SCHEDULE 13D

This Amendment No. 1 amends the Statement on Schedule 13D, dated October 31, 2006, (the Statement on Schedule 13D), filed by the Reporting Person, a company incorporated under the laws of the Republic of Italy, with respect to the ordinary shares, euro 0.55 par value per share, of Telecom Italia S.p.A., a company incorporated under the laws of the Republic of Italy. Capitalized terms used in this Amendment without definition have the meanings ascribed to them in the Statement on Schedule 13D.

Pirelli & C., Olimpia, Sintonia S.p.A. (a successor company of Edizione Holding) and Sintonia S.A. (formerly known as Edizione Finance) are members of a group with respect to the Telecom Italia Shares. (By virtue of the 2006 Shareholders Agreement, Assicurazioni Generali S.p.A. and the Reporting Person may also be deemed to be members of that group.) This Amendment constitutes a separate filing on Schedule 13D by the Reporting Person in accordance with Rule 13d-1(k)(2) under the Act. The Reporting Person is responsible solely for the information contained in its separate filing.

Items 2, 4 and 7 of the Statement on Schedule 13D are hereby amended and supplemented to add the following:

2. Identity and Background

On December 7, 2006, two members of the board of directors of the Reporting Person, Mr. Roberto Colaninno and Mr. Cesare Geronzi, were convicted in the court of first instance of offenses in connection with the bankruptcy of companies of the Bagaglio/Italcasse group. Mr. Colaninno was convicted in the court of first instance of simple bankruptcy pursuant to Article 217 of the Italian Criminal Code and of fraudulent bankruptcy involving preferential treatment of selected creditors pursuant to Article 216 of the Italian Criminal Code. Mr. Geronzi was convicted in the court of first instance of simple bankruptcy. Both Mr. Colaninno and Mr. Geronzi have appealed their convictions. As required by Italian law, Mr. Colaninno and Mr. Geronzi were suspended from their positions as directors of the Reporting Person at the first board meeting held following the court's decision. Italian law provides that the shareholders, at the next general meeting to be held following such suspension, may resolve either to dismiss the suspended directors or reinstate them to office pending final appeal of their convictions. Accordingly, the shareholders of the Reporting Person, at their general meeting held on January 29, 2007, voted in favor of the reinstatement of Mr. Colaninno and Mr. Geronzi as directors, pending final appeal of their convictions. In addition, a third member of the board, Mr. Gianluigi Gabetti, has been recently suspended from office as director as a result of a decision by the Consob, the Italian financial market authority, to ban him from acting as a company director for six months starting from February 13, 2007. The Consob decision related to Mr. Gabetti's alleged provision of false information to the market in his capacity as chairman of the board of directors of IFIL S.p.A. Mr. Gabetti has commenced administrative and other proceedings in the Italian courts to challenge the ban and, on April 4, 2007, the Court of Appeal of Turin suspended the ban issued by Consob, pending resolutions on the merits.

4. Purpose of Transaction.

On April 10, 2007, upon request by Consob, the Reporting Person issued a press release announcing that it is in exploratory and general discussions with several potential investors with respect to the possible disposal of a majority stake in Olimpia, but that at the present time no indication may be given of what the outcome of such talks might be. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 3.

7. Materials to be Filed as Exhibits.

Exhibit 3: Press Release, dated as of April 10, 2007 Statement about Olimpia.
