During the past five years none of the Reporting Person or Other Persons has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors).

During the past five years, none of the Reporting Person or Other Persons was a party to any civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws, or finding any violation with respect to such laws, except as follows: In January 2007, the Massachusetts Securities Division filed a complaint against the Reporting Person and a number of affiliated entities and individuals (“Defendants”). The allegations stem from a website controlled by affiliates of the Reporting Person and material sent via email to an individual requesting information on such website. The Massachusetts Securities Division alleges that the provision of information on the website and via email constitutes an unregistered public offering of securities in violation of Massachusetts law. The Defendants have answered these allegations and asserted that they have not violated Massachusetts law because they have not solicited investors over their website or via email and that the materials provided on their website and via email do not constitute a public offering and, in any event, are protected speech under the First Amendment. The Defendants have also sued the Massachusetts Securities Division in Massachusetts Superior Court alleging violation of their First Amendment rights and have requested an injunction to prevent the Massachusetts Securities Division from pursuing enforcement proceedings against the Defendants. On July 25, 2007, the presiding officer of the Massachusetts Securities Division ruled that BIGP violated the securities laws by furnishing information about BIGP to a non-accredited investor via the website and email. The case will now be heard by the Massachusetts Superior Court.

No single partner, person or entity controls the Reporting Person within the meaning of section 2(a)(9) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The General Partners have agreed that no substantive or material action may be taken by the Reporting Person without the unanimous approval of the General Partners and each General Partner has an equal vote with regard to all such actions. Phillip Goldstein and Andrew Dakos have been delegated as agents of the Reporting Person to purchase, sell and vote securities on behalf of the Reporting Person.

Item 3 Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The Reporting Person acquired the 281,419 additional shares of Common Stock reported on this Amendment No. 2 with its investment capital. Such shares were acquired for total consideration of $1,873,407 in open market transactions as listed in Item 5 below. Such amount includes commissions incurred in making the investments.

Item 4 Purpose of Transaction

All of the shares of Common Stock reported herein were acquired for investment purposes. The Reporting Person reviews on a continuing basis the investment in MGF. Based on such review and depending on the price and availability of MGF's securities, the Reporting Person and its affiliates may acquire, or cause to be acquired, additional securities of MGF, in the open market or otherwise, dispose of, or cause to be disposed of, securities of MGF, in the open market or otherwise, at any time, or formulate other purposes, plans or proposals regarding MGF or any of its securities, to the extent deemed advisable in light of general investment and trading policies of the Reporting Person, its affiliates, MGF's business, financial condition and operating results, general market and industry conditions or other factors.

On March 7, 2007, the Reporting Person submitted a shareholder proposal for inclusion in MGF's proxy statement for the next annual meeting of shareholders (see Exhibit 1 filed with Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule 13D filed on March 15, 2007).

On July 16, 2007, at the request of MGF, the Reporting Person entered into a non-disclosure agreement with MGF, and a representative of the Reporting Person subsequently had discussions with representatives of MGF. The substantive discussions concerned the matters described above and certain plans of MGF that were subsequently publicly disclosed. The non-disclosure agreement expired pursuant to its terms on July 30, 2007.

As part of the ongoing evaluation of this investment and investment alternatives, the Reporting Person and its affiliates may consider any or all of the following: (a) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of MGF, or the disposition of securities of MGF; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving MGF or any of its subsidiaries; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of MGF or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of trustees or management of MGF, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of trustees or to fill any existing vacancies on the board of trustees; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of MGF; (f) any other material change in MGF's business or corporate structure; (g) changes in MGF's charter or bylaws or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of MGF by any person; (h) causing a class of securities of MGF to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (i) causing a class of equity securities of MGF to become eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.

In addition, from time to time, the Reporting Person and its affiliates may hold discussions with MGF regarding the matters described in subparagraphs (a) through (j) above, as well as in the letters and shareholder proposal described above.
