RISK FACTORS

Certain statements contained in this prospectus and in other reports the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") contain forward-looking information. In general, forward-looking statements include estimates of future revenues, cash flows, capital expenditures, or other financial items, and assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements reflect management's current expectations regarding future events and use words such as "anticipate", "believe", "expect", "may", "will", and other similar terminology. These statements speak only as of the date they are made and involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. Several factors, many beyond our control, could cause actual results to differ significantly from our expectations. Some of these factors are as follows:

Our ability to attract and retain guests to our restaurants is dependent upon our ability to execute our operating initiatives effectively. If we do not deliver an enjoyable dining experience to our guests they may not return to our restaurants, and our results may be negatively affected.

Changes in economic conditions may impact our guests' discretionary spending. If guests choose not to spend money on dining at our restaurants, our results may be negatively affected.

Our unique advertising and marketing programs are an essential part of our plan to attract and retain guests. If these programs do not continue to be as effective at attracting guests in the future as they have been in the past, our results may be negatively affected.

Many of our restaurants are located in the Midwest portion of the United States. During the first and second fiscal quarters, many restaurants face harsh winter weather conditions, which may make it more difficult for guests to visit our restaurants. If guests are unable to visit our restaurants, our sales and operating results may be negatively affected.

Our associates are essential to the operation of our restaurants and our ability to deliver an enjoyable dining experience to our guests. If we are unable to attract and retain qualified restaurant personnel at a reasonable cost, and if they do not deliver an enjoyable dining experience, our results may be negatively affected.

Our menu offerings include Steakburgers, chicken sandwiches, french fries, and hand-dipped milk shakes. If consumer tastes change, or consumer behavior changes based on publicity or concerns relating to food safety, food-borne illnesses or changes in dietary preferences, and we are unable to meet these changes in demand, our results may be negatively affected.

Our expansion plans are based on identifying opportunities for new restaurants in new and existing markets. Our plans also involve identifying new franchisees and expanding relationships with current franchisees. If the Company and its franchisees are unable to locate suitable sites for new restaurants, negotiate acceptable lease or purchase terms, and meet construction schedules, our expansion plans may be negatively affected.

Many of our associates are paid wages that relate to federal and state minimum wage rates. Any changes in minimum wage rates may significantly increase our operating costs.

Changes in accounting standards promulgated by the SEC and the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board and other authorities may affect our reported financial results.

The foregoing list of important factors is not intended to be all-inclusive as other general market, industry, economic, and political factors may also impact our operations. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this prospectus, as we assume no obligation to update forward-looking statements.

WE FACE SIGNIFICANT COMPETITION ON A NATIONAL AND LOCAL BASIS.

The restaurant business is one of the most intensely competitive industries in the United States, with price, menu offerings, location and service all being significant competitive factors. Our competitors include national, regional and local chains as well as local, owner-operated establishments. There are established competitors with greater financial and other resources in all of our current and proposed future market areas. We face competition for sites on which to locate new restaurants, as well as for personnel and guests. The restaurant business is often affected by changes in consumer tastes and by national, regional and local economic conditions and demographic trends. The performance of individual restaurants may be affected by factors such as traffic patterns, demographic factors, harsh weather conditions, and the type, number and location of competing restaurants. Additional factors that may adversely affect the restaurant industry in general, and our restaurants in particular, are inflation of food, labor and associate benefit costs, and difficulty in attracting qualified management personnel and hourly associates.

GOVERNMENTAL REGULATION AFFECTS OUR OPERATIONS IN A NUMBER OF WAYS.

We are subject to various federal, state and local laws affecting its business. Each of our restaurants is subject to licensing and regulation by a number of governmental authorities, including health and safety and fire agencies in the state and municipality in which the restaurant is located. The development and construction of restaurants is subject to compliance with applicable zoning, land use and environmental regulations. Difficulties in obtaining, or failure to obtain, the required licenses or approvals could delay or prevent the development of a new restaurant in a particular area.

Our restaurant operations are also subject to federal and state minimum wage laws and laws governing such matters as working conditions, child labor, overtime and tip credits. Many of our restaurant associates are paid at rates related to the federal and state minimum wage laws, and accordingly, further increases in the minimum wage would increase our labor costs.

We currently have franchise operations in eight states -- Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina and Tennessee -- and is subject to certain federal and state laws controlling the offering and conduct of our franchise business in those states. In addition, we are subject to franchise registration requirements in several states in which it is now conducting or will conduct its franchise business in the future.

OUR EXPANSION PLANS ARE SUBJECT TO RISKS, INCLUDING LOCATING ATTRACTIVE SITES AND QUALIFIED FRANCHISEES.

We intend to continue to expand our Steak n Shake restaurants through both opening and operating Company-owned Steak n Shake restaurants and franchising additional restaurants with new and current franchisees. Meeting our expansion goal is dependent upon our continued success in addressing factors relevant to our expansion plan. Those factors include, but are not limited to:

- locating available and attractive sites for new restaurants;
- negotiating acceptable purchase or lease terms for restaurant sites;
- availability of adequate financing for our expansion;
- ability to attract qualified franchisees and the ability of franchisees to perform their obligations to us;
- hiring, training and retaining competent managers and other personnel;
- obtaining necessary governmental permits and approvals; and
- suitable economic and business conditions in the markets in which our

restaurants are to be located.

Some of the factors on which the success of our plan depends are not within our control.

WE DEPEND ON OUR KEY PERSONNEL.

We are dependent upon the continued availability of the services of our executive officers. The loss of the services of key personnel could have a material adverse effect on our business.

THE MARKET PRICE OF OUR COMMON STOCK MAY FLUCTUATE SUBSTANTIALLY.

Our quarterly operating results, those of other restaurant companies, changes in general conditions in the economy, the financial markets, natural disasters, terrorist activities, changes in earnings estimates or recommendations by research analysts, or other developments affecting us, our competitors, or the restaurant industry could cause the market price of our common stock to fluctuate substantially. In addition, in recent years the stock market has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations. This volatility has had a significant effect on the market prices of securities issued by many companies for reasons unrelated to the operating performance of these companies.

THE COMPANY

We are primarily engaged in the ownership, operation and franchising of Steak n Shake restaurants through our wholly-owned subsidiaries, Steak n Shake Operations, Inc. and Steak n Shake, L.P. Founded in 1934 in Normal, Illinois, Steak n Shake is one of the oldest restaurant chains in the country. As of April 7, 2004, our fiscal second quarter end, we had 356 Company-owned restaurants and 59 franchised restaurants located in 19 midwestern and southeastern states. Steak n Shake restaurants are generally open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and in addition to our core menu, offer a breakfast menu during breakfast hours. During fiscal 2003, lunch and dinner sales accounted for approximately 36.4% and 44.4% of sales, respectively, while breakfast and late night sales accounted for 7.1% and 12.1% of sales, respectively.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The shares being offered were issued by us to the selling shareholders pursuant to their exercise of stock options granted to them in their capacities as directors pursuant to our Nonemployee Director Stock Option Plans for 1998, 1999, and 2000 (the "Plans"). We will receive none of the proceeds from the sale of the shares being offered. All proceeds from the sale will be paid to the individual selling shareholders.

Neal Gilliatt died while serving as Director Emeritus of the Company in September, 2000. Mr. Gilliatt's options may be exercised by his estate pursuant to the terms of the Plans.

We do not know when or in what amounts the selling shareholders may offer Shares for sale. The selling shareholders may elect not to sell any or all of the shares offered by this prospectus. Because the selling shareholders may offer all or some of the shares pursuant to this offering, and because there are currently no agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to the sale of any of the shares that will be held by the selling shareholders after completion of the offering, we cannot estimate the number of the shares that will be held by the selling shareholders after completion of the offering. However, for purposes of this table, we have assumed that, after completion of Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Indiana Business Corporation Law ("BCL"), the provisions of which govern the registrant, empowers an Indiana corporation to indemnify present and former directors, officers, employees or agents or any person who may have served at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation ("Eligible Persons") against liability incurred in any proceeding, civil or criminal, in which the Eligible Person is made a party by reason of being or having been in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, if the individual acted in good faith and reasonably believed that (a) the individual was acting in the best interests of the corporation, (b) if the challenged action was taken other than in the individual's official capacity as an officer, director, employee or agent, the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests, or (c) if a criminal proceeding, either the individual had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

The BCL further empowers a corporation to pay or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by an Eligible Person in connection with the defense of any such claim including counsel fees, and, unless limited by its Articles of Incorporation, the corporation is required to indemnify an Eligible Person against reasonable expenses if he or she is wholly successful in any such proceeding, on the merits or otherwise. Under certain circumstances, a corporation may pay or reimburse an Eligible Person for reasonable expenses prior to final disposition of the matter. Unless a corporation's Articles of Incorporation otherwise provide, an Eligible Person may apply for indemnification to a court which may order indemnification upon a determination that the Eligible Person is entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances without regard to whether his or her actions satisfied the appropriate standard of conduct.

Edgar Filing: STEAK & SHAKE CO - Form S-3

Before a corporation may indemnify any Eligible Person against liability or reasonable expenses under the BCL, a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to the proceeding must (1) determine that indemnification is permissible in the specific circumstances because an Eligible Person met the requisite standard of conduct, (2) authorize the corporation to indemnify the Eligible Person and (3) if appropriate, evaluate the reasonableness of expenses for which indemnification is sought. If it is not possible to obtain a quorum of uninvolved directors, the foregoing action may be taken by a committee of two or more directors who are not parties to the proceeding, special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors or such a committee, or by the shareholders of the corporation.

In addition to the foregoing, the BCL states that the indemnification it provides shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any provision of the Articles of Incorporation, bylaws, resolution or other authorization adopted, after notice by a majority vote of all the voting shares then issued and outstanding. The BCL also empowers an Indiana corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Eligible Person against any liability asserted against or incurred by him or her in any capacity as such, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have had the power to indemnify him or her against such liability.

The Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the registrant contain provisions pursuant to which the officers and directors of the registrant are entitled to indemnification as a matter of right against expenses and liabilities incurred by them by reason of their having acted in such capacities if such person has been wholly successful in the defense of such claims or acted in good faith in what he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the registrant. Such rights are not exclusive of any other rights of indemnification to which such persons may be entitled by contract or a matter of law.

The registrant maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance, the effect of which is to indemnify the directors and officers of the registrant and its subsidiaries against certain losses caused by errors, misleading statements, wrongful acts, omissions, neglect or breach of duty by them of any matter claimed against them in their capacities as directors or officers.

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) shall not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as counsel to The Steak n Shake Company, an Indiana corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the preparation and filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") of the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-3 (the "Registration Statement") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), registering the offer and sale of up to 53,832 shares (the "Shares") of the Company's common stock, $0.50 stated value, and the related preferred stock purchase rights (the "Rights," and collectively with the Shares, the "Securities") to be sold from time to time by the selling shareholders named therein. The Shares were issued by the Company to the selling shareholders pursuant to the exercise of stock options granted pursuant to the Company's Nonemployee Director Stock Option Plans for 1998, 1999 and 2000 (collectively, the "Plans").

We have examined the Registration Statement, the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Restated By-Laws of the Company, minutes of the proceedings of the Company's Board of Directors authorizing the issuance of the Securities, and such other documents as we have considered necessary. We have also examined a Certificate of Secretary of the Company dated the date hereof (the "Certificate"). In such examination, we have assumed, without independent investigation, the genuineness of all signatures, the legal capacity of all individuals who have executed any of the aforesaid documents, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity with originals of all documents submitted to us as copies (and the authenticity of the originals of such copies), and that all public records reviewed are accurate and complete. As to factual matters, we have relied on the certifications, statements or representations of the Company (including the Certificate) and have not independently verified the matters stated therein.

For purposes of this opinion, we have assumed that the Shares were issued in accordance with the terms of the Plans and any shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued upon exercise of the Rights will be issued in accordance with the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Rights Agreement.

Edgar Filing: STEAK & SHAKE CO - Form S-3

Based upon the foregoing, we are of the opinion that the Securities have been duly authorized and legally issued and are fully paid and nonassessable.

This opinion letter is solely for the use of the Company in connection with the Registration Statement. This opinion may not be relied on by any other person or in any other connection without our prior written approval. This opinion is limited to the matters set forth herein, and no other opinion should be inferred beyond the matters expressly stated.

Our opinion expressed above is limited to the federal law of the United States and the law of the State of Indiana.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion letter as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the reference to us under the heading "Legal Matters" in the prospectus included in the Registration Statement. In giving our consent, we do not thereby admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Baker & Daniels
