Top of the Form Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Today, Albert L. Lord, Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of SLM Corporation (the "Company"), issued a letter to the Company's shareholders. The letter is attached as Exhibit 99.01.

The letter to shareholders contains "forward-looking statements" based on management's current expectations as of the date of this letter. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Because such statements inherently involve risks and uncertainties, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks include, among others, changes in the terms of student loans and the educational credit marketplace arising from the implementation of applicable laws and regulations, and from changes in such laws and regulations, adverse results in legal disputes, changes in the demand for educational financing or in financing preferences of educational institutions, students and their families, limited liquidity, increased financing costs and changes in the general interest rate environment. For more information, see the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the forward-looking statements contained in the company's Supplemental Financial Information Second Quarter 2008. All information in this release is as of Oct. 2, 2008. The Company does not undertake any obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements to conform the statement to actual results or changes in the Company's expectations.
