Introductory Note

On October 31, 2016 (the “Effective Date”), USG Corporation (“USG” or the “Company”) completed the sale of all of the outstanding capital stock of USG’s former subsidiary L&W Supply Corporation (“L&W”) to American Builders & Contractors Supply Co., Inc. (the “Purchaser”) for a purchase price of approximately $670 million in cash (the “Transaction”), pursuant to the Sale and Purchase Agreement, dated August 27, 2016 (the “Purchase Agreement”), by and between USG and the Purchaser. USG also made a cash payment to Purchaser of $2 million based on an initial estimate of L&W’s working capital.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, which was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to USG’s Current Report on Form 8-K/A on August 29, 2016, and is incorporated by reference herein.

Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On the Effective Date, L&W and the Purchaser (as a guarantor under certain provisions of the Supply Agreement (as defined below)) entered into a supply agreement (the “Supply Agreement”) with the Company’s subsidiaries United States Gypsum Company and USG Interiors, LLC (collectively, the “Subsidiaries”) and the Company (as a guarantor under certain provisions of the Supply Agreement). The Supply Agreement governs sales of the Subsidiaries’ wallboard, ceiling tile, glass mat and surfaces and substrate products (collectively, the “Products”) to L&W. Pursuant to the Supply Agreement, L&W agreed to be a distributor of Products and to market, promote, sell and distribute Products pursuant to the terms of the Supply Agreement.

Under the terms of the Supply Agreement, L&W will purchase Products from the Subsidiaries, subject to minimum purchase requirements or sales targets, as applicable. Except as to ceiling tile, L&W’s appointment to distribute Products is non-exclusive. Pursuant to the terms of the Supply Agreement, the Purchaser has irrevocably guaranteed L&W’s obligations, covenants, undertakings and liabilities under the Supply Agreement, and the Company has irrevocably guaranteed the Subsidiaries’ obligations, covenants, undertakings and liabilities under the Supply Agreement.

Subject to certain exceptions, limitations and other provisions, the Subsidiaries and L&W have agreed to indemnify each other for breaches of representations and warranties and certain other matters.

Among other customary termination rights granted under the Supply Agreement, the Supply Agreement can be terminated by the Subsidiaries upon written notice if L&W breaches or is in default of any obligation under the Supply Agreement and such breach or default has not been cured within a specified time period from the giving of written notice. Among other customary termination rights granted under the Supply Agreement, the Supply Agreement can be terminated by L&W upon written notice if the Subsidiaries materially breach or are in default of any obligation under the Supply Agreement and such breach or default has not been cured within a specified time period from the giving of written notice.

The foregoing description of the Supply Agreement does not purport to be a complete description of the terms of such agreement, which are qualified in all respects by reference to the complete text of the Supply Agreement, a copy of which is being filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.

The Purchase Agreement and Supply Agreement have been included as exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K to provide investors and security holders with information regarding their respective terms. They are not intended to provide any other financial information about the parties thereto or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement and the Supply Agreement are made only for purposes of those agreements and as of specific dates; are solely for the benefit of the parties thereto; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by such parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties thereto instead of establishing these matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the parties to the Purchase Agreement or the Supply Agreement or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the dates of the Purchase Agreement or the Supply Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the parties thereto.
