Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On July 1, 2015, PREIT Associates, L.P. (the “Company”), which is the operating partnership of Pennsylvania Real Estate Investment Trust (“PREIT”), and another subsidiary of PREIT, PR Springfield Associates, L.P. (“PR Springfield,” and, together with the Company, the “Sellers”), sold their entire 50% interests in the Springfield Park shopping center for $20.2 million to Rubin Retail Acquisitions, L.P. The shopping center is located in Delaware County, Pennsylvania and contains an aggregate of 287,000 square feet.

The buyer, Rubin Retail Acquisitions, L.P., is an entity controlled by Ronald Rubin, Executive Chairman and a Trustee of PREIT, and his brother George Rubin, a former Vice Chairman and a former Trustee of PREIT. In accordance with PREIT’s Related Party Transactions Policy, a Special Committee consisting exclusively of independent members of PREIT’s Board of Trustees considered and approved the terms of the transaction. The disinterested members of PREIT’s Board of Trustees also approved the transaction.

In connection with its interest in the property, the Company had an ongoing obligation to sublet approximately 10,100 square feet of space of a tenant at the property, which it transferred as part of the transaction. The parties obtained an appraisal of the value of the property as a whole, and of the Sellers’ 50% interest in the property, as well as of this sublet obligation. Based on this appraisal, the Sellers sold their interests for $20.2 million. After an adjustment based on the appraisal of the sublet obligation, the net price to the Sellers before closing costs and other adjustments was $18.5 million.

There is a mortgage on the property that had a total balance at closing of approximately $9.0 million, of which the Sellers’ share was 50%. As part of the transaction, the buyer is assuming all obligations of the Sellers in connection with that mortgage. For a limited term after the closing, an affiliate of the Sellers will provide limited property management services with respect to the shopping center for nominal consideration.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the transaction to repay borrowings under its 2013 Credit Facility, and for general corporate purposes.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains certain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements relate to expectations, beliefs, projections, future plans, strategies, anticipated events, trends and other matters that are not historical facts. These forward-looking statements reflect our current views about future events, achievements or results and are subject to risks, uncertainties and changes in circumstances that might cause future events, achievements or results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. In particular, our business might be materially and adversely affected by uncertainties affecting real estate businesses generally as well as the following, among other factors: our substantial debt and stated value of preferred shares and our high leverage ratio; constraining leverage, unencumbered debt yield, interest and tangible net worth covenants under our 2013 Revolving Facility and our 2014 Term Loans; potential losses on impairment of certain long-lived assets, such as real estate, or of intangible assets, such as goodwill, including such losses that we might be required to record in connection with any dispositions of assets; changes in the retail industry, including consolidation and store closings, particularly among anchor tenants; our ability to sell properties that we seek to dispose of or our ability to obtain estimated sale prices; the effects of online shopping and other uses of technology on our retail tenants; risks related to development and redevelopment activities; current economic conditions and the state of employment growth and consumer confidence and spending, and the corresponding effects on tenant business performance, prospects, solvency and leasing decisions and on our cash flows, and the value and potential impairment of our properties; our ability to refinance our existing indebtedness when it matures, on favorable terms or at all; our ability to raise capital, including through the issuance of equity or equity-related securities if market conditions are favorable, through joint ventures or other partnerships, through sales of properties or interests in properties, or through other actions; our ability to identify and execute on suitable acquisition opportunities and to integrate acquired properties into our portfolio; our partnerships and joint ventures with third parties to acquire or develop properties; our short- and long-term liquidity position; general economic, financial and political conditions, including credit and capital market conditions, changes in interest rates or unemployment; our ability to maintain and increase property occupancy, sales and rental rates, in light of the relatively high number of leases that have expired or are expiring in the next two years; acts of violence at malls, including our properties, or at other similar spaces, and the potential effect on traffic and sales; changes to our corporate management team and any resulting modifications to our business strategies; increases in operating costs that cannot be passed on to tenants; concentration of our properties in the Mid-Atlantic region; changes in local market conditions, such as the supply of or demand for retail space, or other competitive factors; and potential dilution from any capital raising transactions or other equity issuances. Additional factors that might cause future events, achievements or results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by our forward-looking statements include those discussed in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and in any subsequent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q in the section entitled “Item 1A. Risk Factors.” We do not intend to update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect new information, future events or otherwise.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
