PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Silicon Storage Technology, Inc. (the "Company") is still in the process of completing its year- end financial statements, including the additional disclosure requirements related to the acquisition of G-Plus, and additional internal control procedures and testing under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and therefore is unable to file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 (the "Form 10-K") in the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort and expense. The Company expects to file the Form 10-K no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date, as permitted by Rule 12b-25.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

SST's results of operations to be reflected in the financial statements in the Form 10-K will be consistent with the financial statements attachment hereto. SST's net revenues for the year ended December 31, 2004 were $449.2 million compared with $295.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2003. SST's net income for the year ended December 31, 2004 was $23.9 million, or $0.24 per share based on approximately 99.1 million diluted shares compared with a net loss of $65.2 million or a loss of $0.69 per share based on approximately 94.7 million diluted shares outstanding for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 Section 404

During the audit of the year ended December 31, 2004, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, identified an error in the recording of the inventory reserve as of December 31, 2004, which resulted in a material audit adjustment. The Company's management believes that the error was a result of insufficient controls over the preparation and review of manual journal entries due to insufficient accounting and finance personnel resources under the heavy load to meet Sarbanes-Oxley requirements combined with a high level of recent employee turnover. This control deficiency constituted a material weakness in internal control. The audit adjustment was recorded and reflected in financial information previously reported in the Company's financial press release dated January 26, 2005.

As a result of this material weakness, management expects to conclude in the Form 10-K that internal controls over financial reporting were not effective as of December 31, 2004, and accordingly PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is expected to issue an adverse opinion with respect to the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, are still completing their assessment of internal controls and additional control deficiencies may be identified.

In response to this material weakness, the Company has recently hired new senior accounting personnel and is in the process of hiring additional finance and accounting personnel. In addition, the Company intends to enhance its training programs for finance and accounting personnel.
