Egan-Jones Recommends Biglari Holdings Shareholders Elect All of Groveland Group's Director Nominees

Independent Proxy Advisory Firm Sees More Obstacles and Costs If Reform Is Delayed

Believes Groveland's Director Nominees to Be the Best Choice Available to Shareholders

Groveland Encourages Biglari Holdings Shareholders to Vote the WHITE Proxy Card

MINNEAPOLIS, April 6, 2015 – Groveland Capital LLC (the "Groveland Group") today commented on a report issued by Egan-Jones Proxy Services ("Egan-Jones"), a leading independent proxy advisory firm, recommending that shareholders of Biglari Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: BH, the "Company") FULLY SUPPORT Groveland's proxy and elect ALL of its six director nominees by voting the WHITE Proxy Card at the Company's 2015 Annual Meeting of Shareholders scheduled for Thursday, April 9, 2015.

The Groveland Group has nominated six independent professionals for the Board of Directors of Biglari Holdings and is soliciting votes from fellow Biglari Holdings' shareholders for the election of these individuals at Biglari Holdings' annual meeting. The Groveland Group's six highly qualified and experienced nominees include: Nicholas J. Swenson, James W. Stryker, Thomas R. Lujan, Stephen J. Lombardo, III, Ryan P. Buckley and Seth G. Barkett.

In issuing its recommendation, Egan-Jones noted, "In our opinion, the current board and management [of Biglari Holdings] has failed to uphold practices of good governance and conduct itself in a way that is at least intended to be beneficial to all shareholders. It is our belief that as long as the current board and management remain in control, this undesirable course will continue. While we are concerned by the costs shareholders will incur should a change in control occur, we believe allowing the Licensing Agreement to alter our recommendation will only encourage similar and more costly techniques in the future at this and other companies. FOR THESE REASONS, WE RECOMMEND FULLY SUPPORTING THE DISSIDENT PROXY AND BOARD NOMINEES."

Egan-Jones' review centered on the Groveland Group's proposals in the context of maximizing shareholder value, based on publicly available information. Specifically, Egan-Jones stated in its April 9, 2015, report1:

"Bearing in mind the governance, performance issues and ever more creative challenges to future change in control at this firm, we see no choice but to recommend a vote for the [Groveland Group] dissident directors at this time."

"...we believe the dissident nominees to be the best choice available to shareholders at this time to protect their investment in the Company..."

"Giving the current board additional time in control of the Company will only allow them to put in place more obstacles and costs to any future change in control."

"We are disturbed by the recent performance of the Company under current management, including a TSR of -11% during previous fiscal year, as well as a continuing lack of concern, in our opinion, for the principles of good governance by the board."

“We believe that the 2013 Licensing Agreement, which was unanimously approved by the [Company’s] Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee of the board of directors, and mandates up to $100 million in payments to [Biglari Holdings CEO] Mr. Biglari should there be a change in control at the Company, proves to our satisfaction at least, that the board is not independent and it is putting the interests of management (Mr. Biglari) ahead of the interests of other shareholders.”

Accordingly, Egan-Jones concluded and recommended that Biglari Holdings’ shareholders vote FOR Groveland’s proxy and elect ALL of its six director nominees, thus replacing the entire incumbent board.

Nick Swenson, Principal and Founder of Groveland Capital, stated: ““We fully agree with Egan-Jones’ assessment that NOW is the time to reform Biglari Holdings. Extremely poor corporate governance practices at Biglari Holdings have heavily influenced Egan-Jones. In their report, they view the Groveland Group as the best choice available to affect reform at the Company.”

Added Mr. Swenson, “We are pleased with Egan-Jones’ recommendation that BH shareholders elect all of Groveland’s director nominees by voting the WHITE Proxy Card. The overwhelming support from this highly regarded, independent proxy advisory firm reinforces our conviction that now is the time to reform and positive change at Biglari Holdings. The Groveland Group is intent on driving shareholder value now and over the long-term at the Company.”

AS EGAN-JONES HAS RECOMMENDED TO VOTE FOR THE GROVELAND PROXY AND ITS ENTIRE DIRECTOR NOMINEES, GROVELAND ENCOURAGES ITS FELLOW SHAREHOLDERS TO CHECK THE POWER OF BIGLARI HOLDINGS CEO MR. SARDAR BIGLARI AND THE BOARD BY VOTING THE WHITE PROXY CARD.

The Groveland Group press release along with other materials related to the Biglari Holdings proxy contest is available on the website www.ReformBH.com and on the SEC’s website www.sec.gov.
