ITEM 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As previously announced, Immtech Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) was notified by the staff (Staff) of the NYSE Alternext US, now known as NYSE Amex LLC (the Exchange), on December 23, 2008, that a review of the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2008 indicated that the Company is not in compliance with certain of the Exchange's continued listing standards as set forth in the Exchange's Company Guide (the Company Guide).

Specifically, the Exchange noted that the Company is not in compliance with (a) Section 1003(a)(ii) of the Company Guide, because its stockholders' equity is less than $4,000,000 and it has had losses from continuing operations and net losses in three out of its four most recent fiscal years; (b) Section 1003(a)(iii) of the Company Guide, because its stockholders' equity is less than $6,000,000 and it has had losses from continuing operations and net losses in its five most recent fiscal years; and (c) Section 1003(a)(iv) of the Company Guide, because it has sustained losses which are so substantial in relation to its overall operations or its existing financial resources, or its financial condition has become so impaired that it appears questionable, in the opinion of the Exchange, as to whether the Company will be able to continue operations and/or meet its obligations as they mature.

The Company was offered an opportunity to file a plan with the Exchange of the steps it intended to take to regain compliance with the continued listing requirements of the Exchange within certain designated periods (Plan Periods). The Company submitted its plan of compliance on January 23, 2009 (the Plan).

On March 27, 2009, the Company was notified by the Staff that it had determined, following a review of the Plan, that the Plan did not make a reasonable demonstration of the Company's ability to regain compliance with the Exchange's continued listing standards by the end of the Plan Periods, and the Staff concluded that it is appropriate to initiate immediate delisting proceedings.

The Company is entitled to appeal the Staff's determination to initiate delisting proceedings on or before April 3, 2009. The Company intends to file an appeal and to request a hearing before a listing qualifications panel of the Exchange.

Pursuant to the Company Guide, the Company expects that its common stock will remain listed for trading pending the outcome of the appeal, subject to the Exchange's ongoing review of the matter. The Company can provide no assurance, however, that its appeal will be successful or that the Exchange will not suspend trading in the Company's common stock prior to the hearing.
