QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

WHY DID I RECEIVE THIS PROXY STATEMENT?

We are mailing this proxy statement to everyone who was a stockholder of record of our company on April 15, 2003. Only stockholders of record on the close of business on this date are entitled to vote at the meeting. The purposes of this proxy statement are:

- To let our stockholders know when and where we will hold our annual stockholders' meeting;
- To provide detailed information about the directors who will be voted on for re-election; and
- To provide updated information about our company you should consider in order to make an informed decision at the meeting.

At the close of business on the record date, there were 10,212,461 shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. There were approximately 650 holders of record. Each holder of record is entitled to one vote per share. To achieve a quorum at the meeting, a majority of our outstanding shares must be present either in person or by proxy.

WHAT WILL OCCUR AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

First, we will determine whether enough stockholders are present at the meeting to conduct business. A stockholder will be deemed to be "present" at the meeting if the stockholder is:

- Present in person, or
- Not present in person but has voted by proxy prior to the meeting.

According to our bylaws, holders of at least a majority of our outstanding shares must be present at this year's meeting in order to conduct the meeting. If holders of fewer than a majority of our outstanding shares are present at the meeting, we will reschedule the meeting. A new meeting date will be announced at the meeting.

After each proposal has been voted on at the meeting, we will discuss and take action on any other matter that is properly brought before the meeting. Also, some of our officers will report on our recent financial results and our current operations.

If enough stockholders are present at the meeting to conduct business, then we will vote on the proposal to re-elect the director nominees as members of our board of directors for the upcoming year. Our board of directors has approved this proposal and is now soliciting your vote on the proposal and recommends that you vote FOR the re-election of each of the director nominees.

HOW DO I VOTE IF I DO NOT PLAN TO ATTEND THE ANNUAL MEETING?

In addition to voting in person at the meeting, you may mark your selections on the enclosed proxy card, date and sign the card, and return the card in the enclosed envelope. We encourage you to vote now even if you plan to attend the meeting in person. If your shares are in a brokerage account, you may receive different voting instructions from your broker.

With respect to the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor or withheld. Votes that are withheld will be excluded in determining if nominee(s) have received a plurality of votes, but will be counted in determining if a quorum is present.

Please understand that voting by any means other than voting in person at the meeting has the effect of appointing Robin L. Morgan, our Vice-President of Administration, and William M. Warren, our Secretary, as your proxies. They will be required to vote exactly as you have voted on the election of directors described in this proxy statement. However, if any other matter requiring a stockholder vote is properly raised at the meeting, then Ms. Morgan and Mr. Warren will be authorized to use their discretion to vote on such issues on your behalf.

All shares of common stock represented at the annual meeting by properly executed proxies received prior to or at the meeting and not revoked will be voted at the meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated in such proxies. If no instructions are indicated on a proxy, it will be voted FOR the election of each of the nominees for director.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HOLDING SHARES AS A STOCKHOLDER OF RECORD AND AS A BENEFICIAL OWNER?

Many Leather Factory ("TLF") stockholders hold their shares through a broker or other nominee rather than directly in their own name. There are some distinctions between shares held of record and those owned beneficially.

Stockholder of Record. If your shares are registered directly in your name with TLF's transfer agent, Securities Transfer Corporation, you are considered, with respect to those shares, the stockholder of record, and these proxy materials are being sent directly to you by us. As the stockholder of record, you have the right to grant your voting proxy directly to TLF or to vote in person at the meeting. We have enclosed or sent a proxy card for you to use.

Beneficial Owner. If your shares are held in a brokerage account or by another nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you together with a voting instruction card. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker or nominee how to vote and are also invited to attend the annual meeting.

Since a beneficial owner is not the stockholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the meeting unless you obtain a "legal proxy" from the broker, trustee or nominee that holds your shares, giving you the right to vote the shares at the meeting. Your broker, trustee or nominee has enclosed or provided voting instructions for you to use in directing the broker, trustee or nominee how to vote your shares.

WHAT IF I HOLD MY SHARES IN "STREET NAME," AND I DO NOT GIVE INSTRUCTIONS TO MY BROKER OR NOMINEE?

In general, the broker or nominee would have the discretion to vote these shares. Should there be any "broker non-votes," they will be counted as shares that are present determining the presence of a quorum. At present, we are not aware of anything that will come before the meeting involving matters where American Stock Exchange rules bar brokers and nominees from voting if the beneficial owner fails to execute and return a proxy.

HOW MANY VOTES ARE NECESSARY TO RE-ELECT THE NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR?

Each nominee must receive the affirmative vote of a plurality of shares either present at the meeting or represented by proxy to be elected. The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares either present at the meeting or represented by proxy is required on any other action that may properly be presented at the meeting. Cumulative voting is not allowed.

You should note that certain officers and directors of the Company own approximately three-fifths of the outstanding shares of common stock that will be entitled to vote at the meeting (see "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management"). We anticipate that these shares will be voted in favor of the nominees for director. Thus, approval of the nominees for director is likely.

WHAT IF A NOMINEE IS UNWILLING OR UNABLE TO STAND FOR ELECTION?

Each of the persons nominated for election has agreed to stand for election. We are not aware of any intention of any nominee not to stand for election or any circumstances which would cause any nominee not to stand for election. However, if unexpected events arise which cause one or more of the nominees to be unable to stand for election, then one of the following would occur:

- Our board of directors can vote at the meeting to reduce the size of the board of directors;
- Our board of directors may, during the meeting, nominate another person for director; or
- Pursuant to our bylaws, the board of directors could leave the vacancy open until the board appoints a new director at a later time.

Your vote is completely confidential.

It is important for you to understand that if our board of directors nominates someone at the meeting, the person to whom you have given your proxy will be able to use his or her discretion to vote on your behalf for the candidate of his or her choice.

Edgar Filing: LEATHER FACTORY INC - Form DEF 14A

WHO COUNTS THE VOTES AND HOW ARE THE VOTES TREATED?

We will appoint two persons as inspectors of election for the meeting who will count the votes cast. They will treat shares represented by proxies that withhold authority as shares that are present and entitled to vote when determining if a quorum exists for any matter voted upon by the stockholders.

WHAT IF I WANT TO CHANGE MY VOTE?

You can change your vote on a proposal at any time before the meeting for any reason by revoking your proxy. Proxies may be revoked by:

- Filing a written notice of revocation, which includes a later date than the proxy date, with our secretary at or before the meeting;
- Properly executing a later proxy relating to the same shares; or
- Attending the meeting and voting in person; however, attendance at the meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of a proxy.

Any written notice revoking a proxy should be sent to: Secretary, The Leather Factory, Inc., 3847 East Loop 820 South, Fort Worth, Texas 76119.

WHO PAYS FOR THIS SOLICITATION?

We, the company, will pay for the cost of soliciting proxies. Our directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies. They will not be paid for soliciting the proxies but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses related to the proxy solicitation. Proxies may be solicited in person, by mail, by telephone, by telegram or other means of communication. We will make arrangements with custodians, nominees and fiduciaries in order to forward proxy solicitation materials to beneficial owners of common stock.

WHO IS OUR INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT?

Our board of directors selected Hein + Associates LLP to serve as our independent public accountant for the year ended December 31, 2002. A representative of Hein + Associates LLP is expected to attend the meeting. The representative will have the opportunity to make a statement at the meeting and respond to appropriate questions from you, our stockholders. Our Audit Committee has not named the independent public accounting firm that will serve as outside auditor for 2003.

WHAT FEES DID WE PAY TO OUR INDEPENDENT AUDITORS DURING THIS PAST YEAR?

Audit Fees. During 2002, we paid Hein + Associates LLP an aggregate of $45,436 for professional services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements and the reviews of our financial statements included in our Forms 10-Q.

Tax and All Other Fees. There were no fees paid to Hein + Associates LLP for tax or any other non-audit services in 2002.

HOW DO I RAISE AN ISSUE FOR DISCUSSION OR VOTE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

Edgar Filing: LEATHER FACTORY INC - Form DEF 14A

If you wish to present a proposal for consideration at an annual meeting, you must send written notice of the proposal to our corporate secretary. We have not received notice of any stockholder proposals to be presented at this year's meeting.

If you would like your proposal to be included in next year's proxy statement, you must submit it to our corporate secretary by no later than December 26, 2003. We will include your proposal in our next annual proxy statement if it is a proposal that we would be required to include pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

You may write to our corporate secretary at 3847 East Loop 820 South, Fort Worth, Texas 76119 to present a proposal for consideration.

If a stockholder raises a matter at the meeting that requires a stockholder vote, the person to whom you have given your proxy will use his or her discretion to vote on the matter on your behalf.

According to our by-laws, any proposal properly raised at the meeting by a stockholder will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares deemed present at the meeting, whether in person or by proxy.

HOW CAN I RECEIVE A COPY OF THE ANNUAL REPORT?

We provide a free copy of our Annual Report on Form 10-K that includes the financial statements and schedules, but does not include the exhibits. If you would also like the report's exhibits, we will provide copies of the exhibits. We may charge a reasonable fee for providing these exhibits.

In order to receive this report, you must request a report in writing and mail the request to The Leather Factory, Inc., PO Box 50429, Fort Worth, Texas 76105-0429, Attention: Shannon L. Greene, Chief Financial Officer.
