The Hanover Insurance Group, Inc. (“The Hanover”) announced that Frederick H. Eppinger, its President, Chief Executive Officer and a member of its Board of Directors, has submitted his resignation in such capacities effective on the date of the assumption of the duties and responsibilities of a successor chief executive officer. The Board of Directors accepted Mr. Eppinger’s resignation on September 15, 2015.

In connection with the Board’s acceptance of Mr. Eppinger’s resignation, as well as his willingness to continue to provide transition services as an employee of The Hanover from the effective date of his resignation until June 30, 2016, Mr. Eppinger: (i) will continue to be paid at his current level of compensation through December 31, 2015; (ii) will be entitled to receive total compensation of $500,000 for his services to The Hanover from the period January 1, 2016 through June 30, 2016; (iii) will remain eligible to earn his 2015 annual bonus in the ordinary course consistent with past practices, subject to his remaining employed by the company through the date bonuses are paid for such year and achieving the applicable performance criteria established for such program; and (iv) will remain entitled to vest in the ordinary course in any equity-based awards held by him in accordance with the terms of such awards. In light of the fact that most of any potential benefits under the Company’s Employment Continuity Plan, Mr. Eppinger’s August 14, 2003 offer letter or otherwise, are available only if there is both a change-in-control and a termination of employment related thereto, Mr. Eppinger has relinquished any claim to such benefits.
