PART III

NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On November 9, 2007, Synovus Financial Corp. became aware that Visa Inc. ( Visa ) recently reached a settlement with American Express regarding certain litigation. The settlement is subject to certain approvals, including the approval by at least two-thirds of the Visa USA, Inc. voting members. We have a membership interest in Visa and we and other banks have obligations to share in certain losses under various agreements with Visa in connection with this and other litigation. In light of the above information, we will record a liability of approximately $12 million before tax for litigation and a corresponding expense in the third quarter of 2007. We anticipate at this time that our proportionate share of the proceeds of the planned Visa initial public offering will offset these items in future periods. As a result of this recent development, we will be unable to file our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 within the prescribed time period as it will take additional time to assimilate the above information into our financial statements. We currently expect to file the Form 10-Q within five calendar days of the due date as required for the extension provided by Rule 12b-25.
