Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment to Investment Agreement

On August 31, 2009, NCI Building Systems, Inc. (the Company) entered into a second amendment ( Amendment No. 2 ) to the Investment Agreement, dated as of August 14, 2009 (the Original Investment Agreement ), by and between the Company and Clayton, Dubilier & Rice Fund VIII, L.P. (the CD&R Fund ), as previously amended by that amendment ( Amendment No. 1 ), dated as of August 28, 2009, by and between the Company and the CD&R Fund (the Original Investment Agreement, as amended by Amendment No. 1 and Amendment No. 2, the Investment Agreement ).

In the Investment Agreement, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, the Company agreed to issue and sell to the CD&R Fund, and the CD&R Fund agreed to purchase from the Company, for an aggregate purchase price of $250 million, 250,000 shares of a newly created class of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, of the Company, to be designated the Series B Cumulative Convertible Participating Preferred Stock (the Preferred Stock, and shares thereof, the Preferred Shares ). The purchase and sale of the Preferred Shares pursuant to the terms of the Investment Agreement is referred to herein as the Equity Investment. The closing of the Equity Investment is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of closing conditions set forth in the Investment Agreement, including, among others:

the consummation of an exchange offer (the Exchange Offer ) by the Company to acquire all of the Company's existing 2.125% convertible notes due 2024 in exchange for a combination of cash and shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (the Common Stock ), which exchange offer will be subject to a number of conditions, including the tender of at least 95% of the aggregate principal amount of such convertible notes; and the refinancing of the Company's existing senior secured credit facility (the Refinancing ), including the repayment of approximately $143 million in principal amount of the existing $293 million in principal amount of outstanding term loans thereunder and a modification of the terms and an extension of the maturity of the remaining $150 million outstanding balance of the term loans.

Amendment No. 2, among other things, (1) amends the terms of the Exchange Offer contemplated by the Investment Agreement, providing that the Company will launch an offer to acquire the Company's existing convertible notes for $500 in cash and 390 shares of Common Stock, for each $1,000 principal amount of convertible notes tendered and accepted in the Exchange Offer; (2) reduces the initial conversion price of the Preferred Shares from $2.34 to $1.2748 per share of Common Stock; (3) eliminates the maturity of the Preferred Stock and provides for milestone redemption provisions in lieu thereof, pursuant to which on and after the tenth anniversary of the original issuance date of the Preferred Shares, each holder of Preferred Stock will have the right to require the Company to redeem all its Preferred Shares, and the Company will have the right to redeem all then issued and outstanding Preferred Shares, in each case, at a price equal to the liquidation preference of such redeemed Preferred Shares plus accrued dividends thereon as of the applicable redemption date; and (4) amends the terms of the prepackaged bankruptcy plan (the Prepackaged Plan ) that the Company may or, under the terms of the Investment Agreement, may be required to file as an alternative means to implement the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement to account for the amended terms of the Exchange Offer.

Lock-Up Agreement

On August 31, 2009, concurrently with the execution of Amendment No. 2, the Company entered into a lock-up and voting agreement (the Lock-Up Agreement ) with holders of more than 75% of the Company's outstanding convertible notes, certain of which holders also hold term loans outstanding under the Company's senior secured credit facility (collectively, the Consenting Creditors ). Pursuant to, and subject to the terms set forth in the Lock-Up Agreement, each Consenting Creditor has irrevocably agreed, among other things:

to tender all convertible notes held or beneficially owned by it, or with respect to which it serves as manager or investment advisor having the unrestricted power to vote or dispose thereof, in the Exchange Offer on the terms set forth in Amendment No. 2;

to the extent such Consenting Creditors holds obligations under the Company's existing credit agreement, to accept its share of the prepayment of approximately $143 million of the term loans outstanding under the existing credit agreement applicable to the obligations under the existing credit agreement held by it, and, with respect to the remaining obligations under the existing credit agreement held by it, to execute an amendment and restatement of the existing credit agreement substantially in the form of the Amended Credit Agreement attached as to the Investment Agreement; and to vote all convertible notes and/or other obligations under the Company's existing credit agreement held by it in favor of the prepackaged plan contemplated by the Investment Agreement.

Each Consenting Creditor also agreed, from and after the date of the Lock-Up Agreement, not to directly or indirectly transfer any convertible note or term loan under the Company's senior secured credit facility or interest therein other than a transfer that (1) does not require registration under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and (2) that is in accordance with the terms of the Company's existing credit agreement and the indenture under which the convertible notes were issued, as applicable, to (a) a transferee that is a Consenting Creditor or any of its affiliates or (b) a transferee that is a Qualified Institutional Buyer within the meaning of Rule 144A promulgated under the Securities Act. Unless a transfer is being made to a Consenting Creditor, such transfer must be pursuant to a privately negotiated transaction and the transferee must execute and deliver to the Company a joinder agreement pursuant to which the transferee agrees to be bound by the terms of the Lock-Up Agreement.

In addition, under the Lock-Up Agreement, the Company has agreed that, among other things and subject to certain conditions, (1) holders of convertible notes representing at least a majority of the outstanding convertible notes may submit proposed persons to serve as the initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors (as defined in the Form of Stockholders Agreement attached as Exhibit C to the Investment Agreement) as of the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement, and the Company will consider in good faith any such proposed persons; (2) prior to the appointment of the initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors and prior to the closing of the Equity Investment, the Company will provide notice of the Company's proposed initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors; and (3) in the event that holders representing at least a majority of the outstanding convertible notes provide written notice to the Company that they object to the proposed initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors, the Company will propose alternative candidates to serve as the initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors so that at least one of the two initial Unaffiliated Shareholder Directors is acceptable to holders of convertible notes representing at least a majority of the outstanding convertible notes.

The Company has also agreed to enter into a registration rights agreement containing customary indemnification provisions for selling shareholders that will provide registration rights to the Consenting Creditors in the event that the transactions contemplated by the Equity Investment are consummated or, in the alternative, if the Prepackaged Plan is confirmed and the Common Stock received by the Consenting Creditors is not freely tradable pursuant to the provisions of Section 1145 of title 11 of the United States Code. Under such registration rights agreement, and subject to customary blackout periods in connection with earnings releases and material corporate developments, the Company will (1) no later than five business days following the closing of the Equity Investment or, in the alternative, the confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan, file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) a shelf registration statement covering resales of the Common Stock received by the Consenting Creditors on a delayed or continuous basis and (2) use its best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration until the earlier of (a) six months after the closing of the Equity Investment or, in the alternative, the confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan and (b) the date on which all such Common Stock held by the Consenting Creditors can be resold pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act without limitation as to volume or compliance with any manner of sale requirements. If, however, during the six months after the closing of the Equity Investment or, in the alternative, the confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan, there is not adequate current public information with respect to the Company for purposes of resales of Common Stock under Rule 144(c) under the Securities Act, then the Company will use its best efforts to maintain the effective of the registration until the earlier of (a) twelve months after the closing of the Equity Investment or, in the alternative, the confirmation of the Prepackaged Plan and (b) the date on which all such Common Stock held by the Consenting Creditors can be resold pursuant to Rule 144 of the Securities Act without limitation as to volume or compliance with any manner of sale requirements.

The Lock-Up Agreement may be terminated by holders of 66-2/3% of the convertible notes held by all Consenting Creditors under certain circumstances, including, among other things, if (1) an event occurs that would provide either the Company or the CD&R Fund with the right to terminate the Investment Agreement under the terms of the Investment Agreement, (2) the Investment Agreement is terminated; (3) there is a material breach of the Company's obligations under the Lock-Up Agreement; (4) the economic terms of the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement are altered or amended in a manner adverse to the consenting lenders; (5) the consideration (or mix of consideration) being offered in the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement is altered or amended; (6) the other terms of the transactions contemplated by the Investment Agreement are altered or amended in a manner materially adverse to the Consenting Creditors; or (7) the minimum tender condition of the proposed Exchange Offer is altered or amended, or an amendment to the existing credit agreement as contemplated by the Investment Agreement is executed and in effect and, at such time, such amendment is not binding on all lenders under the Company's existing credit agreement.
