Versar Acquires Parsons Cultural Resources Business

Springfield, VA, Monday, April 18, 2005 - VERSAR, Inc. (Amex: VSR) announced today that it had acquired the Cultural Resources group from Parsons Infrastructure & Technology Group, Inc., a subsidiary of Parsons Corporation, for an undisclosed consideration. The Cultural Resources group, based in Fairfax County, Virginia, and headed by Cynthia Auman, provides archeological, cultural and historical services to federal, state and municipal clients across the country.

The transaction was completed on Friday, April 15, 2005. Versar expects the Cultural Resources group to produce at least $1.5 million in annual revenue and enhance the company's existing technical capabilities. Parsons and Versar have also agreed to jointly market the Cultural Resources group's expertise.

Dr. Ted Procriv, President and CEO of Versar stated, "The acquisition of the Parsons Cultural Resources group is a great opportunity to expand Versar's growing cultural resources business. We also look at this transaction as the first step to building a closer working relationship with Parsons Corporation, one of this country's leading engineering and
