FIRST TRUST/ABERDEEN GLOBAL OPPORTUNITY INCOME FUND

The primary investment objective of First Trust/Aberdeen Global Opportunity Income Fund ("FAM") is to seek a high level of current income. The secondary objective is to seek capital appreciation. In pursuit of this objective, the Fund invests in the world bond markets through a diversified portfolio of investment grade and below-investment grade government and corporate debt securities.

FUND RECAP

FAM produced a net asset value ("NAV") total return of 5.1% and a market value total return of 1.6% over the six months ended June 30, 2007, compared to the benchmark* of 2.0%. In addition to this blended benchmark the Fund is currently using for comparative purposes, in the past, the Fund has used other comparative indexes. The total returns over the six months ended June 30, 2007 for these indexes were as follows: The Lehman Global Emerging Markets Index was up 0.4%; and the Lehman Global Aggregate Index was up 1.0%. The outperformance can be attributed to all three components of the portfolio: global bonds, external emerging markets and local emerging markets returning 8.0%, 1.9% and 16.3%, respectively, over the same period. The local bonds with the highest returns were Brazil (24.5%) and Turkey (21.1%). External emerging market bonds had a less impressive return of 1.9%, compared to the benchmark return of 0.9%, with the highest return coming from the Dominican Republic (11.5%). Russian corporates outperformed sovereign debt, which is made up of sovereign bonds, as the benchmark returned only 0.2% while the Fund's return in Russia was 3.8% made up entirely of corporate bonds including banks, telecoms and steel companies.

PERFORMANCE ANALYSIS

Yields on developed market government bonds rose sharply in most markets over the six months ended June 30, 2007. U.S. Treasury yields rose by 40 basis points ("bps") across the yield curve, with 10-year Treasuries reaching a high of 5.3% before ending at around 5.0%. European government bond yields continued to rise, with Eurozone and United Kingdom ("UK") yields up 70 bps to approximately 4.5% and 5.5%, respectively. Japanese yields also rose, although in a more muted fashion, with the two-year yield close to 1.0% for the first time since 1997. Peripheral market spreads were mixed, with Australia outperforming the U.S., while New Zealand and Canada underperformed. In Europe, local currency bond returns were negative in all markets.

BOND PERFORMANCE

Poor bond performance was driven by hawkish central banks and very strong equity market performance and money and credit growth around the world. Central banks in the UK, Eurozone, Canada, New Zealand, Sweden and Norway all continued to tighten policy in response to robust economic data and strong energy and food commodity price gains. Norway tightened rates four times to 4.5% during the period, the New Zealand and the UK each three times to 8.0% and 5.75%, respectively. The European Central Bank lifted policy rates to 4.0% from 3.5% and the Bank of Japan resumed its tightening campaign, with a modest 25 bps hike to 0.5%.

Concerns about inflation were often cited as contributing to lower bond prices over the period; however, market based indicators of inflation expectations remain muted. Credit spreads came under some pressure as further negative news about the value of U.S. mortgage credit securities led to greater hedging of credit risk by market participants. Despite these worries, higher-yielding currencies continued to perform strongly, with robust commodity price gains and growth in the emerging world and Asia appearing that they should be able to be sustained.

Both the U.S. Dollar and the Japanese Yen were weak in the first half of 2007, with emerging market and commodity-linked currencies the main beneficiaries. Divergent terms of trade and interest rate spreads supported these moves; although the pace of appreciation was perhaps in excess of changes in these variables. Some correction of these moves in the third quarter would not be unlikely given the size of positions short-term traders appear to have accumulated and the scale of the moves, however, the trends toward greater diversification of currency reserves and more flexibility in Asian exchange rates appear set to be longer term influences.

ALLOCATIONS AND THEIR EFFECT ON THE PORTFOLIO

The portfolio's allocations to developed market bonds remained broadly the same over the first half of 2007. Australia, the UK, Canada and New Zealand are the major developed market bond positions. Holding shorter duration securities in Canada and the UK mitigated against sharp rises in interest rates. Australia showed positive local currency performance and despite three interest rate increases, longer dated New Zealand Kiwi bonds posted almost flat local currency returns over the period. Credit quality in the developed portfolio remains very high with little exposure outside government and sovereign agency bonds. U.S. Dollar returns were strong as a result of sharp appreciation in the currencies to which the developed market portfolio is exposed; the Australian Dollar, Canadian Dollar and Pound Sterling had spot returns of 7.6%, 9.4% and 2.3%, respectively. The portfolio remains long in Sterling, the Australian and Canadian Dollars, and Southeast Asian currencies, the Singapore Dollar and the Malaysian Ringgit.

Spreads in emerging market debt ranged from a high of 204 bps to a low of 162 bps over U.S. Treasuries over the period this report covers. Countries which underperformed the index were Argentina and Venezuela due to several factors. In Argentina, rising inflation and a worsening energy crisis lead to power shortages while investors were very long Argentinean debt, leading to excessive selling over the period. Over the period the Fund sold its external Argentina holdings in favor of the short-dated local currency bonds. Venezuela also underperformed the benchmark due to investor concerns over Hugo Chavez, the Venezuelan President, who has recently stated that he is going to take Venezuela out of the International Monetary Fund ("IMF"), causing a technical default on the bonds.

Colombian external bonds outperformed over the period due to the country's high growth and decreased supply of the external bonds with the finance minister issuing local bonds and buying back the country's external debt. The central bank of Brazil has cut the Selic, the central bank rate, from 13.25% to 12.00%. The general expectation is for further rate cuts this year and into next year due to stable and low inflation in Brazil.

Turkey is also experiencing strong demand for its local debt which has been very strong, due to very high nominal and real yields. There was a parliamentary election in Turkey in July which resulted in a victory for the Justice and Development Party, which the Sub-Advisor believes was the preferred outcome from a market perspective.

In Ukraine, political noise has subsided following an agreement between President Yuschenko and Prime Minister Yanukovich to hold early parliamentary elections on September 30, 2007.

SUB-ADVISOR Q&A

WHAT IS YOUR OUTLOOK FOR VARIOUS CURRENCIES/DEBT FOR DIFFERENT REGIONS?

The Yen is expected to remain volatile but on a weakening trend, and the European and commodity currencies should continue to see appreciation pressures against it and the U.S. Dollar later in the second half of the year.

It is the Sub-Advisor's view that Venezuela will not be out of the IMF and, therefore, Venezuelan bonds appear attractive due to the high yields on offer.

The Brazilian Real also appears strong as Brazilian real Gross Domestic Product has continued to increase, leading to increased foreign currency reserves which support the external debt of the country.

Turkey's debt has remained strong with no signs of weakness. The Turkish Lira has also strengthened against the U.S. Dollar as investors have been attracted by the high interest rates on offer.

The Ukraine continues to benefit from a robust growth outlook and very limited indebtedness.

WHAT IS YOUR OVERALL OUTLOOK FOR FAM?

Strong growth outside the U.S. should keep upward pressure on the Group of Ten ("G10") bond yields, although concerns over inflation should turn out to be misplaced. Modest widening of credit spreads in European markets should not be enough to damage corporate investment intentions and further monetary tightening is to be expected in Europe. Asian exchange rate policy will be a key variable; any moves to increase the flexibility of the Chinese currency should lead to a further weakening of the U.S. Dollar against a wide range of currencies. Commodity prices are underpinning strong secular uptrends in the Australian, Canadian and New Zealand Dollars. Unless growth in the emerging world drops sharply, these trends are likely to continue in the second half of 2007.

Aberdeen anticipates that emerging markets will continue to perform well and any weakness is likely to come from an external shock to the global market causing a reduction in global liquidity.

FIRST TRUST/ABERDEEN GLOBAL OPPORTUNITY INCOME FUND
JUNE 30, 2007 (UNAUDITED)

1. FUND DESCRIPTION

First Trust/Aberdeen Global Opportunity Income Fund (the "Fund") is a diversified, closed-end management investment company organized as a Massachusetts business trust on September 7, 2004 and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"). The Fund trades under the ticker symbol FAM on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE").

The Fund's primary investment objective is to seek a high level of current income. As a secondary objective, the Fund seeks capital appreciation. The Fund pursues these objectives by investing in the world bond markets through a diversified portfolio of investment grade and below-investment grade government and corporate debt securities. There can be no assurance that the Fund's investment objectives will be achieved.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

A. PORTFOLIO VALUATION:

The Fund determines the net asset value ("NAV") of its Common Shares daily as of the close of regular session trading on the NYSE, normally 4:00 p.m. Eastern time, on each day the NYSE is open for trading. Domestic debt securities and foreign securities are priced using data reflecting the earlier closing of the principal markets for those securities. The Fund calculates NAV per Common Share by subtracting the Fund's liabilities (including accrued expenses, dividends payable and any borrowings of the Fund) and the liquidation value of any outstanding Preferred Shares, if any, from the Fund's Total Assets (the value of the securities and other investments the Fund holds plus cash or other assets, including interest accrued but not yet received) and dividing the result by the total number of Common Shares outstanding.

The Fund's investments are valued daily at market value or, in the absence of market value with respect to any portfolio securities, at fair value according to procedures adopted by the Fund's Board of Trustees. A majority of the Fund's assets are valued using market information supplied by third parties. In addition, structured products, including currency-linked notes and credit-linked notes, as well as interest rate swaps and credit default swaps, are valued using a pricing service or quotes provided by the selling dealer or financial institution. In the event that market quotations are not readily available, the pricing service does not provide a valuation for a particular asset, or the valuations are deemed unreliable, or if events occurring after the close of the principal markets for particular securities (e.g., domestic debt and foreign securities), but before the Fund values its assets, would materially affect NAV, First Trust Advisors L.P. ("First Trust") may use a fair value method to value the Fund's securities and investments. The use of fair value pricing by the Fund is governed by valuation procedures adopted by the Fund's Board of Trustees, and in accordance with the provisions of the 1940 Act.

B. FORWARD FOREIGN CURRENCY CONTRACTS:

Forward foreign currency contracts are agreements to exchange one currency for another at a future date and at a specified price. The Fund may use forward foreign currency contracts to facilitate transactions in foreign securities and to manage the Fund's foreign currency exposure. These contracts are valued daily, and the Fund's net equity therein, representing unrealized gain or loss on the contracts as measured by the difference between the forward foreign exchange rates at the dates of entry into the contracts and the forward rates at the reporting date, is included in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities. Risks arise from the possible inability of counterparties to meet the terms of their contracts and from movement in currency and securities values and interest rates. Due to the risks, the Fund could incur losses up to the entire contract amount, which may exceed the net unrealized value shown in the Schedule of Forward Foreign Currency Contracts.

C. SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS AND INVESTMENT INCOME:

Securities transactions are recorded as of the trade date. Realized gains and losses from securities transactions are recorded on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis, including amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts.

Securities purchased or sold on a when-issued or delayed-delivery basis may be settled a month or more after the trade date; interest income on such securities is not accrued until settlement date. The Fund maintains liquid assets with a current value at least equal to the amount of its when-issued or delayed-delivery purchase commitments. At June 30, 2007, the Fund had no when-issued or delayed-delivery purchase commitments.

FIRST TRUST/ABERDEEN GLOBAL OPPORTUNITY INCOME FUND
 JUNE 30, 2007 (UNAUDITED)

D. FOREIGN CURRENCY:

The books and records of the Fund are maintained in U.S. dollars. Foreign currencies, investments and other assets and liabilities are translated into U.S. dollars at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the period. Purchases and sales of investment securities and items of income and expense are translated on the respective dates of such transactions. Unrealized gains and losses which result from changes in foreign currency exchange rates have been included in "Net change in unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on foreign currency translation" on the Statement of Operations. Net realized foreign currency gains and losses include the effect of changes in exchange rates between trade date and settlement date on investment security transactions, foreign currency transactions and interest and dividends received. The portion of foreign currency gains and losses related to fluctuations in exchange rates between the initial purchase trade date and subsequent sale trade date is included in "Net realized gain (loss) on foreign currency transactions" on the Statement of Operations.

E. DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS:

The Fund will distribute to holders of its Common Shares monthly dividends of all or a portion of its net income after the payment of interest and dividends in connection with the leverage. If the Fund recognizes a long-term capital gain, it will be required to allocate such gain between the Common Shares and Preferred Shares, if any, issued by the Fund in proportion to the total dividends paid for the year. Distributions will automatically be reinvested into additional Common Shares pursuant to the Fund's Dividend Reinvestment Plan unless cash distributions are elected by the shareholder.

Distributions from income and realized capital gains are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These differences are primarily due to differing treatments of income and gains on various investment securities held by the Fund, timing differences and differing characterization of distributions made by the Fund. The ultimate determination of the character of the distributions will be made after the 2007 calendar year-end.

The tax character of distributions paid during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 was as follows:

Distributions paid from:
Ordinary Income .....	$ 22,358,867
Long-Term Capital Gain .....	8,632,693
Return of Capital .....	4,315,438

As of December 31, 2006, the components of distributable earnings on a tax basis were as follows:

Net Unrealized Appreciation .....	$ 22,125,801
-----------------------------------	---------------

F. INCOME TAXES:

The Fund intends to continue to qualify as a regulated investment company by complying with the requirements under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and to distribute substantially all of its net investment income and net realized gains to shareholders. Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal or state income taxes.

In June 2006, Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an interpretation of FASB Statement 109 ("FIN 48") was issued and is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. This Interpretation prescribes a minimum threshold for financial statement recognition of the benefit of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. As of June 30, 2007, management has evaluated the application of FIN 48 to the Fund, and has determined that there is no material impact resulting from the adoption of this Interpretation on the Fund's financial statements.

G. EXPENSES:

The Fund pays all expenses directly related to its operations.

H. ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENT:

In September 2006, Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157 Fair Value Measurements ("SFAS 157") was issued by the FASB and is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. SFAS 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Management is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of SFAS 157 could have on the Fund's financial statement disclosures.

3. INVESTMENT ADVISORY FEE AND OTHER AFFILIATED TRANSACTIONS

First Trust is a limited partnership with one limited partner, Grace Partners of DuPage L.P., and one general partner, The Charger Corporation. First Trust serves as investment advisor to the Fund pursuant to an Investment Management Agreement. First Trust is responsible for the ongoing monitoring of the Fund's investment portfolio, managing the Fund's business affairs and certain administrative services necessary for the management of the Fund. For these services, First Trust is entitled to a monthly fee calculated at an annual rate of 1.00% of the Fund's Managed Assets, the average daily gross asset value of the Fund (which includes the principal amount of borrowings, minus accrued liabilities).

Aberdeen Asset Management Inc. (the "Sub-Advisor") serves as the Fund's sub-advisor and manages the Fund's portfolio subject to First Trust's supervision. The Sub-Advisor receives an annual portfolio management fee calculated at an annual rate of 0.50% of Managed Assets that is paid monthly by First Trust out of its investment advisory fee.

PFPC Inc. ("PFPC"), an indirect, majority-owned subsidiary of The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc., serves as the Fund's Administrator and Transfer Agent in accordance with certain fee arrangements. PFPC Trust Company, also an indirect, majority-owned subsidiary of The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc., serves as the Fund's Custodian in accordance with certain fee arrangements.

Effective January 1, 2007, the Trustees approved a revised compensation plan. Under the revised plan, each Trustee who is not an officer or employee of First Trust, any sub-advisor or any of their affiliates ("Independent Trustees") is paid an annual retainer of $10,000 per investment company for the first 14 investment companies of the First Trust Fund Complex and an annual retainer of $7,500 per investment company of each subsequent investment company added to the First Trust Fund Complex. The annual retainer is allocated equally among each of the investment companies. No additional meeting fees are paid in connection with board or committee meetings.

Additionally, Thomas R. Kadlec is paid $10,000 annually to serve as the Lead Independent Trustee and Niel B. Nielson is paid $5,000 annually to serve as the chairman of the Audit Committee, with such compensation paid by the funds in the First Trust Fund Complex and divided among those funds. Independent Trustees are also reimbursed by the investment companies in the First Trust Fund Complex for travel and out-of-pocket expenses in connection with all meetings. The Trustees adopted the revised plan because the increase in the number of funds in the First Trust Fund Complex had the effect of rapidly increasing their compensation under the previous arrangements. Prior to January 1, 2007, each fund paid each Independent Trustee an annual retainer of $10,000, which included compensation for all board and committee meetings.

4. PURCHASES AND SALES OF SECURITIES

Cost of purchases and proceeds from sales of securities, other than U.S. government obligations and short-term obligations, for the six months ended June 30, 2007, were $244,408,229 and $258,401,259, respectively.

As of June 30, 2007, the aggregate gross unrealized appreciation for all securities in which there was an excess of value over tax cost was $31,676,734 and the aggregate gross unrealized depreciation for all securities in which there was an excess of tax cost over value was $1,741,506.

5. COMMON SHARES

As of June 30, 2007, 17,365,236 of $0.01 par value Common Shares were issued and outstanding. An unlimited number of Common Shares has been authorized for the Fund's Dividend Reinvestment Plan.

6. PREFERRED SHARES OF BENEFICIAL INTEREST

The Fund's Declaration of Trust authorizes the issuance of an unlimited number of preferred shares of beneficial interest, par value $0.01 per share (the "Preferred Shares"), in one or more classes or series, with rights as determined by the Board of Trustees without the approval of Common Shareholders. As of June 30, 2007, no Preferred Shares had been issued.

7. REVOLVING LOAN AGREEMENT

The Fund has entered into a revolving loan agreement among the Fund and certain primary and secondary lenders, which provides for a credit facility to be used as leverage for the Fund. The credit facility provides for a secured line of credit for the Fund where Fund assets are pledged against advances made to the Fund. Under the requirements of the 1940 Act, the Fund, immediately after any such borrowings, must have an "asset coverage" of at least 300% (33-1/3% of the Fund's total assets after borrowings). The total commitment under the facility is up to $165,000,000. For the six months ended June 30, 2007, the average amount outstanding was $133,812,155. The high and low annual interest rates during the six months ended June 30, 2007, were 6.02% and 4.15%, respectively, and the weighted average interest rate was 5.52%. The Fund also pays a commitment fee of 0.325% per year, which is included in "Interest and fees on outstanding loan payable" on the Statement of Operations.

8. CONCENTRATION OF RISK

An investment in the Fund's Common Shares is subject to investment risk, including the possible loss of the entire principal invested. An investment in Common Shares represents an indirect investment in the securities owned by the Fund, which include a global bond portfolio of investment grade and below-investment grade government and corporate debt securities. The value of these securities, like other market investments, may move up or down, sometimes rapidly and unpredictably. Common Shares at any point in time may be worth less than the original investment, even after taking into account the reinvestment of Fund dividends and distributions. Security prices can fluctuate for several reasons including the general condition of the bond market, or when political or economic events affecting the issuers occur.

Non-Investment Grade Securities Risk: The Fund may invest up to 60% of its Managed Assets in non-investment grade securities. Non-investment grade securities are rated below "Baa3" by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., below "BBB-" by Standard & Poor's, or comparably rated by another nationally recognized statistical rating organization or, if unrated, determined by the Sub-Advisor to be of comparable credit quality. Non-investment grade debt instruments are commonly referred to as "high yield" or "junk" bonds, are considered speculative with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal and are susceptible to default or decline in market value due to adverse economic and business developments. The market values for high yield securities tend to be very volatile, and these securities are less liquid than investment grade debt securities.

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On July 20, 2007, the Fund declared a dividend of $0.13 per share to Common Shareholders of record August 3, 2007, payable August 15, 2007.

DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN

Edgar Filing: FIRST TRUST/ABERDEEN GLOBAL OPPORTUNITY INCOME FUND - Form N-CSRS

If your Common Shares are registered directly with the Fund or if you hold your Common Shares with a brokerage firm that participates in the Fund's Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the "Plan"), unless you elect, by written notice to the Fund, to receive cash distributions, all dividends, including any capital gain distributions, on your Common Shares will be automatically reinvested by PFPC Inc. (the "Plan Agent"), in additional Common Shares under the Plan. If you elect to receive cash distributions, you will receive all distributions in cash paid by check mailed directly to you by PFPC Inc., as dividend paying agent.

If you decide to participate in the Plan, the number of Common Shares you will receive will be determined as follows:

- (1) If Common Shares are trading at or above NAV at the time of valuation, the Fund will issue new shares at a price equal to the greater of (i) NAV per Common Share on that date or (ii) 95% of the market price on that date.
- (2) If Common Shares are trading below NAV at the time of valuation, the Plan Agent will receive the dividend or distribution in cash and will purchase Common Shares in the open market, on the NYSE or elsewhere, for the participants' accounts. It is possible that the market price for the Common Shares may increase before the Plan Agent has completed its purchases. Therefore, the average purchase price per share paid by the Plan Agent may exceed the market price at the time of valuation, resulting in the purchase of fewer shares than if the dividend or distribution had been paid in Common Shares issued by the Fund. The Plan Agent will use all dividends and distributions received in cash to purchase Common Shares in the open market within 30 days of the valuation date except where temporary curtailment or suspension of purchases is necessary to comply with federal securities laws. Interest will not be paid on any uninvested cash payments.

You may elect to opt-out of or withdraw from the Plan at any time by giving written notice to the Plan Agent, or by telephone at (800) 331-1710, in accordance with such reasonable requirements as the Plan Agent and Fund may agree upon. If you withdraw or the Plan is terminated, you will receive a certificate for each whole share in your account under the Plan, and you will receive a cash payment for any fraction of a share in your account. If you wish, the Plan Agent will sell your shares and send you the proceeds, minus brokerage commissions.

The Plan Agent maintains all Common Shareholders' accounts in the Plan and gives written confirmation of all transactions in the accounts, including information you may need for tax records. Common Shares in your account will be held by the Plan Agent in non-certificated form. The Plan Agent will forward to each participant any proxy solicitation material and will vote any shares so held only in accordance with proxies returned to the Fund. Any proxy you receive will include all Common Shares you have received under the Plan.

There is no brokerage charge for reinvestment of your dividends or distributions in Common Shares. However, all participants will pay a pro rata share of brokerage commissions incurred by the Plan Agent when it makes open market purchases.

Automatically reinvesting dividends and distributions does not mean that you do not have to pay income taxes due upon receiving dividends and distributions. Capital gains and income are realized, although cash is not received by you. Consult your financial advisor for more information.

If you hold your Common Shares with a brokerage firm that does not participate in the Plan, you will not be able to participate in the Plan and any dividend reinvestment may be effected on different terms than those described above.

The Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan if in the judgment of the Board of Trustees the change is warranted. There is no direct service charge to participants in the Plan; however, the Fund reserves the right to amend the Plan to include a service charge payable by the participants. Additional information about the Plan may be obtained by writing PFPC Inc., 301 Bellevue Parkway, Wilmington, Delaware 19809.

NYSE CERTIFICATION INFORMATION

In accordance with Section 303A-12 of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") Listed Company Manual, the Fund's President has certified to the NYSE that, as of May 10, 2007, he was not aware of any violation by the Fund of NYSE corporate governance listing standards. In addition, the Fund's reports to the SEC on Forms N-CSR and N-Q contain certifications by the Fund's principal executive officer and principal financial officer that relate to the Fund's public disclosure in such reports and are required by Rule 30a-2 under the 1940 Act.

BY-LAW AMENDMENTS

On June 12, 2006 and December 11, 2006, the Board of Trustees of the Fund approved certain changes to the By-Laws of the Fund which may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control of the Fund, including the implementation of a staggered Board of Trustees. These changes were not required to be, and were not, approved by the Fund's shareholders. To receive a copy of the revised By-Laws, investors may call the Fund at (800) 988-5891.

CHANGE IN POLICY

The Fund is currently permitted to engage in currency hedging transactions only for portfolio hedging transactions involving portfolio positions. At a meeting held on February 21, 2007, the Board of Trustees of the Fund adopted a policy to permit the Fund to engage in currency transactions to hedge interest rate and currency risks associated with the Fund's borrowings. This change in policy was not required to be, and was not, approved by the shareholders of the Fund. The new policy may also be changed by the Board of Trustees without shareholder approval. The new policy was effective on April 29, 2007.

ADVISORY AND SUB-ADVISORY AGREEMENTS

The Board of Trustees of First Trust/Aberdeen Global Opportunity Income Fund (the "Fund"), including the Independent Trustees, unanimously approved the continuation of the Investment Management Agreement (the "Advisory Agreement") between the Fund and First Trust Advisors L.P. (the "Advisor") and the Investment Sub-Advisory Agreement (the "Sub-Advisory Agreement" and together with the Advisory Agreement, the "Agreements") among the Fund, the Advisor and Aberdeen Asset Management Inc. (the "Sub-Advisor"), at a meeting held on March 12, 2007. The Board determined that the terms of the Agreements are fair and reasonable and that the Agreements continue to be in the best interests of the Fund.

To reach this determination, the Board considered its duties under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), as well as under the general principles of state law in reviewing and approving advisory contracts; the requirements of the 1940 Act in such matters; the fiduciary duty of investment advisors with respect to advisory agreements and compensation; the standards used by courts in determining whether investment company boards have fulfilled their duties; and the factors to be considered by the Board in voting on such agreements. To assist the Board in its evaluation of the Agreements, the Independent Trustees received a separate report from each of the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor in advance of the Board meeting responding to a request for information from counsel to the Independent Trustees. The reports, among other things, outlined the services provided by the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor (including the relevant personnel responsible for these services and their experience); the advisory and sub-advisory fees for the Fund as compared to fees charged by investment advisors and sub-advisors to comparable funds and as compared to fees charged to other clients of the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor; expenses of the Fund as compared to expense ratios of comparable funds; the nature of expenses incurred in providing services to the Fund and the potential for economies of scale, if any; financial data on the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor; any fall-out benefits to the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor; and information on the Advisor's and the Sub-Advisor's compliance programs. The Independent Trustees also met separately with their independent legal counsel to discuss the information provided by the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor. The Board applied its business judgment to determine whether the arrangements between the Fund and the Advisor and among the Fund, the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor are reasonable business arrangements from the Fund's perspective as well as from the perspective of shareholders.

In reviewing the Agreements, the Board considered the nature, quality and extent of services provided by the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor under the Agreements. With respect to the Advisory Agreement, the Board considered that the Advisor is responsible for the overall management and administration of the Fund, including the oversight of the Sub-Advisor. The Board noted the compliance program that had been developed by the Advisor and considered that the compliance program includes policies and procedures for monitoring the Sub-Advisor's compliance with the 1940 Act and the Fund's investment objectives and policies. With respect to the Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Board received a presentation from representatives of the Sub-Advisor discussing the services that the Sub-Advisor provides to the Fund and how the Sub-Advisor meets the Fund's investment objectives. In light of the information presented and the considerations made, the Board concluded that the nature, quality and extent of services provided to the Fund by the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor under the Agreements have been and are expected to remain satisfactory and that the Sub-Advisor has managed the Fund consistent with its investment objectives and policies.

The Board considered the advisory and sub-advisory fees paid under the Agreements. The Board reviewed data prepared by Lipper Inc. ("LIPPER"), an independent source, showing the management fees and expense ratios of the Fund as compared to the management fees and expense ratios of one peer group selected by Lipper and a second peer group selected by the Advisor. The Board discussed with representatives of the Advisor the differences between the two peer groups and the limitations in creating a relevant peer group for the Fund, including the difficulties in comparing funds using different types of leverage. Based on the information provided, the Board noted that the Fund's management fees were in the fifth quintile of both the Lipper peer group and the Advisor peer group and that the Fund's expense ratio was in the fifth quintile of both the Lipper peer group and the Advisor peer group. The Board also considered the sub-advisory fee rate and how it related to the overall management fee structure of the Fund and noted that the Advisor pays the Sub-Advisor out of the advisory fees it receives from the Fund. Finally, the Board considered the advisory fees paid to the Advisor by similar funds, and noted that the Advisor does not provide advisory services to clients with investment objectives and policies similar to the Fund's other than to another closed-end fund. The Board also considered information provided by the Sub-Advisor as to the fees it charges to other clients.

The Board also considered the Fund's performance for the one- and two-year periods ended December 31, 2006, as applicable, as compared to the performance of a relevant blend of benchmark indices and to a performance universe selected by Lipper. The Board noted that the Fund's performance was in the first quintile of the performance universe for both periods and that the Fund outperformed its benchmark for the one-year period. The Board also considered performance data provided by the Advisor for the one-year and since-inception periods, and considered an analysis prepared by the Advisor on benefits provided by the Fund's leverage. In addition, the Board considered the market price and net asset value performance of the Fund since inception, and compared the Fund's premium/discount to the average and median premium/discount of the Lipper peer group, noting that the Fund's premium/discount was generally indicative of the asset class. The Board concluded that the Fund's performance was satisfactory.

On the basis of all the information provided on the fees, expenses and performance of the Fund, the Board concluded that the advisory and sub-advisory fees were reasonable and appropriate in light of the nature, quality and extent of services provided by the Advisor and Sub-Advisor under the Agreements.

The Board noted that the Advisor has continued to invest in personnel and infrastructure but had not identified any economies of scale realized by the Fund and had indicated that, because the Fund is a closed-end fund that is not issuing more shares other than pursuant to its dividend reinvestment plan, the Advisor believed that any discussion of economies of scale was not meaningful. The Board concluded that the management fee reflects an appropriate level of sharing of any economies of scale. The Board also considered the costs of the services provided and profits realized by the Advisor from serving as investment manager to closed-end funds for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006, as set forth in the materials provided to the Board. The Board noted the inherent limitations in the profitability analysis, and concluded that the Advisor's profitability appeared to be not unreasonable in light of the services provided to the Fund. In

addition, the Board considered and discussed any ancillary benefits derived by the Advisor from its relationship with the Fund and noted that the typical fall-out benefits to the Advisor such as soft dollars are not present. The Board concluded that any other fall-out benefits received by the Advisor or its affiliates would appear to be attenuated.

The Board considered the Sub-Advisor's representation that because it manages the Fund in a similar fashion to other accounts it is able to achieve economies of scale through relationships with brokers, administrative systems and other efficiencies and that while it expects internal costs to rise, it continues to expect to experience the benefits of economies of scale. The Board considered that the sub-advisory fee rate was negotiated at arm's length between the Advisor and the Sub-Advisor, an unaffiliated third party. The Board also considered data provided by the Sub-Advisor as to the profitability of the Sub-Advisory Agreement to the Sub-Advisor. The Board noted the inherent limitations in this profitability analysis and concluded that the profitability analysis for the Advisor was more relevant, although the profitability of the Sub-Advisory Agreement appeared to be not unreasonable in light of the services provided to the Fund. The Board noted that the Sub-Advisor does not maintain any soft-dollar arrangements and that the Sub-Advisor indicated that it does not receive any material fall-out benefits from its relationship to the Fund.

Based on all of the information considered and the conclusions reached, the Board, including the Independent Trustees, determined that the terms of the Agreements continue to be fair and reasonable and that the continuation of the Agreements is in the best interests of the Fund. No single factor was determinative in the Board's analysis.
