Forward-Looking Statements

This Annual Report on Form 40-F and documents incorporated by reference contain forward-looking statements (as such term is defined under the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995) that involve risks and uncertainties. These statements are based on current expectations and estimates about the Company's business and include, among others, statements relating to:

the Company's future performance;

growth of the Company's operations;

growth of the world market for used trucks and equipment;

increases in the number of consignors and bidders participating in the Company's auctions;

the Company's principal operating strengths, competitive advantages, and the appeal of the Company's auctions to buyers and sellers of industrial assets;

the Company's long-term mission to be the world's largest marketplace for commercial and industrial assets;

the Company's people, including its ability to recruit, train, retain and develop the right people to help it achieve its goals;

the Company's places, including: its ability to add the capacity necessary to accommodate its growth; its ability to increase its market share in its core markets and regions and its ability to expand into complimentary market sectors and new geographic markets, including its ability to take advantage of growth opportunities in emerging markets; the acquisition and development of auction facilities and the related impact on its capital expenditures;

the Company's processes, including its M07 initiatives and the effect on its business, results of operations and capital expenditures, particularly its ability to grow revenues faster than operating costs;

the relative percentage of the Company's gross auction proceeds represented by straight commission, guarantee and inventory contracts;

In some cases, forward-looking statements can be identified by terms such as anticipate, believe, could, continue, estimate, expect, intend, may, might, ongoing, plan, potential, predict, project, should, will, would, or the negative of these terms, and similar expressions intended to identify forward-looking statements. The Company's forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. While the Company has not described all potential risks related to its business and owning its common shares, the important factors listed under Risk Factors in the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations attached in Exhibit 3 to this Report on Form 40-F are among those that may affect the Company's performance and could cause actual financial and operational results to differ significantly from the Company's predictions. The Company does not intend to update publicly any forward-looking statements, even if its predictions have been affected by new information, future events or other developments.

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of the principal executive officer and principal financial officer, of the effectiveness of Ritchie Bros.' disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) as of December 31, 2007. Based on this evaluation, the Company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective.

The Company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer do not expect that Ritchie Bros.' disclosure controls and procedures or internal control over financial reporting will prevent all error and fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple mistake or error. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people, or by management override of the control. The design of any system of controls also is based partly on certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions.

Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting for the Company as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. The Company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed under the supervision of the Company's CEO and CFO, and effected by the Company's Board of Directors, management and other personnel, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of the financial statements for external purposes in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and the requirements of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the degree of compliance with policies and procedures may deteriorate.

Management has assessed the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2007. In making this assessment, management used the criteria described in Internal Control - Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO). Based on its assessment under the framework in Internal Control - Integrated Framework, management has concluded that internal control over financial reporting was effective as of December 31, 2007.

Attestation Report of the Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Company's independent registered public accounting firm, KPMG LLP, has audited the Company's internal control over financial reporting, as stated in their report which is attached hereto as part of Exhibit 2.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There has been no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Company's Board of Directors has determined that it has at least one audit committee financial expert serving on its Audit Committee. Ms. Beverley Briscoe has been determined to be such audit committee financial expert and is independent, as that term is defined by the New York Stock Exchange's corporate governance listing standards applicable to the Company for Audit Committee membership. The SEC has indicated that the designation of Ms. Briscoe as an audit committee financial expert does not make Ms. Briscoe an expert for any purpose, impose any duties, obligations or liability on Ms. Briscoe that are greater than those imposed on members of the Audit Committee and Board of Directors who do not carry this designation, or affect the duties, obligations or liability of any other member of the Audit Committee or Board of Directors.

Code of Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the Code of Conduct) that applies to all employees, officers and directors. The Code of Conduct includes, among other things, written standards for the Company's principal executive officer, principal financial officer and principal accounting officer that are required by the SEC for a code of ethics applicable to such officers. The Code of Conduct is available at the Company's internet website, www.rbaction.com, or by telephoning the Company's Corporate Secretary at 604-273-7564. The Company intends to disclose on its website within five days following the date of any such amendment or waiver, any amendment or waiver of the code of ethics portion of its Code of Conduct applicable to these officers that is required by SEC rules or regulations to be disclosed publicly, and to keep such disclosure available on the website for at least a 12-month period.

Principal Accountant Fees And Services

KPMG LLP and predecessor firms have served as Ritchie Bros.' auditing firm since 1974. The aggregate fees billed by KPMG LLP and its affiliates during fiscal 2007 and 2006 are detailed below.

	Fiscal 2007	Fiscal 2006
Audit Fees	$ 1,307,000	$ 1,143,000
Audit-Related Fees	98,000	248,000
Tax Fees	806,000	575,000
All Other Fees
Total Fees	$ 2,211,000	$ 1,966,000

The nature of each category of fees is as follows:

Audit Fees:

Audit fees were paid for professional services rendered by the auditors for the audit and interim reviews of the Company's consolidated financial statements or services provided in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements.

Audit-Related Fees:

Audit-related fees were paid for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements and are not reported under the Audit Fees item above.

Tax Fees:

Tax fees were paid for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning professional services. These services consisted of: tax compliance, including the review of original and amended tax returns; assistance with questions regarding tax audits; assistance in completing routine tax schedules and calculations; and tax planning and advisory services relating to common forms of domestic and international taxation (i.e., income tax, capital tax, Goods and Services Tax and Value Added Tax).

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures:

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of services other than audit services is compatible with maintaining the auditors' independence and has adopted a policy governing the provision of these services. This policy requires the pre-approval by the Audit Committee of all audit and non-audit services provided by the external auditor, other than any de minimus non-audit services allowed by applicable law or regulation. The policy outlines the procedures and the conditions pursuant to which permissible services proposed to be performed by KPMG LLP are pre-approved, provides a general pre-approval for certain permissible services and for subsequent reporting to the Audit Committee, and outlines a list of prohibited services. For fiscal 2007, less than 5% of the fees for the services described above were approved by the Audit Committee pursuant to the de minimus exemption.

All requests for KPMG LLP to provide services that do not require specific approval by the Audit Committee are reported to and documented by the Company's Corporate Secretary. If the proposed services are not covered by a pre-approval and the estimated fees for the proposed engagement are more than CA$5,000, the engagement of KPMG LLP to provide such services requires specific approval by the Audit Committee. Any proposed engagement to provide services that requires specific approval by the Audit Committee pursuant to the terms of the policy is submitted to the Corporate Secretary for presentation to the Audit Committee for its consideration.
