Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Thomas B. Hallman will be retiring, effective December 31, 2007, and will be receiving the retirement benefits provided for in his employment agreement.

CIT Group Inc. (CIT) and each of John F. Daly, C. Jeffrey Knittel, Joseph M. Leone, and Lawrence A. Marsiello have agreed to a one-year extension of each of their respective employment agreements, which were scheduled to expire on December 31, 2007. Each of the employment agreements was amended to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, including the requirement to delay in certain circumstances the payment of any applicable severance for six months following an executive's termination of employment with CIT. In connection with these extensions, the job titles of Messrs. Daly and Knittel have been updated to reflect their current responsibilities with CIT. Mr. Leone's employment agreement has been revised to provide that any termination or resignation of his employment will be treated as a
