Item 8.01 Other Events.

Two employees of Orrstown Bank, Orrstown Financial Services, Inc.'s wholly-owned banking subsidiary, have been the victims of an email phishing incident that compromised their email credentials. A phishing incident is the fraudulent practice of sending emails purporting to be from reputable companies in order to induce individuals to reveal sensitive information.

Orrstown Bank did not make any fraudulent payments as a result of the incident. As of the date of this report, Orrstown Bank does not believe that any amounts have been withdrawn from customer accounts without authorization or that any customers have experienced identity theft as a result of the incident. Orrstown Bank has no evidence that the unauthorized access to the email accounts otherwise compromised the integrity of the Orrstown Bank platform, which undergoes rigorous annual auditing as well as penetration testing by an outside security firm.

Unbeknownst to Orrstown Bank at the time, the intrusion may have started as early as October 2, 2017. The Orrstown Bank security team first detected the email compromise on July 19, 2018 and terminated the unauthorized access on that date. After the incident was detected, a third party cybersecurity expert was retained to perform a forensic review of the incident, which review was only recently completed. Orrstown Bank has also taken other actions to understand the incident and prevent similar incidents from occurring in the future. Orrstown Bank has notified the appropriate federal and state banking regulators as well as federal law enforcement officials, and it understands that federal law enforcement is investigating the intruder's criminal activity.

Orrstown Bank believes that the intruder may have gained access to personal information related to approximately 54,000 accounts. The affected information will vary by account, but could include one or more of the following types of information: names, tax identification numbers, social security numbers, financial account information, postal addresses, email addresses, date of birth, and other financial information. Orrstown Bank has notified affected account holders and provided identity monitoring at no cost to the affected customers for two years.

All forward-looking statements, expressed or implied, included in this press release are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. This cautionary statement should also be considered in connection with any subsequent written or oral forward-looking statements that Orrstown Financial Services or persons acting on Orrstown Financial Services' behalf may issue.
