may be required to reimburse SXL's expenses up to $30 million or pay SXL a termination fee equal to $630 million less any previous reimbursements by ETP.

ETE has agreed that until the Effective Time, termination of the Merger Agreement or an ETP Adverse Recommendation Change (as defined in the Merger Agreement), it will vote its limited partner interests in ETP in favor of approval of the Merger and the approval of any actions required in furtherance thereof. As of the date of the Merger Agreement, (i) ETE directly or indirectly owned 100% of the limited liability company interests in ETP GP and approximately 0.5% of the outstanding Common Units and (ii) ETP owned 99.9% of the limited liability company interests in SXL GP and approximately 21% of the outstanding SXL Common Units.

In addition to amendments related to the issuance of the Merger Consideration by SXL, the A&R Partnership Agreement includes amendments providing for the agreement by SXL GP, as the holder of all of the incentive distribution rights in SXL (the SXL IDRs), to waive the right to receive specified amounts of the SXL IDRs to which it would otherwise be entitled in the future. The specified amounts of SXL IDRs agreed to be waived by SXL GP in the A&R Partnership Agreement generally corresponds to the amounts of incentive distribution rights in ETP (the ETP IDRs) that ETP GP, as the holder of all of the ETP IDRs, had previously agreed to waive in amendments to ETP's agreement of limited partnership.

The Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated by reference. The foregoing summary has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about ETP, SXL or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by each of the parties to the Merger Agreement, which were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specified dates. The representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement; may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts; and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of ETP, SXL or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in ETP's or SXL's public disclosures.

Additional risks include: the ability to obtain requisite regulatory and unitholder approval and the satisfaction of the other conditions to the consummation of the proposed transaction, the ability of SXL to successfully integrate ETP's operations and employees and realize anticipated synergies and cost savings, the potential impact of the announcement or consummation of the proposed transaction on relationships, including with employees, suppliers, customers, competitors and credit rating agencies, the ability to achieve revenue, DCF and EBITDA growth, and volatility in the price of oil, natural gas, and natural gas liquids. Actual results and outcomes may differ materially from those expressed in such forward-looking statements. These and other risks and uncertainties are discussed in more detail in filings made by SXL and ETP with of Messrs.
