Retirement of Chairman of the Board and Appointment of a New Chairman

As previously announced, on November 14, 2018, Michael D. Malone, Vice Admiral, U.S. Navy, Retired, the then Chairman of the Board of Intellicheck, Inc. (the “Company”) has stepped down from his position as Chairman and as a member of the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) for personal health reasons. A copy of the press release relating to such announcement is set forth as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

Vice Admiral Malone has been a member of the Board since July 2011 and was appointed its Chairman in November of 2012. He also served on the Board’s audit and compensation committees.

Vice Admiral Malone is succeeded as Chairman by the Company’s longest serving Board member, Guy L. Smith, having been first elected to the Board in 2005.

Guy L. Smith has a lifetime of experience in leadership roles for large corporations, and in addition to his Board membership at the Company, has been the Executive Vice President of Diageo PLC since 2000. Mr. Smith has also served as Special Advisor to President Clinton regarding the former President’s impeachment defense and as an informal strategic communications advisor to President Clinton from the beginning of the Clinton Administration. Prior to that, Mr. Smith served as Vice President-Corporate Affairs for seventeen years at Phillip Morris Companies Inc. Mr. Smith serves on the Board’s audit and compensation committees.
