Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On June 29, 2007, a federal court jury in New York awarded Celebrity Cruises Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd., approximately $15 million after the retrial of a portion of Celebrity's lawsuit against Essef Corp., regarding a 1994 outbreak of Legionnaires disease on one of Celebrity's ships. The retrial was ordered by the trial court to redetermine the amount of lost profits sustained by Celebrity. The court earlier rejected a portion of the jury's $193 million award attributed to Celebrity's claim for loss of Celebrity's enterprise value. When combined with approximately $10 million of the original award not subject to a retrial, Celebrity has been awarded a total of approximately $25 million in the lawsuit, exclusive of pre-judgment interest and attorneys fees. The verdict is subject to appeal and, due to the ongoing nature of the proceedings, the ultimate financial impact to Celebrity is undetermined at this time.

This information shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and is not incorporated by reference into any filing of Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd., whether made before or after the filing of this report, regardless of any general incorporation language in the filing, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.
