reports (locally referred to by the acronyms ITR and DFP);
- c) if there is the intention of promoting a corporate merger, total or partial split, conversion, or reorganization;
- d) in relation to the direct or indirect controlling shareholders, members of the board of directors and officers, whenever there is an ongoing acquisition or disposal of Bradesco's own shares or those of its subsidiaries, affiliates or other companies under joint control, or if an option or mandate for this purpose has been granted, only on the dates on which the Company trades or inform the broker that it will trade its own shares.

A list of shareholders and all related persons who signed the "Adhesion to the Instrument of Policy for Disclosure of Material Facts and Trading in Securities" issued by Banco Bradesco S.A, is kept at our head office at the disposal of the CVM. The list includes their descriptions, job title or position, address and number of enrolment in the National Register of Legal Entities or Individual Taxpayer Registry, which shall be updated whenever there are any changes.

20.2 - Other material information

The prohibition stipulated in letter "d" of item 20.1.d in this reference form applies to:

- a) anyone cognizant of a material event or fact, and knowing that it has not yet been disclosed to the market, in particular persons who have a business, professional or confidential relationship with Bradesco, such as independent auditors, stock analysts, consultants and distribution system institutions, who must be informed of the materiality of such information by whoever provided it, must verify the situation in relation to disclosure before trading Bradesco securities or its related securities;
- b) members of the board of directors and officers leaving Bradesco's management before public disclosure of a business event or fact initiated during their period in management, to be extended for a period of six (6) months after their departure.

The stipulated prohibitions cease to have effect when Bradesco discloses the material fact to the market, unless trading in the shares might affect the conditions of the above mentioned business to the detriment of Bradesco or its shareholders.

Our policy on trading in securities is an integral part of our Instrument of Policy for Disclosure of Material Facts and Trading in Securities, which is available on our website www.bradesco.com.br - Governança Corporativa – Políticas [Corporate Governance – Policies].

21.1 - Description of internal rules, regulations or procedures relating to disclosure

To ensure compliance with policy for material events or facts, and implementing Bradesco's disclosure policy in general, our Disclosure Executive Committee has the purpose of ensuring control, consistency, quality and transparency for disclosure, and its members have the duties and responsibilities described in item 12.1.a.

The Disclosure Executive Committee reports directly to the CEO and consists of members formally appointed by the CEO. These executives are responsible for the departments or units "producing" most information for disclosure, which are: Market Relations department, directors for Accounting, Finance and Corporate, as well as representatives of the departments of Tax Audit, General Accounting, Operational Control, General Secretariat and Grupo Bradesco de Seguros e Previdência.

The involvement of several departments or units when compiling information for disclosure ensures better balance across data of different types, such as financial/ accounting, operational, corporate, marketing, macroeconomic and other data. Similarly, the diversified composition of its members, who contribute their experience and knowledge in areas under their direction, ensures compliance of disclosures (in terms of content, frequency, accounting standards, etc.) with legislation and requirements (internal and external).

The Disclosure Committee's structure shows strong coherence and complementarity. Contents of the Organization's disclosures are conceived at the highest hierarchical level, thus ensuring the appropriate coordination for their production and disclosure. These areas of business working together ensure a coordinated production of information, so that the Organization's policies and guidelines for communication, transparency and disclosure may be duly followed. The Investor Relations officer guides production and disclosure of the Organization's information in line with policies and objectives determined by the Bank's CEO and executive board.

Along with the above, on 04.13.2007, Banco Bradesco S.A. forwarded an internal circular on the use of insider information to all departments and related companies, and it remains freely available for access on the corporate intranet.

In this internal circular, senior management states that, although access to insider knowledge is inherent to the work of staff of the Bank and related companies, use of such information for the benefit of themselves or others prior to disclosure to the market amounts to an illicit act and an affront to the Organization's basic principles, such as responsibility, ethics, transparency, loyalty and good faith, and will subject an "insider" or other beneficiaries to civil liability, administrative and criminal penalties.

The circular also lists certain precautions to be observed in conducting business, as follows:

- a) staff shall periodically reread the document named "Policies for Disclosure of Material Event or Fact and Trading in Securities", and its appendices "Memorandum of Adhesion" and "Codes of Ethical Conduct" of the Organização Bradesco, all available on the corporate Internet, and encourage their team to do so;
- b) only those who must know should take part in transactions that may involve insider information;
- c) there must be full transparency for those involved, clearly showing the legal responsibility of each of them, warning them that the business being developed is confidential and should not be discussed even with their own family members or relatives;
- d) absolute secrecy must be kept in relation to details of insider information, irrespective of the media on which they are stored (paper or magnetic media); there must be restriction of any type of unauthorized access, and such information must not be transferred or sent to others through media that are not adequately protected; and
- e) subordinates who have access to insider information in the course of their business, and others who have similar access, such as independent auditors, lawyers, financial advisors and analysts, accountants, consultants and other entities in the stock distribution system, must sign and hand in a memorandum of adhesion to the document known as "Policies for Disclosure of Material Event or Fact and Trading in Securities."

Edgar Filing: BANK BRADESCO - Form 6-K

Finally, staff learning of situations that contradict Policies for Disclosure of Material Event or Fact and Trading in Securities or the Codes of Ethical Conduct of the Organização Bradesco must go to their immediate superior, or the Compliance area of their unit or Organization, or the Audit and Ethics Committee, or use the "Alô Bradesco" hotline to submit their report and obtain guidance.
