Exhibit 99.(a)(12)

PENN TREATY AMERICAN CORPORATION EXTENDS DEBT EXCHANGE OFFER

Allentown, PA, September 27, 2002 - Penn Treaty American Corporation (NYSE - PTA) today announced the extension to 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on Thursday, October 3, 2002, unless further extended, of its offer to exchange its outstanding $74,750,000 convertible notes due 2003 (the "Subordinated Notes") for a like amount of mandatory convertible notes due 2008. Prior to this extension of the exchange offer, the offer had been scheduled to expire on September 26, 2002. Except as modified by this extension, the terms and conditions of the exchange offer remain in effect and unmodified.

The Company has been advised by its exchange agent, Wells Fargo Bank Minnesota, N.A., that, as of the close of business on September 26, 2002, approximately $42 million of Subordinated Notes outstanding had been tendered and not withdrawn pursuant to the offer. In addition, holders of approximately $10 million of Subordinated Notes have notified the Company that they have initiated the process to tender or have expressed their intention to tender their Subordinated Notes in the event of an extension of the offer. Accordingly, the Company has decided to extend the exchange offer for five business days. The Subordinated Notes tendered and not withdrawn pursuant to the offer, together with the Subordinate Notes for which an intent to tender has been expressed, represent approximately 70% percent of the total outstanding Subordinated Notes.

The Company, through its wholly owned direct and indirect subsidiaries, Penn Treaty Network America Insurance Company, American Network Insurance Company, American Independent Network Insurance Company of New York, Penn Treaty (Bermuda), Ltd., United Insurance Group Agency, Inc., Network Insurance Senior Health Division and Senior Financial Consultants Company, is primarily engaged in the underwriting, marketing and sale of individual and group accident and health insurance products, principally covering long-term nursing home and home health care.

Certain statements made by the Company - in this press release - may be considered forward-looking. Although the Company believes that its expectations are based upon reasonable assumptions, actual results could differ from expectations in the event that Subordinated Note holders who expressed an intent to tender do not tender their Subordinated Notes during the extension of the exchange offer.
