a) Fixed income securities (whether bonds or any other type permitted in law) that are issued in accordance with the present agreement (either directly or through a subsidiary that may or may not be a Spanish company) shall be convertible into new company shares and/or exchangeable for shares in circulation either of the company and/or any of its subsidiaries and/or shares of a company other than the issuing company, in accordance with a conversion and/or exchange rate established by the Board of Directors, which shall also be authorised to determine whether they are necessarily or voluntarily convertible and/or exchangeable, and in cases where they are voluntarily convertible and/or exchangeable, at the discretion of their owner or the issuer, the period established in the issue agreement, which must not exceed 20 years from the date of issue.
