This Amendment No. 44 (this “Amendment”) amends and restates the Report on Schedule 13D, originally filed on April 4, 2008, as last amended on November 13, 2013 (the “Schedule 13D”), in order to reflect a change in the facts previously provided in the Schedule 13D Atlas Capital, S.A. Beauregard, as Lead Plaintiff in the securities action involving the Issuer captioned Mary Jane Beauregard vs. Smart Online, Inc., et al., filed in the United States District court for the Middle District of North Carolina (the “Class Action”). The Agreement acknowledges that the rights and obligations of Atlas under the Agreement have been assumed by Grasford Investments, Ltd. (“Grasford”), Atlas’s successor in interest.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

As a member of management of Atlas, Mr. Lugassy beneficially held, in the aggregate, 7,330,269 shares of Common Stock, either from the Issuer or from other shareholders of the Issuer, which had been previously reported by Atlas. Atlas paid an aggregate of $19,728,550 for these shares from corporate funds, including 56,206 shares acquired from Dennis Michael Nouri (the former President and Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer) pursuant to a note cancellation agreement. In exchange for the shares acquired from Mr. Nouri, Atlas cancelled a note under which Mr. Nouri owed the Reporting Person principal and interest totaling $85,117.

On February 7, 2013, Mr. Lugassy transferred all 7,330,269 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer from Atlas to Grasford, which is also owned and controlled by Mr. Lugassy. Accordingly, as of February 7, 2012, Atlas no longer reported beneficial ownership of the Common Stock of the Issuer.

Also, as a member of management of Atlas, Mr. Lugassy beneficially held, in the aggregate $13.826 million in aggregate principal amount of Notes that had been previously reported as being held by Atlas. Effective as of November 1, 2013, Mr. Lugassy transferred all $13.826 million in aggregate principal amount of such Notes from Atlas to Grasford. Accordingly, as of November 1, 2013, Atlas no longer had beneficial ownership of the Common Stock into which the Notes were convertible.

On June 26, 2013, the Issuer amended the terms of that certain Convertible Secured Subordinated Note Purchase Agreement, as amended (the "Amended and Restated Note Purchase Agreement"), so that, prior to the maturity date, each of the holders of Notes, including the Reporting Person, had the option to convert all or a portion of the principal amount of the Notes outstanding into Common Stock immediately upon the noteholder's request. This Schedule 13D/A reflects the Reporting Person's beneficial ownership of the Notes held by the Reporting Person since they are currently convertible.

On December 18, 2013, the Company, Lead Plaintiff and Atlas entered into the Agreement pursuant to which Atlas agreed to purchase 1,500,000 shares of Common Stock (the "Settlement Shares") for $0.50 per share and to waive and relinquish any claim to any share of the future proceeds of the Settlement Fund. Atlas agreed to pay $188,981 to the Class Action's settlement fund, which was the cost of the 1,500,000 Settlement Shares, less Atlas's 53.7% interest in the settlement fund. The Agreement acknowledges that the rights and obligations of Atlas under the Agreement have been assumed by Grasford, Atlas's successor in interest.

SCHEDULE 13D/A

Page 7 of 8 Pages

At any time on or prior to the maturity date, each noteholder will have the option to convert all or a portion of the entire principal amount of the Notes outstanding into Common Stock immediately upon the noteholder's request, on a pro rata basis subject to the number of shares of Common Stock the Issuer has authorized. If the Issuer has an insufficient number of authorized shares of Common Stock in connection with a particular conversion, the Noteholders may request, in writing, that the Issuer call a special meeting of the stockholders of the Issuer specifically for the purpose of increasing the number of authorized shares of Common Stock to cover the remaining portion of the Notes outstanding, as well as for certain other issuances, within 90 calendar days after the Issuer's receipt of the Noteholders' written request. Notwithstanding the above, the Issuer has reported that it plans to seek stockholder approval of an increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock so as to allow for the full conversion of outstanding Notes by June 30, 2014 or the date of any special meeting of the Issuer's stock holders, whichever is earlier.

If a noteholder elects to convert its Notes under these circumstances, the conversion price will be the lowest "applicable conversion price" determined for each Note. The "applicable conversion price" for each Note shall be the greater of: (i) $0.50 or (ii) 80% of the lowest closing price of the Common Stock on the Over-The-Counter Bulletin Board, the Nasdaq Stock Market or the principal exchange on which the Common Stock is then listed in the twelve-month period immediately preceding the date such Note is converted (in each case, as adjusted for stock splits, dividends or combinations, recapitalizations or similar events).

Payment of the Notes will be automatically accelerated if the Issuer enters voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings.

The Notes and Common Stock into which they may be converted have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or any state, local, or foreign securities laws. As a result, offers and sales of the Notes were made pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act and only to accredited investors.

In addition, if the Issuer proposes to file a registration statement to register any of its Common Stock under the Securities Act in connection with the public offering of such securities solely for cash, subject to certain limitations, the Issuer must give each noteholder who has converted its Notes into Common Stock the opportunity to include such shares of converted Common Stock in the registration. The Issuer has agreed to bear the expenses for any of these registrations, exclusive of any stock transfer taxes, underwriting discounts, and commissions.

The Convertible Secured Subordinated Note Purchase Agreement, the Form of Convertible Secured Subordinated Promissory Note, the Registration Rights Agreement, and the Security Agreement are attached to the Quarterly Report of the Issuer on Form 10-Q filed on November 14, 2007, as, respectively, Exhibits 4.1, 4.2, 10.6 and 10.7 thereto, and are incorporated herein by reference.
