Effective October 12, 2018, the Board of Directors of Landec Corporation (the “Company”) approved a new form of Indemnification Agreement (the “Indemnification Agreement”) to be entered into with its directors and executive officers and to replace the existing form of indemnification agreement. The Indemnification Agreement further provides procedures for the determination of an Indemnitee’s right to receive indemnification and the advancement of expenses.

The foregoing description of the Indemnification Agreement is a general description only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Indemnification Agreement, the form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
