PROXY STATEMENT, DATED MAY 6, 2005

PATRIOT NATIONAL BANCORP, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON JUNE 15, 2005

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement (this "Proxy Statement") is being furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Patriot National Bancorp, Inc. ("Bancorp") of proxies from holders of Bancorp's Common Stock, $2.00 par value ("Common Stock"), to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on June 15, 2005 and at any adjournments thereof. The time and place of the Annual Meeting, as well as the purposes therefor, are set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy are first being sent or given to shareholders is May 6, 2005. In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers and certain management employees of us or our subsidiary, Patriot National Bank (the "Bank"), may solicit by telephone or in person the return of signed proxies from shareholders without additional remuneration therefor.

Any proxy given by a shareholder may be revoked at any time before its exercise, and any shareholder who executes and returns a proxy and who attends the Annual Meeting may withdraw the proxy at any time before it is voted and vote his or her shares in person. A proxy may also be revoked by submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by giving notice to the Secretary of Bancorp in writing (at our address indicated above) or in open meeting prior to the taking of a vote.

Unless so revoked, the proxy will be voted at the Annual Meeting, and unless authorization to vote for the election of directors or for any particular nominee is withheld, the shares represented by such proxy will be voted FOR the nominees set forth in this Proxy Statement with the votes cumulated as determined by the proxy holders. If authorization to vote for any nominee or nominees is withheld in a proxy, the votes of the shares represented thereby will be distributed among the remaining nominees in the manner determined by the persons named in the proxy, unless contrary instructions are given. Proxies containing instructions on Proposal 2 (the ratification of the appointment of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP as independent auditors for 2005) will be voted in accordance with such instructions. If no instructions are contained on Proposal 2, proxies will be voted FOR the proposal. Under our By-Laws for the election of directors, where the holders of the Common Stock have cumulative voting, the nominees receiving the largest number of votes will be elected. Under our By-Laws, approval of Proposal 2 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. An abstention or a broker non-vote will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present but will not be counted as votes cast.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS

The record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournments thereof has been set as April 28, 2005 (the "Record Date"). As of the Record Date, there were 2,489,391 shares of Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote multiplied by the number of directors to be elected with respect to the election of directors and to one vote on each other matter submitted to the Annual Meeting.

There is no person who, to the knowledge of our Board of Directors, owns beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding Common Stock other than (1) Angelo De Caro, who is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and a director of Bancorp, and the shareholder listed under "Election of Directors--Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management."; and (2) Barry Lewis, who owns 201,439 shares, or 8.1%. Information as to the number of shares of Common Stock owned by each of our directors and by each nominee for election as a director of Bancorp and each principal shareholder is set forth below under "Election of Directors--Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management"

To our knowledge, no arrangement exists the operation of which might result in a change in control of Bancorp. However, Angelo De Caro has received authority from the Federal Reserve Bank of New York to acquire up to 35% of the Common Stock.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Directors; Nominees

The number of directors to be elected at the Annual Meeting has been set at nine by action of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation and the By-Laws of Bancorp. The directors are elected annually by the shareholders by ballot. With respect to the election of directors, the holders of Common Stock have cumulative voting. Cumulative voting means that each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. Such votes may be cumulated and cast for a single candidate or may be distributed among two or more candidates in the manner selected by the shareholder. In the event a shareholder submitting a proxy does not specify how the votes attributable to the shares represented thereby are to be distributed, the persons named in the proxy will determine how such votes are to be distributed among the candidates. The nominees receiving the largest number of votes will be elected. Each director holds office until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until his or her successor is elected and qualifies (or until his or her earlier resignation, death or removal). Each of the nominees has consented to being named in this Proxy Statement and to serve as a director if elected. Each of the directors also serves as a director of the Bank. Paul C. Settelmeier, age 59, a director of us and the Bank since 2001, will not stand for re-election in 2005, as he has accepted a position as President, Chief Operating Officer and Director of Golden First Bank in New York.

The persons named in the form of proxy to represent shareholders at the Annual Meeting are John A. Geoghegan, L. Morris Glucksman and Michael F. Intrieri. It is the intention of the persons named in the proxy to vote FOR the election of the nominees unless authority to vote is withheld with respect to one or more nominees. In the event that any nominee for director should become unavailable for election for any reason, the persons named in the proxy will consult with our management and use their discretion in deciding whether and how to vote the shares represented by such proxies.

The names of the nominees for election as directors are set forth below, together with their principal occupations and employment, ages, directorships in publicly held companies and any company registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, directorships in other companies and lengths of service as directors. Each of the persons named below has a business address c/o Patriot National Bancorp, Inc., 900 Bedford Street, Stamford, Connecticut 06901. There is no arrangement or understanding between any director and any other person or persons pursuant to which such director was or is to be selected as a director or nominee. The functions of the Audit Committee include (i) reviewing and recommending policies regarding internal audit and credit review, (ii) establishing and implementing policies to comply with applicable regulations, (iii) causing suitable audits to be made by auditors engaged by the Audit Committee on behalf of us, (iv) pre-approving all audit services and permitted non-audit services provided by the auditors, and (v) reviewing the independence of the auditors and the "audit committee financial experts" on the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee or its Chairman also discusses with the independent auditor the auditor's review of our unaudited quarterly financial statements. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors. The members of the Audit Committee are Messrs. Settlemeyer, Ferguson, Fitzgerald and Intrieri, each of whom is an independent director as defined by NASDAQ rules. Mr. Settlemeyer and Mr. Fitzgerald have been determined to have the professional experience deemed necessary to qualify as an audit committee financial expert under Securities and Exchange Commission rules. During 2004, the Audit Committee of Bancorp met six times. The Report of the Audit Committee for the year ended December 31, 2004 is set forth under "Election of Directors -Report by the Audit Committee."

The functions of the Loan Committee include examining, reviewing and approving loans, reviewing and approving loan policies and establishing appropriate levels of credit risk and exercising, when the Board of Directors is not in session, all other powers of the Board of Directors regarding extensions of credit that may lawfully be delegated. Ferguson, Geoghegan, Glucksman, Intrieri and Settlemeyer. All members are independent directors in accordance with NASDAQ requirements. During 2004, the Compensation Committee met two times.

Nomination Process

The process of reviewing and making recommendations for nominations and appointments to the Board of Directors is the responsibility of the Nominating and Governance Committee. All members are "independent" directors pursuant to NASDAQ requirements. A copy of the Nominating and Governance Committee Charter is attached to this proxy statement as Exhibit A. Under Bancorp's By-Laws, nominations for directors may be made by any shareholder of any outstanding class of capital stock of Bancorp who delivers notice along with the additional information and materials required by our charter to Bancorp's President not less than 14 days and no more than 50 days before the annual meeting. Shareholders may obtain a copy of our Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws by writing to our Corporate Secretary, 900 Bedford Street, Stamford, Connecticut 06901.

Our directors have a critical role in guiding our strategic direction and in overseeing management. The Nominating Committee will consider candidates for the Board based upon several criteria, including their broad-based business and professional skills and experiences, concern for the long-term interests of shareholders, and personal integrity and judgment. Candidates should have reputations, both personal and professional, consistent with our image and reputation. The majority of directors on the Board of Directors should be "independent," not only as that term may be legally defined, but also without the appearance of any conflict in serving as a director. In addition, directors must have time available to devote to Board activities and to enhance their knowledge of the banking industry. Accordingly, the Board of Directors seeks to attract and retain highly qualified directors who have sufficient time to attend to their substantial duties and responsibilities to Bancorp, and may be expected to contribute to an effective Board.

The Nominating Committee utilizes the following process for identifying and evaluating nominees to the Board. In the case of incumbent directors, each year the Board of Directors informally reviews directors' overall service to Bancorp during their term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation and quality of performance. In the case of new director candidates, the directors on the Board of Directors are polled for suggestions as to potential candidates that may meet the criteria above, discuss candidates suggested by our shareholders, and may also engage, if the Board of Directors deems appropriate, a professional search firm. To date, the Nominating Committee has not engaged professional search firms to identify or evaluate potential nominees but has the right to do so in the future, if necessary. The Nominating Committee then meets to discuss and consider these candidates' qualifications and then chooses a candidate by majority vote. Each of the nominees for director listed above were recommended by the Nominating Committee in 2005. Mr. Fitzgerald was added as a director by the Board of Directors by action in February 2005 effective in March 2005, upon the recommendation of the Nominating Committee.

Bancorp and the Bank entered into a three-year employment agreement with Charles F. Howell, dated October 23, 2003, pursuant to which Mr. Howell serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Bank and as President of Bancorp until December 31, 2006. Mr. Howell's base salary was $225,000 for the first year, $240,000 for the second year and will be $260,000 for the third year. Mr. Howell is entitled to receive annual discretionary cash bonuses in amounts to be determined by the Board of Directors.

If Mr. Howell's employment is terminated for cause (as defined in the agreement) or because of his death or disability, all unvested restricted stock awards and options will be forfeited. Mr. Howell was issued stock grants under his prior employment contract and may participate in future option grants if made by us. In the event that Mr. Howell's employment terminates for any other reason, including termination following a change of control (as defined in the agreement), all restricted stock awards and options will vest immediately.

In the event of the early termination of the agreement with Mr. Howell for any reason other than cause, he would be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to the greater of the aggregate salary payments that would be made to him for the remaining term of the agreement or 18 months of his stipulated base salary at the time of termination. In connection with a change of control (as defined in the agreement), in addition to immediate vesting of all restricted stock awards and options or cash payments in lieu thereof, Mr. Howell would be entitled to receive a lump sum cash payment equal to two times the greater of (i) Mr. Howell's then annual base salary; (ii) Mr. Howell's cash compensation from the Bank for services rendered for the last full calendar year immediately preceding the change of control; or (iii) Mr. Howell's average annual cash compensation for the two most recent taxable years ending before the date on which the change of control occurs.

Bancorp and the Bank entered into an employment agreement with Robert F. O'Connell, dated November 3, 2003, pursuant to which Mr. O'Connell serves as Chief Financial Officer and Senior Executive Vice President of the Bank until December 31, 2007. Mr. O'Connell's base salary is currently $175,000, subject to review and increase by the Board of Directors each year. If Mr. O'Connell's employment terminates without cause (as defined in the agreement), Mr. O'Connell would be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to the aggregate salary payments (based on the rate then in effect) for the balance of the employment period. If Mr. O'Connell's employment terminates without cause following a change of control (as defined in the agreement), he would be entitled to receive the greater of the amount described in the preceding sentence or the amount payable pursuant to his change of control agreement described below.

The Bank also entered into a change of control agreement with Mr. O'Connell pursuant to which he would be entitled to receive a lump sum cash payment if a change of control (as defined in the agreement) occurs while he is a full-time officer of the Bank or within six months following termination of his employment other than for cause (as defined in the agreement) or by death or disability. The amount of the payment would be equal to the greater of two times (i) the then current year's base salary or (ii) Mr. O'Connell's total compensation, including salary and any cash incentive compensation from the Bank for the last full calendar year preceding the change of control.

The Bank entered into an employment agreement, dated January 1, 2005, with Marcus Zavattaro pursuant to which Mr. Zavattaro serves as Executive Vice President of the Bank and Division Sales Manager of the Bank's Residential Lending Group until December 31, 2005. Mr. Zavattaro is entitled to receive salary and commissions totaling between $150,000 and $400,000 depending upon the amount of the fee income he generates from mortgage transactions. In addition, Mr. Zavattaro is entitled to receive incentive payments if the Residential Lending Group meets certain annual financial targets.

The Bank has also entered into a change of control agreement with Mr. Martin G. Noble pursuant to which he would be entitled to receive a lump sum cash payment equal to his annual base salary if a change of control (as defined in the agreement) occurs while he is a full-time officer of the Bank or within six months following termination of his employment other than for cause (as defined in the agreement) or by death or disability.

Exercise of rights under a change of control agreement by any executive officer will not result in adverse tax consequences to us under Section 280G of the Code.

Options and Stock Appreciation Rights

During 2004, Bancorp did not grant stock options or stock appreciation rights to any of the named executive officers.

During 2001, we adopted the Patriot National Bancorp, Inc. 2001 Stock Appreciation Rights Plan. Under the terms of the plan, Bancorp may grant stock appreciation rights, or SARs, to our officers that entitle them to receive upon exercise, in cash or shares of Common Stock, the appreciation in the value of the Common Stock from the date of grant. Each award vests at the rate of 20% per year from the date of grant. Any unexercised rights will expire ten years from the date of grant. As of March 31, 2005, there were 14,400 SARs issued and outstanding

In connection with our holding company reorganization in 1999, Bancorp adopted the Bank's stock option plan. Under such plan, an aggregate of 110,000 shares were available for issuance thereunder, all of which have been awarded. There are no shares available for future grant under this plan.

The following table sets forth information as to options exercised by the named executive officers during 2004 and the values of options and stock appreciation rights as of December 31, 2004.

Transactions with Management and Others

In the ordinary course of business, the Bank has made loans to officers and directors (including loans to members of their immediate families and loans to companies of which a director owns 10% or more). The total amount of loans to officers and directors outstanding as of December 31, 2004 was $198,586. In the opinion of management, all of such loans were made in the ordinary course of business of the Bank on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral requirements, as those then prevailing for comparable transactions with other persons and did not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

We have entered into two agreements with one of our directors, L. Morris Glucksman, Esq., for approximately 1,100 square feet of space in the building at 900 Bedford Street and 150 square feet of space in our building at 838 High Ridge Road, each at per square foot rental rates not to exceed the rental rates paid by us from time to time. The Bedford Street lease has expired but Mr. Glucksman continues to occupy the space on a month to month basis at the same rent. The High Ridge Road agreement is revocable at any time.

REPORT BY THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter, dated October 14, 2003, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to Bancorp's 2004 Proxy Statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Board of Directors, in its business judgment, has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee is independent, as required by the applicable listing standards of The NASDAQ Stock Market, Inc. The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Settlemeyer and Fitzgerald each has the professional experience necessary to qualify as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of the Securities and Exchange Commission rules.

In performing its function, the Audit Committee has:

- reviewed and discussed our audited financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2004 with management and with McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, our independent auditors for 2004;
- discussed with our independent auditor the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as currently in effect; and
- received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as currently in effect, and has discussed with the independent auditors the independent auditors' independence. The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of non-audit services by the independent auditor to us is compatible with maintaining the accountants' independence and has discussed with McGladrey & Pullen, LLP their independence.

Based on the foregoing review and discussions, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that our audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2004 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

THE REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE SHALL NOT BE DEEMED INCORPORATED BY REFERENCE INTO ANY FILING UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 OR THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT THAT WE SPECIFICALLY INCORPORATE IT BY REFERENCE, AND SHALL NOT OTHERWISE BE DEEMED TO BE FILED UNDER SUCH ACTS.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Our Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer are required to comply with the Patriot National Bancorp, Inc. The Code of Conduct is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Shareholders may also request a copy of the Code, without charge, by contacting Robert F. O'Connell, Patriot National Bancorp, Inc., 900 Bedford Street, Stamford, Connecticut 06901 (203) 324-7500.

PROPOSAL 2 RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

Our Audit Committee has approved the engagement of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, independent auditors, to audit the books, records and accounts of Bancorp for the year ending December 31, 2005. In accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors, this selection is being presented to the shareholders for ratification at the Annual Meeting.

McGladrey & Pullen, LLP has served as independent auditor of us and the Bank since 1994 and is considered to be well qualified. We have been advised by McGladrey & Pullen, LLP that it has no direct financial interest or any material indirect financial interest in us other than that arising from the firm's employment as independent auditor.

McGladrey & Pullen, LLP performs both audit and non-audit professional services for us and on our behalf. During 2004, the audit services included an audit of our consolidated financial statements and a review of certain filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All professional services rendered by McGladrey & Pullen, LLP during 2004 were furnished at customary rates and terms.

During the period covering the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, McGladrey & Pullen, LLP and RSM McGladrey, Inc. performed the following professional services:

	2004	2003

Tax Service Fees consist of fees for tax return preparation, planning and tax advice.	$20,656	$17,237
Other Fees	-	-

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services

The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and non-audit services provided by the independent public accountants. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. Pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year and any pre-approval is detailed as to the particular service or category of services and is generally subject to a specific budget. The Audit Committee has delegated pre-approval authority to its Chair when expedition of services is necessary. The Chair is required to report any decisions to pre-approve such services to the full Audit Committee at its next meeting. The independent public accountants and management are required to periodically report to the full Audit Committee regarding the extent of services provided by the independent public accountants in accordance with this pre-approval, and the fees for the services performed to date. The Audit Committee approved all of the fees set forth in the table above.

A representative of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting and will be provided the opportunity to make a statement and to respond to appropriate questions that may be asked by shareholders.

If the shareholders do not ratify the selection of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP, the selection of independent auditor will be reconsidered by the Board of Directors.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Any shareholder who intends to present a proposal at the 2006 Annual Meeting is advised that, in order for such proposal to be included in the Board of Directors' proxy material for such meeting, the proposal must be received by us at our principal executive office no later than December 31, 2005 directed to Angelo De Caro, Patriot National Bancorp, Inc., 900 Bedford Street, Stamford, Connecticut 06901.

If any shareholder proposes to make any proposal at the 2006 Annual Meeting which proposal will not be included in Bancorp's proxy statement for such meeting, such proposal must be received by March 16, 2006 to be considered timely for purposes of Rule 14a-4(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"). The form of proxy distributed by the Board of Directors for such meeting will confer discretionary authority to vote on any such proposal not received by such date. If any such proposal is received by such date, the proxy statement for the meeting will provide advice on the nature of the matter and how we intend to exercise our discretion to vote on each such matter.

We have not had a formal process for shareholder communications with the Board of Directors. We have, however, made an effort to ensure that the Board of Directors or individual Directors, if applicable, consider the views of our shareholders. We believe that our responsiveness to shareholder communications to the Board of Directors has been excellent. Shareholders may communicate with the Board of Directors by written communication to Angelo De Caro, Patriot National Bancorp, Inc., 900 Bedford Street, Stamford, Connecticut 06901.

COST OF SOLICITATION

We will bear the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing the notice, proxy statement and proxy for the Annual Meeting. Solicitation of proxies will be primarily through the use of the mails, but our regular employees may solicit proxies by personal contact, by telephone or by telegraph without additional remuneration therefor. Banks, brokerage houses and other institutions, nominees or fiduciaries will be notified and supplied with sufficient copies of proxies, proxy soliciting material and annual reports in order to obtain authorization for the execution of proxies by their beneficial holders. We will, upon request, reimburse banks, brokerage houses and other institutions, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses in forwarding proxy material to their beneficial holders. All expenses associated with the solicitation of proxies in the form enclosed will be borne by us. We will also make arrangements with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send proxy materials to their principals and will reimburse those parties for their expenses in doing so.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the Board of Directors knows of no other matters to be voted upon at the Annual Meeting.
