Invitation to Shareholders

On behalf of the entire Board of Directors of Methanex Corporation, we would like to extend our personal invitation for you to join us at our Annual General Meeting of shareholders. The meeting will be held at the Vancouver Convention & Exhibition Centre in Vancouver, British Columbia on Thursday, May 22, 2003 at 10:30 a.m.

At the meeting, we will be voting on a number of matters and we hope you will take the time to consider the information dealing with these matters as set out in the accompanying Information Circular. We encourage you to exercise your vote, either at the meeting or by completing and sending in your proxy. Use of the proxy form is explained in the accompanying Information Circular. If you are a non-registered shareholder, you should follow the instructions that you receive from the institution that holds your shares to ensure that your shares get voted at the Meeting in accordance with your wishes.

The meeting will provide you with a forum to learn more about our 2002 performance and hear first-hand our strategy for the future. It will also provide you with an excellent opportunity to meet the Company's Directors and Senior Management and ask them your questions.

We hope that you will attend the Annual General Meeting and we look forward to seeing you there. If you are unable to attend, the meeting will also be webcast live through our website: www.methanex.com.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey M. Lipton
Chairman of the Board

INFORMATION CIRCULAR

Information contained in this Information Circular is given as at March 7, 2003 unless otherwise stated.

PART I VOTING

Solicitation of Proxies

This Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by or on behalf of the management and Board of Directors of Methanex Corporation (the Company) for use at the annual general meeting (the Meeting) of shareholders of the Company to be held at the time and place (including any adjournment thereof) and for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

It is anticipated that this Information Circular and the accompanying Proxy form will be mailed on or about March 28, 2003 to holders of common shares of the Company (Common Shares).

What will be voted on at the Meeting?

Shareholders will be voting on those matters which are described in the accompanying Notice of Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The Notice includes all the matters to be presented at the Meeting that are presently known to management. A simple majority (that is, greater than 50%) of the votes cast, in person or by proxy, will constitute approval of these matters.

Who is entitled to vote?

Only those who are registered as holders of Common Shares (Registered Shareholders) on March 24, 2003 (the Record Date) are entitled to vote at the Meeting or at any adjournment thereof. Each Registered Shareholder has one vote for each Common Share held at the close of business on March 24, 2003. As of March 7, 2003, there were 126,264,364 Common Shares outstanding. As of that date, to the knowledge of the directors and senior officers of the Company, there are no persons, other than NOVA Chemicals Corporation (NOVA), who beneficially own, directly or indirectly, or exercise control or direction over Common Shares carrying more than 10% of the voting rights of the Company. NOVA beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, or exercises control or direction over 46,946,876 Common Shares representing 37.2% of the outstanding Common Shares.

Can I vote Common Shares which I acquired after March 24, 2003?

Unfortunately not. The Canada Business Corporations Act states that a shareholder who acquires shares after the Record Date will not be entitled to vote those shares at the Meeting.

How to vote

If you are a Registered Shareholder, there are two ways in which you can vote your shares. You can either vote in person at the Meeting or you can vote by proxy.

Voting by Proxy

If you do not plan to come to the Meeting, you can have your vote counted by appointing someone who will attend at the Meeting as your proxyholder. In the proxy, you can either direct your proxyholder how you want your shares to be voted or let your proxyholder choose for you. You can always revoke your proxy if you decide to attend the Meeting and wish to vote your shares in person (see Revoking a Proxy on page 2).

Voting in Person

Edgar Filing: METHANEX CORP - Form 6-K

Registered Shareholders who will attend the Meeting and wish to vote their shares in person should not complete a proxy form. Your vote will be taken and counted at the Meeting. Please register with the transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, upon your arrival at the Meeting.

Table of Contents

What if I am not a Registered Shareholder?

Many shareholders are in fact non-registered shareholders. Non-registered shareholders are those whose shares are registered in the name of an intermediary (such as a bank, trust company, securities broker, trustee, custodian, etc). Unless you have previously informed your intermediary that you do not wish to receive material relating to the Meeting, you will receive or have already received from your intermediary either a request for voting instructions or a proxy form. Every intermediary has its own forms and procedures. Non-registered shareholders should follow them carefully to ensure that their Common Shares are voted at the Meeting.

Since the Company does not have access to the names of its non-registered shareholders, if you attend the Meeting, the Company will have no record of your shareholdings or your entitlement to vote unless your nominee has appointed you as proxyholder. Therefore, if you wish to vote in person at the Meeting, insert your own name in the space provided on the voting instructions or proxy to appoint yourself as proxyholder and return it in the envelope provided. Do not otherwise complete the form as your vote will be taken at the Meeting. Please register with the transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, upon arrival at the Meeting.

What is a Proxy?

A proxy is a document that authorizes someone else to attend the Meeting and cast the votes for a Registered Shareholder. Enclosed in this package is a proxy form for the Meeting. Use it or any other legal proxy form to appoint a proxyholder. Your proxy authorizes the proxyholder to vote and otherwise act for you at the Meeting including any continuation after adjournment of the Meeting.

If you vote on the issues listed by marking the appropriate boxes on the proxy form, your shares will be voted as instructed. If you do not mark any boxes, your proxyholder can vote your shares as they consider best.

Appointing a Proxyholder

Your proxyholder is the person you appoint and name on the proxy form to cast your votes for you. You can choose anyone you want to be your proxyholder. It does not have to be another shareholder. Just fill in the person's name in the blank space provided on the enclosed proxy form or by completing any other legal proxy form and delivering it to CIBC Mellon Trust Company within the time hereinafter specified for receipt of proxies.

If you leave the space on the proxy form blank, either Jeffrey M. Lipton or Pierre Choquette, both of whom are named in the form, are appointed to act as your proxyholder. Mr. Lipton and Mr. Choquette are directors of the Company.

For the proxy to be valid, it must be completed, dated and signed by the holder of Common Shares or the holder's attorney authorized in writing and then delivered to the Company's transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, in the envelope provided or by fax to (416) 368-2502 no later than 24 hours prior to the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Completed proxies may also be delivered to the Chairman of the Meeting prior to the start of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

How will my shares be voted if I give my Proxy?

If you have properly filled out, signed and delivered your proxy, then your proxyholder can vote your shares for you at the Meeting. If you have specified on the proxy form how you want to vote on a particular issue (by marking FOR, AGAINST, or WITHHOLD), then your proxyholder must vote your shares accordingly.

If you have not specified how to vote on a particular issue, then your proxyholder can vote your shares as they see fit. However, if you have not specified how to vote on a particular issue and either Mr. Lipton or Mr. Choquette is appointed as proxyholder, your shares will be voted in favour of the particular issue. For more information on these issues, see Part II BUSINESS OF THE MEETING below. If any amendments are proposed to the matters described in the Notice, or if any other matters properly come before the Meeting, your proxyholder may vote your shares as they consider best.

Revoking a Proxy

If you want to revoke your proxy after you have delivered it, you can do so any time before it is used. You or your authorized attorney must clearly state in writing that you want to revoke your proxy and deliver this document by mail to Proxy Department, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, #6 200 Queen's Quay East, Toronto, ON, Canada, M5A 4K9 or by fax to (416) 368-2502, at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Revocations may also be delivered to the Chairman of the Meeting prior to the start of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. If you revoke your proxy and do not replace it with another in the manner provided in Appointing a Proxyholder above, you will be able to vote your shares in person at the Meeting.

Costs of this Solicitation of Proxies

The cost of this solicitation of proxies is borne by the Company. It is expected that the solicitation will be primarily by mail, but proxies may also be solicited personally or by telephone or other means of communication by directors and regular employees of the Company without special compensation. In addition, the Company may retain the services of agents to solicit proxies on behalf of management of the Company. In that event, the Company will compensate any such agents for such services, including reimbursement for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and will indemnify them in respect of certain liabilities which may be incurred by them in performing their services. The Company may also reimburse brokers or other persons holding Common Shares in their names, or in the names of nominees, for their reasonable expenses in sending proxies and proxy material to beneficial owners and obtaining their proxies.

Who counts the votes?

The Company's transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, counts and tabulates the proxies. This is done independently of the Company to preserve the confidentiality in the voting process. Proxies are referred to the Company only in cases where a shareholder clearly intends to communicate with management or when it is necessary to do so to meet the requirements of applicable law.

How do I contact the transfer agent?

If you have any inquiries, the transfer agent, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, can be contacted as follows:

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002 are included in the Annual Report, which has been mailed to shareholders with the Notice of the Meeting and this Information Circular.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The articles of the Company provide that the Company have a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 15 directors. The by-laws of the Company provide that when the articles of the Company provide for a minimum and maximum number of directors, the number of directors within the range may be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. The directors have determined that there should be 10 directors.

The directors of the Company are elected each year at the annual general meeting of the Company and hold office until the next annual general meeting or until their successors are elected or appointed. The persons named in the following table are nominated for election by management. The persons named in the accompanying Proxy, if not expressly directed to the contrary in such Proxy, will vote the Common Shares in respect of which they have been appointed proxyholder in favour of the election of those persons listed below as nominees as directors.

The following table sets out the names of the nominees for election as directors, all other positions within the Company now held by them, their present principal occupations, the date on which each became a director of the Company, the number of Common Shares of the Company beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, or over which control or direction is exercised by each of them and number of Deferred Share Units held by each of them as at March 7, 2003.

RE-APPOINTMENT AND REMUNERATION OF AUDITORS

Management and the directors of the Company recommend the re-appointment of KPMG LLP, Chartered Accountants, Vancouver, as the auditors of the Company to hold office until the termination of the next annual meeting of the Company. As in past years, it is proposed that the remuneration to be paid to the auditors be determined by the directors of the Company.

The persons named in the accompanying Proxy, if not expressly directed to the contrary in such Proxy, will vote the Common Shares in respect of which they have been appointed proxyholder for the re-appointment of KPMG LLP, Chartered Accountants, as the auditors of the Company.

INTEREST OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

Edgar Filing: METHANEX CORP - Form 6-K

None of the directors or senior officers of the Company, no management nominee for election as a director of the Company, none of the persons who have been directors or senior officers of the Company at any time since the beginning of the Company's last completed financial year and no associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing has any material interest, direct or indirect, in any matter to be acted upon at the Meeting other than the election of directors.

PART III CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has responsibility for supervising the management of the business and affairs of the Company. The Board establishes the policies of the Company and monitors and evaluates the Company's strategic direction and retains plenary power for those functions not specifically delegated by it to management. In addition to maintaining the powers required by law or under the by-laws of the Company, the Board approves significant business decisions and corporate plans as well as major transactions such as acquisitions, divestitures, financing and significant capital expenditures. The Board met formally on nine occasions in 2002. The overall Board member attendance rate at these meetings was 94%.

The Chairman of the Board of the Company, Mr. Lipton, is not an employee of the Company and is not involved in the day-to-day management of the Company.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has established five standing Committees, has delegated certain responsibilities to each of those Committees and has also instructed each of them to perform certain advisory functions and make recommendations and report to the Board. In 2002 there existed four standing Committees. In early 2003, the Board divided the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee and established the Human Resources Committee and the Corporate Governance Committee. Except for Mr. Lipton, who is Chairman of the Board, no member of a standing Committee of the Board was during 2002, or is currently, an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

Audit, Finance and Risk Committee

Members: Messrs. Gregson (Chair), Lawrence, Poole and Sweeney

The Audit, Finance and Risk Committee meets with the financial officers of the Company and the independent auditors to review and inquire into matters affecting financial reporting, financial controls and procedures, the system of internal accounting, audit procedures and plans and recommends to the Board the auditors to be appointed. In addition, this Committee reviews and recommends to the Board for approval the annual financial statements, the annual report and certain other documents required by regulatory authorities, and also reviews with management and reports to the Board on the financing plans and objectives of the Company, the risks inherent in the Company's business and risk management programs relating thereto. This Committee is also responsible for reviewing and reporting to the Board on matters relating to the funding and investment of funds of the Company's pension plans. In 2002, this Committee met seven times. The overall Committee member attendance rate at these meetings was 96%.

Corporate Governance Committee

Members: Messrs. Findlay, Lawrence, Lipton, Morton (Chair) and Ms. Wexler

This Committee was established in March 2003 and is responsible for the composition, compensation and governance of the Board of Directors and recommends to the Board nominees for election or appointment as directors. The functions of this Committee also include assessing and enhancing the performance of the Board and maintaining an effective working relationship between the Board and management of the Company. It is also responsible for taking a leadership role in shaping the corporate governance of the Company and developing and recommending to the Board corporate governance principles for the Company. Prior to being established, these responsibilities were included in the mandate of the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee. In 2002, this Committee, as the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee, met three times. The overall Committee member attendance rate at these meetings was 87%.

Human Resources Committee

Members: Messrs. Findlay, Lawrence, Lipton (Chair), Morton and Ms. Wexler

The Human Resources Committee is responsible for reviewing recommendations for the appointment of persons to senior executive positions, succession planning, considering terms of employment including total compensation practices, reviewing the Company's executive development programs, human resource plans and policies, recommending awards under the Company's short-term and long-term incentive plans and matters relating to the administration of the Company's pension plans, other than matters relating to the funding and investment of funds. This Committee also approves the written corporate objectives of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company on an annual basis. In 2002, this Committee, as the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee, met three times. The overall Committee member attendance rate at these meetings was 87%.

Public Policy Committee

Members: Messrs. Lipton and Morton and Ms. Wexler (Chair)

The Public Policy Committee is responsible for reviewing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding policies and practices of the Company on matters relating to political contributions, social investment policy, government relations and public affairs issues. In 2002, this Committee met twice. The overall Committee member attendance rate at these meetings was 100%.

Responsible Care Committee

Members: Messrs. Findlay, Gregson, Pappas and Sweeney (Chair)

The Responsible Care Committee is responsible for reviewing and making recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding matters relating to the environment and occupational health and safety issues, that impact significantly on the Company including ensuring that the Company is carrying out all of its operations in accordance with the principles of Responsible Care®. In 2002, this Committee met twice. The overall Committee member attendance rate at these meetings was 100%.

Statement of Corporate Governance Practices

Corporate governance has become an important public policy issue in North America. Corporate governance means having in place processes and structures which provide proper direction and management of the business and affairs of a company and good corporate governance is critical to a company's effective, efficient and prudent operation. Recently, there have been many regulatory and legal initiatives aimed at improving corporate governance, increasing corporate accountability and enhancing transparency of public company disclosure. The Company's management and Board of Directors actively monitor and, where appropriate, respond to these various regulatory and legal initiatives. These initiatives include the US Sarbanes-Oxley Act, which became law on July 30, 2002. We comply with the provisions of that Act which apply to us as a non-US public company listed on a US stock exchange.

In 1995, The Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) issued a series of guidelines relating to effective corporate governance (Guidelines). In 2002, the Toronto Stock Exchange Joint Committee on Corporate Governance proposed amendments to the Guidelines but these proposals have not yet become effective. The current Guidelines address matters such as the constitution and independence of corporate boards, the functions to be performed by boards and their committees and the effectiveness and education of board members. Our corporate governance practices are consistent with the Toronto Stock Exchange's current Guidelines.

Table of Contents

The following information outlines the Company’s approach to corporate governance with reference to the current Guidelines, as required by the TSX.

TSX Corporate Governance Guidelines	Comment
3. Disclose whether each director is unrelated	Mr. Choquette (President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company) is the only related director.
4. Appoint a committee of directors responsible for proposing new directors and for assessment of directors, composed of a majority of unrelated directors	The Corporate Governance Committee, all of whose members are unrelated and outside directors, recommends suitable candidates for the Board and ensures that qualifications for the Board have been maintained.
5. Implement a process for assessing the effectiveness of the board, its committees and individual directors	The Corporate Governance Committee reviews the effectiveness of the Board and its Committees as well as other corporate governance issues for consideration by the Board. The Chairman of the Board has responsibility to monitor the effectiveness of individual directors.
6. Provide orientation and education programs for new directors	A new director is provided with a written orientation and education package relating to the Company as well as information on the responsibilities and liabilities of directors. In addition, Board members periodically visit plant locations.
7. Consider reducing the size of the board with a view to improving effectiveness	The Corporate Governance Committee conducts an annual review of the size of the Board. The Company currently has ten Board members which it considers appropriate to be effective.
8. Review compensation of directors in light of risks and responsibilities	The Corporate Governance Committee annually reviews and recommends to the Board the remuneration of directors of the Company in light of the risks and responsibilities assumed and external findings concerning competitiveness with comparator companies.
9. Committees should generally be composed of non-management directors and the majority of committee members should be unrelated	All of the Committees of the Board are composed entirely of non-management and unrelated directors.
10. Appoint a committee responsible for determining the company's approach to corporate governance issues	The Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance principles for the Company. These principles are reviewed annually.
11. Define limits to management's responsibilities by developing mandates for:
a. The board	The Board of Directors has responsibility for supervising the management of the business and affairs of the Company and exercises plenary power for those functions not specifically delegated by it to management.
b. The chief executive officer	The Board has approved a written position description for the Chief Executive Officer. The Human Resources Committee annually reviews the corporate objectives which the CEO is responsible for meeting and these objectives are then approved by the Board.

12. Establish procedures to enable the board to function independently of management	The Chairman of the Company is not a member of management and the rest of the Board consists entirely of unrelated and outside directors except for the Chief Executive Officer. The Board has both the authority and opportunity to function independently of management and meets independently of management at its discretion. The independence of the Board is further enabled through the separation of the positions of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The Corporate Governance Committee monitors the relationship between the Board and management.
13. Establish an audit committee with a specifically defined mandate, with all members being outside directors	The Board has established an Audit, Finance and Risk Committee with a defined written mandate that is summarized on page 6. The Committee is comprised exclusively of outside directors and meets regularly with the external auditors without management present. All Committee members are independent as defined in the current Nasdaq Rules.
14. Implement a system to enable individual directors to engage outside advisers, at the company's expense	The Board, a Committee or an individual director may engage outside advisers at the expense of the Company with respect to a decision or action.

PART IV COMPENSATION

DIRECTORS COMPENSATION

During 2002 an annual fee of $40,000 was paid to each non-employee director and an annual fee of $120,000 was paid to the Chairman of the Board. In addition, each such director is paid $2,500 for each Board meeting and each Committee meeting attended and the Chair of a Committee is paid an additional $2,500 for each meeting. Non-employee directors are also entitled to be reimbursed for travel and other expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties and certain non-employee directors who travel cross-country to attend meetings receive a travel fee of $2,500 per trip. In addition, during 2002, each non-employee director was granted options to purchase 15,000 Common Shares at an exercise price of US $6.45 per share (the closing price of the Common Shares on The Toronto Stock Exchange on the day before the date of the grant converted to US dollars using the Bank of Canada's daily noon rate on the day the closing price is established). The options are exercisable over a ten-year period with 50% of the options vesting one year from the date of grant, a further 25% vesting after two years and the final 25% vesting after three years. Commencing in 2003, directors ceased to be granted options but were granted 6,000 Restricted Share Units (RSUs) as part of their compensation. RSUs are more fully described on page 17.

Under the Company's Deferred Share Unit (DSU) Plan (more fully described on page 17), each director elects annually to receive 100%, 50% or 0% of his or her retainer and meeting fees as DSUs. The actual number of DSUs granted to a director is calculated at the end of each quarter by dividing the dollar amount elected to the DSU Plan by the five day average closing price of the Common Shares on the TSX during the last five trading days of that quarter. See table commencing on page 4 for DSUs held by each director. Under the terms of the DSU Plan, Mr. Pappas, having been appointed a director in March 2002, was not eligible to participate in the DSU Plan until 2003.

(1) These annual incentive payments are reported in the fiscal year in which they were earned, not in the year in which they were actually paid. They are paid in cash and/or DSUs in the year following the fiscal year in which they are earned. For more information concerning these annual incentives, refer to "Short-Term Incentive Plan" on page 16.

(2) The amounts shown represent:

For Mr. Choquette: housing allowance (2002 $24,000; 2001 $24,000; 2000 $52,000), tax payments in respect of certain perquisites and other personal benefits made on his behalf (2002 $19,589; 2001 $22,093; 2000 $47,751), auto allowance and other miscellaneous items.

For Mr. Cole: subsidies paid through a housing assistance program (2002 $22,168; 2001 $20,886; 2000 $16,872), tax payments in respect of certain perquisites and other personal benefits made on his behalf (2002 $19,584; 2001 $19,787; 2000 $17,744), auto allowance and other miscellaneous items.

For Mr. Gordon: subsidies paid through a housing assistance program (2002 $23,465; 2001 $24,729; 2000 $17,252), tax payments in respect of certain perquisites and other personal benefits made on his behalf (2002 $20,730; 2001 $23,278; 2000 $18,932), auto allowance and other miscellaneous items.

For Mr. Duffy: subsidies paid through a housing assistance program (2002 $28,875; 2001 $31,128), tax payments in respect of certain perquisites and other personal benefits made on his behalf (2002 $25,297; 2001 $32,256; 2000 $24,865), relocation allowance (2000 $23,100), auto allowance and other miscellaneous items.

Where no amount is stated, the amount does not exceed 25% of the total Other Annual Compensation amount disclosed in the table above. Where no amount is shown for Other Annual Compensation, the total value of perquisites and benefits is less than the lesser of $50,000 and 10% of total annual salary and bonus for the Named Executive Officer.

- (3) Consists of options for Common Shares of the Company granted during the relevant fiscal year.
- (4) The amounts include premiums paid on life insurance and health care, contributions to the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan and pension contributions.
- (5) Mr. Krause receives his compensation in Chilean pesos. His salary and other compensation shown in this table have been converted to Canadian dollars using average foreign exchange rates for the relevant fiscal year except for his annual incentive payment which uses a foreign exchange rate at the date of the Information Circular of the Company following the relevant fiscal year.

(1) The closing price of the Common Shares on the TSX on December 31, 2002 was Cdn $13.30 and was US $8.38 on the Nasdaq National Market.

(2) For the purposes of this table, if the exercise price of any option is denominated in US dollars, such exercise price has been converted to Canadian dollars using the Bank of Canada closing rate of exchange on December 31, 2002.

(3) These proceeds were used by Mr. Choquette to purchase Common Shares and pay tax.

Retirement Plans

Named Executive Officers resident in Canada participate in either the Company's defined benefit or defined contribution retirement plan. Both plans are non-contributory with normal retirement occurring at age 65.

The defined benefit plan provides a retirement income at age 65 for each year of service equal to 1.0% of the 3-year average Canada Pension Plan maximum pensionable earnings, plus 1.6% of the 3-year average salary in excess of this amount for the Named Executive Officer's annual base salary. Benefits at retirement are paid for life, with a 60% spousal benefit payable after the death of the former employee. A number of other factors may influence pension benefits payable under the retirement plan, including age at retirement and whether a Named Executive Officer elects to receive an optional form of payment instead of the normal joint and 60% survivor pension. Retirement benefits are indexed at 75% of the increase in the Consumer Price Index, less 1%, to a maximum increase of 5%.

Table of Contents

All other Named Executive Officers in Canada participate in the defined contribution plan. As a non-resident of Canada, Mr. Krause is not eligible to participate in either of the Canadian retirement plans. Mr. Krause participates in a retirement plan of a subsidiary of the Company.

Termination of Employment and Employment Contracts

The Company has entered into employment agreements with the Named Executive Officers that provide for certain rights in the event of involuntary termination of employment or a change in control.

Mr. Choquette has an employment contract which provides for a termination payment, if his employment is terminated without cause, of an amount equal to 2.5 times his annual base salary and 2.5 times his target annual incentive under the Company's Short-Term Incentive Plan, and compensation for pension and other company benefits that he would have received over a 30-month period. In the event of termination within 24 months following a change of control of the Company, Mr. Choquette is entitled to an amount equal to 2.5 times his annual salary and 2.5 times the average of the last three years' Short-Term Incentive Plan payments made to him, and compensation for pension and other company benefits he would have received over the 30-month period, plus all legal and professional fees and expenses.

Messrs. Krause, Cole, Gordon and Duffy each have an employment contract which provides for a termination payment if such person's employment is terminated without cause of an amount equal to (a) 1.5 times his annual salary; (b) 1.5 times the target Short-Term Incentive Plan payment for that employee; and (c) compensation for pension and other company benefits he would have received over an 18-month period. In the event of termination within 24 months (18 months in the case of Mr. Cole) following a change of control of the Company, each is entitled to an amount equal to (a) 2.0 times his annual salary; (b) 2.0 times the average of the last three years' Short-Term Incentive Plan payments made to that employee (in the case of Mr. Cole, 2.0 times the target Short-Term Incentive Plan payment); and (c) compensation for pension and other company benefits he would have received over a 24-month period, plus all legal and professional fees and expenses.

Composition of the Compensation Committee

The Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors is charged with responsibility for compensation matters in respect of executive officers. The Human Resources Committee consists of five members—Messrs. Findlay, Lawrence, Lipton, Morton and Ms. Wexler. None of the members of the Human Resources Committee (other than Mr. Lipton as Chairman of the Board) is an officer or employee of the Company, has any indebtedness to the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or has any material interest, or any associates or affiliates which have a material interest, direct or indirect, in any actual or proposed transaction in the last financial year which has materially affected or would materially affect the Company.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Human Resources Committee Report on Executive Compensation

As part of its mandate, the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors (in 2002, the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committee) reviews and recommends to the Board of Directors for approval the remuneration of the Company's executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers identified in the Summary Compensation Table above. The Committee obtains independent advice in the form of a market or competitive assessment from consultants specializing in the compensation field with respect to compensation of executive officers. The Committee reviews periodically the levels of compensation for executive officers. The last such competitive assessment was conducted in October 2002 and the results were reviewed with the Committee in November 2002. Based on the results of this assessment, total cash compensation for executive officers was deemed to be competitive. The Committee also obtains the advice and recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer with respect to compensation of the Company's other executive officers.

Executive Compensation Policy

1. Guiding Principles and Objectives

The Company's executive compensation policy is designed to provide competitive compensation to enable the Company to attract and retain high-quality and high-performance executives who will significantly contribute to the Company meeting its strategic business objectives. The Company also believes in the importance of encouraging executives to own Common Shares to more fully align management with the interests of shareholders and focus management's activities on developing and implementing strategies that create and deliver value for shareholders. The Company, since 1998, has had in place stock ownership guidelines for directors and executive officers to promote meaningful Common Share ownership. The guidelines encourage each director to own Common Shares having a value of twice their annual retainer. The guidelines also encourage each executive officer to own Common Shares having a value equal to at least, in the case of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, 5.0 times his annual base salary and Mr. Choquette, holding 613,343 Common Shares as of March 7, 2003, satisfies the share ownership guideline. Each of the other executive officers is encouraged to own Common Shares having a value equal to at least 3.0 times his annual base salary. The target guidelines are intended to be met within a certain number of years from the date that each individual became an executive officer. Certain other management personnel of the Company are also subject to stock ownership guidelines.

The Company has instituted practices within its compensation policy directed at aligning the activities of executive officers with the interests of shareholders. For more information on these practices, refer to Section 5(b) Restricted Share Unit Plan and Section 7 Deferred Share Unit Plan below.

2. Total Compensation

Total compensation for executive officers comprises base salary, short-term incentives, long-term incentives and indirect compensation. Total compensation is established to be competitive in proximity to the 50th percentile of the aggregate compensation for organizations in a reference group of companies selected on the basis of size, industry and that represent the market within which the company competes for leadership talent. Specifically, the reference group of companies is comprised of large North American based chemical, industrial and commodity companies having, where possible, significant international operations.

3. Base Salary

Base salaries for executive officers are paid within salary ranges established for each position based on scope and level of responsibility. Individual salaries within the range are determined by that executive's competence, skill level, and market influences.

4. Short-Term Incentive Plan

The Company's Short-Term Incentive Plan is designed to recognize the contributions of executive officers to the business results of the Company. This plan provides for an annual cash award based on corporate performance using quantifiable financial and operational objectives approved in advance by the Board of Directors and individual performance using specific and pre-agreed objectives. A target award equaling 75% of annual base salary in respect of the Chief Executive Officer and 50% of annual base salary for all other executive officers is dependant upon both individual and corporate performance. This plan provides for an award in excess of the target award if corporate and/or individual performance results exceed the target performance set for the year.

The Short-Term Incentive Plan award requires that personal performance and corporate performance be quantified and weighted for calculation purposes. The corporate component represents 60% of the overall award and is based on shareholder returns and company strategic targets. The personal component represents 40% of the overall award and is based on leadership and business initiatives identified for each executive officer's area of responsibility.

5. Long-Term Incentive Plan

The Long-Term Incentive Plan is designed to align the interests of executive officers with those of shareholders, to focus efforts on improving shareholder value and the Company's long-term financial strength, and to provide an incentive to continue employment with the Company by providing executive officers with the opportunity to acquire an increased financial interest in the Company. The Long-Term Incentive Plan was significantly modified in 2003 with the introduction of the RSU Plan component, described below, which serves to replace stock option grants with a non-dilutive notional grant of shares. The Long-Term Incentive Plan has the following two components:

Table of Contents

(a) Incentive Stock Option Plan

Under the Incentive Stock Option Plan, executive officers are eligible for grants of Company stock options. Options are granted by the Board on the recommendation of the Committee. The number of options granted to each executive officer in any year is related to responsibility level and may be adjusted for individual performance and longer-term potential for upward mobility. The exercise price is set equal to the closing price of the Common Shares on the TSX on the day before the date of the grant and converted to US dollars using the Bank of Canada Daily Noon Rate on the day that the closing price is established. If unexercised, each option expires no later than ten years from the day that the option was granted. Subject to certain limitations contained in the plan, options may be granted upon and subject to such terms, conditions and limitations as the Board may from time to time determine. All currently outstanding options expire, in the ordinary course, ten years after their date of grant.

In 2003, Mr. Choquette will not receive stock options but will receive 100% of the value of his 2003 Long-Term Incentive award in RSUs. All other executive officers may elect to receive 50% of the value of their annual Long-Term Incentive award in the form of stock options. They have all elected not to receive stock options but will receive 100% of the value of their 2003 Long-Term Incentive award in RSUs.

(b) Restricted Share Unit Plan

In March 2003, the Company introduced the Restricted Share Unit (RSU) Plan. RSUs are notional grants of shares. Commencing in 2003, executive officers elect to receive 50% or 100% of the value of their annual Long-Term Incentive award in the form of RSUs. Mr. Choquette and all other executive officers will receive 100% of the value of their 2003 Long-Term Incentive award in RSUs. RSUs granted in 2003 will vest on December 1, 2005. Upon vesting, RSUs are redeemed at a value based on the trading price of the Company's Common Shares. The RSU Plan will be extended to certain other management positions in 2004. RSUs held by a director or employee are considered when determining whether the individual is meeting share ownership guidelines.

6. Indirect Compensation Benefits and Perquisites

Indirect compensation of executive officers includes participation in the retirement plans described above as well as benefits such as extended health and dental care, life insurance and disability benefits, and access to a group retirement savings plan. Executive officers may also participate in the Company's Employee Share Purchase Plan which allows them to regularly contribute up to 15% of base salary into an account in order to purchase Common Shares. The Company contributes into the account an amount of cash equal to one-half of the executive officer's cash contribution to a maximum of 5% of base salary. The combined funds in the account are, on a semi-monthly basis, used to purchase Common Shares on the open market.

7. Deferred Share Unit Plan

To assist directors and executive officers in achieving the stock ownership guidelines, the Board approved the establishment, effective January 1, 1999, of the Company's DSU Plan for directors and executive officers.

Under the DSU Plan, each executive officer may elect annually to receive 100%, 50% or 0% of his Short-Term Incentive Plan award as DSUs. The actual number of DSUs granted to an executive officer is calculated in March of the following calendar year by dividing the dollar amount elected to the DSU Plan, by the average of the five day average closing price of the Common Shares on the TSX, on the last five trading days of each quarter of the preceding calendar year. A DSU account, maintained by the Company, is credited with notional grants of DSUs received by each DSU Plan member. DSUs do not entitle a DSU Plan member to any voting or other shareholder rights.

The value of the DSUs (equivalent to the market price of the underlying Common Shares) are redeemable only when the DSU Plan member's term as a director or employment with the Company ceases or upon death (Termination Time) and a lump sum cash payment therefor, net of any withholdings, is made after the redemption date specified by the DSU Plan member. The redemption date may fall on a date within a period beginning one year before the Termination Time and ending on December 26 of the first calendar year commencing after the Termination Time.

8. Executives Outside Canada

Total compensation policy as it relates to Named Executive Officers employed outside Canada is established with reference to the local market in each country. Reference groups of comparator companies are established with policy benchmarks for salaries and benefits at each level of management. Executive officers employed in countries other than Canada are eligible to participate in the Company's Short-Term Incentive Plan and Long-Term Incentive Plan.

9. Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The basis for determining the Chief Executive Officer's total compensation is targeted to be competitive in proximity to the 50th percentile of a reference group of North American based chemical companies, taking into account the growth, size, global complexity and autonomous characteristics of the Company.

The Chief Executive Officer's salary reflects the incumbent's performance, qualifications and experience. The Chief Executive Officer also participates in the Company's Short-Term Incentive Plan and Long-Term Incentive Plan.

The Short-Term Incentive Plan award requires that personal performance and corporate performance be quantified for calculation purposes and weighted 60% for corporate performance and 40% for personal performance. The corporate component is based on certain strategic targets including the Company's return on capital employed. The personal component is based on a number of measures including the successful execution of strategic initiatives, organizational leadership, and achievement of Responsible Care® objectives. The Chief Executive Officer may receive part or all of his Short-Term Incentive Plan award in the form of DSUs in the manner described in Section 7 above.

The long-term incentives to which the Chief Executive Officer is entitled are described in Section 5 Long-Term Incentive Plan, above.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS LIABILITY INSURANCE

The Company carries insurance which includes coverage for the benefit of the directors and officers of the Company and its subsidiaries arising from any claim or claims made against them, jointly or severally, during the policy period, by reason of any wrongful act, as defined in the policy, in their respective capacities as directors or officers. The policy also insures the Company and its subsidiaries in respect of any amount the Company or any of its subsidiaries is permitted or required to pay to any of its directors or officers as reimbursement for claims made against them in their capacity as a director or officer.

The insurance provides US $125,000,000 coverage, inclusive of costs, charges and expenses, subject in the case of loss by the Company or its subsidiaries to a deductible of US $250,000 (US $1,000,000 for securities claims). There is no deductible in the case of loss by a director or officer. However, the limits of coverage available in respect of any single claim may be less than US $125,000,000 as the insurance is subject to an annual aggregate limit of US $125,000,000.

The cost of this insurance for the current policy year is US $644,625.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS IN THE METHANEX CORPORATION SHARE PURCHASE PLAN FOR EMPLOYEES

Common shares purchased by an employee of the Company under the Methanex Corporation Share Purchase Plan for Employees (ESPP) remain registered in the name of Canada Trust Company as trustee of the ESPP, unless the employee withdraws their shares from the ESPP. Once withdrawn, the shares may either become registered in the name of the employee or an intermediary. (For more information, see Part I VOTING contained in the Information Circular.)

Voting rights attached to ESPP shares which remain registered in the name of Canada Trust Company may be exercised by employees or their attorneys authorized in writing, by indicating on the Voting Instructions form (on reverse) the necessary directions to Canada Trust Company how the ESPP shares are to be voted at the Meeting and returning the Voting Instructions form in the pre-paid envelope or by fax to Canada Trust Company at the fax number indicated below. The ESPP shares will then be voted pursuant to those directions. If no choice is specified for an item, the ESPP shares will be voted in favour of management's propositions. The shares will be voted at the discretion of Canada Trust Company in respect of amendments to management's propositions or such other business as may be properly brought before the Meeting. Only ESPP shares in respect of which a Voting Instructions form has been signed and returned will be voted.

A holder of ESPP shares may revoke his or her directions indicated on the Voting Instructions form at any time by a written document executed by the employee or their attorney duly authorized in writing which is delivered by mail or fax to the Corporate Secretary of the Company, at Suite 1800, 200 Burrard Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6C 3M1 (Fax: 604-661-2602), at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, or delivered to the Chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

The Voting Instructions form is to be used only with respect to ESPP shares. If an employee holds shares outside the ESPP, the employee may vote those shares either in person or by proxy as described in Part I VOTING of the Information Circular.
