PRELIMINARY PROXY MATERIAL SUBJECT TO COMPLETION

SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP, INC.

[—], 2013

Dear Shareholder:

On behalf of the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Inc. (“Southern Connecticut Bancorp”), I cordially invite you to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, to be held at The Quinnipiack Club, 221 Church Street, New Haven, Connecticut at 10:00 A.M., Eastern Time, on Wednesday, May 15, 2013.

On January 16, 2013, Southern Connecticut Bancorp entered into a definitive Merger Agreement (as defined below) pursuant to which Southern Connecticut Bancorp and its principal operating subsidiary, The Bank of Southern Connecticut, will be acquired by Liberty Bank (“Liberty”). At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. In addition, Southern Connecticut Bancorp will solicit shareholder approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the existing compensatory arrangements between Southern Connecticut Bancorp and its named executive officers providing for “golden parachute” compensation payable in connection with the merger (which we refer to as the “golden parachute” compensation). You will also be asked to consider and vote on a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Merger Agreement.

If the merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement is completed, you will be entitled to receive $3.76 in cash, without interest, less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock owned by you.

After careful consideration, Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s board of directors (the “Bancorp Board”) has determined that the terms of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, fair to and in the best interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and its shareholders, and approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, the Bancorp Board recommends that you vote “FOR” approval of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement.

In addition, the Bancorp Board recommends that you vote “FOR” approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the “golden parachute” compensation payable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s named executive officers in connection with the merger. Approval of the Merger Agreement and approval of the “golden parachute” compensation are subject to separate votes by Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s shareholders, and approval of the “golden parachute” compensation is not a condition to completion of the merger.

The Bancorp Board also recommends that you vote “FOR” approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Merger Agreement.

Approval of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock entitled to vote thereon. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please complete, date, sign and return, as promptly as possible, the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope, or submit your proxy by telephone or the Internet. If you attend the special meeting and vote in person, your vote by ballot will revoke any proxy previously submitted. The failure to vote your shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" approval of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement.

If your shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock are held in "street name" by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will be unable to vote your shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock without instructions from you. You should instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock in accordance with the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. The failure to instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock "FOR" approval of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement will have the same effect as voting "AGAINST" the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement.

The accompanying proxy statement provides you with detailed information about the special meeting, the Merger Agreement and the merger. A copy of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 16, 2013, as it may be amended from time to time, by and among Liberty and Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut (the "Merger Agreement") is attached as Annex A to the proxy statement. We encourage you to read the entire proxy statement and its annexes, including the Merger Agreement, carefully. You may also obtain additional information about Southern Connecticut Bancorp from documents we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

On behalf of the board of directors and management of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, we thank you for your support.

Best regards,

Alphonse F. Spadaro, Jr.
Chairman of the Board

The proxy statement is dated [—], 2013, and is first being mailed to our shareholders on or about [—], 2013.

Any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting will be held at the same location.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to:

1. Consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 16, 2013, by and among Liberty Bank and Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut. A copy of the Agreement and Plan of Merger is included as Annex A to the accompanying proxy statement;
2. Consider and vote upon a proposal to approve, by non-binding advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s named executive officers in connection with the merger;
3. Consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger; and
4. Transact such other business as may be properly presented at the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

The enclosed proxy statement describes the Agreement and Plan of Merger and the proposed merger in detail. We urge you to read these materials carefully.

The board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp unanimously recommends that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders vote “FOR” the proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, “FOR” the proposal to approve, by non-binding advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s named executive officers in connection with the merger and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger agreement.

The board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp has fixed the close of business on March 22, 2013 as the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Your vote is very important. Your proxy is being solicited by the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors and all expenses associated with the solicitation of proxies will be borne by Southern Connecticut Bancorp.

The proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger must be approved by the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock entitled to vote in order for the proposed merger to be consummated. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we urge you to complete and mail the enclosed proxy card, in the accompanying envelope, which requires no postage if mailed in the United States. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the special meeting. If you attend the special meeting and vote in person, your proxy vote will not be used. The failure to vote your shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" approval of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders do not have appraisal rights because, under Connecticut law, appraisal rights are not available to holders of securities listed on the NYSE MKT, which includes Southern Connecticut Bancorp. See “Questions and Answers About the Merger and the Special Meeting” on page 1 and “No Appraisal Rights” on page 22.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: Why am I receiving this document?

A: Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty Bank have agreed to the acquisition of Southern Connecticut Bancorp by Liberty Bank under the terms of a merger agreement that is described in this document. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this document as Annex A. In order to complete the merger, the shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp must vote to approve the merger agreement. Southern Connecticut Bancorp will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to obtain this approval. This document contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's shareholders, and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials allow you to vote your shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock without attending the special meeting.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: In the proposed merger, a special purpose subsidiary of Liberty Bank will merge with and into Southern Connecticut Bancorp, with Southern Connecticut Bancorp being the surviving corporation, and Southern Connecticut Bancorp will then be merged with and into Liberty Bank, with Liberty Bank being the surviving entity. This will result in Liberty Bank owning all the assets and liabilities of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Separately, The Bank of Southern Connecticut, the principal operating subsidiary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, will merge into Liberty Bank, with Liberty Bank being the surviving entity.

Q: What will Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders receive in the merger?

A: You will receive $3.76 in cash in exchange for each share of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock that you own immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Q: What are the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders?

A: You will generally recognize either a gain or loss for federal income tax purposes on each share of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock surrendered in an amount equal to the difference between your adjusted tax basis for that share and $3.76 upon completion of the merger. We strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: What are the conditions to completion of the merger?

A: The obligations of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty Bank to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain closing conditions contained in the merger agreement, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals and approval of the merger agreement by Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders at the special meeting.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A: We will complete the merger when all of the conditions to completion contained in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, including obtaining the approval of the merger agreement by Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders at the special meeting and receiving all required regulatory approvals. Fulfilling some of these conditions, such as receiving required regulatory approvals, is not entirely within our control. We currently expect to complete the merger during the second calendar quarter of 2013 or as soon thereafter as practicable; however, because the merger is subject to these conditions, we cannot be certain of the actual timing.

Q: What shareholder approval is required to complete the merger?

A: The affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Southern Connecticut Bancorp special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement.

Q: Are shareholders entitled to appraisal rights?

A: No. Since the common stock of Southern Connecticut Bancorp is traded on the NYSE MKT, Connecticut law does not provide for appraisal rights.

Q: Why are shareholders being asked to approve, on a nonbinding advisory basis, certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements?

A: The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted rules that require Southern Connecticut Bancorp to seek a nonbinding advisory vote with respect to certain payments that may be made to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's named executive officers in connection with the merger.

Q: What will happen if shareholders do not approve certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements at the special meeting?

A: Approval of merger-related executive compensation arrangements, payable under existing agreements, that certain named executive officers of Southern Connecticut Bancorp may receive in connection with the merger is not a condition to completion of the merger. The vote with respect to the merger-related executive compensation arrangements is an advisory vote and will not be binding on Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Therefore, if the merger agreement is approved by Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders, the merger-related executive compensation arrangements may still be paid to the named executive officers of Southern Connecticut Bancorp if and to the extent required or allowed under applicable law.

Q: When and where is the special meeting of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders?

A: The special meeting of shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp will be held at The Quinnipiack Club, 221 Church Street, New Haven, Connecticut, on Wednesday, May 15, 2013 at 10:00 A.M., Eastern Time.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders?

A: Holders of shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock at the close of business on March 22, 2013, which is the record date, are entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the other proposals in this proxy statement. As of the record date, 2,810,273 shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote.

Q: What will happen at the special meeting of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders?

A: At the special meeting, you will consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement and upon a proposal to approve, by non-binding advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for Southern Connecticut Bancorp's named executive officers in connection with the merger. If, at the time of the special meeting, there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement, you may be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, so that Southern Connecticut Bancorp can solicit additional proxies.

Q: Does the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors recommend voting in favor of the merger agreement, the merger-related executive compensation arrangements and the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary?

A: Yes. After careful consideration, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors unanimously recommends that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the merger agreement, “FOR” approval of the non-binding proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary.

Q: Are there any risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. You should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth in the section in this document titled “Risk Factors Relating to the Merger” beginning on page 14.

Q: What do I need to do now to vote my shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock?

A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement, including its annexes. After you have read and carefully considered the information contained or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement, including its annexes, please complete, sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed return envelope or vote by telephone or on the Internet as soon as possible. This will enable your shares to be represented at the special meeting. You may also vote in person at the special meeting. If you do not return a properly executed proxy card and do not vote at the special meeting, this will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement but will have no effect on the proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements and the proposal regarding adjournment of the special meeting. If you sign, date and send in your proxy card, or vote by telephone or on the Internet, but you do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of approval of the merger agreement, the proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements and an adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary. You may change your vote or revoke your proxy before the special meeting by filing with the Secretary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp a duly executed revocation of proxy, submitting a new proxy card with a later date, or voting in person at the special meeting.

Q: If my shares are held in “street name” by my broker, bank or other nominee, will my broker, bank or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker will not be able to vote your shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock on the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements or the proposal regarding adjournment of the special meeting, unless you provide instructions on how to vote. Please instruct your broker how to vote your shares, following the directions that your broker provides. If you do not provide instructions to your broker on the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements or the proposal regarding adjournment of the special meeting, your shares will not be voted, and this will have the effect of voting against approval of the merger agreement but will have no effect on the proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements and the proposal regarding adjournment. Please check the voting form used by your broker to see if it offers telephone or Internet voting.

Q: What if I fail to return my proxy card or vote by telephone or on the Internet or fail to instruct my broker, bank or other nominee?

A: If you fail to return your proxy card or vote by telephone or on the Internet or fail to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares, your shares will not be voted and this will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement but will have no effect on the proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements and the proposal regarding adjournment of the special meeting.

Q: Can I attend the Southern Connecticut Bancorp special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. Although the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors requests that you return the proxy card accompanying this proxy statement or vote by telephone or on the Internet, all Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders are invited to attend the special meeting in person. Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders of record on March 22, 2013 can vote in person at the Southern Connecticut Bancorp special meeting. If your shares are held by a broker, bank or other nominee, then you are not the shareholder of record and you must bring to the special meeting appropriate documentation from your broker, bank or other nominee to enable you to vote at the special meeting.

Q: If I plan to attend the special meeting in person, should I still return my proxy?

A: Yes. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, you should complete and return the enclosed proxy card or vote by telephone or on the Internet. The failure of a Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder to vote in person or by proxy will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement but will have no effect on the proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements and the proposal regarding adjournment of the special meeting.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card or voted by telephone or on the Internet?

A: Yes. If you have not voted through your broker, bank or other nominee, there are three ways you can change your vote at any time after you have sent in your proxy card or voted by telephone or on the Internet and before your proxy is voted at the Southern Connecticut Bancorp special meeting.

You may deliver a written notice bearing a date later than the date of your proxy card or vote by telephone or on the Internet to the Secretary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, stating that you revoke your proxy.

You may complete and deliver to the Secretary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp a new proxy card relating to the same shares and bearing a later date.

You may attend the special meeting and vote in person, although attendance at the Southern Connecticut Bancorp special meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

You should send any notice of revocation or your completed new proxy card, as the case may be, to Southern Connecticut Bancorp at the following address:

Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Inc.
215 Church Street
New Haven, Connecticut 06510
Attn: Rosemarie Romano, Secretary

If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: Should Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders send in their stock certificates now?

A: No. You will receive separate written instructions for surrendering your certificates for shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock in exchange for the merger consideration promptly following the effective date of the merger. In the meantime, you should retain your stock certificate(s) because they are still valid. Please do not send in your stock certificate(s) with your proxy card.

The Special Meeting of Southern Connecticut Bancorp Shareholders

Date, Time, Place and Purpose of the Special Meeting (page 19)

The special meeting of shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp will be held at The Quinnipiack Club, 221 Church Street, New Haven, Connecticut, on Wednesday, May 15, 2013 at 10:00 A.M., Eastern Time. At the special meeting, Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders as of the record date will be asked to vote on a proposal to approve the merger agreement by and among Liberty and Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut and a proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements. You may also be asked to vote to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the meeting to approve the merger agreement with Liberty.

Recommendation of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp Board of Directors (pages 26, 53 and 54)

The Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement, "FOR" approval of the non-binding proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote (page 19)

Only holders of record of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock at the close of business on the record date of March 22, 2013, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 2,810,273 shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock outstanding, held of record by approximately 100 shareholders.

Quorum; Vote Required (page 19)

A quorum of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders is necessary to hold a valid meeting. If the holders of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock entitled to vote are represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, a quorum will exist. Southern Connecticut Bancorp will include proxies marked as abstentions and broker non-votes in determining the number of shares present at the special meeting.

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock. Because approval is based on the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares, a failure to vote or an abstention or broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Approval of the non-binding proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements requires that the votes cast in person or by proxy at the special meeting in favor of the proposal exceed the votes cast against the proposal. A failure to vote or an abstention or broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal.

Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, requires that the votes cast in person or by proxy at the special meeting in favor of the proposal exceed the votes cast against the proposal. A failure to vote or an abstention or broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal.

The Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors requests that you return the proxy card accompanying this document for use at the special meeting. Please complete, date and sign the proxy card and promptly return it in the enclosed pre-paid envelope. You may revoke your proxy at any time by taking any of the following actions before your proxy is voted at the special meeting:

delivering a written notice bearing a date later than the date of your proxy card or vote by telephone or on the Internet to the Secretary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, stating that you revoke your proxy;

signing and delivering to the Secretary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp a new proxy card relating to the same shares and bearing a later date; or attending the special meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

No Appraisal Rights (page 22)

Southern Connecticut Bancorp is incorporated as a Connecticut corporation. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 33-856 of the Connecticut General Statutes, Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders are not entitled to assert appraisal rights because the common stock of Southern Connecticut Bancorp is traded on the NYSE MKT.

The Merger

Structure of the Merger (page 36)

Southern Connecticut Bancorp, The Bank of Southern Connecticut and Liberty entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger on January 16, 2013. The merger agreement provides for the merger of a special purpose subsidiary of Liberty with and into Southern Connecticut Bancorp, with Southern Connecticut Bancorp being the surviving corporation, and the subsequent merger of Southern Connecticut Bancorp with and into Liberty, with Liberty being the sole surviving entity. This will result in Liberty owning all the assets and liabilities of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. The merger agreement also calls for the merger of The Bank of Southern Connecticut with and into Liberty, with Liberty being the sole surviving entity.

The merger will occur following approval of the proposal described in this document by the shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and satisfaction or waiver of all other conditions to the merger. The merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A. We encourage you to read the merger agreement because it is the legal document that governs the merger.

Merger Consideration (page 36)

If the merger is completed, each share of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock will be converted into the right to receive $3.76 in cash.

Treatment of Southern Connecticut Bancorp Stock Options (page 37)

If the merger is completed, each outstanding option to purchase Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock, whether vested or unvested, and which has not been previously exercised or cancelled, will be converted to the right to receive the positive difference between $3.76 and the exercise price multiplied by the number of shares of common stock which the option entitled the holder to purchase.

Fairness Opinion of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's Financial Advisor (page 26)

In deciding to adopt the merger agreement and recommend its approval to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors consulted with senior management, its financial advisor, Sterne, Agee & Leach, Inc. ("Sterne Agee"), and its legal counsel, and considered, among other things, an opinion from its financial advisor. Sterne Agee has delivered an opinion to the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors that, as of January 16, 2013 and based on and subject to the matters set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock. The full text of the written opinion is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. We encourage you to read the opinion carefully in its entirety. The opinion of Sterne Agee is directed to the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors and is not a recommendation to any shareholder on how to vote on approval of the merger agreement.

Interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 34)

Some of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's management and board of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are in addition to or different from their interests as shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp generally. The Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in recommending that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders approve the merger agreement.

Conditions to the Merger (page 37)

Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty will not complete the merger unless a number of conditions are satisfied or waived, including:

- the shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp must approve the merger agreement;
- there must be no order, decree or injunction in effect, which enjoins or prohibits consummation of the merger;
- Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty must receive all required regulatory approvals, authorizations and consents, any waiting periods required by law must have passed, and none of the regulatory approvals may include any condition or requirement that would materially and adversely affect the combined enterprise of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty or otherwise materially impair the value of Southern Connecticut Bancorp to Liberty;
- the representations and warranties of each of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty in the merger agreement must be true and correct in all material respects, subject to exceptions that would not have a material adverse effect;
- Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty must each have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it;

Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty must obtain all material permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals for the consummation of the merger and the related transactions;

- no event or development must have occurred with respect to Southern Connecticut Bancorp that has had, or would reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on Southern Connecticut Bancorp or The Bank of Southern Connecticut; and
- any order or supervisory action by any bank regulator, the Securities and Exchange Commission or the NYSE MKT received by Southern Connecticut Bancorp or The Bank of Southern Connecticut must not be applicable to Liberty.

Limitations on Considering Other Acquisition Proposals (page 42)

The merger agreement restricts Southern Connecticut Bancorp's ability to solicit or otherwise facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or engage in negotiations with a third party regarding a merger or similar transaction, a sale or transfer of 25% or more of its assets or the acquisition of 25% or more of its outstanding stock. However, if Southern Connecticut Bancorp receives a bona fide unsolicited written proposal relating to any of the above from a third party that, in the good faith determination of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors, after consultation with its financial advisor, is at least as likely to be consummated as the merger and would, if consummated, result in a transaction that is more favorable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders from a financial point of view than the merger, and if the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that it is required to take such action to comply with its fiduciary duties to its shareholders under applicable law, Southern Connecticut Bancorp may furnish nonpublic information to that third party, subject to conditions specified in the merger agreement, engage in negotiations or discussions regarding an acquisition proposal with that third party, or recommend such proposal to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders. If the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with counsel and its financial advisor, that it desires to accept such superior proposal, it must provide Liberty with notice of such determination and provide Liberty an opportunity to increase the merger consideration to an amount at least equal to that of the superior proposal. If Liberty does so, Southern Connecticut Bancorp may not enter into an agreement with such third party or recommend acceptance of such proposal to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (page 39)

Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement before the merger has been completed, and either company may terminate the merger agreement if:

- the other party materially breaches any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the breach cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach;
- if the merger has not occurred on or before August 30, 2013, provided that such date shall be automatically extended to September 30, 2013 if required regulatory approvals have not been received by June 28, 2013 and both parties are acting in good faith to obtain such approvals, unless the failure of the merger to occur on or before such date was due to the terminating party's breach of any obligations under the merger agreement;
 - the shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp do not approve the merger agreement;
 - any required regulatory approval for consummation of the merger is not obtained;
 - a court or other governmental authority permanently enjoins or prohibits the merger; or

- if the conditions precedent to the obligations of such party to consummate the merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by August 30, 2013 or September 30, 2013 as provided above (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement).

Liberty may terminate the merger agreement if the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors:

- fails to make its recommendation to the Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders to vote in favor of the merger agreement or has withdrawn, modified or changed such recommendation;
 - fails to call, give notice of, convene and hold the Southern Connecticut Bancorp special meeting; or
- recommends that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders tender their shares in a tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock or otherwise fails to recommend that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders reject such tender or exchange offer.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp has the right to terminate the merger agreement if it decides to enter into a definitive agreement to effect a superior proposal after Liberty does not make an offer to Southern Connecticut Bancorp that the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determines is at least as favorable as the superior proposal. Southern Connecticut Bancorp may also terminate the merger agreement if the conditions precedent to its obligations to consummate the merger cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by June 28, 2013, provided that if required regulatory approvals have not been received and both parties are acting in good faith to obtain such approvals, such date shall automatically be extended to September 30, 2013 (provided that Southern Connecticut Bancorp is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement).

Termination Fee (page 40)

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Southern Connecticut Bancorp must pay Liberty a termination fee of $450,000 if:

(a) The merger agreement is terminated:

- By Liberty as a result of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors' (i) failure at any time prior to the special meeting to recommend approval of the merger agreement, (ii) withdrawal of such recommendation, (iii) changing of such recommendation in a manner adverse to Liberty or (iv) failure to call or hold the special meeting;
- By Liberty as a result of the commencement of a tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock and the recommendation of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors otherwise fails to recommend within ten business days that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders reject such tender or exchange offer; or
- By Southern Connecticut Bancorp at any time prior to the special meeting in connection with Southern Connecticut Bancorp entering into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal, but only if, after five business days after Liberty's receipt of written notice from Southern Connecticut Bancorp advising Liberty that it is prepared to enter an agreement with respect to the superior proposal, Liberty does not make an offer to Southern Connecticut Bancorp that the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board determines is at least as favorable as the superior proposal.

(b) The merger agreement is terminated for any of the following reasons and an acquisition proposal is publicly announced or otherwise communicated to Southern Connecticut Bancorp prior to the termination of the merger agreement in the case of the first two reasons below and prior to the taking of the vote of shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp at the special meeting in the case of the third reason below:

- By Liberty as a result of the breach by Southern Connecticut Bancorp of any of its representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement (provided that Liberty is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the breach cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach;
- By Liberty as a result of the failure by Southern Connecticut Bancorp to perform or comply with any of its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement (provided that Liberty is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the failure cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach; or
- By Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp because the Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders have voted at the special meeting and the required approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement has not been obtained.

An “acquisition proposal” means any proposal or offer with respect to (i) any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction, (ii) any sale lease or other disposition of 25% or more of its consolidated assets, (iii) any tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock or (iv) any public announcement of a proposal, plan or intention to do any of the foregoing or any agreement to engage in any of the foregoing.

Under the circumstances set forth in clause (a) above, Southern Connecticut Bancorp shall pay Liberty a termination fee of $450,000 within three business days of the termination of the merger agreement. Under the circumstances set forth in clause (b) above, Southern Connecticut Bancorp shall pay Liberty a termination fee of $225,000 within three business days of the termination of the merger agreement and, if within one year of such termination, Southern Connecticut Bancorp enters into an agreement with respect to, or consummates, an acquisition transaction, Southern Connecticut Bancorp shall pay Liberty a termination fee of an additional $225,000 within three business days of the date of execution or consummation of the acquisition agreement. An “acquisition transaction” means any (i) merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction, (ii) any sale, lease or other disposition of 25% or more of its consolidated assets or (iii) any tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock.

In addition, in the event of a termination by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp if the other party has:

- breached any of its representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the breach cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach; or
- failed to perform or comply with any of its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the failure cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach,

as a result of the willful conduct or gross negligence of the breaching party, the breaching party shall pay to the other party up to $350,000 of documented reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with entering the merger agreement and the carrying out of the acts contemplated by the merger agreement.

Effective Time of the Merger (page 36)

We expect that the merger will be completed as soon as practicable following the approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp at the Southern Connecticut Bancorp special meeting, if all other conditions have been satisfied or waived. The parties cannot be certain whether or when any of the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived where permissible. We expect that the merger will close during the second calendar quarter of 2013 or as soon thereafter as practicable.

Required Regulatory Approvals (page 49)

To complete the merger, Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty need the prior approval of the State of Connecticut Department of Banking and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty have filed all necessary applications and notices with the applicable regulatory authorities. Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty cannot predict, however, whether or when the required regulatory approvals will be obtained or whether any such approvals will impose any burdensome condition upon Liberty.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 50)

Shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp will recognize either a gain or a loss upon the receipt of the merger consideration.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE MERGER

In addition to the other information included in this proxy statement and incorporated by reference in this document, you should consider carefully the risk factors described below in deciding how to vote. You should keep these risk factors in mind when you read forward-looking statements in this document and in the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement. Please refer to the section in this document titled “Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” on page 16.

If the merger is not completed, The Bank of Southern Connecticut will continue to be subject to a Consent Order with the FDIC and the State of Connecticut Department of Banking and enhanced capital ratios.

The Bank of Southern Connecticut is a party to a Consent Order with the FDIC and the State of Connecticut Department of Banking pursuant to which The Bank of Southern Connecticut agreed to take certain measures relating to the conduct of its business and to maintain enhanced capital requirements, as more fully described under “The Companies – Southern Connecticut Bancorp” beginning on page 17. If the merger is not completed, these factors may limit the conduct of The Bank of Southern Connecticut’s business and may result in a reduction of profits of The Bank of Southern Connecticut. Among the actions that Southern Connecticut Bancorp may be required to take to comply with the Consent Order and the enhanced capital requirements include obtaining additional capital, but there can be no assurance that it will be successful in doing so or if the additional capital is obtained, that it would be on terms favorable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp and not detrimental to the interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders.

The need for regulatory approvals may delay the date of completion of the merger or may diminish the benefits of the merger.

Liberty is required to obtain the approvals of several bank regulatory agencies prior to completing the merger. Satisfying any requirements of these regulatory agencies may delay the date of completion of the merger. In addition, it is possible that, among other things, restrictions on the combined operations of the two companies, including divestitures, may be sought by governmental agencies as a condition to obtaining the required regulatory approvals. This may diminish the benefits of the merger to Liberty. Liberty has the right to terminate the merger agreement if a governmental agency, as part of its authorization or approval, imposes any condition or requirement, excluding standard conditions that are normally imposed by the regulatory authorities in bank merger transactions, that would, in the good faith reasonable judgment of the Board of Trustees of Liberty, materially and adversely affect the business, operations, financial condition, property or assets of the combined enterprise of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, The Bank of Southern Connecticut and Liberty or otherwise materially impair the value of Southern Connecticut Bancorp or The Bank of Southern Connecticut to Liberty.

The merger may distract management from their other responsibilities.

The merger could cause the management of Southern Connecticut Bancorp to focus its time and energies on matters relating to the merger that otherwise would be directed to the business and operations of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Any such distraction on the part of Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s management, if significant, could affect its ability to service existing business and develop new business and adversely affect the business and earnings of Southern Connecticut Bancorp if the merger is not consummated.

If the merger is not completed, Southern Connecticut Bancorp will have incurred substantial expenses without its shareholders realizing the expected benefits.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp has incurred substantial expenses in connection with the transactions described in this proxy statement. If the merger is not completed, Southern Connecticut Bancorp expects to incur approximately $75,000 in merger-related expenses, exclusive of any termination fee or costs and expenses paid to Liberty. These expenses would not likely have a material adverse impact on the financial condition of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. There can be no assurance that the merger will be completed.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the merger agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Southern Connecticut Bancorp.

Until the completion of the merger, Southern Connecticut Bancorp is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging, or with some exceptions, considering any inquiries or proposals that may lead to a proposal or offer for a merger or other business combination transaction with any entity other than Liberty. In addition, Southern Connecticut Bancorp has agreed to pay a termination fee of up to $450,000 and to reimburse up to $350,000 of Liberty's out-of-pocket expenses in specified circumstances. See "The Merger Agreement – Termination Fee" beginning on page 40. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Southern Connecticut Bancorp even though those other companies might be willing to offer greater value to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders than Liberty has offered in the merger. The payment of the termination fee also could have a material adverse effect on Southern Connecticut Bancorp's financial condition.

Certain of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's executive officers and directors have interests that are different from, or in addition to, interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders generally.

You should be aware that the directors and executive officers of Southern Connecticut Bancorp have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders generally. These include: change in control payments that certain executive officers may receive under existing employment agreements; provisions in the merger agreement relating to indemnification of directors and officers and insurance for directors and officers of Southern Connecticut Bancorp for events occurring before the merger; and the establishment of an advisory board of directors comprised of Southern Connecticut Bancorp board members. For a more detailed discussion of these interests, see "Interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page 34.

The fairness opinion obtained by Southern Connecticut Bancorp from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances subsequent to the date of the fairness opinion.

Sterne Agee, Southern Connecticut Bancorp's financial advisor in connection with the merger, has delivered to the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors its opinion dated as of January 16, 2013. The opinion of Sterne Agee stated that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the merger consideration to be paid to the holders of the outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. The opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date of the opinion, including changes to the operations and prospects of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, changes in general market and economic conditions or regulatory or other factors. Any such changes, or changes in other factors on which the opinion is based, may materially alter or affect the relative value of Southern Connecticut Bancorp.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement contains statements that may be considered forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). You can identify these statements by forward-looking words such as "may," "could," "should," "would," "intend," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "continue" or similar words. Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty intend these forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and are including this statement for purposes of complying with these safe harbor provisions. You should read statements that contain these words carefully because they discuss the relevant company's future expectations, contain projections of the relevant company's future results of operations or financial condition, or state other "forward-looking" information.

There may be events in the future that Southern Connecticut Bancorp is not able to predict accurately or control and that may cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations described in these forward-looking statements. Investors are cautioned that all forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, and actual results may differ materially from those discussed in this proxy statement, including the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement. These differences may be the result of various factors, including those factors described in the "Risk Factors Relating to the Merger" beginning on page 14 and other risk factors identified from time to time in Southern Connecticut Bancorp's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The factors referred to above include many, but not all, of the factors that could impact Southern Connecticut Bancorp's ability to achieve the results described in any forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this proxy statement or the date of any document incorporated by reference in this proxy statement. You should be aware that the occurrence of the events described above and elsewhere in this proxy statement, including the documents incorporated by reference, could harm Southern Connecticut Bancorp's business, prospects, operating results or financial condition. Southern Connecticut Bancorp undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements as a result of future events or developments.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp

Southern Connecticut Bancorp is a bank holding company headquartered in New Haven, Connecticut that was incorporated on November 8, 2000. Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s strategic objective is to serve as a bank holding company for a community-based commercial bank serving primarily New Haven County (the “Greater New Haven Market”). Southern Connecticut Bancorp owns 100% of the capital stock of The Bank of Southern Connecticut, a Connecticut-chartered bank with its headquarters in New Haven, Connecticut, and 100% of the capital stock of SCB Capital, Inc., an inactive corporation. Southern Connecticut Bancorp and its subsidiaries focus on meeting the financial service needs of consumers and small to medium-sized businesses, professionals and professional corporations, and their owners and employees in the Greater New Haven Market.

The Bank of Southern Connecticut operates branches at four locations, including downtown New Haven, the Amity/Westville section of New Haven, Branford and North Haven. The Bank of Southern Connecticut’s branches have a consistent, attractive appearance. Each location has an open lobby, comfortable waiting area, offices for the branch manager and a loan officer, and a conference room. The design of the branches complements the business development strategy of The Bank of Southern Connecticut, affording an appropriate space to deliver personalized banking services in professional, confidential surroundings.

The Bank of Southern Connecticut focuses on serving the banking needs of small to medium-sized businesses, professionals and professional corporations, and their owners and employees in the Greater New Haven Market. The Bank of Southern Connecticut’s target commercial customer has between $1.0 and $30.0 million in revenues, 15 to 150 employees, and borrowing needs of up to $3.0 million. The primary focus on this commercial market enables The Bank of Southern Connecticut to move deftly in responding to the needs of its clients. The Bank of Southern Connecticut has been successful in winning business by offering a combination of competitive pricing for its services, quick decision making processes and a high level of personalized, “high touch” customer service.

On July 3, 2012, Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s bank subsidiary, The Bank of Southern Connecticut, entered into a Consent Order with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) and the State of Connecticut Department of Banking (“Connecticut Department of Banking”).

By entering the Consent Order, The Bank of Southern Connecticut agreed to take certain measures in a number of areas, including, without limitation, the following: (i) having and retaining qualified management and reviewing and revising its assessment of senior management; (ii) notifying the FDIC and Connecticut Department of Banking of resignations or terminations of any members of its Board of Directors or senior executive officers; (iii) having its Board of Directors maintain its participation in the affairs of the Bank, including monthly meetings to review certain specified activities; (iv) maintaining minimum specified capital levels and developing and submitting a capital plan in the event any of its capital ratios fall below such minimum specified capital levels; (v) formulating and submitting a profit and budget plan consisting of goals and strategies consistent with sound banking practices and implementing such plan; (vi) formulating and submitting a plan to reduce classified assets and implementing such plan; (vii) reviewing and improving the loan and credit risk management policies and procedures; (viii) developing and implementing action plans addressing all other recommendations identified within its most recent Report of Examination; (ix) complying with the Interagency Policy Statement on Internal Audit Function and its Outsourcing; and (x) not accepting, renewing or rolling over any brokered deposits unless The Bank of Southern Connecticut is in compliance with regulations governing the solicitation and acceptance of brokered deposits. The Consent Order also provides that The Bank of Southern Connecticut will obtain prior regulatory approval before the payment of any dividends. The Bank of Southern Connecticut has already adopted and implemented many of the actions prescribed in the Consent Order.

The Consent Order requires The Bank of Southern Connecticut to maintain a minimum Tier 1 leverage ratio of at least 8.0%, a Tier 1 risk-based capital ratio of at least 9% and a total risk-based capital ratio of at least 10%. At December 31, 2012, The Bank of Southern Connecticut's capital ratios exceeded such minimums set forth in the Consent Order. In September 2012, The Bank of Southern Connecticut also submitted a revised capital plan outlining its strategy for increasing its capital amounts and ratios to the FDIC and the Connecticut Department of Banking for their approval. The capital plan included a profit and budget plan and a plan to reduce classified assets. In October 2012, The Bank of Southern Connecticut received regulatory approval for its revised capital plan. If the merger with Liberty does not take place, Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut will seek to implement the plan to increase capital as soon as practicable. Further regulatory action is possible if The Bank of Southern Connecticut does not continue to maintain the minimum capital ratios set forth in the Consent Order.

The Bank of Southern Connecticut has an Oversight Committee that is responsible for supervising the implementation of the Consent Order. The Oversight Committee meets monthly and is currently composed of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's Chairman of the Board, two additional directors, the Chief Executive Officer, the President and Senior Loan Officer and the Chief Financial Officer.

The Consent Order was the result of ongoing discussions between The Bank of Southern Connecticut and its regulatory agencies based on a regulatory examination conducted in early 2012. The Consent Order will remain in effect until it is modified or terminated by the FDIC and the Connecticut Department of Banking. The Bank of Southern Connecticut's customer deposits remain fully insured to the highest limit set by the FDIC.

At December 31, 2012, Southern Connecticut Bancorp had total consolidated assets of approximately $[—] million, loans of approximately $[—] million, deposits of approximately $[—] million and shareholders' equity of approximately $[—] million.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp's principal executive offices are located at 215 Church Street, New Haven, Connecticut 06510, and its telephone number is (203) 782-1100.

You can find additional information about Southern Connecticut Bancorp. in Southern Connecticut Bancorp's filings with the SEC referenced in the section in this proxy statement titled "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 55.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, Southern Connecticut Bancorp's shareholders as of the record date will be asked to:

1. Consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of January 16, 2013, by and among Liberty Bank and Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut. A copy of the Agreement and Plan of Merger is included as Annex A;
2. Consider and vote upon a proposal to approve, by non-binding advisory vote, certain compensation arrangements for Southern Connecticut Bancorp's named executive officers in connection with the merger;
3. Consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger; and
4. Transact such other business as may be properly presented at the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Recommendation of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp Board of Directors

THE SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP, INC. BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT, "FOR" APPROVAL OF THE NON-BINDING PROPOSAL REGARDING CERTAIN MERGER-RELATED EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS AND "FOR" THE ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING, IF NECESSARY.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock at the close of business on the record date of March 22, 2013, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Southern Connecticut Bancorp special meeting. As of the record date, there were 2,810,273 shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock outstanding, held of record by approximately 100 shareholders. A list of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders as of the record date will be available for review by any Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney at Southern Connecticut Bancorp's principal office during regular business hours beginning two business days after notice of the special meeting is given and continuing through the special meeting. The list will also be available for inspection at the special meeting at any time during the special meeting.

Each holder of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock is entitled to one vote for each share of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock owned as of the record date.

Quorum; Vote Required

A quorum of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders is necessary to hold a valid meeting. If the holders of at least a majority of the total number of the outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock entitled to vote are represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting, a quorum will exist. Southern Connecticut Bancorp will include proxies marked as abstentions and broker non-votes in determining the number of shares present at the special meeting.

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock. Because approval is based on the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares, a failure to vote or an abstention or broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

Approval of the non-binding proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements requires that the votes cast in person or by proxy at the special meeting in favor of the proposal exceed the votes cast against the proposal. A failure to vote or an abstention or broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal.

Approval of the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, requires that the votes cast in person or by proxy at the special meeting in favor of the proposal exceed the votes cast against the proposal. A failure to vote or an abstention or broker non-vote will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp expects to seek adjournment of the special meeting if a quorum is not present or, if a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock has not been obtained on the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Share Ownership of Management

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and their affiliates collectively owned 198,525 shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock, or approximately 7.06% of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's outstanding shares. We do not expect that any matters other than those set forth in the notice for the special meeting will be brought before the special meeting. If other matters are properly presented and are within the purpose of the special meeting, however, the persons named as proxies will vote on such matters in such manner as shall be determined by a majority of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors.

- attending the special meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

You should send any notice of revocation or your completed new proxy card, as the case may be, to Rosemarie Romano, Secretary, at the following address:

Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Inc.
215 Church Street
New Haven, Connecticut 06510

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Only shares affirmatively voted for approval of the merger agreement, including shares represented by properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions, will be counted as votes "FOR" approval of the merger agreement.

Brokers who hold shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock in street name for a customer who is the beneficial owner of those shares may not exercise voting authority on the customer's shares with respect to the actions proposed in this proxy statement without specific instructions from the customer. Proxies submitted by a broker that do not exercise this voting authority are referred to as broker non-votes. Accordingly, you are urged to mark and return the enclosed proxy card or vote by telephone or on the Internet to indicate your vote, or fill out the voter instruction form, if applicable.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting, but will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement. Abstention and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the proposal regarding certain merger-related executive compensation arrangements and the proposal regarding adjournment of the special meeting.

Proxy Solicitation

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors. Southern Connecticut Bancorp will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies to be voted at the special meeting. Following the original mailing of the proxies and other soliciting materials, Southern Connecticut Bancorp and its agents also may solicit proxies by mail, telephone, facsimile or in person. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or other employees of Southern Connecticut Bancorp for making these solicitations. Southern Connecticut Bancorp intends to reimburse persons who hold Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock of record but not beneficially, such as brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, for their reasonable expenses in forwarding copies of proxies and other soliciting materials to, and requesting authority for the exercise of proxies from, the persons for whom they hold the shares.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER (PROPOSAL 1)

General

Under the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, in a series of transactions, Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut will merge with and into Liberty, resulting in Liberty being the sole surviving entity. At the effective time of the merger, shares of common stock of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, par value $.01 per share, outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of a Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder, be converted into the right to receive $3.76 in cash for each share of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock held by the Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder.

Shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock held by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp, other than in a fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted, will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration upon consummation of the merger.

Background of the Merger

As part of its ongoing oversight of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, management and the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp regularly review Southern Connecticut Bancorp's strategic and financial prospects including its prospects as an independent entity, its prospects for raising capital and the alternative of merging with another institution. In June of 2012, management and the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp met with representatives from Sterne Agee to evaluate the strategic alternatives of Southern Connecticut Bancorp including a potential capital raise and merger with another institution. On June 4, 2012, Southern Connecticut Bancorp engaged Sterne Agee to assist Southern Connecticut Bancorp in exploring the possibility of raising additional capital. The decision to retain Sterne Agee was made by the board of directors after reviewing the qualifications of Sterne Agee and other potential advisors, Sterne Agee's prior experience with Southern Connecticut Bancorp, its expertise and reputation in similar recent transactions, and the fee arrangements negotiated with Sterne Agee.

From June to September of 2012, Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Sterne Agee had conversations with several potential investors regarding the possibility of investing in Southern Connecticut Bancorp. During this period, management and the board of directors considered a variety of factors including, but not limited to, the amount and expected price of a capital raise, the amount of dilution to existing shareholders and the ability of investors to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals.

On September 11, 2012, Sterne Agee met with the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp to discuss the risks and benefits of raising additional capital as well as possible merger partners and potential prices that might be achieved in a sale of control to another financial institution. After a thorough discussion of the merits and risk of each approach, the board of directors decided to work together with Sterne Agee in forming a list of potential investors as well as potential institutions to approach about a business combination with Southern Connecticut Bancorp. These institutions were selected based on their size and geographic location, likelihood of possible interest in a combination with Southern Connecticut Bancorp, and ability to effectuate an investment into or combination with Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Sterne Agee, together with the management and board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, developed a list of twelve institutions to contact, including two institutions that had previously expressed an interest in investing capital into Southern Connecticut Bancorp. On September 27, 2012, Southern Connecticut Bancorp entered into a written engagement letter with Sterne Agee to act as its financial adviser for a potential sale or recapitalization of the company.

Over the next month, Sterne Agee together with management prepared a confidential information memorandum about Southern Connecticut Bancorp to provide to interested parties. In early October, Sterne Agee contacted each of the twelve parties to assess their interest in a transaction with Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Of these twelve parties, eleven executed confidentiality agreements and were provided with a copy of the confidential information memorandum and access to a virtual data room containing information on Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Four parties, including Liberty, subsequently submitted initial indications of interest with respect to engaging in a merger transaction with Southern Connecticut Bancorp. One party submitted an initial indication of interest with respect to investing capital into Southern Connecticut Bancorp.

On November 9, 2012, the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp met with Sterne Agee and its legal counsel, Day Pitney LLP (“Day Pitney”), to review the initial indications of interest received. Sterne Agee reviewed the financial and non-financial aspects of each bid, including historical financial information regarding each potential party and the pro forma financial analysis of the financial impact of a merger on each potential merger partner. Three of the four merger proposals specified a range of prices per share at which the bidding party would be interested in acquiring Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Because of the close nature of the three highest bids and the potential risk of one or more bidders dropping out of the process, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determined to allow three parties, Liberty, Company B and Company C, to conduct further due diligence including an on-site review of Southern Connecticut Bancorp.

All three parties initiated and completed their due diligence review in November 2012.

On December 7, 2012, Company C communicated verbally to Sterne Agee that, based on its additional due diligence, it was no longer interested in a business combination with Southern Connecticut Bancorp.

On December 13, 2012, the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp met with Day Pitney and Sterne Agee to review the final indications of interest from Liberty and Company B. Liberty submitted an all cash offer, whereas Company B proposed a mixture of cash and stock consideration based on a fixed exchange ratio. The board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp considered the fixed exchange pricing and the ability of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders to participate in any upside appreciation in Company B’s stock prior to the closing of a transaction compared to the 100% cash proposal of Liberty. The board of directors also considered the risks and prospects of Southern Connecticut Bancorp remaining independent against the benefits of combining with a larger institution. Based on all of these considerations, the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp determined the bids were too close to choose which proposal was superior and instructed Sterne Agee to contact the bidders and request that each party consider submitting a revised proposal to be considered at a special board meeting to be held on December 18, 2012.

On December 18, 2012, the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp met with Day Pitney and Sterne Agee to discuss the final proposals of Liberty and Company B. Liberty's final proposal was for a price per share that was higher than Company B's final proposal. After careful consideration of such information and the ability of Liberty to consummate and integrate a merger transaction, the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp voted to select Liberty as the party with which Southern Connecticut Bancorp would negotiate going forward.

In December 2012 and January 2013, Southern Connecticut Bancorp, along with its advisors, received, reviewed and negotiated the terms of the merger agreement and related documents with Liberty and its advisors.

On January 16, 2013, the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp met with Day Pitney and Sterne Agee to review in detail the merger agreement. Legal counsel discussed the fiduciary obligations of the board of directors with respect to merger transactions. Also, at this meeting, representatives of Sterne Agee discussed with the board of directors a range of matters, including the matters set forth in “-Opinion of Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s Financial Advisor.” After this discussion, Sterne Agee provided the board of directors its oral opinion, which it subsequently confirmed in writing, that as of the date of the merger agreement and based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion, the proposed merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view to holders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock. Following the presentations, the board of directors engaged in discussions about the proposed transaction, the proposed merger agreement and other transaction documents and the effect of the transaction on the customers and employees of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Members of the board of directors asked its advisors about the proposed transaction and their fiduciary duties to shareholders. After further reviewing the consideration per share offered by Liberty and after giving consideration to the other factors described under “Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s Reasons for the Merger,” the members of the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp unanimously voted to approve the merger agreement.

The transaction was announced after the close of the stock markets on the afternoon of January 16, 2013.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and related transactions and recommend their approval to shareholders, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors consulted with senior management, its financial advisor, Sterne Agee, and its legal counsel, Day Pitney LLP, and considered a number of factors, including, among others, the following, which are not presented in order of priority:

- the business strategy and strategic plan of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, its prospects for the future, projected financial results, and expectations relating to the proposed merger, based on discussions with management of Southern Connecticut Bancorp;
- a review of the risks and prospects of Southern Connecticut Bancorp remaining independent, including the challenges to maintaining a small community bank subsidiary in the prevailing financial and regulatory climate versus aligning Southern Connecticut Bancorp with a well capitalized, well run larger organization;
- a review of the historical financial statements and condition of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and certain other internal information, primarily financial in nature, relating to the respective businesses, earnings and balance sheets of Southern Connecticut Bancorp;
- the current and prospective regulatory environment in which Southern Connecticut Bancorp operates, including pursuant to the consent order between The Bank of Southern Connecticut and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Connecticut Department of Banking described under “The Companies – Southern Connecticut Bancorp” beginning on page 17;
- the potential advantages and disadvantages of cash consideration and the amount of the merger consideration, its premium to market and comparability with respect to other premiums;
- the merger consideration which could reasonably be expected from other potential acquirers with apparent ability to consummate the acquisition of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, including bank holding companies and depository institutions that had expressed an interest in acquiring a community bank holding company such as Southern Connecticut Bancorp;
- the relative financial strength of Liberty as a merger partner compared to other potential acquirers based on Liberty's historical revenues and revenue expectations over the near and long term;
 - the ability of Liberty to pay the merger consideration;
- the ability of Liberty to execute a merger transaction from a financial and regulatory perspective and its history of being able to successfully integrate merged institutions into its existing franchise;
 - the geographic fit and increased customer convenience of the branch networks of the combined entity;
- the anticipated effect of the acquisition on Southern Connecticut Bancorp's employees (including the fact that Liberty anticipates offering employment to substantially all of the employees of The Bank of Southern Connecticut following the consummation of the merger);
- the effect on The Bank of Southern Connecticut's customers and the communities served by The Bank of Southern Connecticut and Liberty's longstanding history of serving the customers and communities through its own efforts and through the contributions of its charitable foundation;

- the terms of the merger agreement, including the representations and warranties of the parties, the covenants, the consideration, the benefits to The Bank of Southern Connecticut's employees, the circumstances under which the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors may consider a superior proposal, and the absence of burdensome contingencies in the merger agreement;
 - the increased legal lending limit available to borrowers by reason of the merger;
- the likelihood of expeditiously obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals without unusual or burdensome conditions; and
- the long-term and short-term interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and its shareholders, the interests of the employees, customers, creditors and suppliers of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, and community and societal considerations including those of the communities in which Southern Connecticut Bancorp maintains offices.

Based on the factors described above, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determined that the merger with Liberty would be advisable and in the best interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders and other constituencies and unanimously approved the merger agreement and related transactions contemplated by those documents. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger agreement and related transactions, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors did not assign any specific or relative weights to any of the factors listed above. The Southern Connecticut Bancorp board weighed these factors against the potential risks of the merger. These risks are discussed in the section of this document titled "Risk Factors Relating to the Merger" beginning on page 14.

Recommendation of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp Board of Directors

THE SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND RECOMMENDS THAT SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

Fairness Opinion of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's Financial Advisor

Sterne Agee is acting as financial advisor to Southern Connecticut Bancorp in connection with the merger. Sterne Agee is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial expertise in transactions similar to the merger. As part of its investment banking activities, Sterne Agee is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. Sterne Agee acted as financial advisor to Southern Connecticut Bancorp in connection with the proposed merger and participated in certain negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. Sterne Agee had previously been engaged by and received compensation from Southern Connecticut Bancorp to provide financial advisory and capital raising services in June 2012.

On January 16, 2013, Sterne Agee rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the Board of Directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp that, as of such date, the per share consideration to be received by the holders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock from Liberty in connection with the merger was fair to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders as of that date, from a financial point of view.

The full text of Sterne Agee's written opinion dated January 16, 2013, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. Holders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock are urged to read this opinion carefully and in its entirety in connection with this proxy statement. The summary of the opinion of Sterne Agee set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The opinion of Sterne Agee will not reflect any developments that may occur or may have occurred after the date of its opinion and prior to the completion of the merger.

Sterne Agee's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion is directed to the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration offered to the Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the Southern Connecticut Bancorp Special Meeting on the merger or any related matter.

In connection with rendering its opinion on January 16, 2013, Sterne Agee:

- Reviewed the merger agreement dated January 16, 2013;
- Reviewed certain publicly-available financial and business information of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Liberty and their affiliates which we deemed to be relevant;
- Reviewed certain information, including financial forecasts, relating to the business, earnings, cash flow, assets, liabilities, liquidity and prospects of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty;
- Reviewed materials detailing the merger prepared by Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Liberty and their affiliates and by their legal and accounting advisors;
- Conducted conversations with members of senior management and representatives of both Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty regarding the matters described in the above clauses, as well as their respective businesses and prospects before and after giving effect to the merger;
- Compared certain financial metrics of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty to other selected banks and thrifts;
- Analyzed the terms of the merger relative to selected prior mergers and acquisitions involving a depository institution as the selling entity;
- Analyzed the impact of the merger on certain balance sheet and capital ratios of Liberty as of September 30, 2012;
- Analyzed the consideration offered relative to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's book value and tangible book value as of September 30, 2012;
- Analyzed the consideration offered relative to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's stand-alone estimated earnings per share for the projected fiscal years ending December 31, 2013 and 2014;
- Reviewed the overall environment for depository institutions in the United States; and
- Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations and took into account such other matters as it deemed appropriate for purposes of its opinion, including its assessment of general economic, market and monetary conditions.

In preparing the opinion, Sterne Agee assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information provided by Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Liberty and their affiliates for the purposes of the opinion. In addition, where appropriate, Sterne Agee relied upon publicly available information, without independent verification, that Sterne Agee believed to be reliable, accurate, and complete; however, Sterne Agee cannot guarantee the reliability, accuracy, or completeness of any such publicly available information. Sterne Agee was not engaged to express, and is not expressing, any opinion with respect to any other transactions or alternative proposed transactions, if any, between Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty. With respect to the financial forecasts supplied to Sterne Agee, Sterne Agee has assumed that they were reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of Southern Connecticut Bancorp as to future operating and financial performance of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and its affiliates. In addition, Sterne Agee has assumed that the merger agreement is a valid, binding and enforceable agreement upon the parties and their affiliates and will not be terminated or breached by either party. Sterne Agee has also assumed that there have been no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Liberty and their affiliates since either (i) the date of the last financial statements made available to Sterne Agee and (ii) the date of the merger agreement, and that no legal, political, economic, regulatory or other developments have occurred or will occur that will adversely affect these entities. Sterne Agee did not make an independent evaluation of the assets or liabilities of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Liberty or their affiliates, including, but not limited to, any derivative or off-balance sheet assets or liabilities. Sterne Agee has relied upon and assumed, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by Sterne Agee. Sterne Agee has assumed that all required governmental, regulatory, shareholder and third party approvals have or will be received in a timely fashion and without any conditions or requirements that could adversely affect the merger.

The projections furnished to Sterne Agee and used by it in certain of its analyses were prepared by Southern Connecticut Bancorp's senior management teams. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Sterne Agee assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

- the merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement with no additional payments or adjustments to the merger consideration;
- The representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct;
- each party to the merger agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;
 - all conditions to the completion of the merger will be satisfied without any waiver; and
- In the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger.

Sterne Agee further assumed that the merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction under generally accepted accounting principles.

In performing its analyses, Sterne Agee made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of Sterne Agee, Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by Sterne Agee are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the Sterne Agee opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors with respect to the fairness of the merger consideration.

The following is a summary of the material analyses presented by Sterne Agee to the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors on January 16, 2013, in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the Sterne Agee opinion or the presentation made by Sterne Agee to the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. In arriving at its opinion, Sterne Agee did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Accordingly, Sterne Agee believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion.

Summary of Proposal.

Sterne Agee reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger, in which, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, each outstanding share of common stock of Southern Connecticut Bancorp will be converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to $3.76 per share payable upon surrender of the certificate that formerly evidenced such Southern Connecticut Bancorp shares.

Sterne Agee also considered additional shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp restricted stock that were scheduled to vest prior to the consummation of the merger and adjusted Southern Connecticut Bancorp's September 30, 2012 financial information to reflect the additional shares. Based upon the financial information, as adjusted, at September 30, 2012, Sterne Agee calculated the following transaction ratios:

Transaction Value / Tangible 89.8%
 Book Value per Share
 Transaction Value / Last Twelve NM
 Months Earnings per Share
 T a n g i b l e E q u i t y (1.3%)
 Premium/(Discount) to Core

Public Comparable Analysis.

Sterne Agee reviewed publicly available information related to comparable publicly traded banks and thrifts. The selected comparables included eleven companies involving banks and thrifts headquartered in the United States. Additionally, the selected comparables meet the following criteria:

- The company's total assets were between $100.0 million and $300.0 million;
- The company's non-performing assets to total assets ratio was between 4.0% and 10.0%;
- The company's last twelve months return on average assets ratio was less than 0.25%;
- The company's tangible common equity to tangible assets ratio was between 8.0% and 11.0%;
 - The company was not the target of announced merger; and
 - The company was not a mutual holding company.

The comparables included in the analysis were:

Central Federal Corporation
Virginia Community
Bankshares, Inc.
Citizens Financial Corp.
Harvest Community Bank
Alaska Pacific Bancshares,
Inc.
United Commerce Bancorp
Colonial Virginia Bank
Feliciano B&T Company
CCSB Financial Corp.

For each company, Sterne Agee derived and compared, among other things, the implied ratio of price per common share of each comparable company to:

- Tangible book value per share of the comparable company based on the most recent reported financial statements of the company; and
- Tangible equity premium to core deposits (total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000) based on the most recent reported financial statements of the company ("Core Deposit Premium/(Discount)").

The results of the analysis are set forth in the following table:

Market Data as of 1/4/13	Merger Consideration		Comparable Companies Minimum		Comparable Companies Median		Comparable Companies Maximum
Tangible Book Value	89.8	%	29.6	%	48.9	%	86.0	%
Core Deposit Premium/ (Discount)	(1.3	%)	(9.2	%)	(6.4	%)	(5.3	%)

Applying these comparable multiples to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's adjusted September 30, 2012 period ended financials, results in the following implied Southern Connecticut Bancorp per share values:

Market Data as of 1/4/13	Merger Consideration		Comparable Companies Minimum		Comparable Companies Median		Comparable Companies Maximum
Tangible Book Value	$ 3.76		$ 1.24		$ 2.05		$ 3.60
Core Deposit Premium/(Discount)	$ 3.76		$ 1.13		$ 2.05		$ 2.43

During the meeting of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's board of directors on January 16, 2013, Sterne Agee noted that the offer price of $3.76 per share for Southern Connecticut Bancorp includes a control premium which is not reflected in the comparable companies' per share values. Sterne Agee stated that the excess of the $3.76 offer price over the comparable companies' median and maximum values of $2.05 and $3.60, respectively, reflected an appropriate control premium range for the shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. In its review of the Public Comparable Analysis, the board of directors considered the lack of any control premium associated with the comparable companies' per share values.

No company used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to Southern Connecticut Bancorp or Liberty. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Comparable Transaction Analysis.

Sterne Agee reviewed publicly available information related to comparable mergers and acquisitions. The selected transactions included nine transactions announced from January 1, 2012 through December 31, 2012 involving target banks and thrifts headquartered in the United States. Additionally, the selected transactions meet the following criteria at the time the transaction was announced:

- Deal value information is publicly available;
- Buyer was a bank or bank holding company or a thrift or thrift holding company;
- The target company's total assets were less than $300.0 million;
- The target company's non-performing assets to total assets ratio was between 4.0% and 10.0%; and
- The target company's last twelve months return on average assets ratio was less than 0.25%.

The transactions included in the analysis were:

Acquiror

Liberty Bancorp, Inc.
Heritage Financial Corporation
SKBHC Holdings LLC
Main Banc, Inc.

Williston Holding Company
Hull Federal Savings Bank
Heartland Bancshares, Inc.

Transaction multiples for the merger were derived from an offer price of $3.76 per share for Southern Connecticut Bancorp. For each precedent transaction, Sterne Agee derived and compared, among other things, the implied ratio of price per common share paid for the acquired company to:

- Tangible book value per share of the acquired company based on the most recent reported financial statements of the company available prior to the announcement of the acquisition; and

- Core Deposit Premium/(Discount)

The results of the analysis are set forth in the following table:

Transaction Price to:	Merger		Comparable Transactions Minimum		Comparable Transactions Median		Comparable Transactions Maximum
	Consideration
Tangible Book Value	89.8	%	40.9	%	78.5	%	96.0	%
Core Deposit Premium/(Discount)	(1.3	%)	(7.3	%)	(2.5	%)	(0.1	%)

Applying these transaction multiples to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's adjusted September 30, 2012 period ended financials results in the following implied Southern Connecticut Bancorp per share values:

Implied Transaction Value Per Share:	Merger		Comparable Transactions Minimum		Comparable Transactions Median		Comparable Transactions Maximum
	Consideration
Tangible Book Value	$ 3.76		$ 1.71		$ 3.29		$ 4.02
Core Deposit Premium	$ 3.76		$ 1.75		$ 3.37		$ 4.15

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Liberty or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Net Present Value Analysis.

Sterne Agee performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock under various assumptions. In performing this analysis, Sterne Agee used financial projections supplied by Southern Connecticut Bancorp's management team for the years ending December 31, 2012 through December 31, 2016. A range of net present values was determined by adding (1) the present value of projected excess cash flows from December 31, 2012 to December 31, 2016 and (2) the present value of the terminal value of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's common stock as of December 31, 2016. In determining cash flows available to stockholders, Sterne Agee assumed that Southern Connecticut Bancorp would maintain a tangible common equity/tangible assets ratio of 8.00% and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level. Any earnings in excess of what would need to be retained represented excess cash flows. In calculating the terminal value of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Sterne Agee applied multiples ranging from 10.0x to 14.0x net income for the twelve month period ending December 31, 2016. This resulted in the following range of net present values for Southern Connecticut Bancorp:

		Terminal Multiple
		10.0	x	12.3	x	14.0	x
10.0	% $	1.87		2.23		2.50

Discount Rate
11.0	%	$ 1.81	$ 2.16	$ 2.42
11.2	%	$ 1.80	$ 2.15	$ 2.40
12.0	%	$ 1.76	$ 2.10	$ 2.34
13.0	%	$ 1.71	$ 2.03	$ 2.27

During the meeting of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's board of directors on January 16, 2013, Sterne Agee stated that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology but noted that it relies on numerous assumptions, including assets and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Southern Connecticut Bancorp.

Pro Forma Results and Capital Ratios.

Sterne Agee analyzed certain pro forma effects of the merger on the combined balance sheet and projected income statement for Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty. Assumptions regarding the accounting treatment, acquisition adjustments and cost savings were used to calculate the financial impact that the merger would have on certain projected financial results of Liberty. The analysis indicated that, following the effects of the merger, Liberty would maintain capital ratios in excess of the regulatory guidelines for "well capitalized" status.

For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by Liberty following the merger will vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Sterne Agee acted as Southern Connecticut Bancorp's financial advisor in connection with the merger and will receive a transaction fee of $250,000 for its services. Southern Connecticut Bancorp has paid Sterne Agee a cash fee of $50,000 associated with Sterne Agee's rendering of a fairness opinion and a cash fee of $25,000 associated with its previous engagement in June 2012. The entire $75,000 of fees paid thus far will be credited against the transaction fee owed at the completion of the merger. Additionally, Southern Connecticut Bancorp has also agreed to reimburse Sterne Agee for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify it against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Sterne Agee may, from time to time, purchase securities from and sell securities to Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Liberty or their affiliates.

Projected Financial Information

Southern Connecticut Bancorp has not historically and does not currently, as a matter of course, publicly disclose projections as to its future financial performance or earnings for periods other than the current fiscal year due to the unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates.

In mid-2012, Southern Connecticut Bancorp's management prepared and provided multi-year financial projections of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's operating performance and financial condition to its board of directors in connection with a capital plan that The Bank of Southern Connecticut was required to submit to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Connecticut Department of Banking. The projections were prepared as of June 30, 2012 and made available to Sterne Agee, which included a summary of the projections in the confidential information memorandum that was provided to the initial interested acquirers, including Liberty, after confidentiality agreements were executed with the interested acquirers. The projections were also included in the virtual data room containing information on Southern Connecticut Bancorp that was accessible by Liberty and the other potential acquirers. It is not known to what extent, if any, the projections were considered by Liberty and the other potential acquirers.

In late 2012, the projections were subsequently updated as of September 30, 2012 in connection with The Bank of Southern Connecticut's filing of a revised capital plan with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Connecticut Department of Banking. The updated projections were only provided to Liberty since the board of directors of Southern Connecticut Bancorp had previously voted to select Liberty as the party with which Southern Connecticut Bancorp would continue negotiations subsequent to December 18, 2012.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp has included summaries of the projections as of June 30, 2012 and the projections as of September 30, 2012 in this proxy statement. The inclusion of such summaries in this proxy statement should not be regarded as a representation by Southern Connecticut Bancorp, its board of directors, Liberty, Sterne Agee or any other person that it considered, or now considers, any of the projections to be necessarily representative of actual future results.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp believes that the assumptions used by its management as a basis for the projections were, in each case, reasonable at the time the projections were prepared, given information that Southern Connecticut Bancorp's management had at the time of preparation. However, except to the extent required by applicable federal securities laws, Southern Connecticut Bancorp does not intend, and expressly disclaims any responsibility, to update or otherwise revise the projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date when prepared or to reflect the occurrence of future events even in the event that any of the assumptions underlying the projections are shown to be in error. The assumptions upon which these projections were based are subjective in many respects and are subject to various interpretations.

Although the projections are presented with numerical specificity, the projections reflect numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market, regulatory and financial conditions and other matters, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Southern Connecticut Bancorp's control. The projections are also subject to significant uncertainties in connection with changes to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's business and its financial condition and results of operations, and include numerous estimates and assumptions related to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's business that are inherently subject to significant economic, political and competitive uncertainties, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Southern Connecticut Bancorp's control. As a result, although the projections set forth below were prepared in good faith based upon assumptions believed to be reasonable at the time the projections were prepared, there can be no assurance that the projected results will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than projected. Since the projections cover multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year. For the foregoing reasons, the inclusion of projections in this proxy statement should not be regarded as an indication that such projections will be necessarily predictive of actual future events, and they should not be relied on as such.

The projections were not prepared with a view to public disclosure and are included in this proxy statement only because such information was made available to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's board of directors in connection with its consideration of a possible merger transaction, as well as to Liberty and its advisors, in whole or in part, in connection with their due diligence review of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. The projections were not prepared with a view to compliance with published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information, or United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). Furthermore, Southern Connecticut Bancorp's independent registered public accounting firm has not examined, compiled or otherwise applied procedures to the projections and, accordingly, assumes no responsibility for, and expresses no opinion on, them.

The projections assume that Southern Connecticut Bancorp raises $2.0 million of additional equity capital necessary to support future growth. Other assumptions include minimal growth in 2012 in response to the need to focus on resolving troubled assets and restructuring parts of the balance sheet, as well as increases in the allowance for loan losses. The projections represent The Bank of Southern Connecticut's stand-alone budget going forward, and do not include potential non-interest expense cost savings that could result from a merger.

The projections as of June 30, 2012 were as follows:

If the merger is completed, Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

INTERESTS OF SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS IN THE MERGER

Some of the members of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's management and board of directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp generally. The board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in recommending that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Employment Agreements with Executive Officers

Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut are parties to employment agreements with Joseph J. Greco, Chief Executive Officer, Sunil Pallan, President and Senior Loan Officer, and Stephen V. Ciancarelli, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Pursuant to Mr. Greco's employment agreement, in the event of a "Change-in-Control" as defined in Mr. Greco's employment agreement, such as the merger with Liberty, Mr. Greco shall have "Good Reason" to voluntarily terminate his employment and Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut shall be obligated to pay Mr. Greco a lump sum payment equal to his then current annual base salary; provided, however, that no payment will be made to Mr. Greco if such payment would constitute a "golden parachute payment" and is made after the occurrence of certain events specified under regulations promulgated by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC"), including the determination by the FDIC that The Bank of Southern Connecticut is in "troubled condition." Any lump sum payment made to Mr. Greco is also subject to claw back by Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut if it is later determined that Mr. Greco committed or is substantially responsible for certain acts or omissions prohibited under regulations promulgated by the FDIC. Mr. Greco will also be entitled to receive such individual and/or family health benefits coverage for a period of twelve months following his termination (or such other period prescribed by the then applicable COBRA law), with Southern Connecticut Bancorp, The Bank of Southern Connecticut and Mr. Greco paying the same portion of the cost of such coverage as existed at the time of his termination.

Pursuant to Mr. Pallan's employment agreement, in the event (i) Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut enter into a "Business Combination" as defined in Mr. Pallan's employment agreement, such as the merger with Liberty, and (ii) Mr. Pallan (a) is not offered the same position at his current base salary with the surviving entity, (b) determines in his sole discretion that the position offered by the surviving entity is inconsistent with his current position, including diminution in title, authority, duties or responsibilities, (c) has his office relocated more than 25 miles from its current location or (d) is terminated within 2 years following the "Business Combination," Mr. Pallan will be entitled to receipt of a lump sum payment equal to his then current annual base salary; provided, however, that no payment will be made to Mr. Pallan if such payment would constitute a "golden parachute payment" and is made after the occurrence of certain events specified under regulations promulgated by the FDIC, including the determination by the FDIC that The Bank of Southern Connecticut is in "troubled condition." Any lump sum payment made to Mr. Pallan is also subject to claw back by Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut if it is later determined that Mr. Pallan committed or is substantially responsible for certain acts or omissions prohibited under regulations promulgated by the FDIC.

Pursuant to Mr. Ciancarelli's employment agreement, in the event (i) Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut enter into a "Business Combination" as defined in the employment agreements, such as the merger with Liberty, and (ii) Mr. Ciancarelli (a) is not offered the same position at his current base salary with the surviving entity, (b) determines in his sole discretion that the position offered by the surviving entity is inconsistent with his current position, including diminution in title, authority, duties or responsibilities, (c) has his office relocated more than 25 miles from its current location or (d) is terminated within 2 years following the "Business Combination," Mr. Ciancarelli will be entitled to receipt of a lump sum payment equal to his then current annual base salary; provided, however, that no payment will be made to Mr. Ciancarelli if such payment would constitute a "golden parachute payment" and is made after the occurrence of certain events specified under regulations promulgated by the FDIC, including the determination by the FDIC that The Bank of Southern Connecticut is in "troubled condition." Any lump sum payment made to Mr. Ciancarelli is also subject to claw back by Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut if it is later determined that Mr. Ciancarelli committed or is substantially responsible for certain acts or omissions prohibited under regulations promulgated by the FDIC.

The following table sets forth the estimated potential severance benefits to Southern Connecticut Bancorp's named executive officers on termination of employment in connection with a change in control. This table does not include the value of benefits that the named executive officers are vested in without regard to the occurrence of a change in control.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the aggregate cost of the insurance extension may not exceed $132,000.

Advisory Board

In accordance with the merger agreement, Liberty shall establish an advisory board to facilitate Liberty's expansion in the New Haven, Connecticut marketplace following completion of the merger. The initial compensation to be provided members of the advisory board shall be $250 per meeting attended.

Stock Ownership and Voting Power

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a brief summary of the significant provisions of the merger agreement by and among Liberty and Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut. The summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A and is incorporated into this document by reference. You should read the entire merger agreement carefully and in its entirety.

Structure of the Merger

The merger agreement provides for the merger of a subsidiary of Liberty with and into Southern Connecticut Bancorp, with Southern Connecticut Bancorp being the surviving corporation, followed immediately by the merger of Southern Connecticut Bancorp with and into Liberty, with Liberty being the surviving bank. This will result in Liberty owning all the assets and liabilities of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. Separately, The Bank of Southern Connecticut will merge with and into Liberty, with Liberty being the surviving bank.

Closing of the Merger

The closing of the merger will occur on a date determined in the sole discretion of Liberty upon five business day's prior written notice to Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut, but in no event later than 30 days after the last condition precedent to the merger has been fulfilled or waived, or such other date as Southern Connecticut Bancorp, The Bank of Southern Connecticut and Liberty shall mutually agree. The merger will become effective upon the filing of the merger agreement and the approval of the Commissioner of the Connecticut Department of Banking with the Secretary of the State of Connecticut.

We currently expect that the merger will become effective during the second quarter of 2013 or as soon thereafter as practicable; however, because the merger is subject to a number of conditions, we cannot predict the actual timing.

Merger Consideration

In the merger, each outstanding share of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock will be converted into the right to receive $3.76 in cash and each outstanding option to acquire shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive cash equal to the product of (i) the positive difference, if any, between $3.76 and the exercise price of such option multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock underlying such option.

Exchange of Southern Connecticut Bancorp Stock Certificates for Cash

On or before the closing date of the merger, Liberty will cause to be delivered to the exchange agent (which will be selected by Liberty and reasonably acceptable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp), an amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash payable to all holders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock and options.

Within five days following the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to each Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder of record at the effective time of the merger a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering the shareholder's Southern Connecticut Bancorp stock certificates. When such Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders deliver their Southern Connecticut Bancorp stock certificates to the exchange agent along with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and any other required documents, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders will receive, in exchange, a check representing the amount of cash that they are entitled to receive in respect of the stock certificates surrendered.

The surrendered stock certificates will then be cancelled.

A check will be issued in a name other than the name in which a surrendered Southern Connecticut Bancorp stock certificate is registered only if the exchange agent is presented with all documents required to show and effect the unrecorded transfer of ownership, together with evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

Stock Options

In the merger, each outstanding option to purchase Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock which has not been previously exercised or cancelled, whether vested or unvested, will be converted to the right to receive the positive difference between $3.76 and the exercise price multiplied by the number of shares of common stock which the option entitled the holder to purchase.

Conditions to the Merger

The obligations of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment of the following conditions:

- the merger agreement has been approved by the requisite vote of the shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut;

- All necessary approvals, authorizations and consents of all governmental authorities required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement have been obtained and all waiting periods have expired, and none of the approvals, authorizations or consents shall include any condition or requirement that would, in the good faith reasonable judgment of the board of directors of Liberty, materially and adversely affect the business, operations, financial condition, property or assets of the combined enterprise of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty or otherwise materially impair the value of Southern Connecticut Bancorp to Liberty.

In addition, the obligation of Liberty to complete the merger is subject to the fulfillment or written waiver, where permissible, of the following conditions:

- each of the representations and warranties of Southern Connecticut Bancorp contained in the merger agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, unless the failure of those representations and warranties to be true and correct does not constitute, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Southern Connecticut Bancorp, taken as a whole;
- Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut required to be performed under the merger agreement at or prior to the closing date of the merger, unless the failure to perform or comply does not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut, taken as a whole, or materially adversely affect consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut shall have obtained any and all material permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, unless the failure to obtain these would not have a material adverse effect on Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut, taken as a whole;

- since September 30, 2012, no event has occurred or circumstance has arisen that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on Southern Connecticut Bancorp or The Bank of Southern Connecticut; and
- Any order or supervisory action by any bank regulator, the Securities and Exchange Commission or the NYSE MKT received by Southern Connecticut Bancorp or The Bank of Southern Connecticut must not be applicable to Liberty.

The obligations of Southern Connecticut Bancorp to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or written waiver, where permissible, of the following additional conditions:

- each of the representations and warranties of Liberty contained in the merger agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing date of the merger, unless the failure of those representations and warranties to be true and correct does not constitute, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Liberty;
 - Liberty shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants of Liberty required to be performed under the merger agreement at or prior to the closing date of the merger, unless the failure to perform or comply does not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on Liberty or materially adversely affect consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- Liberty shall have obtained any and all material permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, unless the failure to obtain these would not have a material adverse effect on Liberty and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; and
 - Liberty shall have delivered to the exchange agent an amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash payable to all holders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock and options.

“Material adverse effect,” when used in reference to Southern Connecticut Bancorp or Liberty, means any effect that (i) is material and adverse to the financial condition, results of operations or business of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and The Bank of Southern Connecticut, taken as a whole, or Liberty and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (ii) materially impairs the ability of either Southern Connecticut Bancorp or Liberty to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. However, “material adverse effect” shall not be deemed to include the impact of:

- changes in laws and regulations affecting banks and their holding companies generally;
- changes in Generally Accepted Accounting Principles or regulatory accounting principles generally applicable to banks;
 - actions and omissions of either party taken with the prior written consent of the other party;
- changes in economic conditions affecting financial institutions generally, including but not limited to changes in market interest rates or the projected future interest rate environment;
 - the direct effects of compliance with the merger agreement on the operating performance of the parties;

- any facts or circumstances existing on the date of the merger agreement that were disclosed on the disclosure schedules of the parties; and
- expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby consistent with those expenses disclosed to Liberty in the merger agreement.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement terminated as follows:

- by mutual written consent of the parties;
- by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp if the other party has breached any of its representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the breach cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach;
- by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp if the other party has failed to perform or comply with any of its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the failure cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach;
- by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp if the merger has not occurred on or before August 30, 2013, provided that such date shall be automatically extended to September 30, 2013 if all required regulatory approvals and non-objections of regulatory authorities have not been received by June 28, 2013 and both parties are acting in good faith to obtain such approvals and non-objections, unless the failure of the merger to occur on or before such date was due to the terminating party's breach of any obligations under the merger agreement;
- by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp if Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders have voted at the Special Meeting and the required vote to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement has not been obtained;
- by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp if final action has been taken by any regulatory authority whose approval or non-objection is required for connection with the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, which final action has become nonappealable action and does not approve or state a non-objection to the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; if any regulatory authority whose approval or non-objection is required in connection with the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement has stated in writing that it will not issue the required approval or non-objection; or if any court or governmental entity has issued a final nonappealable order, decree, ruling or taken any other action restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- by Southern Connecticut Bancorp if the conditions precedent to its obligations to consummate the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by June 28, 2013, provided that if all required regulatory approvals have not been received and both parties are acting in good faith to obtain such approvals, such date shall automatically be extended to September 30, 2013 (provided that Southern Connecticut Bancorp is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement);
- by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp if any of the conditions precedent to the obligations of such party to consummate the merger or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement cannot be satisfied or fulfilled by August 30, 2013 or September 30, 2013 if required regulatory approvals have not been received and both parties are acting in good faith to obtain such approvals (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement);

- by Liberty if at any time prior to the Special Meeting, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board fails to recommend approval of the merger agreement, withdraws such recommendation or changes such recommendation in a manner adverse to Liberty or has failed to call or hold the Special Meeting by May 31, 2013;
- by Liberty if a tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock is commenced and the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board recommends that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend within ten business days that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders reject such tender or exchange offer; and
- by Southern Connecticut Bancorp at any time prior to the special meeting in connection with entering into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal, but only if, after five business days after Liberty's receipt of written notice from Southern Connecticut Bancorp advising Liberty that it is prepared to enter an agreement with respect to the superior proposal, Liberty does not make an offer to Southern Connecticut Bancorp that the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board determines is at least as favorable as the superior proposal. A "superior proposal" means any offer or proposal involving Southern Connecticut Bancorp in (i) any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction, (ii) any sale, lease or other disposition of 25% or more of its consolidated assets, (iii) any tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock or (iv) any public announcement of a proposal, plan or intention to do any of the foregoing that the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board determines in good faith is at least as likely to be consummated, and if consummated, would result in a transaction more favorable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders from a financial point of view than the merger.

Termination Fee

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Southern Connecticut Bancorp must pay Liberty a termination fee of $450,000 if:

(a) The merger agreement is terminated:

- by Liberty as a result of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors' (i) failure at any time prior to the Special Meeting to recommend approval of the merger agreement, (ii) withdrawal of such recommendation, (iii) changing of such recommendation in a manner adverse to Liberty or (iv) failure to call or hold the Special Meeting;
- by Liberty as a result of the commencement of a tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock and the recommendation of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors otherwise fails to recommend within ten business days that Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders reject such tender or exchange offer; or
 - by Southern Connecticut Bancorp at any time prior to the Special Meeting in connection with Southern Connecticut Bancorp entering into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal, but only if, after five business days after Liberty's receipt of written notice from Southern Connecticut Bancorp advising Liberty that it is prepared to enter an agreement with respect to the superior proposal, Liberty does not make an offer to Southern Connecticut Bancorp that the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board determines is at least as favorable as the superior proposal.

(b) The merger agreement is terminated for any of the following reasons and an acquisition proposal is publicly announced or otherwise communicated to Southern Connecticut Bancorp prior to the termination of the merger agreement in the case of the first two reasons below and prior to the taking of the vote of shareholders of Southern

- by Liberty as a result of the breach by Southern Connecticut Bancorp of any of its representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement (provided that Liberty is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the breach cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach;
- by Liberty as a result of the failure by Southern Connecticut Bancorp to perform or comply with any of its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement (provided that Liberty is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the failure cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach; or
- by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp because the Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders have voted at the Special Meeting and the required approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement has not been obtained.

An “acquisition proposal” means any proposal or offer with respect to (i) any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction, (ii) any sale, lease or other disposition of 25% or more of its consolidated assets, (iii) any tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock or (iv) any public announcement of a proposal, plan or intention to do any of the foregoing or any agreement to engage in any of the foregoing.

Under the circumstances set forth in clause (a) above, Southern Connecticut Bancorp shall pay Liberty a termination fee of $450,000 within three business days of the termination of the merger agreement. Under the circumstances set forth in clause (b) above, Southern Connecticut Bancorp shall pay Liberty a termination fee of $225,000 within three business days of the termination of the merger agreement and, if within one year of such termination, Southern Connecticut Bancorp or The Bank of Southern Connecticut enters into an agreement with respect to, or consummates, an acquisition transaction, Southern Connecticut Bancorp shall pay Liberty a termination fee of an additional $225,000 within three business days of the date of execution or consummation of the acquisition agreement. An “acquisition transaction” means any (i) merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction, (ii) any sale, lease or other disposition of 25% or more of its consolidated assets or (iii) any tender or exchange offer for 25% or more of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock.

In addition, in the event of a termination by Liberty or Southern Connecticut Bancorp if the other party has:

- breached any of its representations or warranties contained in the merger agreement (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the breach cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach; or
- failed to perform or comply with any of its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the merger agreement), and the failure cannot be cured prior to the closing or has not been cured within 30 days of written notice of the breach,

as a result of the willful conduct or gross negligence of the breaching party, the breaching party shall pay to the other party up to $350,000 of documented reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with entering the merger agreement and the carrying out of the acts contemplated by the merger agreement.

No Solicitation

Southern Connecticut Bancorp has agreed that neither it nor its subsidiaries, and has agreed to use its best efforts in good faith to cause its and any subsidiaries' respective officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, affiliates and other of its agents (which Southern Connecticut Bancorp sometimes refers to as its representatives), not to, directly or indirectly:

- initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or otherwise facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to an acquisition proposal; or
- engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information or data to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to an acquisition proposal, or knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make an acquisition proposal.

However, neither Southern Connecticut Bancorp nor its board of directors is prohibited from (i) providing information in response to a request from a person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal if the person enters a confidentiality agreement; (ii) engaging in any negotiations or discussions with any person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal or (iii) recommending such an acquisition proposal to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders if:

- the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that such action is required for the directors to comply with their fiduciary duties under applicable law; and
- the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor, that such acquisition proposal, if accepted, is at least as reasonably likely to be consummated as the merger and if consummated, would result in a transaction more favorable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders from a financial point of view than the merger (a "superior proposal").

Southern Connecticut Bancorp has agreed to immediately, within 24 hours, notify Liberty if any such inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with Southern Connecticut Bancorp or any of its representatives. Any such notice will identify the person making such inquiry, proposal or offer and the substance thereof. Southern Connecticut Bancorp is also required to keep Liberty informed of any material developments with respect thereto immediately upon the occurrence thereof.

If the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor and upon advice from outside counsel, that it desires to accept a superior proposal, it shall notify Liberty in writing that it intends to terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into an agreement with respect to, or recommend acceptance of, the superior proposal, identifying all the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal and identifying the person making the superior proposal. Liberty shall have 5 business days to respond to the notice. If Liberty, within such 5 business days, notifies Southern Connecticut Bancorp in writing that it shall increase the merger consideration to an amount at least equal to that of the superior proposal, then Southern Connecticut Bancorp may not enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to the superior proposal nor may the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors recommend to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders acceptance of the superior proposal. However, if the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors determines in good faith, upon the advice of its financial advisor and outside counsel, that the Liberty proposal is not at least equal to the superior proposal, Southern Connecticut Bancorp may terminate the merger agreement in order to execute an acquisition agreement with respect to, or recommend to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders acceptance of, the superior proposal.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp Shareholders Meeting

Southern Connecticut Bancorp has agreed, in accordance with Connecticut law and its certificate of incorporation and bylaws, as promptly as reasonably practicable, to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Southern Connecticut Bancorp has also agreed, subject to the fiduciary duty of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors as advised by counsel, to recommend to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and oppose any third party proposal or other action that is inconsistent with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Directors' and Officers' Insurance

Liberty has agreed to maintain in effect for six years after the effective time of the merger the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by Southern Connecticut Bancorp, subject to Liberty's right to substitute policies with at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable, with regard to matters occurring before the effective time of the merger. Alternatively, Liberty may purchase "tail coverage" for a period of six years with coverage containing terms and conditions which are not less favorable than in Southern Connecticut Bancorp's current policies. However, Liberty is not required to expend in excess of $132,000 for such coverage.

In addition, Liberty has agreed to indemnify, defend and hold harmless each present or past director of Southern Connecticut Bancorp against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, investigative or administrative, in which such director is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director of Southern Connecticut Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries if such matter pertains to any fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the merger, as provided under applicable state or federal law and under Southern Connecticut Bancorp's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Liberty shall pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any such action or proceeding to the full extent permitted by applicable state or federal law upon receipt of an undertaking by the director to repay such advance payments if the director shall be adjudicated or determined not to be entitled to indemnification.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

- use reasonable best efforts in good faith to preserve intact its business organization and assets, keep available the present services of its employees, maintain its rights and franchises, and preserve the goodwill of its customers and others with whom business relationships exist; or
- not voluntarily take any action that would or be reasonably likely to (i) adversely affect the ability of either Southern Connecticut Bancorp or The Bank of Southern Connecticut to obtain any necessary regulatory approvals required for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or increase the period of time necessary to obtain such approvals or (ii) adversely affect its ability to perform any of its covenants or agreements under the merger agreement.

Also pursuant to the merger agreement, Southern Connecticut Bancorp has agreed that until the effective time of the merger, except as specifically permitted or required by the merger agreement and except to the extent required by law or regulation or any governmental entity, or as consented to in writing by Liberty, Southern Connecticut Bancorp and its subsidiaries will not:

Employee Benefits

Under the terms of the merger agreement, Liberty anticipates offering employment to substantially all of the employees of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, subject to review of personnel files and such employment criteria for particular positions as Liberty customarily applies.

Each employee of Southern Connecticut Bancorp who remains employed by Liberty following the merger (each, a “continuing employee”) will be entitled to participate in (i) such of the employee benefit plans, deferred compensation arrangements, bonus or incentive plans and other compensation and benefit plans of Southern Connecticut Bancorp that Liberty may continue, and (ii) whatever employee benefit plans and other compensation and benefit plans that Liberty may maintain for the benefit of its similarly situated employees if such continuing employee is not otherwise then participating in a similar Southern Connecticut Bancorp plan that Liberty continues.

Each continuing employee will be credited with service as a Southern Connecticut Bancorp employee for purposes of determining his or her status under Liberty’s policies with respect to vacation, sick and other leave. With respect to the Liberty defined benefit pension plan, each continuing employee will be credited with hours of service as a Southern Connecticut Bancorp employee for the prior employment period with Southern Connecticut Bancorp in order to determine when the employee would be eligible to participate in the plan, but not for purposes of calculating benefits under the plan. With respect to the Liberty defined contribution plan, each continuing employee will be eligible to participate, but will not be credited with prior years of service as a Southern Connecticut Bancorp employee for purposes of vesting. With respect to any Liberty plan which is a health, life or disability insurance plan, each continuing employee will not be subject to any pre-existing condition limitation for conditions covered under such plans. No provision in the merger agreement shall limit the ability of Liberty to amend or terminate any of the Liberty employee plans in accordance with their terms at any time.

Liberty will honor the terms of all employment, change in control, severance and similar agreements, arrangements, policies or programs with any employee or director of Southern Connecticut Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries that were disclosed on Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s disclosure schedules to the merger agreement unless Liberty and the affected employee, officer or director agree otherwise. Following the merger, any continuing employee whose employment is terminated by Liberty other than for cause within six months of the closing of the merger or any Southern Connecticut Bancorp employee who is not offered a position with Liberty, other than employees who are parties to an existing employment, change in control, stay bonus or severance agreement, shall receive three weeks salary for each year of service with a maximum payment based on fifteen weeks salary. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, Liberty has indicated to Southern Connecticut Bancorp that (i) Liberty will provide a minimum payment based on fifteen weeks salary to any Southern Connecticut Bancorp employee who is not offered a position with Liberty, other than employees who are parties to an existing employment, change in control, stay bonus or severance agreement, or any continuing employee whose employment is terminated by Liberty other than for cause within six months of the closing of the merger and (ii) there will no longer be a maximum payment limitation and any payments to such affected employees will be based on three weeks salary for each year of service subject to the minimum payment set forth in clause (i) above.

You are urged to carefully read Articles IV and V of the merger agreement attached to this document as Annex A.

Expenses

Each party will pay all fees and expenses such party incurs in the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Amendments

Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty may amend the merger agreement by executing a written amendment approved by the boards of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty. However, after approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, no amendment of the merger agreement may be made which reduces the amount or value of, or changes the form of, consideration to be delivered to Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders without obtaining their approval.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty must obtain a number of regulatory approvals from, or give notices to, federal and state bank regulators before the merger of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty and the merger of The Bank of Southern Connecticut into Liberty can be completed.

FDIC. On March 11, 2013, Liberty filed with the FDIC the required application under the Bank Merger Act to obtain approval of the merger of The Bank of Southern Connecticut with and into Liberty. The FDIC is required to consider the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the banks concerned, as well as the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In addition, the FDIC must consider the effectiveness of The Bank of Southern Connecticut and Liberty in combating money laundering activities in connection with its determination whether to approve the bank merger.

Connecticut Department of Banking. On March 11, 2013, Liberty filed an application seeking the permission of the Connecticut Department of Banking to acquire The Bank of Southern Connecticut. In determining whether to approve the merger, the Connecticut Department of Banking must consider whether the merger will promote the public convenience, whether the benefits to the public clearly outweigh possible adverse effects and whether the terms of the merger are reasonable and in accordance with law and sound public policy.

Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty are not aware of any governmental approvals or actions that may be required for consummation of the merger other than as described above. Should any other approval or action be required, Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty currently contemplate that such approval or action would be sought.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a general summary of material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger of Southern Connecticut Bancorp and Liberty. The federal income tax laws are complex and the tax consequences of the merger may vary depending upon each shareholder's individual circumstances or tax status. The following discussion is based upon current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), existing temporary and final regulations under the Code and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. No attempt has been made to comment on all United States federal income tax consequences of the merger that may be relevant to shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp. The tax discussion set forth below is included for general information only. It is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to a particular shareholder of Southern Connecticut Bancorp.

The following discussion may not apply to particular categories of holders of shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock subject to special treatment under the Code, such as insurance companies, financial institutions, broker-dealers, tax-exempt organizations, individual retirement and other tax-deferred accounts, banks, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, persons who hold Southern Connecticut Bancorp capital stock as part of a straddle, hedging or conversion transaction, persons whose functional currency is other than the United States dollar, persons eligible for tax treaty benefits, foreign corporations, foreign partnerships and other foreign entities, individuals who are not citizens or residents of the United States and holders whose shares were acquired pursuant to the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation. This discussion assumes that holders of shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock hold their shares as capital assets. The following discussion does not address state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger. You are urged to consult your tax advisors to determine the specific tax consequences of the merger to you, including any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger.

Receipt of Merger Consideration

Each Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder who receives the merger consideration of $3.76 in cash will generally recognize capital gain or loss in an amount determined by the excess of the amount of cash received and the shareholder's tax basis in the shares. Any capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock exchanged was held for more than one year.

Backup Withholding

Non-corporate holders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on the cash payments they receive. Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholders will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if they:

- furnish a correct taxpayer identification number and certify that they are not subject to backup withholding on the IRS Form W-9 or successor form included in the election form/letter of transmittal you will receive; or
- are otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund or credit against a Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder's United States federal income tax liability may be obtained from the IRS, provided the shareholder furnishes the required information to the IRS. Holders that do not furnish their correct Taxpayer Identification Numbers may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS.

Other Tax Consequences

The state and local tax treatment of the merger may not conform to the federal income tax consequences discussed above. Consequently, you should consult your own tax advisors regarding the treatment of the merger under state and local tax laws.

MERGER-RELATED EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS (PROPOSAL 2)

As required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K and Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act, Southern Connecticut Bancorp is providing its shareholders with the opportunity to cast a non-binding, advisory vote on the compensation that may become payable to its named executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger, as disclosed in the section of this proxy statement captioned “Interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” beginning on page 34 of this proxy statement, and the related table and narratives.

Your vote is requested. Southern Connecticut Bancorp believes that the information regarding compensation that may become payable to its named executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger, as disclosed in the section of this proxy statement captioned “Interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” is reasonable and demonstrates that Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s executive compensation program was designed appropriately and structured to ensure the retention of talented executives and a strong alignment with the long-term interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s shareholders. This vote is not intended to address any specific item of compensation, but rather the overall compensation that may become payable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s named executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger. In addition, this vote is separate and independent from the vote of shareholders to approve the completion of the merger. Southern Connecticut Bancorp asks that its shareholders vote “FOR” the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the compensation that may become payable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s named executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger, as disclosed in the section captioned “Interests of Southern Connecticut Bancorp Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” (beginning on page 34 of the proxy statement dated [—]) and the related table and narratives, is hereby APPROVED.

This vote is advisory and therefore, it will not be binding on Southern Connecticut Bancorp, nor will it overrule any prior decision or require Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s board of directors (or any committee thereof) to take any action. However, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors values the opinions of Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s shareholders, and to the extent that there is any significant vote against the named executive officer compensation as disclosed in this proxy statement, the Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors will consider shareholders’ concerns and will evaluate whether any actions are necessary to address those concerns. The Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors will consider the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock entitled to vote on the matter “FOR” the foregoing resolution as advisory approval of the compensation that may become payable to Southern Connecticut Bancorp’s named executive officers in connection with the completion of the merger.

Recommendation of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp Board of Directors

THE SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS VOTE “FOR” APPROVAL OF CERTAIN COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS FOR SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP’S NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER.

PROPOSAL TO APPROVE ADJOURNMENTS OF THE SPECIAL MEETING (PROPOSAL 3)

Southern Connecticut Bancorp is also submitting a proposal for consideration at the special meeting to authorize the named proxies to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting. Even though a quorum may be present at the special meeting, it is possible that Southern Connecticut Bancorp may not have received the favorable vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares necessary to approve the merger agreement by the time of the special meeting. In that event, a majority of the board of directors may determine to seek one or more adjournments of the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies. The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment of the special meeting for purposes of soliciting additional proxies to obtain the requisite shareholder approval to approve the merger agreement. Any other adjournment of the special meeting (e.g., an adjournment required because of the absence of a quorum) would be voted upon pursuant to the discretionary authority granted by the proxy card in such manner as determined by a majority of the board of directors. If the special meeting is adjourned for 30 days or less and the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the meeting, Southern Connecticut Bancorp is not required to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date for the special meeting.

The proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Southern Connecticut Bancorp common stock present or represented at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal. The Southern Connecticut Bancorp board of directors retains full authority to the extent set forth in its bylaws and Connecticut law to adjourn the special meeting for any other purpose, or to postpone the special meeting before it is convened, without the consent of any Southern Connecticut Bancorp shareholder.

Recommendation of the Southern Connecticut Bancorp Board of Directors

THE SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT BANCORP SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" APPROVAL OF THE PROPOSAL TO ADJOURN THE SPECIAL MEETING TO A LATER DATE OR DATES, IF NECESSARY, TO PERMIT FURTHER SOLICITATION OF PROXIES IF THERE ARE NOT SUFFICIENT VOTES AT THE TIME OF THE SPECIAL MEETING TO APPROVE THE MERGER AGREEMENT.

PROPOSALS OF SHAREHOLDERS

If the merger occurs, there will be no future Southern Connecticut Bancorp annual meetings of shareholders. If the merger does not occur, there will be a 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Southern Connecticut Bancorp (the "2013 Annual Meeting").

Any proposal intended to be presented by a shareholder at Southern Connecticut Bancorp's 2013 Annual Meeting which is not a nomination to the Board of Directors must be presented to Southern Connecticut Bancorp in writing, and must be delivered to the Corporate Secretary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp not less than 60 nor more than 90 calendar days prior to the 2013 Annual Meeting. If the merger does not occur, the Board of Directors will establish a date for the 2013 Annual Meeting and file a Current Report on Form 8-K specifying the date for the 2013 Annual Meeting and the time frame in which shareholder proposals and nominations to the Board of Directors must be received to be included in the proxy statement for such annual meeting. Such notice shall include: (1) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before Southern Connecticut Bancorp's annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at such meeting; (2) the name and address, as they appear on Southern Connecticut Bancorp's records, of the shareholder proposing such business; (3) the number of shares of common stock which are beneficially owned by the shareholder; and (4) any material interest of the shareholder in such business. Such proposals must comply with SEC Rule 14a-8. As the rules of the SEC make clear, simply submitting a proposal does not guarantee its inclusion.

It is the policy of the Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors to consider director candidates who appear to be qualified to serve on Southern Connecticut Bancorp's Board of Directors and who are recommended by shareholders, using the same general criteria and in the same manner as candidates recruited by the Nominating Committee or recommended by board members. The Nominating Committee may choose not to consider an unsolicited recommendation if no vacancy exists on the Board of Directors and the Nominating Committee does not perceive a need to increase the size of the Board of Directors. To avoid the unnecessary use of the Nominating Committee's resources, the Nominating Committee will consider only those director candidates recommended in accordance with the procedures set forth below.

Shareholders may make nominations of individuals for election to the Board of Directors at the 2013 Annual Meeting. Such nominations shall be made in writing and shall be delivered or mailed and received by the Corporate Secretary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp not less than 60 or more than 90 calendar days prior to the 2013 Annual Meeting, the date of which will be established by the Board of Directors if the merger does not occur.

Such written nominations shall contain the following information, to the extent known to the nominating shareholder: (1) the name, age, business and residence address of each proposed nominee; (2) the principal occupation or employment of each proposed nominee; (3) the total number of shares of common stock of Southern Connecticut Bancorp that are beneficially owned by each proposed nominee; (4) the name and address of the nominating shareholder; (5) the total number of shares of common stock of Southern Connecticut Bancorp owned by the nominating shareholder; (6) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of Southern Connecticut Bancorp entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice; and (7) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the shareholders. Nominations by beneficial owners of common stock of Southern Connecticut Bancorp who are not record holders must be accompanied by evidence satisfactory to the Corporate Secretary of Southern Connecticut Bancorp showing that such nominating persons are entitled to act with respect to such shares. Nominations that are not made in accordance with these procedures may be disregarded by the Chairperson of the meeting, in his or her discretion, and upon his or her instructions, the vote tellers may disregard all votes cast for such nominee.

If the merger does not occur, the 2013 Annual Meeting will be held on a date more than 30 calendar days from the anniversary of the date of Southern Connecticut Bancorp's 2012 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Accordingly, a shareholder proposal must be received within a reasonable time before Southern Connecticut Bancorp begins to print and mail its proxy solicitation for such annual meeting. If the merger does not occur, the Board of Directors will establish a date for the 2013 Annual Meeting and file a Current Report on Form 8-K specifying the date for the 2013 Annual Meeting and the time-frame in which shareholder proposals and nominations to the Board of Directors must be received to be included in the proxy statement for such annual meeting. Any shareholder proposals will be subject to the requirements of the proxy rules adopted by the SEC.

Pursuant to Rule 14a-4(c) under the Exchange Act, if a shareholder who intends to present a proposal at the 2013 Annual Meeting does not notify us of such proposal within a reasonable time before Southern Connecticut Bancorp sends its proxy material for the 2013 Annual Meeting, then management proxies would be allowed to use their discretionary voting authority to vote on the proposal when the proposal is raised at the 2013 Annual Meeting, even though there is no discussion of the proposal in the proxy statement.

Nominations and proposals should be addressed to Rosemarie A. Romano, Corporate Secretary, Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Inc., 215 Church Street, New Haven, Connecticut 06510. It is suggested that such nominations and proposals be sent by Certified Mail-Return Receipt Requested.

ANNUAL REPORT ON FORM 10-K

ARTICLE III

CONVERSION OF SHARES AND OPTIONS

3.1 Merger Consideration.

3.1.1 At the Effective Time of the Merger, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Liberty, the Acquisition Corporation, SSE or the holders of any of the shares of SSE Common Stock, each share of SSE Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger (other than any shares to be cancelled pursuant to Section 3.1.2 hereof and any Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive a cash payment in an amount equal to $3.76 (the "Per Share Merger Consideration").

3.1.2 Each share of SSE Common Stock (i) held in the treasury of SSE, (ii) owned by Liberty or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of SSE immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in connection with debts previously contracted), or (iii) reserved for issuance under the SSE Stock Option Plans which has not been granted or allocated, shall, at the Effective Time of the Merger, cease to exist, and the certificates for such shares shall be cancelled as promptly as practicable thereafter, and no payment or distribution shall be made in consideration therefor.

3.1.3 Each Option issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof and without regard to any future vesting date thereof, be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash payment in an amount determined by multiplying (i) the positive difference, if any, between the Per Share Merger Consideration and the exercise price of such Option for each share of SSE Common Stock covered by such Option (the "Option Price") by (ii) the number of shares of SSE Common Stock subject to such Option (the "Option Consideration"). The payment of the Option Consideration referred to in the immediately preceding sentence to each holder of an Option shall be subject to such holder executing such instruments of cancellation as Liberty may reasonably deem appropriate. Liberty shall make necessary tax withholdings from the Option Consideration as it deems appropriate. SSE shall take all reasonable actions to cooperate with Liberty Bank with respect to the termination and extinguishment of unexercised Options by Option holders.

3.2 Intentionally Omitted.

3.3 Procedures for Exchange of SSE Common Stock and Options.

3.3.1 Prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, Liberty shall designate the Exchange Agent. Liberty shall take all steps necessary on or prior to the Closing Date to deliver to the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of shares of SSE Common Stock and Options, for exchange in accordance with this Section 3.3, an amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash payable in accordance with Article III hereof (such cash for shares of SSE Common Stock and Options being hereinafter referred to as the "Exchange Fund") to be paid in exchange for outstanding SSE Common Stock and Options in accordance with this Agreement.

3.3.2 SSE shall cause to be delivered to the Exchange Agent all information which is necessary for the Exchange Agent to perform its obligations specified herein. Liberty shall, within five (5) Business Days after the Effective Time of the Merger, take all steps necessary to cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of a Certificate or Certificates a form letter of transmittal for return to the Exchange Agent and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates for cash into which the SSE Common Stock represented by such Certificates shall have been converted as a result of the Merger. The letter of transmittal (which shall be subject to the reasonable approval of SSE) shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent. Upon surrender of a Certificate for exchange and cancellation to the Exchange Agent together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a check representing the amount of cash that such holder has the right to receive in respect of Certificates surrendered pursuant to the provisions of Section 3.1, and the Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled.

3.3.3 At the Effective Time of the Merger, if not previously paid by SSE immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, Liberty shall take all steps necessary to cause the Exchange Agent to issue and deliver within five (5) Business Days a check representing the amount of the Option Consideration to the holders of the Options, all of which shall have been cancelled in connection with the Merger.

3.3.4 The holder of (i) a Certificate that prior to the Merger represented issued and outstanding SSE Common Stock, or (ii) an Option shall have no rights, after the Effective Time of the Merger, with respect to such SSE Common Stock or Option except to surrender the Certificate or Option and receive in exchange the Merger Consideration or Option Consideration, respectively, as provided in this Agreement.

3.3.5 If the Person surrendering a Certificate and signing the accompanying letter of transmittal is not the record holder thereof, then it shall be a condition of the payment of the Merger Consideration that: (i) such Certificate is properly endorsed to such Person or is accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name of the record holder appears on such Certificate, and is otherwise in proper form for transfer, or is accompanied by appropriate evidence of the authority of the Person surrendering such Certificate and signing the letter of transmittal to do so on behalf of the record holder; and (ii) the Person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent in advance any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the payment to a person other than the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or required for any other reason, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

3.3.6 From and after the Effective Time of the Merger, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of shares of SSE Common Stock which were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time of the Merger. If, after the Effective Time of the Merger, Certificates representing such shares are presented for transfer to the Exchange Agent, they shall be exchanged for the Merger Consideration and cancelled as provided in this Section 3.3.

3.3.7 At any time following the six (6) month period after the Effective Time of the Merger, Liberty shall be entitled to require the Exchange Agent to deliver to it any portions of the Exchange Fund that had been made available to the Exchange Agent and not disbursed to holders of Certificates and Options (including, without limitation, all interest and other income received by the Exchange Agent in respect of all funds made available to it), and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look to Liberty (subject to abandoned property, escheat and other similar laws) with respect to any Merger Consideration or Option Consideration that may be payable upon due surrender of the Certificates or Options held by them. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Liberty, the Acquisition Corporation, SSE nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of a Certificate or Option for any Merger Consideration or Option Consideration delivered in respect of such Certificate to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or other similar law.

3.3.8 In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Liberty, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Liberty may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration deliverable in respect thereof.

3.3.9 Liberty or the Exchange Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to any holder of SSE Common Stock or Options such amounts as Liberty or the Exchange Agent are required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any applicable provision of U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. tax law. To the extent that such amounts are properly withheld by Liberty or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts will be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the SSE Common Stock or Options in respect of whom such deduction and withholding were made by Liberty or the Exchange Agent.

SSE is authorized to own the SSE Subsidiaries, including BSC. The deposit accounts of BSC are insured by the FDIC to the maximum extent permitted by the FDIA. BSC has paid all premiums and assessments required by the FDIC. SSE has heretofore delivered or made available to Liberty and has included as Section 4.2 of the SSE Disclosure Schedule true, complete and correct copies of the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of SSE and BSC and their subsidiaries as in effect as of the date hereof.

4.5.2 Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement by SSE or BSC, nor consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement, nor compliance by SSE with any of the provisions hereof or thereof (i) does or will conflict with or result in a breach of any provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws of SSE or the equivalent documents of the SSE Subsidiaries, (ii) violate, conflict with or result in a breach of any term, condition or provision of, or constitute a default (or an event which, with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default) under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation or acceleration with respect to, or result in the creation of any lien, charge or encumbrance upon any property or asset of SSE or the SSE Subsidiaries pursuant to, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, deed of trust, license, lease, agreement or other instrument or obligation to which SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries is a party, or by which any of their respective properties or assets may be bound or affected, or (iii) subject to receipt of all required governmental, Board of Director and shareholder approvals, violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries, except for such violations, conflicts, breaches or defaults described in clause (ii) or (iii) which either individually or in the aggregate, will not have a Material Adverse Effect on SSE.

- (bb) agree to do any of the foregoing.

6.2 Current Information. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time of the Merger, SSE will cause one or more of its representatives to confer with representatives of Liberty and report on the general status of its ongoing operations at such times as Liberty may reasonably request, which reports shall include, but not be limited to, discussion of the possible termination by SSE of third-party service provider arrangements effective at the Effective Time of the Merger or at a date thereafter, non-renewal of personal and real property leases and software licenses used by SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries in connection with its systems operations, retention of outside consultants and additional employees to assist with transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, and outsourcing, as appropriate, of proprietary or self-provided system services, it being understood that SSE shall not be obligated to take any such action prior to the Effective Time of the Merger and, unless SSE otherwise agrees, no conversion shall take place prior to the Effective Time of the Merger. SSE will promptly notify Liberty of any material change from the normal course of the business of SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries or in the operation of the properties of SSE or any Subsidiary and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, of any governmental complaints, investigations or hearings (or communications indicating that the same may be contemplated), or the institution or the threat of litigation involving SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries. With respect to such events, SSE will also provide Liberty such information as Liberty may reasonably request from time to time. Within fifteen (15) calendar days after the end of each month, SSE will deliver to Liberty an unaudited consolidated balance sheet and an unaudited consolidated statement of operations, without related notes, for such month prepared in accordance with SSE's current financial reporting practices.

6.3 Access to Properties and Records. In order to facilitate the consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger and the integration of the business and operations of the parties, subject to Section 12.1 hereof and subject to applicable laws relating to exchange of information, SSE will permit Liberty and its officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives, access, upon reasonable notice, to its personnel and properties and those of the SSE Subsidiaries, and shall disclose and make available to Liberty during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time of the Merger all of the books, papers and records of SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries relating to the assets, properties, operations, obligations and liabilities, including, but not limited to, all books of account (including the general ledger), tax records, minute books of directors' (other than minutes that discuss any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Bank Merger Agreement or other strategic alternatives) and shareholders' meetings, organizational documents, Bylaws, material contracts and agreements, filings with any regulatory authority, litigation files, plans affecting employees, and any other business activities or prospects in which Liberty may have a reasonable interest; provided, however, that SSE shall not be required to take any action that would provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights or business interests or confidences of any customer or other person or would result in the waiver by it of the privilege protecting communications between it and any of its counsel. SSE shall provide and shall request its auditors to provide Liberty with such historical financial information regarding SSE and any of the SSE Subsidiaries (and related audit reports and consents) as Liberty may reasonably request. Liberty shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with SSE's and any of the SSE Subsidiaries' regular business operations during any such access to SSE's or the SSE Subsidiaries' personnel, property, books or records. SSE and any of the SSE Subsidiaries shall permit Liberty, at Liberty's expense, to cause so-called "Phase I Environmental Site Assessments" and/or "Phase II Environmental Site Assessments" to be performed at any physical location owned or operated by SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries and, to the extent SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries has the contractual right to do so, at any Loan Property or Participation Facility.

6.4 Financial and Other Statements.

6.4.1 Promptly upon receipt thereof, SSE will furnish to Liberty copies of each annual, interim or special audit of the books of SSE and any of the SSE Subsidiaries made by its independent accountants and/or its internal auditors and copies of all internal control reports submitted to SSE by such accountants and/or internal auditors in connection with each annual, interim or special audit of the financial statements of SSE and the SSE Subsidiaries made by such accountants and/or internal auditors.

6.4.2 As soon as reasonably available, but in no event later than March 15, 2013 and at least ten (10) days prior to the date such documents are filed with the SEC, SSE will deliver to Liberty a draft of its proposed proxy solicitation materials which shall comply with its obligations under corporate law, the Banking Law and the Securities Laws. As soon as practicable, SSE will furnish to Liberty copies of all such financial statements and reports and opinions as SSE shall send to its shareholders or any other regulatory authority, except as legally prohibited thereby.

6.4.3 SSE will advise Liberty promptly of the receipt of any examination report or written communication with any Bank Regulator with respect to the condition, activities or compliance of SSE or the SSE Subsidiaries.

6.4.4 SSE will promptly furnish to Liberty such additional financial data as Liberty may reasonably request, including without limitation, detailed routine monthly loan reports and other reports that SSE routinely produces.

6.5 Maintenance of Insurance. SSE shall maintain, and shall cause each of the SSE Subsidiaries to maintain, such insurance in such amounts as are reasonable to cover such risks management of SSE and each of the SSE Subsidiaries reasonably has determined to be prudent and as are customary in relation to the character and location of its and their respective properties and the nature of its and their respective businesses consistent with past practices.

6.6 Disclosure Supplements. From time to time prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, SSE will promptly supplement or amend the SSE Disclosure Schedule delivered in connection herewith with respect to any matter (including all developments in litigation matters) hereafter arising which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such SSE Disclosure Schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such SSE Disclosure Schedule which has been rendered inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to any SSE Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed to be an admission by SSE that such SSE Disclosure Schedule was materially inaccurate prior to such supplement or amendment or that such supplement or amendment constitutes a material change. No supplement or amendment to such SSE Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed to have modified the representation, warranties and covenants for the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX.

6.7 Consents and Approvals of Third Parties. SSE shall use all reasonable best efforts in good faith to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals of any other Persons necessary or desirable for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement. Upon Liberty's request, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, SSE shall utilize the services of a professional proxy soliciting firm acceptable to Liberty to help obtain the shareholder vote required to be obtained by it hereunder.

6.8 Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, SSE shall use its reasonable best efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement during the second quarter of 2013 or as soon thereafter as practicable.

6.9 Failure to Fulfill Conditions. In the event that SSE determines that a condition to its obligation to complete the Merger or the Bank Merger cannot be fulfilled and that it will not waive that condition, it will immediately so notify Liberty.

6.10 Acquisition Proposals.

6.10.1 From and after the date of this Agreement and until the termination of this Agreement, SSE agrees that neither it nor any of the SSE Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall direct and use its best efforts in good faith to cause its and such Subsidiary's directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives not to, directly or indirectly, initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or otherwise facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer with respect to an Acquisition Proposal. SSE further agrees that neither it nor any of the SSE Subsidiaries shall, and that it shall direct and use its reasonable best efforts in good faith to cause its and such Subsidiary's directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives not to, directly or indirectly, engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information or data to, or have any discussions with, any Person relating to an Acquisition Proposal, or otherwise knowingly facilitate any effort or attempt to make or implement an Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent SSE or its Board of Directors from (A) complying with its disclosure obligations under federal or state law; (B) providing information in response to a request therefore by a Person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal if the SSE Board of Directors receives from the Person so requesting such information an executed confidentiality agreement substantially similar to that entered into with Liberty; (C) engaging in any negotiations or discussions with any Person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal or (D) recommending such an Acquisition Proposal to the shareholders of SSE, if and only to the extent that, in each such case referred to in clause (B), (C) or (D) above, (i) the SSE Board of Directors determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that such action would be required in order for its directors to comply with their respective fiduciary duties under applicable law, and

(ii) the SSE Board of Directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor) that such Acquisition Proposal, if accepted, is at least as reasonably likely to be consummated, taking into account all legal, financial and regulatory aspects of the proposal and the Person making the proposal and, if consummated, would result in a transaction more favorable to SSE's shareholders from a financial point of view than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. An Acquisition Proposal which is received and considered by SSE in compliance with this Section 6.10 and which meets the requirements set forth in clause (D) of the preceding sentence is herein referred to as a "Superior Proposal." SSE agrees that it will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any Acquisition Proposals. SSE agrees that it will notify Liberty immediately (within 24 hours) if any such inquiries, proposals or offers are received by, any such information is requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations are sought to be initiated or continued with SSE or any of its representatives after the date hereof, and the identity of the person making such inquiry, proposal or offer and the substance thereof and will keep Liberty informed of any material developments with respect thereto immediately upon the occurrence thereof.

6.10.2 In the event that the Board of Directors of SSE determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor and upon advice from outside counsel, that it desires to accept a Superior Proposal, it shall notify Liberty in writing of its intent to terminate this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement in order to enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to, or recommend acceptance of, the Superior Proposal. Such notice shall specify all of the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and identify the Person making such Superior Proposal. Liberty shall have five Business Days to evaluate and respond to SSE's notice. If Liberty notifies SSE in writing prior to the expiration of the five Business Day period provided above that it shall increase the Merger Consideration to an amount at least equal to that of such Superior Proposal (the "Liberty Proposal"), then SSE shall not be permitted to enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to, or permit its Board to recommend acceptance to its shareholders of, such Superior Proposal. Such notice by Liberty shall specify the new Merger Consideration. SSE shall have five Business Days to evaluate the Liberty Proposal.

6.10.3 In the event the Superior Proposal involves consideration to SSE's shareholders consisting of securities, in whole or in part, a Liberty Proposal shall be deemed to be at least equal to the Superior Proposal, if the Liberty Proposal offers Merger Consideration that equals or exceeds the consideration being offered to SSE's shareholders in the Superior Proposal valuing any securities forming a part of the Superior Proposal at its cash equivalent based upon (a) the average trading price of such securities for the 30 trading days immediately preceding the date of the Liberty Proposal, excluding the five (5) highest and five (5) lowest prices within such 30-day period, or (b) the written valuation of such securities by a nationally recognized investment banking firm. Any written valuation shall be attached as an exhibit to the Liberty Proposal.

6.10.4 In the event that the Board of Directors of SSE determines in good faith, upon the advice of its financial advisor and outside counsel, that the Liberty Proposal is not at least equal to the Superior Proposal, SSE may terminate this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement in order to execute an acquisition agreement with respect to, or to allow its Board to adopt a resolution recommending acceptance to SSE's shareholders of, the Superior Proposal as provided in Section 11.1.10. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each director and executive officer who is a signatory to a Shareholder Agreement with Liberty shall continue to be obligated to vote the shares represented by such Shareholder Agreement for approval of this Agreement and against the approval of any other business combination of SSE or any SSE Subsidiaries without the prior written authorization of Liberty.

6.11 Board of Directors and Committee Meetings. SSE shall provide to Liberty (a) notice of any and all regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors and all Committees of SSE or BSC, which notice shall be no less timely than the notice required to be provided to SSE's directors, and (b) at such time as customarily provided to SSE's or BSC's directors, copies of all written materials (i) accompanying any such notices, (ii) presented to the participants of any and all such meetings, and (iii) copies of drafts of meeting minutes and credit memoranda produced with respect to any such meeting, excluding, however, any materials pertaining to Liberty, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, and any third party proposal to acquire a controlling interest in SSE or BSC. Liberty shall be entitled to send one representative to observe, but not participate as a voting member in, all such meetings provided he/she shall not be allowed to observe any discussions regarding the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, and any third party proposal to acquire a controlling interest in SSE or BSC.

6.12 Reserves and Merger-Related Costs. On or before the Effective Time of the Merger, SSE shall use its reasonable best efforts in good faith to establish such additional accruals and reserves as may be necessary to conform the accounting reserve practices and methods (including credit loss practices and methods) of SSE and BSC to those of Liberty (as such practices and methods are to be applied to SSE and BSC from and after the Closing Date) and Liberty's plans with respect to the conduct of the business of SSE and BSC following the Merger and otherwise to reflect Merger and Merger-related expenses and costs incurred by SSE, provided, however, that SSE shall not be required to take such action unless Liberty agrees in writing that all conditions to Closing set forth in Article IX have been satisfied or waived (including the expiration of any applicable waiting periods but excluding the delivery of certificates and other documents to be delivered at the Closing); prior to the delivery by Liberty of the writing referred to in the preceding clause, SSE shall, upon Liberty's request, provide Liberty a written statement that the representation made in Section 4.22.1 hereof with respect to SSE's or BSC's allowance for possible loan losses is true as of such date or, alternatively, setting forth in detail the circumstances that prevent such representation from being true as of such date; and no accrual or reserve made by SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries pursuant to this subsection, or any litigation or regulatory proceeding arising out of any such accrual or reserve, shall constitute a breach of this Agreement within the meaning of Section 11.1.2 hereof. No action shall be required to be taken by SSE pursuant to this Section 6.12 if, in the written opinion of SSE's independent auditors, such action would contravene GAAP.

6.13 Transaction Expenses of SSE and BSC.

6.13.1 SSE has provided Liberty with SSE's estimated budget of transaction-related expenses reasonably anticipated to be payable by SSE in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, including the fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers and other professionals. SSE shall promptly notify Liberty if or when it determines that it expects to exceed its budget.

6.13.2 Promptly after the execution of this Agreement, SSE shall ask all of its attorneys and other professionals to render current and correct invoices for all unbilled time and disbursements. SSE shall accrue and/or pay all of such amounts that are actually due and owing as soon as possible.

6.13.3 SSE shall advise Liberty monthly of all out-of-pocket expenses that SSE has incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

COVENANTS OF LIBERTY

7.1 Disclosure Supplements. From time to time prior to the Effective Time of the Merger, Liberty will promptly supplement or amend the Liberty Disclosure Schedule delivered in connection herewith with respect to any material matter hereafter arising which, if existing, occurring or known at the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in such Liberty Disclosure Schedule or which is necessary to correct any information in such Liberty Disclosure Schedule which has been rendered inaccurate thereby. No supplement or amendment to any Liberty Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed to be an admission by Liberty that such Liberty Disclosure Schedule was materially inaccurate prior to such supplement or amendment or that such supplement or amendment constitutes a material change. No supplement or amendment to such Liberty Disclosure Schedule shall be deemed to have modified the representation, warranties and covenants the purpose of determining satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article IX.

7.2 Consents and Approvals of Third Parties. Liberty shall use all reasonable best efforts in good faith to obtain as soon as practicable all consents and approvals of any other Persons necessary or desirable for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement.

7.3 Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, Liberty agrees to use its reasonable best efforts in good faith to take, or cause to be taken, all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement during the second calendar quarter of 2013 or as soon thereafter as practicable.

7.4 Failure to Fulfill Conditions. In the event that Liberty determines that a condition to its and the Acquisition Corporation's obligation to complete the Merger and the Bank Merger cannot be fulfilled and that it will not waive that condition, it will immediately so notify SSE.

7.5 Employees and Employee Benefits.

7.5.1 Liberty anticipates offering employment to substantially all of the employees of SSE, subject to review of personnel files and such employment criteria for particular positions as Liberty customarily applies, following the Effective Time of the Merger.

7.5.2 Each employee of SSE who remains employed by Liberty following the Effective Time of the Merger (each, a "Continuing Employee") shall be entitled to participate in (i) such of the employee benefit plans, deferred compensation arrangements, bonus or incentive plans and other compensation and benefit plans of SSE that Liberty may continue for the benefit of Continuing Employees following the Effective Time of the Merger, and (ii) whatever employee benefit plans and other compensation and benefit plans that Liberty may maintain for the benefit of its similarly situated employees, if such Continuing Employee is not otherwise then participating in a similar plan under subsection (i).

Each Continuing Employee shall be credited with service as a SSE employee for purposes of determining his or her status under Liberty's policies with respect to vacation, sick and other leave. With respect to the Liberty defined benefit pension plan, each Continuing Employee shall be credited with hours of service as a SSE employee for the prior employment period with SSE in order to determine when the employee would be eligible to participate in the plan, but not for purposes of calculating benefits under the plan. With respect to the Liberty defined contribution plan, each Continuing Employee shall be eligible to participate, but will not be credited with prior years of service as a SSE employee for purposes of vesting. With respect to any Liberty plan which is a health, life or disability insurance plan, each Continuing Employee shall not be subject to any pre-existing condition limitation for conditions covered under such plans. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of Liberty to amend or terminate any of the Liberty Employee Plans in accordance with their terms at any time.

7.5.3 Section 7.5.3 of the SSE Disclosure Schedule contains all employment and change of control, severance and similar agreements, arrangements, policies or programs with any employee or director of SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries ("Benefit Agreements"). Liberty shall honor the terms of all Benefit Agreements unless Liberty and the affected employee, officer or director shall agree otherwise. After the Effective Date of the Merger, any Continuing Employee whose employment is actually terminated by Liberty other than for cause within six (6) months of the Effective Date of the Merger or any employee of SSE who is not offered a position at Liberty, other than employees who are parties to an existing employment, change in control, stay bonus or severance agreement with SSE, shall receive three (3) weeks salary (W-2 based compensation) for each year of service with a maximum payment based on fifteen (15) weeks salary.

7.6 Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

7.6.1 Liberty shall maintain in effect for six (6) years following the Effective Time of the Merger, the current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by SSE and the SSE Subsidiaries (provided, that Liberty may substitute therefore policies of at least the same coverage containing terms and conditions which are not materially less favorable) with respect to matters occurring prior to the Effective Time of the Merger. In connection with the foregoing, SSE agrees to provide such insurer or substitute insurer with such representations as such insurer may request with respect to the reporting of any prior claims. Alternatively, Liberty may purchase "tail coverage" for a period of six (6) years following the Effective Time of the Merger for SSE's and the SSE Subsidiaries' current directors and officers in amount and scope, and containing terms and conditions, which are not less favorable than SSE's current policy. The foregoing notwithstanding, in no event shall Liberty be required to expend on tail coverage in excess of $132,000 and if the annual premium exceeds such amount, Liberty shall provide the maximum amount of coverage that can be obtained for such amount.

7.6.2 From and after the Effective Time of the Merger, Liberty shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or who has been at any time before the date hereof or who becomes before the Effective Time of the Merger, a director of SSE (the "Indemnified Parties") against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement (which settlement shall require the prior written consent of Liberty, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, investigative or administrative (each a "Claim"), in which an Indemnified Party is, or is threatened to be made, a party or witness in whole or in part or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director of SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries if such Claim pertains to any matter of fact arising, existing or occurring at or before the Effective Time of the Merger (including, without limitation, the Merger and the Bank Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement), regardless of whether such Claim is asserted or claimed before, or after, the Effective Time of the Merger or the Effective Time of the Bank Merger (the "Indemnified Liabilities"), as provided under applicable state or federal law and under SSE's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. Liberty shall only pay expenses in advance of the final disposition of any such action or proceeding to each Indemnified Party if permitted by applicable state or federal law and upon receipt of an undertaking to repay such advance payments if the Indemnified Party shall be adjudicated or determined not to be entitled to indemnification.

7.7 The Acquisition Corporation Organizational Documents. Prior to the Effective Time, the Acquisition Corporation will be a corporation duly organized and in good standing or legal existence, as appropriate, under the laws of the jurisdiction in which it is organized with full corporate power and authority to own or lease all of its properties and assets and to carry on its business as then conducted and shall be duly licensed or qualified to do business and be in good standing or legal existence, as appropriate, in each jurisdiction in which its ownership or leasing of property or the conduct of its business requires such licensing or qualification. Promptly following the organization of the Acquisition Corporation, the Board of Directors thereof shall approve this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, and Liberty shall cause the Acquisition Corporation to execute and deliver an appropriate instrument of accession to this Agreement, whereupon the Acquisition Corporation shall become a party to, and be bound by, this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

REGULATORY AND OTHER MATTERS

8.1 SSE Special Meeting. SSE will, in accordance with applicable law and SSE's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, (i) as promptly as reasonably practicable take all steps necessary to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders (the "SSE Shareholders Meeting") for the purpose of approving this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and for such other purposes as may be, in SSE's and Liberty's reasonable judgment, necessary or desirable, (ii) subject to the fiduciary responsibility of the Board of Directors of SSE as advised by counsel, recommend to its shareholders the approval of the aforementioned matters to be submitted by it to its shareholders and oppose any third party proposal or other action that is inconsistent with this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (iii) cooperate and consult with Liberty with respect to each of the foregoing matters. Except with the prior approval of Liberty, no other matters shall be submitted for approval of the SSE shareholders at the SSE Shareholders Meeting.

8.2 Proxy Statement.

8.2.1 For the purposes of holding the SSE Shareholders Meeting, SSE shall draft and prepare, and Liberty shall cooperate in the preparation of, a proxy statement or statements satisfying all legal requirements and all material provisions and regulations thereunder (such proxy statement in the form mailed by SSE to the SSE shareholders, together with any and all amendments or supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the "Proxy Statement").

8.2.2 Liberty shall provide SSE with any information concerning Liberty and the Acquisition Corporation that SSE may reasonably request in connection with the drafting and preparation of the Proxy Statement and SSE shall notify Liberty promptly of any problems with respect to the Proxy Statement. SSE shall give Liberty and its counsel the opportunity to review and comment on the Proxy Statement prior to its being printed and shall give Liberty and its counsel the opportunity to review and comment on all amendments and supplements to the Proxy Statement prior to their being printed. Each of Liberty and SSE agrees to use all reasonable efforts, after consultation with the other party hereto, to cause the Proxy Statement and all required amendments and supplements thereto to be mailed to the holders of SSE Common Stock entitled to vote at the SSE Shareholders Meeting at the earliest practicable time.

8.2.3 Liberty and SSE each shall promptly notify the other party if at any time either of them, respectively, becomes aware that the Proxy Statement contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact about themselves required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements contained therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. In such event, Liberty shall cooperate with SSE in the preparation of a supplement or amendment to such Proxy Statement which corrects such misstatement or omission, and SSE shall mail an amended Proxy Statement to SSE's shareholders.

8.3 Regulatory Approvals. Each of SSE, Liberty and the Acquisition Corporation will cooperate with the other parties hereto and use all reasonable efforts to prepare and expeditiously file as soon as reasonably practicably all necessary filings and to obtain all necessary permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental bodies necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, including without limitation the Merger and the Bank Merger. Within forty-five (45) days after the date of this Agreement, Liberty and the Acquisition Corporation shall prepare and submit the necessary filings to the applicable Governmental Entities, including but not limited to the FDIC, the Connecticut Department of Banking and the Federal Reserve Board, seeking consent to the consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger and transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement. SSE, Liberty and the Acquisition Corporation will furnish each other party hereto and each other party's counsel with all information concerning themselves, their subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement and any petition or any other statement or application made by or on behalf of Liberty, the Acquisition Corporation or SSE to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the Bank Merger, and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement. Each party hereto shall have the right to review and approve in advance all characterizations of the information relating to such party and any of its Subsidiaries that appear in any filing made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement with any Governmental Entity. In addition, Liberty, the Acquisition Corporation and SSE shall each furnish to each other party hereto for review a copy of each such filing made in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement with any Governmental Entity prior to its filing.

ARTICLE IX

CLOSING CONDITIONS

9.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligations under this Agreement. The respective obligations of each party under this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement shall be subject to the fulfillment at or prior to the Closing Date of the following conditions, none of which may be waived:

9.1.1 This Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger and the Bank Merger, shall have been approved by the requisite vote of shareholders of SSE and BSC.

9.1.2 None of the parties hereto shall be subject to any order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement.

9.1.3 All necessary approvals, authorizations and consents of all Governmental Entities required to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, including the Merger and the Bank Merger, shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all waiting periods relating to such approvals, authorizations or consents shall have expired; and no such approval, authorization or consent shall include any condition or requirement, excluding standard conditions that are normally imposed by the regulatory authorities in bank merger transactions, that would, in the good faith reasonable judgment of the Board of Directors of Liberty, materially and adversely affect the business, operations, financial condition, property or assets of the combined enterprise of SSE and Liberty or otherwise materially impair the value of SSE to Liberty.

9.2 Conditions to the Obligations of Liberty under this Agreement. The obligations of Liberty under this Agreement shall be further subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Sections 9.2.1 through 9.2.6 at or prior to the Closing:

9.2.1 Except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement, the Bank Merger Agreement or consented to in writing by Liberty, the representations and warranties of SSE set forth in this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement and as of the Effective Time of the Merger as though made on and as of the Effective Time of the Merger (or on the date when made in the case of any representation and warranty which specifically relates to an earlier date), except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement or consented to in writing by Liberty; provided, however, that (i) in determining whether or not the condition contained in this Section 9.2.1 shall be satisfied, no effect shall be given to any exceptions in such representations and warranties relating to materiality or Material Adverse Effect and (ii) the condition contained in this Section 9.2.1 shall be deemed to be satisfied unless the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct constitute, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on SSE, taken as a whole; and SSE shall have delivered to Liberty a certificate of SSE to such effect signed by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of SSE as of the Effective Time of the Merger.

9.2.2 As of the Closing Date, SSE and the SSE Subsidiaries shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements or covenants of SSE and the SSE Subsidiaries to be performed or complied with by each of them at or prior to the Effective Date of the Merger under this Agreement, except to the extent that any failure to perform or comply shall not individually, or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on SSE and the SSE Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or materially adversely affect consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement; and Liberty shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of SSE by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of SSE to such effect dated as of the Effective Time of the Merger.

9.2.3 SSE and the SSE Subsidiaries shall have obtained any and all material permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger by SSE, the failure to obtain which would have a Material Adverse Effect on SSE and the SSE Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

9.2.4 Reasonably contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement, each executive officer and director of SSE shall have executed a Shareholder Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit B hereto.

9.2.5 Since September 30, 2012, no event has occurred or circumstance has arisen that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on SSE or BSC.

9.2.6 Any order or formal or informal supervisory action by any Bank Regulators, the SEC, NYSE Amex or any securities exchange received by SSE or BSC, whether before or after the date of this Agreement, shall not become applicable to Liberty.

9.3 Conditions to the Obligations of SSE and BSC under this Agreement. The obligations of SSE under this Agreement shall be further subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 9.3.1 through 9.3.4 at or prior to the Closing:

9.3.1 Except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement or consented to in writing by SSE, the representations and warranties of Liberty and the Acquisition Corporation set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Effective Time of the Merger as though made on and as of the Effective Time of the Merger (or on the date when made in the case of any representation and warranty which specifically relates to an earlier date), except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement or consented to in writing by SSE; provided, however, that (i) in determining whether or not the condition contained in this Section 9.3.1 shall be satisfied, no effect shall be given to any exceptions in such representations and warranties relating to materiality or Material Adverse Effect and (ii) the condition contained in this Section 9.3.1 shall be deemed to be satisfied unless the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct constitute, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Liberty; and Liberty shall have delivered to SSE a certificate of Liberty to such effect signed by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of Liberty as of the Effective Time of the Merger.

9.3.2 As of the Closing Date, Liberty shall have performed in all material respects all obligations and complied in all material respects with all agreements or covenants of Liberty to be performed or complied with by it at or prior to the Effective Date of the Merger under this Agreement except to the extent that any failure to perform or comply shall not individually, or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Liberty or materially adversely affect consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement; and SSE shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Liberty by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of Liberty to such effect dated as of the Effective Time of the Merger.

9.3.3 Liberty shall have obtained any and all material permits, authorizations, consents, waivers, clearances or approvals required for the lawful consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger by Liberty and the Acquisition Corporation, the failure to obtain which would have a Material Adverse Effect on Liberty and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

11.1.1 By the mutual written agreement of Liberty and SSE;

11.1.2 By either Liberty or SSE (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party such that the conditions set forth in Sections 9.2.1 or 9.3.1, as the case may be, would not be satisfied and such breach by its nature cannot be cured prior to the Closing Date or shall not have been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by Liberty to SSE (or by SSE to Liberty) of such breach;

11.1.8 By Liberty if (a) at any time prior to the SSE Shareholder Meeting, the SSE Board of Directors shall have failed for any reason to make its recommendation referred to in Section 8.1, withdrawn such recommendation or modified or changed such recommendation in a manner adverse in any respect to the interests of Liberty, or (b) the SSE Board of Directors shall have failed for any reason to call, give notice of, convene and hold the SSE Shareholder Meeting by May 31, 2013;

11.1.9 By Liberty if a tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of the outstanding shares of SSE Common Stock is commenced (other than by Liberty), and the SSE Board of Directors recommends that the shareholders of SSE tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such shareholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within ten (10) business days after commencement of the tender offer or exchange offer;

11.1.10 At any time prior to the SSE Shareholders Meeting, by SSE in order to concurrently enter into an acquisition agreement or similar agreement (each, an "Acquisition Agreement") with respect to a Superior Proposal which has been received and considered by SSE and the SSE Board of Directors in compliance with Section 6.10 hereof, provided, however, that this Agreement may be terminated by SSE pursuant to this Section 11.1.10 only after the fifth Business Day following Liberty's receipt of written notice from SSE advising Liberty that SSE is prepared to enter into an Acquisition Agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal, and only if, during such five-Business Day period, Liberty does not, in its sole discretion, make a Liberty Proposal that the SSE's Board of Directors determines, in compliance with Section 6.10.4 hereof, is not at least equal to the Superior Proposal.

For purposes of this Section 11.1, termination of this Agreement by Liberty shall be deemed to constitute a termination on behalf of the Acquisition Corporation.

11.2 Effect of Termination.

11.2.1 In the event of termination of this Agreement pursuant to any provision of Section 11.1, this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no further force, except that (i) the provisions of Sections 11.1, 11.3, 12.1, 12.2, 12.6, 12.9, 12.10, this Section 11.2, and (ii) any other Section which, by its terms, relates to post-termination rights or obligations, shall survive such termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect.

11.2.2 In recognition of the efforts, expenses and other opportunities foregone by Liberty while structuring and pursuing the Merger and the Bank Merger, the parties hereto agree that SSE shall pay to Liberty a termination fee of Four Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($450,000) (the "SSE Termination Fee") in the manner set forth below only if:

- (i) this Agreement is terminated by Liberty pursuant to Section 11.1.8 or 11.1.9;

(ii) this Agreement is terminated by (A) Liberty pursuant to Sections 11.1.2 or 11.1.3, or (B) by either Liberty or SSE pursuant to Section 11.1.5, and in the case of any termination pursuant to clause (A) or (B) an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to the senior management of SSE or the SSE Board of Directors (or any Person shall have publicly announced, communicated or made known an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an Acquisition Proposal) at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the taking of the vote of the shareholders of SSE contemplated by this Agreement at the SSE Shareholder Meeting, in the case of clause (B), or the date of termination of this Agreement, in the case of clause (A); or

(iii) this Agreement is terminated by SSE pursuant to Section 11.1.10.

Any amount that becomes payable by SSE pursuant to Section 11.2.2(i) or (iii) shall be satisfied on or before the third Business Day following termination of this Agreement. Any amount that becomes payable by SSE pursuant to Section 11.2.2(ii) shall be satisfied in the amount of Two Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($225,000) on or before the third Business Day following termination of this Agreement and an additional Two Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($225,000) on or before the third Business Day following the date SSE or BSC enters into a definitive agreement relating to an Acquisition Transaction or the consummation of an Acquisition Transaction within one (1) year after termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.2.2(ii) (y) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Liberty or (z) if SSE has been advised by a Governmental Entity or has received an opinion of its legal counsel that it cannot pay some or all of the SSE Termination Fee pursuant to clause (y) without obtaining the approval or non-objection of a Government Entity whose approval or non-objection has not been received, by delivery to Liberty of shares of Common Stock having a Fair Market Value equal to the portion not paid pursuant to clause (y), but in no event shall the number of shares of Common Stock issued pursuant to this clause (z) exceed 4.99% of the pro forma number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding reflecting such issuance. For purposes of Sections 11.2.2 and 11.2.3, "Fair Market Value" shall mean the average of the daily closing prices of a share of SSE Common Stock (and if there is no closing sales prices on any such day, then the mean between the closing bid and closing asked prices on that day) as reported on the NYSE Amex for the five (5) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the first public announcement of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

11.2.3 In the event of a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1.2 or 11.1.3 hereof resulting from the willful conduct or gross negligence of SSE on the one hand or Liberty or the Acquisition Corporation on the other, SSE or Liberty shall be obligated to reimburse Liberty or SSE, as the case may be, for up to Three Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($350,000) of documented reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable legal, accounting and investment banking fees and expenses, incurred by such other party in connection with the entering into of this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement and the carrying out of any and all acts contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement (collectively referred to as "Costs"). The payment of Costs is not an exclusive remedy, but is in addition to any other rights or remedies available to the parties hereto at law or in equity or as is contemplated herein. Any amount that becomes payable by Liberty pursuant to this Section 11.2.3 shall be satisfied by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by SSE on or before the third Business Day following termination of this Agreement. Any amount that becomes payable by SSE pursuant to this Section 11.2.3 shall be satisfied on or before the third Business Day following termination of this Agreement in the manner set forth in clauses (y) and (x) of Section 11.2.2, but in no event shall the number of shares of Common Stock issued pursuant to Sections 11.2.2 1 and 11.2.3 together exceed 4.99% of the pro forma number of shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding reflecting such issuances.

11.2.4 Except as provided in Sections 11.2.2 and 11.2.3 whether or not the Merger is consummated, all Costs incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement shall be borne by the party incurring such Costs.

11.2.5 In no event shall any officer, agent or director of SSE, the SSE Subsidiaries, Liberty or any Liberty Subsidiary, be personally liable hereunder for any default by any party in any of its obligations hereunder unless any such default was intentionally caused by such officer, agent or director.

11.3 Amendment, Extension and Waiver. Subject to applicable law, at any time prior to the Effective Time of the Merger (whether before or after approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by the shareholders of SSE), the parties hereto by action of their respective Boards of Directors, may (a) amend this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement, (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of any other party under this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement, (c) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement, or (d) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement; provided, however, that after any approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by the shareholders of SSE, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement which reduces the amount, value or changes the form of consideration to be delivered to SSE's shareholders or Option holders pursuant to this Agreement. This Agreement or the Bank Merger Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party, but such waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

CONFIDENTIAL FORM OF SHAREHOLDER AGREEMENT TO BE SIGNED BY EACH OF THE DIRECTORS AND CERTAIN EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF SSE RELATING TO THE VOTING OF THE SSE SHARES OF COMMON STOCK WHICH THEY BENEFICIALLY OWN AND OVER WHICH THEY HAVE SOLE OR SHARED VOTING POWER.

Shareholder Agreement

January 16, 2013

Liberty Bank
315 Main Street
Middletown, CT 06457

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned beneficially owns and has sole voting power or shared voting power with respect to the number of shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), of Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Inc. ("SSE") indicated on the signature page hereof (the "Shares").

Contemporaneously with the execution of this letter agreement, Liberty Bank ("Liberty"), SSE and The Bank of Southern Connecticut have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") dated as of the date hereof, providing for the merger of SSE with and into Liberty (the "Merger"), pursuant to which all of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive a cash payment on terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

In consideration of Liberty's entering into the Merger Agreement and proceeding to use its best efforts to consummate the Merger, and in consideration of the expenses incurred and to be incurred by Liberty in connection therewith, the undersigned agrees as follows:

1. The undersigned will vote the Shares, or cause the Shares to be voted, for the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and any other matters relating thereto presented for approval of the shareholders of SSE, and will vote the Shares, or cause the Shares to be voted, against the approval of any other agreement providing for a merger, consolidation, sale of assets or other business combination of SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries (as defined in the Merger Agreement) with any person or entity other than Liberty.
2. The undersigned will not sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of, or permit to be sold, assigned, transferred or otherwise disposed of, any of the Shares except (a) for transfers by will or by operation of law (in which case this Shareholder Agreement shall bind the transferee) and (b) as Liberty may otherwise agree in writing.

3. The undersigned agrees that unless exercised prior to the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of the Merger Agreement, any unexercised options owned or controlled by the undersigned shall be cancelled, as provided in Merger Agreement.

4. The undersigned will not:

- (a) directly or indirectly solicit or encourage (including by way of furnishing information), or initiate any communication with any other person or entity with respect to, any proposal for a merger, consolidation, sale of assets or other business combination involving SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries or for the acquisition of any capital stock of SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries; or
- (b) encourage any person, firm, corporation, group or other entity to engage in any of the actions covered by subparagraph (a) above.

5. If the Merger shall be consummated as provided in the Merger Agreement, then for a period commencing on the date of consummation of the Merger and terminating one (1) year thereafter, the undersigned (a) will continue to provide his or her personal and business banking business to Liberty to substantially the same extent as heretofore provided to SSE, provided that such services are offered by Liberty on commercially reasonable terms, (b) will not, to the extent that Liberty offers such services on commercially reasonable terms, directly or indirectly, solicit business for, or encourage any person to provide business to, any other banking or financial institution doing business in the geographic area comprised of New Haven County in the State of Connecticut, and (c) will not serve as a member of the governing board, or on any committee or advisory committee, or as an organizer or incorporator of, any bank, bank holding company, or other financial institution which maintains an office in Connecticut, other than the Liberty advisory board described in Section 2.4.2 of the Merger Agreement.

6. The undersigned represents that he or she has the complete and unrestricted power and the unqualified right to enter into and perform the terms of this Shareholder Agreement, and that this Shareholder Agreement constitutes a valid and binding agreement with respect to such party, enforceable against such party in accordance with its terms.

7. Contingent upon the effectiveness of the Merger, the undersigned hereby irrevocably and unconditionally releases and discharges SSE and its successors and assigns, from any and all claims, demands, agreements, promises, actions, causes of action, suits, obligations, costs, expenses, damages, losses and liabilities, of whatever kind or nature, at law or in equity or otherwise, whether known or unknown, which he or she ever had, may have had, now has, or may have in the future, for or by reason of any cause, thing, or matter whatsoever from the beginning of the world to the Effective Time of the Merger, arising or related to the undersigned acting as an officer or director of SSE or any of the SSE Subsidiaries, except only for any rights arising solely under and by reason of the Merger Agreement, including, without limitation the right of the undersigned to directors and officers indemnification insurance and indemnification as provided in Section 7.6 of the Merger Agreement.

8. The undersigned acknowledges that irreparable damage would occur if any of the provisions hereof were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. Accordingly, the undersigned agrees that Liberty shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of the provisions hereof and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States or any state thereof, in addition to any other remedy to which Liberty may be entitled at law or equity.

9. This Shareholder Agreement shall apply to any and all shares of common stock of SSE acquired in any manner (including by exercise of options) by the undersigned after the date hereof and, for purposes of this Shareholder Agreement, any and all such after acquired shares shall be deemed included in the term "Shares" as used herein.

10. This Shareholder Agreement is to be governed by the laws of the State of Connecticut, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of laws thereof. If any provision hereof is deemed unenforceable, the enforceability of the other provisions hereof shall not be affected.

11. This Shareholder Agreement will terminate upon mutual consent of the parties to this Shareholder Agreement or upon the earliest to occur of (i) the termination of the Merger Agreement by mutual consent of Liberty and SSE effected in accordance with the terms thereof, (ii) the passage of eighteen (18) months after termination of the Merger Agreement (iii) the payment in full by SSE of all applicable SSE Termination Fees and Costs (as defined in the Merger Agreement), (iv) the termination of the Merger Agreement effected in accordance with the terms thereof by SSE by reason of any action or failure to act of Liberty or (v) the termination of the Merger Agreement effected in accordance with the terms thereof by Liberty by reason of any action or failure to act of SSE not resulting from SSE's willful conduct or gross negligence, provided that no Termination Fees or Costs pursuant to the Merger Agreement are payable.

Please confirm our agreement with you by signing a copy of this Shareholder Agreement.

Very truly yours,

Board of Directors
Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Inc.
215 Church Street
New Haven, CT 06510

Members of the Board of Directors:

Southern Connecticut Bancorp, Inc. (“SSE”) and Liberty Bank (“Liberty”) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated January 16, 2013 (the “Agreement”) pursuant to which SSE will be merged with Liberty in a transaction (the “Merger”) in which each outstanding share of SSE’s common stock, par value $0.01, (the “SSE Shares”), shall be cancelled, shall cease to exist and shall no longer be outstanding and shall be converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to $3.76 per share (the “Consideration”) payable upon surrender of the certificate that formerly evidenced such SSE Shares.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration to the holders of the SSE Shares.

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things:

1. Reviewed the Agreement dated January 16, 2013;
2. Reviewed certain publicly-available financial and business information of SSE, Liberty and their affiliates which we deemed to be relevant;
3. Reviewed certain information, including financial forecasts, relating to the business, earnings, cash flow, assets, liabilities, liquidity and prospects of SSE and Liberty;
4. Reviewed materials detailing the Merger prepared by SSE, Liberty and their affiliates and by their legal and accounting advisors;
5. Conducted conversations with members of senior management and representatives of both SSE and Liberty regarding the matters described in clauses 1-4 above, as well as their respective businesses and prospects before and after giving effect to the Merger;
6. Compared certain financial metrics of SSE and Liberty to other selected banks and thrifts that we deemed to be relevant;
7. Analyzed the terms of the Merger relative to selected prior mergers and acquisitions involving a depository institution as the selling entity;
8. Analyzed the impact of the Merger on certain balance sheet and capital ratios of Liberty as of September 30, 2012;

January 16, 2013

Page 2

9. Analyzed the Consideration offered relative to SSE's book value and tangible book value as of September 30, 2012;
10. Analyzed the Consideration offered relative to SSE's stand-alone estimated earnings per share for the projected fiscal years ending December 31, 2013 and 2014;
11. Reviewed the overall environment for depository institutions in the United States; and
12. Conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations and took into account such other matters as we deemed appropriate for purposes of this opinion, including our assessment of general economic, market and monetary conditions.

In preparing our opinion, we assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information provided to us by SSE, Liberty and their affiliates for the purposes of this opinion. In addition, where appropriate, we relied upon publicly available information, without independent verification, that we believe to be reliable, accurate, and complete; however, we cannot guarantee the reliability, accuracy, or completeness of any such publicly available information. We were not engaged to express, and are not expressing, any opinion with respect to any other transactions or alternative proposed transactions, if any, between SSE and Liberty. With respect to the financial forecasts supplied to us, we have assumed with your consent that they were reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of SSE as to future operating and financial performance of SSE and its affiliates. In addition, we have assumed that the Agreement is a valid, binding and enforceable agreement upon the parties and their affiliates and will not be terminated or breached by either party. We have also assumed that there have been no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of SSE, Liberty and their affiliates since either (i) the date of the last financial statements made available to us and (ii) the date of the Agreement, and that no legal, political, economic, regulatory or other developments have occurred or will occur that will adversely affect these entities. We did not make an independent evaluation of the assets or liabilities of SSE, Liberty or their affiliates, including, but not limited to, any derivative or off-balance sheet assets or liabilities. We have relied upon and assumed, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by us. We have assumed that all required governmental, regulatory, shareholder and third party approvals have or will be received in a timely fashion and without any conditions or requirements that could adversely affect the Merger.

Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, and other conditions as existed on, and could be evaluated as of, and on the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events and developments occurring after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing this opinion and we do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion.

Sterne, Agee & Leach, Inc. (“Sterne Agee”) is acting as financial advisor to SSE in connection with the Merger and will receive fees from SSE for our services, a significant portion of which are contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Sterne Agee also will receive a fee in connection with the delivery of this opinion. In addition, SSE has agreed to reimburse our expenses and to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. Other than our engagement by SSE in connection with the Merger, we have not provided investment banking services to SSE, Liberty or their affiliates over the past two years; however, we may do so in the future. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time, purchase securities from and sell securities to SSE, Liberty or their affiliates.

This opinion is for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of SSE. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view to the holders of the SSE Shares of the Consideration and does not address the underlying business decision of SSE, or a recommendation whether or not, to engage in the Merger, or the relative merits of the Merger relative to any strategic alternative that may be available to SSE. In rendering this opinion, we express no view or opinion with respect to the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount or nature or any other aspect of any compensation payable to or to be received by any officers, directors, or employees of any of the parties to the Merger relative to the aggregate Consideration. The issuance of this opinion has been approved by the Fairness Opinion Committee of Sterne Agee.

Based on the foregoing and such other matters we have deemed relevant, it is our opinion, as of the date hereof, that the Consideration is fair from a financial point of view to the holders of the SSE Shares.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Sterne, Agee & Leach, Inc.
