Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 30, 2019, The Home Depot, Inc. (the “Company”) announced that Carol Tomé will be retiring as the Company’s Executive Vice President – Corporate Services and Chief Financial Officer, effective August 31, 2019. There has been no change to Ms. Tomé’s compensation or other terms of employment in connection with her anticipated retirement.

The Company also announced that Richard McPhail will be promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer following Carol’s retirement. Mr. McPhail, age 48, has served as Senior Vice President, Finance Control and Administration, of the Company since 2017, and is responsible for enterprise financial reporting and operations, financial planning and analysis, treasury, payments, tax, and international financial operations. From 2014 to 2017, he served as Senior Vice President, Finance, with responsibility for U.S. Retail finance, strategic and financial planning, and business development activity. Mr. McPhail served as Senior Vice President, Global FP&A, Strategy, and New Business Development, from 2013 to 2014; Vice President, Strategic Business Development, from 2007 to 2013; and director of Strategic Business Development from 2005 to 2007. Prior to joining the Company in 2005, Mr. McPhail served as executive vice president of corporate finance for Marconi Corporation plc in London, England, where he led their business development efforts in Europe and North America. Prior to Marconi, Mr. McPhail held positions with Wachovia Securities and with Arthur Andersen.

The Company will file an amendment to this Form 8-K regarding the material terms of the employment arrangement for Mr. McPhail within four business days of the determination of such information.

A copy of the press release announcing these changes is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
