Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

The information included in Item 2.03 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

Item 2.03 Creating of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under and Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On February 7, 2014, New Jersey Natural Gas Company (“NJNG”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of New Jersey Resources Corporation (“NJR”), and certain institutional investors in the private placement market (“Purchasers”) entered into a Note Purchase Agreement (“Note Purchase Agreement”), under which NJNG has agreed to sell, and the Purchasers have agreed to purchase on March 13, 2014, subject to customary closing conditions, $70 million of 3.58% Series A Senior Notes due March 13, 2024 (“Series A Notes”) and $55 million of NJNG’s 4.61% Series B Senior Notes due March 13, 2044 (“Series B Notes,” and collectively, the “Notes”). The Notes will be secured until the Release Date (as defined in the Note Purchase Agreement) by an equal principal amount of NJNG’s First Mortgage Bonds issued under NJNG’s Indenture of Mortgage and Deed of Trust dated April 1, 1952 between NJNG and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. (as successor to BNY Midwest Trust Company) in its capacity as Trustee, as amended and supplemented to date and from time to time, including the Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Indenture to be dated as of March 1, 2014. Accordingly, until the Release Date the Notes will be secured ratably with NJNG’s First Mortgage Bonds in the collateral pledged to secure such bonds. The proceeds of the Notes will be used for general corporate purposes, including to refinance or retire debt and to fund capital expenditure requirements.

Interest will accrue on the Series A Notes at 3.58% per annum and on the Series B Notes at 4.61% per annum and will be payable on March 15 and September 15 of each year, beginning September 15, 2014 and on the respective maturity date. NJNG may at any time and from time to time prepay all or a portion of the Notes at a make-whole prepayment price. The Notes are also subject to required prepayments upon the occurrence of certain events. The Notes will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities Act”) or under the securities laws of any jurisdiction. The Notes will be subject to certain restrictions on transfer and may only be sold in transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The Note Purchase Agreement contains customary representations and warranties of the Company and the Purchasers and also contains customary events of default and certain covenants which will limit NJNG’s ability beyond agreed upon thresholds, to, among other things: (i) incur additional debt (including a covenant which limits the amount of Consolidated Total Debt of the Company at the end of a fiscal quarter to 65% of the Consolidated Total Capitalization of the Company, as those terms are defined in the Note Purchase Agreement and a covenant limiting Priority Debt to 20% of the Company’s Consolidated Total Capitalization, as those terms are defined in the Note Purchase Agreement); (ii) incur liens; (iii) make dispositions of assets; (iv) enter into transactions with affiliates; and (v) merge, consolidate, transfer, sell or lease all or substantially all of NJNG’s assets. These covenants are subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications set forth in the Note Purchase Agreement.

NJR is not obligated directly or contingently with respect to the Notes or the First Mortgage Bonds.

The above descriptions of the Note Purchase Agreement and the Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Indenture are qualified in their entirety by reference to the entire Note Purchase Agreement and the Thirty-Fifth Supplemental Indenture to be filed as Exhibits with NJR’s next Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.
