Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreements

Socket Mobile, Inc. (the “Company”) reported in a Form 8-K dated January 8, 2014 that it had accepted terms of a revolving credit line with Bridge Bank, National Association to replace a similar agreement with Silicon Valley Bank. The Silicon Valley Bank agreement was extended to February 28, 2014 to facilitate the transfer of the revolving credit line to Bridge Bank. The new bank line was activated and the transfer completed on March 7, 2014.

The Company may borrow up to $2.5 million, of which up to $1.5 million is based on qualified receivables from domestic (U.S. based) customers and up to $1.0 million is based on qualified receivables from international customers. The international portion of the line will include certain accounts receivable guarantees from the EXIM Bank pending final approval from EXIM Bank. The revolving credit line agreement is for a two year period ending February 27, 2016 and contains customary representations, warranties and covenants. The Company’s total borrowings under the line may not exceed 50% of the sum of cash plus qualified receivables. The line is secured by all of the Company’s assets, including intellectual property.

The foregoing description of the revolving credit line with Bridge Bank, National Association does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Business Financing Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
