Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events

On July 27, 2010, Occidental Petroleum Corporation announced net income of $1.1 billion ($1.31 per diluted share) for the second quarter of 2010, compared with $682 million ($0.84 per diluted share) for the second quarter of 2009.

QUARTERLY RESULTS

Oil and Gas

Oil and gas segment earnings were $1.9 billion for the second quarter of 2010, compared with $1.1 billion for the same period in 2009. The increase in the second quarter of 2010 results was due to higher crude oil and natural gas prices and higher volumes.

For the second quarter of 2010, daily oil and gas sales volumes averaged 747,000 barrels of oil equivalent (BOE), compared with 719,000 BOE in the second quarter of 2009. Volumes increased in the Middle East/North Africa and California and were partially offset by decreases in Colombia. The Middle East/North Africa increase included new production from the Bahrain start-up and increased production from the Mukhaizna field in Oman. Underlying daily production volumes were 743,000 BOE in the second quarter of 2010 compared to 717,000 BOE in the second quarter of 2009, an increase of over three and one-half percent. Production was negatively impacted in the Middle East/North Africa, Long Beach and Colombia due to higher oil prices affecting our production sharing and similar contracts by a total of 29,000 BOE per day.

Oxy's realized price for worldwide crude oil was $72.13 per barrel for the second quarter of 2010, compared with $52.97 per barrel for the second quarter of 2009. Domestic realized gas prices rose from $2.87 per MCF in the second quarter of 2009 to $4.19 per MCF for the second quarter of 2010.

Chemicals

Chemical segment earnings for the second quarter 2010 were $108 million, compared with $115 million for the same period in 2009. The second quarter of 2010 results continue to reflect the significant caustic soda price erosion and higher raw material prices experienced in the second half of 2009 offset by improved volumes across most product lines.

Midstream, Marketing and Other

Midstream segment earnings were $13 million for the second quarter of 2010, compared with $63 million for the second quarter of 2009. Earnings for the second quarter of 2010 reflect lower margins in the marketing and trading businesses, partially offset by higher margins in the gas processing business and pipelines businesses.

SIX-MONTH RESULTS

Net income for the first six months of 2010 was $2.1 billion ($2.61 per diluted share), compared with $1.1 billion ($1.29 per diluted share) for the same period in 2009. Year-to-date 2010 core results were $2.1 billion ($2.63 per diluted share), compared with $1.1 billion ($1.34 per diluted share).

Oil and Gas

Oil and gas segment earnings were $3.7 billion for the six months of 2010, compared with $1.6 billion for the same period of 2009. The $2.1 billion increase in the 2010 results reflected higher crude oil and natural gas prices and higher volumes.

Daily oil and gas sales volumes for the six months were 737,000 BOE per day for 2010, compared with 716,000 BOE per day for the 2009 period. Volumes increased in the Middle East/North Africa, resulting from the new production in Bahrain and higher production in the Mukhaizna field in Oman, and domestically in California. Volumes declined in Latin America, mainly in Colombia. Underlying daily production volumes were 743,000 BOE in the first six months of 2010, compared with 713,000 BOE for 2009, an increase of over four percent. Production was negatively impacted in the Middle East/North Africa, Long Beach and Colombia resulting from higher year-over-year average oil prices affecting our production sharing and similar contracts by 28,000 BOE per day.

Oxy's realized price for worldwide crude oil was $72.01 per barrel for the six months of 2010, compared with $46.05 per barrel for the six months of 2009. Domestic realized gas prices increased from $3.20 per MCF in the six months of 2009 to $4.90 per MCF in the six months of 2010.

Chemicals

Chemical segment earnings were $138 million for the six months of 2010, compared with $284 million for the same period in 2009. The 2010 six-month results reflect the significant margin erosion in caustic soda, which began in 2009 due to the economic downturn, particularly in the housing and construction sectors, combined with higher raw material costs primarily for ethylene. Volumes and prices across most product lines are gradually recovering, resulting in the improvement in earnings from first quarter $30 million to second quarter of $108 million.

Midstream, Marketing and Other

Midstream segment earnings were $107 million for the six months of 2010, compared with $77 million for the same period in 2009. The 2010 results reflect higher margins in the gas processing business and increased earnings in the pipeline and power generation businesses, partially offset by lower marketing and trading income.

SIGNIFICANT TRANSACTIONS AND EVENTS AFFECTING EARNINGS

Occidental's results of operations often include the effects of significant transactions and events affecting earnings that vary widely and unpredictably in nature, timing and amount. Therefore, management uses a measure called "core results," which excludes those items. This non-GAAP measure is not meant to disassociate those items from management's performance, but rather is meant to provide useful information to investors interested in comparing Occidental's earnings performance between periods. Reported earnings are considered representative of management's performance over the long term. Core results is not considered to be an alternative to operating income in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
