PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Obsidian Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company") was unable to file its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004, within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort and expense. Specifically, the Company required additional time to file its Form 10-K because McGladrey & Pullen, LLP ("McGladrey"), the Company's independent auditor, will be unable to complete its audit procedures prior to January 31, 2005 and, for that reason, cannot provide the audit report which is required to be filed with the Form 10-K. McGladrey has informed the Company that it was unable to complete audit procedures for certain subsidiaries of the Company because of the failure of certain third parties to provide necessary information, which in turn delayed the audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements. The statement of McGladrey & Pullen, LLP required by Rule 12b-25(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is attached as an exhibit hereto.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No
- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

It is currently anticipated that net loss for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004 will be approximately $7.9 million, compared to net loss for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004 of approximately $3.9 million. Additionally, McGladrey has informed the Company that there is a substantial likelihood that McGladrey's report on the audited financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004 will contain a going concern qualification.
